AMERICA'S TAX BURDEN HEAVIER FOR YEAR 1923

Taxation in Ten Years Has Grown $5,500,000,000, Industrial Conference Board Announces in Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—America's tax burden was $775,000,000 heavier in 1923 than in 1913, and in ten years taxation has grown more than $5,500,000,000, the national industrial conference board announced in a report made public today. Total taxes raised in 1923 were placed at $7,716,000,000 against $6,941,000,000 in 1913.

The decline in the volume of taxation noted in 1922 was rather short lived, the report said, predicting an upward tendency in 1924.

The report asserted that in 1913 the federal, state and local governments disbursed $208,000,000 on account of pensions and $224,000,000 for interest on public indebtedness. In 1923 these totals were respectively $320,000,000 and $1,447,000,000.

Higher Than Before War.
The board concluded that the burden of taxation on industry, "using this term in its widest sense, measured in terms of dollars, is three and one-half times as high as before the war, and measured in terms of comparable purchasing power, this burden is two and one-half times as high as it was in 1913."

The statement continues: "About one-eighth of the national income goes toward the support of governmental authorities in this country as compared with one-sixteenth before the war. Because the recession of national income in 1921 is likely to be appreciable as compared with 1923, and because of the continued rise in the volume of state and local taxes, it is highly probable that the ratio of taxes to income will be higher in 1924 than in the preceding year."

GOVERNOR MOORE WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN SOON
Idaho Executive Selects Haley as Scene of Initial Speech; Five Towns Are Definitely on Schedule.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—Governor C. G. Moore will open his campaign for re-election on the republican ticket at Haley next Tuesday night, C. G. Macey, secretary of the republican state central committee, announced this afternoon. The governor, who is the first of the republican candidates for state and congressional offices to take the stump, plans a tour of the entire state. His itinerary for next week follows:

Tuesday, September 23, Haley.
Wednesday, September 24, Shoshone.
Thursday, September 25, American Falls.
Friday, September 26, Malad.
Saturday, September 27, Preston.

INCENTIVE TO CRIMES.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—Sentence given Loch and Leopold, Chicago boy murderers, was a grave miscarriage of justice, and will cause men to think that they, too, can commit crimes and receive light sentences, Governor C. G. Moore told a delegation that waited on him today, making reference to C. M. Anderson, first degree murderer who is serving a life sentence in the Idaho penitentiary.

Idaho's Mortality Rate Lower in 1923 Than Year Before

708 People Out of Every 100,000 Died in Idaho, Report Shows; Not So Much Influenza.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—Idaho's mortality for 1923 was 708 per 100,000, the lowest in the country. The 1923 government statistics show that 708 people out of every 100,000 died, while the year previous the records show the death rate to be 811 for every 100,000. The decreases are due, statistics show, to lower death rates from influenza (41 to 22); diphtheria and enteritis, under two years of age (10 to 7); diseases of the heart (23 to 16); tuberculosis, all forms (44 to 37); pneumonia (64 to 58); cancer (53 to 48); nephritis (42 to 35); diabetes mellitus (15 to 11); and typhoid fever (9 to 6).

FARMER HOOKED TO DEATH
YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 15 (AP)—Sam H. Taylor, 78, well-to-do farmer, was hooked to death last night and his body was found this morning at his home near Terryville. A man has been arrested and taken to Custer.

First Death Warrant Issued for a Woman Since Year of 1885

Philadelphia To Be Scene of Legal Execution of Louise Thomas, Negro Murderess.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 15 (AP)—The first death warrant for the execution of a woman in Pennsylvania in many years was issued at Governor Pinchot's office. It fixed the date for the execution of Louise Thomas, a negro, convicted of murder in Philadelphia, for the week beginning October 28.

The last woman executed in Pennsylvania was Sarah J. Whiting, Philadelphia, who was hanged in 1885.

LEGIONNAIRES OPEN SESSION

Annual Gathering of Veterans of World War Prepares for Full Program.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 15 (AP)—With military precision the annual convention of the American Legion got under way here today, perfected organization, listened to several prominent speakers and lunched into the real business of the five-day gathering.

Address of welcome on behalf of the city and state, greetings from the G. A. R. and United Confederate Veterans, a message from President Coolidge and a gripping, solemn tribute to the late Woodrow Wilson were included in the activities of the opening session.

Within the realm of convention business fell the addresses of National Commander John R. Quinn, who pointed to legion achievements of the past year; reports of several committees and an address by General Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, who told the veterans the bureau had "been cleaned up."

One tableau on the speakers' platform brought ringing cheers from the legionnaires. That was when Commander Quinn, in his address, declared that legionnaires arriving tonight, preparations are going forward for a full representation in the parade tomorrow. The hand competition also will be staged at that time.

FLAMES CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE
Property Destroyed in Blaze of Gasoline Tank Estimated at Three Millions.

MONTEREY, Cal., Sept. 15 (AP)—A gas underground tank of gasoline ignited by flames from the (1) which started here yesterday, exploded at 4 o'clock this afternoon, blowing out the roof of the building and causing heavy damage to the surrounding territory had been burned over prevented the flames from the explosion from spreading to the city.

Fishing boats in the bay, but no one was injured.

A careful checkup today revealed that two men, soldiers from the Monterey presidio, were killed in the spectacular fire which started yesterday when lightning struck a 55,000-gallon tank of oil belonging to the United Oil Co. The men, George Dole and Eugene Watkins, were among several scores of soldiers who tried to prevent the spread of flames from the ignited tank.

Several persons were slightly injured and property damage estimated as high as $3,000,000 done in the fire.

TO INVESTIGATE CASES.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—J. H. McConick, Salt Lake, federal immigration examiner for this district, arrived in Boise today to investigate cases against Chinese charged with violation of the narcotics act. Mr. McConick is to study all circumstances connected with the alleged activity of the defendants in disposing of drugs, and will decide whether the charges constitute grounds for deportation, he said today.

OUT OF LICENSE PLATES.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—License plates have been issued to 60,000 pleasure cars in Idaho and this quantity of state's office has temporarily run out of the state and black plates designated as Idaho license. An additional 20,000 plates have been ordered, however, and are now on the way to the capital.

WORLD FIGURE DISAPPEARS IN PECULIAR WAY

Lewis E. Sands, Millionaire "Bean King," Follows in Footsteps of Father and Turns Up Missing.

