OF BLIZZARDS

More than 20 Persons Killed,
100 Injured, and Property Loss at Huge Figure as Storm Sweeps Middle West

CHICAGO, March 29 (AP)—March proved to roar out of the middle west like the proverbial lion tonight, following general storms of last night and today extending from the Mississippi valley which cost upwards of a score of lives, more than 100 injuries and property damage estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

More rain, probably turning to snow, was forecast for sections of the middle west tonight while the upper Ohio valley faced the danger of a flood.

Nearly Tornado

The storm in various sections assumed the proportions of a tornado and elsewhere manifested itself by driving snow and hail. High winds with falling temperatures marked the storm.

Damage was widespread wherever the storm struck. In southeastern Missouri livestock valued at thousands of dollars was killed while three little towns in Kentucky were reported to be totally destroyed by wind. Damage to crops was feared in some sections of South Dakota and Minnesota because of the low temperature.

In the northwest blizzards, sleet and snow with sub-freezing temperatures contrasted with the thunderstorms and the flood conditions further south. Train service to the northwest was delayed and many trains arriving in Chicago from the west were late.

In Chicago blizzards struck a skyscraper, knocking a big tank sky to the street during a hail storm driven by a 45-mile an hour wind.

DAKOTA HIT

OMAHA, March 29 (AP)—Southeastern South Dakota, isolated by a storm which crippled the telephone system, the whole eastern half of the state today was brought into touch with the outside world again shortly after noon when the Associated Press began broadcasting news from stations at Omsah and Norfolk, Nebraska.

The sleet and windstorm which swept the eastern half of the state last night did damage estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

Reports tonight from Aberdeen said northern South Dakota "has been swept by a northwest wind of blizzard proportions, and Pierce reported eight inches of snow, Mitchell, Huron and Yankton reported that the storm was continuing and the temperature falling.

BLIZZARD RAGING

ST. PAUL, March 29 (AP)—Buried under a record fall of snow, Minneapolis and St. Paul fought desperately tonight to open rail and vehicle communication paralyzed for nearly 15 hours.

Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana and parts of Wisconsin felt the grasp of the worst blizzard of the season's record of unprecedented effect in the Twin Cities and vicinity.

Rail traffic was seriously crippled at a standstill in many sections—while wire communication suffered severely. Stranded, many small cities and towns being completely isolated.

Street car traffic was at an absolute standstill all day.

At Blomberg, N. D., three and one-half inches of snow fell, while Grand Forks, N. D., was outside the blizzard, reporting a minimum temperature of 24 degrees.

In northern Wisconsin, Superior reported the worst blizzard of the year. A 60-mile gale drove the snow into huge drifts and caused almost complete suspension of business.

American Fliers

Coolidge, Weeks and Army Air Man Wish World Fliers Good Luck; President Recalls Advancement of Transportation

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Messages from President Coolidge, Secretary Weeks and Major General Patrick, chief of the army's air service, to the army's around the world fliers at Fanning wishing them luck were telegraphed tonight to Lieutenant T. J. Koenig, commanding the Sand Point Airplane, for delivery to the fliers.

"More than four hundred years ago," President Coolidge said, "men first circumnavigated the world. Many years were required in which many hardships were endured and extreme vicissitudes of fortune encountered. Now men travel around the earth by land and water in twenty-eight days. You are going to demonstrate the practicability of making such a voyage by air. Before another four hundred years this may be the safest and most comfortable way. Your countrymen will watch your progress with hope and record your success with pride."

Total sales of automobile trucks and motor wagons in February for the entire country totaled $29,278,000, a decrease of 29.5 per cent from the previous month and an increase of 25 per cent compared with a year ago.

CATTLE PLAGUE
SPREADS AGAIN

Three More Packing Plants at Los Angeles Quarantined;
Loss Now Over $6,000,000

LOS ANGELES, March 29 (AP)—Outbreaks of the foot and mouth disease in three additional Los Angeles packing plants and two stockyards were reported in a statement issued tonight by the state department of agriculture.

Nearly 1000 head have been destroyed during the past few weeks in an effort to eradicate the disease.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29 (AP)—One small extension of the foot and mouth disease was reported to the state department of agriculture today from the district near Merced. The field force there have been strengthened by 12 additional federal experts and the California Development association at a meeting in Stockton put its resources at the disposal of the federal and state agriculturalists fighting the epidemic.

G. H. Hecke of the state department of agriculture, told the development association that in addition to the cost of $200,000 already imposed by measures so far taken to end the infection, that estimates are that losses to livestock, horticultural and allied industries in the state have reached $3,000,000 in the southern part of the state and a larger amount in the north.

W. L. Levers, state accountant, has reported the total number of animals lost in the San Francisco bay region to March 22, was 14,534, made up of 6424 cattle, 7024 hogs, 20 sheep and 10 goats. In the Merced district, the loss has reached about 7532 cattle, 118 hogs, 151 sheep and three goats.

Official Hangman of Great Britain Quits
After Years on Job

Gives No Reason for Resignation; Raised Poultry and Became Chicken-Hearted

LONDON, March 29 (AP)—John Ellis, the official hangman of Great Britain, has resigned his job, but has not given any reason. For over 25 years he has held the position, and dozens of criminals, notorious and otherwise, passed through his hands in their death agony, whom were Crippen, Roger Casement and Edith Thompson, the last woman executed in England.

His fee for dispatching a criminal was 60 shillings, and another 50 shillings for "good conduct." The latter amount was paid in consideration of it that he was forbidden to stay at a public house near the scene of an execution and earn a commission for attracting customers as was the executioners' privilege in former years.

