STOCKS GO TO HIGHEST LEVEL IN EIGHT YEARS

Ninety-Three Issues Reach Top
Prices for 1924 in Wild Session on Floor of New York Exchange.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—Stocks prices whirled upward today to the highest general level in eight years in a wild burst of bullish enthusiasm that carried 93 issues to new peak prices for the year, the largest number of any single day on record. Total sales were 2,286,499 shares, making it the sixth "two million" since session since election day. The number of individual shares traded in was 141 or 14 below the record established one day last week.

Never before in stock exchange history has a buying movement reached such proportions and been sustained as the current one which started on the day after election in apparent anticipation of a marked revival of trade in the next two years. Professional traders, most of whom predicted a brief rally in event of the election of President Coolidge and then looked for a moderate decline on the theory that the market who bought stocks would be quick to convert paper profits into cash, have been frankly amazed at the tremendous demand for stocks. The profit taking which they looked for has taken place, but they never anticipated that the so-called public would come into the market so quickly and in such great numbers.

Wild Trading.
Heretofore such wild trading as the market has witnessed in the last two years has taken place at the beginning of "bear markets" when prices were on the down grade and everyone seemed to be trying to get rid of stocks at once. "Bull" movements such as the present one, ordinarily have taken weeks to get started, and have been marked by frequent reactions. The present advance, which to date has added nearly $4,000,000,000 to the quoted value of securities traded in the local markets has been an almost perpetual one.

Railroad shares regained leadership of today's market, 27 issues breaking through their previous high levels of the year.

CONDITION MRS. HARDING HELD TO BE "CRITICAL"

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding was reported tonight by her physician, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, in a "critical condition."

There has been no change since this afternoon, however, he reported.

Tonight's bulletin said: "There is no change in the condition of Mrs. Harding since this afternoon. She is still weak and exhausted. Her condition is critical."

Dr. Sawyer announced he will issue no more statements tonight.

WIDOW TESTIFIES IN MURDER CASE

Mrs. Dave Jennings, Wife of Murdered Man Tells of Considering Divorce.

BOISE, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Jennings, widow of Dave Jennings, who was shot and killed August 28 at the Union Pacific passenger station in Boise and for whose slaying Nick Watkins, a fellow brakeman of Jennings, is now on trial before Judge Dana E. Beick in district court, was called to the witness stand this afternoon by the state. She occupied the stand nearly an hour under direct and cross examination. She was the witness called by the state since the beginning of testimony Monday morning. According to Laurel E. Elam, prosecuting attorney for Ada county, the state probably would finish its case with Jennings tonight, in which event the defense would be ready to present its testimony tomorrow morning.

Examination of Mrs. Jennings pertaining to conversations between her and Watkins and brought out testimony that she had been considering divorce proceedings. She told of conversations in the office of Clarence T. Ward, Boise attorney, on August 25, at which Watkins was present, she said, and Mr. Ward, as she remembered, said something to Watkins about using the name of Mrs. Watkins in the divorce proceedings. She also testified to a meeting at her home when Watkins is alleged to have furnished a gun at Mrs. Watkins and later at Jennings.

BOISE WILL CELEBRATE NEW RAILWAY'S OPENING

Boise people expect to stage a celebration in connection with the opening of the new railway into the state capital on January 5 and 6, which will be one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever attempted in the state, according to Rolly Atkinson, general chairman of the movement, who spent a few hours in Twin Falls on Tuesday on a business trip.

"Of course, it is too soon to talk much about the details," said Mr. Atkinson yesterday, "but we have fixed the date and determined definitely on a celebration. President Carl Gary of the Union Pacific will be with us and on the arrival of his train we expect to serve a buffet luncheon in the new depot with a brief program following. January 5 is inauguration day for our new state officials and this will add much to the occasion. The inaugural ball which will be held that evening, always brings a large crowd to the capital."

"One of the main features of the railroad celebration will be the banquet at the Owyhee which will probably be held on the evening of the fifth. It is our intention to serve this in the lobby of the hotel, with an overflow table arrangement on the mezzanine floor. In this way we can seat and serve 600 people. The mayors of every town in Idaho will be invited as well as other officials and heads of local organizations. The program will be such as to render the occasion well worth attending."

