FOURTH EXPERT HOLDS SLAYERS TO BE NORMAL

Defense Subjects Testimony of Alienist to Bitter Cross-Examination on Loeb and Leopold.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16 (AP)—Testimony of Dr. H. Douglas Elinger, fourth alienist to the prosecution that Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., were entirely normal when they kidnaped and killed 14-year-old Robert Frank last May 21, was subjected today to the expert vivisection of Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for the defense.

The hearing to determine whether Judge John R. Caverly shall inflict the death penalty on the youths on the plea of guilty, or shall impose penitentiary sentences upon the plea for mitigation of punishment, was enlivened by frequent clashes of Mr. Darrow with the witness and again with Robert Crowe, state's attorney.

"At adjournment the defense claimed there was no gain: Admission of Dr. Singer that he had reached conclusions by observation and not by examination; that a split personality described by the defense alienist as existing in both boys, 'might be criticized toward a mental disorder.' That the present ages of both Loeb and Leopold is the critical time for developing 'mental sickness'; and that a dream life might influence personality.

No Deviation.

Dr. Singer did not deviate from his general declaration that he had found nothing to sway his conclusions that there was no evidence to indicate a diseased mind in either youth, and that they had displayed normal emotions and that their phantom lives contained nothing abnormal.

Coolidge Rests in His Boyhood Home in Vermont State

Two Weeks' Vacation of President Being Spent on Father's Farm; Stop-at-Son's Grave En Route.

PLYMOUTH, Vermont, Aug. 16 (AP)—In his boyhood home here, President Coolidge started his vacation today again with his father in the company of members of his family.

Mr. Coolidge spent the first day of his visit here as he had planned—resting.

With Mrs. Coolidge and their son, John, they drove here early this morning from Ludlow, the nearest point on railroad carry the party, arriving just in time for breakfast with the president's father. The family stopped on the way here at the cemetery just outside the town, where a month ago Calvin Jr., was buried and where also the president's mother and sister are buried.

Another visit to the cemetery about noon when flowers were placed on the graves was their only trip from the homestead.

Pershing Declares Defense Day Move For Lasting Peace

Only Means of Reducing Number of "Gold Star" Mothers; General at Des Moines.

DES MOINES, Aug. 16 (AP)—General John J. Pershing, here to inspect the Iowa national guard, today declared that national defense day was the only means of reducing in the future the number of "gold star" mothers and that patriotically carried out September 12, it will be the "greatest move toward international peace" ever made by any nation.

"Defense day is not a military move," the general said, "it is not a threat and it is not a demonstration against any nation. It is merely the application of common sense to a problem which is the most important one facing the American people today."

ALLENISTS BUSY IN M'COY CASE

Three Examine Famous Boxer Implicated in Killing of Love Mate at Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 16 (AP)—The McCoy-Mora case, wherein Theresa A. Mora, divorced wife of a wealthy antique dealer, died some time Tuesday night with a bullet hole in her head, and Kim McCoy, an pugilist, was arrested on suspicion of the murder, marked time several hours today without any conflicting developments being recorded.

The affair, which has been discovered by District Attorney Asa Keyes, as the most tangled one he ever has had to handle, had, however, produced a few new angles.

Allopath on Job.

The district attorney sent three alienists into McCoy's cell to examine him mentally and physically.

The former prize ring idol willingly bared his body to the trio, but his mind and his heart remained locked under the spell of silence put on his lips by his attorney.

McCoy's legal advisers also announced that they were preparing to tread the tortuous trail of psychiatric testimony with reports of alienists of their own choosing.

Two Men in Boom.

Prior to today's hull in the development of contradictory phases of the case the police received late last night that they had found a woman who heard Mrs. Mora's last words and the shot that cut her down, as well as the footprints of two men, one, running, and the other, walking—the body afterwards was found.

Mrs. Iva Martin, an apartment house neighbor of the dead woman, told of hearing Mrs. Mora cry: "Oh, my God, don't do that!" Then a short and the sound of a falling body.

Two men according to Mrs. Martin, ran from the apartment. One of these she saw clearly in the moonlight and he was not McCoy. The second man she could not describe.

SMITH INSPECTS INDIAN PROJECT

Idaho Congressman Views Work Being Done With Funds He Secured.

A federal appropriation of $750,000 is being expended in improvement and extension of the Fort Hall reclamation project in eastern Idaho where Representative Addison T. Smith, taking $500 appropriation which was secured through Mr. Smith's efforts, already has been expended in building a core in the dam that impounds water for the project and in widening canals serving approximately 80,000 acres of land. Out of this appropriation, Mr. Smith stated, there has been purchased 40,000 acre feet of water from Gray's lake at a cost of about $5000. This additional water will be used to augment the present supply for the project and to reclaim other lands which may later be included within the project. The project, which is the largest project when present work is completed a water supply aggregating 525,000 acre feet.

