FORD URGED TO PURCHASE TOWN ONCE A CAPITAL

College Head Wants Auto Manufacturer to Buy Williamsburg and Restore It to Revolutionary Period.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 15 (AP)—Henry Ford has been asked to buy Williamsburg, ancient capital of Virginia, and restore it to the quaint and picturesque beauty of the Revolutionary period. It then would be preserved as a living lesson in American history for future generations.

The suggestion, which Mr. Ford is said to be considering, was advanced by Dr. W. A. R. Goodwin of William and Mary college through William Ford, brother of the automobile manufacturer.

Under the plan Mr. Ford would purchase a large part of the present city of Williamsburg at an estimated cost of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000. A Colonial Holding corporation then would be formed, according to Dr. Goodwin's suggestion, to which the city would be turned over for all time. The task of recreating the colonial seat of government would go forward under the direction of the holding corporation. All evidences of modern days would be removed. Motion picture houses, restaurants, telephone poles, and all the trade marks of the present day would exist no more.

In the place of today's Williamsburg there would stand the House of Burgesses, rebuilt as it originally stood. Raleigh tavern once more would stand with inviting door for the traveler. Main street again would be lined with myrtle trees and hedged by roses. Shacks would give way to copies of the colonial houses which formerly occupied their sites. It is not planned to compel present owners of old colonial homes to sell them to the corporation, but options would be requested in view of future sales.

BRAZIL STATE IS LOOTED BY MEN IN OFFICE

Monteiro Family Formerly Holding Positions at Head of Amazonas Robbed Employees Is Claim Made.

MANAOS, Brazil, Nov. 14 (AP)—The state of Amazonas has been without a governor for some time past, and no one can be found today who desires to accept the office. The vacancy arises from revolutionary changes. The acting governor, Turiano Heira, holding office during the absence in Europe of Rego Monteiro, resigned after his recent capture by the rebels, and the vice president of the legislative assembly and the president of the higher court, the logical candidates, both declined the honor, suggesting that the federal government undertake the job.

The lack of an executive head of Amazonas has brought out a number of stories concerning the activities of the Rego Monteiro family in the state. Public opinion is hostile to this family. It is alleged, the finances of the state are disrupted, municipal politics are vicious, there are many vacancies in the state assembly, and the judicial power is said to be controlled.

Entire Control.
A Brazilian, formerly in the employ of the state government, says that members of the Monteiro family were in practical control of the state at the time of the revolution. It is pointed out that the chief of police in Manaus was Mario Monteiro, a son of the governor; the state secretary, a very influential position in the governor's cabinet, was Claudio Monteiro, another son of the governor; Edgard Monteiro, a third son was the mayor of Manaus; a fourth son, Beyle Monteiro, was the assistant official of the cabinet; while Turiano Meira, president of the assembly and acting governor, was Rego Monteiro's son-in-law.

Collected Commission.
This state employee, who worked under Monteiro, declares that the governor of the state, elected in 1908, began the practice of paying state employees only 50 per cent of their salaries. In order to secure this 50 per cent, the employee was compelled to give a power of attorney to a representative of the state government who went to the treasury and secured full payment, keeping one half as a commission. This practice continued for eight consecutive years, during the terms of two governors. The candidate elected in 1916 stopped the practice and salaries were again paid in full. In 1920 Rego Monteiro was re-elected and the plan was resumed. During the second year of

ISLAND FREEDOM NOT TO COME UP

Congress at Short Session Will Not Discuss Philippine Situation, Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Administration officials do not expect the question of Philippine independence to be sharply agitated during the coming short session of congress, Secretary Weeks saying today he had heard no intimation that the subject would be taken up during the session for consideration.

At the time of the visit of the Philippine independence commission to this country some months ago the commissioners were informed that the Coolidge administration would not favorably consider proposals for independence legislation unless it could be shown beyond question that the project put forward had the overwhelming backing of the Philippine people themselves.

So far the development of public opinion on the question in the islands has not reached a point, as it is understood here, where it is believed that the Philippine leaders will be able to make conclusive showing that the whole people favor the project.

STANFORD PILES UP A HIGH SCORE AGAINST MONTANA UNIVERSITY

STANFORD STADIUM, Palo Alto, Cal., Nov. 15 (AP)—Stanford University went into the finals of the Pacific coast conference football title race by defeating the University of Montana, 41 to 3, here this afternoon.

