WITNESS TRACES SOURCE OF RUM DEAL TO MEANS

Notorious Former Sleuth Gets Severe Jolt in Trial Testimony; Mellon Ordered His Prosecution.

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—Complaint to Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, by John W. Hubbard, wealthy steel man of Trenton, N. J., that he had lost $15,000 in an effort to get whiskey out of bond, led to the prosecution of Gaston B. Means and his secretary Emil Jarneck, for alleged conspiracy to violate the liquor law, it was asserted in testimony today at the trial of the two men.

Hubbard testified that through Frank D. Saupp, an automobile dealer, he had been given an opportunity to buy whiskey obtainable through special government connections from the Thompsonville distillery warehouses at Brownsville, Pa. Through Saupp, he said, he had paid $15,000 to Charles W. Johnson, who was negotiating directly with the government, to stand all day yesterday and through the forenoon today, told in detail the story of the alleged plan to withdraw the whiskey and how it had failed.

Hubbard asserted he knew Arthur Sizemith, Mr. Mellon's secretary, and was acquainted with Mr. Mellon. After the plan had failed and no sign of the return of his money appeared, he said he had lunched with Sizemith, who urged him to lay his complaint before Mr. Mellon. He called on the secretary and after he had told his story, including the role played by Means, Mr. Mellon is alleged to have said:

"I'm surprised a government official would do anything like that," he said. "At Mr. Mellon's suggestion, the witness said, it was then arranged that formal affidavits of charges should be made before Commissioner David W. Blair of the internal revenue department. This was done. The witness said Johnson also called on Mr. Mellon. Hubbard denied having any business or financial connection with Mr. Mellon, Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis. Repeated efforts to link the name of the secretary of the treasury with the conspiracy were blocked after the charges were being attorneys.

Saupp, following Hubbard on the stand, testified that he was approached by Johnson who said he had been asked by Means to find customers for bonded whiskey at $200 a barrel. In addition to Johnson he had brought others to Means, he said.

Under cross-examination this morning, Johnson admitted that he had, while in Havana, received a telegram from his brother advising him he would be granted immunity for his testimony in the case.

SANDERS DIRECTS SPEAKERS
CHICAGO, June 18 (AP)—Appointment of Everett Sanders of Terre Haute, Indiana, as director of the speakers bureau of the Coolidge campaign committee was announced today by William M. Butler, chairman of the national republican committee.

Hughes Defends Action of U. S. On Immigration

State Department Note to Tokyo Firmly and Clearly Outlines America's Position as Being Final.

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The American reply to the Japanese protest against the exclusion provisions of the immigration act was made public tonight by the state department simultaneous with publication through the foreign office in Tokyo.

It is cordial and friendly in tone, but at the same time makes it clear that the exclusion provision "has no transience upon any written or implied obligation on the part of the United States."

Secretary Hughes points out that congress was wholly within its right in the enactment of the provision and that the action taken "is mandatory upon the executive branch of the government and allows no latitude for the exercise of executive discretion as to the carrying out of the executive will expressed in the statute."

The construction generally placed upon the American note is that it unequivocally demonstrates the view of the Washington government that the exclusion law is a closed incident and that no attempt to modify or alter its terms is to be expected.

Secretary Hughes in the note which he prepared with the utmost care, expresses pleasure over the "friendly and understanding" of the protest communication delivered to him by Ambassador Hanabusa May 31.

"You may be assured of the readiness of this government to consider in the same spirit the views you have set forth," Mr. Hughes adds.

Serious Forest Fire Is Reported Burning Near Moffat Tunnel

Shifting of Wind May Bring Destruction of Workings, Wire Message Says.

DENVER, Colo., June 18 (AP)—A serious forest fire is raging one quarter of a mile south of the west portal of the Moffat tunnel, according to a telegram received here today by the Moffat Tunnel commission.

The wind is blowing the fire away from the tunnel, but should the wind change its direction the tunnel workings might be endangered, it was announced. Three hundred men are fighting the flames.

The private telephone lines of the commission are down and the only word coming through is from Fraser, Colo., in Grand county, near the scene of the fire.

MANY REPORTED STORM VICTIMS

Cyclone Strikes North Dakota; Estimates of Dead Vary; Much Property Lost.

FARGO, N. D., June 18 (AP)—Unconfirmed reports received from Dickinson tonight were to the effect that seven persons were killed in a cyclone in that vicinity late today.

Wires in every direction were down, traffic washed out and communication with Dickinson completely cut off with the outside world.

FARGO, N. D., June 18 (AP)—Northwestern Bell Telephone company officials in Fargo received word late tonight that six persons were killed in a tornado late today at Dickinson, that seven buildings in the city were destroyed.

LIVINGSTON, Mont., June 18 (AP)—It is reported here from railroad officials that a storm struck North Dakota late this afternoon between Dickinson and Fryburg. The storm carried wind of high velocity and torrential rain accompanied by a great amount of hail. Some sections are reported flooded and it is feared high waters will cause further damage to property.

The high water, it is believed, has hampered the operation of trains. The storm is believed to be a continuation of the Montana storm.

STATE UNABLE TO BUY COAL FROM TETON MINE

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—Idaho will not be able to buy any coal from the operators of the mines in Teton county, it was learned today, following a conference between H. P. Samuels, representing the operators of the mines, and H. G. Archibald, state purchasing agent.

Mr. Samuels quoted the state prices on coal that could be used at two of the state institutions, but said he would not be able to comply with the terms of the state's form of contract calling for a certified check at the time of making proposals and bond in the event he was the successful bidder.

Contracts for the state's coal supply probably will be closed today when 17,000 tons of coal will be contracted for. The purchasing department has held over the closing of the contracts to give the operators of the Teton mines an opportunity to submit bids.

IDAHO RAINS TOO LIGHT, FEDERAL SUMMARY SAYS

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—Showers of the week were generally too light to bring relief from drought conditions, in many localities described as acute, according to summary issued today by the government weather bureau. Dry crops deteriorated steadily in southwestern Idaho. In the irrigated sections conditions were for the most part favorable for the advance of vegetation and crops are reported to have made good progress.

Moderate temperatures held for the week, the summary says. Clear, bright, sunny weather, with scattered local showers, marked the forepart of the week, while unclouded skies and bright sunshine characterized the last half. Potatoes and corn are reported doing well, although nights have not been warm enough for the best growth of corn. Sugar beets have been badly damaged by dry fire in the Weber and Twin Falls sections, says the report.

SOMALI IN LEAD

ST. PAUL, June 18 (AP)—Thomas D. St. Paul, congressman from the tenth district, went into the lead tonight in tabulation of returns on the republican senatorial nomination, voted on in Monday's state-wide primary in Minnesota.

POSTAL CLERKS STRIKE

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 18 (AP)—Canadian postal workers in Montreal and Moncton, N. B., went on a strike tonight, according to word received by local authorities.

WEATHER
Thursday: Fair.

TROUBLE LOOMS IN ITALY OVER MYSTERY CASE

Public Becomes Excited as Result of Strange Circumstances of Disappearance of Millionaire Socialist.

ROME, June 18 (AP)—The political consequences growing out of the disappearance of Deputy Matteotti, the "millionaire socialist," have been far overshadowed in public importance by the investigation into the alleged crime itself. Although the excited public still is gazing the nation's guardians of justice to solve the mystery surrounding the dropping out of sight of Matteotti, the officials thus far have been unable to find any real evidence that the deputy actually has been murdered.

A large amount of circumstantial evidence, however, has led both the public and the officials to assume that Matteotti has been put out of the way by political adversaries. Who these political enemies are, who actually ordered the killing of the deputy and who carried out the execution are questions developing into the great political upheaval Italy has seen in recent years.

Having already submerged some of the highest officials of the fascist government, the mystery begins to threaten the revelation of scandals in connection with which the public and the press are persistently planning strong suspicions of connection with the disappearance of Matteotti. Prominent leaders of the fascists, however, are active in the efforts to stave off any possible attack to the fascist party. They are urging Premier Mussolini to lose no time in demanding by stern measures, that if a few unworthy persons have worked their way up in the councils of the party, this does not mean that the entire fascist movement is tainted.

AMERICAN MEETS DEATH AT HANDS OF CHINESE

HANKOW, China, June 18 (AP)—An American named Hawley, representative of Arnold Brothers and Company, a British concern, was killed at Wanchang, Szechuan province, by natives. The killing, it is believed, arose from a dispute regarding the shipping of wood and oil.

Greer Risks Prison Term in Preference to Giving Testimony

Chauffeur Refuses to Go on Stand, Fearing Reflection on Mabel Normand.

