Only President Who Has Had Courage to Combat Bureaucracy Tendency, Says Senator at Idaho Falls.

BOISE, Oct. 7 (AP)—Senator W. E. Borah lauded Calvin Coolidge as "the only president who has had the courage to combat the tendency toward bureaucracy and extravagance," in an address to a packed house at the Coliseum theater in Idaho Falls tonight, according to a special dispatch to the Idaho Statesman.

"President Coolidge, because of this, is the greatest man in the political history of the United States," the senator told his audience. He said he differed with La Follette in his stand on the supreme court of the United States, and argued that under the constitution the poor have the same rights as the rich.

Lands United States.

The senator praised the United States as the one big country outside of the league of nations, for its efforts in bringing about the disarmament conference. He also lauded the reparations commission and the Dawes plan, which he "brought Germany and France together," although he thought the outcome of the plan is rather indefinite.

Coolidge, he said, has had courage and courage is a rare thing in Washington, "to veto bills which provided for establishment of new bureaus." "Whatever you do," the senator said, "you cannot take this credit away from Coolidge." He cited the president's veto of the postal employees bill as an example of this courage.

Borah argued that the American farmer would never have prosperity until the foreign markets are opened. He also made a strong plea for reduced recognition of Russia and reduced taxes.

"Republicanism is I understand it," the senator told his audience, "is the clean government. It is a government which is progressive government—no greater progressive ever lived than Lincoln." He argued that if he has not contended for things in the last 25 years he should be defeated.

DAWES STARTS INTO A NEW LAFOLLETTE FIELD

MASON CITY, Iowa, Oct. 7 (AP)—Charles G. Dawes, republican nominee for vice president, began a drive through what leaders of his party describe as "the La Follette belt of Iowa" with addresses today at Northwood and tonight at a mass meeting in the Mason City armory. The republican nominee speaks tomorrow at Dodge, Storm Lake, Iowa, and Sioux City, all in territory which republican leaders informed Mr. Dawes on his arrival here was among the five motor cities ward the La Follette independent candidacy.

SHENANDOAH STARTS OUT ON 9000
MILE VOYAGE; BIG AIRSHIP WORKS
PERFECTLY, SAYS STORY FROM ALOFT

ABOARD SHENANDOAH, Oct. 7 (AP)—Ideal air sailing weather prevailed through the first 12 hours of the 9000 mile voyage of the big navy dirigible from coast to coast. The airship was met in the upper level of the sky between 1000 and 3000 feet. At 8 p. m. the ship was driving straight into a 12-mile an hour current; all five motors were going; the immense gas filled tube with its cabin and power gondolas was riding as smoothly as if in a bed of feathers, going 40 miles an hour. At that time, had crossed the James river at Lynchburg. Lights burned in the houses beneath and in the distance along the horizon could be seen the glow of cities and villages.

Aboard the big ship, limited as to quarters and with everything stripped down to the minimum weight, the race was on like on any naval ship at sea. Green lights hung on port and starboard light glowed through the open windows of the control cabin forward and from the five motor cabins along the side the hum of the motors reached to the shadowed surface of the fields, hills and forests beneath, while the silver sun slipped through the moonlight with its lights of white, red and green clearly seen by those awakened by the strange note of nocturnal droning from the sky.

The Shenandoah, it is said through its first sunny day and moonlight night, has not the pitch or roll of a ship at sea, nor the thump and drop of an airplane hitting maelstrom air pockets. Alternately lighting herself by spouting water ballast and holding her nose aloft by shifting men along the deck, the airship left the gas bag, the Shenandoah cut off anchor at 10 a. m. from the mooring mast at Lakehurst, N. J., made a broad circle through the eastward way of the long Thirty Passengers Force Captain to Isolated Inlet Where $300,000 Is Taken.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 7 (AP)—Thirty odd passengers, who boarded the steamer Ningshin, when she was leaving here on October 2 for Foochow, took armed possession of the vessel off Foochow. They compelled the captain, O. Ferguson, to sail southward to an isolated inlet near Hong Kong, where they looted the ship, carrying off $300,000 Chinese currency.

One member of the crew was killed and one wounded in the firing which occurred when the steamer was seized.

ARGUMENT DP ON BALLOT QUESTION TO HIGHEST COURT

Law Prohibiting Auditors From Printing Candidate's Name on More Than One Party Ticket Said Unconstitutional.

