Hoof and Mouth Disease in Cattle State Causes Boise
Officials to Take Stringent Action.

BOISE, Oct. 6 (AP)—Official quarantine number 1, barring practically all commodities from Texas because of the presence there of foot and mouth disease among cattle, was issued today by the Idaho state department of agriculture. In form it is the same restricting order issued against California when that state was visited last spring by the cattle plague.

While the disease has not reached serious proportions in Texas, department of agriculture officials said, it was thought wisest to issue the order and give the state an added protection that the federal government, which is in charge in Texas, can not give.

Dr. Wendell R. Smith, director of animal industry, said that he feels confident the government will be able to handle the outbreak and prevent it from spreading, but the quarantine will protect Idaho livestock just that much more.

ZB-3 PLANNING TRIP.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—The German built airship ZB-3 may take off on her trans-Atlantic flight to the United States Thursday, the navy department was informed today in an official cablegram.

The dispatch added, however, that "her departure is not probable prior to Saturday, October 11."

FLOOD CAUSES DEATHS.

ST. THOMAS, Virginia Islands, Oct. 6 (AP)—Ten lives are reported lost at Dominica, Leeward Islands, West Indies, yesterday when torrential rains caused the Roseau river to overflow. The town was flooded with four feet of water. Estimates in the Roseau valley suffered heavily.

McADOO IS RECOVERING.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 6 (AP)—William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, was reported by his physician tonight to be resting very comfortably following an operation performed today at Johns Hopkins hospital for the removal of gravel from the bladder.

GRAIN REACHES
NEW HIGH MARK

Violent Advances in Wheat and Rye Followed by Reaction;
Goes Up to $1.57.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6 (AP)—Violent advances in the price of wheat and rye today were followed by a quick reaction, chiefly the result of sudden wholesale profit taking. When the day was ended, however, the principal outstanding fact was that breadstuffs had again outdone all recent top quotations and that export demand had shown a vigor far beyond the ordinary limit.

After running up as much as 4 1/8 cents a bushel above Saturday's finish, the active future deliveries of wheat closed today at 7 1/8 cents to 1 3/8 cents net cash. December $1.49 1/2 to 1.49 5/8, and May $1.53 7/8 to 1.54.

Great Britain, France, Italy and the Scandinavian countries were the principal sources of the enormous buying of wheat and rye today that swept the markets here wildly upward until counter efforts to realize profits took effect. Meanwhile, advice at hand suggested that most of the threshing of wheat this season in the United States is finished, and that the biggest part of the domestic movement of wheat from the farm is over.

Export interest was manifested here as to the probable size of the Canadian crop movement. An estimate today by a Chicago authority indicated four million bushels less yield in Canada this season than had been figured a month ago.

STARTS ON TRIP TO COAST TODAY

Shenandoah Is Scheduled to Leave Mooring at Lakehurst
at Noon for Flight Across United States.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 6 (AP)

Plans were being completed tonight to take the great navy dirigible Shenandoah from her hangar to the mooring mast just outside promptly at sunrise tomorrow morning, where she will remain until noon when the pride of the air service will be headed westward on a journey which will be extended as far south as Port Worth, Texas, and as far west as the Pacific ocean.

Weather reports from Washington early tonight indicated to Commander Zachary Lansdowne that it would be advisable to delay the mooring of the big ship until tomorrow. This prompted a last-minute cancellation of plans to fasten the Shenandoah on the mast early tonight in anticipation of its departure at daybreak.

Enraged Bull Elk

on Last Rampage

Resentful at Having Place
Usurped, King of Forest Declares War and Trees Many Human Beings.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 6 (AP)—Ordinary deer hunting experiences are tame compared to the thrilling narrative of the last days and the death of the wildest of wild bull elk up in the foothills of the upper Skokumuck river country in Thurston county, as told by Harlow Post, chairman of the county game commission.

Resenting the treatment of the young bulls of the herd of nine elk released in the county last year, who drove him from the herd, the old bull elk practically ran amuck.

He had lumber cruisers climbing trees for several days. Later he had a regular field day in a logging camp, drove three men from a handcar and knocked the car into a ditch. Still later he took after a group of loggers on a gasoline speeider and wrecked that. Then he chased several children into a school house and kept them there several hours. In the logging camp, proper, he is credited with having kept nine men up trees from 5 until 9 in the evening when he got wearied and wandered off.

Then Game Commissioner Post was appealed to. The commissioner found him on a bald knoll lawing defiance to the world. The commissioner won and the carcass, which weighed 600 pounds, was packed out of the woods and is reposing in cold storage in Olympia awaiting final disposition.

ELECTION IN ENGLAND MAY CAUSE CRISIS

Various Factions Preparing for Trouble Over Voting; Premier MacDonald Shows Uneasiness in Actions.

LONDON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Events seem to be moving with ever increasing momentum toward a general election which all the party leaders profess the country does not desire but for which they are assiduously preparing.

It looks tonight as if a crisis might mature as early as Wednesday of this week. Premier MacDonald himself, contrary to custom, is giving to the press interviews in which he accuses the liberal leaders of forcing an election on unjustifiable grounds.

The ministers are disposed to meet the challenge immediately, without waiting for defeat on the Russian treaty at the end of the month. A cabinet council discussed the situation today and, according to the chief labor whip, Bon Spoor, the ministers have decided to offer the strongest resistance both to the conservative motion for a vote of censure and the amendment to the motion to be moved by Sir John Simon, liberal, that instead of censuring the government a select committee should be appointed to investigate the circumstances leading to the withdrawal of the presentation of the editor of the "Workers' Weekly on a charge of sedition.

Speech Coming.

Premier MacDonald will deliver a big speech at the labor party congress tomorrow but should he confirm this decision it can hardly mean more than a defeat of the government next Wednesday with a consequent dissolution of parliament and elections during the second week of November.

There may be some eleventh hour change in tactics by one side or the other but if the situation develops as now seem inevitable it may endanger second reading tomorrow and may not have passed all its stages before the government disappears.

WOULD PUT BASEBALL
UNDER AUTHORITY OF
FEDERAL COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Representative Sol Bloom of New York, announced tonight that he would introduce at the next session of congress a bill under which baseball would be governed by a federal commission.

"The nation-wide interest in the world series," he said, "combined with the national chagrin that one of the participating teams is involved in a scandal convinces me that the time has come when the federal government should maintain a supervisory interest in baseball."

"Baseball is a matter of interstate commerce. The two major leagues and most of the minor leagues are interstate affairs. Baseball magnates recognized the demand for some sort of 'super regulation' when Judge Landis was chosen as czar, but the game is too big for one man to control."

ESCAPEE FROM HONOR FARM.

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 6 (AP)—No trace had been found up to 10 o'clock tonight of the three men who escaped from the Pat Neff honor farm at Sugarland Sunday. The honor farm was established just one week ago and was the first in Texas.

STATE TREASURY
HAS $3,071,451

Idaho's Bank Account in Excellent Condition, Says Dan Banks, Treasurer.

BOISE, Oct. 6 (AP)—Idaho's bank account is in "most excellent condition," according to D. F. Banks, state treasurer, who issued today a statement surveying the past two years' work which closed as far as the treasurer's books are concerned, September 30. The finished report on this period is now in the course of compilation. Says the treasurer:

"Raising $880,048.46 less in state taxes than during last biennium, the state has paid off more bonds and has a greater balance in the treasury than found at the end of the previous two year period. No general fund warrants of the state have been registered since June 25, 1923.

"The balance in the state treasury September 30 was $3,071,451.34, compared with $2,793,942.55 two years ago. While this shows an increase of a quarter of a million dollars, it has no particular meaning except in a general way as the endowment funds are subject to withdrawal for permanent investment in the investments. Endowment funds included in the general balance amount to $423,870.41, while two years ago they amounted to $120,778.72."

