AGREEMENT IS PREDICTED ON WORLD COURT

Senate Foreign Relations Body Holds Long Session; Harding-Coolidge Plan May be Made Basis for Final Action.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The senate foreign relations committee devoted a two-hour session today to a general discussion of the world court question with results which several members predicted would lead to an agreement among advocates of the proposals before the committee and assure a report to the senate before adjournment of the session.

Belief was expressed by some senators that agreement could be reached upon the Harding-Coolidge proposal for membership in the present court with the so-called "Hughes safeguards" included, not as reservations, but as definite amendments to the court statute to be specifically ratified by the signatories to the protocol.

The draft along the lines of the Harding-Coolidge plan, introduced by Senator Swanson, democratic, Virginia, was brought into consideration before the committee which gave special attention to the section by the Virginia senator providing that American reservations or amendments must be agreed to formally by the other adherents.

There was said to be practically unanimous agreement that the United States could not agree to any court plan which would bind her to recognize the authority of the tribunal to render expert advisory opinions.

"Reservation amendment," regarded by some senators as probable would deal with the alleged discrepancy in voting power between Great Britain and the United States. Of the self-governing British dependencies, only the Irish free state has failed to sign the protocol with the result it was contended that Great Britain might have an overbalance over the United States in any difference subject to a ballot.

URGES SENATE NOT TO ACT

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The senate was urged today by Senator McGowan, republican, Nevada, to "prejudice" the court trial of Senator Wheeler, Montana, by adopting the majority report of its investigating committee which recommended the charge in an indictment returned in Montana of having accepted a fee to practice before the interior department.

Reviewing at great length the evidence before the committee to support his contention in his minority report that the grand jury was justified in its action, Senator McGowan held the floor for more than three hours and was subjected to a running cross-fire from senators on both sides of the chamber. Several members were prepared to reply as the senate recessed until tomorrow.

FAVORS GAS TREATMENT

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The chlorine gas treatment for rolls has won the favor of President Coolidge. Suffering somewhat from last week's cold, the president took the treatment yesterday at the White House and was so much benefited that he went back again today.

AMERICAN AVIATORS COVER ONE-FIFTH OF WORLD JOURNEY

Army's Globe Circlers Reach Minato, Japan; Log Shows Total of 5,000 Miles Covered at 70-Mile Average.

MINATO, Matsui, Japan, May 22 (AP)—The three United States army around-the-world airplanes arrived here today from Hilo, Hawaii, after a journey of 5,000 miles.

The fliers arrived here at 10:40 a. m., seven hours and 40 minutes after taking off at Hilo. The distance flown is about 534 miles.

Transmission messages received Monday by the Associated Press were interpreted to mean that the American aviators had departed from Yotofu island early Tuesday morning and had landed shortly after at Minato.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—About one-fifth of the journey of the American army world flight air fliers had been completed when the three planes made their landing in Kashiwabara bay, Kurile islands, Japan, on the afternoon of May 17. The fliers had then covered 515 miles from the starting point at Santa Monica, Cal., in a total flying time of 71 hours and 20 minutes, averaging approximately 74 miles an hour, notwithstanding the fact that most of the distance the machines were equipped with the double pontoon which slowed them down.

FLIERS LEAVE MINATO

MINATO, Japan, May 22 (AP)—The three American army airplanes which arrived here this morning at 10:40 a. m. from Hilo, Hawaii, have departed for Yotofu island, Kurile islands, Japan, around the world, having left at 12:30 this afternoon for Kasumigaura.

Hawaiian Princess Will Attend G. O. P. Meet As Delegate

Widow of Late Prince David First of Royal Family to be Sent to Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21 (AP)—The first woman of royal family ever to participate in American national political convention is on her way today to Cleveland as a fully accredited republican delegate. She is princess David Kawannani of Hawaii, widow of the late Prince David of the Hawaiian royal house, and a daughter of James Campbell, pioneer resident of Hawaii.

Princess David was elected after a stirring campaign, her chief opponent being her sister-in-law, Princess Kuli, widow of Prince Kulelo Kahanaloa, for many years Hawaii's delegate in congress. Both princesses entered politics at the death of their husbands.

EXCLUSION BILL TO BE APPROVED

Predict Coolidge Will Not Veto Immigration Measure Keeping Out Orientals.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The fate of the immigration bill with its provision for Japanese exclusion appeared tonight to be approaching determination with an "arrangement" in speaking which may lead President Coolidge finally to approve the measure.

Action by the president on the measure before the end of the week was forecast after the executive had conferred with several members of congress including Representative Longworth, Ohio, the republican floor leader in the house, and Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, who had charge of the immigration bill in the senate.

The congressional callers at the White House were not told definitely by Mr. Coolidge what action he planned to take on the bill but all left with the impression that the legislation finally would receive executive approval. All developments during the day seemed to favor further the possibility of a presidential veto.