Man's Parents Sent To Poor Farm While He Pays for a Car

Supreme Court Upholds Conviction of Stonecutter Who Refused to Care for Two.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 18 (AP)—The Indiana supreme court today upheld a law compelling a man to support his parents if they are dependent and the man is financially able. The court affirmed the conviction of Bernard Landy, a Lawrence county stonecutter, "on a charge of failing to support his parents who are alleged to have been sent to the poor house while he was making monthly payments of $44.50 on a used automobile. The court held that payments on the car offered no defense against the charge of failing to support his parents."

ORIENTAL EXCLUSION IS BELIEVED MISSION OF BEACH INTO MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18 (AP)—It was reported unofficially that the visit to Mexico City of Major General Lansing Beach, U. S. A., who arrived here last Saturday, is connected with proposals for mutual action by the United States and Mexican governments on the restriction of oriental immigration. In official quarters silence is being maintained concerning the object of General Beach's visit.

A dispatch from Mexico City on Sunday said that an unconfirmed report regarding the arrival of General Beach were to the effect that he was on a confidential mission from President Coolidge to President Obregon.

PUBLIC'S RIGHT TO TAX RETURNS IS QUESTIONED

Government Starts Action Against Newspapers for Publishing Income Statements; Indictments Coming.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The government's action to test the legality of publication of income tax returns by newspapers has been started and an indictment in one case is expected within a few days.

Attorney General Stone announced today that he had instructed United States attorneys to institute proceedings "in six or seven" instances, but he declined to indicate the newspaper against which grand jury presentments have been ordered. He said, however, that one suit will be filed soon and in well informed quarters it was said the attorney general believed the indictment may be forthcoming within 48 hours. There were indications that it was already under consideration by a grand jury.

Almost simultaneously with Mr. Stone's announcement the bureau of internal revenue sent additional instructions to internal revenue collectors which will act to restrict the time in which the public may make use of the income tax records under "public inspection" provisions of the law.

Commissioner Blair requested the collectors to limit the books to public examination to three days a week and three hours a day, advising them that experience since the books first opened had demonstrated that many persons desired to see the records for no obvious reason.

Blair informed the collectors the limitation appeared necessary that the collectors might continue to function without delay in disposition of general business. He suggested also that the collectors refer to those examining the records the warning against public action, mentioning penalties carried in the law.

CREMATION CASE BAFFLES POLICE

Wife of Pastor Burned in Furnace; Theory of Suicide Gives Way to Murder Belief.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 18 (AP)—Police tonight admittedly were without a clue to the mysterious cremation yesterday of Mrs. Adelle Shattlesley, 50, wife of the Rev. U. V. Shattlesley, pastor of Christ Lutheran church of Bexley, a suburb, whose charred body was found in the heating furnace in the basement of their Bexley home.

County Prosecutor King, with Police Lieutenant Shattlesberger, spent the entire day questioning members of the family and witnesses. No information which would throw any light on the case was obtained.

Driver Questioned.

The last witness to testify tonight was a driver of a bread wagon which left Bexley at 10:30 p. m. yesterday. He declared that he had not seen the woman at that time nor had he heard of seeing anything unusual about the house.

The tragedy last night, said by Coroner Murphy to be a suicide, but declared by Prosecutor King to be a murder, is one of the most baffling in the history of the Columbus police department. The Shattlesleys have lived here for nine years, all of which time the minister has had charge of the church. Their domestic relations have always been amiable, police were told.

Son Explains Part.

Clarence, a son of Mr. Shattlesley, was twice questioned by the prosecutor as to why he did not report the finding of his mother's body in the furnace shortly after 3 o'clock. Testimony showed that his older brother and both sisters came home more than an hour earlier than the father, but that the younger boy did not report his finding to them.

Not until his sisters returned from school about 4:30 p. m. and were attracted to the furnace by the stench did Milton investigate, he said. He accompanied the girls to the basement and found the furnace door ajar, but hurriedly closed it when a volume of smoke and fumes poured forth, he said. He soon afterward went out to practice football.

He was called home an hour later and was told that "Mama has been found in the furnace."

Police said no member of the family was regarded as a suspect.

SALT LAKE NEWSPAPER HEAD DIES; WAS WELL KNOWN THROUGH WEST

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 18 (AP)—Ambrose N. McKay, general manager of the Salt Lake Tribune, died of a heart ailment at his home in St. Paul, Minn., today.

Mr. McKay was one of the best known newspaper publishers in the west, was born in Ontario, Canada, and was a graduate of the University of Toronto. In 1897 he married Mrs. F. Cope of St. Paul, Minn., and his widow and son Donald, a student at Leland Stanford university, Palo Alto, Cal., survived him.