LOS ANGELES, June 18 (AP)—Horace A. Greer, chauffeur, who was to have been his own star witness in the superior court trial at which he is charged with the attempted murder of Courtland S. Dineen, Denver oil operator, sprang the surprise of the case late today when he refused to testify, declaring he would rather take the chance of going to the penitentiary than say anything that might reflect upon his former employer, Mabel Normand, screen comedienne.

With Greer's statement that he would take a chance on a prison term, defense attorneys threw up their hands and offered no further testimony. Final arguments to the jury were started tonight.

HOLDUP SOLVED, OFFICERS SAY

Claim Four Alleged Robbers in Custody; Expect Arrest of Others Shortly.

CHICAGO, June 18 (AP)—One of the most daring train robberies ever perpetrated, the holdup of a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul mail train near Chicago the night of June 12 by eight bandits, who obtained $2,075,000 in cash and securities, has been solved, postal officials announced tonight. Four of the alleged train robbers are in custody, postal officials said, one has been recovered and a nation-wide search for the quartet still at liberty is in progress with the prospects of their arrest within a short time.

The complete story of the robbery was related tonight by A. E. Gerner, chief postal inspector, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins and Lieutenant William Shoemaker, who arrested the suspects.

Gerner, said to be a member of "Egan's rats," St. Louis gangster, planned the robbery at East St. Louis, according to the officers and had the assistance of Carlo and Ernest Fontana, Chicago gunmen, who are believed to have been the brains of the operation.

FACTIONS NEGOTIATE TO END STRUGGLE AT ST. PAUL CONVENTION

RIFLE TORRET TRAPPED MEN

Sailors on Mississippi Had No Chance to Escape, Witness Says at Inquiry.

SAN PEDRO, June 18 (AP)—Battle ships' gun turret while giving the men who served the guns valuable protection from the enemy's fire are, under circumstances by the very nature of their construction, veritable death traps to the sailors they were designed to protect, according to testimony developed today at the investigation of the explosion aboard the U. S. S. Mississippi last Thursday in which 48 lives were lost.

This point was brought forward by Lieutenant Commander Edward J. Foy, gunnery officer of the battleship New Mexico, and it was indicated that the court of inquiry would recommend to the navy department that means of escape from gun turrets on all battleships be provided.

Lieutenant Commander Foy detailing the work of rescue following the flare-back in No. 2 turret of the Mississippi, said that he was forcibly impressed with the necessity for some method of escape from the gun turrets either by ladders in the tops of the turret or by openings in the rear. The possibility of one of the index tags on the silk TNT containers having found its way by mistake into the No. 3 turret guns to hold for the next charge, a spark that would ignite it prematurely, was touched on in the testimony of E. Goodwin, seaman of the New Mexico, who was posted as an observer in the upper handling room of No. 1 turret on the Mississippi the day the explosion occurred.

Goodwin said he had removed two of the tags from bags in transit to the guns and added that he had not seen any of the Mississippi's gun crews do so.

F. J. Ryner, of Turret No. 2, who was seriously burned by the flare-back that it was believed he might die, today is reported improving aboard the hospital ship Relief. His testimony is expected to throw valuable light on the cause of the disaster.

Harmonious Program in Sight at Political Session; LaFollette Says He Will Not Be Candidate for Presidency.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18 (AP)—Senator LaFollette was optimistic today as a possible presidential candidate of the national farmer-labor progressive convention, William Mahoney, a leader in the farmer-labor party of Indiana, announced this, saying he had again been assured the Wisconsin senator did not wish his name to be even considered by the present gathering.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18 (AP)—The national farmer-labor progressive convention went into a night session this evening with a harmony organization plan in prospect and the delegates primed to vote for immediate organization of a "class conscience" mass political party.

Factions Negotiate
Committee negotiations between the two schools of political thought represented in the gathering were responsible for this ending of the struggle. They followed the debate by William Z. Foster, chairman of the Workers party and communist leader, and William Mahoney, chief farmer-labor figure, in arranging the convention, in which they charged that a bolt or other division of the convention was not contemplated.

Foster told delegates his party had no intention of capturing the convention. Mahoney said his faction would stick to the finish unless outright communist control developed.

Further evidence of the closing out of the difference which for time threatened the life of the gathering was furnished by an overnight agreement to dissolve the delegations from the Workers party and the federal farmer-labor party of which C. E. Ruthenberg was leader. The members of these delegations were distributed to the upper handling room of No. 1 turret on the Mississippi the day the explosion occurred.

Goodwin said he had removed two of the tags from bags in transit to the guns and added that he had not seen any of the Mississippi's gun crews do so.

F. J. Ryner, of Turret No. 2, who was seriously burned by the flare-back that it was believed he might die, today is reported improving aboard the hospital ship Relief. His testimony is expected to throw valuable light on the cause of the disaster.

WOULD BEING CONDEMNED
ELK AND EISON TO IDAHO
BOISE, June 18 (AP)—Efforts to get possession of a carload or more of Montana elk condemned to die because of tuberculosis, were started today by the Idaho game department when J. W. Keefe, chief clerk, sent a telegram to George Lawyer, chief United States game warden in Washington.

According to dispatch today there are 200 elk and 100 bison at Missoula scheduled to be slaughtered because of a shortage of feed there. The dispatch indicated the animals were corralled there and being fed alfalfa.

Mr. Keefe said the department would try and get some of the bison as Banquo and his family to have good range for these animals. The elk, if they are obtained, will be freed in Adams county in the Chamberlain basin country. The state would pay the handling charges.

ADMIRAL SCOUTS REPORTS
WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Vice Admiral Wiley, commanding the battleship divisions of the Pacific fleet, telegraphed the navy department today from San Pedro, Cal., that reports of participation by blue jackets in anti-W. W. demonstrations in California were either much exaggerated or without any basis in fact.

Girl Confesses to Starting Fire That Took Lives of 24

Inmate Admits, Authorities Say, That She Caused Blaze in Effort to Be Free to 'Have Good Time Like Others.'

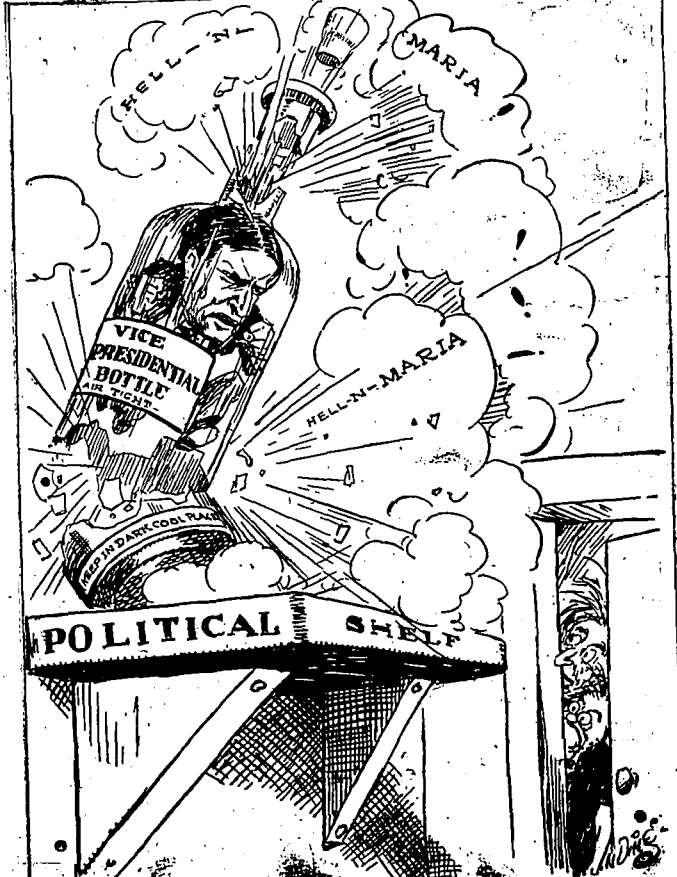

LOS ANGELES, June 18 (AP)—Josephine Bartholme, 14 years old, tonight is being held by county officers following announcement of her confession here today that she set fire to the Boys development school at Playa Del Rey, near here, May 31, when 24 lives were lost.

To District Attorney Asa G. Koyes and Mrs. G. M. Garrett, assistant prosecution officer, Josephine told how she touched a match to some tinder in the basement so "all us girls could go free and have a good time like all other girls have good times."

She concluded her recital with the plea, "I didn't mean to kill anybody."

Was Discharged
The girl is described by Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs, who conducted the Boys development school, as only slightly mentally retarded. Mrs. Jacobs said that Josephine had appeared to be dissatisfied for some time before the fire. County officers plan a thorough investigation of the girl's confession in an effort to establish whether it was possible for her to have set the fire as she described.