ALBION, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—Lewis E. Sands, wholesale bean dealer and known as the "world bean king," has vanished, like his father did years ago.

As a result of his disappearance, his wholesale plant here, doing business as Lewis E. Sands Company, Inc., and 28 receiving stations and warehouses in this state and across the others throughout the country, are left in compliance with an order from his attorney. Liabilities of the company are said to exceed assets $300,000 to $500,000.

Millionaire, philanthropist and churchman, Sands built up his business from a small beginning. When Henry Sands, father of Lewis, left Albion for parts unknown, his wife, two sons and two daughters were left to shift for themselves. The elder Sands had eked out a living by buying small lots of beans from nearby farmers and picking them over in a small house.

Followed Father's Footsteps.
Lewis Sands was 15 years old when his father left and the burden of supporting the family fell upon him. He chose to sort beans as his father had done. William E. Sands, he was an employed. He interested Wall Street capital in his business.

During the world war Sands furnished beans for the allied armies and he said to have made more than a million dollars from these contracts.

It is believed by friends that the strain of long devotion to business has affected his health.

Episcopal Bishop of Idaho Resigns in Health Cause

Frank Hale Tourist, D. D., in Charge of Church, Informs Congregation in Letter of His Intention.

BOISE, Sept. 15.—(Special to the News)—Ill health is given as the cause for the tendered resignation of Bishop Frank Hale Tourist, D. D., Episcopal bishop for Idaho, who has held that position since 1919. Notice of his resignation, which must be acted upon by the board of bishops in New York city at its meeting to be held October 8, was given to the congregation of St. Michael's cathedral here at the Sunday morning services by Dean Paul Roberts in a letter from Bishop Tourist.

Bishop and Mrs. Tourist have spent the summer at "Nantuxet," Mass., where they want in the hopes it would improve Bishop Tourist's health. Letters from the bishop were sent out to the various churches in Idaho to be read at the morning service announcing his intention to resign. The resignation is being accepted by the board of bishops in New York city.

Bishop Tourist, 70, is a native of New York city and has been in Idaho since 1919. He is a member of the Episcopal church and has been in charge of the Episcopal church in Idaho.

His resignation came as a surprise here. While members of his congregation and his wide range of friends here knew that he had been in poor health for some time, they had no inkling of his decision to give up his work in this state. He is perhaps one of the best liked men in the state of Idaho and in his letter to Dean Roberts he mentioned his deep regret at finding it necessary to resign.

A possible successor to Bishop Tourist is not known by members of the congregation here.

FOUR MEN SUSPECTED IN CONNECTION WITH YOUNG GIRL'S DEATH

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 15 (AP)—Police tonight declared four young men were suspect for information regarding the disappearance August 19 of 15-year-old Elizabeth Johnson, a farmer's daughter, whose lifeless body was found yesterday on the shores of Lake Carnegie.

The search, however, centers on a farm land where attention to the girl are known to have been opposed by her parents. This man was the John who made the day the girl disappeared, according to the police.

The girl's father tonight gave the names of the men as Harvey Spill, son of Spencer, Iowa. Mr. Johnson said he employed neither May 6 and discharged him August 5, just one week before the girl disappeared.

FAMOUS RACE DRIVER IS VICTIM IN SPEED EVENT

BANKER PLEADS GUILTY

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—James A. Lower, Payette business man, and former director of the Payette National bank, entered plea of guilty Monday in United States district court before Judge E. S. Dietrich, to two indictments, one charging perjury and one conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. James E. Cleveland, and Sherman D. Merry, indicted on the conspiracy charge, went off to jail Tuesday to enter pleas. Lower will also appear Tuesday for judgment.

CHINESE ARMIES RE-OPEN BATTLE

Steady Stream of Wounded Passing to Rear as Fighting Gains in Intensity.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 15 (AP)—The armies of Chekiang and Kiangsu, battling west and southwest of this city, which held their fire during a few days of rain, were fighting with renewed intensity today. As a result the streams of wounded returning from the front increased. Reports as to the result do not agree, but the best information was there was little change in the situation.

Shanghai was calmer, although the naval forces, landed to protect foreigners and their interests have not relaxed their vigilance. One reason for the lessening of anxiety was a report that the Kiangsu leaders had abandoned their attempt to reach this city through Linhu and Wusong, the outer ports of Shanghai, and had sent reinforcements to Hwangtung on the Shanghai-Nanking railway, where the fighting has been the hardest.

There has also been heavy fighting south of the railway where the Chekiang headquarters claimed that advances were made despite the fact that their men were caught by machine guns when attempting a flank movement which carried them to Anting, one of their objectives.

Invasion Threatened.

News from the north is likewise variable, but it seems assured that Wu Pei-fu is moving northward to meet a threatened invasion of his province of Chihli by Changchao-Lin, the Manchurian leader. The latter is reported to have blown up the Peking-Mukden railway in his own territory to prevent the Chihli army from using it, an indication that he expects to meet the enemy somewhere along the Luan river, towards Jehol, northeast of Peking. Wu is moving his army over the Peking-Mukden railway through Tientsin to Shanhaiwan, on the Chihli-Manchurian border.

Yat-Sen, the president of the South China republic, who has taken sides with Chang against the central government, continues to move troops to Shingchow, in northern Kwangtung, and talks of a march to Peking. However, his position is so precarious that he is not free to keep one eye on his enemies there while trying to assist his northern ally.

KLAN MENTION PROBABLE

California Democratic State Convention Expected to Act on Two Points of Outstanding Interest.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 15 (AP)—Revival of the proposal to divide California into two states with the Tehachan pass in the Sierra Nevada as the boundary line, and a demand for an expression of attitude toward the Ku Klux Klan, are expected to receive the attention of the state democratic convention, which convenes here tomorrow.

Assurance that the effects of the different and southern California geographically would be made again, was given today by Mrs. Gladys Estelle McGill, San Francisco, member of the women's national democratic congressional committee. She said the interests of the two sections of the state were so different as to require between them to be under present conditions development of both sections is being retarded.

Indications that the Klan will receive attention came from several quarters.

NINE TO FAIR CHARGES.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 15 (AP)—Nine persons for whom federal warrants were issued Saturday charging violation of the national prohibition law appeared before the United States $100 toward the fund. The memorial law would be in the form of a monument to the former governor, and the state would be required to pay the cost of $100 for each check, and $100 for each check.