CARLEYSVILLE, Ill., Oct. 6 (AP)—Shurtz William Regan announced this evening that George Williams, a negro, had confessed that he had broken the switch near Aviston, Ill., where the fast Baltimore & Ohio train No. 1 was wrecked late Friday evening, resulting in the death of Engineer Carl Van Alstman and injuries to a number of passengers.

"Long John" Watson, Substitute Giant Pitcher in Ninth, Stops Rally That Ended in 6-to-4 Score for New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—Out of one of the wildest baseball maelstroms that any world's series has ever witnessed the New York Giants emerged victorious today over Washington in the third game and gained a commanding edge in the 1924 championship struggle.

Fought out on a new battle field because the greatest crowd that ever flocked to the Polo grounds, heir of the famous National League champions, the Giants won by a margin of six to four, but the outcome was in doubt until the final play in the ninth inning when the Senators were checked only after staging a typically spectacular finish.

Three runs behind going into the ninth after a luckless battle against heavy odds, the Senators scored one run, and had the bases full with only one out when "Long John" Watson, the third Giant pitcher of the inning, stopped the rally and saved the game for the McGraw men.

This was the climax to a game that, though sparkling at times with the most brilliant sort of play, was also largely of sandlot character, punctuated with loose work, missed opportunities and marked the most effective exhibition of twirling any series contest has witnessed in years.

Parade of Pitchers.

In a "parade of wooden pitchers," four moundmen were called into the battle fray by each of the rival managers while the result of their maneuvers produced a total of 29 combatants before the smoke of battle had cleared.

The Giants, leading from the start, but never out of danger, won because they were staidier, displayed the more effective arm, and were less assailed at critical moments put up a formidable defensive barrier in which Frank Frisch, playing one of the most spectacular games of his career, was the outstanding figure.

The Senators fought gamely and they were always threatening, but the American champions against heavy odds after losing the services of their veteran shortstop, Roger Peckinpaugh, but work of the team's great infield and batting hero of yesterday's victory.

RADIO MEETING
HEARS HOOVER

Secretary Suggests National System of Programs Like Press Association.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Organization of a national system of radio programs through a broadcasters' association, to give service such as press associations do for newspapers was suggested by Secretary Hoover tonight in an address opening the third National Radio conference.

The conference is attended by representatives of all branches of the industry and was called by Mr. Hoover to consider the numerous problems of radio development in the United States.

Beginning tomorrow morning the general sessions will be open to the public for presentation of any program involving the industry.

No Monopoly.
In presenting his views tonight Secretary Hoover reiterated his opposition to any attempt to monopolize the air, declaring that local broadcasting stations are of first importance and must not be driven from the field.

The secretary's suggested plan for a national program association would provide for a self-maintaining system of inter-connection of radio broadcasting stations and the offering through those stations the best the nation has in music and entertainment.

"My proposition," Mr. Hoover said, "is that the local stations must be able to bring to its listeners every important national event with regularity. This can only be accomplished by regularly organized inter-connection on a national basis with nationally organized and directed programs for some part of the day in supplement to more local material."

SEEPAGE CAUSE OF WATER LOSS

Now Is Time for Overhauling Irrigation Systems, Declares School Professor.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 6.—The time has come for the overhauling of many of the irrigation systems of Idaho, says M. R. Lewis, associate professor of agricultural engineering, University of Idaho. Very great savings in water and cost of maintenance may be made by the complete rearrangement of the canal and lateral systems in those valleys of Idaho where irrigation is carried on by a large number of separate units. Such economies may come by the uniting of two or more ditches in a common organization, the absorption of smaller canals by larger systems, or by the organization of comparatively large areas into irrigation districts.

Haphazard Groups.

As a result there have grown up haphazard collections of canals and reservoirs each having its own diversion from the river. In many cases these canals run side by side for miles. As each of these canals must be maintained and operated there is an unnecessary duplication of expense. Perhaps a most serious result is the very great increase in seepage and loss of water due to the number of canals and laterals which might be done away with. The loss of water from two canals running side by side will nearly always be greater than would the loss from single large canal carrying the same amount of water at the two smaller ones.

Often great savings in expense of operation and in water supply can be made by means of a reorganization of the management of two irrigation systems which parallel each other. This also might be done with the expenditure of very small amounts of money for new construction or enlargement.

Single Headgate.

In many cases a single, well-constructed diversion dam and headgate will take the place of several rock and brush dams and wooden headgates. The new dam will cost considerable money to construct but it will not require rebuilding after every flood. Moreover, with such headworks, the canals may be kept uniformly full and annual periods of shortage will not occur while the "dam is being put in."

In other cases economies in the use of water will result from the abandonment of duplicate canals and laterals with their unnecessary seepage and evaporation losses.

In striving for such reorganization and betterments the chief difficulties will be found to be the overcoming of human jealousies and prejudices and not the engineering problems. The splendid results which have been obtained during the dry year, which might well have ended in disaster on new projects, gives hope that it will be possible to work out better projects and better conditions. No better proof could be asked of the fact that results can be gained by working together which never could be achieved by each individual, man or project, working for himself.

Nominated for Governorship

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

JUST HOW FAR will Colonel Theodore Roosevelt follow in the footsteps of his illustrious father? Thus far their lives have been nearly parallel. Both have been colonels in the United States army. Both have been assistant secretaries of the navy. Both have been republican nominees for the governorship of New York. Colonel Roosevelt stepped from the governorship into the vice presidency and then into the presidency. The younger Colonel Roosevelt still must win the governorship to continue in his father's footsteps.

COLLECTORS ARE BUSY IN GENEVA

Stamp Hunters From All Over the World Gather for Philatelic Exposition.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 6 (P)—Postage stamp collectors from all over the world are here for the International Philatelic exposition which was opened in the presence of many of the world's leading collectors.

Prominent among the 250,000 stamps shown are the large exhibits of the Dutch postal department and the German postal ministry in Berlin.

On the other hand, it is an English exhibitor who shows what is reputed to be the finest collection of stamps of the Confederate States of America. Alfred Liechtenstein of New York exhibits what is described as the finest collection of Cape of Good Hope issues in existence.

A Dutch collector who has specialized in American stamps exhibits what is said to be one of the most important collections of rarities, among which is a block of Mexican Guadalupe stamps of 1869 which is said to be unique.

Buhl Farmers get Fields Ready for the Coming Year

Full Plowing and Irrigating Now Being Done; Shortage of Pasture Means More Feeding of Hay.

Full irrigation is well under way in the Buhl district and some plowing is being done. Hay is mostly in the shock, the light rain Friday hindering standing only for a short time. A noticeable shortage of fall pasture is traceable directly to the short water run for the early fall, but fields are showing green already after the late irrigation and alfalfa and clover will put on a short growth yet with favorable weather through October.

This shortage of pasture will undoubtedly be the cause of more stacked feed being used, which will inevitably be one of the deciding factors later in the season to set the price of hay.

Coddling Moth.

Coddling moth have hatched in the Buhl orchards and are held responsible for the wormy apples that at the last moment have shown up in all orchards. According to Harry Sabie, Boise, chief inspector of the U. S. department of agriculture, this is the first year on the Twin Falls tract that it has appeared so late in the season as they have this year. Mr. Sabie holds the opinion that the unprecedented dry fall has been the cause of the pest appearing. He says practically every orchard in the state is visited to a more or less degree by coddling moth. Strict inspection of all fruit to comply with government rules is being carried out at Buhl.

In the Springville district clover and bean hulling is still in progress. The slight rain Friday halted operations for a short time. According to freight authorities there was forwarded from Buhl during the month of August this year 62 carloads of general freight, including seed, cheese, barley and various feeds and merchandise. Thirty-six carloads of this was wheat. The shipments included 18 cars of live stock. A total of 115 carloads of general freight was received during the same month.

Hoven Silos.