M'ADOO IS ENDORSED AT IDAHO BOURBON SESSION

ST. MARIES, Idaho, May 21 (AP)—St. Maries democrats won half a victory in the closing hours of the democratic state convention here early today when the convention endorsed M'Adoo for the presidential nomination. This resolution caused a long fight in which it clearly pointed out that the resolution did not provide for an instruction.

The only unopposed candidate was Mrs. Teresa Graham of Coeur d'Alene, who was re-elected national committee woman.

The election of Robert H. Elder, who is ill, came in the evening session of the convention following an afternoon of hard work by the credentials committee, which settled or rather attempted to settle four contesting delegates.

The committee made a minority and majority report on the floor of the convention where Asher B. Wilson forces opposing Elder made a fight to have Lincoln's one vote awarded to Judge Stockinger. The fight was made in vain as Stockinger and Judge F. Noble were each given a half vote.

Former Governor Hawley led the fight in M'Adoo's behalf and was supported by Judge Pope, state chairman. Pope declared that he had been receiving requests for action on M'Adoo for several weeks.

Upon a vote of the convention, the following 16 delegates were elected: Delegates at large—J. H. Hawley, Moses Alexander, James Pope and Mrs. Curtis B. Pike, all of Boise; James A. Harris, Weiser; Mrs. Grover Rich, Burley; Mrs. Teresa Graham, Coeur d'Alene, and George Gleason, Bannock county.

Second district delegates—Dr. W. F. Pike, Twin Falls county; Fred Howe, Blaine; Howard Henderson, Bingham, and Ole Transtrum, Valley.

M'Adoo won his endorsement by 68 to 20 votes. Several delegations declined to vote on the M'Adoo endorsement.

TEN NATIVES DROWN

MANILA, May 21 (AP)—Ten native passengers were drowned when they jumped into the sea from the burning inter-island steamer Lulao at Iligan bay, off the coast of Mindanao on Monday.

The steamer carried approximately 250 passengers, many of whom were teachers enroute to the normal institute at Cagayan, Mindanao, and Mindanao. They were saved by clinging to timbers thrown from the steamer from which they were rescued by small boats.

FIRES SHOT IN COURT

BUTTE, May 21 (AP)—When called upon to stand up for sentence after conviction on a liquor charge, John O'Leary this morning drew two "revolvers" and fired 12 shots in a crowded courtroom. Eleven shots were fired without hitting anyone.

ESPIONAGE TALE IS RELATED IN PROBE SESSION

Purported Explanation Given as to Disappearance of Spy's Notes; Claim Senate Committee Was Being "Shadowed"

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—A detective story of extraordinary quality was related today before the senate Daugherty committee.

A purported explanation of the mysterious disappearance of the spy records of Gaston B. Means, the committee's most noted informant, which attracted attention some weeks ago, came as an incident to the account of "shadowing" set by the department of justice to follow Means by day and night. From the same witnesses, Mrs. W. O. Duckstein, once stenographer to Joe Smith, and now secret service operative of the department of justice, and her husband, a confidential agent of E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, the committee heard allegations also that a system of espionage has been flung around the committee itself.

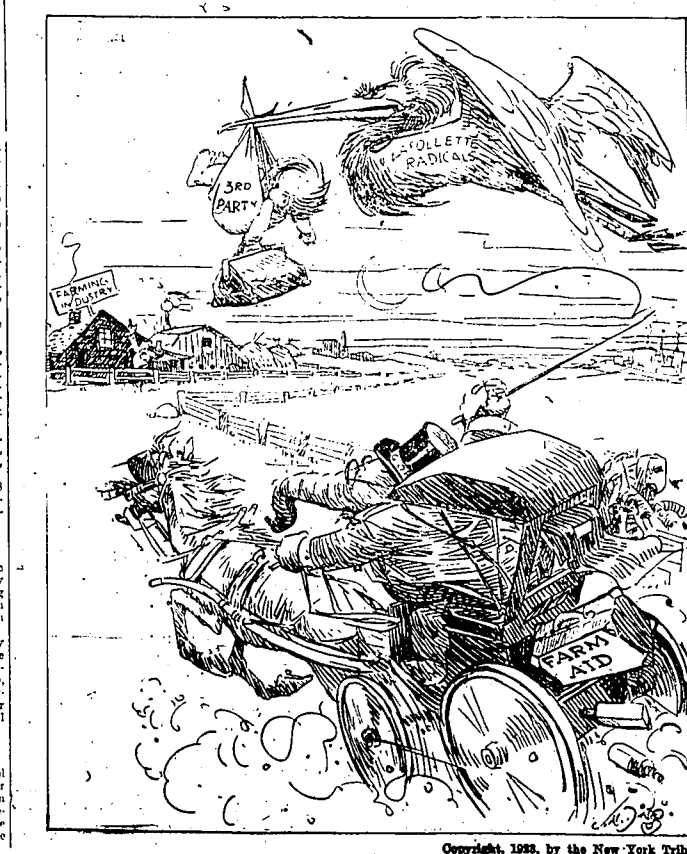

Two agents of the department of justice who participated in the outcropping of shadowing Means said they had been on the assignment, with four assistants, from March 18 to April 1. The detective himself, whose claims to knowledge of secrets about the Daugherty administration of the department of justice have vied with his war spy records to gain him note, sat and grinned as R. J. Harris and Mrs. Alaska B. Davidson of the "shadow" group testified to having followed him and checked his visiting list. He became grimmer a few minutes later when, sitting behind Senator Wheeler, the committee prosecutor, he heard the Duckstein family tell how Pettit and O'Brien, two New York detectives, leading "a crew of operatives and wire tappers" got away with his day-by-day diaries of spy work.