JIMMY MURPHY, VETERAN OF MANY HARD-FOUGHT BATTLES, LOST LIFE WHEN CAR COLLIDES WITH FENCE.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—Jimmy Murphy of Vernon, Cal., favored to win the national racing championship of the American Automobile association for 1924, and veteran of many an automobile race, died in a state of shock and blood, met his death on the state fair grounds here this afternoon when the car he was piloting crashed through a wooden fence on a curve during the 138th lap of the 100-mile race.

Murphy survived the accident only a few minutes, long enough to be taken to a hospital in this city, six miles away, but he never regained consciousness. He was the only victim of the accident, which happened on the inside of the track.

Splinters of wood from the wrecked car were flying from Murphy's car when it struck the fence, just in time for the leaders in the race to thunder by.

Teammate Takes Second.
The race was won by Phil Shafer, in one hour, 51 minutes and 33.20 seconds. Bennett Hill, teammate of Murphy, finished over the line second, in one hour, 57 minutes and 20.81 seconds. Harry Hart, substituting for his teammate, Fred Couer, came in third in two hours and nine seconds.

It was in an attempt to lap his teammate and pass Shafer that Murphy pushed his car into a final burst of speed. He ran down the straightaway past the grandstands at approximately 100 miles an hour. At the turn which would have brought him into the backstretch, he seemed unable to straighten the car out and the 2000 bleacher occupants were horrified to see him slip the inside fence once, then rapidly skid around and strike it again, and finally, on a complete third turn, crash into the railing and carry it before him for nearly 100 feet.

Car Holds to Track.
The car did not overturn but in its progress sideways it picked up the fence rails so that they penetrated the head and the body of the victim. The end of one of the steel wire splinters struck Murphy in the chest.

An ambulance reached Murphy a few seconds after the accident and took him to St. Joseph's hospital. Tommy Milton, companion racing driver, and Murphy's mechanic, accompanied him to the hospital.

After a parade about the field for the purpose of allowing all to gain a glimpse of the flier, they were placed in motor cars and whisked away to an adjoining suburb, where they had lunch. At every turn a "shout" in a "going out" uniform, the airman were taken for a sightseeing trip of Chicago and to place a wreath on Washington's monument near the art institute on Michigan boulevard and for the public dinner at a fashionable hotel.

TEMPEST MARKS JOURNEY'S END

McMillan Arctic Expedition Off Coast of Maine Experiences Worst Gale of Trip.

WISCONSIN, Maine, Sept. 15 (AP)—The midnight schooner "Hoodwin," returning from the Far North, today was encountering the worst storm of the 15-month trip, off Cape Saint George, N. S.

It was running hard and the little craft was running close hauled, according to information obtained here by radio.

A message to Hiram P. Maxin of Hartford, Conn., president of the American Red Cross League, Captain MacMillan said:

"The most serious question is the most serious item of equipment ever taken into the North by an Arctic explorer. It has enabled us to correct our chronometer within one minute of a day and cannot be accurately placed upon the map.

It has relieved the anxiety of our time to our voyage and safety. It has kept us in constant touch with the world. It has completely conquered the hitherto dreaded Arctic sea. It has kept us within reach of help and has not been placed upon the map.

Donald MacMillan, the radio operator of the "Hoodwin," reported today that while the "Hoodwin" was in the water was passed by a second two-way communication with 25 different amateur stations, the most distant being in Honolulu.

CAMPAIGN OPENS TO RAISE $20,000 FUND

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—Idaho's campaign to raise $20,000 to erect a memorial to President Steinbock, unavailing governor, will be launched in Boise tomorrow, when a committee will call on citizens who, it is felt, can give the $100 toward the fund. The memorial campaign will be in the form of a monument to the former governor, and the state would be required to pay the cost of $100 for each check, and $100 for each check.

WORLD FLIERS ARE ACCORDED WARM WELCOME

Globe Encircling Aviators Received in Chicago With Splendid Ovation; Trip Thus Far Is Uneventful.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—First of the fliers to greet their winged namesake, Chicago today took Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith and his world encircling flier to her home, stood with bared head while the planes figuratively unraveled more of the red, white and blue thread they have spun around the globe, gave them great ovations as humble homage and tonight tendered them food and drink at a public banquet.

From the moment Lieutenant Smith and his flag-plane, Chicago, completed the hop from Dayton to Maywood airport at 12:55 daylight time, he, with his companion pilots, Lieutenant Erik Nelson in the New Orleans, and Lieutenant Leigh Wallace, in the Viking II, received all the city could give them. Tomorrow at 3 a. m., central time, they are scheduled to be on their way again to Omaha, an air distance of 440 miles.

Thousands swarmed to the mail field, 12 miles west of Chicago, for a view of the world gridding fliers. The sight of them far over Chicago brought a spontaneous demonstration. Every kind of noise contrivance from lungs to the jazziest of bands let go.

All along the Lake Michigan shore, in Grant park on Chicago's business district, over which the three planes first circled, the outburst was as demonstrative.

The flight of 294 miles was without incident.

Royal Welcome Conferred.

"We have been treated royally wherever we stopped on our trip, but I want you all to know that nowhere, Tokio, Paris, London, Boston, have we been greeted as we have been in Chicago. I am proud to have flown the flag named after you city."

They were almost the first words spoken by Lieutenant Smith and his companions, as they received the newspapermen. The loss of Lieutenant Wade's original flight in North Atlantic waters, deprived him of being the first of the fliers to bring his plane into the city of its naming.

After a parade about the field for the purpose of allowing all to gain a glimpse of the fliers, they were placed in motor cars and whisked away to an adjoining suburb, where they had lunch. At every turn a "shout" in a "going out" uniform, the airman were taken for a sightseeing trip of Chicago and to place a wreath on Washington's monument near the art institute on Michigan boulevard and for the public dinner at a fashionable hotel.

FORMER MAYOR DIES

ALBANY, Pa., Sept. 15 (AP)—Captain James L. Schandt, former mayor of Albion, died here tonight in the hospital room in which he was married to Miss Florence L. Wright Claus of Seattle, a school day sweetheart, less than three weeks ago.

Eight Arrested in Riot Following on Speech by Aviator

Mobs for and Against Fascist Movement Indulge in Sanguinary Battle in Streets of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15 (AP)—Eight men were arrested tonight in riotous demonstrations over Lieutenant Antonio Locatelli, Italian aviator, who developed into a pitched battle between fascist and anti-fascist sympathizers.

