MAY GO UNDER

THREE BILLION

Government Expenses Will Be Cut Considerably if Present Plans of Budget Bureau Are Followed Out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—The extent of running the federal government in the fiscal year beginning next July 1, will fall below three billion dollars, or a billion dollars less than the estimated expenditures for the current fiscal year. On the basis of estimates prepared by the budget bureau and on which its conference with the senate's jurisdiction of the government practically have been completed, the anticipated appropriations for the fiscal year ending on July 1, at tonight at $2,230,000,000, exclusive of the postoffice department, the receipts which are expected to balance the expense.

Budget of 1926.

Officials of the budget still have work to do on the "budget of 1926" which will be submitted by the president to congress during early session. It is believed that they have gone so thoroughly in every estimate, great and small, as changes to be made hereafter will be the nature of thousands rather than millions of dollars.

Brigadier General H. M. Lord, director of the budget, will go over the figures and tabulations with President Coolidge some time next week and after that it is expected, the government estimates will be ready for the public printer and next stage in transmission to the president and to congress.

This item alone in the current year will run about $370,000,000, and the total at the end of July 1, it approaches a billion dollars. One part of this is the sinking fund, which work to the retirement of the great war debt, will require at $150,000,000 actual appropriation in addition to the payments by foreign nations in liquidation of their debts to the United States.

New Policies.

Budget figures at this time therefore show less than $3,000,000,000, but there ably will run about $3,500,000,000. Figures taken at face value the appropriations already made, the known public debt requirements and a small deficit the postoffice department, the amount which cannot at this time be known definitely. It may be reduced, however, through the constant striving of the bureau to keep its expenditures at the lowest possible figure.

Twin Falls highway district commissioners, at a meeting here Saturday noon, decided to grade by force across two miles of road running east and west, across north end of the lake.

VIRGINIA CLERK INVENTED POST OFFICE BOXES

Devised in 1810 by Thomas Brown at Richmond, Is Claim of His Great-Granddaughter of Florida.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Thomas Brown, a clerk in the Richmond, Va., postoffice in 1810, has been given official credit for having invented the "post-office box."

While there are no postoffice department records to show that Brown was the first to make and put the postoffice box into use, there is nothing on file to disprove the claim made for him by his great-granddaughter, Miss Mary D. Lewis of Tallahassee, Fla.

Postmaster General New therefore, has replied to a letter from Miss Lewis presenting the claim by stating he is ready to give Brown the benefit of the doubt, and acknowledge him as the inventor.

Brown's invention, published some time after his death, fully set forth the circumstances leading to the invention. He wrote:

Data Given.

"I was the inventor or planner of post-office boxes. There were times of embargo, non-intercourse, etc., and of course application was made for the boxes. It was important and therefore there was always a great rush to the postoffice, on soon as the mail came in, for letters. The universal plan was to hand out letters from a round pane of glass from the front window. I have seen the whole street blocked with people waiting their turn to get to the window to ask for letters."

Tells How It Started.

Brown was asked to devise a plan to remedy the situation. He did so by fitting a partition across a large room, filling it with pigeon holes covered at one end with glass with each hole numbered in front and bearing the name of the box holder at the open end. About 400 boxes were quickly engaged at 50 cents for each three months. Brown's plan is still utilized in postoffices throughout the smaller cities and towns of the country.

SMALL TORNADO DOES DAMAGE TO HAZELTON SCHOOL AND BUILDINGS

HAZELTON, Nov. 8.—(Special to the News).—Crowds of workers were busy clearing away debris and attempting to repair part of the heavily damaged school building and other buildings in the city as well as to houses and smaller buildings in the country nearby.

The tornado struck but a short time following a basketball game at the high school building and had the game been in session at the time several persons would probably have been seriously injured or killed.

Parts of the roof were carried a block away and a large beam was thrust through the Presbyterian church roof, across the street from the high school. The school building itself was badly twisted. A scuffling from the roof was driven through a floor into one of the rooms below.

