RESIGNATION OF DENBY UP FOR SENATE ACTION

Discussions to Be Closed Late Monday; Denver Editor Denies Getting "Hush Money" from Sinclair

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Feb. 9 (AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, who arrived in Cologne from Brussels yesterday, had a long interview today with Hugo Stinnes. Mr. Sinclair will sail for New York on February 12.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Perseus' efforts to force from Frederick G. Bonfils, publisher of the Denver Post, an admission that Henry F. Sinclair had purchased the alliance of his newspaper in connection with the Teapot Dome lease were made today at another dramatic session of the senate oil committee.

Mr. Bonfils was emphatic in his denial, charged his enemies in Denver had inspired the questions, and declared that the contract which Sinclair entered into with the publisher and J. Leo Stack, a Denver oil man, whereby he was to pay them $1,000,000, was in settlement of a liability under contracts which Stack had with Standard Oil subsidiaries whose claims in Teapot Dome Sinclair previously had purchased for $1,000,000.

While the grueling cross-examination of the publisher by the Wisconsin senator proceeded, the senate renewed its debate on the Denby resignation resolution and finally reached an agreement to shut off all discussion at 5 p. m. Monday and begin voting on all pending amendments and finally on the resolution itself. Adoption of the measure in one form or another was forecast.

Rumors Unverified. Simulations of these events at the capital rumors of impending cabinet changes were revived, but they were without any verification. Attorney General Daugherty, whose name frequently has been drawn into the oil discussion on the senate floor, returned from Florida and immediately conferred with President Coolidge.

Upon leaving the White House Mr. Daugherty said the oil lease investigation had entered largely into the discussion with the executive. He denied that he had been requested by the president to resign. He flatly denied he had tendered his resignation, and refused to talk about details of the oil inquiry.

Cabinet Members Confer. Secretary Denby, who had a conference with the president after the cabinet meeting yesterday, was closeted for a long time today with Secretary Weeks, who has been his friend for many years. The news indicated that the senate situation was discussed, but there was no evidence that Mr. Denby had changed his announced determination to remain on the job despite the pending resolution asking that he resign.

By completing the examination of Mr. Bonfils today, the oil committee closed the way to the hearing of McAdoo on Monday with reference to his professional services with the Denby-oil companies. Mr. McAdoo, who is a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, will appear at his own request.

Creal Wants Hearing. Announcement was made today to the committee by Senator William C. Creal, Montana, that George Creal

Immigration Bill Stresses Need of New Legislation

Present Plans Call for Consideration of Johnson Proposal in Lower House After Action on Tax Measure

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Present plans call for the house to consider the Johnson immigration bill as soon as it disposes of the tax measure. Chairman Johnson of the immigration committee today filed a report on the measure, signed by 14 committee members. Dissenting views will be presented by three members.

Pointing out that the present three percent law, based on the 1910 census, expires June 30, next, the report declared there was "immediate and urgent need for enactment of immigration legislation."

"The committee is advised," the report continued, "that the number of aliens desiring to enter the United States is very large. It is reasonable to assume that, despite unfavorable exchange rates, high steamship tariffs and other untoward factors, an immigration of between 1,200,000 and 1,500,000 would have entered the United States during each of the past two years if the three percent law had not barred the way."

Excavation at Tomb of Pharaoh May Be Closed for Season

Unwrapping of King Tut's Mummy May Be Deferred Until Some Time in 1925

LUXOR, Egypt, Feb. 9 (AP)—There is talk of closing this season's excavations at the tomb of the pharaoh Tutankhamen at the end of this month, according to reports reaching here from ministerial circles in Cairo. Howard Carter, returned to Luxor today bringing all of the gear necessary for raising the lid of the sarcophagus and the installation of this tackle was to have started this afternoon. The order was countermanded at the last moment, however, and the tomb remained closed.

If the Cairo reports of stopping work this month are correct, the unwrapping of Tutankhamen's mummy probably will be deferred until sometime in 1925. The order was taken by the Egyptian authorities themselves.

BUTLER URGES VOTING CHANGE

Simplified Machinery of Government and Fewer Elections Most Needed, He Says

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 9 (AP)—A simplified machinery of government, a reduced number of elections and a shorter period of time between the election and the time a man takes office, are necessary to continue democratic rule, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of New York, told the Indiana republican state editorial association at its banquet here last night.

The abuses and dangers of minority rule can only be cured if the majority itself, Dr. Butler said in telling the association that Senator Hubert of Indiana received only 31 per cent of the possible vote in the state at the 1922 election although he was elected.

Senator Brookhart of Iowa and Senator Johnson of California received 28 per cent of the possible votes in their states, said Dr. Butler. Senator La Follette received 28 per cent, Senator Wood of Missouri and Senator Shively of Minnesota 26 per cent and Senator Trammell of Florida only 9 per cent. Not all of them are senators.

Dr. Butler compared the democracies of Great Britain, France, Holland, Switzerland and Canada with that of the United States and said that of all this country is least responsive to public will and the least responsive to dominating public interest.

"By the time a new congress normally meets, the people have forgotten what the last election was all about and are already thinking ahead of its successor," added Dr. Butler.