Leaving the city hall, where he was greeted by Mayor Kendrick, Lieutenant Locatelli was met by a mob of about 50 "Viva Locatelli" and "Down with Locatelli and the Fascist!" from the jammed sidewalks.

The aviator was hurried to an automobile and taken to the hotel Colombo, where the Philadelphia fascist society had prepared a banquet. Before his arrival the streets for two blocks in all directions were crowded with milling fascist and anti-fascist sympathizers. As he got down before the hotel the crisis broke out again. Guards hurried into the establishment as fist fights started and the disturbance became general. Reserves from a nearby police station were called out and dispersed the crowd.

YOUTHS WALK FROM BOSTON TO UNIVERSITY

Make Distance in 22 Days; Will Enroll in School of Forestry at Moscow, One of Best in United States.

MOSCOW, Sept. 15.—(Special to The News.)—Harold E. Lee and David Cook of Boston have arrived on the campus of the University of Idaho after hiking across the continent in 22 days, aided by lifts from passing motorists. They will enroll in the school of forestry here at the opening of the fall term today.

The two youths, each 19 years of age, graduated a year ago from the Everett high school in the suburbs of Boston. Writups in forestry magazines, statements from friends and high school instructors, all pointed toward Idaho as the peer of forestry schools. Then they thought of the thrill that would accompany a trip into the West.

Make Good Time. Hiking across the continent, they found little difficulty in making nearly as good time as though they had their own automobiles. Things were reached in four days. From there they took the northern route, coming through the Fourth of July canyon in the Coeur d'Alene of North Idaho, to Spokane and thence to Moscow. In every state which they visited, with one exception, they found motorists very hospitable. They were given one 600-mile lift in the east by a honey-mooning couple, and another of 400 miles in the middle west.

They carried a complete camping and cooking outfit with them, sleeping in tourist parks in towns, in secluded wooded spots along the highways. "Coeur d'Alene was the most beautiful place we passed through on the whole trip, although Billings, Mont., ran it a close second," said Cook. "Probably the most beautiful and impressive scenic wonders awaited us as we crossed the Montana line into Idaho. The great mountains and forests made the whole trip worthwhile, regardless of anything else."

"We find the University of Idaho, as much as we have seen of it, every bit as good as expected. We wanted to take forestry so we came to Idaho where we knew some of the greatest forest lands were to be found, and to the University of Idaho, where instruction in forestry was most highly recommended."

PREPARES FOR WINDUP OF TUBERCULIN TESTS

Federal Veterinarians and County Commissioners Confer Regarding Completion of Cattle Tests.

With view to completing tuberculosis tests of cattle in Twin Falls county which were interrupted when Dr. W. A. Sullivan, inspector in charge of United States bureau of animal industry activities in Idaho, was called to California to assist in combating foot and mouth disease, Dr. Sullivan conferred Saturday with members of the board of county commissioners. It is proposed, if possible, to complete the tests within the present year in order that the county may be given rating of a modified accredited area from which cattle may be sent out without need for further tuberculosis test and only tested animals may be admitted.

Out of an estimated total of 15,000 cattle in the county, there remain approximately 5000, including range cattle, to be tested. Tests thus far completed show lower percentage of infection than had been expected by federal and state veterinarians conducting the drive. Showing of less than one-half of one per cent infection is required to admit an area to the accredited list.

GIRL THOUGHT LOST ACCUSES STEPFATHER OF MANY CRUELTIES

WILSON, N. D., Sept. 15 (AP)—Alice Zinger, Wolf Point, Mont., girl for whom posse has been searching since last Sunday night, when she disappeared, voluntarily went to the sheriff's office at Wolf Point last night, seeking protection from what she characterized "cruelties of my stepfather," according to word received by police here today.

The little girl was at first believed to have been abducted by three half-breed Indians. According to the sheriff at Wolf Point, the girl went to his office last night and showed him wells in evidence of alleged ill-treatment at the hands of her stepfather. It was because of this treatment, she said, that she ran away. She said, according to the sheriff, that she was 17 years of age, but that her stepfather claims she is 14 so as to keep her under his control.

NAVY SECRETARY LAUDS LAWYERS

Custodians of Blood Bought Liberties Which Must Be Held, Says Wilbur.

ALABAMA, Catalina Island, Cal., Sept. 15 (AP)—Lawyers of the country are the "custodians of blood-bought liberties, which should not be sacrificed for fads, impulse or temporary desires," said Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of the navy, addressing the closing session of the California Bar association convention here Saturday night.

The head of America's first line of defense, himself a lawyer and former chief justice of the state supreme court, in legal and analytical terms dissected various attempts in times past to invade fundamental rights of the private citizen of the United States.

"State courts, as well as national courts," the secretary said, "have overthrown laws that preferred one religion to another, that attempted to invade the educational rights of children that would do away with the right of trial by jury and that tended to permit imprisonment without trial."

DOCTRINE DEFENDED BY WHEELER IN HIS PHILADELPHIA TALK

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15 (AP)—Constitutional doctrine which Senator La Follette and himself uphold in their campaign before the nation was described and defended Saturday night in a Philadelphia audience by Senator Wheeler of Montana, vice presidential candidate on the independent ticket. They stood for the direct amendment of the federal constitution to abolish child labor, he declared, and for a limitation of the powers of federal courts to declare laws unconstitutional. A third line of possible constitutional revision was touched upon in the senator's address when, by way of mention of Senator Pepper, republican, Pennsylvania, he criticized use of the federal court in injunction in labor disputes.

What Are Ferrets Used For?

In some places they are used for hunting rabbits. The ferrets, either muzzled or unmuzzled, go into the burrows or underground runs of a rabbit warren and cause the rabbits to scurry out into the open where they may be more easily captured. However, the use of ferrets in hunting is prohibited in many of the states and is discommenced by most conservative sportsmen, except where rabbits have become so plentiful as to be pests. Ferrets are now used mainly for starting rats from their underground homes or for the purpose of killing snakes. Their rats do great damage.

What "Pan-Fish" Are.

The term pan-fish is many times misinterpreted. Some seem to think that this includes only an inferior sort of species, and others that it is merely a term applicable to most any fish which happens to be taken and which is edible, says the Sportsman's Digest. The true pan-fish is composed of small but game dwellers of the singing waters of brooks, creeks and rivers and the shore lines of the lakes. Brown (blue-gill or sunfish), rock bass, yellow perch, ringed perch and the horny chub or dace, are all part and parcel of the pan-fish tribe.