Her statement related how she was

M'ADOO LOSES SUPPORT FOR RULES FIGHT

Aversion to Abrogation Scheme Marks Pre-Convention Developments; Delegates Allocated Seats at Garden.

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—The arrival of William G. McAdoo from California and George Brennan from Chicago, combined with sweltering weather today to set boiling the political cauldron which is brewing for the opening of the democratic national convention next Tuesday.

Other events today were: The development of an increasing aversion on the part of the arriving McAdoo men to join his fight for abrogation of the two-thirds rule.

A declaration by Governor Smith's backers that if imposition of the majority rule were attempted, a counter-attack would be launched against the state-unit rule, by which many of the McAdoo delegates are bound.

Indications that Brennan, leader of democrats in Illinois, whom McAdoo men credit with having started the movement to put the convention under majority rule, also favored abrogating the custom of having certain state delegations as units.

Establishment of headquarters for Oscar Underwood and John W. Davis, candidates for the presidency, and of George L. Berry, vice presidential aspirant.

Allocation of the delegation's positions on the floor of Madison Square Garden and detailed completion of arrangements within the great auditorium.

Announcement of United States Senator Copeland, who heretofore has been looked upon as a potential "horse" candidate for the presidential nomination, that after a tour of New England, where he received a "grand reception," he was "all for Smith."

General agreement among members of the national committee, nearly all of whom are on the scene, that Senator Walsh of Montana would be awarded the permanent convention chairmanship "because of the great service he has just done the country and the party through his activities at Washington."

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—William G. McAdoo, in a formal statement issued tonight forecast victory for the democratic party through the progressive forces within the party. He said that throughout the country there was a demand that democrats should commit themselves unequivocally to constructive reforms.

"There are certain things," Mr. McAdoo said in part, "which the democratic party must fight for uncompromisingly. International co-operation for the purpose of abolishing war and thus maintaining peace; cutting down or eliminating of excessive military and naval armaments and the restoration of world-wide economic improvement; broadening the base of prosperity among our own people so that as far as possible parity shall be restored between the cost to the farmer of the things he consumes and the price he obtains for the things he sells."

When Mr. McAdoo was interrogated again as his attitude towards the two-thirds rule, he said: "It is immaterial to me; it is a matter for the convention to decide. I will not interfere with the business of the convention."

CASTLEFORD—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Darrow are the parents of a baby girl, born Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Thomas and Mrs. Paul Mrs. S. C. Robinson were Twin Falls shoppers Saturday.

Bill Sturgeon of Salt Lake City is here to spend the summer with relatives. He is a nephew of Miss Margaret Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kinyon returned Saturday from Corvallis, Ore. Their daughter, Thelma, has been attending school there the past year, and she accompanied them home.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. D. D. Eldridge was hostess to the Camp Fire Girls, serving them refreshments at the close of their meeting. The girls are planning a camping trip in the near future and Shoshone Basin will probably be their destination.

On Friday afternoon of this week the Rev. H. Fryer will give a picnic for the youngsters who belong to the booster band. This picnic will be held at the Resse lawn west of town.

Miss Margaret Thomas and Mrs. Andy Mackie spent Sunday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Al Goo.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fryer, daughter Wm. and Mrs. Mary McKee of Mackay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Putman at dinner Monday evening.

Mrs. Lilly arrived Tuesday from Long Beach, Cal., to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon P. Bennett.

The Epworth league is now rehearsing a play which they hope to be ready to give in two weeks. This will be given to raise funds to help defray the expenses of those who attend the Epworth League Institute in the Sawtooth mountains in July.

On Thursday afternoon, June 26, the Everywoman's club will meet at the home of Miss Margaret Thomas, instead of in the high school building as announced. Miss Thomas and Mrs. Kel

Cook will be the hostesses. This is the meeting for election of officers.

Prof. A. Levanzin
is also a British University graduate in Pharmacy and Biological Chemistry. In Europe he was the Director of one of the largest Pharmacies and owned a very fine pharmacy himself with a very extensive clientele for many years. Therefore, he understands drugs and their influence on the human organism thoroughly, and that is why he never prescribes them. He never puts more drug poison into the sick body that is already full with the poisons of putrefaction and acidity, from the wrong ways of eating and living.

Instead of going to the drug-store he always goes to the fruit store and gets his remedies directly from the hands of nature in their organic form. THE ONLY FORM in which they can be assimilated by the organism. This is also the only source for vitamins and activators. He uses glandular preparations from perfectly healthy sheep that are immune from tuberculosis, but these are not FOODS. And he uses them in capsules and not in tablets so as to save their vitality and get results. At the same time he explains to the patient how his disease was developed and teaches him how to readjust himself to the fundamental laws of Nature that he has transgressed. The physician never cures anybody—Nature does it with the faithful co-operation of the patient.

Therefore, Prof. Levanzin is not a Physician, but a real TEACHER, a "GREAT BENEFACTOR OF HUMANITY," as his friend, Elbert Hubbard, once called him. He teaches you how to really cure yourself and your family and keep cured and healthy.

It is really an extraordinary opportunity to have a man of such ability and experience, backed by the best institutions of this country and of Europe, visit Southern Idaho and spend some of his time and energies here; and I hope that the intelligent ones will take advantage of it and consult him regarding their most difficult cases, the cases that baffle the ordinary physicians. As he does not have to practice to earn a living, he is charging only five dollars for a good hour's consultation at the Pacific. In the big centers he charges very much more and gets it. Phone for an appointment in the morning. Read this unsolicited testimonial from two of the leading physicians in Los Angeles:—

April 18, 1924.
"Dear Friend:
"It has been a great pleasure to learn where I can reach you by letter, as both myself and Dr. Clara have been anxious to tell you how grateful we are for the INVARIABLE lessons we learned by our studies under you both at the College, and in your office; and for what you did for both of us thru your wonderful dietetic instruction.

"As you will remember, I was a sufferer from endocarditis and mitral regurgitation, was in a terrible condition from acidosis and general toxemia. All the years of chronic catarrh, neuritis, constipation, stomach trouble, hay fever and asthma, etc., had finally culminated in tuberculosis, and I knew—quite as well as you—that barring a miracle the collapse must come soon. Dr. Clara's case was perhaps even more serious, as to the many ailments afflicting me was added in her case the picture of gastric carcinoma.

"Today we are both well, vigorous, youthful—the both well past fifty—and a marvel to all who knew us in the old days. I feel younger now than at thirty-five. After twenty-five years of rheumatism I can as stated in a local newspaper at the last election—when I ran for Councilman—'kick your hat off as easily as I can shake hands with you!'"

"In our practice together with various organization work, we are busy from fifteen to twenty hours daily and thriving under it. We find the things we learned from you are miracle workers; we get results that are amazing.

"We have studied many writers upon dietetics: Eales, Lindahl, McAdams, Christian, etc., but we always say to patients and colleagues who ask us where we got our things, that our most fundamental truths were taught us by Professor Levanzin. And as a result of our personal experience and observation and experiment in practice we look upon you as one of the world's greatest students and masters of Dietology.

"Sincerely yours,
"DRS. EUGENE AND CLARA BROWN."

Their address is 159 W 52nd St. Los Angeles, so that you can write to them for further reference or information.

But these intelligent doctors did this thing right; they gave all the time and study to it that was necessary to learn something worth while. They did not get a smattering of this vast subject by a few letters and then plunge headlong trying to work out miracles by corn flakes and brown sugar (!) in very difficult cases. They did not either substitute useless, if not harmful, preparations to mine, developed after twenty-five years of study and research just to add a little more profit to the two and a half dollars they had as discount on each box. The Browns did their work faithfully, honestly and loyally, and that is why they got out as still getting such remarkable results that built for them one of the largest and most profitable practices in Los Angeles. They understood that honesty and loyalty are the best policy for success, and they got a big one.

The physician never cures anybody—Nature does it with the faithful co-operation of the patient.

Therefore, Prof. Levanzin is not a Physician, but a real TEACHER, a "GREAT BENEFACTOR OF HUMANITY," as his friend, Elbert Hubbard, once called him. He teaches you how to really cure yourself and your family and keep cured and healthy.

It is really an extraordinary opportunity to have a man of such ability and experience, backed by the best institutions of this country and of Europe, visit Southern Idaho and spend some of his time and energies here; and I hope that the intelligent ones will take advantage of it and consult him regarding their most difficult cases, the cases that baffle the ordinary physicians. As he does not have to practice to earn a living, he is charging only five dollars for a good hour's consultation at the Pacific. In the big centers he charges very much more and gets it. Phone for an appointment in the morning. Read this unsolicited testimonial from two of the leading physicians in Los Angeles:—

"Dear Friend:
"It has been a great pleasure to learn where I can reach you by letter, as both myself and Dr. Clara have been anxious to tell you how grateful we are for the INVARIABLE lessons we learned by our studies under you both at the College, and in your office; and for what you did for both of us thru your wonderful dietetic instruction.