He came to the United States from Canada in 1890 and worked on newspapers in Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Denver, Colorado, before coming to Salt Lake City. He was managing editor of the old Salt Lake Herald from 1898 to 1909 and had been publisher of the Tribune here since 1911.

SHAPE PROGRAM FOR RELIEF OF FARM CONDITION

Agriculture Commission Appointed by President Coolidge Plans Measures to be Taken Up by Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The commission appointed by President Coolidge to solve the problems of American agriculture began today to shape its program of work so as to take advantage of the coming session of congress for any remedial legislation which it may by that time have concluded to be necessary.

After an all-day session behind closed doors, the commission announced, however, that it would be impossible to complete its work before congress convened next month and that after its session tomorrow and pending the assembling of data on which it will base its work, it would take a three or four weeks' recess.

As one of the most pressing problems, Robert D. Carey of Wyoming, chairman of the commission announced that the cattle industry would be one of the first subjects studied.

Meanwhile, Representative Tinscher, republican, Arkansas, a spokesman of the farm bloc, announced tonight for a conference with Senator Curtis of Kansas, the republican whip, that all pending farm legislation will be held in abeyance until congress had the benefit of conclusions reached by the agricultural commission. He said that in fact he did not expect the enactment of any farm legislation at the short session and added the opinion that as to a large portion of the agricultural sections of the west, the emergency conditions had passed.

Chairman Carey explained in his statement while in view of the broad scope of the commission's work it probably would be incomplete by March 4, he thought some phases, undoubtedly would be ready for report before that time.

RANCHERS DEFY COURT ORDERS

Attempt to Arrest Inyo County Farmers Will Result in Bloodshed, Threat.

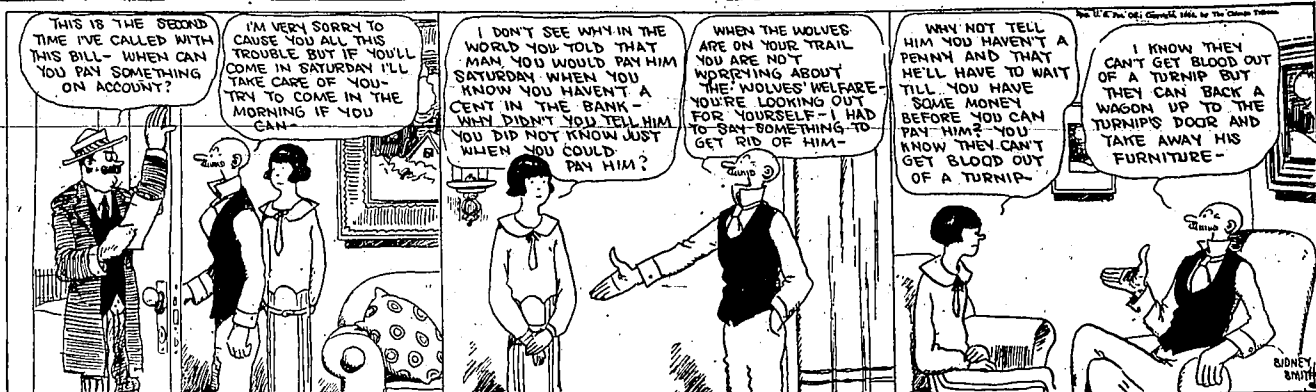

INDEPENDENCE, Inyo County, Cal., Nov. 18 (AP)—Representatives of the city of Los Angeles announced today that Inyo county's superior court here would be asked to issue warrants for the entire "army" of ranchers holding the Alabama gates of the Los Angeles water system, which was brought to its most recent crisis with the opening of the aqueduct gates last Sunday by a band of ranchers.

Citizens of this town predicted that if Sheriff Collins of Inyo county attempted to make any arrests under such warrants, such action might constitute the match that would ignite a real trouble for the Los Angeles water war, which was brought to its most recent crisis with the opening of the aqueduct gates last Sunday by a band of ranchers.

Forecast Loss of Life.
Collins Hession and District Attorney Jeff Hession both issued statements forecasting loss of life and great damage to the aqueduct if the county city of Los Angeles makes a move to oust the ranchers' army of occupation at the Alabama gates.

The sheriff said: "I am powerless in the situation. If I attempt to oust the ranchers it will mean possible loss of life and the dynamiting of miles of the aqueduct. The unarmed band of ranchers who are armed with dynamite are waiting to defend them if a clash should come. Women as well as men are ready to shoot."

