QUAKE CAUSES
HUGE LOSS OF
LIFE IN JAVA

Island Severely Shaken by Tremor; 300 Killed, Report, and Countless Missing; Village Disappears.

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 13 (AP)—The island of Java has been severely shaken by earthquakes. Already 800 persons are reported killed and countless numbers are missing.

The earthquakes extended over Wednesday and part of today. Many native towns of the Kedu district, a central residence of Java, have been destroyed by landslides. One village completely disappeared into the river.

The shock centered in the health resort of Wonosobo, where all the buildings collapsed.

Disturbance Fears.

Java, in the Malay archipelago, is the seat of government for the Dutch East Indies. Created by violent seismic convulsions, it is subjected from year to year to some disturbances, less violent, but sufficient in times past to have destroyed much life and property.

In 1910 the volcano of Kalat erupted and caused many deaths, variously estimated at from 15,000 to 50,000. Besides Kalat there are many active volcanoes in the island with its 48,000 square miles. Some of the seismic disturbances have been accompanied by heavy floods and landslides.

RIVER OF MUD.

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Amsterdam, quoting reports received from Java, says the river near Kampong had been transformed into a mud channel in which the bodies of men and animals are lying.

Forty-five houses in the Leksono district have disappeared entirely. The whole of Desah Badjanga has been engulfed in the Pring river. Magelang, the principal town in the Kedu district was only slightly damaged. Houses of Dutch officials at Wonosobo were not destroyed.

TETON VALLEY GROWERS
ANNOUNCE POTATO DAY

Seed Crop to be Placed on Display at Victor; Producers to Extend Hospitality.

Potato growers of Victor, Idaho, from which region growers here have obtained seed potatoes with uniformly satisfactory results, have arranged for a "potato day" next Tuesday, in connection with which a meeting of growers is to be held for discussion of topics of interest to the industry. It was announced here Thursday by B. E. Broesser, county agricultural agent. It is expected that E. H. Bennett, University of Idaho field horticulturist, will be present.

Seed growers of the district will have samples on display and will be prepared to take interested persons to inspect their entire crop.

BANDIT NOVICE
KILLS HIMSELF

Bungles First Attempted Stick Up and Wounds Woman; Unemployed Chauffeur.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—William E. Burns, 34, an unemployed chauffeur, attempted his first "stick up" today, bungled it through nervousness and committed suicide after he had accidentally wounded his intended victim, Miss Nellie Hannell.

At midday Burns entered an office building in the uptown "dead line zone." He proceeded to the office of Wallace D. Tustin, a jeweler. Miss Hannell, Tustin's secretary, was alone in the place. She put her hands above her head when Burns held a pistol at her face. His hand shook and the pistol fired. Miss Hannell dropped to the floor.

Evidently convinced he had killed his victim, Burns placed the pistol at his temple and shot himself. He was dead before aid could be summoned.

Miss Hannell, shot in the mouth, was only slightly injured.

Burns had five children and his wife pregnant is to be a mother in a few months, the police said.

Plague Takes Two
More Victims; 35
Have Died So Far

Children Succumb Thursday to Dread Disease; Health Officials Hopeful.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13 (AP)—Two deaths from pneumonic plague today, a fourteen-month-old infant and a nine-year-old child, raised the total deaths since the plague started here October 19, to 35, four of which were of the bubonic plague and 31 of which were pneumonic plague.

Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of the anti-plague committee, announced that the quarantine had been lifted from the Macy street area which had been closed for several weeks due to the plague. The health authorities have the situation well in hand, he said, and extermination of rats will continue.

DAVIS RESUMES
LAW PRACTICE

Democratic Candidate for Presidency Back at Work; Going Abroad Soon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—John W. Davis, recent democratic nominee for president, announced today he had resumed the practice of law in New York city with his former associates and that he would leave soon for a holiday abroad.

Mr. Davis, soon after his nomination, withdrew from the law firm of Stetson, Jennings, Russell and Davis, which he joined in March, 1921, upon finishing his service as American ambassador to Great Britain.

Mr. Davis, accompanied by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. William McMillan Adams, his daughter, will sail for Oronburg within two weeks, his secretary said today. Mr. and Mrs. Davis had contemplated a Mediterranean cruise but they have made no definite plans for their trip on the continent.

Mrs. Adams, who lives in Copenhagen, came to the United States soon after her father was named and took part in his campaign by doing organization work for the first voters' league of the democratic party.

COOLIDGE WILL
BEND EFFORTS
TO AID FARMER

Government Will Do All Possible for Agricultural Relief Says President in Address Before Association.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—President Coolidge declared in an address tonight before the annual meeting of the Association of Land Grant Colleges that the government would omit no effort to prevent a repetition of recent misfortunes involving agriculture, but asserted that the farmer also must readjust his methods of production and marketing "until he comes within sight of the new day."

It was the first public address Mr. Coolidge has made since the election and was devoted to a discussion of agriculture which is the principal subject before the college representatives at their conference. The president expects to outline his views of farming conditions more extensively next Monday in opening the conference of the agricultural commission which he recently appointed to formulate recommendations for the permanent stabilization of the industry.

Immediate Problem.

The immediate problem, the president said in his address tonight, is to bridge over the difficulties resulting from abnormal and war stimulated supplies, while, he added, preparation must be made also for the time fast approaching when "we are likely to be one of the greatest of the agricultural nations."

