ANOTHER SEAT IN CONGRESS GIVEN TO REPUBLICANS

Strength of G. O. P. in House Now Placed at 247, or 29 More Than a Majority; Upset in Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—The republicans on the basis of revised election returns appeared today to have gained an additional seat in the house, bringing their total up to 274, or 29 more than a majority. The upset, in the first Oklahoma district, cut the democratic strength to 182 seats as against 207 in the present house.

On unofficial returns, Wayne Bayless, democrat, was winner by a scant margin in the Oklahoma district, but the official tabulation showed him 143 votes behind S. J. Montgomery, his republican opponent.

In the fifth Washington district, representative Hill, democrat, maintained a small lead over his republican opponent with the count virtually complete, while Representative Morrow, democratic representative at large from New Mexico, kept to the fore as the tabulation of votes proceeded slowly.

In New Mexico.

In New Mexico, Senator Durrum, republican, continued to trail Sam G. Bratton, democrat, but President Coolidge maintained a lead over John W. Davis. If final returns show Coolidge a winner in New Mexico his electoral college total will be 382, as all doubt as to his capturing North Dakota was removed today when the count there was practically completed.

Loss of New Mexico would cut the Davis electoral vote to 136, with Senator La Follette's total at 18.

CASSIA COUNTY CARRIED BY REPUBLICAN TICKET

Voters Give Plurality Ranging From 500 to 1000 for G. O. P. Candidates in Nation, State and County.

BURLEY, Nov. 7 (AP)—Cassia county in the election Tuesday went republican throughout the entire ticket with pluralities of from 500 to 1000 for the various candidates. Progressive votes were outstanding over democratic and a close race in Burley ended with a bare republican majority. Nelson for commissioner, Dunn for treasurer and Cordell and Burgell led the list with the most votes. Mrs. Wilder and Geyer led the list on the progressive ticket. Dr. E. P. Oldham stood several hundred votes ahead of the rest of the democratic ticket in his race for state senator. Borah, with over 2700 votes, polled more than anyone on the ticket in Cassia county.

On the state ticket Moore ran ahead of Samuels by 500. Froehner polling but one-seventh of the votes for governor.

Soviet Complaint To Be Ignored in Nation's Capital

Participation of Nationals in Colonizing Wrangell Island Stirs Up Russian Foreign Minister.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—Any complaint from the Russian soviet authorities as to participation by American nationals in efforts to colonize Wrangell island, off the north coast of Siberia, is likely to be ignored by the Washington government.

The reported action of the soviet foreign minister, while not mentioning Wrangell island, it is believed may have been prompted by discovery of a party of colonists on that island when the soviet transport Red October went there recently to raise the soviet flag.

The colonists, headed by an American named Wells, were taken off at their own request with winter approaching and insufficient supplies at their command. So far as it is known now, no plan to detain Wells and the Esquimaux who were with him on the island has been made by the soviet government.

At no time has the United States or any other nation than Russia laid claim to Wrangell island or to Herald island, a much smaller bit of land close by. The Washington government has refused to make any comment whatever, as to what flag should fly on these islands and has not been moved to dispute the resolution claim in any way.

Injunction Granted Against Brewery in Chicago; 2 in Jail

Lake and Druggan Serving Prison Terms; Court Grants Closing of Place.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson today granted a temporary injunction against the Illinois Beverage company, owned by Frank Lake and Terry Druggan. Lake and Druggan and the company figured in the testimony by Brice F. Armstrong before the senate committee investigating former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, following the attempted bombing of Armstrong's apartment. Armstrong testified in district court that beer was conveyed through steam pipes of Druggan's and Lake's brewery.

Druggan is on route under guard from San Francisco to begin serving a year's sentence in the county jail where Lake is already doing time.

PLAGUE TAKES 2 MORE LIVES

Hopes of Health Officials in Los Angeles High That Dread Disease Is Curbed.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7 (AP)—Hopes of health authorities to curb the epidemic of pneumonic plague in the Mexican colony here were sustained tonight when only two deaths had been reported in the past 24 hours, Dr. Walter M. Dickie, secretary of the state board of health, and director of the anti-plague committee, announced. The total death list is now 30.

Physicians and nurses on inspection tours twice daily through the stricken area are constantly on the alert for suspects, while a vigorous rat killing campaign is under way and aimed at the extermination of the rodents.

