Japanese Break Up Social Affair at Imperial Hotel; Insult Americans; Washington Shows Concern

TOKIO, June 7 (AP)—Japanese seeking to solidify national sentiment against the new law excluding them from the United States, carried their campaign into the foreign quarters here today, breaking up a dance at the Imperial hotel.

A band of 30 ruffians, or political ruffians, raided the dance and actions created such a disturbance that a free-for-all fight was averted only by interference of some of the calmer Japanese guests, who persuaded the intruders to leave.

Handbills, scattered by the ruffians, demanded deportation of all Americans, boycotts against American merchandise and motion pictures, exclusion of Americans from Japan, abrogation of all treaties between the two countries and "abolition of the evil of dancing which is ruining our country."

The handbills bore the signature, "Great Forward Association."

Up to tonight the American community here had not directly felt the effects of enactment in the United States of the exclusion law. For that reason tonight's demonstration made a profound impression, which also was manifested in official circles. The American charge d'affaires was among those at the hotel when the dance was raided.

Following the interruption of the dance, reports were received that the ruffians had appeared at several motion picture theaters showing American films and had forced the management of the houses to close them for the night.

No interference was tendered the ruffians by the police, who were said to have been told of the program in advance. Newspaper photographers also forewarned, were stationed in advantageous places, and it was pointed out that the demonstration took place.

WASHINGTON CONCERNED.

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—While administration authorities here lacked official advice tonight telling of the ruffians in Tokyo reported in press dispatches, they plainly showed concern over the general situation which has developed since the exclusion provision of the immigration act became a law.

A conviction was found everywhere that the Japanese government would take prompt and adequate measure to protect the Americans from injury by lawless elements and it was pointed out that the acts of these elements should in no sense be accepted as reflecting the attitude of the Tokyo government authorities.

Boysish Crudeness Noted in Admission of Young Intellectual Of Scheme for Slaying One Of His Friends

CHICAGO, June 7 (AP)—A plot filled with boyish crudeness was revealed today in the confession of Richard Loeb, detailing his share with Nathan Leopold, Jr., in the kidnapping and killing of Robert Franks.

Just after the confession was made public a diver who has been searching for a week in a lagoon, found the typewriter which the boys, partners of two Chicago millionaires, said they used to write letters to their victim's father demanding $10,000 ransom. The broken machine was found in the place and condition the confession described.

Loeb's confession told how, for three hours and a half he and Leopold cruised up and down the streets in a rented car the afternoon of the kidnapping, scanning shores of children, undecided which one to take.

These two youths, still in their teens, who admitted they planned to kill for excitement, actually looked over as prospective victims the children of their own near neighbors and friends, scions of the long established, highly respected colony of wealthy Chicagoans of which their own families were leading members.

Loeb at 2:30 in the afternoon alighted from their car to talk with an instructor at a private school attended by the Franks, while he looked over the crowd of children whom the instructor was overhauling at play. While there Loeb talked to his own younger brother, while just across the street stood the rented car with side curtains up, containing the chisel, the distilling acid and an anesthetic with which, the confession said, the pair planned to kill whomever they should select.

WAR LOAN QUIZ

Action Is Taken at Gooding's Request; Glass Admits Injustice to Idaho Man

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Investigation of transactions of the war finance corporation, "particularly as regards alleged favoritism," in dealing with Senator Gooding, republican, Idaho, was ordered today by the senate on motion of Senator Gooding.

This action was requested by Senator Gooding despite the withdrawal today by Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, of a charge he made on the floor of the senate last night that the Idaho senator had violated the federal statutes in his handling with the war finance corporation.

The charge was made during a period of disorder in the senate, Senator Glass said, and "before I had been thoroughly advised as to the statute to which reference was had."

He expressed regret for injustice done to the Idaho senator.

Senator Gooding received a letter from the counsel of the board declaring transactions of the board did not come within the category of those in which members of congress were prohibited from participating, and that the fact that a senator was a stockholder in a corporation to which loans were made would not make him thereby in "party to the transaction."

The resolution agreed to authorize a committee of three to sit during the summer to inquire into war finance corporation dealings in the west.