Approximately $143,000 was withdrawn from the bank in the duration of the run, according to V. D. Snell, cashier. The bank was capitalized at $50,000, with a surplus of $20,000.

PROVIDE LESS CASH IN NAVY APPROPRIATION

Bill Just Reported Carries a Heavy Decrease from Budget Figures and $23,024 Less Than Last Year

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The annual naval appropriation bill, carrying $271,942,867, of which $30,000,000 would be available for completing more than a score of vessels now under construction, was reported today by the house appropriations committee. The total is $4,453,000 less than budget estimates and $23,024 less than the amount allotted the navy by congress a year ago.

The bill provides $117,000,000 for pay, enough to keep the navy at its present strength of 6400 officers and 85,000 enlisted men, during the fiscal year beginning July 1 next. Provision also is made for 1002 officers and 19,500 enlisted men in the marine corps.

For aviation the bill carries $11,500,000 or $57,174 less than last year's appropriation.

The committee explained that it had slashed $410,000 from the budget estimate for aviation on account of a development program recommended at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; Coco Solo, Canal Zone, which had not been authorized by law. Commenting on the proposed polar exploration trip of the dirigible Shenandoah next summer, the report said actual expenses over normal operating cost would approximate $183,000, and that since most of this amount would be met with current appropriations, the committee had not seen fit to interfere in any way with plans for the expedition.

As to new ship construction, the committee said it was without power to authorize expenditures for vessels not yet sanctioned by congress, but cited information it had obtained to the effect that the navy department is committed to a program for building types permissible under the Washington arms conference treaty, which, with the modernizing program already under way, would involve expenditure of approximately $35,000,000 for the next ten years.

Wants Quick Action. Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee, who will report the revenue bill to the house Monday, said after a conference today with Representatives Longworth and Snell and Speaker Gillett that an effort would be made to get the measure through the house within two weeks, the minimum time in which it is considered the bill may be brought to a vote.

Aside from the expected fight over the tax rates, the democrats have

Favor Campaign to Boost Co-operative Marketing Program

Education Along New Lines of Selling Farm Products Provided in Council Plans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The second conference of the national council of farmers' cooperative marketing association held today, after discussing steps for a nation-wide campaign "to sell the movement to America."

It was voted the sense of the meeting that "the press is one of the best mediums for advertising cooperative products," after a resolution to that effect had been advocated by Dan A. Wallace, brother of the secretary of agriculture.

Utilization of motion pictures, radio, newspapers and magazines as channels through which to educate the farmer along cooperative lines was advocated by Samuel H. Maury, director of the Sears-Roebuck agricultural foundation.

INTERIOR BILL IS REPORTED

Appropriation for Idaho Project Reduced in Measure Up for Action in Congress

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The first of the great annual supply measures of the next fiscal year, that for the interior department, was reported today by the senate appropriations committee. It carries a total of $263,484,756, an increase of $1,737,291 over the house bill, but $5,513,575 below the budget bureau's estimate and $34,035,253 under the appropriation for the current fiscal year.

The principal changes made by the senate committee relate to reclamation projects. For the Yuma project in Arizona-California, the house figure of $765,000 is reduced to $515,000, while for the Boise project in Idaho, the reduction is from $1,080,000 to $630,000.

The house proposal of $380,000 for the Minidoka project in Idaho, is increased to $1,045,000, while the $153,000 total for the Nevada project in Nevada, is advanced from $155,000 to $400,000.

The senate committee also increased from $100,000 to $125,000 the proposed appropriations for maintenance and operation of the Alaska railroad.

STATE TROOPS ARE CALLED TO ILLINOIS TOWN

Fifteen Companies of Guardsmen at Scene of Recent Raids; Eleven Held in Connection with Shooting

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9 (AP)—Ten more companies of state militia late today were ordered to Williamson county to augment the five companies already on duty there.

The order was issued by Adjutant General Black following a telegraphic convention with Colonel Albert L. Culbertson, who is charged with the troops at Herrin, and who stated the situation was not as satisfactory as desired.

HERRIN, Ill., Feb. 9 (AP)—Eleven men, including Mayor C. E. Anderson and Hugh Willis, official of the state miners' union and one of the defendants in the Herrin mine massacre, were placed under military arrest here tonight in connection with the death of Constable Caesar Cagle, who was shot last night during the disturbances growing out of the liquor raids in Williamson county.

The arrests were made on warrants sworn out on information furnished by S. Glenn Young, dry worker and one of the leading figures in the recent dry raids in the county. Young said all the men were in the party when Cagle was killed.

These under arrest in addition to Mayor Anderson and Willis are: Jim Davis, John Murray, J. W. Brown, Alvin Thomas, Horrie Byrns and M. J. Trout, Pete Smith, James Johnson and Ora Thomas.

Sheriff George Galligan also has been placed under arrest in connection with Cagle's death.

Martial Law Prevails

Restricted martial law prevails in this city tonight, having been proclaimed by Colonel Albert Culbertson, in charge of state militiamen sent here after disturbances last night between "wet" and "dry" elements.