"As you will remember, I was a sufferer from endocarditis and mitral regurgitation, was in a terrible condition from acidosis and general toxemia. All the years of chronic catarrh, neuritis, constipation, stomach trouble, hay fever and asthma, etc., had finally culminated in tuberculosis, and I knew—quite as well as you—that barring a miracle the collapse must come soon. Dr. Clara's case was perhaps even more serious, as to the many ailments afflicting me was added in her case the picture of gastric carcinoma.

"Today we are both well, vigorous, youthful—the both well past fifty—and a marvel to all who knew us in the old days. I feel younger now than at thirty-five. After twenty-five years of rheumatism I can as stated in a local newspaper at the last election—when I ran for Councilman—'kick your hat off as easily as I can shake hands with you!'"

"In our practice together with various organization work, we are busy from fifteen to twenty hours daily and thriving under it. We find the things we learned from you are miracle workers; we get results that are amazing.

"We have studied many writers upon dietetics: Eales, Lindahl, McAdams, Christian, etc., but we always say to patients and colleagues who ask us where we got our things, that our most fundamental truths were taught us by Professor Levanzin. And as a result of our personal experience and observation and experiment in practice we look upon you as one of the world's greatest students and masters of Dietology.

"Sincerely yours,
"DRS. EUGENE AND CLARA BROWN."

But these intelligent doctors did this thing right; they gave all the time and study to it that was necessary to learn something worth while. They did not get a smattering of this vast subject by a few letters and then plunge headlong trying to work out miracles by corn flakes and brown sugar (!) in very difficult cases. They did not either substitute useless, if not harmful, preparations to mine, developed after twenty-five years of study and research just to add a little more profit to the two and a half dollars they had as discount on each box. The Browns did their work faithfully, honestly and loyally, and that is why they got out as still getting such remarkable results that built for them one of the largest and most profitable practices in Los Angeles. They understood that honesty and loyalty are the best policy for success, and they got a big one.

Prof. A. Levanzin
is also a British University graduate in Pharmacy and Biological Chemistry. In Europe he was the Director of one of the largest Pharmacies and owned a very fine pharmacy himself with a very extensive clientele for many years. Therefore, he understands drugs and their influence on the human organism thoroughly, and that is why he never prescribes them. He never puts more drug poison into the sick body that is already full with the poisons of putrefaction and acidity, from the wrong ways of eating and living.

Instead of going to the drug-store he always goes to the fruit store and gets his remedies directly from the hands of nature in their organic form. THE ONLY FORM in which they can be assimilated by the organism. This is also the only source for vitamins and activators. He uses glandular preparations from perfectly healthy sheep that are immune from tuberculosis, but these are not FOODS. And he uses them in capsules and not in tablets so as to save their vitality and get results. At the same time he explains to the patient how his disease was developed and teaches him how to readjust himself to the fundamental laws of Nature that he has transgressed. The physician never cures anybody—Nature does it with the faithful co-operation of the patient.

Therefore, Prof. Levanzin is not a Physician, but a real TEACHER, a "GREAT BENEFACTOR OF HUMANITY," as his friend, Elbert Hubbard, once called him. He teaches you how to really cure yourself and your family and keep cured and healthy.

TOURIST PARK NOTES

L. B. York and family, who have been staying in California for several months, are going back to Robinson, Ill., by the Yellowstone route.

B. H. Wasson and party from Monterey, Cal., are going through the Yellowstone park and on east. They came through Nevada and tell the same story about the lack of good roads.

E. A. Anderson and family from Charlton, Iowa, left the park for Eiko, Nev., Monday morning and returned Tuesday night. It was a hard trip, but they say it was worth while for the reason that they can now say that they have seen a real desert. The mosquitoes were so thick south of Twin Springs that they could not finish their lunch, so they drove to camp to finish it.

Robert Bross and party from Prescott, Iowa, are going to Joseph, Ore. Frank Cook from Fallside, Nev., came by way of Wells and is looking over the land, with no particular place to go to.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Simmons of Ogden are going to Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hansen from Spokane are going through the Yellowstone park and return over the Yellowstone trail.

George Johnson and party from Oakridge, Ore., came from Pocatello and left for some place on the Pacific coast.

T. P. Brockbank and family from Murray, Utah, are moving to Portland. H. Staudman and party are going back to Seattle from a trip through eastern Idaho. They registered from Sugar City.

A. L. Moore and family from San Francisco are going through Yellowstone park and on to Duluth, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Felt from Denver are journeying to Bellingham, Wash.

C. Woodruff and party were our first Canadian visitors. They go from here to Yellowstone and then to Calgary and home.

B. H. McDowell and wife are returning to Toronto, Canada, from a trip through California.

George H. Bowles and family from Eagle Lake, Texas, came in over the Snowville trail, covered with dust, and tired out. He said that he is just wandering.

C. O. Rudholm and party from Rock Island, Ill., are going to Longview, Wash.

A small caravan from Brockton, Mass., is making its way to Seattle. The party which is traveling in three cars, is made up of F. S. Alexander and family, Mrs. Flossie E. Skinner and three children and Arthur E. Skinner and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Henderson are on their way from Denver to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker from Roseburg, Ore., are going to feed the bears in Yellowstone park.

DODGERS LOSE TO CINCINNATI

Bill Doak Performs Well but Donohue Shades Him; Giants Beat St. Louis.

BROOKLYN, June 18 (AP)—Bill Doak made his debut in the box for Brooklyn today and pitched a strong game, but Pete Donohue twirled a shade better and Cincinnati broke the Dodgers' winning streak by a score of 2 to 1.

The score: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 2 1 0
Brooklyn 1 0 0
Batteries: Donohue and Wings; Doak and Taylor.

DEAN PITCHES GOOD GAME
NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—Wayland Dean pitched brilliantly against St. Louis today and the Giants won to 1, making it three straight from the Cardinals. Dean yielded four hits, two of which were by Hornsby. In addition the New York pitcher hit a home run.

The score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 4 1 1
New York 3 0 0
Batteries: Haines, Delancy and Gonzalez; Dean and Snyder.

PHILLIES LOSE
PHILADELPHIA, June 18 (AP)—Alldridge held Philadelphia to six hits today and Chicago batted out a 9 to 2 victory. Betts started for the Phillies and was hit fifth in the final inning, the Cubs piling up a three-run lead which was too much for the home team to overcome.

The score: R. H. E.
Chicago 9 2 0
Philadelphia 2 0 1
Batteries: Aldridge and O'Farrell; Betts, Steinert, Hubbell and Wilson.

PIRATES WIN A GAME
BOSTON, June 18 (AP)—Excellent pitching by Emil Yde enabled Pittsburgh to take the final game of the series from Boston here today, 4 to 3.

The score: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh 4 12 0
Boston 3 7 0
Batteries: Yde and Schmidt; Deaton, Cooney and O'Neill, E. Smith.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
At Salt Lake—R. H. E.
Portland 13 13 3
Salt Lake 10 18 1
Batteries: Keefe and Daly, Query; Thomas, McCabe and Cook.

At Los Angeles—R. H. E.
Vernon 2 7 5
Los Angeles 2 7 5
Batteries: Cadore and D. Murphy; Dumovich, Ramsey and Jenkins.

At San Francisco—R. H. E.
Oakland 7 14 2
San Francisco 4 5 2
Batteries: Foster and Head; Williams, Henry, Schorr and Agnew.

At Sacramento—R. H. E.
Seattle 9 10 1
Sacramento 4 10 1
Batteries: Skell and Tobin; Hughes, Canfield, Smith and Koehler.

Commercial Honesty
"No," said the old man sternly. "I will not do it. Never have I sold anything by false representation, and I will not begin now." For a moment he was silent, and the clerk who stood before him could see that the better nature of his employer was fighting strongly for the right. "No," said the old man again, "I will not do it. It is an inferior grade of shoe, and I will never pass it off as anything better. Mark it 'A Shoe Fit for a Queen,' and put it in the window. A queen does not have to do much walking."

Common Sense
"Common sense, in a rough, dogged way, is technically sounder than the special schools of philosophy, each of which squints and overlooks half the fact and half the difficulties in its eagerness to find in some detail the key to the whole."—George Santayana.

ROMERO WINS BOAT.
NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—Quintan Romero, Clifton heavyweight, made a comeback in the American ring tonight when he decisively outpointed Joe Stoeckel, rangy New York heavyweight, in a 12-round bout at the Vendome A. C. The Chilean was on the aggressive during most of the bout and won by a good margin.