Although beaten overwhelmingly, Montana not only fought hard but played spectacular football. The Grizzlies completed some long range passes, Onco, taking advantage of "breaks" they got the ball to the Stanford eighty yard line. Another time they carried it to the home team's one-yard line. Both things Stanford showed its stalwart defense by holding for downs.

Kelly and Sweet for Montana, out-punted Stanford, but the Grizzly backs were unable to gain through the Cardinal line. Ernie Nevers, the brilliant Stanford fullback, started the game and played most of the first quarter, ploughing through the line in his characteristic manner.

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH DEFEATS WYOMING 'U'

SALT LAKE, Nov. 15 (AP)—Wyoming state university fell victim to the open field running of the shifty, fast Crimson backfield and the University of Utah won today, 28 to 0.

Despite the slippery field, Jewkes, Livingston and Champion, Utah stars, started off tackle, around end or through center for long gains with unusual agility.

The invading eleven stubbornly resisted the first two periods, but in the final half, subs were made necessary by injuries and ejections served to dishearten them and it was a much weakened team that finished the fray.

TECH DEFEATS SOUTH DAKOTA. POCATELLO, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Idaho Technical institute defeated the South Dakota Wesleyan football team here this afternoon by a score of 26 to 0. The final score just about tells the story, though families at critical stages kept the Tech from two additional touchdowns. At no time during the game did the visitors threaten the goal line of the lighter Tech team.

TWIN FALLS GARAGE MAN SUED BY FORD COMPANY

Suit for restraining order to prevent Ed George, proprietor of the Empire Auto shop, from using the words "Ford specialists" in advertising was instituted in district court here Saturday by the Ford Motor company, represented by J. R. Hothwell and W. O. Chapman, Twin Falls attorneys. A temporary restraining order has been issued by Judge W. A. Babcock.

Use by George of these words, it is alleged, is misleading and tends to unfair diversion of trade from the Ford company's authorized agents here. In this connection it is stated in the complaint that George's establishment since April last has occupied quarters at 130 Second avenue north, just two doors east of the place of business of the Union Motor company, authorized Ford agents.

Objection is made especially to use of the words complained of on signs, on walls and windows at George's place of business.

THE DRIVE.

The News is wholly in favor of the plan to erect a war memorial by public subscription upon the campus of the State University. It also takes the position that, inasmuch as for several years now money has been collected by public subscription for the Boy Scout movement, it is only fair that the Girl Reserve or Blue Triangle movement receive a share of Twin Falls' surplus cash.

The News is not opposed to the payment of the rent of the Salvation Army by public subscription, or the passing of the hat for the upkeep of the Children's Home in Boise, or the sale of Red Cross stamps in Twin Falls. The News is strongly in favor of the payment of the rent of the taxation bills which will be placed in the mails in the near future. And when, shortly after the first of the year, the annual subscription for the upkeep of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce comes around, we will be in favor of that too.

But it is very apparent that, not forever will it be possible to raise money in quantity by means of a succession of organized collection drives, and the thing which must sooner or later be faced is the question as to how best to handle the situation.

We repeat, those movements now under way or which have been already arranged for, should be accepted at face value and paid for on as liberal a basis as is possible. But with the discharge of these existing obligations the whole plan of financing public activities should be either altered matterially or the activities themselves cut down to a point where they will cease to constitute a financial burden to the average run of the people.

The drive system of collection is a relic of the late war. Born of war's necessities, it proved a vehicle of tremendous force and power. By its means men and women who, left to their own devices would have invested not one cent in Liberty bonds and other war measures, were made to carry their fair share of the burden.
Y. M. C. A. activities were over-saturated again and again. The collection of funds for war purposes became a business, even in small towns. In larger centers of population it amounted to a profession, and does still.

But the war is over, the urge of patriotism is no longer a factor. Men seek today to struggle half way back to the old financial basis. They want to get into a position where their earnings are at least equal to their fixed expenses. They desire to work their affairs into such shape that they can pay their bills promptly, look their fellow men in the face and keep up the matter of the protection of their families in the event of accidents. They would first be just to themselves before becoming generous to others.

Insensibly, and insidiously the drive idea has gradually permeated the entire social structure. War days taught its tremendous possibilities. Some for any purpose could be raised with the greatest ease, until today, the urge is constantly in the direction of fresh funds to conquer, new purposes to which the drive idea may be devoted.

Under existing conditions the whole drive plan is economically false. Values are almost completely lost sight of. The financing of boys' and girls' clubs by public subscription is not an evil thing, but it is making a public charge of something which can hardly be regarded other than as largely of individual benefit.