HANSEN

HANSEN—Mrs. Bryan has rented her home to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Almsworth and will leave soon for Kennewick, Wash., where she will spend the winter with a son.

Chas. Hansen had his thumb almost severed Wednesday while tapping beets. He was hurried to a doctor and the necessary stitches were taken to replace it and he is getting along fine at present.

Earl Allen and wife of Buhl spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. J. Hansen was a business caller in Twin Falls Tuesday.

Latest reports from Mrs. Hannah Sampson are that she is convalescing satisfactorily from her injuries received from a fall at her home some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scherrup entertained about 40 young people at their spacious home north of town Saturday evening, complimentary to their son, Magnus Gustaf, and Wilma, from California, who is visiting at their home. The evening was spent in playing games and Mrs. Scherrup served a delicious luncheon at 11:30.

Miss Margaret Smith has acted as substitute teacher for the seventh and eighth grades during the week in the absence of the regular teacher on account of illness.

The Hazleton football team went down in defeat to the Chaffee eleven last Saturday afternoon. The game was not as well attended by local spectators as was expected and the boys were entitled to more support from the town than they received.

The excitement over election Tuesday was brought to a climax on that evening when a mass meeting of the citizens was held in the community church. During the early part of the evening an impromptu program was given, consisting of readings by Mrs. Koenig, Mrs. Torgerson, Florence Nelson, Mrs. Kelsey, Miss Durham, interspersed with music by the orchestra, piano solos by Margaret Smith and Ida Klummen, a violin solo by Mrs. Klummen, and several selections by the male quartet.

Miss Esther Kihle of Rupert, representative of the University of Idaho, met with the Junior North White girls at the home of Mrs. H. H. H. on Thursday evening and organized a home sewing club. The following officers were elected: President, Frieda Scherrup; secretary, Georgia Scherrup. The instruction will be given by Mrs. Severance and Lillian Nelson. Marie Nelson is conducting a class on Thursday evening of each week for the Senior North White girls, covering interior art decoration.

A pleasant dinner was served in the church dining room on Friday evening, November 8, at the Junior Boys' home, given to the Men's Bible class and their wives, the North White club and the school teachers.

The nutrition class met at the church Thursday afternoon for further organization. Officers chosen at the first meeting were: Mrs. Roper, president; Mrs. Nelson, vice president; Mrs. Charles Collier, secretary. Plans were made to obtain books from the state library and buildings from Washington, D. C., for use of the class. The lesson on Thursday covered food analysis and at the next meeting the class will take up a discussion on preparation of salads.

IDAHO DEFEATS OREGON ELEVEN

PLAY BASEBALL GAME AT PARIS

Brilliant Aerial Attack Sends Visitors at Moscow Down in 13-to-0 Game.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 8 (AP)—With the aid of a brilliant aerial attack the University of Idaho defeated the University of Oregon eleven here this afternoon, 13 to 0, in a game that was played almost throughout the day in heavy snowfall. Idaho ripped into the Oregon team from the start and in the opening period started their attack. They scored their first touchdown when Vesper leaped into the air and took a pass beneath the Oregon goal posts for a touchdown five minutes after the opening whistle. Stivers induced the kick for goal.

Oregon resorted to line blocking in the second period and advanced to within a foot of the goal line, where they lost the ball on a fumble. Stivers punted a yard to safety. Idaho renewed its aerial attack in the third period. After a series of passes and line thrusts Stivers passed six yards over the goal line to Nelson for a second touchdown.

He also converted goal.

Oregon threatened the Idaho goal line three times during the game, being the last one in the fourth period on the Idaho forward line. Idaho outplayed Oregon all the way, making more yardage in accumulating passing and punting. Stivers was the main cog in the Idaho machine with his passing and punting.

French Watch Big League Players at Stadium and Wonder What It's All About.