"The situation is favorable tonight," Dr. Dickie said, "but we are taking no chances and quarantine measures will be rigidly enforced until the disease is stamped out."

COMMISSION TO STUDY FARMING NEEDS IS NAMED

President Coolidge Appoints Robert D. Carey of Careyhurst, Wyo., to Head His Agricultural Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—President Coolidge announced the personnel of the commission to investigate agricultural conditions, with Robert D. Carey, of Careyhurst, Wyoming, as chairman.

Other members include O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation of Chicago; Charles S. Barrett, chairman of the National Board of Farm Organizations of Union City, Georgia; Louis J. Taber, master of the National Orange of Columbus, Ohio; Ralph P. Morrill, of Fresno, Cal., president of the Sunnival Raisin Growers; R. W. Thatcher, director of the New York experiment station of Geneva, N. Y.; W. C. Coffey, dean of the college of agriculture and director of the experiment station of the University of Minnesota; and Fred H. Dixie, president of the American National Livestock association, of Long Beach, California.

E. T. Clark, personal secretary to President Coolidge, in announcing the appointments, said the members probably would be called into conference in the near future. It also was said that further appointments might be made before the commission begins work.

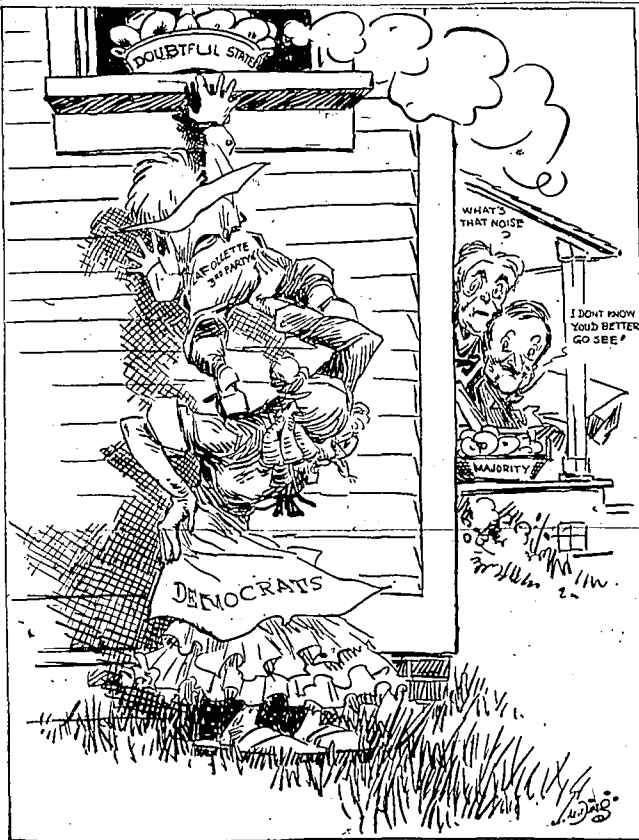

GOVERNMENT RESIGNS

VIENNA, Nov. 8 (AP)—The government, headed by Ignaz Seipel as chancellor, resigned early this morning. The resignation followed a general railroad strike which began at midnight in consequence of the failure of negotiations between the men's organizations and the federal railroad management.

Norse Expedition In West in 1010 Is Scientist's Claim

Finds Inscriptions on Rocks Which He Says Were Made by Early Visitors.

SPOKANE, Nov. 7 (AP)—Two discoveries which he believes will confirm deductions from inscriptions on rocks in the Pacific northwest that a Norse expedition visited this part of the country in 1010, A. D., were announced here today by Oluf L. Oppej, Norwegian scientist of this city, upon his return from a trip into northern Idaho and eastern Washington.

Oppej said he had found a Runic inscription telling of the burial of a Viking in armor and had located the supposed grave and had learned of the location of carved stone tablets giving the history of the early Norse expedition. As early next spring an official government supervision can be obtained, the grave will be opened and the tablet exhumed, he said. Snow in the hills where the finds were discovered will prevent earlier investigation.