The militia has taken over the police powers of the city and visitors have been instructed to refrain from entering the city over Sunday and all the men will be permitted to function with civil authorities in charge, Colonel Culbertson said. He added that the martial law would not be proclaimed in the county.

Decision to deny restricted martial law was reached tonight, after Colonel Culbertson had been in communication with Adjutant General Black at Springfield, who ordered the dispatch of additional companies of national guard to the county. Colonel Culbertson said that the situation was not as satisfactory as desired.

COOLIDGE TO GET FIRST PLACE ON STATE BALLOT

CHICAGO, Feb. 9 (AP)—President Coolidge will have first place on the Illinois presidential primary ballot April 8. Coolidge managers were advised today by Secretary of State Louis L. Emerson.

The Coolidge petitions for a place on the ballot were filed yesterday. It was revealed, about an hour before those in behalf of Senator Hiram Johnson.

No democratic presidential petitions were filed yesterday, but the candidates have until March 1 to formally enter the race. William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, is a certain contender in Illinois.

House Rents Jump 80 per cent Over Pre-War Figures

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Rents for low and medium priced houses and apartments throughout the United States now average approximately 80 per cent higher than before the world war, said a statement issued today by the National Industrial conference board. Within the past year rents increased an average of 8 per cent, but between July and November, 1923, this dropped to three per cent.

The board's estimates, the result of a survey made in connection with its investigation of living costs, are based on reports from 166 cities, including a population of 50,000 or more. In 95 cities rents did not change between July and November, last; in 68 they went down, while in 37 rents went down.

With only one exception, eastern cities reported an increase in the July-November interval.

FOLLIES WOMAN GIVES CLUE IN MYSTERY CASE

Stage Girl Informs Detectives of Connecting Link Between Recent Killing and That of Victim's Friend

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—A girl from the Follies tonight disclosed to detectives a link between the Louie Lawson murder of yesterday and the still unsolved mystery of Dorothy King Keenan, slaying a year ago.

"Louie Lawson, the 24-year-old actress, was slain at the Manhattan hotel where she was staying last year in the costly home off Fifth avenue she called 'The Nest'."

"The Dot King murder remained a mystery and that of Lou Lawson ised to develop into one, until today the Follies girl, talking under a pledge that her name be kept secret, disclosed that Dot and Lou had been pals. Her story, not altogether credible already accumulated indicating that the crimes were almost identical in detail, convinced authorities that Dot King and Lou Lawson were slain by the same men or by members of a clique of cabaret habitués whom both girls had known."

The detective's informant also disclosed that the two slain girls, besides being pals, were equally close friends with Hilda Ferguson, a chorus girl who recently has figured in the year-end investigation of the Dot King murder.

Had Information.
"Dot and Lou were together a lot before Dot was murdered," the Follies girl was reported to have told detectives. "I always thought Lou knew much more about Dot's death than she dared tell, and that she could have implicated certain people."

She told of a clique of musical comedy chorus girls, including herself, who had chummed together, associating with the same "gentlemen friends," dancing nightly at chosen Broadway cabarets and entertaining at parties in each other's apartments.

"Lou was friendly with that crowd too," the girl continued. "Most of them are at Palm beach now. There were only three of us left in New York. We met at some prominent hotel almost every afternoon for tea, dancing, and again in some snuggest at night. Now there are only two of us."

Victim of Crooks.
This girl's story was said by detectives who have worked on the Dot King case for a year, to corroborate their evidence that she was only one of the victims of a well-kept organization of crooks who operate in the White Light zone. Members of the gang dress and dance well. They are quick, according to authorities, to note and trail such a clique as that to which Dot King and Lou Lawson are reported to have belonged, appearing often in the most exclusive places, the girls exquisitely gowned, jewelled and beautiful; their companions big and easy-spenders. Eventually these crooks, working in pairs or trios, single out one of the girls, invade her apartment when she is alone, blind, rob, and sometimes kill her. As the Follies girl was reported to have told detectives "the girl seldom squeals. She's afraid to. If they get her jewelry she tells her friends she lost it or 'hooked' it."

Believe Death Was "Slip Up."
It is now believed that Dot King's death was a "slip up"; that her assailants accidentally gave her the killing dose of chloroform; and that the death of Lou Lawson by strangulation yesterday, after she had been gagged and tied down, was similarly unintended by those who robbed her.

Although police said they knew the whereabouts of Gerhard M. Dahl, banker, broker, Brooklyn-Manhattan transit director and close friend of the Lawson girl, reporters were unable to find him today.

U. S. OFFICIALS ARE CRITICIZED

Subordinates in Agriculture Department Charged with Obstructing Market Plan

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—A letter criticizing certain subordinate officials of the department of agriculture for an attitude which was said to be obstructing the co-operative marketing movement in the United States was sent to Secretary Wallace today by the executive committee of the national council of Farmer's Co-operative Marketing associations.

The letter, which was not made public but was said to criticize by name certain officials of the department, was drafted after Secretary Wallace had addressed the national council convention and pledged the support of his department, "within its legitimate scope," to the co-operative movement.