Ellis is a breeder of poultry and it is said that he is so devoted to his birds that he was a friend to wring the necks of those he wants to kill.

JAPAN WILL MAKE TARGETS OF CONDEMNED BATTLESHIPS

TOKIO, March 29 (AP)—Hulls of the battle craft condemned in consequence of the Washington naval treaty will be used as objects for target practice. The old battleship Yamato will be a target in April for a new triplane bomber recently completed by the navy. Two thousand pound bombs will be used.

A few weeks later the battleships Aki and Satsuma, on which the first stages of scrapping has been completed, will be used to test the effectiveness of the 16-inch guns of the superdreadnoughts Nagato and Matsuyama.

WRITES BIRTHDAY LETTER

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—President Coolidge stopped work for a while today to write a birthday letter to his father, John G. Coolidge, who on Monday at his home at Plymouth, Vermont, will celebrate his seventy-ninth birthday.

The president's father is expected to come to Washington during the week to visit his son for the first time in the White House.

ARGUE BILL TO ABOLISH RAIL
LABOR BOARD

End Committee Hearing on Plan for Substitute to Adjustment Organization; Participants Fail to Agree

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Hearing upon the bill proposing abolishment of the railroad labor board and substitution of the national adjustment boards empowered to handle separately controversies dealing with each particular craft were completed today by the sub-committee of the senate interstate commerce committee, headed by Senator Culliver, republican, Michigan. McNamara, would not produce a report which would be made by the full committee to which the sub-committee's findings must go.

Representatives of railway labor unions, headed by Donald G. Richberg, their counsel, were heard at the concluding session after the appearance of several officials of the Association of Railway Executives.

Employees Object.

Employees found it hard, Mr. Richberg said, to reconcile the support given by the rail managers to the railroad labor board with their condemnation of that body after it had rendered decisions favorable to the workers.

Mr. Richberg characterized the railroad labor board as "a creation of the railroads," declaring it had been set up at their behest. This statement was contradicted by Alfred P. Thom, representing the executives' association, who told the committee the board had been established by "committees of congress without public hearings and without any expressions on our part."

"But you are now supporting it," asked Senator Culliver.

"Yes, we feel that it has functioned well and should be kept," the union representatives asserted; that the "impotence" of the board had been finally determined when the United States supreme court held that its decisions were "merely expressions of opinion," and had no legal weight.

Reported; Relief Under Way
and Money Coming In

ANALFI, Italy, March 29 (AP)—Landslides continue to terrify the Analfi region in the Gulf of Salerno.

Two new severe movements down the mountainsides to the sea occurred today a half mile from Analfi, making necessary the evacuation of a number of houses and an orphan asylum.

The relief work is as well organized that those in the danger zone were moved with little inconvenience. Large sums of money are pouring in for relief work.

FRANCE FACING
OLD PROBLEMS

Foreign and Internal Policies
of New Government Indicate Slight Change

PARIS, March 29 (AP)—The foreign and internal policies of the new Poincare government will be similar in their essential lines to those of the old cabinet.

This was the unequivocal assurance given by the various ministers at the close of the second cabinet council of the day, which adjourned at 8 o'clock tonight.

Although no official announcement to this effect was made at the Quai d'Orsay, it was learned that Premier Poincare informed his new colleagues there would be no change in policy, reaffirming his will to maintain intact the Ruhr policy inaugurated 15 months ago. It was along these lines that the premier asked his new collaborators to grant him their confidence.

The premier informed the cabinet that he would have the ministerial declaration ready to submit to them at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon; the document to be approved definitely in the council of ministers, which will assemble an hour later under the chairmanship of President Millerand.

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—A move of Russian orthodox priests in this country to secede from the Russian orthodox church of Russia and form an independent organization under Protestant Episcopal auspices, is under way, it was learned today.

A. P. OPERATOR STICKS TO HIS POST; SEVERAL IN NEED OF FOOD

CUMBERLAND, Md., March 29 (AP)—The most devastating flood in the history of Cumberland and this section of the Potomac valley was sweeping the region tonight. As the flood waters of Wills creek and the river raced through the city streets, unconfirmed reports of casualties here and in nearby villages were circulated. But all lines of communication were affected and efforts to verify rumors were fruitless.

WARSAW, March 29 (AP)—The flood in Poland is reported as still threatening. Twenty-four villages in the Warsaw district are under water. Many cattle have been lost and the damage is estimated to be very great. The river Vistula continues to rise.

MADRID, March 29 (AP)—Floods are causing heavy damage in various sections of Spain. The city of Valladolid, capital of the province of the same name, and 100 miles northwest of Madrid, is inundated by the waters of the Esgueva river. Troops have been mobilized to remove the inhabitants. Similar conditions are reported at Toledo.

GOODING COLLEGE WINS

POCATELLO, March 29 (AP)—First honors in the three sections of the Southern Idaho contest and reading contests held at the Idaho Technical Institute here last night went to the College of Idaho, Gooding, and the Idaho Technical Institute. The College of Idaho with first place in oratory placed high enough in the other events to win the first honors. Gooding won the humorous contest and placed in the other contests high enough to take second place in the contest as a whole.

Autos Left in Streets

The rise of the waters here was so rapid that automobiles were abandoned on the streets and residents fled from their homes with no thought of personal belongings. Observers on the river front reported that the Potomac was closing with debris and merchandise, and that a number of houses had been swept away.

A few men ventured out in boats, but their efforts to rescue those marooned were of no avail. The current caught their boats and swirled them against buildings, forcing the men to take refuge with those they sought to rescue.