PARIS, Nov. 8 (AP)—More than 6000 French spectators, more or less bored, although somewhat curious, were introduced to baseball today when the New York Giants defeated the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 0, in an exhibition game at the Olympic stadium.

There were some signs of interest when the Giants tallied six runs in the seventh and single runs in the following two innings. But the French seemed rather puzzled to know what it was all about. They expressed some surprise when hot liners appeared and blazing grounders were gathered in and shot to first, but it all looked so easy that they soon took an interest in the game.

The American players, there, were a number of them—valued their disappointment at intervals, for they found the game slow with few flashes of the league form displayed. Hughey Jennings, jumping up and down on the coaching line, said:

"This is like a funeral."

When Heineke took a hot liner from the bat of Duke Turner, the French "bust" and to their feet and asked: "Why did he stop it?"

One Frenchman remarked to another: "Why is it not an open-air association football?"

CHICAGO HOLDS ILLINOIS TEAM

Upset of Football Year Comes When Maroons Launch Attack That Results in Tie.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 (AP)—In a most startling upset of the 1924 western conference football race, Chicago held to a 3 to 3 tie by Ohio State, fought Illinois, outstanding favorite to capture the championship, to a 24 to 2 tie today in a game that for sheer desperation of fight, never has been equaled on college fields.

The Maroons, who had been figured to fall an easy victim to the super-Illinois eleven, as Michigan and Iowa eleven fell before them, unleashed a cyclonic attack at the very moment of attempting to puzzle out a way of stopping the famous Harold "Red" Grange.

Before the game had been under way five minutes the Illinois, forced on the defensive, had reason to believe they were playing eleven "Red" Granges, chief of whom was Austin McCarty. His pound fullback, who ripped the Illinois line to pieces, momentarily wrecked the morale of Illinois warriors and had smashed his way over for a touchdown after a steady march down the field almost before Illinois knew what it was all about. Then the Maroons repeated the drive and the Illinoismen went over for a second touchdown on the first play of the second period. It was only after this second touchdown that Chicago had to start thinking about Grange.

It was all a part of Coach Stange's strategy of stifling Zuppke's offensive thunder and bounding the ball into the Illinois territory instead of playing a defensive game and waiting for a chance to stop Grange.

The game, witnessed by a capacity crowd of 23,000 spectators, was full of thrills from the very first kickoff.

INVOKES CONSTITUTION TO GET SUIT DISMISSED

Dr. A. H. House of Chicago Contends Service of Summons While He Attended Court in Boise Is Illegal.

Violation of immunity accorded by the constitution is alleged in a complaint filed in the United States district court at Boise, for Dr. Arthur H. House of Chicago, by his attorney, T. R. Hackman, of this city, against J. O. Brown and R. E. Brown, doing business under the name of Brown Brothers Sheep company, and their attorneys, J. R. Bethwell and W. Orr Chapman and Asher B. Wilson of this city. Dr. House, it is alleged in the complaint, while attending federal court at Boise, was served with summons in a suit started in district court here by the Browns against House and Fred F. Herter for recovery of $55 claimed to be due on account of sheep sold by the Browns to Herter who, it was alleged, was a partner of House in the operation of farm land on the Salmon River project. This proceeding, Dr. House in his complaint contends, was in violation of his constitutional immunity, and Judge F. S. Dietrich of the federal court has ordered the Browns and their attorneys to appear in United States district court at Boise December 15 to show cause why they should not be restrained from proceeding in the state court against Dr. House and why their complaint to the state court against him should not be ordered dismissed.

AMERICA LEADS WORLD IN CLAIM

Swedish Political Figure Declares Country Has Built Up Majestic Structure.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 8 (AP)—Americanization is the key to the future of the world, and America, clearly on her way to the cultural hegemony of the world, has in the short period of 16 years built up a majestic national structure which has no counterpart in the history of the world, according to Professor John Bergman, leader of the liberal party in Sweden's liberal party, in one of the most striking speeches in the present election campaign, delivered vividly and published throughout the Swedish press.

