CLOSE VOTE IS PREDICTED ON
FARM AID BILL

Republican Leaders Will Not Insist on Substitute if McNary-Haugen Measure Fails; Adjournment Date Stands.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Republican leaders in the house decided today to make no determined effort to put through a substitute for the McNary-Haugen farm bill in the event the measure is defeated.

At a meeting of the republican steering committee it was generally agreed that the vote on the bill, which will be taken up again tomorrow by the house, would be close, several expressing the opinion it would be rejected unless various features, regarded by opponents as objectionable, were eliminated.

Those who attended the conference expressed confidence that congress would adjourn June 7, regardless of the fate of the McNary-Haugen bill, the majority bill to abolish the railroad labor board or any other legislation still pending.

The committee which unofficially controls the legislative program of the house, objected to the plan of supporters of the Barkley measure to bring it up under a special rule. Predictions were made that its author, Representative Barkley, democrat, Kentucky, would concede next Monday when consideration of the bill will again be in order that it is futile to seek a final vote and be willing to put his measure aside with a view to obtaining action in the December session.

Those in charge of the McNary-Haugen measure hope to press it to a final vote by Saturday night. While republican leaders have agreed not to work in concert to smother out the situation individual members of the house, it was said, will be given ample opportunity to offer amendments or substitutes.

DOCTRINE IN EVIDENCE

CLEVELAND, May 29 (AP)—The whole body of doctrine of the Protestant Episcopal church in America was called into evidence today in a trial here of Bishop William M. Brown, accused of teaching outside the doctrine. The trial court of eight bishops ruled that the doctrine of the church is contained in the book of common prayer and in accordance with that decision the case against the accused bishop was presented in half an hour. Bishop Jos. M. Francis of Indianapolis was the sole witness and he was called only to establish the office of the defendant and to identify the book upon which the accusation is based.

Then the defense moved to dismiss on the ground of insufficient evidence and the case settled back into the argumentative stage from which it had scarcely emerged.

WOULD HALT ADJUSTMENTS

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Further adjustment by the government of land grants to the Northern Pacific railroad company would be suspended until March 4, 1925 and meanwhile would be the subject of congressional investigation under an agreement reached today by house and senate conferees on a resolution dealing with the subject. As approved by the house the resolution fixed the date at March, 1927, while the senate made it March, 1925. To be effective the compromise must be ratified by both the house and senate.

Memorial Address
Will Be Broadcast
by Three Stations

Radio to Carry Arlington Ceremonies Today; Coolidge Will Speak; Expect Millions Will Be Able to Listen in.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—The American people generally will be permitted tomorrow for the first time in history to join in the national memorial day exercises in Arlington.

The Arlington ceremonies at which President Coolidge will speak will be broadcast by three of the most powerful radio stations of the east—stations WCAP of New York, WJAR of Providence R. I. and WCAP of Washington. It is expected that between ten and fifteen million people will be able to hear the exercises which are to be held in the memorial amphitheatre and are to begin at 1 o'clock, eastern standard time.

President Coolidge has devoted considerable time to the address he will make tomorrow and it is expected to be one of the most important he has made in several weeks.

All government departments closed tonight not to open until Saturday morning and the senate adjourned over until Saturday. The house will remain in session tomorrow, working on the McNary-Haugen farm export corporation bill.

Authorities Making
Little Progress in Search for Slayers

Murder of Chicago Boy is Still a Mystery; Slight Hope in Latest Clue.

CHICAGO, May 29 (AP)—Authorities hunting the slayers of Robert Franks, school boy son of a Chicago millionaire, whose body was found in a south side swamp after ransom demands were made of the parents, stated tonight they were apparently little nearer a solution of the crime than when the body was found a week ago today.

There is slim hope that Chas. Heath, Chicago druggist, found suffering from the effects of poison in Louisville, Ky., hotel today, would be able to throw any light on the case, one of the most baffling mysteries with which Chicago police have ever had to deal.

According to information received tonight from Louisville authorities by the Chicago police, Heath is in a serious condition and may never be able to make a statement.

TO TALK PLANS FOR PARTY MEET

Farmer-Labor Committee to Meet Sunday to Determine Program for St. Paul Session

ST. PAUL, May 29 (AP)—Members of the state committee of the farmer-labor federation will meet here Sunday to determine whether there should be any change in the plans for holding the national farmer-labor progressive convention here June 17.