Food was at a premium in the office buildings. An Associated Press operator at his post in a newspaper office during the afternoon reported that the first floor had been flooded. He continued to read the news and early in the evening said, "I'm all set for the night." He explained that fellow sufferers in the railroad building across the street had provided some sandwiches by means of a rope tossed across the street.

CHILDREN DROWN

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Three children were drowned at Connelville, near here, late today when their makeshift raft was caught in the swollen current of Indian creek and carried down stream. A fourth child saved himself by jumping.

Cash Raised for Poverty-Stricken 14-Year-Old Girl by Magistrate After Defendant Tells Story of Poverty

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—A 14-year-old girl arose in district court today when the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Gerardi was called to answer a "harmless" charge for non-payment of rent. A small boy clung to her hand.

"Are you Mrs. Elizabeth Gerardi?" asked Magistrate Gennaro.

"She wasn't," she said, "Mary Gerardi. Her mother died last year, and her father had been dead two years, and she was mother to three small children and a sister."

"Where were you born?" asked the judge.

"I was born in Italy," she said, "and I came to New York when I was 10 years old. I have been here ever since."

"When Magistrate Gennaro asked her how she supported herself, she said she had no money and no one to help her."

"She was a very poor girl," said the judge, "and she was very brave. I will give her $10.00 to help her get on her feet."

"Thank you, your honor," she said, "and I will try to be a good girl."

"You will," said the judge, "and I will be watching you."

ACTION STARTS IN COMMITTEE TO CUT TAXES

Levy on Theatre Admission
Charges of 50 Cents or Less
Would Be Repealed; Favor
Mellon Board of Appeals

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The senate finance committee today agreed to the repeal of the ten per cent admission tax on tickets selling for $1.50 and over, as voted by the house, next approved with some modification the proposed board of tax appeals.

The admission tax to theaters and entertainments was the first of the revenue schedules in the revenue bill, aside from the income tax, taken up by the committee. Further study of the estimates and probably surplus available for tax reduction will be made next week before completing the various schedules. Chairman Snook, has invited Secretary Mellon to appear before the committee in this connection Tuesday.

Walsh Plan Lost.

A motion today by Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, to double the admission tax on tickets selling for $1.50 and over, was defeated. Secretary Mellon had recommended repeal of this tax entirely which he estimated would have reduced revenue about $30,000,000 annually.

The proposed reduction is estimated to cut down receipts from admissions about $33,000,000.

Chairman Snook repeated today in referring to the treasury estimates that the revenue bill as passed by the house would bring about a considerable treasury deficit. This would have to be remedied, he declared, through raising the miscellaneous and excise tax. It was knocked out by the senate finance committee in favor of the Mellon schedule.

Attacks Estimates.

In this connection, Representative Frear, republican insurgent, Wisconsin, assailed the estimates of Chairman Snook both on the revenue and soldier bonus bills today on the floor of the house.

Mr. Frear praised Representative Longworth of Ohio, the republican leader, and defended the latter's compromise tax rate schedule which was adopted by the house after the republican insurgents had swung from the democratic plan to its support. It was knocked out by the senate finance committee in favor of the Mellon schedule.

BERGDOLL DENIES RUMOR

EDMUND, Germany, March 29 (AP)—Counting that the charge of desertion against him is illegal inasmuch as he never was sworn in or wore the uniform of the United States army, Graver Cleveland Bergdollar made emphatic denial today of the report that he was preparing to return to the United States and the rumors that he contemplated embarking at Hamburg this week.

MENTION BORAH FOR HIGH PLACE

President Has Many Under Consideration for Successor
to H. M. Daugherty

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Turning to consideration of a successor of Harry M. Daugherty as attorney general, President Coolidge set about determining the type of man he will seek.

The president expects to have this worked out in his mind by Monday and then he will turn to the list of those he has noted down since it became evident to him that the portfolio would have to be filled sooner or later.

The general requirements that Mr. Coolidge will demand are that the man be one in whom the country will have confidence and that he have an unquestioned knowledge of law and a capacity for administration. In seeking toward more detailed qualifications consulted today with some of his closest advisers and Judge Frederick H. Crane of the New York court of appeals.

The list of those to which the president probably will go in seeking an attorney general to meet the requirements determined upon is large. While House officials refused to give any inkling as to those on the list, from many sources it was learned that it included Secretary Hughes, Senator Borah of Idaho, Harlan F. Stone of New York, Chief Justice Arthur P. Sutherland of Michigan and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

Received from additional data today from the army and navy regarding the number of veterans entitled to the bonus in an effort to determine the probable cost of the measure. This study will be completed also early next week, Mr. Snoot said.

The News is read by the permanent reading classes.

DEPLORES OUTBURSTS OF BOURBONS AGAINST G. O. P.

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Herbert C. Pell, Jr., chairman of the democratic state committee, in an address before the national democratic club today, deplored "hysterical outbursts against all republicans for the misdeeds of a few in high places."

The republican party was 90 per cent honest, he said.

Mr. Pell, however, criticized President Coolidge for delaying the prosecution of the men guilty in the oil scandal, and accused the leaders of the republican party of doing nothing to expose the "rottenness in their own ranks."

The work of the democratic political workers," Mr. Pell said, "is the comparatively easy job of sitting pretty and letting things take their course. The republican party has kind of quailed us with every issue and reason we need for victory. It has supplied us with better grounds than we could ever dare hope for by exposing its own weakness."

DEATH REPORT IS DENIED

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Alvarez Costilla, Washington representative of the Mexican revolutionary movement, announced the receipt by wireless tonight of a message from Adolfo de la Huerta at Puebla, state of Tehuacan, on the isthmus of Tehuacan, branding as false reports of his death and denying that anything unusual had happened to him.