SEEK HUGE SUM FROM TRUSTEES

Gould $82,000,000 Suit Comes to Close; Principals Ask for Return of Money.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Concluding argument today in behalf of Frank J. Gould, principal objector in the $82,000,000 accounting suit of the J. P. Morgan estate which was opened 18 months ago today, Walter B. Walker charged that principals of the residuary trust estate stood to lose $34,035,722.70 through the management of the estate by the trustees.

He announced that he would ask the court to compel the trustees to reimburse the estate to that amount plus interest at six per cent since 1895.

The trustees are Edwin Gould, Howard Gould, Mrs. Finley Shepard and testator of the late George J. Gould.

WOMEN MAY ENTER BRITISH CABINET

LONDON REPORTS THAT Stanley Baldwin, who will be the new British prime minister, may offer a cabinet portfolio to Lady Nancy Astor, the former Miss Nancy Langhorne of Virginia, the first woman elected to parliament. Friends of the Duchess of Atholl are urging her for a portfolio.

LODGE REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS

Famous Senator in Grave Condition; Comes Out of 48-Hour Coma Following Stroke

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 7 (AP)—The condition of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who suffered a stroke at the Charles Gates hospital here Wednesday, remained grave tonight, according to his physicians.

After lying for nearly 4 hours in a state of coma, Senator Lodge today regained consciousness and took a little nourishment. Tonight, in his bulletin, his physicians announced that the periods of consciousness had been more sustained and that he had taken more nourishment since noon.

"Senator Lodge's physical condition remains grave," the bulletin issued at 6:15 p. m. by Drs. John H. Cunningham and Frederick H. Winslow, stated.

Takes Nourishment.

"Since noon he has taken more nourishment and periods of consciousness have been more sustained."

On arousing from his long period of unconsciousness today, the senator drew a watch from Dr. Cunningham's pocket and looked at it. Later he was able to speak a few words to those at his bedside.

His physicians today commented upon the vitality which has enabled the senator, who is in his 75th year, to continue his fight for life throughout the two-day period in which little hope was held out for him and during which, at times, death was expected momentarily.

Senator Lodge had rallied rapidly after two operations this year, one in July and the second on October 20. The stroke Wednesday came entirely without warning at a time when Senator Lodge was almost ready for discharge from the hospital. It involved the rupture of a blood vessel in the brain. Dr. Cunningham explained, being similar in nature to the strokes suffered in many cases by aged persons.

EARTHQUAKE IN ALGERIA.

ALGERS, Nov. 7 (AP)—Earthquake shocks today caused widespread damage in the region 15 miles southwest of Algiers. The walls of all the houses were cracked by the tremors and the people stricken population fled to the fields where they are camping out.

NEW CABINET IN ENGLAND TAKES UP ITS DUTIES

Ramsay MacDonald and His Ministers Relinquish Government to Baldwinites; Woman Is Appointed to Office.

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP)—King George today bade farewell to Ramsay MacDonald and his ministers and later sat at a cabinet council presided over by the new prime minister, Stanley Baldwin.

The remaining appointments to Mr. Baldwin's cabinet are not likely to be announced officially before next Tuesday. It is generally agreed that, like the late labor government, there will be one woman member in the new administration and that the choice will fall upon the Duchess of Atholl. In the MacDonald ministry Miss Margaret Bondfield held the post of parliamentary secretary of the ministry of labor.

Has Good Support.

Mr. Baldwin has excellent newspaper support for his government. He is reminded that he is "fortune's favorite" in that, after his recent fall on the protectionist issues he now inherits a greater majority than ever fell to the lot of some of Great Britain's most famous ministers. Both his supporters and opponents among the newspapers congratulate the premier on having shown fearlessness, independence and good judgment in the selection of his cabinet.

The councillors in the conservative press are careful to explain to Mr. Baldwin that they do not want him to adopt labor's platform; but they declare that mere stability or tranquility will not suffice, and they hint at the same time that in the distribution of the remaining government posts some of the younger and more advanced representatives of the conservative party should be chosen.

HEARING IS POSTPONED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—The senate committee investigating campaign expenses may not resume hearings until after congress convenes, Chairman Borah said today. Three members of the committee are now in their home states and are not expected in Washington until shortly before congress opens. Several members of the committee are in favor of suggesting legislation controlling campaign expenditures and this will be taken up in conference when the full membership is present.