The secretary declared in his address that criticism of the department, most of which he said was unjust, came "not only direct from farmers, who believed that the department was not sympathetic enough with the co-operative plan, but from middlemen and others who attacked the department because it was spending the taxpayers' money to wipe out their business."

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 9 (AP)—Lawrence Stackman, charged by a coroner's jury with having slain Miss Kate Harter in her home here Wednesday night, died in a hospital at Colfax yesterday from bullet wounds inflicted at the same time Miss Harter was killed.

Stackman was accused by his wife, who came here Wednesday from Lewiston, Idaho, with having killed Miss Harter and shot himself while Stackman declared Mrs. Stackman had done the shooting.

Stackman and his wife were estranged and he was keeping company with Miss Harter. It was to warn the girl against receiving her husband's attentions that she came to Pullman. Mrs. Stackman said.

PREMIER HOPES TO PUT EUROPE ON PEACE BASIS

MacDonald Intends Russia to Be Keystone of General Orderly Structure; Rykoff Wants Improvements

LONDON, Feb. 9 (AP)—With the soviet government's acceptance of the British proposals regarding recognition in Premier MacDonald's hands, a solid foundation for the settlement of all Anglo-Russian differences is ready and upon it the laboring premier hopes to erect the superstructure of a general European settlement.

Mr. MacDonald intends Russia to be the keystone of that structure, but he is not so optimistic as to assume the building is "already completed." He knows there are difficulties ahead and that there will be many problems at the conference table.

As an old socialist, Mr. MacDonald is very familiar with the activities of the communist party in Great Britain and will not interrupt their activities as long as it is a British organization, financed with British funds, but he will not tolerate a communist political party in England which is financed from Russia or any other country.

The premier knows just how many communists there are in Great Britain, and he also knows the extent of their legitimate financial resources.

Expert commissions which will deal with the Russian question at the forthcoming London conference are in process of formation at the foreign office.

WANT COOPERATION.

LONDON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The reply of the soviet government to the British recognition, a four hundred word note, which M. Litvinov, the Russian charge d'affaires, handed Premier MacDonald yesterday, is a conventional diplomatic communication, couched in the established terminology of chanceries. After taking cognizance of the contents of the British note the Russian reply states:

"Expressing the will of the second congress of the United States of Soviet Russia, who proclaimed that cooperation between the peoples of the United States of Soviet Russia and Great Britain remained one of the first cares of the government of union, the latter declares its readiness to discuss and settle in friendly spirit and directly or indirectly out of recognition."

SOVIET OUTLINES POLICY.

MOSCOW, Feb. 9 (AP)—Alexis Rykoff, president of the council of commissars, will carry on the policy of the late bolshevik leader, Nikolai Lenin with regard to foreign affairs and also seek to improve Russia's internal condition.

This information was vouchsafed to the Associated Press today by M. Rykoff in the first statement he has made since he was chosen premier in succession of Lenin.

According to Rykoff the soviet never has sought to rule other peoples and desires to maintain peace; but he asserted that Russia must keep up her red army as a weapon of defense.

Explorer Amundsen Home Before Letter Mailed 4 Years Ago

OVER four years after it started from the schooner Maud, then frozen off the coast of Siberia, a letter from Capt. Roald Amundsen arrived a few days ago at the offices of the Washburn Crosby Company in Minneapolis, Minn. The south pole discoverer beat the letter home by two years, and is now preparing a new airplane expedition to the arctic. The letter had been lying for many months in a pouch on the snows of Siberian wastes where a party of Russians at last found it. The Eskimos and their dog teams who set out to deliver it had perished.

The text of the letter said that the two tons of mail in the hold of his ship was in perfect condition after its long stay in the Arctic but contained no reference to Amundsen's own problems or prospects at the time. It was written in 1919.

The letter delivered via the Russian mail, to Amundsen's brother in Dover, England, was simply and trustingly addressed to America as follows: "Gold Medal Flour, Minneapolis, Minn."

Our customers, as a rule, are well to do, even tho' we never DO them!

The other day, in checking over our mailing list, the thought came to us that most of our customers are fairly well-to-do—they own their own homes, their own cars and have money in the bank and nearly all of them are savers.

That's why they trade here—because their needs are covered without uncovering their nest egg.

Remember this the next time you need clothing—you don't have to be well fixed to trade here but you are fixing yourselves to be in clover if you buy everything the same way we sell our merchandise.

Legislation Against Contract Bonus to be Pushed at Sessions of Major League

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Legislation against the bonus new written into baseball contracts and offered either for playing excellence or for games won by pitchers, will be pushed at the midwinter meeting of the National league here next Tuesday, it was revealed today.

Establishment of the bonus was urged by Christy Mathewson, president of the Boston club, at the annual meeting in Chicago last December, but it was opposed by New York and Philadelphia managers. Mathewson will bring up the matter again next week.

Adoption of the 1924 schedule, appointment of the umpire staff by President John Heydler, a report on the league's golden jubilee celebrated in 1923 and a plan to select the most valuable player on each club will be among the more important matters before the meeting.