BOISE, Oct. 7 (AP)—Idaho's law prohibiting county auditors from printing the name of a candidate for office more than once on the ballot is unconstitutional and void because no means is provided by law for carrying this requirement into effect, attorneys for Perry Mitchell argued in the mandamus proceedings heard in the supreme court today. Mitchell is trying to get the court to force J. A. Dunbar, county auditor of Canyon county, to place his name on both the progressive and democratic ballots as the candidate for congress from the first district.

The legislature could not be expected to go into minute details regarding the carrying out of its wishes, and when it imposes a duty on an officer it assumes that he will use a reasonable amount of diligence in carrying into effect without being told each successive step argued attorneys defending Mr. Dunbar, who has refused to print the name of Mr. Mitchell on both tickets.

LAFOLLETTE WANTS
BORAH TO EXAMINE INTO "SLUSH FUND"

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 7 (AP)—Senator Robert M. La Follette announced in an address here tonight that he had demanded an immediate and searching investigation by the senate from expenditures committee to determine whether the republican antislavery committee is raising "an enormous slush fund" to be expended in buying the election in doubtful states.

In a telegram sent today to Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, chairman of the committee, the independent presidential candidate said he had urged him to subpoena William M. Butler, chairman of the republican national committee; W. T. Mellon, brother of the secretary of the treasury; Edward T. Stettinius, a business associate of J. P. Morgan; Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' association; Samuel M. Yackelstein of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and S. Warner, a Pennsylvania anthracite operator.

VETERANS SLOW IN ASKING FOR BONUS MONEY

Approximately One-Third of Number Have Applied for Adjusted Compensation, Reports Head of Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 (AP)—Only 1,300,000 applications out of a possible 4,500,000 have been received for the soldiers' bonus and veterans who intend to apply for the adjusted compensation were urged to do so without delay to Major General Robert O. Davis, adjutant-general of the army in a statement today.

Of the applications received 850,000 have been passed and certificates for the amounts due forwarded to the veterans' bureau which will make payments or otherwise compensate the veterans as the adjusted compensation law provides.

Economy Standpoint.

"It is imperative from the standpoint of economy in administration," said General Davis, who is in charge of the machinery for handling the applications, "that these veterans who intend to avail themselves eventually of the benefits conferred by the act, should make their applications now. To extend the work over a period running up to January 1, 1928 the time limit in which applications can be made, can result only in a material increase in the cost of administration which the war department is endeavoring to hold to a minimum."

Veteran's Interest.

"It is to the utmost interest of the veteran, both as a veteran and a taxpayer, that if he intends to apply eventually for the benefits conferred by the act he should do so at once." The war department is now, he added, prepared to receive, verify and certify an average of 30,000 or more applications daily, whereas applications are now coming in at the rate of about 10,000 a day.

Applications require only the signature of the relative or other person applying under his name and his finger prints in case of living veterans.

GOSLIN, HEAVY HITTING FIELDER OF
SENATORS, WINS GAME FOR HIS TEAM
FROM GIANTS BY A SCORE OF 7 TO 4

New York Team Clubbed to Defeat After Making Score in First Inning; Each Team Now Has Two Victories; Johnson and Nehf, Opposing Pitchers, Again Meet Today.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—The "Goose" hangs high in Washington tonight for Leon Goslin, slugging pride of the Senators and favorite of their fans, clubbed the New York Giants into defeat today almost single handed, and put the American league champions back in the thick of one of baseball's greatest championship battles.

Another record-breaking crowd, exceeding 50,000 all told, stormed the Polo grounds and cheered the Senators as they pulled off a comeback victory over the National league champions. Goslin captured the fourth game of the 1924 world series by a score of 7 to 4, the most decisive verdict of any game so far.

Washington Thursday.

The series now stands two-all and the fifth game, which is likely to witness a repetition of the opening struggle between Walter Johnson, the Senators' wonderful right hand veteran, and Art Nehf, brilliant Giant southpaw, will be played tomorrow at the Polo grounds. The battleground will shift back to Washington on Thursday for a sixth game is now assured with a likelihood the series will go the limit of seven games.

Five of the Senators' runs today alone enough to clinch the game, were counted by "Goose" Goslin, who hammered out four hits in as many times at bat, including his second home run of the series, which scored two runs ahead of him in the third inning and gave Washington a lead which it never relinquished.

"Goose" Dominates.

While the slow southpaw curves of George Mogridge and the relief pitching of Fred (Fipke) Marberry, again successful in his future role, kept the Giants in check the Senators bunched their attack in three innings and Goslin was the dominating figure each time.