LAWYERS WIN
BY TWO PINS

Teachers Lose Out in Championship Match by Small Margin; Bailey Features

Saturday evening the lawyer-teacher championship bowling contest was brought to a close when Merritt's pedagogues lost by two pins to the forces of the law.

Bailey, supported from the regular league, was the big gun of the evening with a high total of 559 followed closely by Porter, another barrister and member of the regular league, who took the maples for 543.

With the exception of these two scores no one came close to the 500 total.

Varied Style.—The two teams displayed a varied style of attack. The lawyers started strong with an 802 game and gradually cut down as the teachers improved. In fact, the bell is so prevalent that the teachers would have scored 800 if an extra game had been played.

Saturday's game concludes a most active season for the two teams who have battled at various times throughout the season under the banners of Law and Order.

Double Tournament Monday.—Following the banquet Monday evening at 8:30 in the Rogers hotel the doubles tournament will start with the first set of eight players, followed at 9:15 by the second set of eight. On Tuesday the remaining 16 contestants will enter. In all 32 men have signed up for the tournament representing 16 teams.

The singles match is to be played with 20 entries starting Wednesday evening and continuing through Thursday when the prizes will be awarded for both titles.

All of the contestants are to be run on a handicap basis with the ten men standing high in the averages starting at scratch down to a maximum handicap of 15 pins per game for the holders of the basement positions.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

In its photoplay version of P. Marion Crawford's novel, "In the Palace of the King," which will be the attraction at the Orpheum theater for two days beginning Monday, Goldwyn has a dramatic and spectacular production of great importance. It is worthy to rank among the finest pictures of the year because of the tenseness of its central dramatic situations, the naturalness with which it has been directed and acted, the largeness and majesty of its sets and the beauty of its photography.

This novel is one of the most successful of a long line of romances written by this "American novelist," who spent most of his life in Europe.

CHANCEY DODGES FULLIGITY

Lon Chaney, featured player in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which opens at the Idaho theater Monday, is rated as one of the few famous screen actors who occasionally shy at being interviewed.

But when a writer for a nationally known magazine recently succeeded in getting Chaney to comment he found that the actor's remarks were notable for their utmost sincerity and that his words carry conviction because of the utter lack of affectation.

A COMPARISON

When the people of Boise made up their minds that a main line connection would be a good thing for the City they subscribed a sum of money in excess of four hundred thousand dollars to be expended in the acquiring of necessary rights of way and the earring for of other expenses in connection with the building of the road.

Boise, when the road is completed,
will be on the main line of the Oregon Short Line. She will receive free if any benefits over and above those already enjoyed as far as train service is concerned. But the Main Line connection was worth the sum mentioned, in the opinion of the people of Boise.

It seems pretty well established that if the people of Twin Falls care to incur a further expense of some thirty thousand dollars, in addition to the twenty-five thousand dollars already spent on the project, Twin Falls, too, may have a main line connection on a transcontinental railroad. Certainly she will have an outlet for her products in the direction of California which is nearly four hundred miles shorter than the present haul, with all the advantages which accompany a decrease in mileage.

In the light of the fact that the people of Boise were willing to spend four hundred thousand dollars for improved railroad facilities, of theoretical rather than practical value, does it not seem that the Twin Falls Country could afford to spend a great deal more than the sum required for the very real and actual benefits of the proposed line from Rogerson to Wells?

THE IMMIGRATION PUZZLE

Congress is having trouble again with immigration legislation. It is really amazing how that body, starting out hopefully several years ago to provide a "permanent immigration law," embodying a permanent policy, has been unable as yet to produce anything more than temporary measures and makeshift methods.

If any lasting principle has been developed in such legislation, it is that of restricting numbers. Congress and public seem pretty well agreed about that. There is no likelihood, for some decades at least, of returning to the unrestricted immigration of pre-war years. Percentages may rise or fall, and quotas may be based on this or that census or determined by some other standard, but Uncle Sam will keep control of the flood-gates.

Yet this, as thoughtful citizens know, is not enough. Nearly every one realizes that the question of quality is no less important than the question of numbers, and there should be developed some practical method of selecting our foreign citizenship material
by individual merit.

Unfortunately congress does not seem yet in a mood to do this necessary piece of work, but devotes nearly all of its immigration efforts to mere numerical problems, with an eye on the "foreign vote" in the coming election.
It might be better politics, as well as better statesmanship, to grapple with the problem boldly and honestly, eliminating the present administrative evils resulting from an imperfect law and arranging to select foreign candidates for American citizenship with at least as much discretion
as anybody would use in selecting men for jobs.

SCOFFLAWS AND SUCH

First we had the outlandish word
"scofflaw," gained by a Massachusetts man in a prize competition inspired by a prize leader, as a term of reproach for one who drinks contraband liquor. Next, by a natural reaction, we got the word "spigot-bigot," produced in a similar competition of "wets" and coined, oddly enough, by a motherly old lady in New York. It refers, as the reader probably knows, to a prohibitionist. Now a third invention of the sort appears, "hang-bug," by which a Connecticut woman was one hundred dollars and more or less famed. This lovely word is intended to fit "all persons advocating restriction of various rights and privileges." It is a sort of "bigot" term given a more extensive application, and was chosen from thirty thousand offerings.

All of these words are supposed to be appropriate epithets, meant to scotch, sear and scold the persons in whom they are applied. They are propaganda of a new and curious kind, bringing to bear on broad moral issues the same smiting power of the old word that is used so effectively today in commercial advertising. What will be their effect it is hard to say.
No one seems to take any of these terms seriously yet they win publicity and gain currency and may have a considerable effect.

How far is this thing to be carried? Are we going to have similar competitions in politics, religion, education and other controversial fields,
seeking to boil every disputed policy or system of thought down to one word which can be broadcast instead of argument?