Call for a meeting of 22 members of this state committee was issued today by William Mahoney of St. Paul, probable temporary chairman of the proposed convention as a result of the statement attacking the convention by Senator LaFollette.

Charges that Senator LaFollette's statement yesterday was the result of "unfair and unjust counsel," are made in a statement issued today by the national committee in response to the proposed national convention. "Senator LaFollette's letter," the statement declared, "subordinates the tremendous issue of securing the government from plutocratic control, and the necessity for all honest progressive voters uniting in this crisis.

"The convention is not a LaFollette or one man movement. It cannot be diverted or destroyed by anything Senator LaFollette may do or say. The need for it continues to exist and there is no alternative but for it to proceed."

RAINFALL IS WELCOMED
IN SOUTHERN IDAHO

Southern Idaho farmers generally joined stockmen with herds or flocks on the range in rejoicing Thursday over the rainfall that set in early Wednesday evening and continued at intervals of greater or less duration throughout the night and all day Thursday.

Indications Thursday evening seemed to point to little or no interruption in the wet spell.

Precipitation during the 24-hour period ending Thursday evening was recorded at the government weather observer's station at 18 one-hundredths of an inch. Greater amount of rainfall was reported in districts to the east and less in districts to the west of Twin Falls.

Snow which fell on the hills to the south Wednesday night remained on the ground all the next day, a visible promise of improved range conditions.

Reports collected Thursday evening by the News showed that rainfall was heaviest between Mott and Hager, the Hazelton district on the North Side being in for a drenching while Eden district on the west got a pretty thorough wetting. There was little rain about Jerome.

Rainfall Reports
Some of the reports gathered by the News follow:

JEROME—Light rain fell here during the day. There was no rain in the evening, but the weather was cloudy and cool.

BURLEY—Heavy rain fell throughout most of the day until about 6 p. m. when skies were clearing.

HUPERT—Rain fell here practically all day and continuously throughout the afternoon until 6:30 p. m. when skies were clearing.

BOULDER—Rainfall here was limited to light showers in the afternoon.

HOLLISTER—Rain fell here almost all day, increasing in amount in the afternoon. Indications point to additional rain during the night.

HANSEN—There was considerable rain here Wednesday night and Thursday forenoon with light showers in the afternoon.

MURTAUGH—Heavy showers continued all Wednesday night and until Thursday evening.

INDICT POLICE
LIQUOR LAWS

Lieutenant and Squad, Warehouse Officials and Others Among 26 Named by Grand Jury for Illegal Activities.

CHICAGO, May 29 (AP)—Federal indictments charging 26 persons with illegally possessing, transporting and selling liquor were returned here today naming one lieutenant of police and his squad, warehouse officials and others as principals involved in an alleged "rum ring" which disposed of more than $1,000,000 in liquor.

Forged withdrawal permits and forged letters of verification aided the removal of the liquor, assistant United States district attorney said tonight. No references to the forged permits or letters were made in the indictments which also failed to name the owner of the liquor.

Twelve government men were used in gathering evidence for presentation to the grand jury. E. L. Weil, assistant district attorney, said the procedure of those involved was to take the liquor from the Sibley warehouse to other warehouses where in turn it was delivered to police who disposed of it to dealers. The indictment says that 2550 gallons of Lanesater whiskey obtained in 1720 cases was removed from the Sibley plant.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS AT HOT SPRINGS RESORT

BOISE, May 29 (AP)—Improvements are in prospect for the resort owned by the state at Lava Hot Springs, said Governor C. C. Moore, who visited the grounds last Sunday. Some minor alterations are already being made, and the place is being painted and generally cleaned up. Quite a number of people already are there for the summer, he said.

APPROVE AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Fertilizer would be produced at Mucilo Shouls either by the government or a private concern under an amendment to the Norris bill approved today by the senate agriculture committee. It is also understood that another amendment provides that power could either be produced by the government or a private company under governmental control.

French People to Stage Ceremonies at Large War Cemeteries Memorial Day.

PARIS, May 29 (AP)—Memorial day in France will be largely a children's day. The French people generally will participate in the ceremonies at all the six big cemeteries in which American soldiers are buried but delegations from the schools will have the most conspicuous part in the day's program.