The hope lies, he declared, in organizations and methods which look to economies and efficiencies in producing and distributing.

Meanwhile the president urged educators and farm leaders to turn their attention to scientific marketing. The agricultural problem of today, he insisted, is not in the field of production, but on the side of distribution. Too little thought has been given to this phase, he added.

ORDERS TENANT EVICTED

Louis Kemble, tenant for two years past on farm property owned by J. W. Humphrey, has 15 days to leave the premises under judgment entered by Judge O. P. Duvall at the conclusion Thursday of a hearing in probate court here in the suit instituted by the landowner to evict the tenant. Plaintiff Humphrey, who was represented by Attorney Glen Wilkins of Wolfe and Wilkins, contended that the lease under which Kemble held the land had expired.

ALLEGED LEADER
OF RING FOUND

Man Sought by Treasury Agents Appears for Questioning by Federal Officials.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Arthur Medianski, wholesale jeweler, appeared before federal authorities today with the announcement that he "is the Medianski" described by the treasury department at Washington yesterday as the ringleader in a huge smuggling venture which involved Mrs. Theresa Mors, for whose alleged murder in Los Angeles last August Kid McCoy, ex-convict, is being held.

His connection with the case, said Medianski, was that of an expert on gems and antiques. Because he had served as purchasing adviser to the late Mrs. Mors and her husband, Albert, in Vienna, five years ago, he said, he was called as a witness to identify valuable imports government operatives discovered among Mrs. Mors' effects after her death.

"I met Mors and his wife in Vienna in 1919," the jeweler related. "Mors showed me a letter of credit for $100,000 and retained me on a commission basis to help him purchase tapestries, rugs, paintings and other works of art for his store on Fifth avenue, New York."

Head of Reclamation Service Orders Advertising for New Proposals for Construction of Reservoir.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Rejecting bids opened October 20 for construction of an immense dam at American Falls, Secretary Work today directed the advertising for new bids to be opened December 20 for construction under changed specifications which provide for the building of the foundation of the river section of the dam.

Two bids were received October 20, each covering different types of construction, one for a high dam to form a reservoir with a capacity of 1,400,000 acre feet, and the other for a low dam with a reservoir of 1,910,000 acre feet of water.

The new sealed proposals will be received at American Falls, Idaho, and revised specifications provide for about 48,000 cubic yards of excavation, the placing of 41,000 cubic yards of concrete, approximately 600,000 pounds of reinforced steel, 237,000 pounds of structural steel, and 1,700,000 pounds of cast iron gates. The height of the dam's base will be decided later. It was said at the interior department that this change in plans will not delay final completion of the project.

FRENZIED STOCK
MARKET TRADING
STILL UNDER WAY

Fifth Consecutive Day of Record Breaking Activities Sees Two Factions Struggling for Control.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Frenzied trading characterized today's stock market, the fifth consecutive "two million share" session, with the "bulls" and "bears" struggling for control and the day's honors again about evenly divided.

Bullish sentiment, centering in the industrial shares, lifted more than 50 stocks to new peak prices for the year with the general industrial average at its highest level since the early part of 1920. The general railroad average showed a decline of 3-4 of a point. The day's sales were slightly in excess of 2,225,000 shares.

United States Steel common stock furnished the pyrotechnics of the session, soaring more than eight points to a record high for all time at 147 1/4. American Can, which has been heavily bought recently on rumors of a stock split up and an increase in dividends, jumped more than fifty points to a record top at 153 1/2, but forfeited two points of its gain in the late wave of profit taking.

United States Steel common crossed 115 to the highest price in five years. Net gains of 3 to 5 points were scattered throughout the list with Savage Arms, Sears-Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, H. R. Mallinson, Postum Cereal, Western Union, General Asphalt common being completed by C. L. Howard, deputy clerk of the district court here, for transmission to the state supreme court. In this case the court here held that the bank was entitled under mortgage given by W. A. and Anna Claudin to the proceeds of sale of an apple crop produced in 1921 and sold to defendants. This decision was reached under the descriptive clause that made the mortgage applicable to "all crops whatsoever," produced on the lands described, and more particularly described as 12 acres of alfalfa, three acres of potatoes and one acre of onions. Defendants contended that the mortgage did not cover the apple crop.

HILL TO FIGHT FOR MODIFIED
VOLSTEAD ACT

Congressman Found Not Guilty of Violation in Maryland Test Court Trial; Law Declared Discriminating.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13 (AP)—Representative John Philip Hill of Baltimore, who today was acquitted of charges of violations of the liquor law by a jury in the United States court, declared after the verdict that the findings gave him an opportunity to go before congress and demand modification of the Volstead act, and the passage of his 275 per cent beer bill on the ground that the Volstead act, in its present form, discriminates and is unfair.

The indictment against Colonel Hill accused him of the sale, manufacture and possession of wine and elder and maintaining a nuisance in his home. The latter charge was dismissed at the direction of Judge Soper, on the ground of insufficient evidence.

Refuses to Comment.

United States Attorney Amos W. W. Woodcock, who conducted the prosecution, refused to comment on the verdict and said the case was ended so far as he was concerned. Other officials of the district court, Judge Soper's ruling on fruit juices did not apply to home brew, which is a product of malt and hops. That is still illegal, it was declared, if it contains more than one-half of one per cent alcohol by volume.