Rumanian Bride Cries
The Rumanian peasant bride must always cry during the marriage proceedings; it would be regarded as particularly unlucky if she did not do so, particularly as she is having her headress prepared for the "coronation," which is so important a part of the ceremony.

Hard Work
After leaving the cause of righteousness to a man's conscience, you have to subject conscience to massage, hot applications and a galvanic battery to get it working.

Not Uncommon Man
"I know a man that can tell the truth," said Uncle Eben. "He's a mighty good company, too. He has to be so he kin make new friends and lose somebody to believe him."—Washington Evening Star.

SCOUTS AND ROTARIANS TO MARK ROAD TO CABIN

Local Organization to Furnish Signs to Be Posted by Members of Troop for Which It Is Sponsor.

Signs to mark the road leading to the boy scout summer camp in Shoshone Basin will be provided by the Twin Falls Rotary club, in accordance with action taken by the organization at a regular meeting Wednesday and the signs will be posted along the road by members of the boy scout troop of which W. S. Hill is scoutmaster and for which the Rotary club is sponsor.

Lumber for completion of the meal hall now under construction at the scout cabin was forwarded from here Wednesday, and two scouts selected from among members of troops at Duhl and Rupert went at that time to the scene of activities to assist in the work.

A delegation of boy scout leaders from Twin Falls attended a meeting Tuesday of the Rotary club at Jerome to confer with members of that organization on plans for forming a boy scout troop in Jerome to be affiliated with the Snake river district organization. Members of the delegation were Arthur J. Peavey, district commissioner; Douglas Hawley, district scout executive; T. M. Robertson, chairman; and H. E. Barber, member of the Twin Falls boy scout council.

HILL MAY BE DELEGATE

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—George Hill of Rigby was offered the appointment as delegate from Idaho to the democratic national convention today by James H. Pope, state chairman, but no definite answer had been received before the Boise delegates left at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Pope said he had told Mr. Hill if he could make the trip to meet the Idaho delegates at Salt Lake.

ORDER WATER PURIFIED

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—The Gooding Water company was ordered to install a chlorinator for the purification of the domestic water within 10 days in an order issued today by the public utilities commission.

In the meantime the company is ordering to notify its customers that the water is unfit for human consumption unless it is boiled.

The commission's order followed a complaint filed against the company Tuesday by the commission based on bacteriological and chemical report of an analysis of the town's water supply.

GROWERS TO MEET.

CALDWELL, June 18 (AP)—Many horticulturists of Idaho as well as a large representation of the general public, are expected to be present at Memorial park Friday morning when the summer meeting of the Idaho state horticultural association opens.

The delegates will convene at 10 o'clock for a program of addresses on various subjects of interest to florists, fruit growers and producers of other crops. At noon a basket dinner will be served.

MEMORIAL TO HARDING.

DENVER, June 18 (AP)—A large granite and bronze memorial to the late President Harding is to be erected at Stanley park, Vancouver, B. C., Canada. It was announced at the eighth annual convention of the Kiwanis club of international. The late president was a charter member of the Kiwanis club of Marion, Ohio, when he was United States senator.

DAVIS GIVEN DEGREE.

LEWISBURG, Pa., June 18 (AP)—Secretary of Labor James J. Davis today received the honorary degree of doctor of laws at the commencement of Bucknell university. He delivered the commencement address.

Magyars Given Credit

In the popular mind so little credit is said to have been given to the Magyar race for its significant activities in world development, but it is a fact that for more than a century, during which time the activities of the Turks were at their height, the Magyars stood as the bulwark of Christendom against them. The particular Magyars were those who inhabited what was known as Hungary.

HANSEN

HANSEN—Hansen Chautauqua committment have completed arrangements for five days of excellent entertainment from July 12 to 16 inclusive. At a meeting of the guarantors of the Chautauqua on Monday evening an organization was completed of which the Rev. Tom Blodgett was chosen chairman; Charles Calvert, vice chairman; C. J. Holloway, secretary, and H. M. Smith, treasurer. Ora McVoy was selected as chairman of advertising and Mrs. Calvert as president of the Junior Chautauqua. J. S. Wiseman was elected to serve as chairman of the group of 25 men who compose the "grounds" committee.

The Ellison White company, one of the best and largest in the United States, have already sent some advance programs which contain the following schedule for Hansen:

First day—Afternoon, Pickard's Royal Hawaiian, a great singing and playing group of native musicians. Evening, grand opening concert by the same company, and an address, "Tallaw Dips," by Dr. Robert Parkes Miles, a real dramatic word picture of famous men. Dr. Miles has delivered this platform classic over 6000 times and in every English speaking country of the world.

Second day—Afternoon, artists' recital by three artists of individual merit, Flora Mae Ross, pianist; Genevieve Gilbert, soprano, and Maxine Telford, violinist. Evening, opening recital by Conservatory Artists Trio, followed by character interpretations by Roseth Knapp Breed, Boston's noted humorist and character portrayalist.

Third day—Afternoon, musical entertainment, Elina Day entertainers, featuring Barney Thompson, baritone; Opal Hooper, pianist; Betty Rider, reader. Evening, comedy drama, "Cap'n Rick," Peter B. Ryan's great story of the San Francisco waterfront.

Fourth day—Afternoon, musical entertainment by two clever mads in costume; address, "Germany and the World," by Maurice Hindes, who has spent the past year in Europe investigating the Ruhr and Bavaria. Evening, musical entertainment by the musical mads and an address by Maurice Hindes on "Russia and the World."

Fifth day—Circus day parade on the street; concert by Chautauq Concert company, four talented musicians with an enviable reputation; pageant, "Some Bits of Work," by Junior Chautauqua. Evening, grand closing concert by the Chautauq Concert company, featuring the "White House Organ Chimes."

Mrs. George Pledger came home Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her family.

Irvin Blanchard barely escaped serious injury Saturday evening while standing on a street crossing in Kimberly. While awaiting a car coming from Twin Falls an unattended car came from the south, striking him and hurling him to the ground. A doctor was hastily summoned but his injuries were pronounced not serious.

ACCIDENT COSTS WORKER'S LIFE

Heber J. Hymas of Rupert, Loses Fight Against Death Following Fatal Accident.

Loosing a fight for life against hopeless odds, Heber J. Hymas, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hymas of Rupert, died at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night at the county general hospital here from effects of injuries suffered in an accident last Tuesday afternoon at the Amalgamated Sugar Company's plant at Paul, Idaho, where he was employed. The body was removed to the Blue and Sturdivant mortuary and will be taken by the bereaved parents this morning to Rupert.

The young man expired after battling for life for more than 30 hours following the accident in which he suffered fracture of one or more of the vertebrae at the neck and injury of undetermined extent to the spinal cord. Hymas was hurt, according to witnesses of the accident, when a heavy timber broke in mid-air as it was being hoisted into place in construction of a beet dump at the sugar factory. The young man was struck by the falling timber as he turned with his companions to escape the danger. He was rendered unconscious for a few moments and then regained consciousness retaining his full mental faculties until after his arrival here on the train early

ARREST COMES QUICKLY AFTER ISSUING CHECK

Prisoner Giving Name of Albert Odas Keel Held on Charge of Forgery Name of George M. Oederburg.

The name of Albert Odas Keel, 43, was given by a man who was arrested here Wednesday and is held on a charge of forging the name of George M. Oederburg to a $10 check which he is alleged to have passed at Jerry Hunt's barber shop, Main avenue east. Detection of the alleged forgery was made shortly after the check was received at the barber shop when it was presented for payment at the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company, upon which it was drawn. It was ascertained that Mr. Oederburg has no account at this bank but is a depositor of the First National bank, where it was learned, upon further inquiry, that the check bore a forged name.

The check was made payable to Albert Odas and was indorsed with that name. Keel was arrested on the street shortly after he had issued the check that is alleged to be forged. The arrest was made by Patrolman William Taylor and Keel was held Wednesday evening a prisoner in the city jail.

Wednesday afternoon, X-ray examination made at the hospital indicated the extent of the injury and an operation was performed.

The fatally injured man was accompanied here by his parents and a brother, Sidney Hymas, and the attending physician, He was one of 12 children, nine of whom survive him.

COUNTY SALARY CUT PROTESTED

Thirty-three Resident Taxpayers Appeal to Court From Commissioners' Order.

Appeal to the district court from the order of Twin Falls county commissioners of May 8, last, reducing salaries of eight elective county officials in the aggregate amount of $1800, effective at the beginning of the new term of office next January, the clerk of the court here by O. M. Eitter and 32 other residents and taxpayers of the county who are represented in this matter by Attorney Shad L. Hodgins of Twin Falls. Salary reductions ordered by the commissioners ranged from 10 per cent in the case of county auditor, sheriff, treasurer and assessor, where reductions from $2000 to $1800 per year were ordered, to 50 per cent in the case of coroner and county surveyor, whose salaries were cut from $200 to $100 per year.