According to the Duckstein tale, Pettit and O'Brien were armed with a letter from Thym C. Todd, special assistant to the attorney general, to Mrs. Duckstein should assist their operation. She pointed out Means to them, she said, a few nights later, on a lonely road in a Washington park, by the glare of a flashlight and identified the diaries and documents the two men carried in their automobile as being the real Means papers.

Captain Dolsy Accepts Offer of General After His Own Machine Is Wrecked.

SHANGHAI, May 21 (AP)—Captain Pelletier-Dolsy will continue in Paris to Tokyo flight Sunday or Monday in a Chinese airplane, he announced this afternoon, after he had made a test flight in the Chinese machine.

The airplane was offered to the Frenchman by General Ho Peng-Ling, military governor of Shanghai, after Dolsy's own plane was wrecked when landing here.

Dolsy's first stop on his continued flight will be Nanking.

ORDER INQUIRY ON LAND GRANTS

Investigation Urged by Work and Wallace and Authorized in House Resolution.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Congressional investigation of land grants to the Northern Pacific railroad company, was authorized in a house resolution today by the senate.

The inquiry was recommended by Secretaries Work and Wallace, who asked also that there be provision to hold up final adjustments of the grants until after the investigation had been concluded.

Under the resolution as it was adopted by the house adjustment would withhold until March 4, 1927, but after hearing officials of the railroad company the senate fixed the date at March 4, 1925.

The Northern Pacific company is laying claim, according to information furnished congress by the interior and agricultural secretaries, to several million acres of land in national forests.

The forestry service contends that not only is it not entitled to this land but that it already has received more than that was provided for under the original grant made by congress.

Early Approval of Latest Plan Agreed upon Is Expected; Hope Chief Executive Will Sign Measure.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—A tax reduction bill endorsed by leaders of both parties and virtually every faction in the senate and house was moulded into final shape today.

Early approval of the unanimous agreement of the conference on the differences between the senate and house reached today by both branches of congress was predicted and the hope was expressed by republican leaders that the bill would be signed by President Coolidge.

The conference report will be taken up by the senate tomorrow or Friday and if approved it is expected the house will be able to act on Saturday. Last time it was expected to be taken in debate in either body and there were indications tonight that practically no opposition would be offered.

Elements of both the senate and house provisions were approved and leaders of both parties tonight were claiming credit for the bill.

The conference accepted without change the democratic income tax schedule proposed in the senate by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, but turned down the other major amendments gained by senate democrats and republican insurgents, providing for full publicity on tax returns and a substitute corporation tax carrying a surtax on undistributed profits.

Estimates Income.

In its present form, Senator Smoot said, the measure would provide for collection of $84,500,000 more than as it passed the senate but would still be $100,000,000 below the estimated treasury surplus available for tax reduction. Cost of the bonus, estimated at $150,000,000 for the next year, and other pending measures calling for extra appropriations would be added to this apparent deficit.

Despite this, Senator Smoot declared, the bill should be passed for the beneficial effect it will have on business and he predicted that as a result of this return from taxes would show an increase over present estimates.

FRAGMENTS OF LETTER CLUE TO ELAST ATTEMPT

LOS ANGELES, May 21 (AP)—Fragments of a love letter, a piece of fuse and the tire tracks of two automobiles were clues which city officials tonight predicted would solve the mystery of a spectacular but unsuccessful attempt to blow up the Los Angeles aqueduct between Owens lake and Lone Pine, about 200 miles north of here.

EMBEZZLEMENT TRIAL DRAWING NEAR TO CLOSE

Jury Soon to be Given Case of Former Officials Charged with Misuse of Building and Loan Association Funds.

Question of guilt or innocence of E. S. Peters, former manager, and Frank T. Lechleiter, former secretary of the Mutual Building and Loan association, who are accused of embezzlement of $18,442 of the association's funds, will be given today for determination to the jury in district court here, which during the past nine days has heard a mass of evidence for and against the accused men.

Indication of an early ending of the trial came late Wednesday afternoon when the defense rested its case after having introduced testimony of both Peters and Lechleiter occupying most of two days' time. Defense introduced also the testimony of D. A. Salmon, formerly assistant secretary and stock salesman for the association, and of Mrs. Salmon, with the purpose of impeaching O. J. Johnson, president of the association, and his testimony at the defense rested its case at 4:30 o'clock, and thereafter state's counsel called several of the association's directors to the witness stand to refute statements in testimony of Peters and Lechleiter, and summoned also four other witnesses to impeach both Peters and Lechleiter.