The original project is composed of 56,000 acres of Indian lands and 18,000 acres of land owned by white settlers on the Indian reservation, with about 6000 acres outside the reservation.

BIG PRICE GAIN IN CORN; WHEAT ALSO ADVANCES

Almost Panicky Advances Shoots Grain to High Level; Action Is Similar to War-Time Rises.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16 (AP)—Almost panicky advances in the corn market today went to such a point that prices were up 19 to 20 cents a bushel above values current at one time last week. Fear that a large portion of the corn crop will fail to mature before killing frosts arrive was the accepted general explanation.

Even in war time few parallels are found for today's tumultuous action of corn values or for the excitement which pervaded all the grain pits on 'change. The net result when the gongs cleared out the parading crowds of brokers was a maximum net gain of 4 1/4 cents a bushel for corn; 3 1/2 cents for wheat and 1 7/8 cents for oats—these yesterday's closing prices.

Holds Interest.

Interest was deepened everything else, as far as nine-tenths of grain traders gave any sign, the agreement at London with German evoking hardly more than a hurried glance or word while every line about corn crop received the most eager attention.

The circumstances which brought out the sharpest comment was the apparent capacity of the market to absorb huge profit taking sales. Whether the limit in this respect had been reached was widely discussed after the close and with much difference of opinion. It was generally conceded that up to this time the absence of speculative selling in market as active as of late was nearly without a precedent.

Jerome Man Slain in Trap Set For Bandits

Ted Lawshe Receives Fatal Wound When Plans for the Capture of Bank-Robbers Miscarry.

JEROME, Aug. 16.—(Special to the News).—Ted Lawshe of Jerome, fatally wounded in Holt, Wash., last Wednesday when a bandit gang tempted with a truck there, received his death wounds while assisting officers stationed in the bank to capture the robbers whose purpose to rob the bank had been made known to them by Lawshe, according to information received today by his relatives here.

The officers, on being informed by Lawshe of the robbers' purpose, according to this information, decided that Lawshe should play the part of a member of the gang. Seven deputy sheriffs were stationed inside the bank. It was believed that the robbers when confronted with overwhelming force, would surrender without resistance. A young woman employee was permitted to occupy her accustomed place in a teller's cage, and a photographer was stationed outside to photograph the robbery.

Robbers Upset Calculations.

Lawshe entered the bank, closely followed by D. C. Malone, member of the robber gang, who was killed in the ensuing melee. As Lawshe neared the young woman in the cage, the deputy sheriffs appeared from their places of concealment and commanded the robbers to surrender. Instead of compliance that had been anticipated, the robbers offered resistance. Malone began shooting and dashed toward the vault. In the turmoil Lawshe fell mortally wounded and a deputy sheriff was killed in the leg. It has not been determined whether the shot that cost Lawshe's life was fired by an officer or one of the robber gang.

Lawshe was about 27 years old. He served during the war in the navy and since that time is reported to have been engaged in secret service work. His father, George H. Lawshe, rancher, residing southeast of Jerome for several years, has gone to claim his son's body.

YANKEE ZEP NARROWLY ESCAPES DESTRUCTION

FRIDRICHSHAVEN, Aug. 16 (AP)—The ZR 3, nearing completion here for its transatlantic flight to Lakehurst, N. J., had its first shock from the elements recently, and came through with a scratch. The ship, a three-masted dirigible, is awaiting installation of her five motors was struck by a bolt of lightning which shook the entire building from end to end and all its contents. There was but little damage to the building itself, and none whatever to the frame work or the gas bag.

FRANCE AND GERMANY AGREE ON DAWES PLAN; CONFERENCE IS ENDED

Allied Powers Sign Protocol Putting Into Effect New Reparations Move; Berlin and Paris Now Center of Interest. Reactions of French and Germans Watched With Apprehension.

LONDON, Aug. 16 (AP)—Peace between France and Germany came one step nearer tonight when the representatives of the allied powers and Germany assembled in London. MacDonald's room in the foreign office and signed or initialed a protocol providing the means for putting into effect the Dawes plan, designed to settle the perplexing reparations problem.

The London conference, after 29 days has thus been brought to a successful conclusion. All eyes now turn to Berlin and Paris, anxiously watching to see if the German re-education of the French parliament will support Chancellor Marx and Premier Herriot in the bold step they have taken.

Both these promoters belong to minority governments which are none too stable and the reaction of the German people will be watched with some apprehension until their executive bodies approve and make it possible for German and French representatives to meet with the representatives of the other interested powers at Paris Aug. 30 and attach their formal signatures to the documents.

PROPERLY SIGNED

LONDON, Aug. 16 (AP)—The agreement concluded tonight by the London conference take the form of a final protocol with four annexes. The final protocol is a brief document in French and English. It is signed by Ramsey MacDonald, president, by Secretary General Sir Maurice Hankey, the allied secretaries, the German secretary and a representative of the reparations commission. The secretary does not sign.