The jury which took Colonel Hill's case yesterday afternoon wrestled with it in the jury room for 17 hours. The long battle, it was related by one juror, was caused by two jurors who held for a verdict of guilty. One of them gave in at 1 a. m. and joined the majority.

To Convince One.

All 11 then sat to work to convince the one holding out. They cited Scripture to prove their point. The juror, however, declared that he could not countenance such a "flagrant violation of the law."

The decision was sealed and delivered to the court at the opening of the forenoon session. The court room was jammed with spectators and in the corridor there were scores of men and women who were unable to get inside. The verdict read by the clerk of the court said:

"The jury finds the defendant not guilty of the matters in which he stands indicted."

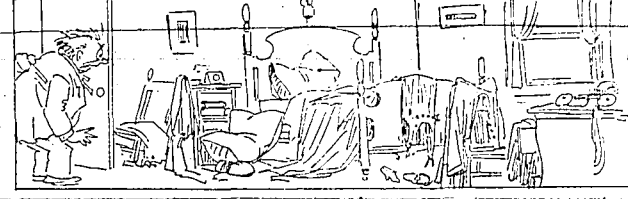

There was a murmur among the spectators which was quickly checked by the bailiff. Colonel Hill was warmly congratulated as he made his way out of the court room and in the corridor he was met by a vociferous throng with everybody telling him at the same time how pleased they were with the verdict.

Resolutions Passed by American Council Would Outlaw War Under Plans Outlined.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 13 (AP)—Resolutions urging that the proposed modification of naval force next spring be held elsewhere than in the Hawaiian Islands and expressing the hope that immigration legislation be revised even to the extent of admitting ultimately the Japanese to the quota provisions of the law, so that the irritation and resentment held against the United States may not be increased, were adopted at the closing session today of the ninth convention of the American council of the world alliance for international friendship through the churches.

Other resolutions were approved indicating entrance of the United States into the world court of international justice, a thorough and sympathetic study of the Geneva protocol, creation of a federal commission for the promotion of world peace and participation of the United States in a disarmament conference, if it is called in Geneva, or to invite the other nations for such a purpose, if it is not.

BABY ELEPHANTS GO ON RAMPAGE IN QUAKER CITY

Part of Vaudeville Act Roams Through Streets of Philadelphia Damaging Property and Having Good Time.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13 (AP)—Three baby elephants, part of a vaudeville act at a local theater today scored such a smashing hit in private life that their owner, Don Darragh of New York, was held in $500 bail pending removal to certain parts of the northeast section of Philadelphia. The trio, confined at night in a garage, took offense early today at sounds from a bulky motor car. They snapped their chains and sallied forth with the car owner leading the procession at a hot pace. Fragrant whiffs of breakfast being prepared by Mrs. Anna Dammore in her kitchen halted the elephant section of the parade and one of the trio uprooted the Dammore fence. Mrs. Dammore glanced out of her window and then with young Dammore, sought the roof. The elephants entered through the back door taking it with them. "Babe," one of the runaways, burned his trunk on the stove, seized that article by its undergirding and upset it. The other elephants wrecked the ice box and splintered the furniture. "Babe" then headed an exodus from the Dammore home. Police meanwhile summoned Darragh who returned his charges to the theater yard where they were fastened to heavy stakes. But shortly after noon they once more broke loose and for a brief period they roamed about until rounded up again and securely anchored.

IRISH GAME SUFFERS FROM DISTURBANCES CAUSED BY DISPUTES

DUBLIN, Nov. 13 (AP)—The disturbances of the past two or three years in Ireland have had an injurious effect on the prestige of game and recently a movement has been inaugurated to revive sport in the country as a national asset. Poaching on river fisheries has become common, game has been shot in large numbers and sometimes outside the closed season. The department of justice of the Free State has now instructed the civil guard to deal effectively with breaches of the game laws.

STATUE DECLARED BOGUS

PARIS, Nov. 13 (AP)—The statue of the Apostle St. Paul sold to the Metropolitan museum of New York for $3000, February 26, 1921, purporting to be the work of the famous Italian sculptor, Luca Della Robbia, is a fake, according to testimony given today by Jean Vigoroux, former New York manager for the late Joseph Demotte, art dealer. Vigoroux is on trial charged by the Demotte estate with breach of trust. Vigoroux also told the court that one head of Christ in stone purporting to date back to the thirteenth century was sold to Hawley McLanahan of Philadelphia for $3000.

WOMAN TRUCK DRIVER JAILED

Three Precedents Established in New York Traffic Court by Anna Baettiger.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Miss Anna Baettiger, 28, shattered three precedents in traffic court today. First, she was the only woman truck driver ever arraigned there; second, she was the first woman to be sent to jail for a traffic violation in default of a fine; and third, she came to court carrying her lunch and sewing bag in participation of a jail sentence. Arraigned on a charge of driving without a license a motor truck on which she conducted a near-beer and soda water business, she was given the lowest fine of $5 with the alternative of two days in prison. Miss Baettiger informed the court that as "business is bad," she could not pay the fine. "But anyhow, your honor," she added, "I came prepared to go to jail. I have my lunch and also some sewing." To jail she went.

BURLEY TEAM
TO PLAY HERE

Second Football Game This Week for Twin Falls Up This Afternoon.

By J. L. H.

