LOWER HOUSE TAKES ACTION ON LABOR BILL

Pass Resolution Proposing Amendment to Constitution on Employment of Children; Vote Totals 297 to 69

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—A resolution proposing a child labor amendment to the constitution was passed late today by the house.

Every effort to modify the measure, which now goes to the senate, failed. It would empower congress to limit, regulate or prohibit the labor of children under 18 years of age.

The vote was 297 to 69, or 53 more than the two-thirds required for passage.

Thirteen republicans and 56 democrats voted against the resolution.

Voting in the affirmative were 167 republicans, 128 democrats, one socialist and one independent.

Opposition was based chiefly on the ground that the proposed amendment, made necessary if congress is to have authority to deal with the problem by the action of the supreme court in twice declaring federal child labor laws unconstitutional, would constitute an invasion of state rights.

On the other hand, proponents of the resolution contended that a federal standard must be set up to bring certain states which have been backward in the enactment of child labor legislation to a more rigid requirement. The resolution would enable congress to set a minimum standard beyond which states would be free to go in controlling the problem.

An amendment to make the resolution apply to children under 16 instead of 18 years of age, as originally provided for, was proposed by Representative McLaughlin, republican, California, and was adopted by a vote of 248 to 136. Later, however, a roll call was demanded, and the amendment eliminated by a vote of 199 to 169.

COUNTY FUNDS GRANTED TO SAFEGUARD APIARIES

Appropriation of county funds in the amount of $500 to be expended in four districts into which the county was divided for this purpose in combating foul brood in apiaries was authorized by the board of county commissioners at its meeting Saturday. The appropriation was made in response to request of beekeepers of the county who declared that foul brood is a dangerous menace to the honey production industry in this region.

American Acting As Mediator in Peace Parley in Honduras

Summer Welles Reported as Negotiating Revolt Settlement; Buildings at Capital on Fire, Dispatch Says

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, April 26 (AP)—The government buildings at Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, are reported to be on fire as a dispatch reaching here from La Union. Thirty-two women are said to be fighting with the forces of the de facto government defending the capital.

According to these advices peace negotiations between the fighting factions of Honduras have crumbled on board the United States cruiser Milwaukee, anchored in the bay at Amapala, with Summer Welles acting as American mediator. It is expected that there will be some difficulty in arriving at an agreement because of the absence of emissaries to represent General Gregorio Ferrera, who is leading one group of rebels in the attack on Tegucigalpa. The leader of the other revolutionary faction is represented by three envoys, while the de facto government is also represented by three. There are representatives from Central American republics of Guatemala, Nicaragua and Salvador, but they are said to be acting only as observers.

Hearing to Be Held Here on Licensing of Bean Warehouses

Series of Public Sessions Arranged by Department of Agriculture; May 8 Is Date

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—Government licensing of bean warehouses under the warehouse act will be considered in a series of public hearings to be held by the department of agriculture at Denver, Colo., May 5; Twin Falls, Idaho, May 8; San Francisco, May 12, and Los Angeles, May 15.

Extension of the warehouse act to bean warehouses was made possible by an amendment to the act in February, 1923, under which it is planned to extend it to other products as soon as the necessary investigations can be made to determine regulations.

LACK OF WATER BASIS OF SUITS

R. M. Kunze, Gustav Kunze and Arnold Tanner Seek $30,000 from Utah Construction Co.

Three suits growing out of failure of the Utah Construction company and the Gem State Water company to furnish water for their reclamation project in Custer and Butte counties during the seasons of 1919 and 1920, and involving claims aggregating more than $30,000, were instituted in district court here Saturday by R. M. Kunze, Gustav Kunze and Arnold Tanner, landholders under this project.

According to statement of J. R. Bothwell of Bothwell and Chapman, attorneys for the plaintiff landholders, the failure of the defendant corporations to deliver water to the project was caused by injunction obtained by other water users of Big Wood river to prevent such delivery, and legal question as to whether an injunction constitutes a defense is at issue in these cases.

R. M. Kunze is suing on five causes of action for a total of $23,044.70. He claims damages by reason of the non-delivery of water to his own farm and that of his father, Gustav Kunze, which he held under lease, during the seasons of 1919 and 1920, and for non-delivery of water to the Tanner farm which he also held under lease. Gustav Kunze is suing for $5,507.95 and Tanner for $3,721.24 for damages to crops and for labor on the farms during the two years period.