School children from Doni, Hargicourt, Locatlet and St. Quentin in the Somme war zone, where the Americans fought hard battles in 1918 will deposit wreaths on every soldier's grave in the Doni cemetery and pin an American flag to every cross. A feature of the celebration there will be dedication of a school house built through subscriptions by parents of the boys who fell on the Somme battlefield.

APPROVE SILVER
PURCHASE BILL

Senate Passes Pitman Measure for Buying Domestic Metal; Utah Has Big Supply.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—The treasury would be directed, under a bill passed by the senate today, to complete the purchase of stores of domestic silver covered in the Pitman act.

Senator Pitman, democrat, Nevada, author of the bill, estimated that 14,580,730 ounces of silver must be bought at $1 an ounce to comply with the wartime legislation.

The silver to be purchased will replace silver dollars withdrawn from the treasury vaults during the war and sold as bullion to the British government for use in replenishing the supply for her colonies.

A "warm controversy" has continued since the war between American silver producers and treasury officials as to the amount which should be placed under the law which authorized the withdrawal.

The bill now goes to the house.

MEANS ADDS ANOTHER
CHAPTER TO SCANDAL TALES

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—Two sessions of the senate Daugherty investigation today served to let Gaston B. Means, detective and its most noted informant, complete an alluring story of adventure and intrigue in investigating—at the behest of President Harding, he claims—prohibition enforcement against Secretary Mellon's connection therewith.

With scarcely a mention of his early accounts of money "carried for him" by the stock exchange of the former attorney-general, Means asserted that the funds of the republican national committee were to have been benefited by whiskey perfunctory sales, and the entire conspiracy, in testimony, drew in names of senators.

MOORE TO BE SPEAKER AT DEDICATION SERVICES

BOISE, May 29 (AP)—Governor C. C. Moore will deliver the address Sunday afternoon at the dedication of the Spaulding memorial stone at Lapwai, the site of the early missionary station in Idaho. The stone is being presented to the state by the Daughters of the American Revolution, Idaho chapter, and will have a tablet suitably inscribed to the memory of the pioneer. Mrs. James E. Babb, historian of the state chapter of the D. A. R., also will speak and address are scheduled from some of the Nez Perce Indians at the Lapwai reservation.

SUSPECT ARRESTED

CHICAGO, May 30 (AP)—Nathan Leopold, Jr., 19-year-old son of a millionaire box manufacturer, was taken into custody for questioning early this morning after records of an opinion company revealed that spectacles found near the body of 14-year-old Robert Franks, kidnapping victim, had been sold to him.

Embassy Officials Engaged in Decoding Diplomatic Note; Hughes Not Advised; Claim Treaty Has Been Violated.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—A formal communication from the Japanese government protesting against the exclusion section of the new immigration law, reached the Japanese embassy here today for transmission to Secretary Hughes. Decoding occupied the attention of embassy officials throughout the day and the document had not been presented at the state department nor had any appointment been made with the secretary for Ambassador Hanthra when the department closed for the day to reopen Saturday.

The only information thus far available as to the form and substance of the Japanese communication is that carried in press dispatches, which have reported that the Tokyo government regards the exclusion provision as "discriminatory" and in violation of a commercial treaty.

CROPS MAKING RAPID GROWTH

Warmth and Abundant Sunshine of Past Week Stimulated Irrigated Vegetation.

Warmth and abundant sunshine during the week ending Thursday stimulated rapid growth of all vegetation in irrigated sections of Idaho and crops made splendid progress, says a weekly summary of weather and crop conditions in Idaho, issued by Clinton E. Norquest, meteorologist for the federal weather bureau at Boise.

In southwest Idaho, the summary says, steady summer weather obtained with temperatures well above normal until the last two days. Scattered showers occurred but in only a few localities were the amounts of precipitation sufficient to afford temporary relief from drought. The weather and abundant sunshine stimulated rapid growth of all vegetation in irrigated sections and crops made splendid progress. In the dry farm sections crops are either at a standstill or making but slow advance. In a few localities they are deteriorating. Farm work in all departments went ahead rapidly. In the earlier districts haying has begun and head lettuce is being harvested. In the Twin Falls sections farmers are busy planting into potatoes and fitting ground for beans. Orchard fruits are developing nicely, but the crop will not be heavy, due largely to the April freeze.