Professor Bergman, who is incidentally a leader of the prohibition movement in Sweden, said that the reasons for the gigantic growth of the United States were to be found, not in natural resources alone, since other unexploited regions of the world had resources that were virtually just as great, but in the fact that the American people, whose might and daring, have harnessed industry, and with common sense, mainly in taking a high standard of sound living under liberal laws. He urged Sweden to follow America's example, to show bold initiative in undertaking to develop on a still larger scale her own resources of mineral deposits, forests and water power.

Edited by Mrs. E. B. Williams

Mrs. Lionel Dean was hostess at a very delightful kitchen shower on Friday evening at her home on Jefferson street for Miss Judith Jones, sister of Mrs. J. C. Sanger, who is to be married next week to Mr. F. G. Wilkinson of Spokane. Fourteen guests were present and the evening was spent with games and a general social time. At a late hour the hostess served dainty refreshments.

On Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Stronk the members of the Addison Avenue Social club entertained their husbands with a four-course turkey dinner. Covers were laid for twenty at one large table which was beautifully decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums by Clara Williams and were his gift to the club. Yellow candlesticks with white candles, place cards and nut cups carried out the yellow and white color scheme. Contests and music furnished amusement for the evening. The club voted this the most pleasant affair of the season.

The Country Women's club met with Mrs. E. J. Winkington on Wednesday afternoon and was in the form of a Kensington. Mrs. L. J. Miller, who was the club delegate to the district convention at Oakley, gave a very complete and interesting report of the meeting. The club decided to serve lunch at the A. W. Dingle sale next Thursday, November 13.

The Misses Edna and Ruth Beauchamp entertained the S. M. club Friday evening at their home on Tenth avenue north. Miss Dorothy McMillan won the favor for high score in the bridge games which formed the amusement. Dainty refreshments were served after the game. Miss Mary Maul Markey and Miss Lillian Swanson were guests of the club.

Mrs. Charles E. Jones and Miss Clara Billiar entertained Friday evening at the home of the former on Second avenue north for the teachers of the Washington school and a few friends. Bridge was the diversion with six tables of players; first and second prizes being won respectively by Mrs. W. A. Patrick and Miss Marian Wright. The rooms were attractive with yellow and white chrysanthemums and the same color scheme was carried out in the dainty two-course luncheon served at the close of the game.

Mrs. H. C. Dickerson and Dr. Bula C. Sawyer were hostesses to the Past Mission's club Friday evening. Ball call was responded to with current events. During the business session plans were made for the entertainment of the Grand Matron who will be here this month. Light refreshments were served. Mrs. Blue was a guest of the club and eighteen members were in attendance.

ONCE IN A WHILE.

Even the newspaper business has its moments of satisfaction when the routine of the day's work is lifted to a higher plane through a friendly word of commendation such as that contained in a letter received today from a former resident of Twin Falls.

Mr. R. A. Reed,
The Daily News,
Twin Falls, Idaho.

My dear Reed:
I long to heartily congratulate "The News" on its admirable report of the late election—especially in so far as Twin Falls County is concerned.

Appreciating the immense labor involved, I wish to say that the necessary rearrangement, the securing, consolidation and publication, in tabular form, the very first morning after election, of substantially the complete vote of the county for each of the multitudinous candidates, constitutes a feat well worthy of note, and one not accomplished by any other Idaho paper, large or small, so far as I am advised.

With kind regards, yours very truly,
C. L. LONGLEY.
An occasional expression of appreciation is the thing which makes newspapers possible. There may be other compensations but this is the principal one.

ONE-PIECE BUILDINGS.

Houses and more pretentious buildings hereafter may be comparable to union suits. The one-piece building has arrived.