Claims for damages in each instance are based on alleged loss of crops of certified Dickfowl wheat and certified Grimm Alfalfa stand and pastures and seed. R. M. Kunze includes also claim for $100 for labor on the farms during the two years period.

NORTHWEST FOREST FIRES INFLICT HEAVY DAMAGE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 26 (AP)—Forest fires in several Washington and Oregon counties yesterday and today have burned 4,000,000 feet of felled logs, destroyed a lumber mill valued at $150,000 and wiped out several other buildings, including dwellings and a school house, according to reports received here tonight.

The fires continue tonight and it is feared they will reach virgin timber land before checked. They also are imperiling several logging camps. Employees of lumber camps at Belfort, Rector and Enright, Ore., are fighting the flames.

IDAHO AND W. S. C. DIVIDE

PULLMAN, Wash., April 26 (AP)—Washington State college basketball players came back today and avenged their defeat at Moscow yesterday by winning from the University of Idaho, 6 to 3. The game was fast and interesting and was featured by airtight play in the first half, Cougar moundman, who allowed but four scattered hits and one pass.

BERRY RAPS COOLIDGE

BOISE, April 26 (AP)—President Coolidge has demonstrated his utter incompleteness for his high office by his failure to protect the "lunacy" of incompetency of the present administration throughout, George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America, and candidate for the democratic nomination for vice president, told an audience of 75 at a rally in the chamber of commerce rooms Saturday night.

COLD WEATHER INJURES FRUIT CROP PROSPECTS

Fruit production prospects in the Twin Falls region were damaged to greater or less extent as a result of low temperature Friday night when mercury fell to 23 above, according to statement Saturday evening of H. T. Blake, deputy state horticulturist.

Serious injury was caused by low temperature in some orchards. Mr. Blake stated, while in others the damage appeared to be slight, action of the frost being quite "spotted." It was impossible for this reason to determine at that time the extent of the damage.

Apple crop generally is believed not sufficiently developed to have felt the effects of the frost seriously.

The inspector gave it as his opinion that sweet cherries crop, in this region probably was destroyed, but that sour cherries and most apricots have escaped damage.

Mr. Hammond, government weather observer here, stated Saturday evening that apricots seemed to have been hurt worst and that apples have escaped.

Report from Blue Lakes was to the effect that frost damage Thursday and Friday nights was very light there, but that peaches were frost killed in the season.

STRESS SCOUT LEADERS' DUTY

Visiting Officials Emphasize Responsibility Upon Men Engaged in Boys' Movement

Responsibility imposed upon leaders of the boy scout movement, from patrol leaders to executives of the national organization, was stressed in addresses at a dinner meeting of local scout leaders here Saturday evening by J. F. Freeman of Chicago, member of the national staff, and C. K. Olfert of Spokane, regional scout executive, who are visiting this district on an inspection tour and were honored guests on this occasion.

"Every boy who becomes a scout pledges himself to do his best, and his leaders cannot do less," Mr. Freeman said. Mr. Freeman referred to records showing that 42 per cent of students at West Point and 38 per cent of students at Annapolis naval academy are former boy scouts and that 62 per cent of the student officers of both institutions are former scouts. He told also of organization in many universities and colleges of former scouts by means of which interest in scouting was maintained and from which capable scout leadership in the future might be derived.

Group Camps Favored

Tendency to arrange group camps rather than "mass" camps was explained by Mr. Freeman, the idea being to develop sense of responsibility on the part of troop leaders. Group camps, he said, are held in connection with the larger camps whose facilities are employed as headquarters for the various groups.

The dinner meeting was attended by about 30 active leaders in the scout movement in Twin Falls and was presided over by T. M. Robertson, president of the Twin Falls scout council.

The visiting scout leaders arrived here late Saturday afternoon from Pullman where they took part in a dinner meeting of 34 scout leaders and business men, the meeting continuing from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

At Pullman Friday evening they addressed a meeting of 35 persons in the high school building, later proceeding to Rupert, where they spent the night and addressed men at a breakfast meeting that continued for two hours.

The visiting scout leaders were accompanied on their tour by the district director, Dr. H. H. Murphy of Pullman, president of the district scout council; A. J. Penney of Twin Falls, district scout commissioner, and F. Douglas Hawley, district scout executive. They will leave here this afternoon going to Boise and thence to Utah, on their way to St. Louis to attend a meeting of scout executives May 9.