The weather in southeast Idaho was generally warm and dry. A few scattered showers occurred but not enough to break the drought condition. Beets are growing very slowly except where irrigated and in some places they are being plowed up to give place for potatoes. Early planted potatoes are making only slow growth and the same is true also of spring grains, except where irrigated. Winter wheat is fair to good. Ranges are fair to good in some sections and very dry in others. Alfalfa is good on irrigated land, but very slow on dry land meadows.

The long drought is not yet broken in the Lewiston or panhandle sections of north Idaho, but copious showers fell Saturday evening in the prairie region well east of Lewiston. The rain was quite heavy in the vicinity of Grangeville. Some rains fell on the Camas and Nez Perce prairies on Thursday, also, and the crops in these sections are not suffering as they are elsewhere in

TOURIST PARK NOTES

All classes of people visit our park and we had thought it was full until a Bolshevik or a rabid red came in and asked who owned or operated the park. He was told that the chamber of commerce had charge of it, and then the fire works began. He said, "Yes, the d-d bankers are running all of the tourist parks as they do everything else." It is needless to say that he did not register.

Ernest H. Cook and James Schroeder are marking time while waiting until the Yellowstone park is opened. They hail from Sparks, Nevada. They report that the roads south are in fair condition except in some portions of Nevada.

M. E. Petefish is traveling all by himself from Chico, California to Denver.

George W. Kastle and family are going back to Long Beach, California, from Chicago. It seems that the tide has turned.

Misses Fern Opdyke and Florence Welch, who have charge of the long distance department of the telephone exchange at Chico, California, are going to Florida to see if the Florida oranges are really sweeter than their western cousins. It is very evident that these young ladies are capable of taking care of themselves, judging by the way that they put up their tent and built their little campfire.

Mr. and Mrs. Mandeville came in from north Idaho, where no rain fell. Over most of the district wheat is thin and heading short; pastures are dry and most vegetation is making slow growth. Irrigation water is being used heavily and a shortage is threatened. Head lettuce is being harvested in the Lewiston valley. The crop is generally heavy, although there has been considerable tip burn and the continued heat is retarding heading.

PICK OPENING GAME LINEUPS

All Set for Twin Falls-Pocatello Baseball Session Today; Teams Well Matched.

Final preparations have been made and everything is in readiness for the opening of the baseball season at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the local ball park when Twin Falls meets Pocatello.

The batteries for the Blues in the opening game will be either Keller or Oswald on the delivery end and the receiving to be cared for by either "Chuck" Richardson or Edgar Muswell, the high school captain whose hitting will be a factor in deciding the place for him. For Pocatello either Aldred or Phillips will occupy the mound and as with Twin Falls there is a problem to decide between two backstops, Grayson or Warren.

In the infield Billy Whitall will occupy the first sack for Twin Falls while Bill Bailey will take second and the elongated Phil Fix will hold down the hot corner at third, with Watson filling the shortstop post. This is a start in the infield for the Blues and for Pocatello the infield will be Reese, first; Phil, second; Pettit, shortstop; Liddy, third.

For the positions in the outfield Twin Falls will have the services of the well known "Red" Bell in the left section, Lavel Jarman, a high school star of no mean ability, will take the place in center field and "Jake" Yochim is the man to whom the third gardening job in right field will be assigned. Pocatello has Bourne, Feldstead and Erickson lined up in the outfield.

With such a lineup both teams are represented as very nearly equal in all-around strength, both teams have comparatively strong batteries and the fielding ability of both is still a matter of speculation.

ENTRANTS LINE UP FOR INDIANAPOLIS CLASSIC

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29 (AP)—A score and two little spectators, almost as tiny as the automobiles, but capable of marvelous speed today received the careful careers of the pilots who will guide them in the 12th annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway tomorrow.

Two additional machines will try at daylight to meet the speed test of eighty miles an hour for 10 miles that officials have prescribed for all entrants in the race. Should they make the required speed twenty-four cars will line up to get away with the crash of the starting bomb at 10 a. m.

The speed fans had among the list of starters many favorites, but in all discussions the talk eventually turned to the possibility of Tommy Milton, winner in 1921 and again in 1923, annexing the coveted first prize of $20,000.