The protocol states that the president informed the representatives of the powers and of the reparations commission assembled at the foreign office that all the governments concerned and the reparations commission have confirmed their acceptance of the Dawes plan and that by means of the agreement certain agreements annexed to the protocol have been signed or initialed by the parties concerned.

NOT WELL RECEIVED

PARIS, Aug. 16 (AP)—M. Herriot's bargain with the Germans for the evacuation of the Ruhr and the agreement on the Dawes plan have been received in political and parliamentary circles with enthusiasm and with a rather un-enthusiastic relief but ratification seems probable. All are glad that the agony finally is over but few are exultant at the terms, the premier's friends and foes alike bracing themselves for a warm debate in the chamber and senate over ratification at the end of next week. And neither side appears to relish the prospect. The supporters of M. Herriot and the government are confident that ratification will be obtained easily in the chamber and that it will be merely reluctant in the senate. Its opponents so far have displayed no vigorous intention to defeat approval.

The general impression tonight, however, is that they will let off a good deal of steam during the discussion yet allow the conference terms to be ratified. Some of them have expressed the view that they do not dare defray ratification and overthrow the government because the work would have to be done again under the most unfavorable circumstances and that if they approve under protest they can always blame M. Herriot when things go wrong.

The French people generally welcome the settlement but apparently there is no marked confidence that the problem has been finally solved.

BERLIN TO RATIFY

BERLIN, Aug. 16 (AP)—Despite widespread disappointment over the government's failure to obtain a more conciliatory concession on the question of the Ruhr situation there is a very definite impression current in political circles that the Marx-Stresemann cabinet will command a sufficient majority in the reichstag both for the approval of legislation having to do with the Dawes report and on the general question of confidence, with respect to the government's procedure in London.

While the nationalists are already agitating a sufficient taking in advance in opposition to the government's yielding on the Ruhr issue their present protests are not viewed as reflecting the party's ultimate attitude on the floor of the reichstag and there is a strong suspicion that the party will refrain from causing active opposition at the beginning of the cabinet's clearest majority.

PARLIAMENTARY BODY TO MEET

Strong American Group Expected to Attend Twenty-Second Annual Conference

GENEVA, Aug. 16 (AP)—A strong American group is expected to attend the twenty-second annual conference of the Inter-Parliamentary union which will be held this year at Berne and Geneva, beginning August 22. A number of European members of parliaments call the union "the most important of the league of nations" and the meeting this summer is viewed with special interest because the final sessions will be held at Geneva just before the opening of the September assembly of the league. It is thought that many parliamentary men will stay on to follow the deliberations of the assembly, especially in view of the expected presence of Premier MacDonald, Herriot and Mussolini.

The union will meet at Berne from August 22 to August 26. The next day the delegates will come to Geneva to visit the league of nations and the international labor office. On Thursday, August 29, the last sitting of the conference will be held in Reformation hall, at Geneva, the same auditorium where delegates to the league assembly will convene September 1.

AMERICAN FALLS RESERVOIR WORK TO START SOON

District Officials Predict Construction Will Begin Before Snowfall This Year; Bonds To Be Sold September 12.

Prediction that actual construction of the American Falls reservoir project would begin before the first snowfall this year was made Saturday at the offices of the American Falls reservoir district, following receipt of word from Judge J. R. Bothwell, attorney for the district, that proceedings in connection with the district's $2,700,000 bond issue had been approved by Wood and Oakley, Chicago bond attorneys, and that the bonds would be sold September 12, next.

From Time to Time.

Bothwell, it is understood, are to be additional to the purchaser—from time to time as needed in made upon the district for payment of its share in the cost of the project. Out of the proceeds of the bond sale there is to be paid into the federal treasury $1,500,000 which payment will make available to the district for the appropriation of $400,000 voted by the last session of congress for the American Falls project.

The district's bonds were voted in May, 1923, soon after the formation of the district to assume payments of five canal companies included within its boundaries, which previously had entered into contract with the reclamation service for construction of the American Falls project.

Come to Partner.

The message from Judge Bothwell, who has been in Chicago for several days in conference with the bond attorneys, was addressed to his partner, W. O. Channing.

R. E. Shepherd of Jerome, president of the district board of directors, the message stated, has left Chicago and will return to Idaho in time to attend the meeting of the district's directors' next Tuesday when the tax levy for the coming year is to be made.

PROJECT SUCCESS SURE SAYS ADDISON T. SMITH

Sale of the American Falls reservoir district's $2,700,000 bond issue, definitely forecast in telegram from Judge J. R. Bothwell in Chicago, received here Saturday, assures the success of the American Falls reservoir project, according to statement last evening by Representative Addison T. Smith, who, since its inception, has conducted the fight in congress for the gigantic undertaking.

Mr. Smith briefly reviewed the history of the project in congress.

Floor Leader's Stand.