RECOVER JEWELS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Detectives tonight recovered between $150,000 and $175,000 worth of jewels which were stolen in a New Orleans hotel last Tuesday from Henry Ager, New York salesman, and arrested two men.

Geneva Considers Ways of Stopping Smoking of Opium

Difficulty Lies in Ease With Which Drug Is Smuggled From China to Other Nearby Countries, Is Assertion.

GENEVA, Nov. 7 (AP)—The difficulty of drafting a general plan to curb opium smoking has been considerable since the production of opium continues heavy in China, was the subject of discussion among powers having far eastern possessions during the session today of the international opium conference. It was contended that so much opium is smuggled out of China that other far eastern countries that any plans that powers themselves might frame, would be made ineffective by contraband activities.

S. Alfred Soe, Chinese minister to the United States, addressed the conference admitting that there was considerable cultivation of opium in China, but saying this was due to the ambition of militarists, "who encourage local production of the poppy as a means of raising revenue to purchase arms."

Happily, he added, internal political situation had improved and with the conference of provincial leaders would open soon at Peking to discuss administrative reforms. He had sent a message to Peking urging prompt attention to adoption of measures for suppression of opium cultivation which was altogether contrary to Chinese laws. Mr. Soe pleaded for world sympathy for China in her present plight.

THE GUMPS—GOOD-BY, BOYS, I'M THROUGH

Business Will Increase Since Election is Over

Roger Babson, Famous Statistician, Claims Expansion Will Follow Now That November 4 Has Passed.

BABSON PARK, Mass., Nov. 7.—(Special to The News.)—Roger W. Babson today issued the following statement regarding the election and business:

"Everything in this world has its advantages and its disadvantages as well as its uses and abuses. This applies to the effect of presidential elections on business as well as to everything else. Even sicknesses have their uses, since they force men to lie quiet for a while, rest up, review their plans, make new resolutions and start afresh. A great English statesman once said: 'American business men need only one thing, namely, to be locked in a room for about three weeks each year and forced to think and get their bearings.' In this general way the election does a good thing in slowing down business for a few weeks preceding election day. Everyone can use the election as an alibi, or as an excuse, to do what he has not the self-control to do without such an alibi. This applies to all lines of business, and really is a good thing."

Wash on Election.
"The banks hold off loaning money until after election. This gives them a chance to get cleared up and in a strong financial position. The merchants tell the salesmen who call on them 'to wait until after election.' This gives them time to get their shelves cleaned and work off old stock preparatory to some real buying. The manufacturer uses the election as an alibi to reduce overhead, adjust wages, and introduce some real efficiency in the business. Of course, all these things mean business quiet for two or three months preceding election day, but they are all helpful. Hence, although business has been pretty poor in many lines during the summer and fall, yet little has been lost and much gained by the house-cleaning and rest period that this election and campaign has caused. Business as shown by the Babson chart, is today 3 per cent below normal as compared with 16 per cent below normal a year ago. Obviously the fundamental situation is much better than it was then."

"It is interesting to note the action of the commodity market in election years. Taking the last five election years—1904, 1908, 1912, 1916, 1920—we find that the price level of all commodities advanced in four years and declined in one. The decline was shown during the drastic readjustment and depression of 1920 and 1921. Dr. E. C. Fisher's index shows that the price level reached a low of 7.631 in July, 1920. Then there was a steady climb to a point six months later of 8.082. 1908 and 1909 was an exact duplicate of the 1920 movement. 1912 and 1913 was an exception and four years later, we again saw a similar move—a low in August, 1916, of 11.441, then a steady rise six months later to about 14.100. The next election year, 1920, found prices steadily downward."

Follows Movement.
"So far, 1924 has followed exactly the movement noted in the four years of rising prices."
"Both groups of commodities, industrial and agricultural, sympathized with the trends mentioned above. The main difference, however, is noted in the fact that industrial commodities, as shown by the Bureau of Industrial Statistics, in 1904, 1908, 1912 and 1916 reached the yearly low point before the election and held a higher average into the inauspicious year, while agricultural products in these same years reached their low after election."

"The results of the election are not satisfactory to everyone. Many people who have worked hard are disappointed with the result. All of us, whatever our allegiance—would like to have had something different. The fact, nevertheless, remains that the election is over and the alibi and excuses of election can no longer be given. Now it is up to the banker to make loans; up to the merchant to buy the

WEALTHY CITY HIT BY SOVIET

Nowhere Is Revolution in Russia Felt So Much as in Capital Tartar Republic.