Almost Lost It

"I was advised if I wished to be lucky," remarked the "wise" man, "to throw a penny over the bridge the first time the train crossed running water. I did it, but the string nearly got entangled when I was pulling it up again."

The Justamere Inn announces the completion of their entertainment hall, which is now for rent for dances, card parties, dinners and banquets. Accommodations are ample for 150 guests, or arrangements can be made for smaller parties. Phone 450 for reservations.—adv.

PAUL PAINLEVE, president of the French chamber of deputies, the most forgetful man in France, was about to return from Havre to Paris when he discovered his trunk was missing. A 15-minute search failed to locate it. Then he remembered he hadn't brought one.

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, retiring as field commander in chief of the American armies, has refused offers to manage a "Buffalo Bull" show or to enter the movies.

CHARLES A. STONEHAM, owner of the New York Giants, will go on trial on September 20 for alleged conspiracy to use the mails to defraud in stock transactions.

SAMMY REZESWSKI of Detroit, chess prodigy, defeated Julius Rosenwald, Chicago millionaire philanthropist, who will now defray all the child's expenses in studying to be a Hebrew theologian.

Conscription in America
Conscription was not resorted to in the Revolutionary war. The first bill of this kind was introduced into an American congress by the conscription act of October 27, 1814, under the auspices of the then secretary of war, James Monroe. This was not carried out.

One of many highlights in "The Side Show of Life," Herbert Brenson's production of William J. Locke's gripping story, "The Mountebank," coming to the Idaho theater tomorrow for three days, is Ernest Torrence's superb characterization of the chief character. The performance he gives in this picture lives. Only Torrence could make such a man stand out as a worthy successor of Bill Jackson—the role he played in "The Covered Wagon."

Silver Hoarded in India.
Financial experts have long been baffled by the insatiable demand for silver that comes from India. It is assumed that the natives hoard it or convert it into jewelry. Silver literally pours into India year after year and is never sent out again in any quantity. United States shipped 30.7 million ounces there in 1923, and England 64 million fine ounces, in each case it being doubtful that of the previous year's shipment.

WALTER JOHNSON TROPHY WINNER IN HIS LEAGUE

Veteran Pitcher Selected as of Greatest Value to His Team; Name Will Go to Baseball Hall of Fame.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Walter Johnson, pitching ace with the Washington club for 17 years, tonight was selected as the winner of the American league trophy for 1924, which crowns him as the player of greatest value to his team during the championship season just closing.

Johnson's name goes into baseball's hall of fame along with George Elder, manager of the St. Louis club, chosen the greatest player of the 1922 season, and Babe Ruth of the Yankees, who was awarded the honor in 1923. Johnson received a total of 55 points out of a possible total of 64 from the expert committee chosen to make the award.

Eddie Collins, long time king of second basemen, ran a close second in the balloting with a total of 44 points, and was the choice of all eight members of the trophy committee as best player on the White Sox.

Johnson's name will be inscribed in the 1924 tablet on the $100,000 baseball memorial to be erected in East Potomac park, Washington, and presented to the government by the American league, as a memorial to the nation's greatest sport and a hall of fame for its greatest players. As a personal testimonial of the honor conferred on him, the winner will be presented a diploma by the American league.

NEW YORK TIES SENATORS' LEAD

Washington Loses to Detroit; American League Teams Are Neck and Neck.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—New York tied Washington for first place in the American league pennant race today by shutting out Chicago, 2 to 0, while the Senators were defeated by Detroit.

The world's champions planned only four hits off "Red" Faber, but two of Faber's passes developed into runs. Witt's walk, a sacrifice and Ruth's single scored the first run and the second came in the fourth on a walk to Pipp. Meusel's single and a double play which retired Meusel and Hofmann, Pipp scoring.

The White Sox collected seven hits off Sam Jones, but the fielding behind him bordered on the spectacular. With men on third and first and one out, Kamm lined to Dunn in the fourth inning. Dugan caught the ball off his shoestrings and doubled Steely off third retiring the side. The only other chance the White Sox had to score was in the eighth with men on second and third, but Jones hooked over the third strike on Hooper. Collins was then passed but Steely was an easy out.

The score: R. H. E.
New York..... 2 4 0
Chicago..... 0 7 0
Batteries—Jones and Hofmann; Faber, Connally and Croun.

BROWNS VICTORIOUS.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15 (AP)—Van Gilder allowed on seven safeties and the Browns won from the Boston Red Sox today, 4 to 3, in their last game of the season, giving the club an even break on the 22 games between them. Elvira, Robertson and McManus led the Browns batting attack.

The score: R. H. E.
Boston..... 3 7 3
St. Louis..... 4 9 4
Batteries—Wingfield and Heving; Van Gilder and Rego.

WASHINGTON SHUT OUT.
DETROIT, Sept. 15 (AP)—"Tip" Collins, sometimes called the unluckiest pitcher in the American league, pitched brilliant ball for Detroit to shut out Washington, 2 to 0, today, dropping the Senators to a tie with New York for the league lead.

Mogridge's southpaw offerings were hit safely nine times while Collins was holding Washington to four singles, only two of which were made in the same inning. Collins' double and a single by Manush gave Detroit the first score, and Rigney's two-base hit ahead of a single by O'Rourke accounting for the second.

Washington..... 0 4 1
Detroit..... 2 0 3
Batteries—Mogridge and Ruel; Collins and Woodall.

No other American league games were scheduled today.

Pirates Take Boston Game

Pittsburgh Wins Only National League Monday in Twelve Innings.

BOSTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—Pittsburgh defeated Boston, 4 to 3, in 12 innings today, while the Giants were idle and the Pirates thereby climbed to a place two and one-half games behind the New York club in the National league race. It was the third straight win for the Pirates here. The game was decided when Grimm and Schmidt tripled and Morrison sent out a sacrifice fly, scoring two runs in the first of the 12th. A pass and Stengel's double worked into a Boston run in the last half of the same inning. It was Shrinley at the plate. Gifford was pitched to Haneroff, McKeehan and Mann.

The score: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh..... 4 8 1
Boston..... 3 10 1
Batteries—Adams, Morrison and Schmidt; Conroy and O'Neil, Gibson.

No other National league games were scheduled.

Remington Game Loads

REMINGTON Game Loads are increasing in popularity faster than any other shells in America. Have you tried them?