BOWLING SCHEDULE FOR FIFTEENTH WEEK IS SET

Women's Teams Compete in the Near Future; Scilley and Eika Will Play Return Game with Eika

The fifteenth week of the bowling league starts Monday evening with the following games scheduled: Monday, Troy Laundry and Royal Bakery; Tuesday, Idaho Theatre and News; Wednesday, Golden Rule and Sugar Factory; Thursday, Times and Shoe Market.

On Friday evening the five-back players will hold their regular two-game session with the Yank squad meeting the Glants for the first game and the Co-Cardinals the following. Another feature for Friday will be a return engagement between the undefeated Eika quintet and Scilley's Select Squad.

The women's team has two games in the making, the men teachers' team of the high school has accepted their challenge for a game and the high school girls are also completing organization of a team and have expressed their willingness to meet the original women's team. No definite dates have been set.

LITTLE OLD NEW YORK TO BE AT THE ORPHEUM

A report on the reception given in Chicago to "Little Old New York," the motion picture that will soon be shown at the Orpheum theater here, is as follows:

"'Little Old New York' opened to a record breaking business at Hudson City, Katz' 'Bonsoir' theater, and it has been successful from the very first scene."

It is expected in line every day to see this picture, which has the distinction of being called "the greatest photoplay that has ever played Chicago." Business exceeded by many thousands of dollars that done by "Economics of Women," which heretofore held the house record.

Miss Helen Hamilton of the Chicago Better Films committee, said: "I have seen many outstanding plays in the last ten years and 'Little Old New York' surpasses them all!"

CAST OF NOTABLES IN "PLEASURE MAD."

One of the most promising pictures of the year is "Pleasure Mad," the Reginald Barker picture, which is being shown at the Orpheum on Monday. This is Mr. Barker's third picture for Metro and Louis B. Mayer. The other two were "Hearts Adams" and "The Eternal Struggle," both of which scored immediate success.

Mary Alden, who was recently featured in "The Eagle's Feather," will again appear in her favorite role of a mother, the kind of a role that won her fame in "The Old Nest." Huntley Gordon, famous for his sterling characterization in "The House of Mirth," "The Social Code," will play opposite her.

"Pleasure Mad" was adapted from Blanche Upright's novel, "The Valley of Content." Dealing with the fortunes and misfortunes of a happy family of moderate means which is split up by the affections and indulgence which follow sudden acquisition of wealth, this book has proven one of the most popular novels of the last year.

The Idaho Auto and Supply company will have a first class mechanic on duty every Sunday after 1 p. m.—adv.

REPUBLICANS SET FOR DECISION ON TAX BILL

ed notice they will seek lower normal rates than contained in the committee bill, while many members have declared they will oppose amendments seeking revision of the war excise taxes, many of which already have been repealed. Representative Frear, republican, Wisconsin, has said he will oppose amendments to raise the estate tax and institute a gift tax.

Oppose Income Schedule.
Representative Frear today made a separate report on the revenue bill. Although he voted with the republican committee to report the measure, he made it clear that he would not accept the Mellon income rates. Chairman Green and two other republicans of the committee also voted against the Mellon rates and indicated they would not support the Mellon surtax rate.

In his report Mr. Frear proposed a 50 per cent rate in the normal income bracket rather than the 25 per cent reduction adopted, and asked that the present maximum 50 per cent surtax rate be maintained. This would mean a loss of $184,000,000 in revenue, he estimated, with the loss of $200,000,000 which would result from the Mellon cut in normal taxes and $102,000,000 in surtaxes suggested by the treasury secretary.

It was agreed, however, that a number of other witnesses now in Washington will be examined first. Mr. Crow's request grows out of testimony by E. L. Doherty, that had advanced $100,000 to Crow who was to undertake to prevent the leasing of the oil reserves to republicans after the democratic administration ended.

AMERICA'S PART ATTACK MILNER DISTRICT DEAL TO SET EXAMPLE

United States Influence Great But Exaggerated by Europeans, Says Noted Historian

Influence of the United States is felt in all parts of the world, but its importance is prone to be exaggerated by Europeans, according to Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard university, who spoke Saturday evening before a large Lyceum course audience in the high school auditorium on "The United States and the World's Problems."

Dr. Hart, who is the author of numerous histories and textbooks, was introduced by Superintendent M. C. Mitchell, who congratulated the graduates of the Lyceum course and its patrons on the fact that the sum required for the guarantee of this season's entertainment had been reached.

With clear cut style of speaking and keen humor, Dr. Hart held the interest of his audience throughout.

The historian pointed out specific instances where the influence of the United States is felt, but not recognized, by other nations. The Panama republic in South America is one, he said, while the countries of Liberia and Abyssinia in Africa are others. Where the protectorate of Uncle Sam is felt, he said, but is not openly acknowledged.

Fortunate Dividing Line.

It is extremely fortunate for both the United States and the Mexican republic, Dr. Hart said, that the southern country was annexed to the United States in 1848, as was then suggested. Had that occurred, he said, we would have a condition such as we have on our hands in the Philippine islands at the present day, "with the islands towed to our shores and tied there."

Mexican and United States governments have never agreed, Dr. Hart said, because they are composed of conflicting race elements which would never agree to the same standards. This statement followed the prediction that within a lifetime the countries of Canada and the United States would be one nation, ending with the remark, "I need not say which country the United States will be."