Western Senators Stage Losing
Fight for Farm Relief; Borah
Acts to Block Payment of Bonus

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Congress ended its six months' session tonight in an atmosphere of controversy and turmoil characteristic of the bitter dissent which has marked its proceedings from the start.

Western senators and representatives in the final hours of the session fought and lost a desperate fight for legislation to relieve the farmer and to reform the reclamation policy of the government.

Many other measures, including the bill authorizing construction of eight new cruisers and modernization of battleships and the deficiency appropriation bill, carrying funds for the reclamation of the bonus law and for many other purposes, failed in the final round of legislation when the session ended automatically at 7 p. m.

Not only the deficiency bill goes down in defeat in the race against time but a special resolution passed in the last five minutes by the house to make the bonus appropriation available regardless was lost in the senate.

Republican leaders declared that only a special session of congress could provide the necessary funds for the initial costs of the compensation measure.

The deficiency bill itself was blocked at the last minute by Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, because of the omission of a reclamation appropriation proposed by him, and action on the emergency bonus resolution was prevented by objections by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, and King, democrat, Utah.

The postal salaries increase bill, passed by both senate and house by almost unanimous votes, also went by the board when President Coolidge vetoed it on the ground that it was "extraneous."

No effort to call it up for re-passage was made in the short time remaining.

COLD WEATHER AT BUTTE

BUTTE, Mont., June 7 (AP)—Last night was the coldest June night in the history of Butte, with the temperature running from 35 to 41 above. Heavy damage was done to flower gardens. Republican Party Leaders View
Field of Possibilities for Vice President; Borah Denies
Boom Report

CLEVELAND, O., June 7 (AP)—The last stage of the pre-convention period was reached today when the republican national committee wound up its work of hearing contesting delegations.

Party leaders and convention managers, released from the grind of making decisions between warring factions, went in for relaxation or surveying the presidential honors which are variously launched.

Five vice presidential booms had risen above ordinary mention today. The largest and seemingly hottest was still former Governor Lowden's. It and companions, however, in booms for Senator Borah, despite the fact that the senator disavows it; for Secretary Hoover, despite the fact that he also turns in the other direction; for Charles D. Daves of Chicago, despite the fact that the general's boom was suddenly overshadowed by Lowden's and finally, a boom for Dr. Martin Luther Burton, president of the University of Michigan, who is going to make the speech placing President Coolidge in nomination.

Boost Lowden

Lowden's backers continue to push their claim on the ground that he would be agreeable to President Coolidge and add strength to the ticket in the agricultural west. However, his friends point out that he certainly is one of the acceptable ones; Borah's friends argue that the ticket needs him to appeal to those who follow the so-called school of progressive thought in the party; the friends of General Daves point to his record as a business man, soldier and "go-getter" and Dr. Burton's friends say that when the convention sees him and hears him it will be so captivated that it will settle the vice-presidential nomination "without looking further."

An hour before congress adjourned he went to the capitol and there surrounded by members of his cabinet he affixed his signature to all of the measures brought to him before the adjournment bell sounded the ending of the first session of the sixty-eighth congress.

Senate Committee Upholds
Texan's Right to Seat; Claim
Evidence Insufficient

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—The senate committee investigating the election contest against Senator Mayfield, democrat, Texas, today upheld his right to a seat in the senate.

The evidence presented by his republican opponent, George E. B. Paddy, was held to be insufficient to support charges that excessive campaign funds had been spent in his behalf by the Ku Klux Klan or any other organization or individual in 1922.

The decision was announced after counsel for Paddy, who have been presenting testimony for several weeks, had argued in an executive session of the committee for a continuation of the hearings during the recess of congress. Senator Mayfield's attorneys had urged action, declaring sufficient evidence already had been produced to enable the committee to decide.

Chairman Spencer in announcing the view of the committee, explained that the full elections committee still must act on the contest and that it would be necessary for them to obtain action by the senate itself.

At the request of the counsel for Paddy, the committee agreed to make a further examination before it drafts its report into the charges of intimidation and unfair practices in the election. Briefs will be filed by counsel on those two phases of the case.