State's counsel announced that two additional witnesses would be called this morning for brief questioning. Judge W. A. Babcock, presiding, allotted to the state and defense two hours each for presentation of argument today before the case is submitted to the jury.

State's counsel, after the defense rested its case Wednesday afternoon, called witnesses E. E. Jones, Dr. G. H. Caldwell, E. A. Moon and O. J. Johnson, directors, and H. C. Hazel, attorney for the association, each of whom denied testimony of Peters to the effect that Peters had been discussing at meetings of the directors relative to alleged necessity for inflation or assets to provide for dividend payments and as to possibility of dissolving the association's assets. There was a difference of opinion among directors as to whether the board had accepted $400 offered at one time by Peters as a donation to the association to make up showing of earnings upon which a dividend might be declared. The directors agreed, however, that there had been no discussion relative to the use of the funds to keep reference to this alleged loan out of the minutes of the meeting.

Dr. J. F. Coughlin, Frank Baldwin, James Austin and Mrs. W. S. Iron, called by state's counsel to impeach Peters and Lechleiter, testified that Peters or Lechleiter on designated occasions had told them dividends of semi-annual dividends of 6 per cent and more were paid on the association's stock.

OPPOSE FARM AID BILL

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The McNary-Haugen farm relief bill now before the house, was opposed as "hopeless of administration and futile as an aid to the farmer" in a circular sent members of the house today by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

VETERANS BESIEGE WAR DEPARTMENT FOR BONUS MONEY

Applications Futile at Present Time; 15,000,000 Blanks to be Sent Out Through Proper Organizations.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Already besieged by requests from veterans for adjusted compensation under the bonus law, the war department issued a statement today pointing out to former service men the futility of writing or calling for bonus payments at the present time.

The special application blank has been prepared and an order 15,000,000 will be placed with the public printer, the statement said. "The necessary paper to fill the huge order is being shipped to the public printer by the factories and the receipt the application blanks will be promptly delivered to the department for distribution to veterans throughout the country.

In this connection the war department has made arrangements for the distribution through the postoffice department, the American Legion, various military headquarters and civic societies.

Printed instructions will be distributed containing all information relative to the bonus and the application blank itself will contain specific instructions as to how they should be filled out.

FORD'S BID DEFEATED

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Osborne, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hood came from their home in Basins, Wyoming, via Salt Lake, going to Seattle and Portland. They will return over the Yellowstone highway and spend some time in Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White of San Francisco, are taking a vacation, just winding. They will go east as far as St. Louis and visit Mr. White's boyhood home in Clark county, Mo.

C. W. Cornelius and family are trekking from Walla Walla to Illinois and Missouri to see if the hills back home look as green as of old. They say that the road from Boise to Filer is not exactly a boulevard.

J. H. Faulkner and Miss Emma Faulkner, who have been in San Diego, California, for several months, are going to Washington on business. They had quite an experience in getting out of California, having been fumigated four times and run through five tanks of disinfectant. They claim to be perfectly free from all human ills, including fifth and diphtheria. They tell some pitiful tales of people leaving pet animals behind, or if they attempt to cross certain lines to have them taken away and killed. One man had just bought a puppy, and when he was told that he could not take it out of the county he said that he would stay there until the embargo is lifted, even if he has to take a full grown dog back east, instead of a puppy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller, with their son and daughter are making a long hike from Spokane to Ohio where they will rest for a short time and then go to Delaware.

Mrs. Henry Atkinson and sons, Henry and Clarence A., and Miss Ethel and Eleanor, are returning to Dwight, N. D., from Marshall, Oregon, where they have been for several months.

A man who has come from California says that there are thousands of people leaving there, and that this section will be flooded with men looking for work, and that if they do not come through Nevada and get work on the railroad we will have a lot of them to look after and perhaps feed.

OREGONIANS SHUT OUT.

MOSCOW, Idaho, May 21 (AP)—University of Idaho had an easy time with University of Oregon on the baseball diamond here today and shut out the Oreganians, 10 to 0.

Throat Cut by Own Orders.

Joseph Leon Vazquez died here recently at the age of sixty-one. He had no direct heirs and had always lived alone. When his will was opened it was found to contain a curious clause, says a Bordeaux letter in Le Petit Parisien (translated for The Kansas City Star). This was to the effect that, after death, M. Vazquez desired that his throat be cut from ear to ear in the presence of certain persons named in the will, the physician who was to perform the operation being designated. This provision of the will was carried out to the letter. Vazquez, who had been a sufferer from cataplexy, had an insane terror of being buried alive. He had decided to take no chances.

1200 PRISONERS FREED.

DUBLIN, May 21 (AP)—In the dawn tonight President Cosgrave, opposing a motion for the release in the interest of prisoners informed or under sentence of imprisonment and especially because of the approaching Irish Olympic games, said the free state government had turned loose 1200 prisoners in 12 months.