AVIATOR HOPS OFF

Song and Satire Prevail when Washington Correspondents Gather at Banquet; President and Ambassador Attend

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—For entertainment at its spring dinner tonight the Gridiron club of Washington newspaper correspondents held a national political convention with music. It was replete with a hodge-podge of song and satire, in which no political party was spared.

The republican nomination was accorded to President Coolidge, but the democratic standard bearer proved to be the most famous dark horse in history—"the man in the iron mask." The Gridiron singers sang the keynote of the dinner to the tune of "Sixty Seconds Every Minute":

"We do not intend to show a picture done in oil; We've promised that one to the wall; We'll display, instead, a good old portrait time can't spoil. One that smiles upon us all. Smiling still through all this stricture is your Uncle Sammy's picture. It's a portrait scandal cannot soil."

Robert L. Norton, of the Boston Post, was introduced as a new member of the club, and Wm. E. Brigham, Washington correspondent of the Boston Evening Transcript, was inaugurated president.

The club had little difficulty in picking the republican presidential nominee. The problem of the democratic convention, however, was more perplexing. From his place as inquisitor general was called to issue subpoenas for a number of distinguished persons. He brought with him his "executives." The first witnesses were "the three Musketeers." They proved to be Al Smith of New York, Thomas Taggart of Indiana and Geo. E. Brennan of Chicago. The trio identified themselves as "expert political scoundrels."

"Asked what they intended to do in the forthcoming campaign, they announced in chorus: "Adagio."

A cowboy, who proved to be Wm. G. McAdoe, rushed in, to inquire breathlessly whether the three musketeers had departed. He asserted he was "William the Conqueror," appearing as a voluntary witness and announcing he would be nominated on the first ballot, "even if I have to climb residence in every state in the union."

BLUE BUS LINE IS SUED FOR DAMAGES IN WRECK

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Ormsby Ask $3405.75 for Personal Injuries and Damage to Car Caused by Collision

Suit for $3405.75 damages from the Blue Bus line was instituted in district court here Saturday by V. H. Ormsby and Mrs. Nellie Ormsby, who allege that as a result of careless and negligent driving on the part of the driver of a four-ton stage operated by the bus line, collided with a car driven by Mrs. Ormsby near the intersection of Main avenue and Fourth street north, March 9, last.

Damages in the sum of $2500 for personal injuries and $905.75 of material attention for Mrs. Ormsby and $800 to cover cost of repair and damage to the car is sought in this action. The complaint was filed by Stephen and North, attorneys.

California Official Joins Idaho's Fight on Postal Shipments

Heckle Promises to Take Matter Direct to Federal Secretary of Agriculture

BOISE, April 26 (AP)—Idaho officials fighting to keep foot and mouth disease out of the state were jubilant Saturday over the receipt of a telegram from G. H. Heckle, California director of agriculture, saying his director would take up Idaho's fight to protect the postal authorities of California from accepting shipments of products banned by Idaho's quarantine.

Mr. Heckle said he would take up the fight to stop this practice and assured Dr. Wendell R. Smith, Idaho director of animal industry, that he would go direct to Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, and ask his co-operation with the postal authorities in Washington to stop the shipments.

Scouts will attend church services in troop units. Members of each troop will assemble in a body at the church selected by each troop to attend. Cognizance will be taken of the scouts' attendance in sermons and in some instances sermons addressed especially to the lads will be preached.

Registration.

Each scout and Campfire girl who expects to vote in the coming election must register on Monday, April 28, at the high school building. Opportunity for doing this will be given at noon and at 4 p. m. Find out just when your troop plans to register and join them at the high school. No one may vote who is not registered, no matter how high they may have progressed in scout work.

Following out the commission form of city government, absolutely no one will be sworn in at the polls. Scouts are asked to bear this in mind and be sure and register, otherwise they will not be allowed to vote.

Application of Nominations.

First class scouts and merit badge holders alone are eligible to file for the office of mayor and the four commissioners, board of school trustees, county offices of probate judge, county assessor, county treasurer, county attorney, county superintendent of schools and members of the highway commission. Nobody may file for the position to which he was elected last year. Each application of nomination must be accompanied by ten electoral signatures.

Acceptance of Nomination.

The third step is the acceptance of nomination by the candidate.

Filing of Nomination.

The candidate must file his petition with the signers attached with the clerk.

Voting Rules.

Mark the space to the right of the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote with an X or (yes). Any distinguishing mark makes the ballot void. Never make more choices (X) than the ballot indicates that you are entitled to.