Turn back your mind's eye one year and visualize the situation that confronted the Twin Falls Bruins a year ago this month when they set forth on a journey into enemy territory to fight for the district championship that would entitle them to a chance at the state football title, and then bring yourself down to date and you have the same situation about to be repeated today on Lincoln field. A year ago the mighty Bruin machine was headed for the state title, the only obstacle was Burley and so it is this year. The Bruins have steadily and consistently marched through their opponents of this district and again the only stumbling block is Burley. This afternoon Burley and the Bruins meet again for the championship of this district. It is true that Burley has been defeated a number of times but the fact remains that should the Bruins lose today's game with it they would lose the district title and the chance to compete for state honors.

Strength Unknown.
Little is known of Burley strength. Jerome took them into camp early in the season as did Shoshone and the Rupert aggregation, but does means a little in reaching the strength of a team that the Bruins are not taking chances and have been hard at the old practice grind since the fray with Rupert on Armistice day. Captain Humphrey is out of the game for the season with a badly twisted shoulder which will leave a hole in the Bruin line to be plugged up. Timm is not in the best of condition and Alford received a hard going over against Rupert so the blue and white warriors will be somewhat handicapped. It will be a contest from the first whistle, you can count on that.

Game Cancelled.

The game with Idaho Falls scheduled for November 21 has been cancelled by mutual agreement leaving Twin Falls free to use that date for a championship encounter. The fifth team unsettling all hope romped all over the much touted Foastello aggregation, 13 to 0, and thereby winning the district championship of that district. So if Twin Falls defeats Burley that will leave four teams in the state undefeated and contenders for the state title. Nampa, Firth, Kellogg and Twin Falls. Coach Plastino has opened negotiations with Firth and believes that they will consent to a game here on November 21 which would result in the elimination of one of the four contenders. Just what Nampa's schedule is cannot be learned, but probably they will take on Kellogg and leave the championship to be settled on Thanksgiving.

PARISIAN WAR ORPHANS LIKE BASEBALL GAME

French Children Cheer League Teams in Play in City; Are Guests of Two Team Managers.

PARIS, Nov. 13 (AP)—It remained for the children of Paris to appreciate the American national game of baseball, when they were here to play Saturday. The French children, who were guests of the American League teams, were seen in the stands at the Polo Grounds, where they were seen to play the game of baseball. The children were seen to play the game of baseball, and they were seen to play the game of baseball.

There was whistling and applause from the youngsters in the second inning when the Giants tallied four runs and still more of the same kind of cheering when the White Sox, during their time at bat, made seven tallies. The White Sox won, 8 to 7.

Guards of Managers. The orphans attended the game by invitation of Managers McGraw and Comiskey who had been disappointed by the failure of the grownups to show any interest in the sport.

That the playing took great hold on the French children, who were from 7 to 12 years old, was made evident when the Giant shortstop, Jackson, failed to grab a hot ball. The orphans yelled at him in chorus: "Oh what a shame!" The little girls remained dignified throughout the game, but the boys were boys as usual. They were watching the technique of the play. It was seen to follow the seventh inning when one of the lads was overheard to remark: "Oh, now, if the ball arrives at first base before the batter, then the latter is out."

"Kill the Umpire." The cry of "death to the umpire," shouted by some of the French youngsters, was rather amusing. The umpire, Ed Walsh, and Walker, who was explained to them that the words were merely the equivalent of the American blackletter "shoot of 'Kill the umpire'." After they had been reassured, the umpire proceeded to judge the game with all calmness.

Today's game evened the overseas series, each club having six wins to its credit.

GIRL IS FATALLY HURT WHEN CAR SOMMERSAULTS

Miss Ora Taylor of Burley Dies From Injuries Sustained in Wreck on Highway to Bapert.

BURLEY, Nov. 8.—Miss Ora Taylor, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Burley, died at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning at her home here, seven and a half hours after the automobile which she was driving, overturned near Bapert. The remaining members of the party escaped with but minor cuts and bruises.

There were four couples in the party which left Burley early Tuesday night to attend a dance at Bapert. When almost there and crossing a canal bridge, the car skidded abruptly, turning over several times and finally landing in the canal. Miss Taylor was pinned between the steering wheel and the front seat, and her chest was crushed. Her companion, Conrad Mix, was pinned beneath the car in the water and it was only because his companion quickly extricated him from the wreckage that he was saved from drowning. Dr. J. C. Patterson of Burley was summoned and extricated Miss Taylor from the wreck, but efforts to revive her proved fruitless.

Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers, Floyd, student at the University of Idaho, Moscow, and Rex, of Burley, and two sisters, Blanche and Elva, both of Burley.

AIRPLANE LINE WILL CONNECT TWO COUNTRIES

Service Between Peking and Moscow Planned by Germans in Survey Just Completed; to Follow Railway.

URGA, Mongolia, Nov. 13 (AP)—Representatives of the German Junkers company have just completed an air survey to give a regular airplane service between Moscow and Peking with a possibility of extending it ultimately into south China. The line will follow the Trans-Siberian railway from Moscow as far as Verkhne-Udinsk, and from there will turn south to Urga and thence to Peking by way of Kalgan and the railway connecting southern Mongolia with the Chinese capital.

The Moscow government has approved the route, and it is the desire of the promoters to get American capital to back a joint German-Russian company. There is no likelihood that the regular service will be established before next year at the earliest. An air service is now operating with more or less regularity between Moscow and Vladivostok, and the proposed Peking line would operate in connection with this service, transferring passengers at Verkhne-Udinsk who desire to go to Mongolia or Chinese cities.