THAW RETURNING HOME.

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—After giving bail for $500 on the conspiracy indictment which prevented his leaving New York yesterday, Harry E. Thaw announced late today he would leave tonight for his home in Pittsburgh. The funeral of his brother, Edward Thaw, who died in Pasadena, California, will be held in Pittsburgh on Friday.

Cropped First Name.

It is a curious fact that three of the last eight presidents of the United States deliberately dropped the first of their baptismal names when they came to adulthood. Stephen Grover Cleveland became Grover Cleveland. Thomas Woodrow Wilson became Woodrow Wilson, and John Calvin Coolidge became Calvin Coolidge. It took something more than dropping a first name to make these presidents; but, asks an American writer, "did you ever think that, although nine men out of ten support both a first and middle name, six out of the last eight presidents have borne only a single 'Christian' name?" Apparently there is something in the shorter, crisper form that helps in the game of politics.

Philanthropy Misapplied.

"Now, that is one of the most pathetic things I have ever seen," said the rich and benevolent old man, who, on a scorching hot day, stood with a friend, watching a typical street Arab. "You see the ice cart has been delivering at that shop, and the poor little chap has taken a piece from the gutter. Now, you and I, who can get refreshing drink whenever we require it, cannot imagine what a luxury that piece of ice is to that fellow. Here, my little fellow, here's a dime. Get yourself a glass of lemonade. You must not eat that stuff. It would make you ill." "I wasn't going to eat it," said the grumpy little chap. "Faver's having a sleep at home, an 'I was goin' to drop it down his back'!"

The Blasphemous Year.

The blasphemous year, which is commonly known as leap year, has 366 days or one more day than the ordinary year. The origin of the name leap year is unknown, but it probably arose from the fact that any date in a leap year after the added day of February 29 "leaps" over the day of the week on which it would fall in ordinary years. For example, if March 1 falls on Monday in one year, it will fall on Tuesday in the next, if that is an ordinary year of 365 days, but on Wednesday, if it is leap year.

Knows From Experience.

"Don't tell me," said Uncle Eben, "and politeness don't cost a cent. I has been a head waiter."—Washington Star.

Buffalo East of Mississippi.

The last buffalo killed east of the Mississippi river was shot in 1832. The number of buffalo in the West in the early '50s was estimated roughly at from 100,000 to 200,000, says the Detroit News. They ranged from Mexico north to the Arctic circle, but their natural home was on the plains between the Mississippi river and the Rocky mountains and not farther south than the Rio Grande. Outside the limits of their habitat the few small herds that existed were stragglers. Daniel Boone once found a herd in Kentucky that numbered 1,000 and it was a large one for that territory.

Hoyle Lived in London.

Edmond Hoyle lived from 1672 to 1733. Little is known of his early life. It is thought that he was educated for the law. He lived in London for many years, where he taught games. In 1742 he published "A Short Treatise on the Game of Whist," which went through many editions and became the work of authority. Other games have been added, until "Hoyle" has grown to mean "a set of rules," and includes many games that have been invented since Edmond Hoyle's death.

Pearl Fishing in Ceylon.

The pearl fishing season in Ceylon only lasts 22 days, and during that period as many as 15,000,000 oysters are brought to the surface.

Florence Nightingale.

Florence Nightingale was twenty-one years of age when she decided to reform the hospitals of England.

Oldest Jewish Church in U. S.

Touro park, in Newport, R. I., was named for Judah Touro, an eccentric, great-hearted Jew, who left the town $10,000 for its purchase in 1854. Near by is a little Jewish cemetery, which is one of the ornaments of the city and not far away, in Touro street, one is brought to the synagogue of the oldest Jewish congregation in America, says the Detroit News. The congregation of Salvation of Israel was organized in 1763. The synagogue was built in 1763. One of the scrolls of the law deposited in the synagogue and now more than 400 years old, was brought from Europe by the Jews who reached Rhode Island in 1658. When the British troops occupied Newport, the Jews, ardent supporters of the American cause, were forced to flee. The synagogue was closed and for almost a century it was deserted.

College Gets Rare Manuscript.

"The Bechive," a monumental manuscript written by Francis Daniel Paston, founder of Germantown, has been loaned to the University of Pennsylvania by his descendants, says the Philadelphia North American. "The book, which consists of about 1,000 closely-written pages, was written, according to Paston, as a legacy to his son and to rest his mind of many facts that are in it. It was never printed. The volume is written in several different languages, including Latin, Greek, German and English. It contains much dry humor mixed with philosophy."

THE WATER PROBLEM
Those who are inclined to feel that the water situation on the South side is one of real menace will do well to recall the fact that at no time since the inception of this project has there ever been a serious water shortage. Dry years there have been, in fact the records for years past indicate that every fourth or fifth year is a subnormal one as far as water is concerned, yet there have been no serious crop failures as a result, nor will there be this year.