Would Exclude Latin.

"The northwest should register a complaint, and an earnest one on the subject of immigration of Mexican laborers into the farm lands of the northwest," said Dr. Hart. "From 75,000 to 150,000 Mexicans yearly are crossing the border into the United States and this will eventually produce a situation as grave as that of the negro problem ever was."

The capitalists of the United States are largely responsible for the interest and influence maintained by the United States in the case of a great many smaller nations where our capitalists invest money. Then when adverse conditions arise they appeal to the United States for aid and home and country must interfere and the result is the foundation of official interest in the smaller nation. This was the substance of Dr. Hart's remarks regarding our potential interests in the case in which we had, in a sense, overstepped the Monroe doctrine.

See Both Sides

Dr. Hart defended the league of nations, saying "I see no reason why the United States should not join the world league, for it is impossible that the United States should ignore the other nations. But," he said, it is equally true that in case the United States is set upon a plan of taking an active part in the government of the world, they must be prepared to back advice given to Europe on European conditions." He expressed the opinion that the league would not stop a war any more than The Hague Tribunal has prevented six wars since its formation. The chief purpose which the league must serve, he said, is in prevention of war in the future.

In speaking of Bok and his plan of world peace, Dr. Hart stated that he considered Bok the price advertiser, and that if any person wished to get the attention of the millions of readers advertised.

MOTHER DRAWS SENTENCE

Mrs. Nettie Weighall Convicted of Contributing to Daughter's Delinquency, to Appeal from Judgment

Mrs. Nettie Weighall, Twin Falls, in probate court Saturday pleaded guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of her daughters, aged 11 and 13 years, by causing them to attend dances in a Mexican resort. She was sentenced by Judge O. P. Duvall to pay a fine of $25 and costs. The fine was not paid, but Mrs. Weighall stated later that she had retained an attorney and would appeal to the district court from the judgment of the probate court.

The complaint in the case was signed by John H. Aull, probation officer. Records of the probate court show that Mrs. Weighall about a year ago was convicted of the offense to which she Saturday pleaded guilty, and that sentence of $25 fine at that time was suspended.

THE AUTOMOBILE

The remarkable volume of sales of automobiles, not only in Twin Falls
but over the whole country, supplies
the target for a good many comments, some of them of a highly critical kind.

The willingness of people to buy automobiles is frequently pointed to as a partial explanation of their unwillingness to buy other goods and many a business man secretly if not openly nurses the thought that if it were not for the auto his own particular branch of trade would just naturally come into its own and his profits take their old place along with those of a few years ago.

Such reasoning overlooks a tremendously big point and one which may reasonably be expected to cut a far greater figure with the average buyer than the average business man in other lines might suppose.

Of all the products sold today, the automobile has come "cheapest," to getting back to pre-war prices.

Today a car of almost any make can be bought for a very little more than its selling price during the pre-war period; perhaps in some cases the price is just as low as it ever was in the history of car manufacture. Certainly the reductions of the past two years or so have been greater in the case of automobiles than in almost any other line of staple or necessary merchandise.

It is just possible that people buy automobiles in part at least from the conviction that they are getting full value for the money they spend.

TAX EXEMPTION UP TO CONGRESS

Everybody seems to agree that tax-exempt securities ought to be prohibited, but nobody does anything about it.
Congress has assumed that a constitutional amendment is needed for that purpose, and that road is a long one.

Many high authorities, however, have maintained all along that Congress has power now to enact the desired legislation, under the authority of the existing income tax amendment. The latest advocate of such action is Edward S. Corwin, professor of jurisprudence at Princeton University. In an article in the National Municipal Review he asks Congress to "cease hiding behind a mistaken opinion of constitutional law" and boldly use its present powers under the Sixteenth Amendment.

This would be a short step to take in connection with the tax reduction measure, to put the whole federal taxation business on a sounder basis. Why not try it? At the worst, the Supreme Court could do no more than declare the law unconstitutional, and there is no assurance that it would do that.

Fifteen Years Ago in Twin Falls

From News Files, Feb. 12, 1909

On Friday last was recorded the deed whereby I. B. Perrine acquired sole title to the Hotel Perrine property in Twin Falls, at present the most valuable holding in the city. The deal was made early in the spring but was not concluded until recently when the stockholders of the Twin Falls Investment company held a meeting here.
The Hotel Perrine was erected by the Twin Falls Investment company at a cost of over $80,000. It was originally called the Hotel Kimberly, but because of the naming of the town of Kimberly the name of the hotel was changed to avoid confusion. At the time it was built the Hotel Perrine was supposed to be far ahead of the town. In fact the knackers said it would never be built and used to point with scorn to the foundation and say the company never intended to build a hotel and it was only a bluff to sell town lots.
However, the hotel was built as

THE WHITE WOLF
—By DADDY

CHAPTER I.

The Performing Dogs.
SNARLY WOLF was shut up in the cellar, where he had been trapped
by Jack.