A Republic.

Since Mongolia declared itself an independent republic last July and proclaimed the Churildan, or assembly, the holder of the supreme power of the land, there is much speculation as to what the future of the great plain country will be. Under the living Badsha, who is now dead, it was presumably an autonomous country under the protection of China, but the Russian czarist government had Mongolia as a sphere of influence and resisted the efforts of Americans and other foreigners to get concession to build railways here.

When the czarist government fell affairs became chaotic in Mongolia. Baron Ungern-Sternberg, as leader of the White Russians, took Mongolia after the bolsheviks came into power and assumed supervision of the affairs of the Hothsin, or living Badsha, who had for years been the ward of the old czarist government.

She Knew Him.

Katie was evidently feeling embarrassed about something and she blushed prettily as she told the sister of her fiance that she would like to buy a birthday present for him. "You know him better than I do," she said, "so I came to ask you your advice."

"Yes," said her future sister-in-law, inquiringly. "What?" went on the blushing Katie. "Would you advise me to get?" "Oh, I don't know," replied the other girl carelessly. "I could only advise you in general terms. From what I know of him I should say he would appreciate something that he could pawn easily."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Ben Franklin's Harmonica.

One of the first musical instruments made by an American was a mouth harmonica, made by Benjamin Franklin at the time he was minister at the court of Louis in France, where he played it with considerable skill before Marie Antoinette and her court ladies. The queen was so delighted and interested that Franklin presented the little instrument to her. After Marie Antoinette was beheaded in the great French revolution, his mouth harmonica had many sensational experiences till finally it came into the possession of a wealthy musical amateur and collector in this country.—Musical America.

BLIND GIRL HELPS TO BRING GOODING SCHOOL UP TO HIGH STANDARD

GOODING, Idaho, Nov. 13 (AP)—Among those who are helping to bring Gooding college to the standard required by the Idaho state board of education and other accrediting officers, is Miss Helen Keller, who recently made the heart of President Charles Wesley Tanney glad by donating a large picture of herself and two autographed volumes of her works which bore her own handwriting. "To Gooding College; Give me strength to make my love fruitful in thy service."

Though blind and deaf since 19 months of age, Miss Keller, under the leadership of her splendid teacher, Mrs. John A. Macy, has had vision enough not only to see the needs of this progressive college but on top of the Rockies, but to graduate from Radcliffe, lecture throughout the United States, contribute to the best magazines and write four books, all of which have proved a blessing and an inspiration to those who have read them.

In her own words, "The calamity of the blind is immense, irreparable. But it does not take away our share of the things that count—service, friendship, humor, imagination, wisdom."

TRUCK USED TO HAUL MOSLEMS

Modern Methods Being Used to Transport Bodies to Burial
Center at Kerbela.

BEIRUT, Nov. 13 (AP)—The bones of pious Shia Moslems, whose relatives are, afford to pay the price are now transported part of the way by automobiles from Teheran, the Persian capital, to Kerbela in Mesopotamia, where every good Shia wishes his bones to rest.

A local motor transport company recently extended its service between here and Baghdad as far as Teheran. The conveying of bodies of Persians from the capital to Baghdad for railway transport to Kerbela, about 60 miles from Baghdad, is a profitable side line in the company's business.

Kerbela has been a place of pilgrimage of the Shia Moslems ever since the seventh century when a great tomb was erected to the martyred Hosain, son of the fourth caliph, slain by a rival's soldiers. The town owes its existence to Hosain's shrine, for tens of thousands of pilgrims go there annually, many of them carrying the bones of their relatives to be buried in its sacred soil or bringing their sick and aged to die there.

High cost of burial in Kerbela is beginning to worry faithful Persians. In addition to paying the mullahs, who extract enormous fees for the burial, they have to bear the transportation cost of about $1000. The latter charge is said to be trifling compared with the fees exacted for a good burial site at Kerbela.