Hundreds of thousands of sportsmen all over this country are discarding the old styles of game loads, and are now shooting Remington Game Loads.

With all due respect to any specified load you are now shooting—give Remington Game Loads a try-out on your next shooting trip.

Go into the store. Tell the dealer what kind of game you are going after—and get the Remington Game Loads specifically made for that kind of game.

They will give you a shooting quality you have never known before. They are scientifically loaded to a uniform standard of velocity, pattern and penetration, all with moderate recoil.

This idea of specific loads for specific game is original with Remington.

All our experience and ballistic knowledge told us how absurd it was to have 3200 different shotgun loads—when there are only a few kinds of game hunted with shotguns.

So we brought out Remington Game Loads—the right load—the best load—for each kind of game. Remington Game Loads are loaded with the highest quality American-made smokeless powders in Remington Nitro Club Wadproof Shells.

Thousands of seasoned sportsmen will tell you that they are right.

FRANK CHANCE, NOTED BASEBALL PLAYER, IS DEAD

Manager of Chicago White Sox Dies at Los Angeles From Long Illness Due to Case of Influenza.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15 (AP)—Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago White Sox, died here tonight after a long illness.

For several months Chance had been recuperating in southern California from a breakdown suffered in Chicago last spring in an attempt to resume active management of the team. He was at his apartment here early tonight when another sudden attack caused his removal to the Good Samaritan hospital, where he died within a half hour.

Personal arrangements will be completed tomorrow, relatives announced. The White Sox manager contracted influenza in Chicago last year, later developing asthma and other complications. He came to California, and after a few months felt so far recovered that he accepted the offer of Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago team, to come back and resume active management of the organization he had so often led to victory.

His stay in Chicago was tragically brief, however, and within a few weeks he was again at Palm Springs, a health resort near here, fighting to win back his strength. Later he alternated his time between Palm Springs and his ranch at Glendora, Cal., and his apartment here, frequently visiting the Pacific Coast league ball park here to watch the game he had been forced to give up.

Chance, throughout the greater part of his career held a picturesque position both as a leading baseball player and as a maker of championship teams. It was while under the management of Chance that the Chicago Cubs won two world's championships and four National league pennants.

Chance became a member of the Cubs almost as a boy, playing first behind the bat. Later at the height of the Cubs' winning streak, he was known as the keystone of the famous base ball triangle of Tinker, Evers and Chance. With Tinker at shortstop, Evers at second base and Chance at first base, the trio became famous for their ability to make double plays.

Early Pennant Winner.
As manager of the Cubs Chance won his first pennant in 1906 and added to his baseball glory by winning the world's series. He won both the league pennant and the world baseball title again in 1907.

Chance's Cubs won but two world's series, but in two more years, 1908 and 1910, they again were the leaders of the National league.

Later Chance became manager of the New York Yankees, at that time known as the "Highlanders."

His health impaired at even such an early date, Chance left the club and came to the Pacific coast where, in 1910, he took over the management of the Los Angeles Angels and developed them into a pennant-winning team.

Again attacked by ill health, Chance left the Los Angeles club in the middle of the season and remained away from baseball until 1923 when he again came manager of the Boston Americans.

Early this year, after he had been manager of the Chicago White Sox, he was again stricken and entered upon a spell of illness from which he never fully recovered.

NEVER FILLED POSITION.
CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago American baseball club, who died in Los Angeles tonight, had never assumed personal charge of the team of which he was named pilot last fall. Ill health compelled his return to his California home a few days after he came here this spring to join the club after it completed its spring training. His duties had been performed by Johnny "Davy" acting manager.

The "peerless leader," as he was known to baseball fans, had previously piloted the Chicago club as manager, captain and first baseman of the Chicago National league team. He succeeded Sale as manager of the Cubs during the season of 1905.

Chance's second venture was as pilot of the Boston American league club from which he retired to his home in Los Angeles, only to enter the managerial field again when he accepted the offer of President Charles Comiskey of the White Sox to direct that team.

An asthmatic condition resulting from influenza prevented his joining the team. After spending some time at Palm Springs, Cal., a health resort, he came to Chicago at the opening of the season, but a recurrence of the malady compelled his return to the Pacific coast.

ROW IN RANKS STILL DIVIDES PROGRESSIVES

West Declares McKaig or His Followers Responsible for Removal of Borah From List of Nominees.

BOISE, Sept. 15 (AP)—Senator W. E. Borah's name was crossed off the progressive party's certified list of nominees by Ray McKaig, third party chairman, or his followers, in the opinion of George West.

West, who is former secretary of the party's state central committee, thinks this action was taken to save the senior senator the embarrassment of turning down the progressive nomination for the republicans, should the supreme court rule that a candidate can run on only one ticket in the fall elections. Such a ruling would force not only Borah, who received the republican and progressive nominations for the senate, but also Perry Mitchell, nominated by the progressives and democrats for congress from the First district, to declare their party affiliations.

"McKaig has held the third party together mainly by promises that Senator Borah would be the progressive nominee for the United States senate, and to have the senator decide for the republican column would be a heart-breaking thing for McKaig and Bannell," West thinks.

"Senator Borah's name will be back on the progressive list within a week," says McKaig's only comment, when told of West's charges.

THOUSANDS SEE CELEBRATION AT WEST END CITY

Harvest Festival Held Monday a Huge Success; Ball Game and Parade Are Features of the Day.

Buhl, Sept. 15.—(Special to The News).—Several thousand visitors from various parts of Twin Falls and adjoining counties helped the citizens of this city celebrate Harvest festival day today. Featuring the celebration was a parade this morning at 11 o'clock in which a large number of floats were entered for cash prizes; a baseball game this afternoon between Buhl and Pocatello in which Pocatello won by a score of 7 to 3, and a Mardi Gras on the streets this evening.

The celebration opened officially with the parade this morning. The parade, according to citizens here, was the largest ever held in Buhl and compared favorably with any ever held in the state of Idaho. Cash prizes were given by the merchants for floats in each division. Floats were in the parade representing the various agricultural activities in Twin Falls county, as well as fruit raising, dairy, hog and other industries.

Picnic at Park.
Hundreds picnicked in the park this morning starting immediately after the program of athletic events was held in which there were fat men's races, a tug of war, jumping and other events for men, women and children. Prizes for these contests were also given by the merchants of the city.