That may be effective, in a way.
It may get certain things done more quickly. But it will hardly promote clear thinking or encourage the acquisition of a good vocabulary.

CHAPTER I.

The Vanished Apple.

JACK was walking along the street cutting an apple. He was not holding the apple very tightly and of a sudden it fell from his hand and rolled through the mud. It came to a stop against the fence, but it was all quadrant.

Jack looked at it in dismay.
"It was a dandy good apple," said
he, regretfully.

"Never mind," said Janet, "the birds will get it."
Indeed the birds already were racing for the fallen apple. They did not mind a little mud. In that they were not like tidy children.

Blue Jay got there first. Instead of pecking at the apple, he whirled around with his back to it, facing the other birds. "That is my apple," he cried.

"Cheese! Cheese! I saw it first," chirped Cocky Robin.

"No did I," said the other.
Martha Robin, Bobby Blue Bird, Jenny
Wren, Brown Thrasher and Purple

Against the Fence.

the fence, and in turn Brown
Thrasher, Martha Robin and Purple
Martin made the mysterious trip out at a time. And while each was gone, the apple kept bubbling about. It seemed to be growing smaller. Jack and Janet noticed this, but Blue Jay didn't.
His back was to the apple.

Purple Martin, the last to go over the fence, was gone only a moment,
when Jack and Janet saw the apple vanish. It went right out of sight.

Only a hole was left in the hole in the fence behind where the apple had been.

Blue Jay whirled around. His mouth opened in astonishment. His eyes nearly popped from his head when he saw the apple had vanished. He bent low and looked through the hole in the fence. But he saw nothing. If he had looked high above the fence he might have seen Purple Martin darting away with something in his beak.

Blue Jay whirled to where the birds had been facing him. The birds were not there. They were up in a tree.

"Say! Say! That is a fine trick to play," scolded Blue Jay. He knew where the apple had gone. The other birds had eaten it through the hole in the fence.

"Cheese! Cheese! Cheese! It surely was a fine trick to play," laughed the other birds. "And it was a good apple, too."

Jack and Janet joined in the laugh
as greedily Blue Jay turned and shone fairly away. Blue Jay had got just what he deserved for being selfish.

An Open Letter
to the Public

Greetings:

Joe-K Says:

I want all of you folks to believe me when I say that I am not mixed up in the Teapot Dome scandal, but I do pledge guilty to being a republican. There was a time when I would rare back on my two hind heels, burst into song and sing the praises of the G. O. P. But that is all changed now—But—I am still for our great President Calvin Coolidge and every other 100 per cent American.
When great men like Secretary Denby quit under fire, Senator Wheeler and his investigating committee; take the word of an ex-bandit and fall for his bunk of what he knows of—and heard from. Men who have passed out to the great beyond and the financier and character assassin, Vandalslop, claims he is still a republican, notwithstanding the fact that all true Americans know that he has thrown in with a bunch of I. W. W. and war slack-ers. I quit and feel that there is still hope for me. So I plead guilty to the crime of attempted extortion. In that I advertised prices of admission—"THE HUNCHBACK
OF NOTRE DAME" at 55c and 85c for matinees and 55c and $1.10 for evening shows. But I have a darn good alibi as follows: My contract with the Universal Film Company calls for 75c, $1.00 and $1.50 (plus tax) admission prices (and what the film company says about admission prices on "THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME" goes). But! (don't that word BUT make a lot of difference) on the arrival of the manager of "THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME" we talked over admission prices and I am pleased to announce to the theatregoing public of Twin Falls that we have succeeded in getting the prices cut for "THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME" and the following admission prices will prevail
during the Twin Falls engagement (starting Monday):
Matinees 55c, reserved seats 85c; evenings 85c, reserved seats $1.10. I did not put on a poor mouth, nor did I claim we the citizens of Twin Falls were broke, but (there's that BUT again) I admit that we were a "little bent" for the time being. You follow me, don't you? We all are the gainer. So come a runnin' to see "THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME." That's all for this time.

Yours merrily,

Joe-K—Manager

Session of Daugherty Committee Called for Monday to Determine Life of Probe; Way Clear to End Charges

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—One more public session of the senate Daugherty investigation committee was held today, but an executive session of its members was called for Monday to consider the question of the committee's duration and direction. The senate members of the committee, described yesterday's resignation, of the attorney general was that a way had been opened for curtailing if not concluding the flow of charges which has run through the proceedings.

A general charge that the "department of justice is functioning as an aid to crooked," made to Mr. Daugherty by H. F. Seaf, a former special investigator in government employ, as he resigned in April, 1922, and a hint of another $100,000 whiskey "deal,"

were the high spots in today's public hearing. W. J. Burns, head of the bureau of investigation, who had been summoned to appear with his files for the day, was excused to wait on the committee's executive session Monday.

Question Settled.
The question of access to the department's files, which the committee sought from Mr. Daugherty and which he refused, was settled for the time being by its decision to grant the request of Acting Attorney General Beck that the matter be left open until a new head of the department takes office.

Seaf's story, which had wide ramifications, indicated that he had been "blackballed" in attempting to bring about prosecutions for alleged airplane frauds. Going to Thomas B. Felder, a friend of Mr. Daugherty, with his former attorney general was arranged at which he presented general and extensive charges as to non-prosecution of frauds against the government.

Charge Dropped.
The matter was dropped, he added,
although Felder wrote him a letter threatening him "a retainer in the Boesch Magazine case." This case he asserted, involved a concern "seized by the alien property custodian during the war and sold for a grossly inadequate sum to Martin P. Kearns, identified as a friend of A. Mitchell Palmer, the alien property custodian."