When he first found the door shut
upon him, Snarly Wolf was furious with anger. He had expected to make a fine dinner off Jack, and had chuk-led to himself, thinking how cleverly he had tricked the lad. And then suddenly Snarly Wolf had found himself both tricked and trapped.

After a time Snarly Wolf began to get scared. He wondered what was going to happen to him. He knew that he was a bad wolf and that bad wolves usually got punished in a way that fitted their badness. So Snarly Wolf shut around the cellar trying in vain to find a way out.

While Snarly Wolf was seeking to escape, he heard Jack and Daddy Dog bring Janet home. Then he heard much fussing upstairs, while Janet's husk mother was talking to her. He was comfortable as he lay in his Wolf howl in the dark cellar.

Finally Snarly Wolf began to see his wife, which was to him, that time he was snatched by his right arm and dressed at being caught in a trap.

"I came into this cellar through a door and I ought to be able to get out through that same door," thought he. "The door may be locked, but I have sharp teeth, and perhaps I can saw a hole through it."

So Snarly Wolf began to try his teeth on the door. And soon he found that the door was old and weak. His sharp fangs tore great chunks out of it.
He quickly opened a hole through which he could see.

As Snarly Wolf peered out, he saw a curious sight. A pair of dogs, battered like ponies, trotted into the yard drawing a sled, on which was seated a boy. Snarly Wolf quit his gnawing to watch the dogs and boy.

"Hello, Janet," cried the boy.
He was none other than Janet the Scout.
He heard you had hurt your foot, so I brought my trained dogs to amuse you."

—A lot of fine tricks.

At that, there was a scrambling and pushing above Snarly Wolf's head, as Jack moved Janet over to the window where she could look out.

Then the Scout pitched the dogs and then he put them through a lot of fine tricks. He had them sit up and beg, walk on their hind legs, skitter, and then, heads roll over, jump through hoops, pretend to say their prayers, play soldier, walk lame and do other stunts.

As the dogs did these tricks Janet clapped her hands in delight and children from the village gathered around to see the show.

Snarly Wolf's mouth watered when he saw all the plump children so near him.

"Waa-ah! How foolish those dogs are not to eat those plump children," growled he. "I wish I had a chance like that."

As Snarly Wolf thought that an evil plot popped into his head.
"If I get out of here why can't I pretend to be a tame dog instead of a wolf?" thought he. "I can easily do all those dog tricks. I'll pretend to be a trained dog, and when the children gather around me I'll pick out the sweetest looking and gobble her up."

(Now Snarly Wolf tries to explain his plan will be told in the next chapter.)

"Again!" he said. His memory of all the unpleasant occurrences in his life
brought about by Stanford Gorman, from the days at Yale down through his marriage till today, rolled back over him. That was one thing always that would stand out clear and real before his usually somewhat jumbled mind.

"What shall we do to him?" he asked, dully.
"Sit down," suggested Jasper Haig.
"Have a drink." An invitation not refused, leading—always to a certain stimulation of memory and old anger—to the yet personal hatred of a hard-drinking man!

"Again!" repeated Hank Rutherford, hoarsely. "For fifty cents I'd kill him
on general principles."
"No—no! Hardly that!" said Jasper Haig, depressingly.

Simple Home Treatment for Sore Throat

Raw, Sore, Inflamed
Throats Can Be Greatly Relieved By Use of this Vaporizing Salve.

Here is a simple yet effective method to treat a sore throat. Gargle with warm salt water three times daily. Also swallow slowly every few hours a teaspoonful of Vicks.

At night apply Vicks over the throat and upper chest, rubbing well in. Then spread on thickly and cover with a warm flannel cloth.

The body heat releases the ingredients
—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Juniper Tar, etc.—in the form of vapors and these vapors, inhaled all night long, go directly to the affected parts.

At the same time Vicks is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin like a liniment or plaster drawing out the soreness and pain.

Vicks is equally good for hoarseness, tonsillitis, head and chest colds, and for the croupy colds of children.

Look underneath, too

NO matter how proud you may be of the appearance of your car—how careful you are to keep it washed and polished—remember that "beauty is only skin-deep."

This winter, and along into early spring, especially after you have traveled through stormy weather or over muddy roads, look underneath, too. Proper attention to chassis parts—springs, spring shackles, brake-rods and linings, steering arms, the underside of fenders, and other units exposed to the road will add much to the life and performance of your car. Ice and frozen mud, particularly, should be promptly removed.

Lubrication of universal, transmission and differential should be checked up and properly attended to, even more often than in summer. The wear on these parts is perhaps greater in winter than at any other time of the year. If heavy oil or grease acts sluggish, guard against trouble by using a lighter grade.

The only worthwhile test of gasoline

Is one that will definitely indicate its range of volatility, the proportion of its low, intermediate and higher boiling-point fractions.
The distillation method is employed in such a test, and on the results are based the U. S. Government specifications for gasoline.
Gasoline that meets these specifications is properly termed balanced gasoline—the most efficient, economical fuel for the modern motor.
Year in and year out—winter and summer—CONOCO measures up rigidly to these standards. In every sense of the word, CONOCO is balanced gasoline—delivering full power at lowest cost per mile.