Jimmy Murphy, winner of the 1922 race, was another favorite because of his capture of the pole position, a place he holds by virtue of his average 108.04 miles an hour in the speed qualification trials.

Memorial for World War President; Impressive Feature of Joint Meeting of Local Organizations.

Members of the Twin Falls County Jefferson club and of the Democratic Women's club, composing an "assembly" of about 50 persons, at a meeting Thursday evening in the Business Women's club rooms paid tribute to the memory of Woodrow Wilson on the eve of Memorial Day. Various phases of the life and work of the world president were discussed by a number of speakers. I. H. Masters spoke of "Woodrow Wilson, Author and Educator." John E. Davies of "Woodrow Wilson, Statesman." Chester G. A. Divilbiss, Buhl, of "Woodrow Wilson, First in War." Mrs. T. M. Robertson of "Woodrow Wilson, First in Peace." O. W. Wilson of "Woodrow Wilson, First in the Eyes of the World."

Election of officers of the Jefferson club, held on this occasion, resulted in the selection of W. Orr Chapman, president; John E. Davies, vice president; and I. H. Masters, secretary.

Mrs. J. D. Whelan, president of the Democratic Women's club presided over the joint meeting. Musical numbers included a vocal solo by Mrs. E. G. Sturdivant and selection by a quartet composed of Mesdames Wiley, Westcott and Nunnemaker and Miss Edna Graham, with Mrs. Heuston as accompanist.

Considerable enthusiasm was aroused by singing of two original songs—"On That Cold November Morning," by the Democratic Women's club, and "O. O. P. Ain't Goin' to Win No More," by a boys and girls chorus.

Meaning of Han

The word Han is used in the Near East to designate a stopping place for travelers. It scarcely takes on the dignity of a hotel, since the rooms are furnished with nothing more than a pallet to provide a resting place for the weary sojourner.

A mole has often made a passage, 100 feet in length to a single night when the ground has been softened from rain. Often a mole house underground is complete in every detail with big rooms and convenient entrances.

First American Shoemaker

The first recorded American shoemaker was Thomas Baird, who arrived on the second voyage of the Mayflower in 1628. He was under contract with the Plymouth company to make shoes for the colonists. One Philip Kirtland, a Welshman, came to Lynn, Mass., in 1630, and John Adams Dwyer, a celebrated shoemaker, settled there in 1750; so Lynn got an early start in the industry for which it is now famous.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Mrs. M. J. Sweeley Leaves for Los Angeles in Connection With Annual Federation Sessions.

That Idaho club women are a solid unit in favor of the election to the presidency of the general federation of Mrs. Wallace Perham of Glendive, Mont., is the statement of Mrs. M. J. Sweeley, who expects to leave here Friday night for attendance upon the national convention to be held at Los Angeles June 3 to 13.

There are three candidates for the presidency and Mrs. Perham, a western woman is looked upon as entering the race under a natural handicap because of this fact. The election is considered of unusual importance, however, and the advantages to the west from the election of Mrs. Perham will not be lost sight of by her supporters.

Mrs. Sweeley, as president of the Western Federation, is also Idaho director in the general federation. One of the points of interest to be settled at the convention will be the acceptance of an offer of the federation of an office of an endorsement of the sum of $5,000,000. Very little is known as to the source of the endowment and it is anticipated that a good deal of time will be devoted to the matter before definite action is taken.

HANSON FREED OF THEFT-CHARGE

OLE HANSON, Seattle, Washington's

pictureque mayor, now a resident of Los Angeles, Cal., where he is in the real estate business, successfully defended himself against a charge of horse stealing in a Pasadena, Cal., court. The charge was brought by Clarence W. Baston, of Sierra Madre. "I am charged with stealing my own horse," said Hanson, when the case was brought up before a justice of the peace. "When I moved to Los Angeles I shipped five horses there. Someone stole one and when I found it on a vacant lot at Sierra Madre, I took it back."

First Modern Census

Many of the European countries had crude methods of taking a census in very early times. In England as early as 1081 William the Conqueror took what may be termed as an agricultural census, the results being embodied in the Domesday Book. The modern census originated in Sweden. England and the United States. In 1740 the Swedish Academy of Sciences directed the clergy to compile statistics of population, etc. In Great Britain the census office was established in 1801 and the first official census taken in 1801. The first census of the United States was in 1790. Russia in 1802 established a central bureau for the purpose. France did the same at the revolution; Prussia in 1805; Austria in 1828, and Belgium in 1831.