Hardblower and Weeks, a Boston
banking firm from which, Senator

Jones, republican, Washington, put in Secretary of War Weeks, "retired some years ago," was named as being a factor in the magno concern sale
and reorganization.

Paid In Cash.
Nicholas Cimino, a New York restaurant man, told of interceding "with Howard Manning, a friend of Mr.
Daugherty, in an endeavor to obtain appointments, but specifically and repeatedly denied suggestions that money had been passed. He did assist two New York stenographers, whom he named as "Pico" and "Moore," to obtain contracts for reporting federal court proceedings, and collected later from Pico "between $1000 and $1500,"
as "reimbursement of expenses."

SURVEY SHOWS LITTLE CHANGE IN RAIL COSTS

Expenses Incident to Freight Transportation Vary Only Slightly with Light Effect on Industry, Experts Say

CHICAGO, March 29 (AP)—Cost of hauling freight in the United States has undergone little change in the last 40 years, according to a survey just completed by the Research Council of the National Transportation Institute, comparing freight rates with wholesale prices since 1867. While the costs of basic commodities have undergone wide fluctuations, the survey points out, the cost of freight transportation has jogged along close to the base level, apparently having little effect on prices or on the changes in industrial costs.

"Prices in the United States have gone through two major movements in the last 55 years," the survey discloses. "From the late sixties to 1897 the trend of prices was steadily downward, with the exception of brief rallies in 1872, 1880, 1888 and 1903. After the 1921 depression prices rose until April 1923. The price level at the beginning of 1924 stands somewhat above the price level of 1890."

"From 1867 to 1897 freight rates and prices fell together. Freight rates remained at the depression level until 1917, a period of 20 years, while prices were rising. When freight rates began to rise in 1918 they did not rise as fast or as far as prices. Since 1921 freight rates again have fallen."

The Research Council, taking 1885 as 100, both for freight rates and wholesale prices, shows the highest point for freight rates in 1907 at 190.4. Wholesale prices then stood at 197. Lowest mark for freight was 72.7 in 1910 and in 1917, at the beginning of which year wholesale prices stood at 148, then shot up to 297. High water mark for wholesale prices was in 1920 with 253, at which time freight rates were 104.1.

"High mark for freight rates in the post-war period was 126 in 1921, but it quickly dropped to 116 in 1922, and now is at 110. The big spread between freight rates and wholesale costs began in 1899 and has widened ever since, so that, according to the charted figures, freight rates have only exerted a minor influence in determining the course of wholesale prices. Strict regulation of railroad rates during a bare subsistence basis, while industrial production has been free to go after profits, is reflected in these figures."

FRANCE EXPORTS 28,261 AUTOS
PARIS, March 29 (AP)—During 1924 there were exported from France 28,261 motor cars valued at 730,237,000 francs and there were imported 8109 cars for which French buyers had to pay 577,775,000 francs.

The higher value relatively of the exported cars over the imported ones was due to the value of the franc as compared to the dollar and sterling. Most of the imported cars came from the United States and England.

"Mrs. Scott has bravely run the gauntlet of her sorrows. Now there is a new look in her face. She is a black-eyed, dark-haired, energetic, capable woman of forty with cheeks as red as a ripe strawberry. Solomon calls her 'middle sized' but she seems to be large enough to fill his eye. He shows her great deference and chooses his words with particular care when he speaks to her. Of late he has taken to singing. She and the boy seem to have stirred the depths in him and curious things are coming up to the surface—songs and stories and droll remarks and playful tricks and an unusual amount of laughter. I suppose that it is the spirit of youth in him, stirred by his great sorrow. Now touched by miraculous hands he is coming back to his old self. There can be no doubt of this: the man is ten years younger than when I first knew him even. The Little Cricket has laid hold of his heart. What asks the feet of Solomon in the stern journey the day and insists upon sleeping with him at night."

"One morning my old friend was laughing as we stood on the river bank watching ourselves."

"What are you laughing at?" I asked.

"That god darn little skeezy!" he answered. "He were kickin' in the night like a mule fightin' a dumb bee. 'Twere a cold night an' I held him up in me to keep the little cuss warm."

"Hidin' you better let him sleep with his mother!" I asked.

"Well, if it takes two to do his skeezy" mumble I better be the one that suffers. Ain't she a likely woman?"

"Of course I agreed, for it was evident that she was likely, sometime, to make him an excellent wife and the thought of that made me happy."

They had forced along down by the rude ferries and villages traveling stealthily at night in tree shadows through "the Tory zone," as the vicinity of Fort Johnson was then called, crouching, now and then, in deserted farmhouses or putting up at village inns. Setting out from their last camp an hour before daylight they had heard the booming of cannon at sunrise. Solomon stopped his paddie and listened.

"By the hide an' horns o' the devil!" he exclaimed. "I wonder if the British have got down to Albany."

They were alarmed until they halted a man on the river road and learned that Albany was having a celebration.

"What be they celebratin'?" Solomon asked.

"The Declaration o' Independence," the citizen answered.

"It's a good idee," said Solomon. "When we git that this 'ere o' pille o' mine 'll do some talkin' if it has a chance."

Church bells were ringing as they neared the city. Its inhabitants were assembled on the river front. The Declaration was read and then General Schuyler made a brief address. He said that a large force, under General Burgoyne was on Lake Champlain and that the British were, then holding a council with the Six Nations on the shore of the lake above Crown Point.