KAZAN, Tartar Republic, Russia, Nov. 7 (AP)—Nowhere in Russia is the blighting influence of the Russian revolution seen more strikingly than in Kazan, capital of the newly created Tartar republic and once one of the most prosperous cities in Europe. If death itself had ever taken the city the ravages could not have been greater. The great factories are idle, the stores empty and abandoned, the homes are crumbling in ruins, and the people seem stricken with hopelessness and despair.

The bronze and granite monuments to Alexander the Second and other historical figures of Russia have been wrecked and replaced with harsh Communist figures of workmen. From all flags the red flag of the revolution flies. To many it is only the grim reminder of the spiritual death of the city, which has been in Russia's possession since the days of Ivan the Terrible.

The commercial life of Kazan is at a stand still. Half the population, finding conditions intolerable, have left for neighboring cities which promise a better existence. The roadways are so little used that grass and weeds are growing in the cracks between the paving stones. Many of the stores are either shuttered or windowless. The quantities of leather, soap, candles, wheat and other staples which the city annually exported are but memories of its past greatness. It now has nothing to export. It barely produces enough for its own maintenance.

Columbia Old College

Columbia college, which was first known as King's college, was established in the middle of the Eighteenth century, and save for a few years during the Revolutionary war, it has carried on its work in the city of New York. It was the college of Alexander Hamilton, John Jay, Robert R. Livingston, De Witt Clinton, Hamilton Fish and many other outstanding figures in the history of this nation.

Date of Creation Unknown

Many theologians have occupied themselves with the problem of the actual date of creation. Bishop Ussher computed the year at 4094 B. C. A universal history, a work of 42 volumes, published in London in 1770, devotes some space to the fixing of the actual time. It discusses the probability of its being March 21, 4004 B. C. and September 21, 4004 B. C. and inclines toward the latter date.

Vanity Characteristic

Statues made in Crete some 5,000 years ago show such slender waists that ladies at that time very likely wore some sort of corsets. The lure of the slender waist haunted the ancient women from the Far East to the western shores of Europe. References to corsets are found in the writings of the classic Greeks and Romans.

TREES TO HELP JUDGE KIND OF WEATHER AHEAD

Scientist Spends 20 Years Studying Methods Where Markings Will Assist in Making Accurate Predictions.

TUCSON, Arizona, Nov. 7 (AP)—The tree as an accurate and reliable assistant in the task of long range weather forecasting may be the outcome of more than 20 years of study by Dr. A. E. Douglass, director of Seward observatory and professor of astronomy at the University of Arizona here.

A definite connection between the annual rings on trees and rainfall has been established, Dr. Douglass said. The first linking of such a possibility occurred, to the scientist 20 years ago while he was working near Prescott, Arizona. He discovered that the annual rings on pine trees there corresponded by showing rapid or slow seasonal growth, to the average rainfall over the past 40 years.

Tree Rings.
From the tree rings, Dr. Douglass worked out the probable variations of the sun during the past four or five centuries. He received striking corroboration of his theories and work more than two years ago in a letter from Dr. E. W. Maunder, an English astronomer, who has been studying the sun's spots historically and found a dearth of them from 1650 to 1715. Dr. Douglass' further studies have indicated that such a condition can be traced through the annual rings on the pine trees.

Scientific Classic.
Dr. Douglass' pamphlet on the subject, "Some Aspects of the Use of the Annual Rings of Trees in Climate Studies," recently was selected by the Smithsonian Institution as one of the scientific classics of the year. The Arizona scientist has been invited to speak on the subject before the Carnegie Institute at Washington, D. C., in December.

He hopes to aid materially in increasing the accuracy of long range weather forecasting through his discoveries. At present he is investigating the giant Sequoias, some of which have been pronounced the oldest living things. He hopes to obtain data for a period extending probably 3000 years back.

CLOSING ORDER BEAT BY BLAZE

Prosecuting Attorney Dismisses Complaint When Pool Hall at Rogerson Burns.