The ball game during the afternoon was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a game here. The grandstand was packed to capacity and cars almost circled the field. The game was hotly contested. Both sides played excellent ball and few errors were made. It was the second of a two-game series. A number of Twin Falls players were on the Pocatello nine.

Dance on Pavement.
An orchestra played during the evening in the city park and the pavement near by was roped off and dancing enjoyed until after midnight.

One of the features of the day and an event that attracted widespread interest was the awarding of two cars. One of three, an Oldsmobile, was presented to E. W. Boring of Filer. The Ford sedan award was announced but up until a late hour Monday evening the claimant had not appeared. It will be given 10 days in which to claim the property. The two cars were offered by the merchants of Buhl.

Dozens of every description lined the downtown streets. There were candy booths, blanket booths, doll booths and many others. A number of the concessions which ran at the Twin Falls county fair which closed last Friday were on the streets in this city.

J. J. Boyd of this city was the chairman of the committee on arrangements which for the last four or five weeks has been busy preparing for the celebration. Many farmers of the west end who have been kept busy during the last few weeks at harvesting and threshing had completed their work and were in this city celebrating the bountiful harvest which has been general over the west end of the county.

WOULD EXTEND TOUR OF SENATOR WHEELER

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Plans for extending the western speaking tour of Senator Wheeler were mapped out in tentative form today at LaFollette headquarters. The independent vice presidential candidate is scheduled to arrive in Chicago Saturday morning. He will speak at Carnegie hall Saturday evening, according to present plans of David K. Niles, chairman of the LaFollette speakers' bureau here. An intensive campaign tour throughout the west and northwest is being mapped for the following three weeks. While definite dates have not yet been agreed upon and probably will not be until Senator Wheeler is consulted after his arrival here, tentative plans contemplate a swing northward into Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Washington, thence south to the next tier of states for the return trip eastward through Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas.

MISFORTUNE FOLLOWS ON TRAIL OF BIBLE STUDENT

Tacoma Ex-Banker Loses His Money and Finishes Journey to Religious Institution on Foot.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—In spite of misfortune Fred Peterson, who was a bookkeeper in the Bank of California, at Tacoma, Wash., has reached Moody Bible Institute here and enrolled for religious training for the pulpit, it was disclosed today.

He gave up his job and started August 15 by automobile but lost a $200 bill before he had gone far. Later his pocketbook containing all his funds was missed, and he had to go to work. He had a dime left when he reached Aberdeen, S. D., where he got work in the bank. But when he reached Evansville, Wis., he had no funds. He was dusty and tired when he reached Chicago.

TAKE STEPS TO PROHIBIT WAR

Assembly of League of Nations Is Making Good Progress Towards Goal.

GENEVA, Sept. 15 (AP)—Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia, presiding as a kind of impartial judge and conciliator, British and French representatives at the assembly of the league of nations wrestled all of today with the problem of sanctions which would be the lever for the way of a general Geneva agreement and tonight both countries' delegations issued optimistic statements. They said the vital issues under discussion seemed on the way toward a satisfactory solution.

Whether this general agreement will take the form of a resolution, a protocol or a treaty has not yet been decided but this question has been relegated to second place because of the proposal put forward today with all the force of France behind it, that every European state should join the league of nations, which makes it possible for any country to engage in war must be effectively and hermetically sealed.

The French propose that the provision in article 12 of the covenant, whereby the nations agree not to resort to war, be amended to read: "The use of force by any nation shall be decided by a council of the league, be it known that any and all causes of war shall be submitted to pacific settlement by the world court, by especially appointed arbitrators or by the council of the league."

Dyes on Great Britain.
Although today's meeting was entirely private, it is understood that one of the most difficult points of the discussion was the question of just how Great Britain would be helped by assistance to the league when any state has been declared an aggressor.

The British delegation gives the impression of being somewhat alarmed over the situation engendered among the continental powers by Britain's implied engagement to throw her naval forces against any state which has been declared an aggressor. There has seemed to have been created on the part of the British representatives a distinct tendency to shrink from any definite and specific commitments.

WALES MAY PROLONG HIS SOJOURN IN THIS COUNTRY

SYDNEY, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—The Prince of Wales is having so much fun on his American holiday that he might prolong his stay on Long Island. Although his departure for his ranch in Alberta, Canada, tentatively has been set for next Thursday night, members of the royal party said today that he might again change his mind and put in a few more days of holiday play. He has had a little danger recently for he has been more fortunate in dodging the curious crowd.

Since the large and formal social affairs fixed in his honor are virtually over and his program remains empty except for informal dinners arranged on short notice, it is understood that the prince wants to go his way with as little publicity as possible. No announcement of his plans have come from his holiday home at the James A. Burden estate in the last day and night, except the information that Wales would attend a small dinner party tonight at the home of Rodman Wanamaker, II, at Oyster Bay.

JURY SELECTION IN MURDER CASE TO BEGIN TODAY

Trial of John Jurko for Shooting to Death A. B. W. Vandemark Opens in District Court.

Selection of a jury to try John Jurko, charged with shooting to death A. B. W. Vandemark in a pool hall in this city June 25, will begin this morning in the Twin Falls county district court. Jurko, charged with first degree murder, is represented by W. P. Guthrie, lawyer of this city. The state will be represented by Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor.

It is anticipated that the better part of two or three days will be used in the selection of a jury. Both sides have the right to a number of challenges and may exercise them in the selection of a jury to hear the case.

Defense Ready.
Mr. Guthrie in a statement Monday evening on the opening of the trial intimated that the defense was prepared to show cause why the defendant had pleaded "not guilty" a short time ago. The shooting, according to testimony at the coroner's jury hearing, grew out of the possession of a card room which was managed by Jurko and said to be owned by Vandemark. Jurko, following the shooting, gave himself up to the sheriff without resistance.

The trial has created wide interest and upon the opening of testimony it is expected the courtroom will be packed to capacity. Judge W. A. Babcock will preside at the hearing.

REVIVAL OF BUSINESS IS CAMPAIGN CHARACTERISTIC

Commissioner of Labor Statistics Issues Report Showing Increased Employment During Month of July.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—A steady stream of callers poured in on President Coolidge today bearing messages on politics, government affairs and European conditions. Secretary Davis brought a report from Edmund Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics, showing an increase in employment in August.

Commissioner Stewart reported that the regular monthly survey by his bureau of nine thousand establishments showed an increase in employment of two-tenths of one per cent over July. "This is particularly interesting," he said, "as coming in a campaign year. I do not remember noting a business revival in the midst of a campaign before."