"At present we are unprepared to meet this great force but I suppose that help will come and that we shall not be dismayed. The modest man who leads the British army from the north declares in his proclamation that he is 'John Burgoyne, Esq., Lieutenant America, colonel of the Queen's Regiment of Light Dragoons, governor of Fort William in North Britain, one of the commons in parliament and commander of an army and fleet employed on an expedition from Canada.' My friends, such is the pride that goeth before a fall. We are an humble, hard-working people. No man among us can boast of a name so lucrively adorned. Our names need only the simple but glorious adornments of firmness, courage and devotion. With those, I verily believe, we shall have an ally greater than any this world can offer. Let us all kneel where we stand, while Rev. Mr. Munro leads us in prayer to Almighty God for His help and guidance."

It was an impressive hour and that day the same kind of talk was heard in many places. The church led the people. Pulpiters of inspired vision of which, those days, there were many spoke with the tongues of men and of angels. A sublime faith in "The Great Ally" began to travel up and down the land.

Breakfast Food "Matrimonially-Speaking"

By MRS. HUGH MCKAY

My husband takes evening naps. At dinner he tells me how tired out he is and how early he wants to go to bed.

And then after dinner he sits down on the living room davenport with a magazine. He says he thinks he'll read for a little while and then turn in.

But inside of 10 minutes he's stretched out with a pillow under his head—sound asleep.

After an hour or so of this I try to rouse him and tell him that I'm tired, too, and that it's time we were going to bed.

But he doesn't want to go anywhere—even to bed. He's too comfortable right where he is.

"All right, all right," he says, "I'll be with you in a minute."

And then he drops right off again. We never go to bed before 11 on these nap evenings of his.

What I want to know is: Why can't men do their sleeping in bed?

Attention, Beet Growers

The success of the Factory is dependent upon the success of the grower. These few remarks are offered in the interests of both, and in pursuance of a policy designed to offer every assistance in our power to the men who grow the beets.

JAMES SCILLEY, District Manager.

NOW is the time to get busy on the land. Fall plowed land or potato ground should be gone over and seed bed prepared by spring-tooth harrow, or disc, then floated so that low places in field where dry ground has been dragged will have a chance to get soaked up with any moisture we may get, thus insuring an even germination of seed, also to start weeds, then worked again before planting to destroy weeds.

Experience has proved that beets planted the latter part of March or early in April has made the best tonnage.

Drills should be examined to see that each shoe is depositing at the same depth. Each time a turn is made in the field see that shoes are not clogged up. Do not plant more than one and one-half inches deep. A good seed bed well packed and seed evenly deposited at the proper depth will go far to insure a satisfactory crop. All spring plowed land should be worked down, corrugated and irrigated before planting.

Clover and alfalfa ground should be crowned as shallow as possible to cut off crowns properly, then harrow and leave long enough to get crown dried up, then plow about seven inches deep, irrigate and plant as above.

This work should be done so beets can be planted by the 20th of April, and if possible by April first. Do not plant on smooth surface. Always harrow ahead of planter.

RIGHT OF WAY OFFER DETAILS WILL BE GIVEN

Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce Board to Receive Report of Conference with Utah Construction Company

The sum of $25,000.00 will be accepted by the Utah Construction company in payment for the necessary right of way for the company's properties in Nevada, according to word reaching Twin Falls, unofficially, following the return of Mr. J. V. Taylor, the manager from Salt Lake City, where a lengthy session was held with the Utah Construction company on Friday.

At a meeting of the members of the local committee, and the board of directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to be held at 4:30 o'clock Monday evening, full details of the matter will be submitted and a decision reached as to the advisability of attempting to raise the necessary funds to consummate the purchase, or proceeding with the proposed condemnation proceedings as a means of securing the land.

Nevada Men Present

Messrs. Sweezy and Clark were met at Ogden by Mr. P. C. Gray of Corral, accompanied by Mr. Coryell, president of a Wells, Nevada, bank. With Mr. Wattis of the Utah Construction company the party proceeded to Salt Lake in order that representatives of the Short Line might be present during the negotiations. A number of hours were consumed by these, the conference closing on the basis of a payment of $25,000.00, to be made to the Utah Construction company not later than November 1, notes to be accepted providing a sufficient guarantee of their being provided.

Securing of the lands for terminal facilities at Wells, together with other acreage traversed by the road in Nevada, will be undertaken by the Wells committee without additional funds from Idaho end of the line, leaving the balance of approximately $5,000 now on hand in Twin Falls available as the nucleus of the fund needed for the right of way through the hands of the Utah Construction company. Further small expenses in Idaho may require a further $1,000.00 or so, making it necessary $25,000.00. The sum of $25,000.00 was raised here in the event that the offer of the company is accepted.

It is anticipated that, in the event the purchase is made, the work of grading will be well along before the money is actually paid over.

DENIES WIFE'S CHARGE OF LACK OF COURTESY

D. C. Stahlman, Seeking Divorce, Says He Did Not Threaten to Kick Visiting Church Members Off Place

Denial that he objected to his wife receiving calls by members of her church or that he threatened to kick visitors off the place is contained in an answer filed Saturday in court here by Daniel C. Stahlman, Buhl, whose wife, Pearl Stahlman, from whom he seeks a divorce on grounds of cruelty, had, in a cross-complaint, accused him of those and other offenses. Stahlman denies further that he neglected his family or failed to furnish money for their support. He alleges an agreement in a division of community property was entered into when he instituted the suit for divorce wherein he charged against other alleged acts of cruelty, that his wife had threatened to chloroform him in his sleep.

Trials and tribulations recited by husband and wife in this action grew out of Stahlman's second marriage. He married the widow Stahlman from whom he seeks a divorce in Salt Lake in October, 1920.

Stahlman is represented in this action by Attorney J. W. Taylor, Sweezy and Sweezy being attorneys for Mrs. Stahlman.