Destruction of fire between 3 and 4 o'clock Friday morning of the building occupied by the St. Regis pool hall at Rogerson caused Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor in district court here today to require the sheriff to file a formal application for a court order permanently closing the premises because of its alleged use for violation of the liquor laws. Hearing on the application was to have been held Friday morning. Doors of the building had been unlocked by sheriff's office operatives early last week when they served an order closing the premises pending final determination in the case.

The blaze Friday morning destroyed also a four-room dwelling at the rear of the pool hall which had been occupied by W. G. Griffin, one of the proprietors of the pool hall, who was today lodged in the county jail in default of $500 bond to which he was admitted last Wednesday when he was by Judge O. P. Duvall in probate court here held to answer to charge of illegal possession of liquor.

Loss caused by the fire is said to be covered largely by $2000 insurance. Owners of the property are the Rogerson Department store and three men, who had conveyed it by deed to J. E. Roberts of Twin Falls as trustee.

MURDERED HUSBAND CLAIM

SENATOBIA, Miss., Nov. 7 (AP)—Just as Mrs. Will Sears boarded a passenger train here Wednesday for Nettleton, Ark., to attend the funeral of her husband who was shot to death at their home in the eastern part of the county, she was arrested by Sheriff W. G. Cooke and charged with complicity in the murder, it was learned today. According to a statement of the county officers, Sears and his wife were out in the backyard and as she walked over to a clothes line the man was fired upon at close range with a shotgun loaded with buckshot.

Charges Parents Miss Opportunity

High School Principal Sees Decline of Understanding in Home.

There is far less understanding between parents and their children now than there was 25 years ago, and much of parental responsibility has been shifted to the teachers' shoulders, Miss Mary Ruth Fisher, principal of the Twin Falls high school, told a gathering of about 200 women assembled in the Christian church here Friday afternoon at a semi-annual meeting of the Union Missionary society. Miss Fisher spoke on the subject, "Building for Life." She urged parents to put forth greater effort to reach a plane of better understanding with their children, and cautioned against policy of license on the one hand or arbitrary and unreasonable repression on the other.

Miss Fisher's address came at the close of an all-day meeting in which representatives of the missionary societies of all Twin Falls churches and of the Women's Christian Temperance Union participated. Mrs. H. T. Blake, representative of the W. C. T. U., at the forenoon session read a paper on "Love," and women of the Baptist church presented a Japanese pageant. Brief reports were given by Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. David Schuster, Mrs. George C. Wiley and Mrs. Charles P. Wright. A five minute talk on "What are we doing for our young people," were given at the afternoon session by Mrs. W. Montooth, representative of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. G. M. Hall, Mrs. T. F. Warner, Mrs. C. E. Allen and Mrs. J. D. Wadlan, representatives respectively of the missionary societies of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Christian and Baptist churches.

Devotional services at the opening of the forenoon session was led by Mrs. E. Scott and at the afternoon session by Mrs. Goodrich.

The program included a reading by Mrs. Weaver, solos by Mrs. C. E. Potter, Mrs. O. D. Harris and Mrs. ZeZnas Smith, and numbers by a quartet composed of Mrs. Nunemaker, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Westcott and Miss Graham.

sphere. Hot winds prevailing in Argentina emphasized the need of moisture, and an estimate was current that the Argentine exportable surplus would be only 110,000,000 bushels, the small amount needed for this far the season, and 50,000,000 bushels under the year's total. Heavy rains in Australia threatened to result in a wet harvest there, tended further to stimulate buying. Cash wheat premiums meanwhile scored a decided advance.

Corn and oats benefited their upturns chiefly from wheat strength. In fact, the corn market trended downward on account of cold weather and prospective enlarged receipts.

Provisions advanced with hogs and grain.

IDAHO PLAN FOR HONORING HERO DEAD EXPLAINED

Memorial Association Director Addresses Members of County Committee; Gives Figures on Toll of Lives.

Out of 21,000 Idaho men who served with the nation's armed forces during the world war, according to available records, 765 sacrificed their lives, and the proportion of deaths amounting to 3.7 per cent, was double that of almost any other state, according to statement of Ernest F. Ayres, of Boise, state director for the Idaho Memorial association, at a meeting Friday evening in the probate court rooms here of members of a committee appointed by E. J. Ostrander, Twin Falls county chairman for the memorial association.