PROJECT BILL
DEFEATED IN FINAL WRANGLE

House and Senate Tangle Ended by Adjournment; Pittman
Holds Floor in Last Hectic
Debate

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Reclamation legislation, including the bill designed to carry out the recommendations of Secretary Work's fact-finding commission, was killed in congress today when the senate and house became entangled in a dispute which was ended summarily by the fall of the gavel announcing adjournment.

Early in the day the house disagreed with the senate's method of hitching reclamation legislation to the deficiency bill carrying funds for the first year's operation of the bonus. Later the house accepted the measure in a modified form which aroused the ire of Senator Pittman, Nevada, to such an extent that, with only 30 minutes of the session remaining, he took the floor and held it against all comers, preventing the senate from conducting any further business.

The specific action of the house to which Senator Pittman took exception was the elimination of an appropriation for the Spanish Springs irrigation project in Nevada.

Launching a vigorous attack on the appropriations committee, Senator Pittman declared it had not hesitated to include "at this last minute" an appropriation of more than $1,000,000 for two projects in Utah, which the reclamation bureau had refused to recommend, and for which no estimate had been made by the bureau.

"You ask me to swallow that," he said to senators who tried to make him yield the floor during the last minutes of the session. "I will. Call your extra session and we will fight it out."

Wrangle Continues.

Several senators among the Nevada delegation were crowded around him, pleading that he discontinue the fight.

"I appeal to the senator," said Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona, "others are being hurt more than he by his attitude."

Senator Ashurst protested against elimination of the amendment but added that he "savored" the other departments of the government for "spite" by seeking defeat of the entire bill. The reply of Senator Pittman to all appeals was, "I refuse to yield."

Still wrangling, Senator Pittman was the center of a group of pleading members when adjournment was announced.

When the death of the bill was seen, Representative Longworth of Ohio, republican, in a one-minute speech in the house assailed senators who he declared "through selfishness" had

LaFollette Boom Is Gaining
Through Failure of Congress
To Act on Legislation, His Adherents Declare

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—The convention of the conference for progressive political action which is expected to nominate Senator LaFollette for president in Cleveland July 4 has been given impetus by the failure of congress to enact farm and railroad legislation; it was declared in a statement issued here today by its publicity bureau.

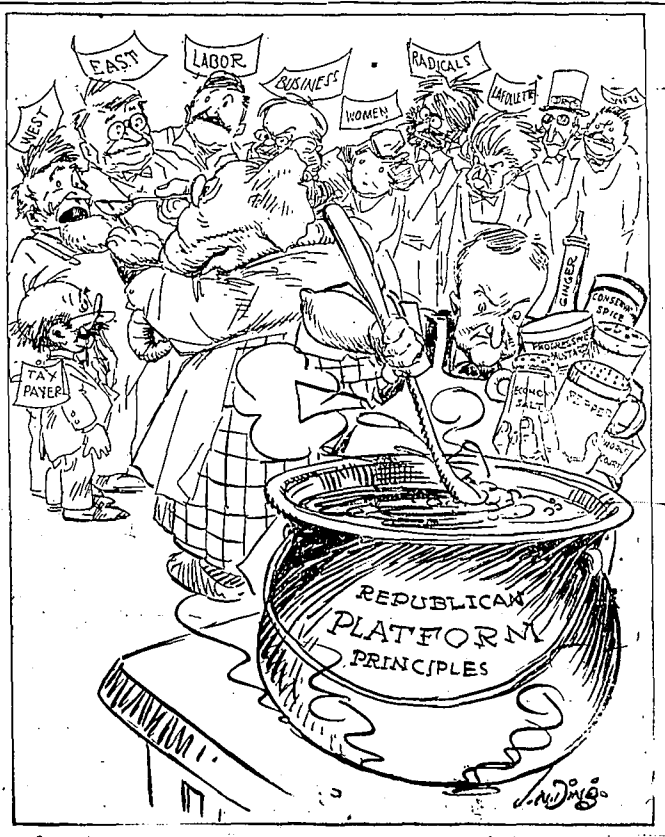

A new flood of requests for credentials have been received, it was said, from farm organizations, disappointed and resentful at failure of agriculture relief legislation" and from "every section of the labor movement, which has been cheated of relief from the petty tyrannies of the railroad board and of unemployment judges."