O. S. L. READY TO START NEW LINE AT ONCE

Latest Move Marks Beginning of Fulfillment of Southern Idaho's Hopes; Supplies and Materials at Rogerson

POCATELLO, April 26.—Today marked the beginning of the actual fulfillment of the vision to which people of Twin Falls and southern Idaho have looked forward for the last several years in connection with a cut-off route to the markets of California.

One of the most important and generally agreed upon subjects of discussion among people of this section for a decade has been the value of a direct shipping line to these markets and at last work is to be actually commenced on the line from Rogerson, Idaho, to Wells, Nevada—the line which will connect the O. S. L. with the Southern Pacific and provide Idaho with the direct market way that is so badly needed.

The task of securing the right of way has been the only big obstacle left in the way of commencing work on the new road, and since last year the Twin Falls people have been working earnestly on the campaign for right of way funds. They have at last succeeded in going "over the top" and construction work will commence immediately.

Two Outfits.

The entire construction organization which has been moved by automobile and train from its camp at Hammett to Rogerson, Idaho consists of two complete engineering parties, clerks, accountants, etc., under the direction of J. Elliott, construction engineer, and moves to the new job thoroughly organized and ready to commence work.

A temporary office building has been leased at Rogerson for use until the company's own camp buildings can be relocated and repaired, and construction work will be rushed as fast as possible. Engineers will start on the work of re-tracing the line survey.

Nine outfit cars, consisting of cooking, eating and sleeping cars with commodes, and eight of ties, rails and railroad material reached Twin Falls Saturday morning and were taken on to Rogerson on the regular noon train.

Quarters for the engineering force have been established at Rogerson and quarters for the crews on construction will be available as soon as required. It is stated that material yards will be added to steadily and that within the next ten days or so a large construction force will be assembled.

Many Pay Respects At Bier of Late Tammany Dictator

Steady Stream of Mourners Calls at Home of Former Chief-tain; Notables Named to Act as Honorary Pallbearers

NEW YORK, April 26 (AP)—A steady stream of mourners, including political associates of women and children he had befriended and aided, today filed past the bier of Charles F. Murphy, Tammany chieftain, who died yesterday, in the parlor of the Murphy home in East 17th street.

Police kept the line of visitors moving. Automobile traffic was regulated with a radius of several blocks.

Secretary Daniel F. Ryan of Tammany Hall, announced that the funeral procession would leave the Murphy home at 10 a. m. Monday and proceed up Fifth avenue to St. Patrick's cathedral. Auxiliary Bishop Dunn will officiate at the solemn high mass of requiem at 10:30 in the absence of Cardinal Hayes. The procession will then proceed to Calvary cemetery. There will be no parade. Mounted police will escort the cortege, however, and 1000 policemen will be stationed along the line.

Among the honorary pallbearers selected for Monday's services are: Governor Andrew E. Smith, Mayor John F. Hyland, United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, National Committeeman Bernard P. Baruch, Samuel B. Koenig, republican leader of New York county, and Herbert H. Swope of the New York World. Telegrams of sympathy poured into the Murphy home from all parts of the country today. Tributes came from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., George M. Cohan, Dudley Field Malone, former United States Senator James B. Smith, members of congress and public officials in scores of cities.

SENATE CALLS FOR ARREST OF M. S. DAUGHERTY

No Objections Made When Resolution Is Introduced Requiring Appearance of Brother of Former Attorney-General

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—Without a roll call or debate, the senate today adopted a resolution requiring the arrest and presentation before it of M. S. Daugherty of Washington, brother of the former attorney-general.

A warrant for action was certified and given to David S. Barry, sergeant at arms, within an hour of the vote but after a conference between the latter and Chairman Brookhart of the Daugherty investigation committee, it was stated that no attempt would be made to take Mr. Daugherty into custody before next week.

Held in Contempt.

In a report to the senate which he presented with the resolution of citation, Chairman Brookhart, for the senate investigating committee, declared Mr. Daugherty to be in wilful and deliberate contempt of the senate. He had failed on two occasions, the report pointed out, to obey senate subpoenas which sought to get not only his own testimony as a witness, but also the records of financial transactions put through the Midland National bank at Washington, D. C., Ohio, which the committee considers important to its inquiry.

Not even a question was directed to Chairman Brookhart when he rose to ask the senate vote, although a single objection would have sufficed under senate rules to hold the resolution over for a day's consideration.