The appeal from this order, according to its text, is made "on the grounds and for the reason that salaries fixed in each instance enumerated is inadequate, unjust and against public policy, and for the further purpose of protecting the interests of Twin Falls county and the people thereof, and is made in good faith."

SOCIETY

Edited by Mrs. E. W. Williams
Telephone 396

More than two hundred ladies were present at the annual "strawberry festival" given on Wednesday by the Rural Federated club, complimentary to the members of the Twentieth Century club. Owing to the rain the affair had to be held in the house, thus changing all the plans and making an immense amount of work for the ladies in charge, but all who were present agreed that it was one of the most delightful affairs they had ever attended, with its splendid program and feeling of good fellowship. The address of welcome, written by Mrs. C. H. Eldred, who is attending the Pythian grand lodge, was read by Mrs. L. J. Miller, one of the vice presidents, and was responded to by Mrs. P. W. McRoberts, president of the Twentieth Century club, in her usual gracious manner. The program consisted of several numbers by the Altia stringed quartet, two readings by Miss Dorothy Kenworthy, two vocal solos by Miss Marie Brady and a vocal solo by Mrs. Emmett Burns. A flower drill by five little girls dressed in crepe paper costumes representing different flowers was a lovely feature of the afternoon. The Misses Florence and Helen Jack gave a piano and mandolin duet and Mrs. W. D. Gillis of Piler spoke on "What the County Fair Board Expects of the Club Women." An interesting letter of greeting was read from Mrs. Carrie Harper White. Punch was served throughout the afternoon, and later most delicious strawberry, ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

Members of the P. E. O. sisterhood with their families enjoyed a picnic supper Wednesday evening at the country home of Miss Jane Maxwell. About ninety were in attendance.

Mrs. Henry J. Wall and Mrs. H. C. Alexander entertained with a beautifully appointed tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former, complimenting Mrs. Zach North who is leaving soon to join her husband in Okinawa. Dark blue and yellow snapdragons decorated the living room. The tea table was covered with a cluny cloth and the centerpiece was a low blue bowl holding pale blue delphinium combined with pale pink snapdragons. At either end were blue candles matching the flowers in cut glass holders. Mrs. P. J. Costello and Mrs. E. J. Osterlander presided at the silver service. Sewing and conversation were the diversion and Miss Polly Thomas sang two delightful vocal selections. Mrs. North was presented with a dainty guest favor. Miss Patricia Wilson, Miss Barbara Noble and Miss Peggy Wall assisted in serving.

Members of the Winodausi club spent a pleasant afternoon Wednesday at the country home of Mrs. J. M. Spackman. Plans had been made for a picnic luncheon on the lawn but owing to the stormy weather the guests were compelled to go to the house where they had the usual sewing and conversation to while away to bed on the night of the fire, and after she heard the matrons go to their rooms, she slipped on a kimono and went to the kitchen in search of a match. "I couldn't find the match," the statement said, "so I went back to my room. I remembered I had a broken match hidden in one of my boxes and I found it and again went downstairs." Her statement told how she pulled out a sack of kindling wood, placed it under the rafters and set fire to it. She returned to her room, she said, and got into bed and was thinking of her plan to free the other girls when she heard the matron scream: "The building's on fire; come children, come with me."

HERE WE HAVE IT

Away with the office seeker and the politician who would offer quick remedies for the ills of the body politic and attempt by spurious promises and fake reforms to ride into public office in the ensuing election.

This, in effect, is the gist of the remarks of General Dawes, Republican Vice Presidential candidate, in an informal address to a group of visitors at the Dawes home.

There isn't anything new about the sentiment but it carries with it a distinct feeling of satisfaction in the words.

Probably General Dawes' offered his remarks from the heart. There is a ring of sincerity in the General's words which is in keeping with his entire record. General Dawes has few illusions as to the merits of a good many suggestions which have been coming out recently as to means of "curing" what is wrong with us.
From the standpoint of practical, hard-headed common sense, General Dawes' remarks ought to be made the text of the entire campaign.

To such an extent has this evil grown among the politicians of both parties that the real facts and the economic principles involved in questions of national policy are continually obscured by a dense and putrid fog bank of demagogic argument, devoted simply for the purpose of forwarding selfish personal political and group interests.

These words tell the story. The same thought has been harbored by a good many million people for a long time past—

And again—

As human beings whatever may be our party, we are bound to differ on many subjects, but as good citizens we can unite to demand from those who represent us in political debate that they present our difficulties honestly and from the standpoint of truth—different from the standpoint of passion and prejudice. The man who preaches pleasant doctrines to one portion of our people and another pleasant
but absolutely inconsistent doctrine to another portion, is a menace to the safety of our fundamental institutions. As good citizens irrespective of party, we must demand from our political leaders a strict adherence to the truth, including disagreeable truths.

It all sounds remarkably like plain
every-day common sense.

PENSIONS FOR WORKLESS
DON'T WORK

Unemployment pensions, or "dole,"
as the British call them, took reasonable life theory. An industrial society, that often, through its own awkward-ness of operation, throws thousands of people out of employment and renders them penniless through no fault of their own, certainly owes them relief. They serve the industrial society as a whole; society should carry them over somehow until the economic tangle is straightened out. If for no other reason, human workers should be fed and housed when there is no work for them, as horses are.

Yet in practice the plan is found full of evil. England's great experiment has cost her more than a billion dollars since the armistice, and is now costing her a million a day.
And that is said to be the least cost.
The trouble is that the unemployment pension pauperizes so many pensioners. Thousands of workers seem content with merely enough to subsist on,
and do not see why they should work at all when they can live without working. At the present time there is said to be a considerable demand for workers, and little response.
The drain of "dole" continues and grows, and statesmen as well as taxpayers are worried.

Here is a serious problem, which sooner or later every industrial nation

Breakfast Food
"Matrimonially Speaking"

By MRS. HUGH MAKAY

My Husband Makes Designs on the Tablecloth With His Knife.

Whenever he sits down to a meal, he thinks he's Charles Dana Gibson all set for a day's work.

As soon as he gets interested in explaining something he begins to draw a picture of it. He does fine work with any kind of silverware.

Some of his spoon-handle pictures have been favorably compared with the best examples of impressionism.

Far be it from me to cramp his artistic style or put a blight on his self-expression. But he has my tablecloths looking like lace now.

He's used them for drawing paper three or four times.

I appreciate art and all that, but unfortunately I have an equally appreciating feeling for good linen. And there's the rub.

It looks as though I'd have to get a portable blackboard rigged up beside my chair at the table—so that both he and I can get right on enjoying our meals!

Tomorrow—My Wife Insists on Telling Me Everything That Her Friends
Have Been Doing.

will have to face. Unemployment pensions are often agitated in America.
What shall be done about it? Evidently some way will have to be found to distinguish the sheep from the goats—the self-respecting victims of enforced idleness from the shiftless hangers-on.

Perhaps the final solution will be to provide public work at moderate but sustaining wages, in times of depression, instead of penalizing them,
and refuse aid to able-bodied workers
who will not work.

LONGER ATHLETIC LIFE.

A writer on sport topics is convinced that the modern athlete is made of more durable stuff than the athlete of ancient Greece who has remained all these years the type of well-coordinated muscle and brain.
The Greeks, it is said, barred from any Olympic contest athletes who had reached the age of thirty-five. Many athletes today do not retire at that age.

From the fields of baseball, polo,
running, cycling, pugilism, tennis,
wrestling and walking, the writer cites men who have been and men who are still going strong at thirty-five years, forty years and more. But why shouldn't this be so?

Physicians and statisticians tell us that the span of human life is slowly being lengthened. If we live longer, and keep fit more generally than formerly the period of athletic prowess should naturally increase proportionately. There are still enough early break-downs, however, to keep present-day athletes from becoming too conceited about their own chances or too scornful of early Greek limitations.

Mrs. Reeves and daughter Irma are visiting at the home of Mrs. Reeves' sister, Mrs. Francis L. Johnson.

A farewell party was given at the school house Friday evening for Mr.
and Mrs. V. R. Bell and family, who left for Nebraska Monday. Mr. Bell was minister of the Methodist church,
and principal of the Murtaugh school.
An entertaining program was rendered after which dainty refreshments were served. R. B. True was toastmaster and the responses by J. E. Tolman, Hyrum Pickett, N. D. Merrill, V. R.
Bell, Mrs. P. J. Fahy and Mrs. R. B.
True. V. R. Bell closed with benedic-tions. The community wished Mr. and Mrs. Bell good luck and goodspeed on their journey.