"At the onset," he said, "Representative Mann, then republican floor leader, pointed out that appropriation for the American Falls project might be defeated by himself or any other member who chose to raise a point of order, because, he said, there was no order, because, he said, there was no order."

Booze Palace Off Coast of New York Attracts Interest

Federal Authorities Seek to Learn More of Floating Bar Room; Thought-to-be-Former German Ship.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16 (AP)—Federal authorities, tonight wanted to learn the identity of the 17,000 ton seagoing "booze palace," which was reported to be carrying on a night in the Atlantic, cruising off the 12-mile limit, displaying prohibition connections to wealthy land holders.

Little stock was taken, however, in the newspaper reporter's evidence that the huge passenger ship on which the federal agents were tonight in the company of gay and liberal drinkers—men and women—was the former North German Lloyd liner Frederick Der Grosse.

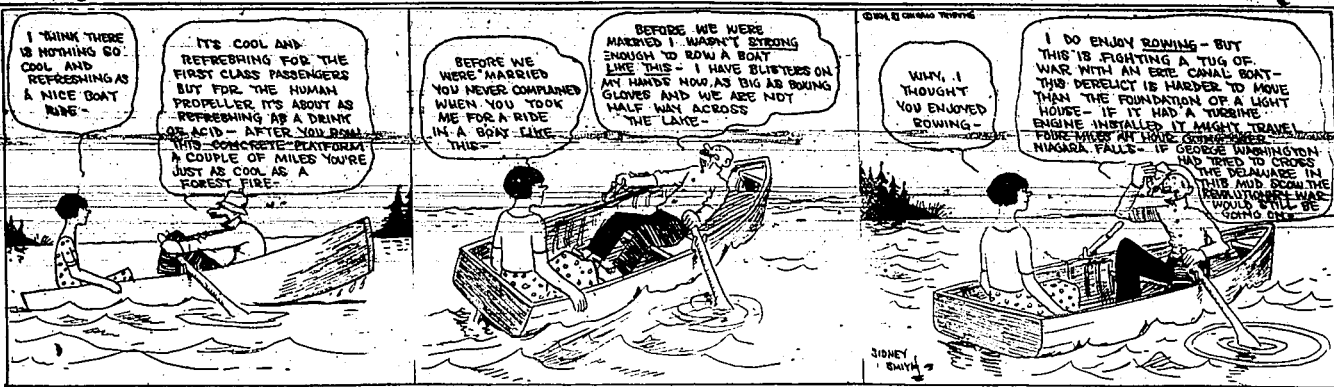

Kronprinz Wilhelm.

The description of the vessel, her dimensions and equipment tallied with that of the North German Lloyd built liner Kronprinz Wilhelm, which was interned during the war, became an American transport, was renamed the Von Steuben, and disappeared from official records on March 14, when the ship was held off having spent a night in the Atlantic, and was reported to be scrapping purposes.

Plenty of time has intervened since March for the undisciplined owners of the Von Steuben to have overhauled her and installed the glimmering bar, concert and hotel accommodations described by the news reporters, authorities related.

THE GUMPS—PULL FOR THE SHORE

BOYCOTT STORES USING THE FLAG TO SELL WARES

American Tourists in Europe Dislike Use of National Colors for Advertising Purposes; Dissatisfaction Felt.

BERNE, Switzerland, Aug. 16 (AP)—Steps to boycott all European merchants who have resorted to the American national colors for advertising purposes have been taken this summer by American tourists who have been shocked at the extensive use made of the Stars and Stripes to draw attention to numerous kinds of wares in various countries.

It has been pointed out by tourists that there is scarcely a city on the continent which has been frequented by Americans where the combination of red, white and blue in one form or another has not been used as an advertising medium, and the word has been passed around by travelers to give such stores and shops a wide berth wherever possible.

Tourists have reported that in a few instances where the attention of dealers was called to the improper use being made of the American flag for advertising, the practice was given up at once.

Drake Bitter Enemy of Spain.

In the days of her grandeur Spain had no bitter enemy than Sir Francis Drake, the famous sea rover who, through his exploits, became one of the most famous of Queen Elizabeth's admirals. Drake was the first sailor of his nation to circumnavigate the globe—a feat that Magellan and Sebastian del Cano had accomplished 53 years before. Such was his hatred of the Spanish that he was wont to say: "Whether there be peace or war between Spain and England, there will always be war between Drake and the supporters of the Inquisition." Drake never forgave the defeat that he experienced at the hands of the Spaniards—San Juan de Ulloa—in 1568, when he was the very youthful captain of the Judith, a defeat that involved the loss of all that he possessed.

Prejudices Against Speed.

One hundred years ago the United States postal service first operated stage coaches at night between New York and Boston. People protested that it was too dangerous. The first trip did result in a fatal accident. The same attitude greeted the coming of the railroads. Here is a letter written March, 1825, by Thomas Creevey, M. P., about the first railroad bill read in the British parliament: "I have come to the conclusion that our Ferguson is insane. He quite foamed at the mouth with rage in our railway committee in support of this infernal nuisance—the locomotive monster, carrying 50 tons of goods, and navigated by a pair of smoke and sulphur coming through every man's grounds between Manchester and Liverpool."