If the American Falls project
election served no other purpose it at least resulted in a better understanding of the water situation in the Twin Falls country. It taught the lesson that extra water is advisable if not necessary once every so often in any irrigation project.

In 1916 and again in 1919, the Twin Falls country was compelled to get along with less than its normal water supply. While the actual cost to the farmers was not large, had the American Falls dam been in existence
there would have been no shortage whatever.

In 1916 it is generally admitted that the seed crop was the largest and most profitable in the history of the South Side and to an extent this condition also obtained in 1919. General crops were curtailed to some extent but it is a question if this very curtailment was not a factor in the prices at which many of the crops were sold. This year, in theory if not in fact, it will be easy to prove that with more water better results might have been obtained, but there is room for doubt if the actual dollars received for crops will be any fewer than in the so-called normal water years.

Other projects all around Twin Falls
are suffering and will suffer, and already there are instances of enquiries for land here by men who have pulled up stakes elsewhere because of water conditions. These men come to Twin Falls because experience has taught that the water right here, year in and year out, is literally one of the best on earth and with the big dam in operation even the periodical short years
will be eliminated.

In this respect the Twin Falls country stands in a class by itself, a fact which is just as well of not better understood outside this area than within it.

MUSIC IN AMERICA
The National Federation of Music Clubs of America has adopted for its slogan "A Musical America," and it announces that its ideal is much closer to realization than we know. Today America is singing, playing, composing and appreciating good music as never before.

New York is now said to be the musical center of the world, offering as fine opportunities for study as any Old World center, and attracting to it music students and artists from many other countries.

More encouraging than that fact, to patriotic music-lovers, is the appreciation and enjoyment of music to be found all through the United States, in the small cities as well as the large ones. The musical education given public school children today is far ahead of that of only a generation ago. Musical memory contests and contests in skillful instrumental performance are found in many states and cities. High school glee clubs, or chests and bands are reaching a wider range of children than ever before and access to so much good music.
And those who can not learn to perform are learning to enjoy and appreciate.

THE STRONG YOUNG MAN

BY DADDY

Dark glasses which Daddy Dog
found in the woods make a rat look like a panther, a young man like a giant, and a lovely girl like a witch.

CHAPTER IV.

Strength and Scare.

THE lovely girl looked at Hal, the woodchopper, with scornful eyes.
She had heard him say to Jack and Janet that she was a witch.

"Why did you call me a witch?" she demanded of Hal. The young man, strong as he was, seemed to be afraid of the lovely girl. He stammered and stammered. He could scarcely have been more scared had she seen an actual witch. "Why did you call me a witch?" she repeated, her eyes flashing fire.

"It was the glasses. I am sorry,"
muttered Hal.

"Nonsense," said the lovely girl
sharply. "No glasses could make me look like a witch. Witches are old and ugly."

Janet now spoke up in defense of Hal,
and seemed to have lost his tongue.

"He said you were a beautiful witch—
a very, very beautiful witch."

There was a fleeting gleam of pleasure in the lovely girl's eyes, then she frowned at Hal.

"Indeed!" she spoke. "They must be very queer glasses."

"They are," insisted Janet. "Try them on and see what you will see."

The young girl took the dark glasses, and she continued to glare at Hal. He dropped his head and turned away, picking up his ax. He began to chop down the dead tree.

The lovely girl put on the glasses and peered through them at Jack and Janet and Daddy Dog.

"I see nothing strange about these glasses," she said. Then she turned toward Hal the woodchopper, who was dealing lusty blows at the dead tree.

The lovely girl gave a shriek. The look of scorn on her face turned to one of fear. She grabbed up her little white dog with one hand and seized Janet with the other.

"Come away before that monster cuts
the whole forest down over our heads!"
Janet and Janet ran with the lovely young girl until she came to the edge of the river and could go no farther.

There they looked back. Hal was swinging his ax lustily. Whack!
Whang! Whack! Whang! He cut great gashes in the hollow tree with each blow. Soon the trunk began to shiver and to shake. There was a loud crack, and the tree crashed to the ground.

"Oh, he is so strong, he will cut the whole forest down," said the lovely girl. "He will rob the birds of their homes. He will rob the beautiful woods."

Jack and Janet began to catch some fish.

of the fear of the lovely girl. They did not want the wonderful forest cut down.

"Are you going to chop all the trees
down?" cried Jack.

"No," answered Hal the woodchop-
per. "I am only cutting out the dead trees to give the live young trees a better chance to grow."

That seemed sensible to Jack and Janet and they gave sighs of relief.
But the lovely girl continued to scream.

"He is an awful monster. He is going to cut down all the trees. He is strong, strong, strong!"

What could he be making the matter with the lovely girl to cause her to make such a fuss? Then Jack remembered that the lovely girl was wearing the dark glasses. They were making her see with eyes of fear.

"Take off the glasses," cried Jack.
"They are making you see crooked."

The lovely girl snatched off the glasses. She blinked at Hal and grew a bit ashamed. She knew he wasn't going to cut down all the woods.