J. B. Rice is moving into the Methodist parsonage.
Mrs. E. H. Fahy entertained the Ladies' Aid at her home Thursday. Those present were Mesdames G. I. Garman, James Boyle, E. S. True, D. F. Jain,
Mrs. Lloyd Jain, Oliver Johnson, R. B.
True and Miss Ruth Brown. The guests were Mrs. Sarah D. Goss, J. E. Tolman, Byer, Mrs. Bruce Gordon, Mrs. N. F.
Spargo and Miss Anna Hershey. Dainty refreshments were served and an enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

Harold is one of those literal-minded

cumbrance he is as useful and shy
as a blind-headed man under a spot light. He is still wondering why the young woman he took for a ride in his new chummy roadster suggested he learn to drive with one hand and why she laughed when he said, "If I ever lose an arm I shall quit driving an automobile."

CLOVER

CLOVER—On the occasion of their tenth wedding anniversary, the whole congregation of the Clover church surprised the Rev. and Mrs. W. Dannerfeldt on Wednesday evening with a party. The Clover band met at the school house and their playing was a signal for all to come from the meeting places. The crowd gathered in the school house, where the band and a quartet gave some selections and the Rev. J. Gilding from Twin Falls gave a speech appropriate for the occasion.
A collection was taken and presented to the honored couple. At the close of the social evening, lunch was served by the ladies. The Rev. and Mrs. E.
Zugel from Eden were guests. About 500 guests were present.

An auto load of the following people returned home Saturday after a week's visit at American Falls: Mrs.
P. Mathieson and son Orval, Fred and Arthur Kuster and Erhardt and Carl Liermann.

Most of the beans on the tract are up and a good stand is reported in most instances. Using the weedeater on the beans or making hay is the present occupation of most of the farmers.
On the occasion of his birthday, Mrs.
Ferd Kuster surprised her husband with a party Friday evening. The evening was spent playing progressive pinocle at four tables. Mrs. G. Lauerator received the prize for high score. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess
at the close of the most delightful evening.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
JUNE 23 AND 24

at PERRINE HOTEL
from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

One Day Only

They Come Many Miles to See Him.

On the above date the noted rupture appliance expert, C. F. Redlich, will give a free demonstration.
You will at once realize the difference between his highly efficient and modern appliances and your mail order inefficient and harmful elastic bandages or ill-fitting steel or wire trusses with their obnoxious leg straps.
These mostly make the rupture worse
instead of better until at last it gets beyond control, whereas Mr. Redlich's special appliances will give you security and comfort for years to come, mainly because these effective devices are scientifically applied by an expert in person.
Recent, often curable cases and especially old, neglected, painful ones, should promptly avail themselves of this opportunity for relief, before the work becomes impossible and eventually the surgeon's knife an urgent and immediate necessity.
Remember that demonstration is free on above date only, and that a visit may mean a great deal to you and those dependent on you.

His wife looked at him and smiled
fondly. "You haven't quite lost it yourself, Jim."

It was true enough that Lord Far-quhar retained an interest in life that was refreshing. This evening his eyes gleamed while the westerner told of the frontier day program to be held at the little town of Gunnison next day.

"You and your father are old friends
I understand. You'll not take part then?" he asked.

"I used to punch cows. My name is entered for the riding. The boys want me to take a turn."

India Kilmenny sat up straight. "Let's see you ride up in the morning.
It will be jolly. All in favor of going eat another sandwich."

"It will be pretty woolly—quite different from anything you have seen,"
the miner suggested.

"Thought we came to fish," Verinder interposed. "Great bore looking at amateur shows—and it's a long ride."

"Move us, go. What say, Lady Far-quhar?" put in Captain Kilmenny.

"Do let's go," Moyna begged.

"I don't see why we shouldn't,"
Lady Farquhar smiled. "But I'm like Mr. Verinder about riding. If he'll drive me up the rest of your can go horseback."

"Delighted, in sure."

Verinder came to think outwardly civil but inwardly fuming.

"If we're going it's time you girls were in bed. You've had a hard day and tomorrow will be another," Lady Jim pronounced.

The westerner rose to go.

"Night's young yet. Stop and sit in with us to a game of poker. What?"
Farquhar invited.

"My pocketbook is at the camp," the American demurred.

The ladies said good-night and departed. Chairs were drawn to the card table, chips sold, and hands were dealt. The light of morning was breaking before Kilmenny made his way back to camp. He had in his pockets one hundred and seventy-three dollars, most of which had recently been the property of Dobyann Verinder.

CHAPTER III

Fugitives From Justice

At the Lodge the whole party was down by nine-thirty and was on the road within the hour. The horses were keen and the pace brisk. It was not until half the distance had been covered that Joyce, who was riding beside the captain, found opportunity for conversation.

"You sat up late, didn't you?"

"Early," the soldier laughed.

"How did the savage behave himself? He has a good deal of assurance, hasn't he?" she asked lightly.

The captain hesitated. "Do you think that's quite the word? He fitted in easily—wasn't shy or awkward—that sort of thing, you know—but he wasn't obtrusive at all. Farquhar likes him."

"He's rather interesting," Joyce admitted.

She thought of him as a handsome untanned young barbarian, but it was impossible for her to deny a certain amount of regard for any virile man who admired her. The westerner had not let his eyes rest often upon her,
but the subtle mastery of her sex told her that he was very much taken with her. Since Joyce Seldon was the center and circumference about which most of her thoughts revolved, it followed that the young man had chosen the sure way to her favor.

Moyna Dwight too found that the young fellowman fitted in and out of her mind a good deal. In spite of the soft vocal elisions of the West, his speech had a dignity that suggested breeding. It was quite likely he was not a gentleman, according to the code of her civilization, but her sex told her that he was equally sure there burned in him that dynamic spark of self-reliance which is at the base of all good manners.

The little town of Gunnison rioted with life. Born and brought up as she had been in the trough case of modern super-civilization, Moyna found the barbaric color of the occasion very appealing. As she looked down on the arena from the box her party occupied, the heart of the girl throbbled with the pure joy of it all. She loved this West, with its picturesque chap-lined hewn-faced riders. They were a hard-bitten lot, burned to a brick red by the untamed sun of the Rockies.
Cheerful sons of mirth they were, carrying their years with a boyish exuberance that was delightful.

Most of the competitors for the hacking broncho championship had been eliminated before the arrival of the party from the Lodge. Among the three who had reached the finals was their guest of the previous evening.

"Jack Kilmenny will ride Teddy Roosevelt," blared the megaphone man.

"The English officer turned to Far-quhar. 'Didn't you catch the name.
Sounded like my own.'"

"That's what I thought," contributed his sister. A moment later, she added:
"Why, it's Mr. Crumba."

That young man sauntered forward
lazily, dragging his saddle by its horn.
He saddled the trembling animal warily, then swung lightly to the seat.
The broncho stood for an instant motionless, then humped itself from the earth, an incarnate demon of action.
But the lean-fanked young miner appeared clamped to the saddle. Lithe and sinuous as a panther, he rode with a perfect ease that was captivating.
Even the frontier West had never seen a more daring and magnificent piece of horsemanship.

SPECTACULAR ADVANCE—OF GRAINS CONTINUES

Corn's Noted Gain and All Deliveries of Grain Over-Top Season's Previous Records.

CHICAGO, June 18 (AP)—Corn scored a spectacular advance and the upward swoop of the wheat market continued. All deliveries of both cereals over-topped the season's previous record. Prolonged wet weather was the chief stimulating factor in corn and there was foreign buying of wheat. Corn finished strong,  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to  $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢ higher, July 80¢ to 80½¢. The closing for wheat was unsettled,  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to  $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ up, July  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to  $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢, and September  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to  $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. The gain and provisions varying from 10¢ to 12¢ to 15¢ advance. Unusual scarcity of offerings in the corn market appeared to frighten traders who had concluded to make deliveries in July and September. Frenzied bidding from such individuals ran prices up rapidly and with special advance demand broadening out, it was not after the market had amounted to  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ a bushel that any reaction of importance took place. Word that other markets were outbidding Chicago in the country, and that cash corn was up  $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to  $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢ at St. Louis with all cash selling above 5 cents added to the tension here and led to talk in some quarters that the recent big advance of wheat might be rivaled by corn.

A sharp advance in wheat quotations at Liverpool was quickly reflected by the wheat market here, especially as Winnipeg prices showed greater strength even than Chicago. It was noted that through purchase of foreign deliveries foreigners had obtained a large quantity of United States wheat and would exchange the futures for the cash grain wanted.

Provisions reflecting sales, however, wiped out much of today's maximum advance in wheat here.

Oats as a substitute for corn attracted numerous buyers.