Silos to the number of 11 have been erected in the vicinity of Buhl by progressive farmers. Among the dairymen who erected silos are J. S. McHenry, C. H. Hardesty, who has a herd of Jerseys, and Carl Middlestadt, who also has a fine herd of Jerseys. The average capacity of the silos is 125 tons. They are of the frost-proof type.

Poultry prospects in the Buhl district are the best in years, as far as production goes. As to the price on turkeys, ducks and geese dealers say it is hard to predict the prices that will prevail next month. All other poultry at present is selling at a fair price, mainly from 10 to 14 cents per pound live weight. The Fulton market at this place last month shipped 7000 pounds of poultry.

Hay Situation.

The hay situation at Buhl remains unchanged with a small amount of hay selling at from $10 to 12 per ton. Some sheep sales have been reported: Cunningham and Welch sold 109 head of ewes for $11 per head; other sales are reported at $8 per head for a fairly good grade of ewes. Some farmers are buying stack hogs in order to market their corn crop, while others will huck the corn out for storage. A few sales to sheep men have been recorded, but it is apparently too early for a set price to be put on the grain.

Sell Hampshire.

Thousand Springs farm recently at the Salt Lake ran sold some high priced pure-bloods. Fourteen Hampshire rams brought an average of $100 per head. One of these rams brought $400; one sold for $235 while two others sold for $250 and $200 respectively. Thousand Springs farm, on an island in Snake river, is owned by Mrs. Minnie Miller.

W. B. Kjosness, state county agent, says it is remarkable how little transient labor has been employed on the farms of Idaho during the season just closing.

His remark is noteworthy, inasmuch as it is true in the vicinity of Buhl, W. P. Nicholson reports a yield of 20 bushels per acre on 65 acres. At present there is no market for beans at Buhl.

Beans fields, with the worst blight damage are yielding from eight to 20 bushels per acre. Other fields are returning a very good yield. G. E. Chastene's field of 35 acres went 37 bushels to the acre. Southeast of Buhl W. P. Nicholson reports a yield of 20 bushels per acre on 65 acres. At present there is no market for beans at Buhl.

HAITI DEBT IS BEING REDUCED

Country's Finances Under American Supervision Rapidly Straightening Out.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, Oct. 6 (P)

During the nine years in which Americans have supervised the finances of Haiti, the debt of the republic has been reduced more than $9,000,000, a record which is considered with pride by both the Haitian government and the Americans who are assisting it. On August 31, 1915, the liabilities were $22,165,813, and on July 21, 1924, they were $12,973,842.

During these same nine years hundreds of miles of road have been constructed, harbors have been improved, the coast line encircled with a chain of lighthouses, schools and bridges built and water works and many other projects started or completed.

Modern Budget.

Last but not least, a modern budget system is in force and is working so that all expenditures are provided for including the reduction of the national debt $250,000,000 a year at present which will in about 25 years clear Haiti of debt. The improvements will continue and as reports indicate a bumper coffee crop, the republic's main source of revenue, everyone in Haiti is smiling except the professional politicians and agitators, whose only sources of revenue, graft and exploiting the poor peasant to their own selfish ends, is a thing of the past.

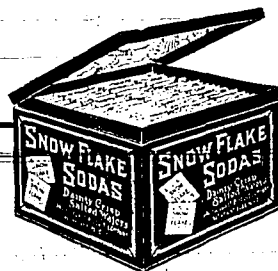

Dr. W. W. Cumberland is financial adviser to the republic.

PLEDGE OF 17 YEARS AGO TO BE FULFILLED

Walter Johnson to Get Dinner Manager of Famous Hotel Made When They Both Were at Weiser, Idaho.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (Special to The News).—Walter Johnson, Washington pitcher, will get a dinner for which he has been waiting just 17 years. This assurance was given yesterday by Roy Carruthers, until recently managing director of the Waldorf-Astoria and now head of the new Brook-Cadillac hotel of Detroit.

Incidentally Mr. Carruthers disclosed the fact that he was Johnson's "first" manager and the one who started him in the baseball career which has brought him to the peak of baseball fame. Seventeen years ago when Carruthers was a rancher at Weiser, Idaho, a little town of 3500, he was chosen manager of the Weiser baseball team, one of the so-called Sage Brush league which was made up of half a dozen little towns in Idaho and Wyoming. When he cast about for a pitcher he struck upon a young man named Johnson, an engineer who was doing surveying for a telephone company. Johnson thought he could get off a couple of afternoon work but he had his doubts of being able to pitch well enough for the Sage Brush league.

Urges An Attempt.

"Have a try at it, anyway," Carruthers urged, and Johnson did, pitching such phenomenal baseball that Weiser emerged at the end of the season with the sage brush pennant. Next season when Johnson pitched 67 innings without allowing a hit Carruthers decided that he had a pitcher too good for the Sage Brush league and advised Johnson to break into the big league. Finding Johnson reticent about blowing his own horn, Carruthers did it for him and inveigled a newspaper friend to send the story of the 67 hitless innings to the national press.

The result was that Washington thought enough of Johnson's potentialities as a pitcher to send out a scout and Johnson was signed. Before he parted from his pitcher Carruthers predicted that Johnson would one day pitch a world's series game and prove to him a dinner for his team when that day arrived.

Meet Once More.

Shortly thereafter Carruthers went to San Francisco where he became manager of the Palace hotel and it was not until he came east to manage the Waldorf that Johnson and Carruthers again met. The hotel man again renewed his prophecy and promise of the best dinner the Waldorf could serve when the great day arrived. Yesterday he wired Johnson to set the day for the dinner promised 17 years ago.

TWIN FALLS TO PLAY ALBION; LOCAL SQUAD TO TRAVEL NEXT GAME

Albion will be the setting for the next high school football game. Twin Falls playing Albion State normal this Saturday afternoon. This is the first time that Twin Falls has played on the Albion field in recent years. Last year's game, which was played on the Lincoln field, resulting in a victory for the Hawks. They played the Normal eleven, but lost by a 14-0 score. The final score being 6-0 to Lapp and Aman were the Normal stars, although the entire team played a good brand of football.

The announcement of this game was made by Coach Martin. An appreciation assembly held Monday morning. The coach expressed his appreciation of what the team has done thus far this season and also for the manner in which they did it. Miss Fisher and Superintendent Bloom thanked the students for amiable play in which they acted as the Piler field. Holman. Gray led the yelling which was given for the team, the team members being seated on the stage during the assembly.

SENATORS LOSE THIRD GAME IN WORLD SERIES

Peckinpaugh pulled a "charley horse" in the second inning and was forced to retire, and Washington's makeshift inner-defense, after that, was wobbly. But Peck's mishap, which Manager Harris said tonight was not serious and probably would not keep him out of the game, was only one of the several factors that produced the Senators' downfall and damaged their prospects of gaining their first world's championship. In the crisis the team's pitching staff collapsed, its attack fell down in the pinches with costly misplays, one by the usually reliable Harris and another by Miller, substituting at third base for Bluge, who had moved over to fill Peck's shoes at short, figured in the reversal.

Crowd of 50,000.

The Senators fought their losing battle before a record breaking crowd of close to 50,000 that cheered them with enthusiasm scarcely less than that of the home crowd that saw the two opening games in Washington.

In the fourth inning, when the Senators scored twice and pulled up within one run of the Giants, the crowd called wildly for a further rally which was checked, however, with the bases full. Again in the eighth when the visitors threatened to break through, and in the ninth when they were stopped once more with the bases loaded, they were encouraged by excited outbursts. It seemed a puzzle, as they sat at the plate, that the home town demonstration—but they pulled themselves together in the face of it and won.

Fordham Flash Hero.

Frisch and Watson were the heroes of the Giant triumph today but dramatic as was Watson's rescue feat in the ninth when a hit would have at least tied and possibly won the game for the Senators, the most dramatic role was enacted by the Fordham flash.