No More Fooling

NOWHERE did Abraham Lincoln show his shrewdness of judgment to better effect than in that famous utterance which ended, "You can't fool all the people all the time."

In the past, there were a few misguided advertisers who thought they could sell their wares better by misrepresentation. But those advertisers have long since gone out of business or mended their ways. Hard experience taught that Lincoln was right. Untruthful advertising doesn't pay.

Other advertisers proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers and build up public good-will was to tell the absolute truth about their goods.

So, you can be sure that every consistently advertised product is good. The advertising test has proved it. The very fact that it is advertised is your best warranty of satisfaction and true quality.

The concern that tells you frankly what it is doing is a good concern with which to do business. That is why it pays to read the advertisements, to patronize advertisers, and to buy advertised merchandise.

It's mighty good business

LEAGUE TEAM BEATS HANSEN

Twin Falls Church Nine Defeats Visitors by a Score of 9 to 8.

HANSEN, Aug. 16. (Special to The News)—After shutting out the Hansen Community team, 9 to 0, for eight innings, Eddie Martin, pitching for a church aggregation from Twin Falls, weakened and allowed eight runs in the ninth inning, stopping the rally just in time to rescue the victory for the Twin Falls team with a 9 to 8 score.

Each of the four teams of the Twin Falls inter-church league contributed players to the nine which met the community team on the local diamond and from the start the tight infield work of the Twin Falls team backing up the splendid mound work of Martin, captain-elect of the Twin Falls high school squad, was far superior to the Hansen-ites who were able to get but four hits in eight innings while the visitors were driving out 16 clouts, many of them for extra bases, in the nine innings.

BLUES WILL MEET GRAYS IN GAME AT BUHL FIELD TODAY

With but a slightly changed lineup from the one which trimmed Buhl's miscellaneous team a week ago Manager Cosgriff expects to repeat last week's performance at Buhl this Sunday to the entire satisfaction of the local fans.

Graves, who played with the Blues about three weeks ago, will probably hold down the initial sack on Cosgriff's team, with the Mullen-Lehrbas-Selley combination working on the other corners of the infield.

Newbill and Muscell.

Newbill and Muscell look to be the best bet on battery end of the lineup, with the same collection of gardeners of a week ago, Ostrander, Riles and Gorbier.

Who Griswold will use in the box is still a matter of doubt and probably will remain so until the batteries are announced this afternoon at 2:30 at game series.

Following this week's game which concludes the original schedule of three Sunday games with the Grays, Manager Cosgriff plans a trip for the last of the month to Boise, where he will play the Mountaineers in a two-game series.

The Hudson Coach—

In appearance, in commodious comfort and in all details of construction, the Hudson Coach is built to a remarkable standard. It is an enclosed car at an open car price, yet there is no sacrifice or compromise in any quality. In examining it you may hold it to every requirement you would expect in a car of the best grade. The price, which because Hudson's specialization in closed cars is several hundred dollars lower than can be matched elsewhere, will then be doubly pleasing.

The Essex Coach—

The Essex Coach is recognized as a marked advancement over anything of the sort which motorists have known. It combines roominess, pleasing lines and closed car protection with the advantages of a six-cylinder chassis built on the principles of the famous Hudson Super-Six. The Coach is easy to buy, economical to operate and maintain, and yet it has the attractive appearance and all-around fine performance which usually come only at a much higher price.

GRANGERS HOLD SOCIAL SESSION

Roseworth Community Enjoys One of Annual Picnic Assemblies; Crop Outlook Good.

BUHL, Aug. 16.—(Special to The News).—Roseworth Grangers' members enjoyed their first annual picnic Friday, when 50 people gathered at the Hartwell grove, one of the earliest settled places on the tract and spread the contents of well filled baskets in a real sociable community dinner. After the sumptuous feed the speakers were introduced by Dr. D. C. Albion, pioneer settler of the district, who presented a farmer and master of the grange at Roseworth.

County Agent R. E. Brossard gave a short talk on general conditions over the county, and urged the farmers to send some exhibits of various crops to the fair.

Mrs. F. W. Alworth, member of the county fair executive committee, gave a short talk, urging the women to take advantage of the opportunity to show their fancy work and skill in the canning of fruit.

F. W. Alworth of Curry, delivered an interesting address on the merits of the grange, and other worth while farmers' organizations. After the speaking the grange master appointed committees to assemble the exhibits from Roseworth, and finally a vote was cast relative to the perpetuation of grange annual picnics, and the ballot went strong for future celebrations.

Crop Prospects Promising. Grange prospects are promising. Grain alfalfa seed fields are in their various stages of development, some of the earliest stands are practically matured and assure those farmers a heavy yield, while other fields were clipped for an early crop of hay and now a late crop of seed. Some alfalfa and red clover yields were good, while others were poor.