Precedent Cited.

Precedents for the action, while scanty, are not entirely lacking. In the senate investigation several years ago, Hallet Kilbourn, refused to testify and was imprisoned, but released after a fight in the courts on a writ of habeas corpus. Three other instances of the arrest of witnesses occurred between 1857 and 1868.

Mr. Daugherty's contest with the investigating committee has already taken on a legal aspect, in that a temporary restraining order was issued on April 11 from an Ohio state court, seeking to prevent Chairman Brookhart and Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, the committee "prosecutors," from endeavoring to get the books of the Midland bank. So far, no attention has been paid by the committee to the suit.

"Bald" Woman Demands $5,000

MRS. BETTY ANDERSON, wife.

HOW MUCH is a tiny bald spot on the back of the head worth? This question must be answered by the California courts, for Mrs. Betty Anderson, of San Francisco, thinks $5,000 is the exact valuation. When she had a "permanent wave" put in her hair, she avers in her suit, the hairdresser burned her scalp, leaving a small bald spot, for which she is suing.

Changes Will Improve Uniform of the Army

No radical changes have been made in army uniforms by the order General Pershing signed before leaving for Europe, but an entirely new policy in dealing with the uniform of enlisted men is provided for in the amendments to the uniform regulations. Uniforms hereafter will be tailor-made, and commanders will be held responsible for the fit of the uniforms of the enlisted men of their organizations. The color of the cloth will still be olive drab, but a new kind will be substituted for that now in use. The new material is known as melton, has a smooth finish like broadcloth, is highly durable and retains the shape longer than the present cloth. Bronze buttons and devices on the present uniform will be substituted by brass or gold ones, and the officer who desires to make a more flashy appearance can ornament himself with the new trappings, if he desires.

The standing collar, which has been the object of much criticism, is retained, but it is not to exceed two inches in height, depending upon the wearer. It is to be held together with buck and eye. There are specifications for the standing collar which are designed to make it more comfortable. The gorge of the coat is to be cut to fit the base of the neck. The collar is to be of sufficient size at the top to be comfortable and to permit a free movement of the head. When a white collar is worn it should be not to exceed one-fourth displayed and fastened to the collar of the coat.

What Uraeus Circle Meant in Old Egypt

Statuses renailed recently from the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amun all show the ancient uraeus circle, the snake-headed band that adorned the brows of the royalties of Egypt. Its history reaches back into the dim past of that great people when the gods-kings were supposed to have ruled over the land. Both the cobra and the vulture were sacred head-dresses of the rulers of ancient Egypt, but the cobra is more commonly known. It usually was worked in gold and worn either on the bare forehead or over the crown.

The uraeus also was the basilisk of the Greeks, a fabulous lizard-like animal of the desert whose breath and bite were fatal. It was supposed to represent the godliness and divinity of the Egyptian Pharaoh and was the symbol of the principle of immortality. The art of old Egypt employed this sign to signify royalty and divinity in paintings, sculptures and statues.

FIGHT LOOMS ON TAX RATE BILL

Expect Bitter Contest when Senate Opens Arguments Monday on Income Measure

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—The senate will launch into the income tax rates, the crux of the controversy on the revenue bill, on Monday, under a program announced today by Chairman Smoot of the finance committee in charge of the measure. Most of the noncontroversial committee amendments have already been disposed of.

The contest is expected to precipitate the most bitter legislative fight of the session, in which party lines will be sharply drawn. A showdown will be demanded first on the Mellon rates, placed in the bill by finance committee republicans in place of the long-worth compromise adopted by the house.

However, practically admitting the feasibility of legislative adoption of these rates, republican organization began maneuvering today to defeat a potential solid democratic coup for a schedule cutting higher surtaxes and lower normal rates than the Mellon plan.

Chairman Smoot said if the Mellon rates were rejected he would offer a succession of amendments, going up and down on the maximum surtax rate. A schedule lower than that proposed by the democrats and about the same as that adopted by the house on surtax rates would be adopted, he predicted.

RETURN FROM SAD MISSION

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrett Again at Home Following Demise of Mr. Barrett's Mother

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barrett returned from Salt Lake City Saturday following the funeral of Mr. Barrett's mother, Mrs. John S. Barrett, whose death took place there on Sunday morning last after a lingering illness.