CHARGES ARE DISMISSED WHEN WITNESS FORGETS

Case Involving Alleged Violation of Mann Act Against Frank and Virginia La Peze Is Dropped.

BOISE, Oct. 6.—Trial of Frank La Peze and Virginia Hamilton, alias Mrs. Frank La Peze, charged with conspiracy to violate the Mann white slave act, came to an abrupt close Saturday when Judge F. S. Dietrich granted the government's motion to dismiss. The motion was made by James F. Albright Jr., assistant district attorney, who tried the case.

Attempted impeachment of the government's own witness by Mr. Albright was the first clue to weakness of the government's case. C. P. Cogswell, who testified before the United States commissioner in Twin Falls and also before the United States grand jury in Boise, when the indictment was returned, was the witness whom the attorney attempted to impeach.

Cogswell's testimony before the commissioner and the grand jury failed to tally with his testimony Saturday. To practically all questions Saturday he answered that he could not remember, or he was not sure, about material facts of the case, which hinged upon an alleged trip from Conant, Nev., to Twin Falls. When read some of his answers given to questions asked at the grand jury session and before the commissioner, he replied his answer at that time were probably more near what happened, as his memory was fresh.

After a short examination of P. O. Herriman, Twin Falls chief of police, who made the arrest, the government asked for a recess, after which the motion to dismiss was made. Defendants, who had been confined in the Twin Falls county jail since their arrest, were released by Attorney E. V. Larson.

WOULD REMOVE NEGRO.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6 (AP).—Suit was filed in federal district court here today to remove Walter L. Cohen, negro controller of customs of New Orleans, from that office on the ground he is of African blood and descent and therefore not a citizen of the United States. The petition in the suit filed by H. Edwin Bolte, who said he was an attorney of Washington, D. C., attacks the validity of the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution, alleging that it was never legally adopted, not having been proposed by two-thirds of each house of congress nor ratified by two-thirds of the states.

FARMER COUNCIL WITHDRAWS PLEA

Executive Committee Does Not Want Coolidge to Appoint Commission Now.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6 (AP).—The executive committee of the American Council of Agriculture, meeting here today, voted to withdraw its request to President Coolidge for the appointment of an agricultural commission by the secretary of agriculture. The council committee said the request was made last July and in his speech of acceptance of the republican presidential nomination, President Coolidge said that an investigating committee would be appointed but has taken no action. Members of the committee expressed dissatisfaction with the delay.

The committee named a sub-committee to draft legislation for presentation to the short session of congress which Chairman Frank Murphy said he hoped would insure an American price on exportable farm crops independent of world price for the surplus. The council voted to oppose the Jones-Windfall bill if it is revived and to canvass the presidential candidates with the idea of exacting pledges from them for a special session of congress after March 4, if legislation designed for agricultural relief fails to pass the short session.

Carl Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture, represented the democratic national committee at the conference and asked the committee to endorse the presidential candidacy of John W. Davis. Senator LaFollette was represented by Newton Jenkins and L. G. Michal represented the department of agriculture. The republican national committee, which also had been invited to send a representative, was not represented.

LAWYER'S TRIAL ON INSANITY

Man Who Slew Wife and Brother and Buried Heads in Concrete to Get Hearing.

AURORA, Ill., Oct. 6 (AP).—Eight of the 12 jurors who are to pass upon the sanity of Warren J. Lincoln, 45, the lawyer of Chicago, who slew his wife, Lina, and her brother, Byron Shoop, and placed their heads in a concrete block, were tentatively accepted today in the Kane county circuit court at Geneva, Ill. Whether Lincoln is sane at this time must be decided before he is tried for the murders, as his counsel have filed a declaration supported by alienist's affidavits that the slayer is mentally unbalanced.

That eight jurors would be accepted even tentatively today, the first of the trial, came as a surprise because of the wide publicity the case has received. In the morning hours it seemed that nobody would serve except under protest. All had excuses that their occupations or age or opinions operated to bar them. Judge John K. Newhall checked the flow of excuses by a ruling that all not over 60 could serve, that work to afford grounds for excuse must be of imperative nature and that an opinion as to the sanity or the guilt of the man would not disqualify if it was shown that the opinion as to the sanity or insanity could be changed by evidence.

POLICE IN NEW YORK believe they have accidentally stumbled onto a clue in the mysterious murders of Dorothy King and Louise Lawson, both found mysteriously slain, when Mae Bobe, a modiste, reported she had been robbed of jewelry valued at more than $50,000. The robbery gang, familiar with their victims' belongings, are believed to be the same that attacked and slew Miss King and Miss Lawson.

SEEKS JUDGMENT OF $5587.19 FROM THE STATE IN SUIT FILED

BOISE, Oct. 6 (AP).—Prayer for judgment against the state of Idaho in the amount of $5587.19, with interest from May 5, 1922, is contained in a complaint filed in the supreme court today by the Ada Investment company. The complaint also prays that the court by its judgment, recommend that the state legislature make an appropriation for and in behalf of the company for the amount found due by the judgment.

The suit is based on a transaction which started with letting of a contract for construction of federal aid highway project number 6, on the north and south highway in December, 1918.

THIRD PARTY LOSS FIGHT

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 6 (AP).—The LaFollette-Whelan forces—lost their fight in the district court here tonight in mandamus proceedings in which it was sought to compel Secretary of State Bailey to print the names of LaFollette electors on the ballots of the general election in November.

BALLOT CONTEST IN HIGH COURT

Suit to Test Constitutionality of State Law To Be Heard at Boise.

BOISE, Oct. 6 (AP).—Argument on the suit filed in the supreme court recently to test the constitutionality of Idaho's law regarding the pining of a candidate's name on the ballot more than once, will be heard in the court tomorrow morning. The action was brought at the instance of Perry Mitchell, who has been nominated for congressman from the first district by both the democratic and progressive parties.

The attorney general has held the law constitutional and says it is up to the candidate to elect which ticket he will run, and in the event he fails or refuses to do this, the county auditor, who prepares the ballot, shall elect for him. He also held that the auditor might, if the candidate refused to elect, force him to by leaving his name from the ballot entirely.

SHOULD USE JUDGMENT.

DES MOINES, Oct. 6 (AP).—Voters of the country should exercise the same caution in November in selecting heads of their government that they would if they were selecting heads of a private enterprise, United States Senator George Wharton Pepper of Pennsylvania, said here tonight in an address commending the Coolidge-Dawes ticket. Stockholders in a private enterprise, he said, "never would choose to put their fortunes in the hands of a LaFollette, a Wheeler, a Davis or a Bryan, if they were fortunate enough to be able to choose a Coolidge or a Dawes."

CONVICTED MEN DRAW SENTENCE

Quartet Found Guilty of Robbery to Serve Five to Ten Years in State Prison.

Ray McIntyre, Bud Davis, Russell Cavender and George Walters, Jr., were sentenced Monday by Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here, to serve terms of not less than five nor more than ten years' imprisonment in the state prison for robbery of the general merchandise store at Knoll on the night of August 11, last, of which they were convicted by a jury at the close of two days' trial last Saturday. Under Idaho law the penalty upon conviction of robbery, imprisonment might have been extended for life, five years' imprisonment being the minimum sentence.

The men convicted, after receiving sentence, invited Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor to their cell where in token of their appreciation of the courteous manner in which he had conducted their prosecution, they gave him a decorated wreath that they had made during their confinement in the jail here.

Flight for Cavender Indicated.
Statement was made Monday evening at the court house that application probably would be made for a new trial in the case of Cavender, one of the defendants, whose alibi claim was supported by testimony that he had accompanied Davis and Walters on a trip on the night of the robbery to Rogers where they were arrested. He denied that they had passed through Knoll on that occasion.

Persons convicted of felonies during the present term of district court here, including John Jurko, sentenced to death for murder of A. B. Wadsworth, and the four men convicted of robbery, it is expected will be taken to the state prison at Boise by prison guards who are to arrive here today.