The offerings of Virgil Barnes, who retired after being bunched for five innings, and Wayland Dean, who finished the game after Howard Baldwin had got through two innings unscathed for Goslin. In addition to his homer, a terrific drive that sailed on a line far into the right field stands the "Goose" brought Harris across in the fifth after a wild pitch had let in McNeely and started another two-run rally in the eighth with his fourth hit, scoring two runs.

TWO COUNTRIES
FAIL TO AGREE
ON DIFFERENCES

Britain and Egypt Still Are Far
Apart on Settlement, Says
Premier MacDonald in Letter Issued.

LONDON, Oct. 7 (AP)—A letter written by Premier MacDonald declaring that the attitude adopted by Said Zagloul Pasha, the Egyptian premier, has rendered impossible for the present an agreement between the British and Egyptian governments on the Sudan left for eventual settlement which the British protectorate was withdrawn in 1922, has been issued by the foreign office in the form of a white paper.

The letter is addressed to the British high commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan. It says that pending some future agreement between the countries the duty of preserving order in the Sudan rests in fact upon its majesty's government. "And," the premier adds, they will take every step necessary for this purpose."

In the course of the conversations between the British prime minister and Zagloul Pasha, the latter made five demands for modifications of the Egyptian status quo, namely withdrawal of all the British forces from Egyptian territory; withdrawal of the financial and judicial advisory commissions and all British control over the Egyptian government, notably in connection with foreign relations; abandonment by the British government of their right to protect foreigners and minorities in Egypt and abandonment by the British of their claim to share in any way in protecting the Suez canal.

START PROCEEDINGS AGAINST RUM SHIP
RECENTLY CAPTURED

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—Legal proceedings were initiated today against the 370-ton British steam-trawler Fred B., captured Saturday after federal officials had asked the state department at Washington to take steps for the arrest and extradition of the vessel's owner, a Canadian.

United States District Attorney Hayward instituted the libel proceedings after R. Q. Marwick, district chief clerk, had made his request for state department aid. Mr. Hayward charged that the Fred B. had come in contact with American boats in waters under this country's jurisdiction "for purposes of defrauding the United States out of custom taxes."

NATIONS SHOULD ENTIRELY DISARM
TO PREVENT WAR

Opposing Generals in World
Struggle Say Partial Disarmament Not Enough to Prevent Future Trouble.

BERLIN, Oct. 7 (AP)—Today's session of the world peace congress was thrilled by the proposal of the speakers' platform of two generals who opposed each other at the front in the world war, but who now advocate the same thing regarding peace. Both general told the congress that their personal experiences of war horrors made them convinced pacifists.

The two "peaceful warriors" were General Verroux of France, commander of the Sixth army division during the hostilities, and now professor in a French military academy, and General Von Schenck of Germany, who was active on the Rumanian front during the war, and who now is head of the republican guards.

The two generals declared that partial, gradual disarmament was impractical and declared that only complete general disarmament could save the world. "We are today in a matter of technique and machinery," asserted General Verroux, "not of arms or military drill. Therefore, a little army is quite as dangerous as a big one. It is because it can handle technical equipment quite as efficiently. The league of nations scheme for partial, gradual disarmament is not going far enough. The scheme for actual zones is impracticable technically. Future war, with gas and germs, will wipe out European civilization if permitted to break out."

In closing General Verroux urged a general strike against war, even including a strike of generals.

General Schenck concluded that the danger of nations may need a small police force temporarily until world disarmament is completed but he insisted that in the interim all private manufacture of arms and munitions must be forbidden.

"As the league of nations, recently outlawed all war," the speaker declared, "it supports all movements for the refusal of military service."

ATTORNEYS FORM ASSOCIATION TO ELECT COOLIDGE

Prominent New York Lawyers Will Work in Campaign of Republicans; Give People an Idea of Issues Involved.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—Prominent lawyers of New York have announced the formation of a Coolidge and Hoover campaign committee. "for the purpose of bringing to the people at large a clear knowledge of the constitutional issue involved in the present campaign."

"In no political campaign," said a letter from the committee, issued by the republican national committee, "has there rested upon the legal profession a greater duty and responsibility."

Attacking proposals attributed to Senator La Follette, independent candidate for the presidency, the letter asserted:

Supreme Court. "The taking away from the supreme court of the power to finally declare acts of congress unconstitutional would make possible an invasion of the fundamental rights, privileges and liberties now guaranteed by our constitution and would destroy the balance of power between the legislative, executive and judicial branches, which is essential to our form of government."