TRACES CRIMES CAUSE TO NEGLECT IN HOMES

Existing prevalence of crime is attributable in a large measure to neglect in the home to provide amusement for the children. Dr. Charles E. Wainwright, of the Methodist church, lectured in an address Friday afternoon before 25 members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at a meeting in the home of Mrs. M. A. Taylor.

The program included a paper by Mrs. T. S. Wason on the life and work of Frances E. Willard.

Mrs. Nora Fildes was elected to take charge of Loyal Temperance Legion work for young people in the organization.

Reports on visits to sick and relief work were given by Mrs. Cecil and Mrs. Hibbard, president of the union. Mrs. W. Montooth reported on Americanization activities and announced that she expected to enter in her home this week for a number of Mexican residents of Twin Falls and vicinity.

Refreshments were served during a social hour following the business session by Mesdames Barry, Hall and Denke.

All business is done at the green-house, by the main road, Seventh street turn. Expenses and prices low—quality and quantity high. We admit no superior in southern Idaho. Visit—a surprise to all. Florist—Mrs. M. A. Taylor, 1279, City Tower Greenhouse, Twin Falls, Idaho—adv.

Scouts Spend Busy Day on Rock Creek

Inspection of Swimming Pool Site and Tracking Wild Animals Figure in Outing

Sixteen Twin Falls boy scouts, accompanied by P. Douglas Hawley, district scout executive, returned Saturday evening from the headwaters of Rock Creek, where they spent the day inspecting a site in the vicinity of a warm spring with view to building a swimming pool; tracking coyotes, bobcats and deer in snow that fell on three occasions during the day, and taking tests to determine individual qualifications for advanced rating in scoutcraft.

A swimming pool about 20 feet in diameter can be built near the spring with a little work, it was determined, and it was decided to make a second trip to the region within a few weeks. As a result of the tests in scoutcraft, 12 of the boys qualified as first class scouts and individual qualifications for 10 merit badges were demonstrated.

The boys left here Friday evening and spent the night in Crockett's cabin near the forks of the creek. They were taken to the cabin by a number of local scout leaders in cars, and returned Saturday evening in a truck.

Action of the board in this regard, it was announced, is in harmony with the policy relative to tourists in accommodations adopted by most of the towns on the route of the Old Oregon Trail.

It was decided that the fair this year would be held open from 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. and that reduced admission charge would be collected after the close of each day's racing program.

SALMON SUITS ON FOR HEARING

Judge Dietrich Undertakes to Make Definite Settlement of Questions at Issue

With the announced purpose of settling definitely all cases now pending in his court involving questions at issue between the Salmon River Land and Water company and its successors, the Salmon River project landowners, Judge F. B. Dietrich in United States district court, in Boise will begin hearings Monday in about 30 suits instituted by the Land and Water company to foreclose on water contracts.

Suitcases have been issued for a large number of witnesses, including W. C. Whitfin, author of the famous Whitfin cut in accordance with which the Salmon project was reduced from 80,000 to 35,000 acres. George P. Grover, of the Salmon River Canal company, and salm company directors. Defendants in these cases for the most part will be represented by Attorney Homer C. Mills of Twin Falls, who lately assumed a share in effort toward settlement of Salmon River project controversies and litigation which have continued over a period of about 12 years.

Settlement Involved
The hearings opening this week in the federal court are expected to result in establishment of a basis for settlement as between approximately 35,000 acres of the landowners of the retained area, and those whose holdings fell outside the cut. About two-thirds of the landowners of the retained area, it is estimated, have heretofore made settlement on the basis proposed some years ago by the land and water company. Suit to foreclose on water contracts was later instituted by the land and water company against landowners who declined settlement on that basis.

CHEMICAL FIGURES IN WAR ON ALFALFA PEST

County Commissioners Consider Offer of Local Dealer to Supply Calcium Arsenate on Narrow Margin

Immense quantities of calcium arsenate will be consumed in combating the alfalfa weevil in Twin Falls county this year, members of the board of county commissioners were told Saturday by R. E. Broadard, county agricultural agent. The board had under consideration at this time the proposal of E. K. Hunt, Twin Falls, to purchase and collect for the chemical in carload lots on a narrow margin of profit. The chemical can be purchased to better advantage than before, the commissioners were told.

Alfalfa weevil is becoming more prevalent in the fields of the county. The county agent advised, and use of calcium arsenate has been demonstrated to be effective in combating the pest.

The commissioners withheld for the present their decision on Mr. Hunt's proposition.

GIVES MILK TEST RESULTS

Results of chemist's tests of samples of milk supplied by Twin Falls dairies during the month of March are set forth as follows in a monthly milk report made public Saturday by Dr. W. C. Melherson, city milk inspector.

CONFLICTING CLAIMS TO USE OF DITCH IN COURT

Filer District Land-Owners in Controversy Over Waterway Traversing Several Farms

Conflicting claims to use of an irrigation-ditch in the Filer district were presented for decision by court action with the filing of an answer in district court here Saturday by E. H. Snyder in the suit instituted against him by Peter Erickson, Louis G. Hill and John L. Peters.

The ditch in question traverses the lands of the plaintiffs Erickson, Hill and Peters and through it water has been diverted by Snyder to irrigate 13 acres of land cut off by a corner from the main body of his farm. Snyder alleges that water has been delivered to his land through this ditch since 1915. He purchased the land in 1917. He asks for judgment and decree establishing the title to right of way for the ditch through the plaintiffs' lands and for a restraining order enjoining the plaintiffs from interfering with his use of the ditch.

Snyder is represented in this action by the firm of Stephan and North.