"Progressive citizens in general," the statement said, "see in the present political situation the possibility of a great movement back to human freedom and security."

"We have proven," it was added, "that a balance of power in congress is not enough to secure constructive legislation. That was shown in the struggle for the Howel-Barkley railroad labor bill and the fight for the Norris-Sinclair farm relief bill."

COUNSEL IS SELECTED

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Announcement that the senate Daugherty committee had engaged George Wickersham, former attorney general, as counsel to conduct the committee's appeal from the decision of the district court at Cincinnati, freeing M. S. Daugherty from the necessity of appearing as a witness under the committed subpoena, was made today by Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, the committee president.

TUESDAY MEET
CONTRASTED TO 1920 SESSION

Former Powerful Influences
Disappear; Leaders Active;
Science Will Play an Important Part

CLEVELAND, June 7 (AP)—With the disappearance of former powerful influences, and science taking a new and prominent part, the republican national convention which convenes here Tuesday will furnish some striking contrasts to the 1920 convention held in Chicago. Former President Warren G. Harding, nominated only after a long battle on the convention floor and hours of conferences behind closed doors in the early hours of the morning at Chicago, has passed. Differing from the heated convention of 1920, which resulted in Harding's nomination, the Cleveland convention promises only a mild thrill with every indication of President Coolidge being nominated on the first ballot—an unusual occurrence in political history.

Many of the Ohio political powers, so conspicuous at the Chicago convention, have been succeeded in the political firmament by the republican political leaders of New England. The death of Senator Hoar Peabody, and the defeat in the Pennsylvania primaries of Governor Gifford Pinchot for a delegate's seat, places the political destinies of the Keystone state in the hands of new leaders.

Massachusetts and Virginia have climbed a rung on the political ladder through appointment of two native sons—William M. Butler, Massachusetts, as the president's national campaign manager, and G. Bascom Slemmy, Virginia, the chief executive's private secretary. Both are of the Coolidge type—calm and reticent political leaders.

Science's contribution provides a new convention feature. By the use of radio in broadcasting convention proceedings for the first time, 20,000,000 people throughout the United States will be enabled to "listen in" through 14 stations reached by telephone from the convention. In addition, approximately 50,000 Clevelanders may hear through loud speakers outside the convention hall.

The newest scientific development, but recently successfully tested between Cleveland and New York, is telephone photography, by which photographs can be transmitted over an ordinary telephone wire in less than five minutes. Through the co-operation of engineers of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, it is planned to transmit official convention pictures by telephone to New York papers in five minutes.

FARM PLATFORM
DECLARES FOR
RELIEF ACTIONBureau Federation and Illinois
Agricultural Association List
Demands To Be Made at Conventions

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—An agricultural platform to be submitted to each of the national political conventions by the American Farm Bureau Federation in conjunction with the Illinois Agricultural association will ask for a pledge to take whatever steps may be necessary to bring the purchasing power of agriculture back to normal.

"Every effort should be made to bring back into proper articulation the relationship between agriculture—the biggest of all our industries—and our various other interests," says the draft of the platform prepared here. "A price level that is just to the taxpayer, the stock and bond holder and the producer and carrier must be maintained for the welfare of all, but in particular, agriculture. Drastic deflation has worked a hardship on agriculture, made burdensome its taxes and mortgages, brought unfairly low prices and injured our foreign trade. Therefore the price level should be properly related to the needs as recognized for agriculture as well as for urban industry."

Legislative Aid.

The platform declares for legislative aid in furthering co-operative marketing, continued study of agricultural prices and farm production, improvement of international trade and maintenance of low interest rates to farmers. It condemns a general sales tax as unjust and inequitable, and advocates a general plan of comprehensive water power development for the country as a whole stipulating that the government should not itself engage in the fertilizer business or in the power business, but should finance approved hydro-electric projects. The Muscle Shoals project it says, affords an outstanding opportunity to inaugurate such a policy.