Corpuscles of the Blood

A painstaking German scientist, practiced in the juggling of trillions as a result of the approach of the mark to the absolute zero, has published some startling statistics concerning the corpuscles of the blood, those microscopic entities which give it its color and its life-giving power. Laid endwise in single line the corpuscles from the blood of a healthy adult would extend nearly five times around the earth at the equator. Counting five of them every second, it would require 100,000 years to count every one of the 25,000,000,000 of them. The corpuscles of two men would reach as far as the moon if placed edge to edge.

Near Perpetual Motion

Probably the nearest thing to a perpetual motion yet developed is a rutilum clock, invented by Lord Rayleigh more than ten years ago, and which has been operating ever since without having once been repaired or touched by human hands.

Memorial Day

Today—Memorial Day—the nation honors its sons who, in three wars, made the supreme sacrifice for those ideas and ideals which we are proud to call American.

It will be a day of merry-making, of course, but there is no one among us who can not well afford to think upon the reason for it, and pause to show some honor to the nation's dead.

Gold Vs. Labor
One ounce of gold pays wages for twenty hours' work in the United States; fifty hours work in Great Britain; ninety hours work in Japan one hundred hours in France and two hundred hours' work in Germany.

In Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Brazil, ivory grows on trees. Cheimons, ornaments, buttons, drawer knobs and other articles are made from the vegetable ivory which, dried and cut, looks like the real ivory obtained from elephant tusks. It is gathered in the form of hard, white, fine-grained, oval nuts about the size of a small potato which drop from the wild tagua or ivory-nut palm. The average young female tree produces from six to nine of these nuts a season.

This defense was perfectly logical in the minds of the majority of the red men, and more than one has closed on a skinning-knife in a lust to make a fitting sacrifice to the strange god. But Crazy Horse never lost sight of the main point. He spoke sharply, saying:

"These men speak with a strange tongue, and their medicine will harm us—or else they are liars and their medicine will grow very weak. I must find out if the young man is the friend of High Wolf, our brother among the Cheyenne. If he is then the Knife Talking has talked with a liar."

Dinsdale assumed this was the lod of Crazy Horse until Scissors formed him the chief was extremely democratic and that this particular shelter belonged to a military society organized by Sitting Bull, and known as the Strong Hearts.

America—By the assemblage.

Tell All graves are to be decorated in the morning before the exercises by Dan McCook circle and Henry V. Walling circle, Legion, company L, R. and the American Legion Women's auxiliary.

Transportation will be provided for many persons at Main avenue street car stop, where the parade is to disband. Other persons who desire to see the parade are invited to call telephone No. 210 at 9 or 9:45 a. m. for cars.

Traffic at the cemetery will be assisted by Ray E. Brown and members from among members of the American Legion who will be on the ground at 8 o'clock. Arrangements have been made for parking 3000 cars inside the cemetery.

Suspension of business activities generally for the day and closing of public offices will mark Twin Falls observance today of Memorial day. Under favorable weather conditions it is indicated that attendance at the exercises to be held in the cemetery immediately following the parade at 10 o'clock this forenoon will constitute one of the largest assemblages ever gathered at a similar occasion here. The parade under direction of former Senator Joseph H. Seaver will be one of the most elaborate Memorial day parades in Twin Falls history.

Guardmen Big Factor.

Important both to the parade and the exercises will be made by company L, Twin Falls unit of the Idaho national guard, formed as the first organized military unit here since the departure of company L of the old Second Idaho, to enter service in the world war. Guardmen will march as a unit in the parade and will furnish the firing squad and bugler at the conclusion of the exercises.

Veterans in Charge.

Arrangements for observance of the day have been in charge entirely of the committees named for this purpose by Dan McCook post, Grand Army of the Republic, from among its own members. Assistance has been given in the arrangements for the observance by auxiliary organizations of the Grand Army and by the American Legion.

Graves of 31 veterans of the Civil war and more than a score of the veterans of the world war, to be decorated in connection with the exercises, will be observed here today, will be indicated by flags placed over each grave and request has been made by the committee in charge that flags be not placed on any grave except that of a veteran.