SHEPHERD SAYS FALLS PROJECT IN GOOD SHAPE

Reservoir District Head Leaves
Washington After Senate Committee Recommends
$665,000 Appropriation

Satisfaction with the present outlook in the national capital for the American Falls reservoir project was expressed by H. E. Shepherd, president of the American Falls reservoir district directorate, in a message received Saturday at the district's offices here stating that he was leaving Washington expected to arrive in Shoshone next Monday.

Indian Lands Still Key.
Mr. Shepherd's message was received after receipt of word here that the senate appropriations committee Friday had amended the interior department bill by increasing the total appropriation for the Minidoka irrigation project to $1,045,000, with the understanding that $665,000 of this amount shall be expended on the American Falls reservoir. In a letter of explanation, however, the committee retained the restrictive language adopted by the house of representatives in the appropriation, which provided that no money shall be expended on the dam until the government has acquired title to the land on which the dam is to be built. Mr. Shepherd stated that the reservoir is completed.

DISTRICT COURT JURY GIVEN WEEK'S VACATION

Upon completion Saturday afternoon of the trial of Jose Argudo and Frank Guillen, manager and employee of a local Mexican resort, who were convicted of illegal possession of liquor, Judge W. A. Babcock excused the jury for one week, directing members of the panel to appear in court again Monday, February 18, for which date remaining cases on the criminal docket were reset for trial.

The remaining cases included that of H. B. Lee, Frank Bara and John Haras and Harry McMillan, charged with illegal possession, and L. M. Van Eaton, an appeal from judgment of the probate court on conviction of reckless driving while intoxicated.

The case of Fred Brandes, Payette, charged with second degree burglary in connection with attempted larceny last December of the Twin Falls Vinegar and Cider Works, in which a jury during the present term of court failed to reach agreement on a verdict, was continued for the term on motion of defense counsel with the consent of the prosecuting attorney.

Snow Follows Rain in Twin Falls Territory

Four days of rain in the Twin Falls area was followed Saturday by snow which continued through the day and until late last night. Saturday's contribution brought the precipitation record for the five day spell up to .51 one-hundredths of an inch, according to the government weather observer's station here. Snowfall Saturday was measured at six-tenths of an inch and precipitation at eight one-hundredths of an inch.

Temperature Saturday was slightly lower than the previous days of the wet period, with maximum at 45 above and minimum at 30 above.

WIFE ALLEGES NON-SUPPORT.

Alleging failure on the part of her husband to provide for his wife and children for more than a year past, Mrs. Clara Schiffman instituted suit in district court here Saturday for divorce from William C. Schiffman, to whom, according to the bill of particulars, she was married in Twin Falls, July 23, 1917. She asks also for the custody of two children, a son, five, and daughter, three. An adjustment has been made of the property. The action was brought through Stephen and North, attorneys.

State Hires Teams to Help Autoists Over Buggy Road

Commissioner Hall Takes Action to Relieve Situation on State Highway

BOISE, Feb. 9.—The autoists had been charged $5 a car for being pulled through a bad place in the road near the west end of the pavement a short distance from Piler, was the report made today to the Idaho Automobile association.

The matter was taken up with the state highway department with a request that, if necessary, teams be maintained there for free service. Commissioner Hall assured the association everything possible would be done to protect autoists from unjust charges, and that four teams would be stationed at that point to assist them.

Drivers and teams in the employ of the state highway department were stationed Saturday at the bad place in the state highway west of Piler to assist autoists, according to report made to the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, through which a request had been made to the state department for relief in the situation existing there.

LIQUOR CHARGE PINNED ON TWO

Manager and Employee of Mexican Resort Found Guilty of Illegal Possession

Jose Argudo and Frank Guillen, managers and employees of a local Mexican resort, who were convicted of illegal possession of liquor, were sentenced Saturday by Judge W. A. Babcock to serve a half year in the county jail. The verdict was rendered after a trial that lasted little more than a half day. Judge W. A. Babcock will pronounce judgment on the verdict next Friday.

The defendants were charged with illegal possession on November 20 last, of a gallon of whiskey, which officers testified they discovered in a sort of corridor at the rear of a Mexican resort on Second avenue south. Argudo was manager and Guillen, an employee of the place. Argudo was absent at the time of the raid, which was made by members of the sheriff's force and a police officer.

Defendants denied knowledge that the liquor was on the premises and that it was taken from the place from the rear and was frequented by numerous persons. The defendants were represented by N. Larson, while the case for the prosecution was conducted by Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor.

NEBEL TO ASK NEW TRIAL

Joe Nebel, Outlaw, Nevada, who was convicted Friday by a jury in district court here of kidnapping 11-year-old Virginia Darling of Rogerson, will ask new trial, according to statement Saturday by his attorney, W. P. Guthrie.

Nebel on Saturday asked and was granted postponement of pronouncement of judgment on the verdict to Friday next. Judge W. A. Babcock, in granting the request, increased the amount of bond, and Nebel was released from custody Saturday evening when he furnished $1250 cash bond.

Under Idaho law Nebel, when he was convicted, became liable to punishment by imprisonment in the state prison for term of from one to 25 years.