A SERVICE
Much has been written, pro and con,
upon the subject of the Soviet system of Government in Russia and many of the statements made have been contradictory and generally unreasonable
from any standpoint.
Comes now the word of a woman who should know; Emma Goldman, to-wit, who in 1919 quit America for America's good upon the gentle insistence of the American Government.
Miss Goldman should know; she has spent the bulk of her time since leaving, in Russia. She has had opportunities to contrast the Soviet system with the American system. From her utterances one would imagine that she is now thoroughly convinced that the freest government on earth and the best is that of the United States of America. The best evidence of this is the fact that Miss Goldman would like to return to this land of opportunity and liberty. And if she ever does return it is not inconceivable that she will become a very different type of citizen to the Emma Goldman who lived and fought here side by side with Alexander Berkman and the rest of the crazy gang who professed to believe that men and women, left to their own devices, were just naturally good, honorable people to whom the restraints and restrictions of organized society
were an insult.
Yes, it is fair to assume that Miss Goldman knows better now. In London last night, at a dinner given in her honor she made a number of statements which would so indicate. The oppressed masses in Russia, she declares, are now elated to a far greater extent than under the late czar. All ideals have been discarded; bolshevism she characterized as an international disease;
hereafter Miss Goldman will fight for the principles of liberty.
Rarely has there been a sharper excoriation than that delivered by this erstwhile disciple of chaos. Not in years has so clean cut a picture of Bolshevism been presented to a waiting world.
It is downright interesting, not to say encouraging. In fact Miss Goldman has rendered a service to society by means of last night's utterances which may go far towards curbing the trend of radical thought at home and abroad.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESS
Idaho Statesman
A Twin Falls editor, Democratic in his politics, bewails the Republican landslide in the country. He says bitterly that 'the people, as usual, did not think the thing through for themselves.' And then he adds this argument, which never fails to get under the skin of a conscientious Republican editor:
There is no doubt that newspapers were the chief cause and were you stop to think that seventy-five to eighty-five per cent of the great daily newspapers of the nation are in the hands of the Republican party or their friends, you get an idea of the tremendous power this party has and what a force the G. O. P.
has at its command. These newspapers supported the party editorially and then big advertising campaigns were carried in all the newspapers which helped to clinch
the argument which these partisan editors had started in their editorial columns.
We do not think newspapers were this election. If there was ever a campaign in which newspapers presented in their news columns, with impartiality and great detail, the arguments and speeches of the leaders of all the parties, this last campaign was the one.
To be sure, most of the newspapers
outside the 'solid south' were Republican in their editorial comments and their cartoons. But there is nothing remarkable about this. The country, if you disregard the south, is overwhelmingly Republican in sentiment.

The newspapers tend to reflect the normal majority feeling. More than this, newspaper men, with their extraordinary opportunity to know political facts and to 'think the thing through for themselves' usually find themselves subscribing to Republican policies. These policies work for stability in business, and the news-papersmen know it. Such policies strengthen the arm of the government, and newspapersmen seldom like to see evidence of disorganization and decentralization. Other things being equal, we should expect a growing newspaperman to become a Republican.
It is because other things are not equal.
Because family, birthplace and business considerations interfere, that some of them become Democrats.

The Twin Falls editor puts the cart before the horse. Newspapers do not so much lead as they reflect. The best editors in the world do not do your thinking for you; they busy themselves to put into language the thought you have been groping for or grappling with. They state it roundly and effectively and so do you a service. When you adopt their language in passing it on to the next fellow, you are not borrowing their thought, just their words. It is not the editors who sway the public but the public mind which sways the editors
as they try to interpret it.

No, the newspapers of America did not win the election. Republican sentiment and Republican ideals won it, working through the press as one of many agencies. And if there was any good Democratic or Progressive argument which did not get to the minds of the public through papers with Republican editors, we would like to know what it was. Certainly they gave all that was in every important speech.
Certainly they printed the rival platforms. And certainly their advertising columns were available to friends and foes alike.

If the American public were in the hands of its editors, then, in contestable territory (and again one is forced to mark off that political freak, the 'solid south'), one would find the communities dominated by Democratic newspapers voting Democratic. But you do not find they voted that way
this year either in Idaho or in any other state.

What a Camel Looks Like.
We have been trying for some time to think what a camel looks like, and now we have made it out. When he is down on all his knees, flat on his breast, to receive his load, he looks something like a goose swimming; and when he is upright he looks like an old ostrich with an extra set of legs.
Camels are not beautiful and their long under lip gives them an exceedingly 'gallus' expression. They have immense flat, forked cushions of feet that make a track in the dust like a pile with a slice cut out of it. They are not particular about their diet.
They would eat a tomato if they could bite it. A thistle grows about here which has needles on it that would pierce through leather. I think if one touches you you can find relief in nothing but profanity. The camels eat these. They show by their actions that they enjoy them. I suppose it would be a real treat to a camel to have a box of nails for supper.—Mark Twain in 'The Innocents Abroad,' from Palmer's 'Moments With Mark Twain.'

Betrayed by Mercury
Guilty secrets are said to be bared unerringly by an apparatus invented by Dr. Albert Schneider, of the University of California. The suspect places the forefinger of each hand
on contacts from which run minute wires to a capillary electrometer and an arrangement of glass tubing.
Through one tube runs a fine thread of mercury, fluctuations of which are said to betray the suspect.—London Answers.

Musical Meals for Fish Additional evidence that fishes are able to hear has been produced by a German scientist, and he has found fishes to be musical accompaniment.
The fishes, after the sixth day of this treatment, always came to the surface
when the whistle blew, and, once learned, the trick was never forgotten, the fishes invariably appearing to time during a 20-day test.—London Times.

PLAYTIMES

There were so many wonderful playtimes and so many wonderful things to play.
Peter Gnome made up a list of some of the playtimes he had watched the other day and told them to the other Gnomes.

"The going to ask that the list be made known," he said, "for perhaps it would suggest some playtimes to others."

"Well, there was Lucy. She used to play 'bedtime' long before her own bedtime."

"She would take her monkey, made of brown cloth, and her fuzzy white toy dog with such bright eyes, and her little toy white rabbit and would put them to bed in a doll's bed she had."

"Then she would cover them over so that they would be sure to be kept warm and snug."

"They had never been known to throw off their blankets during the night, so Lucy was never afraid they would catch cold."

"Then she would take a little basket
she owned and in this she would put some little toy chicks and ducks she had and they would be covered up and put to bed."

"She would put the basket beside the bed and both of these near her own bed."

"Then she would tell them stories
and would sing them a little song."

"There were no words to her song,
but the music was pretty, for Lucy
had made up a very sweet little tune
of her own."