In preparation for the observance of Memorial day, flags were suspended Thursday over the principal thoroughfares and the Stars and Stripes were displayed in many business houses and elsewhere throughout the city.

Listed as Closing Day:

Members of the chamber of commerce merchants' bureau, at a meeting Thursday forenoon, included Memorial day as one of a list of six holidays on which Twin Falls business houses should be closed for the entire day, adopted at that time. The holidays thus designated are New Year's day, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving day, Memorial day, Labor day, Christmas day and one-half day for the Twin Falls county fair. In case any of these days should fall on Sunday, it was provided, the holiday shall be observed on the Monday following. No other days or occasions are to be deemed regular closing days by the business concerns of Twin Falls.

Time Calls Roll of World War Veterans

Memorial Day Takes on Added Significance for Younger Service Men in View of Own Fatalities.

Memorial Day this year has assumed increased significance for veterans of the world war in view of statement recently made public through the American Legion that 125,000 world war service men have died since July 20, 1919, a number equal to the number of service men who died in the war—killed in battle or victims of wounds or disease.

Twenty-six thousand service men will answer the final roll call in 1924—one every 20 minutes, three every hour, 72 every day, the statement continued. On Memorial Day, the 11,000 posts of the American Legion will join in placing flowers on the graves of a quarter of a million departed comrades.

Members of the Legion in Twin Falls are cooperating with the older veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic in preparations for the community observance of Memorial day, and in connection with this observance the Legion members will pay tribute to their own dead, placing wreaths upon the bronze tablet in the high school building bearing the names of high school students who died in service, and decorating at the cemetery a cross atop representing the grave of the unknown soldier.

ONE MOONSHINE SUSPECT RELEASED AFTER HEARING

N. L. Bletcher, arrested Tuesday by a federal officer and Twin Falls county deputy sheriffs at Kitty's Hot Hole ranch in Owyhee county, 80 miles southeast of here, following a hearing here Thursday before United States Commissioner H. E. Powers, was held under $1000 bond to answer to the federal grand jury charge of violating the prohibition laws. Bletcher is the alleged owner of a large moonshine still seized by the officers near the ranch. Frank Leonard, arrested as an accomplice with Bletcher in operation of the still, was released for lack of evidence implicating him in the alleged offense.

Frank Blesqueque, Blesque, in whose possession a second moonshine still and quantity of liquor is alleged to have been found by the officers at the end of a difficult trail in Buck canyon, about five miles distant from the ranch, denied jurisdiction of the commission and declared that he is a resident of Nevada.

Twin Falls County Farmers Preparing for Short Water

Views and Ideas of Men Who Expect to Raise Good Crops Notwithstanding Existing Conditions; Methods of Handling Crops Set Forth in Interviews Gathered by The News.

P. H. Weller, who, with his son, L. R. Weller, farms a splendid 100-acre piece on Addison Avenue north of Kimberly, a day or two ago stated that the biggest crop of potatoes he ever got in his life was made in 1915, a short one. He expresses himself as not at all anxious as to the water situation, although the shortage should reach a point where crops actually burn for lack of moisture, a situation which he regards as exceedingly unlikely although he is prepared for a distinct shortage of available water, especially towards the close of the irrigation season.

Questioned with respect to his 1915 potato yield he said: "I watered and cultivated first, then used three light waterings, the first on every other row, the last two every row. The runs were very light, the last being on July 20. The war was slow that I used less than half of the normal available amount. I seldom use longer than a 12-hour run and frequently change two or three times in 24 hours.

Twenty Tons to the Acre.

"I have grown beets for six or seven years. Last year I got 20 tons to the acre off of the seven acres planted. I started with a light run, watering only every second row and run for perhaps six or seven hours. I try to keep the ground damp and use a little water every two days or so. I judge I used about half the available water on the beets last year.

I can get along on 70 per cent of a normal flow of water. My crops did not suffer in 1915 or 1919. It is just as detrimental to crops to use too much water as it is to use too little. I only irrigate every second row of beets. This year I will make sure of water for my cultivated crops. For spuds and beans I set the corrugations three feet apart before planting. While I know I can get along with 70 per cent as much water as we had last year, I am prepared to try it on 40 per cent. After all, water on the land is a good deal like money the more you have the more you are inclined to use."

The Weller farm this year is planted.