While these figures may seem small and not to compare them with the figures for July, when the decrease in volume of employment was four per cent they do not seem so. Between May and June, the volume of employment dropped three and eight-tenths per cent.

RECORD CROWD GREET DAVIS

Attendance Estimated at 40,000 When Presidential Candidate Speaks.

EASTWOOD FARM, BUNCETON, Mo., Sept. 15 (AP)—John W. Davis carried a light for the presidency into the heart of agricultural Missouri today, attending a gigantic barbecue at the farm home near here of Dr. Arthur W. Nelson, democratic candidate for governor of Missouri, and firing the opening gun in the campaign in this state. Mr. Davis told his thousands of hearers grouped in a natural amphitheater from the Nelson home, that this was a "fighting campaign" and "we will make war."

The democratic candidate had for an audience the greatest crowd ever gathered in rural Missouri and he remarked that it was probably the largest assembly that ever met in the open to discuss governmental affairs.

Joshua Barbee, democratic state chairman, who was in charge of the celebration, estimated that between 40,000 and 50,000 persons were present. Mr. Davis assailed "special privilege" and "corruption in office," denouncing Albert B. Fall and Harry M. Daugherty, Charles R. Forbes, Edwin Denby and others formerly connected with the republican administration. He said he had read in some newspapers that it had not been expected that a gentleman, such as the democratic nominee, would not mention such things as the oil and veteran bureau revelations in "polite circles."

"I believe," he added, "that my party did not choose me as its candidate to give lessons in political etiquette."

Strict Accountability.

"If the situation had been reversed," he said, "I don't believe any one would say that the democratic party should not be held to account. You can't wash out the record of a political party by some individual arising and saying his conscience is free of any wrong doing. You must hold a party to strict accountability for the things it does."

The audience included thousands of farmers and the democratic standard bearer smilingly admitted at the outset of his address that he was "a farmer, not a dirt farmer, not even a political farmer."

Mr. Davis said the farmer did not ask for special privileges but that they might stand equal before the law, command the respect and attention in congress and the White House that had "too long been granted to other interests."

"The republican party has never recognized farming as an industry," he declared amid applause.

MacMillan and seven companions aboard, arrived in this port safely tonight on her way back to the United States after 15 months in the arctic. The vessel had been reported today to have encountered a severe storm off this coast.

Mrs. Marcus C. Ware entertained with a delightful bridge party on Saturday afternoon complimentary to Mr. Ware's sister, Mrs. Fletcher Lewis of Chicago, who has been visiting at their home for several days. Mrs. Lewis was presented with a daily quest favor. Mrs. Oliver Horstman was the prize for high score and Mrs. C. D. Thomas consolation. The rooms were attractive with fall flowers in all their glorious colors and delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was a number of vocal solos by the guest of honor, who is a talented musician. Thirty guests were in attendance.

Friends of Lieutenant Ralph Glasgow will be interested to hear of his wedding to Miss Mary Cacy which was solemnized on Saturday, September 13, at four-thirty in the afternoon at the Episcopal church in Dunsmuir. N. J. Lieutenant Glasgow will play football this season with the Third Corps Area team, which will represent the United States army in football this season, after which he will be stationed at Fort Ennis, Va.

Mrs. Emory Benoit and Miss Dorothy McMillan entertained at bridge Monday evening at the home of the former in the Benoit flats. The rooms were gay with the many flowers of the season and following the games a hostess luncheon was served, the hostesses being assisted by Miss Mildred McNichols and Miss Florentine Tetrault. The guests included Mesdames Charles Hill, Donald Bonwell, William Howberry, Willett Hance Jr., Freeman Foss, Merline Batley, L. C. C. D. throughout the west were "demanding help."

"Reports from all sections of the west and northwest indicate a most satisfactory progress of the republican tour for President Coolidge," Mr. Butler said. "We see Elmer Knaut, Le Nolle Brockbridge, Jennie Walker, Helen and Marie Horman, Mildred McNichols and Margaret Coffey."

The decorating and other committees having in charge the annual President Coolidge Tea at the Casino club hall which will be given at Dandelion, Tuesday evening, September 30, are making elaborate preparations for the event. It is hoped that all members and friends on will make a special effort to attend west.

General formal acceptance of the new plan of the west end was given by Mr. Butler, which has greeted the first steps of its operation, "have reacted favorably upon the administration of President Coolidge," Mr. Butler said, "particularly in sections where there are many persons of German descent."

A very pleasant afternoon was spent Sunday when the members of the Adoniam Avenue Social club gathered in the home of Mrs. Marion Hammons to take pictures of their club exhibit which took first prize at the county fair. Besides the cash prize won they were awarded two hundred pounds of sugar for the best jelly display, and one hundred pounds of flour for the best bread display. Later in the afternoon the ladies were pleasantly surprised by their husbands who brought a freezer of ice cream and cookies and lemonade. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing horseshoes and croquet.

Many were present at the services held Sunday evening at the home on East Main and South Fourth street by Mrs. Mattie Crawford, evangelist. Mrs. Crawford also addressed a large crowd at the tent Sunday night. Sunday evening she spoke upon the subject of saving souls; which she declared she had been in for 15 years. She also told of physical healing. Each afternoon she speaks at 2:30 o'clock at the big tent upon this subject and each day the crowd is larger. Mrs. Crawford in sermons at Boise was heard by thousands who packed the auditorium and she used there at once. Monday a phase for couples was prepared and those who have crippled relatives for whom they wish the prayers of Mrs. Crawford are asked to bring them to the tent. The meetings are non-denominational. Sunday evening preceding the opening of services the Rev. G. H. Ackley said:—

NO CHANGE IS LIKELY IN REPUBLICAN PLANS

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Party managers see no reason to alter republican campaign plans in the west and northwest and have not considered a speaking tour for President Coolidge, William M. Butler, chairman of the republican national committee, said today. He denied that a campaign tour for the president was under consideration in connection with a recent statement of Clem Shaver, democratic national chairman, in which it was asserted republican party members throughout the west were "demanding help."

"Reports from all sections of the west and northwest indicate a most satisfactory progress of the republican tour for President Coolidge," Mr. Butler said. "We see Elmer Knaut, Le Nolle Brockbridge, Jennie Walker, Helen and Marie Horman, Mildred McNichols and Margaret Coffey."