Records in the possession of the association, Mr. Ayres stated, show that 1333 Twin Falls county men entered the military or naval service during the world war, and that 34 of them made the supreme sacrifice.

County's Quota Fixed.
Plans of the memorial association for erection on the campus of the University of Idaho at Moscow of a building to be used for gymnasium and armory as a memorial to Idaho's war dead were explained in detail by Mr. Ayres at this meeting, and preliminary steps were taken toward launching of a campaign in this county to raise the county's quota of $20,000 for the memorial.

Mr. Ostrander already has announced the appointment of chairmen for the campaign in the several communities of the county and this organization is to be extended with view to beginning the campaign at an early date.

Discussion at the meeting Friday evening indicated that plans would be carried out whereby subscribers to the memorial fund might defer payments on their subscriptions.

Appointment of Merlin G. Batley of this city to be secretary of the memorial campaign committee for this county was announced by Mr. Ostrander.

SALMON RIVER COMPANY DISCLAIMS LIABILITY

Disclaimer of any liability for approximately $150,000 in damages alleged to have been suffered because of failure of the Salmon River Canal company to deliver water to lands of A. E. Caldwell outside the restricted areas of the Salmon River project during the seasons of 1921, 1922 and 1923, is contained in an answer to the complaint filed Friday in district court here in the case of Caldwell against the Salmon River Canal company.

Five affirmative defenses are contained in the answer which was filed for the canal company by its legal representative, Judge J. R. Rothwell of this city. Trial in the case is expected to take place at an early date.

Students' Essay Contest Winner Tells Reasons for War Memorial

Text of Kimberly Boy's Argument for Building to Honor Idaho's Heroic Dead Is Given to Public.

Among several hundred essays written by pupils of Twin Falls county schools setting forth reasons for erection of a memorial building in honor of Idaho's war dead, the best, according to decision of judges announced by Miss Charlotte Pond superintendent of public instruction, was one written by Charles Kimpton, 17, student of Kimberly high school. Here is the text of his essay:

Why Should We Erect a Memorial Building in Honor of Idaho's Soldier Dead?

History gives us a record of the erection of many monuments or memorials, dedicated to preserve the memory of some great hero or cause. Today we are questioning the erection of such a memorial.

We should do this for this reason, if for no other; because it is the custom that wherever a worthy cause is found a visible remembrance should immortalize it. Practically every country of which we have any record has done this. We have commemorated other causes. Why not commemorate this cause?

This recent war has been the greatest struggle in history. It has decided the greatest questions of any conflict. Surely this cause is not less significant than others.

Other countries, ancient and modern, have commemorated their heroes. Certainly we think as much of our heroes as they.

If we fail to commemorate our heroes, it is obvious that we either do not care as much or we are not advancing in this respect.

Many men who fought in these two great wars have returned home unharmed. They have met again their dear ones and now live in peace with them and their country. But, think what the dying soldier gave up. He sold the supreme sacrifice; gave his life that we might live in peace under the principles which our Stars and Stripes enfold. There is but one just and honorable thing left for us to do, which is to treasure up their memory, so our hearts by building this memorial, which will mean the most to those who lost relatives or friends.

At this time in our country the great piece of sculpture work in the world is being erected, representing the "Lost Cause of the South," and costing many times as much as Idaho's memorial will cost. Then why should we not dedicate a triumphant cause, a much more important cause than the Stone Mountain memorial represents?

The Statue of Liberty, which represents the hundredth anniversary of American independence, and stands for the liberty, justice and immortality of America, has inspired many people to take a new interest in American democracy, the principle upon which America is based; the foundation stone of that figure. The Idaho memorial will serve the same purpose. It will show our posterity that we honored those who died for our principles.

It is becoming the custom today that whenever a memorial is erected it should be helpful as well as commemorative. This memorial will add a great deal to the attractiveness of the state and university, since it is to be of such a form.

In the Bible the seventh verse of the thirteenth chapter of Romans contains the words: "Render tribute to whom tribute is due; honor to whom honor is due. This it is our duty to God to honor them."

Therefore, for these reasons, I believe that we should erect this memorial in honor of Idaho's "Soldier and Soldier Dead."

Present Responsibility

While we have no say as regards the kind of man timber out of which our ancestors were made, we must remember we have a say and are responsible for the man timber out of which our descendants will be fashioned.