Continuance of the development of the federal aid highway system is approved and reorganization of railroad rates is recommended so as to give the bulky, basic and raw commodities, such as agricultural products and coal, the lowest rates. The platform declares for an American merchant marine owned by private capital and operated by private energy, disposition of government owned ships and passage of American coastwise shipping through the Panama canal without payment of tolls.

Regulation of child labor as a state function should be continued, the platform declares. General readjustment of postal salaries without providing ways and means is condemned. No new reclamation project should be started, it declares, and first consideration should be given projects under way or completed.

Briny Was Too Riny

A summer boarder at a small seaside resort took as much interest in the ocean as if he owned a controlling interest in it. He was always talking about "the briny." He was standing on the beach one day when a bather slipped in and almost immediately slipped out. The recipient one was promptly called to account.

"What's the matter? Don't you like the briny? What's wrong with the briny?"

The other pointed to a platitude of floating rind and replied briefly: "Too watermelony today."

The senate committee investigating Senator Mayfield, democrat, Texas, upheld his right to retain his seat.

The house shipping board committee announced it would pursue its investigation in Europe this summer. Senate directed the appointment of a special committee to investigate expenditures during the campaign.

The senate internal revenue bureau investigating committee tentatively agreed upon a thorough inquiry into prohibition enforcement.

The Swamp Angel

The "Swamp Angel," was an eight-inch parrot cannon, so-called by the federal soldiers, that was used in the siege of Charleston, S. C. It burst August 22, 1863, and was sent to Trenton, N. J., where it now occupies a granite base on the corner of Perry and Clinton streets.

SCHEDULE IS DRAWN UP FOR LOCAL LEAGUE

Six-Team Arrangement Agreed Upon at Recent Meeting; Sweeley To Be Dictator; Plan Saturday Games

The Twin Falls south side is to have a six-team baseball league following a meeting of representatives of the six teams involved last week in the offices of the sugar company.

The plan to be followed is one suggested by the Rev. Tom Blodgett of Hansen, who early organized a community team there to play Saturday afternoon baseball. Several other towns have been quick to fall into line and at present the league will be formed of teams representing Hansen, Buhl, Filer, Murtaugh, Kimberly and the Sugar Factory.

The present schedule of games which has been arranged provides for three games each Saturday afternoon over a period of eleven weeks beginning July 14 with games at Buhl, Filer and Kimberly.

Everything is being anticipated in the league just formed and as a preventive against disputes a local "dictator" has been named by the league to supervise the arguments and to decide the disputes which may arise. Everett M. Sweeley of Twin Falls has been decided upon by the members of the league as the local "dictator."

Another thing planned to keep peace among the teams will be the selection of umpires, each team furnishing one for each game.

In Hansen the proposition of Saturday afternoon baseball has been slightly successful and interest seems to be present in the newly organized league in surrounding towns who were quick to join the enterprise.

The new association will be strictly amateur and all admission charges are to be given to the two competing teams. Charges of 25 cents and 10 cents for children are to be levied on the admission to pay for the upkeep and expenses of the teams.

Schedule Given.
The schedule which has been worked out by the committee in charge of the Saturday afternoon league will be as follows:

June 14—Sugar Company at Buhl; Hansen at Filer; Murtaugh at Kimberly.
June 21—Buhl at Hansen; Kimberly at Murtaugh; Filer at Twin Falls.
June 28—Murtaugh at Filer; Hansen at Kimberly; Buhl at Twin Falls.
July 12—Murtaugh at Buhl; Kimberly at Filer; Sugar Company at Hansen.

July 19—Buhl at Filer; Hansen at Murtaugh; Kimberly at Twin Falls.
July 26—Filer at Hansen; Buhl at Kimberly; Sugar Company at Murtaugh.

August 2—Hansen at Buhl; Filer at Kimberly; Murtaugh at Twin Falls.
August 9—Murtaugh at Buhl; Sugar Company at Filer; Kimberly at Hansen.

August 16—Kimberly at Filer; Buhl at Murtaugh; Hansen at Twin Falls.
August 23—Filer at Buhl; Sugar Company at Kimberly; Murtaugh at Hansen.