Dr. Albion has formed a plan to collect data on alfalfa seed production. Grange members have agreed to keep tabs on their respective methods of watering and of their different soil formations, and the various slopes of the land, relative to the vital question that has worried seed growers for many years. This information will be passed along during the coming winter and will, Dr. Albion thinks, aid materially in seed production during the years to come.

Grasshoppers are plentiful over some of the fields, but their late arrival will hinder their destructive progress somewhat. What is known as the tawnyish plant bug is doing some damage at Roseworth as well as other localities. This fly bores into the seed pods and takes the life giving moisture from the plant. So far no weapon has been secured to oust this pest.

specific provision in law for an appropriation for this purpose.

"The first serious difficulty came when the several canal companies that had contracted with the reclamation service for building of the reservoirs, found themselves unable to meet this barrier seemed insurmountable, and then the big district was formed, marking successful accomplishment of a stupendous undertaking.

Open Opposition

"The last session of congress witnessed outbreak of open opposition to any further appropriations for reclamation in Idaho, and the appropriation for the current year was approved in the close of a long and hard fought contest. Opposition on the part of neighboring states seemed to have been engendered by the fact that Idaho already had received for reclamation projects approximately three times as much as had been turned into the reclamation fund from sale of public lands in this state.

"The government already has expended approximately $2,000,000 on the American Falls project. The appropriation of $645,000 for the current year will become available as soon as the district and other interests contracting for American Falls water pays into the treasury $1,500,000. Out of this combined amount, there is to be paid to the Indians $700,000 for bottom lands that will be inundated when the reservoir is completed."

"Matrimonially Speaking"
By MRS. HUGH MCKAY
My husband calls up from his office and goes on to attend to things he forgot to do before he left home. Often it's the suit he has to wear that night—it's at the tailor's being pressed and the shop will be closed by the time he gets home from work. I don't mind his getting on with his work, but I don't mind his forgetting to do his share of the housework. Or it's the check he forgot to send the gas company—the fifteenth of the month has arrived—and he thinks it'd better mail it out just to make sure the matter is attended to. Or else his collar simply have to go to the laundry—and won't I please wrap them up and take them around for him! Vis voice always sounds so over-worked and worried over the phone that I promise to help him out. But afterward I wonder just why he always makes a point of forgetting those things (ill he's safely in his office and couldn't possibly attend to them himself. I like to be obliging—but this business of being home secretary for miscellaneous errands has its drawbacks!

BETTER MONEY.
The British pound has been swinging up again in international exchange and is nearer par than it has been for many months. Likewise the French franc is rising, and other European currencies trail along in the same wholesome direction. This is largely a result of the favorable outlook for the German reparations settlement, along the lines of the plan worked out by the help of American experts. This effect is immediately noticeable in the general trend of business. As foreign money gains more buying power, American manufacturers get more foreign orders. As our foreign business improves, the business situation improves at home. Better money means better business for everybody, just as better blood in the body means better physical health.

CANCELLING DEBTS.
The progress of the European reparations conference leads easily and naturally to the old subject of cancelling war debts. That may be a live subject before long. The British premier is said to have intimated that Great Britain might reduce the French debt to that country, and possibly cancel it altogether, in exchange for "a reasonable attitude on the part of France toward Germany." But Premier MacDonald does not want to commit the country very far along that line without co-operation from America.

If Great Britain says good-bye to any of the money it lent France, she wants America to do the same thing for the same reason. That reason, as he sees it, is to promote peace and better business conditions in Europe. He does not foresee any really satisfactory settlement and reconstruction if all of the debtor nations are held to their full obligations. There are American statesmen and financiers who feel the same way about it, but the United States government has steadfastly refused to consider cancellation, and in that stand it is supported by public opinion. Not that American sentiment is invariably set against making any of the Allies a gift of any of the money it lent them in their need. But Americans do not feel like giving serious consideration to any proposal of that sort until they are assured that they would get some equivalent for that they surrendered, in the form of genuine peace, order and disarmament in Europe.

MARS NEXT DOOR.
This is a good month to look at Mars. Not the mythical war god, but the planet. That famous red luminary will be nearer the earth on August 22 and 23 than it has been for many years, and will be again for 500 years. So take a good look on one of these August nights. Mars is one of the most favorable planets for observation anyway, because it is nearer the earth than any other except Venus, and is on the outer side of the earth where it shows the fully reflected glow of the sun, as the moon does when it is full. Venus, though shining gloriously white at times, is always at a disadvantage because it is so near the sun. It can be seen only in the early morning or late evening, and then is often seen only as a quarter-moon or half-moon, because of the angle at which the sun's light strikes it. When Mars is on the other side of the sun from us, it is as much as 200,000,000 miles away. When it is on our side of the sun, and making

"Have you never heard of us before, Billie Brownie?" the Day Left-Overs asked. Now, the Day Left-Overs were little bits of scraps of things which were left over from the day before. They were very much like sand and mud and ill-shaped fairies.