William C. Broad is chairman of the lawyers' committee, and Paul D. Cravath and Julius Mayer head special committees. Among the members of the general committee are John E. Hedges, Charles F. Hughes, Jr., Nathan L. Miller, Elihu Root, Jr., Henry W. Taft and George W. Wickersham.

CONCLUDE TRUCE WITH TRIBESMEN

Emir Ali Elected King of Hedjaz and Makes Peace With Wahabis People.

JERUSALEM, Oct. 7 (AP)—Emir Ali, eldest son of former King Hussein of the Hedjaz, who abdicated last week, has concluded a truce with the Wahabis tribesmen, according to the terms of which Ali, who today was elected king of Hedjaz, promises to abandon his claims to the caliphate and agrees to pay a yearly subsidy to the conquering power.

Ali, who is 42 years old, is a practical politician. He concluded the truce quickly. According to reports received here Ali is on good terms with Ibn Saud, leader of the victorious Wahabis, and will meet him next Friday in Medina. It is also reported that opposition to the dynasty new in power is noticeable.

Recalls Delegation. Ali is recalling the delegation of five sent by Hussein to Moscow to ask help from the soviet in his fight against the Wahabis.

Ali: It is said, will sign the Anglo-Hedjaz treaty as proposed by the British government. Hussein has refused to attach his signature to this document of account of a clause recognizing the British mandate in Palestine for the realization of the Jewish National Homeland there.

Postponing to Postpone Duty.

Postponing is a confession of unpreparedness. The prepared man does not know just what is going to happen half the time. But he does know how to meet problems when they come up. He has wrestled with them in mind before they happen in experience and he knows therefore how to approach them. Sometimes he is called a crank because he will not become entangled with a host of things not directly associated with his work. But that's only wisdom. He knows the demands that will come and saves his strength to meet them when they do. The other man just bungs ahead and when something turns up that is a little hard he puts it off until tomorrow. That means that if it ever gets done it must be run in with something else.—Grit.

PORTO RICO HAS EXCELLENT YEAR

Collector of Internal Revenue Reports Business Reaching $177,650,184; Big Gain.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 7 (AP)—Porto Rico trade for the year ended June 30 reached a total of $177,650,184, according to the report of the collector of customs just completed, showing an increase of more than $23,000,000 over last year. The island's trade for the year was approximately 11 times that of 1900, when it was $16,000,000, and shows an increase of $98,000,000 since 1914, the last pre-war year.

For the first time since 1907 there was an unfavorable balance of trade against the island amounting to a little more than $1,000,000. The share of the total trade between Porto Rico and the United States was 91 per cent, a decline of nine-tenths of one per cent of the previous year.

Total Purchases

Total purchases from the United States were $80,500,021 and from foreign countries $8,770,003, making a total value for imports of $89,269,994. Exports to the United States were valued at $60,754,978, and to foreign countries $7,625,585, making a total value of exports $68,380,563.

There was an increase of 42 per cent in the export to foreign countries, indicating that the island is growing as a distributing point for nearby countries of the Caribbean. There was also an increase of 80 per cent in the number of vessels entering and clearing from Porto Rican ports during the year.

WANTED MURDER TERM DEFINED

Witness Says Potlitter Curious Over Difference Between "Killing and Murder."

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 7 (AP)—Roland Potlitter, on trial in federal district court here for the murder of Major Alexander Cronkhite, was curious as to the difference between "killing" and "murdering" a man, testified David N. Jordan, of Providence, R. I., today. Jordan, who furnished a deputy United States marshal at Providence, said that he never had heard Potlitter admit murdering Major Cronkhite. Other witnesses have testified that Potlitter made such an admission. Jordan said, however, that he had heard Potlitter say: "Can't you kill a man without murdering him?"

Ralph Navarro of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Frederick S. Horecky of New York city, both special agents of the department of justice at the time Potlitter was first arrested in March, 1921, preceded Jordan on the stand. Both of them said that in their presence and with Jordan present, declared in a New York city restaurant on March 25, 1921, that he had killed Major Cronkhite at the instigation of "Red" Rosenthal.

Jordan said he had no recollection of "any of the stuff" Navarro and Horecky narrated.

Radio Conference Opposed to Plans for Giant System

R. C. of A. Proposed Super-High-Power Sending Plant Meets With Opposition at Washington Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 (AP)—An announcement today by the Radio Corporation of America—that it stands ready immediately to begin construction within a few miles of New York city of the first of its proposed system of super-high-power broadcasting stations, developed opposition to super-power plans at the third national radio conference.