The funeral, which was one of the most widely attended in the annals of Salt Lake, was held on Tuesday last at half past 12 o'clock at the family residence, 44 Sixth East street. The capacity of the home proved insufficient for the number present, and during the ceremony the lawn and grounds were filled with the overflow of those who came to pay a final tribute of respect to the memory of one of Utah's best known pioneer women. Two cars were required to transport the abundance of floral offerings while the attendance at the cemetery was almost as large as at the home. Professor Edgar Levi Young and Melvin D. Wells of Salt Lake were the principal speakers at the funeral.

Mrs. Barrett was born in San Bernardino, Cal., April 7, 1835, the daughter of James W. and Jane Dwyer Stewart. She was married to Mr. Barrett in 1876, moving with him to Montpelier, Idaho. The family came back to Utah in 1890. Five children all survive their mother and with their father mourn her passing. These are John A. and Edward Barrett of Twin Falls; Mrs. Cynthia Van Ness of Grand Rapids, Mich., and the Misses Minnie and Hannah, who have resided with their parents.

Dr. Seymour B. Young, president of the First Council of Seventy, a life long friend, in speaking of Mrs. Barrett, said:

"Mrs. Barrett was loved by her friends for her kindness in time of difficulty and sorrow. When she lived in Idaho distances were not too far for her to go and render service to those in need. Faithful as a Relief society worker, her sole ambition was to respond to every call of sickness and to be consulting to those who were called to lay away their loved ones.

"She reared a splendid family and with her duties to her church, she felt all made of her home a place where not only her children loved to be, but where her friends deemed it an opportunity to go.

"Charitable always, she never turned the beggar from her door, nor refused help to those in need. She had a host of friends both in her old home in Idaho as well as in Salt Lake. She was a devoted wife and lived a high and noble Christian life."

STORIES MIXED AS TO WORK OF
MONTANA MAN

Conflicting Testimony Given Relative to Nature of Legal Services of Wheeler; "Fixing" Permit Told

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—Conflicting testimony as to the nature of the work Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, was to perform as counsel for Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator, was given today to the senate committee investigating the indictment of the senator by a federal grand jury in his state.

Senator Wheeler is charged with accepting a fee to prosecute land matters before the interior department for Campbell after he was elected to the senate. H. E. Glosser, formerly private secretary to Campbell, testified that Wheeler had "left the impression" upon those attending a conference in Great Falls that he would "fix up" one permit at Washington for the oil operator.

On the other hand, E. M. Harvey, of Engle, Oregon, formerly a trustee of Gordon Campbell syndicate number one, told the committee that the trustees had passed on the terms of Senator Wheeler's employment and that he was to represent the syndicate only in court matters.

"Mr. Wheeler's employment," he said, "so far as I know, was to appear in a receivership suit brought by L. C. Stevenson and some other actions we contemplated bringing in behalf of the syndicate."

Forests of Maine.

The primeval forests of white pine, which gave Maine the name of Pine Tree State, have nearly all disappeared, but the second growth is being set to a large extent. Spruce forests are the most extensive. Hemlock, birch, balsam, fir, oak, maple, cedar,
yellow pine, beech, basswood, elm, ash, and others also are found in Maine.

Meg of Muckle Mouth.

It is said that Sir Gideon Murray of Ellenhank, Scotland, took prisoner a young gentleman named Scoto, whom he was about to hang, but his wife persuaded him to commute the sentence into marriage with their daughter.
"Meg of the Muckle Mouth."
The young man hesitated for some time but finally preferred marriage to death. Strangely enough the match turned out very happily.

Value of Mastication.

A good way to form the habit of thorough mastication is to chew each meal with a small quantity of very dry food. In most cases mastication is a help to digestion. The only circumstances under which it is not advisable to prolong the mastication are where there is an excess of the digestive acids in the stomach or where there is pain after eating solid foods.

The Jovial Man.

A "jovial" character once meant the type supposed to belong to all persons who were born when the planet Jupiter was in the ascendant. They were supposed to possess more of the cheerful elements of character than others, and hence to partake of the benign qualities attributed to the father of the gods.

Battle of Thirty.

The Battle of the Thirty was one in which 30 Bretons and thirty Englishmen were pitted by Jean de Bea-marche and Bernabourgh. The fight is said to have taken place between the castles of Josselin and Ploemel in France, in 1351. The English were defeated.

BETTY COMPTON AT RIALTO.

"Those who like the best of everything, even in amusements, will doubtless be pleased to see 'Woman to Woman,' the film offering at the Rialto on Monday.