"But he is a monster—an awful,
strong monster," she insisted in a low voice. She dropped the glasses and walked away along the bank of the creek.

(In the next chapter Hal the woodchopper, is called upon to make a rescue, and what he does is funny.)

Shortly before noon they rode through the dry bed of Elk creek and by midday arrived at Bear creek. Halting at Bear only long enough to rest their mounts and swallow some meat and bread they entered a wide valley, running north and south, with Bear butte showing six miles ahead. They camped on the lower fork of Bear Butte creek and Dinah's mood improved when Scissors kindled a fire and placed the coffee on to boil. Scissors, too, was in a better humor and he made an elaborate picture of the flat-topped butte.

"What are they saying about me in Deadwood City, Scissors?"
The picture-man seemed to be reflected for half a minute. He stared at Dinah stupidly while his wife tried to formulate an answer. At last he blurted out:

"You ain't blamed for killing Bandy Allen. Some men whisper that you're a road-agent. Others offer to bet you're a trap robber."

"How would you bet?"
"Trap robber," was the prompt reply; and Scissors reached in his pocket
for another piece of paper. "You have more style in throwing money around than the agents have."

"Still you think I save for me to go back to town?"
"I'm a mystic; I see things
other folks don't see. There's a woman who'd do you harm, yet she'd eat foolish as you'd be kind to her. She's talking and trying to make medicine against you. But folks think she's jealous. San Juan Joe is your friend.
He speaks good words to the men of the city council about you. He tells them you're going into a business deal with him. Then there's the way you came through Red canyon. Folks can't forget that. Every time they see the little girl they remember that. All that's against you is just talk. Bad talk."

"Scissors, I sweep my hat low to you. You have some brains. I believe you've read the cards right—all except about the jealous woman."

"Every one believes that. The woman shows it in lots of ways. There's no other explanation for the way she gets after you. The town was stirred up a bit over Allen's death for a day or so, but now decent folks are glad he's dead. If you go back and quiet down no one will trouble you."

"San Juan tells every one you and he are to organize a dummy company to supply hydraulic power. That catches every one's fancy. Six men killed by Indians within four miles of Deadwood since you went away. Patrick and Saulsbury offer five hundred reward for the capture of any man who helped run off the two hundred head of best stock from the French Creek station. They threaten to stop their stages if the horse thieves aren't caught pretty soon. So you see the guilt has other things on its mind besides you and your doings."

"I see. Any strangers in town?"
Scissors gaped in mild amazement.
"Strangers? Why, you must know they're coming and going all the time.
Only they don't go far because of the Indians."

Dinah puffed his pipe in silence
for a minute, then asked about a fellow called Omaha?

Scissors pursed his lips and screwed up his whitened features in an effort to remember. Then he slowly said:
"Name sounds familiar. Maybe it's because of the city by that name.
Queer name for a man to have."

Dinah laid into meditation and did not hear the rambling talk of his companion, including a lengthy explanation of the various Sioux customs.
He revealed his abstraction when he suddenly inquired:

"See anything of the girl I brought out of Red canyon? Look! That is her name. She's staying with Willow Cott."

Scissors nodded eagerly.

"Matrimonially Speaking"

By Hugh McKay

My wife, always takes the opposite side of the political fence from me.

Before women got the vote people used to go around saying: "What's the use of letting them go to the polls?
They'll vote just the same as their husbands."

That showed exactly how much some people knew about women.

My wife—and I don't suppose she's a whole lot different from other men's wives—wouldn't agree with me on a political question for anything in the world. It's simply a matter of principle with her.

If I say that I think income taxes
ought to be cut down, she'll think up a lot of reasons why a move like that would ruin the country.

If I'm for protection, she comes out for low tariff. If I take the side of capital, she's all for labor. And that's the way it goes.

Whenever I make out a ballot I feel like writing a note at the bottom of the sheet saying: "This vote doesn't mean anything, because my wife is in the next booth casting her ballot
against everything that I'm supporting."

Tomorrow: "My husband takes it into his head every so often to bust through our store room."

liam Baker, program leader.

THE MARKETS

INCREASED BUYING OF WHEAT BOOSTS PRICES

Market Closes Firm; Crop Complaints Due to Dry Weather Are Heard; Bears Fall to Make Headway.

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Crop complaints due to dry weather did a good deal today to bring about somewhat increased buying of wheat and to make prices advance. The wheat market closed firm at 3-8 to 1-2 to 7-8 gain, July 1-17 1-4 to 3-8 to 1-17 3-8, and September 1-18 1-4 to 3-8 to 1-18 3-8, with corn a shade to 3-4 up, oats up a shade to 1-8 and provisions unchanged to 15 cents down.

Rain in western Kansas and western Nebraska attracted special attention among wheat traders, especially after the news had been confirmed by the Kansas crop report. Upturns in quotations at Winnipeg and Liverpool were deemed significant with word that exporters at Winnipeg were active buyers. The fact that Winnipeg May delivery rose to 1-4 cent premium over Chicago May had a particular effect as a late stimulus to confidence among friends of higher prices.