The announcement on behalf of the Radio Corporation was made by its general manager, David Sarnoff, at a conference was called by Secretary Hoover to bring about a meeting of representatives of all branches of the radio industry for the discussion of radio problems arising since the conference of a year ago. More than 250 delegates from all sections of the country are in attendance.

Elgin Overstated Objects.

Active opposition to the super-power plant came when C. E. Erbsstein, owner of an Elgin, Illinois station, charged that construction of super-power stations would force other smaller operators to increase the power of their equipment.

Walter A. Strong, representing the American Newspaper Publishers' association, declared opposition to the plan on the ground that there is no proof that present power cannot be utilized to reach the distances desired by higher powered stations and urged that development of present equipment be awaited.

2 EXPELLED PLAYERS CONFER WITH LANDIS ON RE-INSTATEMENT

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—The case against Jimmy O'Connell and Cory Dolan, members of the New York Giants baseball team, who were expelled from the team for their part in an attempted bribery deal remained unchanged today. Commissioner Landis announced after he had received a visit from each of the two players.

The commissioner denied that either of the two players who were accused of trying to get Heinie Sand, Philadelphia shortstop, to throw a game for $500, had appealed their cases, but it was understood he informed them both he had no reason now to change the verdict which expelled them from the game a week ago.

According to the commissioner, Dolan's principal object in visiting him was to explain to him that he had told Landis he "didn't remember" the circumstances related in O'Connell's confession, he, Dolan, meant he knew nothing about this whole "affair." Dolan has steadily denied implication in the affair, as charged by O'Connell.

SPORTSMAN WOULD SAVE FISH IN DRY DITCHES

State Game Warden and Southern Idaho Association Enlist Co-operation for Work on High Line Canal

In an effort to save trout and other game fish that will be stranded when water is shut out of certain irrigation ditches for repairs or other purposes during the fall and winter season, John T. Salisbury, deputy state game warden, and the Southern Idaho Fish and Game association are endeavoring to enlist co-operation of sportsmen generally, and especially of residents near such ditches.

The campaign is being planned with view immediately to preventing loss of fish incident to shutting off water from the high line canal October 15 to permit of repairing of concrete wall of the Cottonwood flume.

Not all of the fish that are stranded in the ditches will be removed to other waters, Mr. Salisbury stated. Tuesday evening, but effort will be made to save as many of the better game fish as possible. Persons co-operating in the effort will be given preference in distribution of injured trout, whitefish, herring and other fish whose removal will not be attempted, Mr. Salisbury stated.

GOSLIN. WASHINGTON FIELDER, TAKES GAME

ing a head of Joe Judge on Oscar Bluge's third safe blow of the game.

Spectacular Slugging.

The "Goose's" spectacular slugging made him not only the hero of the day, but also the idol of the crowd which after his clutch clutch gave him an ovation scarcely less vociferous than that of his own followers after his first homer, a potent factor in Washington's triumph on Sunday.

The crowd, as yesterday, was "with the" fighting Senators and their youthful pilot, Stanley Harris, who also was a startling figure at bat and on the field today. The Giants came in for their share of cheering, particularly in a fashion which has become typical to the series they rallied in the closing innings, but the crowd's loudest applause was with Washington and Goslin. There was another din of cheering for the "Goose" when he came out to bat in the seventh, and he showed his versatility by making a circus catch of a long drive off Wilson's bat.

Giants Baffled.

Meanwhile the Giants were baffled by southpaw shots off Morigridge, former New York Yankee moundman, who silenced the heaviest New York artillery with a puzzling change of pace and a tantalizing slow ball. For seven innings the McGraw men gathered but three hits off Morigridge, and two runs, one of which was due to an error and the other to a two-base blow by George Kelly. But in the eighth the southpaw developed a sudden streak of wildness and despite a five run lead was hastily withdrawn by Harris after the first two men to face him had walked.

Into this critical situation strode "Eli" Marberry, hero in a relief role in the second game, but 57 "hits" yesterday when he started for the Senators and was hammered from the hill. Marberry, who apparently is only at his best when performing a rescue act, met and turned back a determined giant act in both the eighth and ninth innings.

Gets a Two-Bagger.

Back Wilson, the first to face Marberry in the eighth, clouted a two-bagger that scored Young, while in the ninth Goslin's single, a freak wild throw by Rice which earned off first base for a two base error and Lindstrom's third hit produced another run. Lindstrom, advancing on a pass to Frisch, got to third when Young forced the giant captain, but Marberry tight-

U. S. Princess Sues and Duel Looms

PRINCESS & PRINCESS PIGNATELLI.