BISHOP URGES NEGRO TO ELECT LAFOLLETTE AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (AP)—Charging that the republican party "has been taken over bodily by the Klan in the north," and that "alone among the three candidates, Mr. Coolidge has refused to open his lips on the subject of the Klan," Bishop John Hurst of the Methodist Episcopal church, a worker among negro people in a statement issued today by the LaFollette headquarters, urged "all negroes to support the LaFollette-Wheeler independent progressive candidate."

"Whatever Mr. Davis, the democratic candidate, may state as to his personal position on the Klan, he colored man will imagine for a moment that he can in any sense wipe out or offset his party's record," Bishop Hurst said. "As for the republican party, 60 years ago, the party of Abraham Lincoln, it has now been taken over bodily by the Klan in the north. It is openly the Klan party in at least a dozen northern states."

"LaFollette, on the other hand, is the only candidate who has come out vigorously against the Klan in words that no one can mistake."

BRYAN SEES UNREST AMONG REPUBLICANS

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 6 (AP)—Basing his statements upon a personal survey of conditions and reports from various localities, Governor Bryan, democratic vice presidential nominee, declared today that the republican party was in such "a disorganized" state, both in rural and urban districts in the middle west, that its support was pulling away in favor of the democratic and independent, with the democrats constantly gaining ground from both the other tickets.

FOSDICK RESIGNS CHURCH POSITION

Ideas Answers Demand of Presbytery at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6 (AP)—The presbytery of New York received today, but delayed action upon the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, the Baptist preacher of modernist ideas, who for five years has held an assistant ministerial position in the First Presbyterian church of this city.

The resignation was Dr. Fosdick's answer to the request of the presbytery that, in addition with a ruling of the general assembly five months ago he should renounce his Baptist membership, and become a Presbyterian or relinquish his association with the local church.

A special committee of the presbytery, headed by Dr. Edgar Whitaker, who communicated the decree of the general assembly to the Rev. Dr. Fosdick and today read before the presbytery the minister's answer, ending in resignation.

At the committee's recommendation the case was placed in the hands of the first church for further investigation and deliberation with instructions to report to the presbytery by November 10. It is expected that on that date the first church, which has stood by the Rev. Dr. Fosdick for two years while the battle between fundamentalists and modernists raged about him, will make known whether it proposes to accept or reject the resignation.

IDAHO JUSTICE WOULD SEPARATE BENCH AND THE GAME OF POLITICS

SALT LAKE, Oct. 6 (AP)—Judge Alfred Budge, associate justice of the supreme court of Idaho, announced here today that he has joined the ranks of those who favor separating the bench from politics.

"A position on the supreme bench I do not regard as a political one," he said. "I believe that conventions for the selection of judicial candidates should be held at times other than those for electing candidates in general elections."

Judge Budge is a candidate for re-election on the republican ticket in Idaho in November.

SWISS DON'T LIKE AUTOS

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 6 (AP)—An item in Switzerland, where many of the country people are strongly hostile to horseless locomotion, recently occurred to Mrs. Hugh Gibson, wife of the American minister.

While motoring near Berne, Mrs. Gibson met a peasant driving a cart loaded with hay. The countryman, in addition to refusing to make room for the car to pass, lost his temper and struck at the machine with his whip. The lash flicked Mrs. Gibson on the face and the chauffeur jumped down and took the whip from the angry peasant. A local tribunal subsequently condemned the countryman to two days' imprisonment.

DAWES BATTERS AWAY AT LAFOLLETTE HOME

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 6 (AP)—Charles G. Dawes, republican candidate for vice president, battered today at the headquarters of the LaFollette strong hold.

Penetrating Wisconsin for the third time in almost as many weeks, the republican nominee attacked the LaFollette independent movement in three speeches.

In all his speeches, he declared it to be Senator LaFollette's proposition to have us change the form of government under which "we have lived for 135 years and make the judicial and executive powers of our government subordinate to congress—in other words, make us a government of congress."

JURY IN LIQUOR CASE HOLDS ONE, LOOSES ONE

Henry Richardson Is Found Guilty While Deliberations Fail to Bring Agreement in Case of Ed Graybeal.

Henry Richardson of Buhl, charged jointly with Ed Graybeal with illegal possession of liquor, was by a jury in district court here Monday, found guilty, the jury reporting when it returned its verdict that its members had been unable to agree on a verdict with respect to the charge against Graybeal. Trial in the case occupied only the forenoon session of court, the case being given to the jury in the afternoon. Only two witnesses, Charles E. Jones and E. F. Prater, deputy sheriffs, were called for the state's defense offering testimony of only one witness, Graybeal, testifying in his own behalf.

The state's case was based on testimony of the officers that glass containers that were broken by Richardson when the officers approached for the defense offered testimony of only one witness, Graybeal, testifying in his own behalf.

Graybeal testified that he had no knowledge of any liquor being in Richardson's possession when he accompanied him on the trip that ended with the arrest of both.

Trial in the case of Clinton Bowman of Casco, charged with illegal possession of liquor, which had been set for Monday, was postponed for one week and the jury was excused until next Monday on account of summons for District Judge W. A. Babcock to sit as a commissioner on the state supreme court this week.

SUES BANK COMMISSIONER

E. W. Porter, Idaho commissioner of finance, and E. J. Dunlap, liquidating agent of the defunct Citizens State bank of Buhl, are defendants in a suit instituted in United States district court at Boise by M. J. Sweeley of this city as attorney for M. J. Griffin of Vinton, Iowa, assignee of C. C. Griffin, a stockholder of the bank, for $20,000 alleged to have been paid to the commissioner or agent as Griffin's share of an assessment made by officers of the bank against its stockholders.

This payment, according to the complaint in the case, was made under protest and with the understanding that it should be returned to Griffin in the event that Idaho's supreme court, in a case then pending, should decide that the law under which the assessment was made was unconstitutional. That the payment, according to the holding the law unconstitutional was rendered in February of last year. The law in question provided for assessment equal in amount of the shares held by a defunct bank's stockholders. Griffin's demand thereafter for return of the payment, according to the complaint, has not been complied with and no part of the payment has been refunded to him.

Complaint in the case was sent to Boise Monday by Mr. Sweeley for filing in the federal court.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Maudsley and Mrs. Elsie Pettit entertained at dinner Monday evening at 4447 home on Seventh avenue east for Mr. Mattie Crawford, and Mrs. Joseph Rozinek and small son, Joseph Arthur, Miss Emma Gillett and Miss Imogene Callison.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Putter celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Friday, October 3, with a very charming dinner served at 7:30 in the evening. A color scheme of lavender and white was carried out in the decorations. The bride wore a handsome gown of silver lace. Many beautiful gifts of silver were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Putter, among them being a 12-piece silver set. Following dinner when the officers approached for the defense offered testimony of only one witness, Graybeal, testifying in his own behalf.

Announcement have been received by friends in this city of the marriage of Miss Mollie Cornelia Hawk and Ira Swearingen at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sara Hawk, in San Francisco, on September 18. Both parties had been engaged last year in this city. They will reside at the Rimini apartments in Los Angeles.

With his bride, who was Miss Edith Lipp, daughter of L. Lipp, editor of the Oak Grove Gazette, Oak Grove, La., and a teacher last year in the junior high school here, Fred Foss Jr., well-known young business man of this city, returned Sunday from Salt Lake, where he had gone to meet his bride and where they were married, the ceremony being performed at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Frederick J. Cox at the Centenary Methodist church.

PIONEER TRANSPORTATION.

There is unusual appeal in the flight of Ezra Meeker from Seattle, Washington, to Dayton, Ohio, in an army airplane, to see the air races.
Meeker is ninety years old. On his journey east by this most modern type of transportation, he has followed the trail he took when, as a young pioneer, he traveled west in an ox cart. What memories must have been aroused as the old man flew.