Provisions averaged higher owing to an upturn in hog values.

A sharp advance in wheat quotations at Liverpool was quickly reflected by the wheat market here, especially as Winnipeg prices showed greater strength even than Chicago. It was noted that through purchase of foreign deliveries foreigners had obtained a large quantity of United States wheat and would exchange the futures for the cash grain wanted.

Provisions reflecting sales, however, wiped out much of today's maximum advance in wheat here.

Oats as a substitute for corn attracted numerous buyers.

Provisions averaged higher owing to an upturn in hog values.

URGES SUPPORT IN BUILDING OF JARBIDGE ROAD

Mayor S. L. Hodgkin Tells Rotarians of Projects Now Before Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

The matter of improving the road through Owyhee county into Jarbridge so that Twin Falls motorists may meet those who come to the Nevada gold camp was Wednesday referred to by Shad L. Hodgkin, Twin Falls mayor, in an address before the Twin Falls Rotary club as one of the projects now before the chamber of commerce.

Mayor Hodgkin outlined the work of the chamber during the past few months and delivered an earnest plea for the support of the institution by the people of Twin Falls.

"If the chamber of commerce is worth having at all," said Mayor Hodgkin, "it is worth supporting an extent that will give it a chance to work for the benefit of Twin Falls. If the entire machinery of the chamber must expend all of its energy in the collection of the annual dues there is no use in having a chamber at all."

At the present time, the mayor declared, there is a growing sentiment in Jarbridge in favor of the establishment of a new town in the Mountain Home. Already many shipments are coming into Jarbridge by way of Mountain Home and if the present volume of Twin Falls trade is to be preserved, it is imperative that a road must be found whereby the road between this place and Jarbridge can be put in first class shape and so maintained.

Nevada Interests Active.

"The Twin Falls highway district cannot of course utilize its funds for work outside its own district," said Mr. Hodgkin. "Owyhee county gains no benefit from the road, although it traverses that county, and therefore can not be expected to act. At the same time Nevada authorities are beginning to interest themselves in improving the highway from Jarbridge to Wells or like with a view to keeping the Jarbridge business in their own state. Something must be done."

"The Oregon Short Line has been applied to for assistance with a chance that this may be forthcoming. It does not matter what the source of the raising of the necessary funds just so they are raised. The chamber of commerce stands ready to do everything in its power to further the project, but the chamber is so small that the men who compose it and in the last analysis, it is up to the members and the men who should be members if they are not already—the business men of Twin Falls."

Looks Into Future.

Mayor Hodgkin also referred to the possibilities of a rim-to-rim bridge across the Snake river north of Twin Falls and stated that the project, first talked of years ago, again has been revived if a feasible plan could be devised. He also declared that at no distant date the matter of an extension of the railroad from Buhl to King Hill or some further westward point on the main line would probably be taken up by the people of Buhl, in which event Twin Falls should join heartily in the effort and lend all the support possible to the movement.

NEW TRIAL SOUGHT IN DISPUTE OVER SHEEP

L. E. Adams and Tom Beech and the Western Bond and Mortgage Company Ask Rerailing in Suit.

Motion for new trial was filed Wednesday in district court here by the defendants, L. E. Adams and Tom Beech of Rupert, and the Western Bond and Mortgage company of Portland, in an action brought by R. A. Bowman of Boise, wherein judgment recently was entered awarding $26,000 to Bowman from the defendant, Western Bond and Mortgage company. Evidence at the trial indicated that the bond and mortgage company financed Adams and Beech in feeding some 15,000 sheep delivered to them by Bowman, and that the suit grew out of dispute over the manner of cutting and weighing the sheep when Adams and Beech sought to return the animals to Bowman at the expiration of the feeding period.

Among other reasons advanced in support of the motion for new trial it is asserted that the evidence showed that the action, if grounds for an action existed, should have been brought against Adams and Beech for violation of contract to which the bond and mortgage company was not a party.

WANTS SOO ON LINCOLN FIELD

A. L. Swim Argues Investment for Seeding Athletic Grounds to Grass Would Return Profit

That the seeding of Lincoln field in the interests of high school students would be a means of increased income to the Twin Falls school district or to the student activity fund is stated by Arthur L. Swim, who for some weeks has been endeavoring to interest the board of education in the project on behalf of a number of local business members have gone on record as favoring the move.

"The seeding of dirt would be an improvement which would add heavily to the attendance at football and other games," Mr. Swim declares, besides adding to the pleasure of audiences and protecting the health of the players. The initial expense is estimated at about $1000 and it is believed that this would be taken in in the form of increased gate receipts, probably during the first season.

"Just at present, the matter is before the school board in the form of a proposal to use funds solely from the student activity fund to pay the cost of the improvement and including the maintenance for the summer," says Mr. Swim. "This student activity fund is derived from gate receipts at Lincoln field and also from debates, chess plays, etc., but principally from football and baseball. In the last four years it has amounted to $31,500. Out of this, all the expenses of the various student activities have been paid, including equipment. In addition to this there has been turned into the general fund of the school district approximately $6000. There is now on hand equipment worth about $2000. Also a few hundred dollars in cash. This remarkable showing has been made during the four years which were doubtless the worst financially in the history of the community."

Expense Not Heavy.

"It is estimated by the school board that it will cost about $2000 to level, fertilize, seed and irrigate the field for the first season. After that the irrigating can be done from ditches. "If the improvement would add 10 per cent to the attendance, this would have meant $2000 more gate receipts in the past four years. Apparently the proposed improvement would be a good move financially for the district."

"However, the principle grounds on which it is being urged now is that it will be in the interest of sanitation and safety and will be vastly more agreeable to students and spectators. At present a portion of the field, the lower part, is partly filled with earth containing a large mixture of shale and rock. The leveling process will cover this with a layer of good soil on the surface. These rocks have been a prolific source of bruises, cuts and infection to the players. The spectators and players are frequently enveloped in dust clouds which are neither sanitary nor pleasant. Seeding down the field will remedy this condition. It will also be a great relief to the people of the school who now have to guard the dust from their eyes as a nuisance."

"There is probably no community in the state which takes more interest in the various student activities than Twin Falls. The remarkable showing in gate receipts during the last four years probably has no parallel in Idaho. This is stimulating to school spirit; aids materially in keeping the young people in school and the various student activities provide an outlet for the surplus energies of the young people which otherwise might find less desirable channels in some instances. Possibly this leaving only good soil on the surface of Twin Falls, has a much smaller enrollment in its high school. Idaho Falls, with about the same population as Twin Falls, has also a much larger enrollment. It can credit this in part at least to our various student activities and to the support given them by our community."

"Some members of the school board favor proceeding at once to this improvement. Apparently, some are opposed to the program but desire to feel assured that the community sentiment is favorable. If the work is to be done in time to develop the lawn by next September, it should be started at once. It appears to be a question of overcoming inertia. If we can satisfy the board that the community wants this thing done, I believe they will do it. I have no doubt that the community favors it, but just how we are to satisfy the board that such is the case I've been before them twice without inducing them to act; so I've nothing more to say to the board. The chamber of commerce and the Rotarians have resolved. A representative of the Kiwanis club and of the American Legion has appeared before them, recommending action. No doubt the approval of the student body representatives can be obtained. Probably, also, the support of the Twentieth Century club, by restoring to the student activity fund a few hundred dollars which has been taken out of it for the general fund, a sufficient sum will be available."

"It would appear that the most exacting economizer would hardly object to the improvement being paid for in this way, although otherwise the $1000 would remain in or go to the general fund of the district."

AMATEUR ANGLER FINED FOR LACK OF LICENSE

Ingenuous Explanation Falls to Prevent Conviction of William Hines, on Charge of Illegal Fishing.

An ingenuous explanation of the circumstances under which he was arrested last Sunday while fishing in Shoshone creek failed to prevent conviction of William Hines in probate court here Wednesday on a charge of fishing without a license. Judge O. P. Duvall imposed a fine of $25 and costs. Hines explained that his fishing Sunday was his first experience in the matter, and that he had availed himself of the offer of another man whom he met on the stream to show him how to fish. He was successful in his initial attempt, but within a few moments he had landed five fish which were in his possession when L. W. Hawkins, deputy state game warden, arrived on the scene.

Landing Creek, 18, charged with shooting fish in Cedar creek with a revolver, was admonished by Judge Duvall, who explained that the offense was equally serious under Idaho game laws as the use of dynamite or other explosive to kill fish. There was no evidence that the lad had killed any fish, and he stated that he was shooting at the fish to show the impossibility of killing them by this means.

safety and will be vastly more agreeable to students and spectators. At present a portion of the field, the lower part, is partly filled with earth containing a large mixture of shale and rock.