PRINCESS LUDDOVICO PIGNATELLI D'ARAGON, formerly Miss Ruth M. Waters of Little Silver, N. J., has left her illustrious Roman husband, finest swordsman in all Europe, and will secure a Paris divorce to marry Andrew Beld, Baltimore society man. In an impassioned scene in the Blarritz Casino, the prince challenged Beld to a duel, giving him the customary two weeks to answer. Pignatelli is said to have fought 30 sword duels, in all of which he was victor. Beld served in the French aviation corps until America entered the world war, when he joined the American air force.

Shun Civilization

Deep in the polar wilderness on the banks of the Kuyukuk river, heretofore all desire for the vanities of civilized life, live a dozen men with fortunes ranging from $25,000 to $50,000, according to an old-time prospector who is at Sitka on vacation. The men have native wives and are utterly content with life within the Arctic circle.

FALLS PROJECT WATERS WANTED

Gooding Project and Upper River Users Dealing for Supplies; Cuts Cost Here.

Negotiations with view to purchase by the Gooding project of between 150,000 and 200,000 acre feet, and by upper Snake river valley water users of approximately 300,000 acre feet of storage water in the American Falls reservoir have reached a stage where it is believed certain that the deal will be consummated.

News to this effect was brought here Tuesday by officials of the American Falls reservoir district who attended a conference Monday at American Falls at which sale of additional storage water in the big reservoir was under consideration, and who met here Tuesday to affix their signatures to $2,000,000 worth of bonds recently sold by the district.

Such additional sale of storage water for rights in the American Falls reservoir, it was stated, would materially reduce the amount to be paid by the district for participation in the construction of the reservoir project and for water rights therein. This reduction, under the contract for sale of the bonds would reduce the total of the amount of the district's bonds to be delivered to the purchasers.

American Falls water for the Gooding tract of the Big Wood River Canal project, according to plans under consideration, would be taken from Mill-

TEAMWORK APPEAL IS MADE AT RED CROSS ANNUAL CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 (AP)—An appeal for "team work" among all chapters of the American Red Cross was voiced today at the society's annual convention here by James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations in an address in which he said, despite the great development of the Red Cross in this country it had "not yet come to the end of organization or inventive genius." To this end he favored regional and state conferences for the purpose of forwarding subjects for discussion to the annual convention.

Mr. Fieser declared that the society was not "democratic in its organization," but added that "if it be the organization of aristocracy let it be an aristocracy of service and not of wealth or adherence to any point of view in the community." Finally, he stressed the necessity for all chapters to organize first aid and life saving instruction to combat the greater mortality due to the contrast in the number of automobiles and the improvement of transportation generally.

CORN ADVANCES ON THE GRAIN MARKET

What Finishes Unsettled at 1/2 Cent Net Lower to an Equal Advance: Bye at One Time Was Six Cents Off.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7 (AP)—With corn prices shooting upward and dry down the grain markets went through more varied changes today than have been witnessed here in a long time. Wet weather and sudden death of offerings sent local sellers of corn and lower prices during the last hour of trading that speculative attention shifted to the corn market and brought about a sharp upturn in values there. Flourish attempts to buy disclosed that the reaction was for sale and in some quarters significance was attached to the fact that late the price of Argentine corn has been gaining steadily as compared with corn in the United States. The inference was drawn that Argentine competition in this country had become negligible and that meanwhile the tremendous crop of Argentina had been domestic crop in danger of serious new damage should freezing temperatures be met with soon.

The wheat trade was virtually a draw battle in which alternating upturns and declines over a four cent range resulted largely from weather and drought notices preceded by a word of beneficial rains over part of Argentina. Estimates that export purchases of wheat would total 2,000,000 bushels helped to rally the market at the last.

On the other hand, more or less drought notices preceded by a word of beneficial rains over part of Argentina. Estimates that export purchases of wheat would total 2,000,000 bushels helped to rally the market at the last.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—Desultory trading characterized today's stock market with prices ranging generally small and unimportant. Total sales fell below 500,000 shares for the first time since the middle of September.

Buyers made an attempt to unseat the general list during the morning, centering their attacks on the sugar and a few vulnerable specialties but they failed to bring out much long stock and their efforts were soon abandoned. Operators on the long side, however, were unable to bid up prices without running into substantial volume of stock with the result that trading was rather listless in the latter half of the session.