"I don't think so," said Billie Brownie. "Oh, yes," said the Day Left-Overs. "I just told me about you. He heard about you from Fairy Wondrous. Secrets and she asked me to come and see you."

"No," said Billie Brownie. "I don't think so," said the Day Left-Overs. "I just told me about you. He heard about you from Fairy Wondrous. Secrets and she asked me to come and see you."

Took Pains to Soothe
"Man's" Ruffled Feeling
As anyone knows who has read that brilliant but rather disconcerting novel, "The Way of All Flesh," Samuel Butler was not a staid and sober author. The institution of the family—his own life at home had not been happy, and we remember that in his "Note-Books" he referred to some Biblical character—Melchizedek, was it not?—as a "really happy man without father, without mother and without descent."

Land of Romance
The details of the story of the Aenidians have been carefully recorded and cherished by Nova Scotia. Every landmark mentioned by Longfellow in "Evangeline" is being preserved, and everything associated with the Aenidian is treasured. At Grand Pre is being created the Aenidian Memorial park in the center of the old-time village. The sites of the old wall, the priest's house, the church and the long row of willows which still line the street will be included in it.

CHAPTER V

"Tommy, dear," the little mother in the big blue coat said presently, lifting the child from her lap, and setting him upon his own sturdy legs on the floor. "Tommy, dear, tell that mother what you want to do. Tell him we're almost—almost in."

"I didn't know how glad I was going to be," admitted Ellen Josselyn, her happy eyes leaving the prospect of the happy waters of the harbor mouth, and the unshakable glow of the sunlit solid blue shadows that mean, here, "Mr. Josselyn and I went abroad the very day after our marriage, and that was six years ago last October. We've lived in France all this time. Tommy was born there, and when we decided to come back to America, I felt a sort of terror, actually! It seemed much, much harder than the original uprooting, strangely enough! I never have been homesick for America, but I'm homesick—already—for France!"

Human Tan
John, tipping the scale at 278 pounds, on a motor trip through Colorado arrived in a little town about 10 p.m., and was exceedingly hungry. He saw what appeared to be a restaurant. Parking his car, he entered the restaurant. Some one, with a once-while approach, approached from behind curtains. John inquired, "Do you serve meals here?" The man with the apron said him up from top to bottom, and finally answered: "We do, but we do not fill up all."

Sense of Humor
A sense of humor is a very fine thing. It lifts one over life's rougher places as it were, with a leap and a bound, and lands one in safety on the farther bank of the swollen and threatening stream. You keep young if you possess it. It keeps the mind in good shape. It is the bridge in your life that connects that old age is far from you yet, whatever your years may be. All the same, a sense of humor is a gift which must be displayed with discretion. The trouble is that, with most of us, it stops working when we need it most. It is when things go wrong with our own affairs. The man who can smile when this happens is a hero.

"Tommy, dear," the little mother in the big blue coat said presently, lifting the child from her lap, and setting him upon his own sturdy legs on the floor. "Tommy, dear, tell that mother what you want to do. Tell him we're almost—almost in."

"I didn't know how glad I was going to be," admitted Ellen Josselyn, her happy eyes leaving the prospect of the happy waters of the harbor mouth, and the unshakable glow of the sunlit solid blue shadows that mean, here, "Mr. Josselyn and I went abroad the very day after our marriage, and that was six years ago last October. We've lived in France all this time. Tommy was born there, and when we decided to come back to America, I felt a sort of terror, actually! It seemed much, much harder than the original uprooting, strangely enough! I never have been homesick for America, but I'm homesick—already—for France!"

CAVENDER HELD ON NEW CHARGE AS HIGHWAYMAN

One of Four Robbery Suspects Held for Trial Falls to Gain Liberty by Furnishing First Bond of $2000.

Russell Cavender, 21, one of four men held here Friday by Probate Judge D. P. Duvall to answer in district court to charge of robbery committed last Monday evening. Cavender furnished $2000 bond for his release pending trial and was immediately re-arrested on charge of participation with the three other suspects in a second robbery also committed last Monday night. Cavender was arraigned on the second complaint before Justice of the Peace W. S. Mallory and was admitted to $4000 bond, which was not furnished. Cavender's preliminary hearing was set for Monday, August 19.

The bond furnished by Cavender was signed by John Galt, J. C. Cavanaugh and Thomas Cavanaugh as sureties. The second complaint against Cavanaugh on which he was arraigned today before Justice of the Peace Mallory charged him with complicity in the robbery of E. W. Knall, a local district farmer, who was held up and assaulted on the highway north of Knall by four men on Monday evening last, a short time after four masked and armed men robbed the Blue Lakes grocery store and shortly before the general store at Knall was robbed by four men. The complaint against Cavanaugh and the three other robbery suspects on which preliminary hearing was held Friday before Judge Duvall charged them with commission of the robbery of the Knall store.