There is of course the matter of the advantage to society, which is very real, but to what extraordinary extent may the idea be carried? Are we willing literally to subscribe to the doctrine that all society is his or her brother's or sister's keeper?—shall there be nothing left to individual responsibility?

As before stated, it is hoped by this very general discussion of an important problem, to help and never to hinder those projects which are already under way. That these may succeed to the very last degree is the ardent hope of this newspaper. But when these are over, when the money shall have been raised and the funds turned in for the completion of the various projects, let's think the thing out for ourselves. Always, there will be legitimate demands for funds for various public and semi-public activities. Let us give to these as freely as we may and can but let us so organize the business that giving will be a pleasure, not merely a disagreeable duty.

Let's investigate the Community Chest idea—it may be the way out.

IT'S OUR TURN NOW.

(Burley Bulletin)

A few weeks before the election, the editor of the Twin Falls Times indulged in a harangue against The Bulletin because it published an editorial stating that Davis, the Democratic nominee, was out of the race.
Indulging The Bulletin because it placed some credence in the straw vote conducted by The Literary Digest, The Times accused us of 'having a 'brainstorm' and of attempting to fool the people with political bunsule.

Now that the election is a matter of history, we take great pleasure in directing the attention of The Times to the fact that Calvin Coolidge completely obliterated his two opponents; that, outside of the 'solid South,' Candidate Davis didn't even start in the race, and barely held his own in the remainder of the country with 'Old Bob.'

And more important than this, we desire to call attention to the fact that basing its prediction on the results of its straw vote, The Digest, a few days before the election, forecast that Coolidge would receive three hundred seventy-nine electoral votes, Davis one hundred thirty-nine and LaFollette thirteen. And it is interesting to note that the exact results of the election are: Coolidge, three hundred eighty-two, Davis one hundred thirty-six, LaFollette thirteen.

From these facts, it is apparent that The Digest did not manipulate the straw vote, as claimed by The Times.

CHEAPER COAL

Some dealers are selling Lump Coal at 50c per ton cheaper than we are just to make the sale. If we would catch ourselves doing that after being established in the coal business a number of years, we would feel like starting an investigation at once to find out whether there was something wrong with the coal, or with us, or both. Now we could sell our Lump Coal for 50c less, and give you 1800 pounds for a ton, and we would be getting the same amount of money for our coal—we wonder why the city council passed an ordinance about a year ago to check up on us coal dealers' weights so that our weights would be uniform. We wish our Mayor would let us try out that ordinance—we believe it would have a tendency to stabilize the prices as well as the weights. What do you say, let's try it, so the K. K. K. can't accuse us of being slack on Law Enforcement.

DAD has always wanted an open car. He likes freedom. He wants speed—and flexibility. He loves to open 'er up on a smooth country road and feel the wind whiz past his face.

But Mother . . . she wants comfort and protection—she's thinking of that rainy day when the youngsters have to go to school.

And here at last is a new-type car to meet this old-time family problem.

It's a glorious—joyous—free, airy open car when you want it.

Then when it storms it may be changed to a comfortable, weather-tight enclosed car with complete protection from wind and rain.

Thirty seconds is all it takes—simply lower the roller side enclosures, without even leaving your seat. You've never seen anything like it before.

The Duplex body is framed and shaped in steel. Upper and lower sections are integral. Thus its construction is substantial and its body lasting.

It banishes once and for all the trouble of attaching the old-type curtains—makeshift at best.

No more hurried efforts hunting for the right curtain while the storm beats in.

No more exposure, through holes torn in them, while trying to obtain, for the emergency, the protection given by a closed car.

To-the-man-unwilling-to-sacrifice the thrill of open car motoring—to the woman who wants closed car protection right at her finger tips—this car offers a wonderful new adventure—it marks a new era in fine car possession.

DISTRICT LETS CONTRACTS FOR TWO NEW ROADS

William Harkins to Gravel Approximately Two Miles Southwest of City; Cost Totals $3695.

Twin Falls highway district commissioners Saturday awarded to William Harkins contracts for graveling of approximately two miles of road south and west of Twin Falls, involving expenditure of $1680 and $2015. Seven contractors submitted bids, the awards going to Mr. Harkins, whose bids were lowest.

Under these contracts 1300 yards of gravel is to be spread on one and one-tenths miles of road extending south from the end of the hard surfaced road south from the southwest corner of Twin Falls, and 1200 yards of gravel is to be applied to one mile of road extending west from this south road beginning at the intersection one mile