August 30—Kimberly at Buhl; Sugar Company at Hansen; Filer at Murtaugh.
This schedule arranges for five games during the 12 weeks of play in Twin Falls as all of the Sugar Factory games will be played here. Each team in the league will meet every other team twice during the season, once on the home grounds and a standing away from home.

BLUES TO MEET VISITORS TODAY

Idaho Falls Game to Start at 2:30 o'Clock; Kellar Expected to Pitch

This afternoon Congriff's Blues meet Idaho Falls at 2:30 o'clock on the local diamond for the fourth game of the season.

Kellar will undoubtedly start the game in the box for Twin Falls. In the infield Whitely will probably occupy first base with Seitley at second, Watson at shortstop and Kieffner on third. This is an expressly good outfit despite the fact that the new player, "Flash" Mullins, will fail to arrive in time for the Idaho Falls contest.

In the outfield the Blues will be greatly strengthened by the appearance of Riley Saturday afternoon in the Blues uniform. He, with the remaining players of last week's team will hold down the gardening positions.

Richardson and Muscell will net as backstops against the Idaho Falls nine.

HEAVY HITTING WINS FOR REDS

Phillies Drop 10-4 Game; Cubs Take Second Straight From Giants; Dodgers Win

PHILADELPHIA, June 7 (AP)—Cincinnati won the opening games of the series from Philadelphia today when a fourth inning rally netted nine runs and gave the visitors a 10 to 4 victory.

For three innings the contest was a happy one for the local fans and when the fourth inning started the home team were holding a 2 to 0 lead over the invaders from Ohio. Then in the fourth the Reds opened a bombardment on Carlson that chased him from the hill and sewed up the game.

CHURCH TEAM WINS GAME

The Christian church baseball team won the initial game of the inter-church games last Friday evening in a seven-inning battle which gave them a 13 to 7 count over the Baptists. While this game was a practice game it created a great deal of enthusiasm in the church baseball proposition which is being fostered among the churches with the idea of forming a league.

Beverly, pitcher for the Baptists, performed in first class shape in the box, but the Christians were more successful with Bannock and Parish in the box. The "Camelites" held the lead until the fifth inning when the Baptists scored four runs and tied the score. However, in the final innings the superior ability of the Christian church put them far to the good, with the final count reading 13 to 7.

W. A. Patrick is the manager of the Christian church team which has scheduled its next game for Tuesday evening with the Presbyterian church nine.

These games are scheduled for 6:30 and give ample opportunity for everyone to attend and do not interfere with working hours.

SCARCITY OF OFFERINGS STRENGTHENS CORN PRICE

Market Closes Strong as Fear Affects Outlook; Crop Outlook Improves

CHICAGO, June 7 (AP)—Unsettled over the corn crop outlook, the market today to give all grain values an upward tilt. The corn market closed strong, 3-4 to 1-4 not higher, July 78 3/8 to 78 1/2, with wheat showing 1-8 to 1-4 gain, oats at 3-8 to 1-2 to 1-2 advance and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a rise of 5 cents.

Highest prices of the day in the corn market were current at the close. It was current gossip that rural holders were offering little or no corn to arrive here and that estimates of a liberal harvest of corn acreage this year might yet be greatly changed.

With the government crop report due on Monday and with congress still in session today, offerings of wheat proved scarce. Halted in the spring crop belt were somewhat offset, too, by talk of better export inquiry.

Cuts were in urgent demand from exporters. The crop prospect was regarded as less favorable for oats as well as for corn.

Fairly good call for meats upheld the provision market.

STORAGE WATER LEVEL RISES AT JACKSON LAKE

Twin Falls Canal Company Maintains 80 Per Cent Delivery While Collecting Reserve Supplies in Reservoirs

Snake river is rising and additional storage water for Twin Falls and North Side canal companies is accumulating in Jackson lake reservoir, according to statement Saturday of Burton Smith, general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company, who based his announcement on information contained in watermaster's reports of the past few days.

Reports Show Rise

Volume of water in Jackson lake on Saturday was 455,870 acre feet, as compared with 448,050 acre feet on Friday, 441,910 acre feet on Thursday, and 441,150 acre feet on Wednesday of last week. All water coming in to Jackson lake since May 22 when the amount of water in storage there reached 438,000 acre feet—covering all other storage rights of the property of the Twin Falls and North Side canal companies. Since May 22 storage water has been drawn upon by other users but the Twin Falls canal company has not yet made any draft this season upon its stored waters in Jackson lake.