In the corn market, lightness of receipts as well as some betterment of shipping call have caused a slight price firmer, and so too, did prevailing low temperatures. Oats followed corn. Lard movement ascribed to export business weighed down provisions.

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—With the bonus bill definitely disposed of, today's stock market began to devote its attention to other matters, prices making favorable response to reports that the senate and house conferees had decided to accept the house tax of 12 1/2 per cent on corporation net earnings, surplus income and the estate provision for a graduated 9 to 40 per cent and that the publicly held had been eliminated. Net gains in the active industrial and railroad issues ranged from 1-4 to 1-2 points.

Cash money held at 3 per cent all day. The time money and commercial paper markets were quiet with no change in rates.

A 15-point recovery in French francs which again crossed 5-12 cents was the feature of the quiet foreign exchange market. Dollar cables showed only nominal change, dollar sterling closing slightly to 44.35-34.

BOSTON WOLF MARKET

BOSTON, May 21 (AP)—Trading in wolf continues slow and irregular in practically all lines. Piece and territory wolf are being slightly under in price. Foreign wolf remain quiet and firm, finer grades in particular showing strength. Some trade authorities, however, consider that the wolf market is somewhat overdone and should be adjusted to local conditions, regardless of foreign quotations.

DUMB BELLS

FOUR MILLION GUESTS WILL ATTEND WEDDING

NEW YORK, May 21.—Standing in the physical presence of only three other people, a clergyman and their attendants, the Rev. Martin M. Martin, young newspaper woman of Chicago, and Wendell Hall, known throughout the country after his recent broadcasting tour as the Eminent Entertainer, technically will have at least four million guests at their wedding on June 4.

Their responses to the officiating clergyman's solemn queries will carry through the microphone, the actual ceremony taking place in the sumptuous setting of station WEAF in New York City.

The principals in this unprecedented wedding are insisting that the ceremony be quiet and as devoid of sensation by way of reporters, photographers and a naturally curious public as if it were being conducted in the bride's home.

"Our wedding will not be broadcast because either of us is especially prominent," Hall states modestly. "That is not the idea. No, sir. There are hundreds of thousands of folks whom I feel almost as personal friends, folks to whom I have been singing along a route that stretched nearly 4000 miles. And because we feel them to be our friends it seems natural to want to have them all at our wedding."

STAGE SET FOR SCHOOLS' CLOSE

High School Graduating Class of About 105 Members in Limeright at Commencement

With exercises marking the close of the school year in Twin Falls, a graduating class of about 105 members this evening will receive diplomas in token of their completion of the course of study in the Twin Falls high school. Dr. Elmer L. Goshen of Salt Lake, is to be the speaker of the occasion. Members of the graduating class will be introduced by M. C. Ritchell, superintendent, who is retiring after 10 years' service as teacher, principal and superintendent of the Twin Falls schools, and the diplomas will be presented by a member of the board of education.

The graduating class this year, with the exception of those of 1923 and 1922, is the largest in the history of the local high school. Commencement exercises will be held in the Lavington theater. Members of the graduating class will be seated on the stage, and reservations have been arranged for relatives and limited number of friends of the graduates. Announcement of an accurate list of the members of the graduating class would be impossible before late today following completion of final examinations. Superintendent Mitchell stated Wednesday evening. Final examinations were begun Tuesday in both senior and junior high schools.

GET ACTION ON RATE BILL

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The senate has passed the Gooding bill limiting application of the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act, marking the accomplishment of action sought by intermountain shipping interests for the past 20 years. The Gooding bill would restrict this interstate commerce commission in authorizing lower charges for a long haul for short haul within its limits to cases involving circuitous routes, export and import traffic and block express rates.

YOUTHS ADMIT SHOOTING FISH

Court Deals Lightly With Buhl Boys Who Confess to Dynamiting Stream.

Dynamite was used for the purpose of catching fish in Salmon river, seven miles west of Buhl, by three Buhl boys, ranging in age from 15 to 17 years, according to their admissions Wednesday when they were haled into probate court here on charges preferred by John T. Salsbury, chief deputy state game warden assigned to duty in this district. In consideration of the youth of the offenders and their statement that adult persons had provided them with the explosive, Judge Duvall assessed only the costs involved in the case and suspended sentence. Under Idaho law, "use of explosive, drugs or other means for the taking of fish or game unlawfully" is punishable by fine "in a sum not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each offense, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 60 days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

Punishing of explosives to juveniles also is a misdemeanor punishable under Idaho law. "Officers charged with responsibility for enforcement of fish and game laws derive no particular satisfaction in apprehending young offenders," Mr. Salsbury said Wednesday evening. "We would much rather bring to an account the adult violators, and particularly those who aid and encourage younger persons in law violation. The purpose of enforcement of the fish and game laws is not in the larger sense to punish offenders, but to protect and conserve fish and game resources of the state for the benefit of the general public."