Every kind of pioneering is an improvement at the time, and yet sometimes to be regarded as slow, backward, inefficient and dull. Half a century hence that airplane flight east ward may appear almost as crude pi-neering as the ox cart method appears now.

LESS RED.

Communism in Europe is waning. It was never so strong as superficial observers imagined. An English Socialist publication gives the total number of Communist parties outside Russia in 1920 as one million, sixty-four thousand, and as now reduced to five hundred ninety-one thousand. Membership has remained about stationary
in Germany but has shrunk in Czechoslovakia, France and other countries.

The cause of the shrinkage is plain enough. It is partly due to a continued demonstration that the Soviet form of Communism is not working well in Russia. It is more due, perhaps, to the fact that Europe generally is recovering. Communism, Socialism, Bolshevism and other forms of radical economic revolt, though originating perhaps in the minds of intellectuals as dispassionate theories, thrive only in bad times. They derive their power from poverty and discontent. Industrial depression and poverty returns and the normal
"capitalistic" order is resumed, or gained, and less its power.

That is why Communism never gained a foothold in the United States,
and is not likely to in the immedi-future, at least. This country is too prosperous, the prosperity is too widely diffused among the people and there is too much economic opportunity for all classes to provide much support for any Socialist or Communist movement.

PSYCHOLOGY OF LIGHT.

Window display artists say that a green light thrown on porch furniture and summer clothing in a store window makes them seem more desirable to the public. Also that clear daylight makes men's clothing attractive; that under light "lure women to fall in love; that red and amber make home displays pleasing and that women
simply can not resist underclothing displayed in a pink light.

There must be a great deal more in light and color than people have been taught. Full use of these factors may make the fortune of a merchant or manufacturer.

And why confine the benefits of such knowledge to business purposes?
The application of lighting psychology
to home decoration has hardly begun.
People usually "know what they like."
In the way of color, or fancy they do,
but few have any real notion of the effect different colors have on their spirits and health. The next generation may see great progress along that line.

Business would improve more rapidly
if everybody didn't keep feeling its pulse and looking at its tongue all the time.

Speed of Birds

Birds have two flying speeds—a normal rate which is used for every-day purposes and for migration, and an accelerated speed which is used for protection or pursuit.

Breakfast Food
"Matrimonially Speaking"

By Hugh McKay

My wife is always going away to visit her family.

In between times she manages to spend a few weeks with me.

She's constantly getting letters from her mother or her sister or her cousins telling her to come and spend a few days.

And so she goes for a few weeks.

There's always some special reason why she can't refuse. Her mother wants her to be home for a party she's having. Or her sister's husband is away for work. Or Aunt Agatha hasn't been well and really needs some one with her.

And so I'm deserted. I'm one relative whom it's all right to leave alone
I'll get along somehow.

What my wife forgets is that when a man surrenders he expects to give up bachelor life.

Tomorrow: My husband always understands everything.

EDEN

EDEN—Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Gordon were business visitors in Twin Falls Saturday.

Paul Falk, local field man for the sugar company, transacted business in Twin Falls Saturday.

Sealey and wife, Mr. and Mrs. P. A.
Teater, Mrs. Roy Kelley and Ernest McNee.

HAZELTON

HAZELTON—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price motored to Twin Falls Monday.

Mrs. Charles Judson, Mrs. Marie Lackridge, Mrs. Warren Wickham and Mrs. Gordon Murphy made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Marian Leach, who has been here for three weeks with her parents who have been confined with the small-pox, left Tuesday for Pocatello where she is training in the general hospital.

Arvid Anderson and Charles Reynolds left for Pocatello Tuesday morning to work in the potatoes.

George Herderson, a nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herderson, fell Tuesday while playing and broke his arm. He was taken to Twin Falls
Wednesday for an X-ray examination.

The little daughter of Mrs. Quilert was taken to the Twin Falls hospital Monday for treatment.

Needed Fortifying

In England men arrested for murder
took the police, "Yes, yes, I am guilty,
I will tell you everything about it
after I have had some tea." Later, he said, "I have had tea, Mr. Jones, and I will tell you everything." Yet there are people who do not take seriously
British law, and the outcome hereafter—Springfield Reformatory.

Copied From the British

The three white stars around the collar of a sailor's jacket and the black neckerchief are traditions from the British navy. The neckerchief is a mourning badge for the death of Nelson, and the three white stripes represent his three victories—Trafalgar, Nile and Copenhagen.

Serious Drawback

An unbiased trainer explained that it
took the police, "Yes, yes, I am guilty,
I will tell you everything about it
after I have had some tea." Later, he said, "I have had tea, Mr. Jones, and I will tell you everything." Yet there
are people who do not take seriously
British law, and the outcome here-
after—Springfield Reformatory.

Is a Gland
Operation Necessary?

By a new discovery the vital gland
substance which is sometimes administered by expensive operations may now be supplied in tablet form. This treatment is highly recommended by European and American scientists, who have proved that the internal administration of gland extracts has a very marked effect upon the corresponding glands of the human body, often rebuilding them to normal activity.

Such a treatment is now offered to patients in the form of Glandogen, a highly concentrated glandular tonic
in convenient tablet form, prepared from the glands of healthy young animals and compounded with other valuable ingredients.

Captain Blood
By RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyright, 1923, by Rafael Sabatini.
"CAPTAIN BLOOD" a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Karrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood, a young Irish physician, who took up his residence in Bridgewater after years spent in the wars on the continent,
although he is in his early thirties,
is summoned by Jeremiah Pitt to treat Lord Glidley who has been wounded in the battle between the Duke of Monmouth's followers and the loyalists at Oglethorpe's Farm.
Blood finds his Lordship in the home of a yeoman, Baynes. He treats the wound and the King's soldiers under Lord Captain Hobart take possession of the house and threaten immediate hanging for the inmates whom he designates as rebels. Blood pleads that in Christian countries Christian men
do not make war upon the wounded
nor those who give them succor.
Hobart declares that there are gallows on the road and those present will decorate them. Hobart demands the name of the impertinent meddler and when Peter Blood reveals himself the British captain recognizes him as one whom he had known in Tangiers. Blood saves the lives of Pitt and Baynes for the time by his clever wit and Lord Glidley is carried out on a day-bed to prison. Blood, Pitt and Baynes are also bound and placed under arrest as rebels.

CHAPTER III

THE LORD CHIEF JUSTICE
It was not until two months later,
on the 15th of September, that Peter Blood was brought to trial
at Taunton Castle upon a charge of high treason. The hall, even to the galleries—thronged with spectators, most of whom were ladies—was hung in scarlet. At the upper end on a raised dais, the Lords Commissioners, the five judges in their scarlet robes and heavy dark periwigs, Baron Jeffreys of Wem enthroned in the middle place.
From Baynes, who pleaded not were conveyed to Bristol and there shipped with some fifty others

aboard the "Hector," a French privateer, and amongst these was the yeoman from Oglethorpe's Farm.

CHAPTER IV

THE SLAVE MARKET

Towards the middle of December
the Jamaica Merchant dropped anchor in Carlisle Bay, and put ashore the forty-two surviving rebels-convict. They beheld a town of sufficiently imposing proportions.
A fort guarded the entrance of the wide harbour, with guns thrusting their muzzles between the cannon, and the wide facade of Government House revealed itself dominantly placed on a gentle hill above the town. On a wide cobbled space on the sea front they found a guard of red-coated militia drawn up to receive them.

To inspect them came Governor Steed. After him, in the uniform of a colonel of the Barbados Militia, rolled a tall, corpulent man who towered head and shoulders above
the Governor, with malevolence plainly written on his enormous yellowish countenance. At his side, and contrasting oddly with his grossness, moved with an easy stripling grace, came a slight young lady in a modish riding-gown. The broad brim of a grey hat with a scarlet sweep of ostrich plume shaded an oval face upon which the climate of the Tropic of Cancer had made no impression, so delicately fair was his complexion.
Ringside of red-brown hair hung
to her shoulders.