Ever lovely Betty Compton stars in this magnificent production and proves once more that her acting is as perfect as her face and form.

The story, which was adapted from Michael Morton's famous play, deals with the heartless woman who gladly make for those she loves. Mr. Morton has given a new twist to the subject and it is carried away with his daring originality.

Rudolph Valentino will give the patrons of the Rialto a real sensation when he appears in the feature, "A Society Sensation," one of the big features on the double feature bill presented on Monday.

RICH FROSTED BIRTHDAY

CAKE STALE. NO PARTY!

The William de Mille method of having all backgrounds, costumes and properties ready before a camera crank is turned on a production, proved a disappointment in one instance to the property men at the Paramount studios in Long Island during the filming of "Icebound," the Pulitzer prize play.

A richly frosted birthday cake, three layers high and just smothered with sweetness, waited three weeks before it came its turn to be used.

After the scenes had been "shot" the property men gathered about the treasure and the verdict was "no-party!"
"Icebound," featuring, Lois Wilson and Richard Dix, coming to the Idaho theater tomorrow to remain three days.

SCHOOL BOARD BREAKS RULE

AS TO FILM SHOWINGS

In Los Angeles there is a very strict and rigid rule—Rule No. 141 of the board of education of the Los Angeles city schools—which prevents school authorities from showing in any way, shape or form any kind of advertising, publicity, propaganda or endorsements of any motion picture upon school property during assembly hours. This rule was broken so that the pupils could see Charles Ray in the "courtship of Myles Standish."

The photograph embraces that part of American history from a time during the voyage of the Mayflower to a period two years after landing in the new world, portraying graphically the adventures of the Pilgrims.

BANKING BILL
IS REPORTED

House Gets McFadden Measure
Providing for Changes in Status of Institutions

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—The McFadden bill was reported favorably to the house today by its banking committee with substantial change as introduced by Representative McFadden of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee.

Designed to place national banks more nearly on a par with state banks, the measure would stop the further extension of state-wide branch banking in the federal reserve system by state member banks and would permit national banks to have branches in those cities where state banks are allowed to have them under state laws.

In its report the committee declared that the nation's banking system is "facing an emergency, which affects its very existence and ultimately the existence of the federal reserve system."

Electricity Data.

Every year the families in homes where electricity is used spend $75.00 for electric current. By itself that looks almost as imposing as the expenditures for the famous three C's—confectionery, cigarettes and cosmetics. Yet it averages only four cents a day for each person who uses electricity.

Irritating Gases Prevent Colds.
Scientists have come upon the fact that men and women who work in factories where there are irritating gases rarely if ever suffer from colds. This is due to the gases acting as disinfectant, keeping the membrane inside the nasal passages moist so that the germs do not lodge. For this reason elderly people once used snuff. It is said.

ATTACK BRINGS JUSTIFICATION FOR CONTRACT

American Falls District Counsel Replies to Boise Attorney's Thrusts at Agreement with Power Company

Contract between the federal government and Idaho Power company relating to building of the American Falls reservoir project was attacked by J. B. Eldridge, Boise attorney, and defended by James R. Butwell of Twin Falls, attorney for the American Falls reservoir district, at a public meeting arranged here Saturday for presentation of Mr. Eldridge's views on the subject. The meeting, which was held in the Lavering theatre, was attended by between 50 and 75 persons and was presided over by D. P. Butcher of Twin Falls. No action relative to the subject and discussion was taken by the meeting.

Proposed Remedies
Mr. Eldridge asserted that under provisions of this contract Idaho citizens surrendered to the power company all rights of power development at American Falls and that the power company would receive in addition to other important considerations an exorbitant price for rights it claimed there. He proposed two remedies. First, he said, residents of the American Falls district might petition congress to withhold appropriations for the project until such time as the contract had been changed. This method he recommended as being the most inexpensive and best.

Second, he said, legal action might be justified either by suit to enjoin directors of the district from making levy to build an irrigation works "the use of which is for somebody else," or by legal action to set aside the contract on the grounds that it is an unconscionable contract or on grounds of "fraud, if it should be shown that deception amounting to fraud has been practiced" in its promulgation. Mr. Eldridge said that he suggested the second course of action with reluctance and advised that it be adopted only as a last resort.