"And the toy monkey, the toy dog, the toy rabbit, the chicks and the ducks didn't mind at all that there were no words to the song."

"It was a very sweet lullaby without words!"

"Then I saw a little girl who used to play school on rainy days in the linden closet."

"Now, Pillow-Case Scholars, I hope you know your lesson and can tell me
"How do you spell CAT?"

"Then she would pretend to be the scholars and she would spell cat."

"Next she would ask the Sheet Scholars if they could recite a piece of poetry."

"And in a funny little voice, she would pretend to be the Sheet scholars
and would recite a piece of poetry."

"Then there was Gloria—I watched her play. And she made believe she was a dog."

Her brother made believe he was another dog, and they tried to see how many tricks they could do, such as they had seen dogs do.

"Of course, standing on their hind legs was easy—they could do that, anyway, but they made it harder by half-standing and half-squinting, holding their hands up in front of them."

"They didn't know at first how they could wear their tails, but they got down on the floor and moved their right feet."

"Then they could bark most beautifully."

"A little boy named Danny used to go riding in an automobile and he made up stories to himself as he went along."

"Sometimes he went so far that he couldn't really believe that he was still in the world."

"The world couldn't be felt, go on and on for such tremendous distances.
Just as you got out of one state and into another if you traveled far enough, so, he thought, he could not possibly stay in the same world on one long automobile ride!"

"But he not only made up stories when he rode. When he was home he played Indian and baseball and 'store'
—but Indian was the best game of all."

Terrapin on M. C. L. List.
Years ago wild terrapins inhabited
the salt and brackish marshes along the Atlantic seaboard in large numbers and were highly valued and prized by epicures. These palatable turtles have so grown in popularity
that they now have come to be regarded as one of the greatest delicacies known to connoisseurs and the demand for them has led to such persistent overhunting that a marked diminution in the available supply has resulted. The result is that Chesapeake terrapin which measure six inches in length on the lower shell now sell for $50 to $100 a dozen on the city market while larger terrapins are correspondingly more valuable. Lessiana and Texas terrapins are almost as highly prized as are the Chesapeake variety, while the Carolina and Florida species are not in demand for table use.—George H. Dacy, in the Scientific American.

An Eye to Cleanliness.
The young English girl thought she could safely speak to the soldier who was traveling in the railway carriage with her. She had been unable to take her eyes off the row of windows which spread across his chest, and when he told her that he had been a sailor before he had been a soldier
her triumph was complete. "Tell me now," she urged, pointing a confidential finger impressively at him, "when were you last washed up on a desert island?"—London Morning Post.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR EXTENDING DAIRY INDUSTRY

R. E. Shepherd of Jerome, Host to Wisconsin Visitors in Twin Falls, Proposes Local Finance Corporation.

Extension and encouragement of the dairy industry in this region may be brought about through the agency of a corporation formed by farmers, business men and investors of the district for the purpose of financing purchase of dairy animals by farmers of this region. R. E. Shepherd of Jerome, general manager of the Twin Falls North Side Land and Water company, and president of the American Falls Reservoir district, told several directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce as a leading important livestock meeting Thursday at the Hotel Perrine.

Honored guests on this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Murphy of Green Bay, Wisconsin, who arrived Wednesday at Jerome and were accompanied by Mr. Shepherd on visits to several of the more important livestock farms of this region, and C. C. Gignoux, assistant supervisor of agriculture for the Union Pacific system. Mr. Murphy is owner of Murphy Farms and is engaged in breeding Holstein cattle and Duroc swine.

Deplorable Loss to State.

The dairy industry, Mr. Shepherd declared, is the backbone of the present prosperity of this region. He deplored the loss to Idaho of 19 purebred Guernsey cattle purchased for Logan, Utah, dairymen and breeders at a sale here Wednesday at which 40 blooded dairy cattle of the J. A. Waters herd were sold. The corporation which he proposed, Mr. Shepherd said, would have bought these animals and made them available for purchase by Idaho farmers.

He suggested that the proposed corporation should furnish dairy animals on deferred payment plans to farmers with surplus of feed but without means of financing purchase of livestock or getting a start in the dairy industry through ordinary channels. The corporation, he said, might undertake to purchase surplus dairy stock from Idaho farmers, and in this connection he stated that demand for dairy cattle is largely in excess of the supply. California, he said, buys 300,000 dairy cattle annually to maintain and build up its herds, and ravages of tuberculosis from which this region is practically free, make heavy inroads on dairy herds of many other states.

LYCEUM COURSE BRINGS FEATURE MUSICAL EVENT

An outstanding event of the season in musical circles here was recorded Thursday evening when Paul Vernon and his Cleveland Symphonic quintet were presented in a concert as the second number of Twin Falls lyceum course by the Twin Falls Chautauqua association. An audience of about 500 persons gave rapt attention to the successive numbers and evidenced appreciation by vigorous applause. The audience included trained musicians who gave high praise to the performers' varied offerings in which music lovers of all degrees found enjoyment. The program included both orchestral and chamber music numbers, chamber music group for two violins, viola and cello being a feature.

The quintet included Mr. Vernon, director, principal violin and viola soloist; Lloyd De Coste, Junior, viola and violin; William H. Greenman, viola artist; Carver Williams, Jr., cellist; Blanche Webber, pianist and organist.