Peter Blood caught himself starting in a sort of amazement at that plangent face, which seemed here
so out of place, and finding his stare returned, he shifted uncomfortably. He was in no case for inspection by such dainty eyes as these. Nevertheless, they continued to inspect him with round-eyed, al-

guilty, the clerk passed on to Pitt, who boldly owned his guilt. The Lord Chief Justice stirred at that.

The only witness called for the King was Captain Hobart. He testified briefly to the manner in which he had found and taken the three prisoners, together with Lord Glidley. Upon the orders of his colonel he would have hanged Pitt out of hand, but was restrained by the hon. of his colonel. Blood, who led him to believe that Pitt was a peer of the realm and a person of consideration. And it was upon this flimsy evidence that the three men were sentenced to death for high treason.

most childlike wonder and pity.
Their own touch, the scarlet sleeve of her companion. The Colonel paid no heed to her more than the half of his attention. His little beady eyes were fixed upon fair-haired, ardent young Pitt, who was standing beside Blood. The Governor had also come to a halt.
"My dear Colonel Bishop, it is for you to take that choice and your own price. After that we'll send the rest to auction."

Colonel Bishop noticed his ac-knowledgegment and advanced alone towards the rebels-convict. Before the young man. Some strange ship-master he came to a halt, and stood an instant pondering him.

"Fifteen pounds for this one."
The master of the convict ship
made a face of dismay. "Fifteen pounds? It's half what I meant to ask for him."

"It is double what I had meant to give," grunted the Colonel. They bargained and Pitt was taken at twenty pounds.

Peter Blood lost himself in unprofitable speculations. He was in no mood for conversation, nor was Pitt, who stood dumbly at his side.
To Pitt, this separation was the pinnacle climax of all his sufferings. Blood noticed that the girl was speaking to Bishop, and pointing up the line, with a silver-bellied riding-whip she carried. Then slowly, they came until the Colonel was abreast of Blood. He would have stepped on—but that the lady tapped
his arm with her whip.

"But this is the man I mean,"
she said.

"This one? Bah! A bag of bones.
What should I do with him?"

He was turning away when Captain Gardner interposed.

"He may be lean, but he's tough;
tough and healthy. When half of them were sick and the other half sickening, this rogue kept his legs and doctored his fellows. Say five pounds, sir, Colonel."

"That's cheap enough."

Daddy's
Evening
Fairy Tale

A MARY GRAHAM-BONNER

A BIRTHDAY GIFT

"I must tell you this evening," said
Daddy, "the story of a little boy named Jerry."

"He was three years old on his birthday. And in honor of the day his mother
was giving him a party."

"His brother
Jimmie was almost as excited
about it as he was."

"There were to be some boys and girls at his party
all older than
he was, but he
quite liked that."

"He was not a baby. He felt quite old."

"In fact he felt almost as old as Jimmie, who was really several years older."

"He was given a handsome, shiny,
black toy car, decorated with red,
for a birthday present."

"The cat had an apron which was edged with red and had a little red pocket handkerchief in the pocket,
though what a toy cat handkerchief
with a pocket handkerchief I'm sure I don't know."

"But, anyway, it added greatly to the cat's appearance."

"Then Jerry was given a splendid fire engine and a book-and-ladder
with a little driver who sat in front of it. It was a splendid present, and both could go so fast—just as a fire engine and book-and-ladder should go,
of course."

"There must never be any delays
when there is a fire. Even a toy fire department knew that much."

"There was another little driver for the fire engine, and he was given a splendid party, with cake and ice cream and candles upon
the cake."

"They played games and they enjoyed themselves immensely."

"But the birthday gift that Jerry liked the best of all was one you would never, never think of guessing,
so I hardly think it is worth your while to guess."

"Still you may try."

"A real, live cat," said Nancy.

"A dog," said Nick.

Daddy shook his head at both guesses.

"A kite," said Nancy.

"A toy automobile," said Nick.

"Not a kite," said Daddy, "and not a toy automobile for this birthday,
but his brother Jimmie had been given
one on his birthday and they shared
all their toys."

"Guess again! But I don't believe you'll guess right!"

"A soapstone," said Nancy.

"No, hardly that," said Daddy.

"Well, I was trying to think of something different from what you said," said Nick.

"I see," said Daddy.

"A turtle," said Nick.

"No," said Daddy.

"A set of blocks," suggested Nancy.

"No," said Daddy.

"A train," shouted Nick.

"No, almost anything in return."

"A boat," said Nancy.

"No," said Daddy.

"An express
cart," said Nick.

"No," said Daddy.

"Marbles," said
Nancy.

"No," said Daddy.

"A rabbit," said
Nick.

"No," said Daddy.

"Then I give up," said Nancy.

"So do I," said
Nick.

"A splendid present."

he liked best of all, Daddy told them, "was a new tooth which just made its appearance on that day."

"Do you wonder I didn't think you'd be able to guess? But he said it was his favorite birthday present."

"No wonder we couldn't guess,"
said Nancy.

"No wonder," agreed Nick.

MINSTREL SETS HIGH MARK FOR AMATEUR SHOWS

Mirth, Melody and Color Distinguish Elks' Offering That Scores Hit With First Night Audience.

Gorgeous costumes, new and pleasing song numbers and much really clever acting with first-class stage direction combined to render Monday night's opening night of the B. P. O. E. Minstrel Frolic, one of the most enjoyable amateur performances ever witnessed in Twin Falls.

In spite of a drizzling rain there were practically no vacant seats in the body of the house and but few in the gallery. Applause was frequent throughout the whole performance. The entire show was of a high order of merit and reflects the highest credit upon "Bud" Bullis of Harrington Adams, Inc., who directed the piece as well as upon the Elks' lodge under the auspices of which the performance was given.

Old Favorites at Boon. Many of the old-time favorites with Twin Falls audiences were seen and heard at their best. Naturally, some were better than others but the effect of the entire show was highly pleasing and apparently fully appreciated.

The minstrel section of the performance has a right to claim a place in the very front rank of minstrel performances in Twin Falls. The song numbers were all well rendered, the comedy was clean and more than usually funny, while the local hits, as ever, were received with salvos of applause. Arthur Buckwitt's voice gave a better performance in his life, with the two Dads, Flynn and Daly, carrying their full share of the job. Bob Logan and Muever Hydahl were in their usual good form while Tom Herriman, Conde Magel and Carl Edwards gained frequent applause. Many of the song numbers were new and highly pleasing. They were well received. Nelson Hayward, W. F. Mikesell, Bob Logan and Carl Edwards were heard to advantage. Pat Flynn and Douglas Salmon were in splendid voice. Mr. Buckwitt's number was on a par with the balance of his performance and secured a clean hit throughout the whole show.

Dance Pretty Feature. One of the prettiest and most artistic features of the second section was the opening number following the minstrel section. This consisted of a clever and carefully worked out dance which was carried through in splendid shape. These taking the parts of boys were Helen Fisher, Audrey Brannin, Magdalena Shaffer, Jerome Krivanek, Vera Wynn, the girls being Flo Cook, Naomi White, Edna White, Marguerite Harrison, Catherine Newman.

Episode "A Romance of the Future" was a more or less spectacular presentation of an Indian romance with a dramatic ending which in turn was relieved by a cleverly adapted touch of comedy at the end. The trials and tribulations of a movie director, Clow Wilkins, and his assistant, assistant Mr. Blocker, were put into an unique manner, the two numbers together constituting one of the pleasing features of the show.

Miss Suzanne Taylor, Tom Chapin, Douglas Salmon and Bob Logan had perfect parts in the latter parts of the evening in the Indian romance and proved fully equal to the demands placed upon them.