In addition to holding intact its stored water in Jackson lake, Manager Smith stated Saturday, the Twin Falls canal company now is taking advantage of the river's rise to collect additional storage water in Lake Wolcott for use later in the season.

Explains Policy

Water deliveries through the Twin Falls canal system will be maintained all this week at approximately 80 per cent, Manager Smith said, 2800 second feet being diverted daily at Minner for this purpose. The remainder of the river's flow to which the Twin Falls company is entitled will be stored in Lake Wolcott.

In explanation of the policy of collecting additional storage water in Lake Wolcott, Manager Smith said that it was deemed more economical as well as more satisfactory to store the surplus in excess of 2800 second feet and maintain a constant 80 per cent delivery rather than to attempt delivery of all of the stream flow to which the Twin Falls company is entitled, with consequent daily fluctuations.

Programs of supervised playgrounds, sponsored by the Parent-Teachers associations and several civic organizations, and of the daily vacation bible school, to be conducted under auspices of the ministerial association, have been co-ordinated, according to announcement made Saturday, so that advantages of both the bible school and supervised play will be made available to children of the community.

Five hundred children between the ages of four and twelve years, are expected to enroll in the daily bible school opening at 9 o'clock Monday morning and continuing daily for three weeks.

Between the hours of 10:30 a. m. and noon daily during this three weeks period, the W. H. Wiley playground supervisor, and her assistants, in co-operation with the daily bible school, will have in the park special recreation for all children under 12 years of age. There will be at least a dozen assistants in the park at that time for supervised playing.

More than 200 children will be needed to assist in the work of the daily bible school, according to plans worked out Friday evening at a conference of leaders in the undertaking. The Rev. Charles E. Winning is superintendent of the school. Mrs. L. E. Dean is superintendent of the beginners department which will hold sessions in the Presbyterian church and Mrs. Dorothy Keworth is superintendent of the junior department which will assemble in the Methodist church.

The daily program in the beginners department provides for morning worship and conversation period; march, rhythm and eglesthetics; music; story telling groups; supervised play; classes in handwork and kindergarten dramatization.

The primary department's daily program provides for a general assembly at the beginning of the day followed by separation into classes in bible story, telling, religion, manual training and dramatization for boys and craftwork and dramatization for girls.

RUNAWAY TEAM PROVIDES SPECTACLE FROM THE PAST

Wagon Load of Coal Upset When Frightened Horses Collide With Car Parked at Side of Street

Spectators along Shoshone street north Saturday morning were treated to a little old-time excitement when a team belonging to Shipman Brothers Transfer company, hauling a load of coal, became unmanageable and took a sprint from Main avenue to Third avenue north, where they turned and in the melee ran the tongue of the wagon through the rear of Craig Branson's Ford. The wagon was upset and received a broken wheel. Outside of spilling the coal and a severe shaking up to Charles Quast, who was driving no other damage was done.

Winter Returns for Day to Twin Falls

Town and Country Awake to Find Ground Covered With Snow Blanket

Winter clothing was recalled from storage mostly generally in and about Twin Falls Saturday, when the town and country awoke in the morning to find the ground covered with snow and precipitation continued throughout the day in the form of frequent bursts of drizzling rain, while the mercury lifted but little from the frost line to which it dropped at its minimum mark Friday night.

The region was enveloped in a swirl of snowfall for a time after sunrise, but evidence of the unseasonable visitation vanished after a few hours. Word came from the region to the south that the entire Salmon River project was covered with snow varying in depth from a fraction of an inch to two and three inches. Hills to the south were swathed in snow blankets.

Records of the government observer's station for Friday showed high temperature at 48 above with low at 32 above, representing declines, respectively, of 18 degrees and 10 degrees from the maximum and minimum marks of the preceding day. Snowfall measured at the observer's station showed one-tenth of an inch, and precipitation was recorded at 11 one-hundredths of an inch.