Palms Dark Picture
"I would not yield," Mr. Eldridge declared, "because $750,000 already has been paid by the government on account of this contract, or because this is a dreadful year. The contract rights established here will rise up as a menace against your children because these rights are perpetual." Mr. Eldridge said that he offered his proposals for the relief of persons who had voted to approve the contract without understanding its provisions. Speaking, he said, solely as the legal representative of the American Falls district, Judge Butwell denied that Idaho citizens, by voting to endorse the contract, had sold or given away any rights of power development at American Falls, and denied that fraud had been perpetrated in connection with the endorsement of the contract, which, he said, had been discussed fully at various public meetings throughout the district prior to the district bond election a year ago. "We did not sell or give away any of our rights at American Falls," Judge Butwell declared. "because we had no power rights there. The federal government and the power company hold all of these rights long before it was expected that the American Falls reservoir would be a feasible project."

"There were two ways open to the government and the district in proceeding with the reservoir project in its relation to the power company's rights at American Falls. One was to condemn and the other was to reach an agreement. The district has been complimented by reclamation service officials and others on the contract with the power company as a bargain much more favorable to the district than it had been thought possible to obtain. The government increased from 8000 to 10,000 horsepower its power rights at American Falls."

Gives District's Interest
The district, Judge Butwell stated, "in this transaction made possible the building of the reservoir and provided prior storage rights in it. It bought an interest in the reservoir and

STUDENT DEBATORS ELECT

A debate in which Clinton Evans and George Harrison opposed Alton Young and Berli Shoberg was another feature of the program which had numerous attractions for the members attending.

A one-act play, "Satisfied All Round," given by Elsie Steele, Marguerite Krinch and Kimura Hackman, a pantomimic drift led by Gertrude Thometz, a vocal solo by Marian Watson, and music by the Pop band concluded the interesting program.

The last social event of the year announced by the present president, Walter Botcher, will be a banquet for the members to be given May 9.

BACON ESTIMATES PRICE ON WOOL CROP IN IDAHO

Idaho wool at the present time also crop to be about 40 to 45 cents in this state, according to T. Clyde Bacon, president of the Idaho Woolgrowers association, who states that buyers in the east are showing a tendency to curtail their purchasing in Idaho.

Federal inspectors have pronounced the crop to be about 40 to 45 cents in this state, according to T. Clyde Bacon, president of the Idaho Woolgrowers association, who states that buyers in the east are showing a tendency to curtail their purchasing in Idaho.

In a statement Mr. Bacon said: "According to Boston quotations Idaho wool today is worth 47 cents in Boston. Allowing 3 cents for freight, which is a little more than it costs, and giving the commission man a profit of 2 cents, which is a good profit, Idaho wool should be worth from 40 to 42 cents here. Boston is the lowest wool market in the world today. The local buyers do not seem to want to take any wool. They claim that the mills are unwilling to buy at the market quotations at the present time. One local buyer said he would sell at the hotel until wool went down to 34 cents before he would be interested. Many of the big growers have become disgusted, and are not going to sell locally but are now completing arrangements to ship and store in bonded warehouses either in Boston or Chicago. They feel that the prices being offered by the local buyers are at present 2 to 4 cents under the market."

COMMISSIONERS BUY COAL

Purchase of two carloads of coal from the Intermountain Coal company was authorized by the board of county commissioners at its meeting Saturday after considering proposals submitted by six local dealers. The accepted bid provided for sale of the coal to the county at a price of $9.00 per ton.

An aere foot storage capacity; nothing more."

The power company, Judge Butwell said, "has been given a foot storage capacity from its former rights to the stream flow of the river at this point, without interference with the use of Snake river water for irrigation. Use of the stream flow for power development and for irrigation cannot be completely co-ordinated so as to give the maximum efficiency to both. Judge Butwell said, explaining that construction of the reservoir would make all Snake river water available for irrigation purposes.

Judge Butwell asked and obtained leave to reply to Mr. Eldridge after Mr. Eldridge had concluded his address. Mr. Eldridge later replied, stating that he was convinced Judge Butwell did not know what the contract contained.

Plays Utilities Law

In the course of his remarks Mr. Eldridge digressed to launch an attack upon the law creating the state public utilities commission which, he said, was the "most infamous piece of legislation ever devised for the purpose of helping humanity." He charged it with being a "harbinger of trusts and monopolies" and declared that it "looks up the greatest resources Idaho possesses, namely between 30,000,000 and 40,000,000 horsepower of undeveloped electric power. The audience applauded his declaration for repeal of the law at the coming session of the legislature."