Audience Shows Appreciation. "West Goes East" gave an opportunity for some clever work on the part of Wilkins, Blocker, Edwards, Nelson Hayward and last, but by no means least, Miss Pauline Ware, Miss Ware, as a chorus lead, demonstrated more than usual ability and was warmly applauded.

On the way to the dance, a more than usually difficult musical ensemble effort. Members of the chorus in this number were:

Court dancers—Jerome Krivanek, Flo Cook, Helen Fisher, Catherine Newman, Naomi White, Edna White, Audrey Brannin, Marguerite Harrison, Vera Wynn, Magdalena Shaffer, Yogi Moore, Messie, Lee Logan, Hilda, Gray, Wynn. The musical chairs, in addition to those mentioned, consisted of Bill Starns, Glen Sears, Wayne Hollenbach, Clayton Gray, Pat Brannin, Ed King, Tom White, Ray Hodgkin, Carl Hahn, Hector Hydahl, Chet Shinner, John Robertson, Ron Krivanek, Leonard Moe, Judson Timm, Lee Logan, Harold Strander and Edward Price, Cap Rice officiated at the piano.

The performance will be given again tonight at the Orpheum. Reservations may be secured at the Majestic Pharmacy.

YOUTH OF 14 CONFESSES MURDER

ASBURY WESSINGER.

ASBURY WESSINGER, a 14-year-old boy of Columbia, S. C., has confessed murdering his aunt with an axe and attacking her three children, his cousins, children of 1, 3 and 4 years of age. The babes were expected to die. The boy would give no reason for his crime.

CONFESSES TO THEFT OF CAR

Joseph O'Daily, 18, Pleads Guilty to Larceny of Isidor G. Friedman's Coupe.

Theft of a Ford coupe from Isidor G. Friedman was confessed in probate court here Monday afternoon by a youth who gave the name of Joseph O'Daily, 18, who was arrested at Glens Ferry early Sunday morning a few hours after the car was taken from near the Boardland pavilion in Twin Falls, where Mr. Friedman was engaged as a member of an orchestra. O'Daily was held by Judge O. P. Duell to action of the district court in the case. Grand larceny is charged. O'Daily said that he had arrived in Twin Falls Saturday morning from Denver, having lost his way most of the distance, and was bound for Washington lumber camp, where he hoped to obtain employment. He obtained a number of drinks of moonshine Saturday evening, he said, and under the influence of the liquor he decided to continue the trip by motor and selected the Friedman car for the purpose.

Arrest of O'Daily at Glens Ferry was accomplished within 30 minutes after word that he was wanted here had been sent out by telephone from police headquarters. O'Daily was brought back from Glens Ferry by Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones Sunday afternoon. Mr. Friedman accompanied the officer and drove his own car home.

O'Daily in court, stated that he had made his way in the worst storm he was 4 years old. He was born, he said, in Oklahoma. His mother was dead and he had not heard from his father in 10 years. He attended school in Oklahoma and Colorado, and had been employed at the various kinds of farms, in lumber camps and elsewhere. He had not, he said, previously been held for violation of the law.

CLUB WOMEN IN CARAVAN MOTORING TO CONVENTION

ANTI-MASKING RULE APPLIES TO YOUNGSTERS

Twin Falls Commissioners Give Street but Can Not Give Permission for Covering Faces at Hallow'en Carnival.

Shoshone street between Fourth and Sixth avenues north and east will be closed to traffic and turned over exclusively to Twin Falls boys and girls at a Hallow'en carnival and costume parade to be held under auspices of the Twentieth Century club, but provisions of an anti-masking ordinance adopted last week by Twin Falls city commissioners will prevent the use of masks in connection with costumes on that occasion.

Reply to effect was made by the city commissioners at a regular meeting Monday evening to a request and inquiry made for the Twentieth Century club by Mrs. James D. Whelan. Mrs. Whelan outlined briefly the club's plans for a Hallow'en party for all Twin Falls folk and asked that all provisions of Shoshone street be set aside on Hallow'en for this purpose.

Offer City Park.

The commissioners without an instant's hesitation gave assurance that the street would be closed to traffic and given over wholly to the use of the little folks, and they tendered also the use of the city park.

The inquiry as to whether the anti-masking ordinance would apply to the children's party was referred for answer to City Attorney A. J. Myers, who gave it as his opinion that it would operate to prohibit masking in public by any persons, and that no exception could be made in this instance. The commissioners' session was otherwise occupied with action on claims against the city treasury.

HUNDREDS ATTEND LAST OF CRAWFORD MEETINGS

Services Marking Close of Three-Week Campaign Here Draw Record Crowd; Public Baptism in Afternoon.

A congregation of more than 2500 persons, exceeding the capacity of the big tent on Main avenue east, Sunday evening attended the closing meeting of a series of non-denominational religious meetings held here for a period of three weeks by Mrs. Mattie Crawford, evangelist and healer.

The evening meeting followed public baptism in the lateral east of the tent, in park of about 40 persons who had professed conversion as a result of the meetings.

High degree of interest that had attended the meetings throughout was continued to the close. Numerous persons professed to have been healed of physical disorders as a result of Mrs. Crawford's ministry here, and dissemination of word of these reported cures served to intensify interest in the meetings.

Mrs. Crawford will hold meetings for one week at Rupert, beginning next Wednesday, it was announced, and will later go to Nampa.

FINDS IDAHO SENTIMENT STRONG FOR COOLIDGE

Judge E. A. Walters, Returning From Campaign Trip With Congressman Smith, Predicts Republican Triumph.

Prevailing disposition in southeastern Idaho is toward return of President Coolidge to the White House and endorsement of the republican ticket, according to Judge E. A. Walters, who returned Monday from a speaking tour through the south Idaho section.

Mr. Walters, a Republican, returned from a trip to Arco, Aberdeen, Hanksville, Idaho Falls, Rigby and Dubois.

The contest at the polls in Idaho next November, Judge Walters stated, seems to lie between the republican and "progressive" parties. In a number of counties, he said, there are no democratic tickets.

Meetings addressed by Congressman Smith and Judge Walters were largely attended and a high degree of interest was manifested. Judge Walters expects to devote another week after his return to devote another week later in visits of the republican cause.

BORAH PROMISES TO SPEAK HERE

Senator on Way to Open Campaign at Idaho Falls, Sees Coolidge Favored.

Senator William E. Borah intends to return to Twin Falls next week to deliver one of the three or four campaign speeches that he expects to make in Idaho before leaving in compliance with the wishes of Chairman Butler of the republican national committee, to make several speeches during the campaign in Oregon, Washington and California.

Statement to this effect was made by Senator Borah on his arrival here Monday night from Boise on the way to Idaho Falls, where this evening he will deliver his first campaign speech in Idaho this year.

Senator Borah declined to commit himself for publication with respect to his view of the election result, but stated that in his opinion there is a growing tendency throughout the state toward retention of President Coolidge in the White House, in view particularly of the president's recognized efforts toward reduction of taxes.

His visit from Washington at the close of the last session of congress, Senator Borah has accepted numerous invitations to address meetings of grange organizations and similar gatherings throughout the state, but he has not heretofore actively entered the political campaign.

Senator Borah made the trip here Monday evening by motor with Scott Anderson of Boise.

Increase Your Bean Yields

Every bushel that you add to your yield over what you are now producing means net profit. We have known of bean yields as high as 60 bushels per acre on highly fertilized land when the same farm produced less than half that amount the same season. You can greatly increase your yield if you will.

Winter Vetch is the best quick fertilizer known, it meets all requirements of the bean grower. Sow Winter Vetch on your bean fields this fall just as soon as the crop comes off, water for it and it will produce a heavy growth of humus to plow down before planting time in the Spring. Vetch is a legume like clover and alfalfa, a stronger legume than either of them. You can fill your soil with both nitrogen and humus for next year's crop by sowing Vetch.

SOW AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE. WE HAVE THE SEED.