It started with the "poured" structure of concrete, devised by Edison and described by the fancy Greek word "monolith," which signifies "one-stone." That type of structure has not yet made such headway as the inventor expected, but it is gaining, and is sure to become more popular as lumber becomes scarce and expensive and architects work out more attractive forms of concrete homes.

Now it is the one-piece structure of steel, or of steel and concrete, with the steel parts all welded together and the skeleton surrounded and filled out with concrete in the usual way.

Engineers belonging to the American Welding Society say that welding is the coming thing in architecture, and will take the place of riveting. The idea of the pneumatic riveter will give way to the roar of the gas torch or the flare of the electric welder. When a job is finished, the skeleton will be literally one great piece of steel, as if shaped on the forge of some super-human blacksmith. There are said to be big advantages in this process, in time and cost of construction and in the strength of the structure itself.

Now let the engineers provide a fancy word for that. The obvious companion word of "monolith," which according to the Greek dictionary would be "monochalyb," somehow seems a bit lacking in euphonic appeal.

AT LAST—A BLONDE HAIR SHAMPOO!

Keeps Light Hair From Darkening—
Lightens Faded Blonde Hair.

When light haired people wash their hair in an ordinary way, a thin film of oil is left on each hair, which collects dirt and dust, causing the hair to darken. This is why blondes should always use a special shampoo. For while light hair is always attractive, its beauty is lost just as soon as it becomes uncertain in color, dirty-looking and streaky. Blondex, the new Swedish light hair shampoo, not only keeps blonde hair from darkening, but actually brings back the true golden beauty to even the dullest and most faded blonde hair. Makes hair fluffy, silky. Highly beneficial to both hair and scalp. It is not a dye. Contains no injurious chemicals. Money instantly refunded if not delighted. Get Blondex today at all good dealers, such as Schramm-Johnson Drug Co., Majestic Pharmacy, City Pharmacy, and Rogers Hotel Pharmacy.—adv.

WORK FOR GIRLS MEETS APPROVAL

Representatives of Women's Organizations Take Action for Y. W. C. A. Extension.

Twenty-five women, representing women's clubs and churches of Twin Falls, at a meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Young, elected Mrs. M. Shewell as chairman of a financial committee to be formed within the next few days to secure Twin Falls' share of a budget which will make possible employment of a permanent Y. W. C. A. secretary to work with Girl Reserve clubs of ten southern Idaho towns. Mrs. W. L. Olson, of Boise, national Y. W. C. A. committee member, attended the meeting and expounded the proposed plan for continuation of Y. W. C. A. work with the high school girls who are members of Girl Reserve clubs in southern Idaho, one of which is the Blue Triangle club in the Twin Falls high school, with 14 members.

Spokesmen for the several organizations represented at this meeting expressed the opinion that the undertaking would result in the endorsement of their organizations.

Harriet Clapp, president of the Blue Triangle club, at this meeting spoke on "What It Means to Be a Girl Reserve." Isabelle Clark explained qualifications for receiving the Girl Reserve ring representing the highest honor conferred upon members of the girls' organization. Marie Woods, president of the Southern Idaho Girl Reserve, told what it means to high school girls to be a part of the state, national and international movement of girls striving toward the same ideals.

Snow Disappears as Temperature Rises

Forecast for today: Rain and snow in mountains.

Advancing temperature that reached a high mark for the day at 49 above along with bright sunshine during the forenoon quickly effaced traces of one-half inch of snow that covered the ground here at sunrise Saturday morning. Precipitation yesterday night, according to official records, amounted to four one-hundredths of an inch. Mercury's high at 49 above was a decline of three degrees as compared with Friday's maximum, while low at 29 above represented an advance of six degrees.

WOMEN TO PRESENT SHOW

Women of the Twentieth Century club will present at the Idaho theater next Tuesday a picturization of Mark Twain's immortal story, "The Prince and the Pauper," which is regarded as one of the outstanding playthings of the year. The club women will have entire charge of the theater during the day.