DEATH SUMMONS GEORGE ACKLEY

Progressive Candidate for State Senator Found Dead in Hotel Room From Heart Attack.

George H. Ackley, 68 years old, manager here for the Birdwell Manufacturing company for two years past and candidate this year of the progressive party for state senator, was only Thursday afternoon found dead in his room at a local hotel.

Death was caused by angina pectoris, aggravated by influenza, from which Mr. Ackley had suffered for a few days. Corner P. J. Grossman, who took charge of the body, stated Thursday evening that an inquest probably would not be held.

Mr. Ackley Thursday morning, it was learned, had been advised by his physician to go to the hospital for a few days' rest. Mr. Ackley expressed the opinion that he would be as comfortable and as well cared for in his room, and thereafter summoned a taxicab for a trip a few miles from here. He returned at about noon and went to his room. He was found dead about two hours later lying across the bed.

Friends here of Mr. Ackley stated that he was survived by two sons and one daughter at New Meadows, Idaho. One son to whom word of Mr. Ackley's death was delivered, was on his way here Thursday evening.

Mr. Ackley was a member of the Methodist church and had been ordained as a minister of that denomination. He also was a member of the Masonic order.

It was his custom occasionally to speak at street meetings here conducted by the Salvation Army corps, and he was publicly identified with the Ku Klux Klan.

WOODMEN STAGE ENGAGING SHOW

Enthusiastic Audience Greeted Fun and Frolic Offering at Initial Performance.

One of the most interesting of recent local talent offerings is the first annual Fun and Frolic show given by the Twin Falls camp, Modern Woodmen of America, and Royal Neighbors of America, which opened two nights' engagement Thursday evening at the Loring theater and was greeted by an enthusiastic audience of approximately 600 persons.

Opening with a mixed minstrel with both men and women in the circle, eight acts comprising the second part of the show was presented with almost continuous action, the whole performance providing about two hours of high class entertainment.

Some of the best musicians, singers and actors in Twin Falls were welcomed by the audience while the offering served to bring to favorable attention considerable new talent.

Professional talent was presented in two of the acts. Joseph E. Brooks, director of the show, and Mrs. Brooks, offering a slack wire, juggling and rope throwing act of unusual merit at the close and Mrs. Brooks, billed as Mme. Soares, contortionist supreme, appearing in one of the feature numbers.

Rapid-Fire Minstrel

With Fred Mangelson, Inteleoductor, Carl Edwards and Louis Herriman, premier ends, and Al Hecker and D. K. Frost, Jr., second ends, the minstrel show was a rapid-fire melange of mirth and music. Local numbers were given by Mr. Edwards, Mr. Herriman and J. A. Appell, with accompaniment by the Moonlight orchestra, composed of Floyd Titus, Tom Roberts, Lovitt Smith and Kenneth Kenworthy.

Nelson Hayward, singing some of Harry Lauder's famous songs, and Miss Josephine, a golden voiced girl, were presented in separate acts in the second part of the performance, with Miss Ruth Snowball at the piano.

Other musical acts include vocal number by the Alabama Jubilee quartet, composed of Fred Critchfield, John Gamble, R. S. Miller and Dick Miller; in songs of the sunny south; Miss Nellie Nelson and Miss Mary Virginia Hart, violin and piano; Miss Florence Jackey, Miss Helen Jackey and Miss Nellie Galloway in mandolin, guitar and piano selections. The young women are pupils of Mrs. D. E. Regan's advanced class.

The Modern Woodmen drill team of eight members in uniform with W. V. Prantz in command, executed snappy maneuvers.

Men in the minstrel circle are J. A. Appell, Louis Peterson, R. A. Reigley, Roy Miller, Roy Cuppl, Lewis Herriman, W. W. Prantz, A. C. Hahn, R. V.

SOME OF THE BEST ANIMALS RETAINED IN TWIN FALLS

Some of the best of the 40 dairy cattle sold here Wednesday by James A. Waters, importer and breeder here, were retained in Twin Falls, although 19 of them went to Cache Valley, Utah, breeders and dairymen.

Kenneth Carter Brown of Twin Falls, at this sale purchased from Mr. Waters' originally imported cows, two of the progeny of Palmrose, Mr. Waters' recognized leading individual and winner against all competition in the Guernsey breed in this locality, and Maggie, champion cow of the Delaware State college.

Mr. Brown has purchased a yearling bull to serve as his herd sire, therein introducing the famous eastern blood of the Langwater strain.

Mr. Brown is an ardent admirer and qualified judge of the Guernsey breed of dairy cattle, having recently come to Twin Falls from Massachusetts where he was actively engaged in supervising, breeding and handling of large Guernsey establishments, and now maintains a wholesome ambition to establish, along scientific blood lines, a herd of Guernsey cattle that in due time will prove his contention that the Guernsey is superior to other breeds of dairy cattle.

OUR CONCEPTION OF SERVICE

Is to care for the wants of our customers promptly and properly. Nor is caring for their wants confined only to a cold-blooded money relationship. Experience teaches us—and it has been proven over and over again, that one can not receive without giving, and that one's success must be measured in accordance with one's relationship to others. In other words, we get back satisfied customers and profits in just such measure as we give of the best in ourselves to the customer's service; that we prosper to just such extent as we serve.

Our organization is built on these principles. We are proud to be "servants of service" and to be of an economical benefit to the community we serve.