"Had" Davis, another of the four alleged robbers, is believed to have escaped some time ago from jail in Littleton, Colo., where he had been awaiting trial on a forgery charge, according to information received Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones. The Colorado authorities asked for fingerprints and other identification of the man held here.

Ray "Chick" McHenry and George Walters Jr. are, the other members of the alleged robber band which is charged with commission of the three robberies in this vicinity last Monday evening.

RETURNS TO TWIN FALLS TO ENTER BUSINESS HERE

Purchase by J. B. Trollinger of Oklahoma of the pharmacy, established here in 1917 and owned for several years by the Rogers Hotel company, was announced Saturday evening when the new owner took charge upon completion of inventory. Mr. Trollinger's purchase of the pharmacy here comes as a result of a year ago when he visited Twin Falls on a motor tour through several western states after disposing of the drug store at Waggoner, Okla., of which he had been proprietor for eight years. Subsequent visit to northwestern coast cities and sejour of several months in California, Mr. Trollinger stated, served to improve the favorable impression he had gained of Twin Falls, and when he returned here a week ago he seized the opportunity to enter the business field here.

Mr. Trollinger is accompanied by Mrs. Trollinger, who will assist in the management of the pharmacy, and their son.

BOY SCOUT CAMP COMES TO CLOSE

Degree of Eagle Scout, highest honor in Boy Scouting, will be conferred at an early session of the court of honor here upon Byron Rendahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Rendahl, and a member of troop number three, Twin Falls, and Jay Kendrick, member of troop number one, Buhl, who passed required test for this degree just before the closing of the Snake River district Boy Scout summer camp in Shoshone Basin Saturday afternoon.

During the six weeks period that the camp continued, 12 Boy Scouts achieved the Eagle rank; 10 passed tests required for the life scout's rating and 10 became star scouts, according to report made by P. Douglas Hawley, district scout executive, who returned here Saturday with 35 scouts who participated in the training and dismantling the camp.

More than 1100 tests were passed by scouts during the camp, and approximately 200 scouts from seven towns within the four counties comprising the district were in camp during the six weeks period. The camping experience was not marred by any accident, serious indisposition or other untoward occurrence. On the day that the camp closed, Mr. Hawley stated, the supply of spring water failed, and the scout executive advised that persons planning outdoor excursions to the basin postpone their trips for a few weeks until the flow of the spring is restored.

Mr. Hawley expects to leave next Tuesday with the district's seven Eagle Scouts who were not chosen in assist in building the Eagle trail in Yellowstone park, on an expedition to Mount Hindsman in the Wind river region. Scoutmaster Lloyd Roberts of Jerome, will guide the party.

THIRD PARTY'S COMMITTEE HITS STATE MANAGER

Condemnation of Persons Working for Candidates Unfavorable to LaFollette.

Opposition to "any and all affiliations with or endorsements of any candidate of the two old parties or either of them" and unconditional condemnation of "any and all actions of any and all who profess to be progressive that are laboring within the progressive party to bring about the endorsement of any candidate who is not out to help to elect LaFollette as president of the United States," were expressed by majority vote of the "progressive" party's county central committee at its organization meeting here Saturday. Thirteen out of the party's 10 precinct committees attended the meeting which is reported to have been a heated affair. Candidates on the party's ticket for legislative and county offices who are reported to have attended in accordance with instructions given by Ray McKelvie of Boise, "progressive" party manager, at a meeting in Flirt Tuesday evening, were denied voice in the meeting and participation was confined strictly to members of the committee.

Thrust at McKelvie.
The resolutions adopted are regarded as a direct thrust at McKelvie. Candidates for chairman and secretary of the committee reported to McKelvie of Boise, "progressive" party manager, by McKelvie to attend at the Flirt meeting were not admitted at the session today of the committee which chose as its chairman J. B. Pink of Twin Falls, and as secretary, Ray Miller of Twin Falls, both of whom are regarded as anti-McKelvie men.

Protest against the action of the committee was carried by some of the "progressive" party members, including D. P. Dettweiler, candidate for county commissioner, and Elmer A. Filer, precinct committeeman, to the extent of seeking legal advice as to whether the proceedings of the meeting might not be set aside by action in court.

The committee arranged to hold the "progressive" county convention next Tuesday in the courthouse beginning at 11 o'clock a. m.

Text of the resolution adopted is as follows:
We as the committee of the progressive party of Twin Falls county, do hereby announce to the public that we stand unitedly for progress and progressive principles. We heartily and unconditionally endorse Robert M. LaFollette as our candidate for the president of the United States.

We hereby place ourselves on record as unconditionally opposed to the endorsement or nomination of any candidate for public office who is not a progressive.

And we unconditionally condemn any and all action of any kind who profess to be progressives that are laboring within the progressive party to bring about the endorsement of any candidate who is not out to help