PACIFIC FLIGHT —NOW PROPOSED FOR AVIATORS

Cruise of Navy to Hawaiian and Australian Waters Gives the Army Fliers Chance for Test Voyage.

HONOLULU, Nov. 18 (AP)—The visit of the United States fleet to Hawaiian and Australian waters will be made the occasion for the first round-the-Pacific flight under plans which are being backed by the Pan-Pacific Union here.

The idea was conceived by David Stead, Australian delegate to the recent Pan-Pacific food conservation conference, who has made a study of aviation and has been given the unofficial approval of the ranking army and navy officials here.

A flight in four sections is contemplated: San Francisco to Honolulu, Honolulu to Manila, Manila to Australia and Australia to Honolulu. All will follow commercial steamship routes.

Considered "Stunt."

Commander John Rodgers, U. S. N., commander of the naval air forces here, said that while he considered the hop from San Francisco to Honolulu as a "stunt," he hoped it could be made. He regarded the route from Honolulu to Australia as practicable and estimated it could be covered in one of the navy's new type planes in six days, as compared with the present steamer time of 14 days.

Mr. Stead has pledged the aid of the Australian government to the project. The greatest feat, he added, would be the 2100 mile hop from San Francisco to Honolulu. With this accomplished the flight to Manila could be made in easy stages, with stops at Johnston island, Jalut island, Fanning and the Pelow group. The third leg would be from Manila to Sandakan and would then follow the route taken by Sir Ross Smith in his memorable flight from Europe to Australia, along the Australian coast, within the barrier reef where calm water always would be encountered. The fourth leg would be from Sydney to Honolulu, by way of Fiji, Samoa, Phoenix and Palmyra islands.

Must steak be done just one way to suit you?

Would you enjoy a steak served to you on a platter of "Maybe this is done enough for you—and maybe it isn't?" Chances are you wouldn't. True, the actual steak taste is the same—whether it is rare, medium, or well done—but you like your steak done just one way.

Same with M.J.B. Coffee. M.J.B. asks you to like coffee your way—strong or mild or half-way. The flavor of M.J.B. will always be the same; but the strength-per-cup that suits you depends on your coffee taste.

The M.J.B. taste-finding chart shows you how to find it. You can get one free at your grocer's or direct from M. J. Brandenstein & Co., San Francisco.

M. J. B.

You may have a "pat" way of making coffee and a "pet" way of drinking it—strong or mild, with cream or without; but this much is coffee-certain:

You can't escape the rich, full-bodied flavor of M.J.B. That's always in the cup—a lifetime of coffee experience puts it there.

And so is economy! For M.J.B. is a top-crop coffee—double-rich in body and strength. That's why it goes farther—costs less per cup!

CAR SHORTAGE AVOIDED FOR YEAR OF 1924

One Hundred Ninety-Three

First Class Roads Handled

Peak Traffic Without Trouble, Report Declares.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—The 103 class one railroads of this country got through the peak traffic movement this year without a car shortage for the first time in their history. It was revealed today when the car service division of the American Car association presented its 1924 report to the board of directors. The report showed that seven new transportation records had been set throughout the industry generally during this period. That 1924 was the first year in which the carriers averted the usual autumn bugaboo of a dearth of freight cars was attributed to a new system in the handling of "empties." In the past, it was pointed out, it had been customary to mobilize great fleets of rolling stock which were concentrated regionally for the movement of crops or coal.

Supply Analyzed.

This year the car supply problem was analyzed in advance so that it was dealt with in fractions of itself, the report showed. This was particularly reflected in the fact that more cars had been kept on home lines than ever before. Western owned cars, for example, were rushed back to their home yards at far greater speed and their unloading, loading and general handling measurably expedited.

Heavy Year.

These results were obtained, it was further pointed out, in a year which, except for coal, coke and ore, bade fair to become the heaviest transportation year in American railroading. The loadings of all commodities, with these three exceptions was one per cent heavier than for the corresponding period in the record breaking year of 1923. The report showed among the new high marks in car movement and efficiency set in 1924.

The greatest number of cars loaded during one week in history, 1,112,240 cars, the week of October 25, last. New high record for grain and grain products for any one week, 72,476, the week of October 25, last. New high record in movement of both loaded and empty freight cars, 1,020,211, moved in one day, Wednesday, October 25, last. Seventeen directors attended the semi-annual meeting.

GRIFFEN ASSERTS WRONG MAN HELD

Pool Hall Operator Testifies Woman Was Owner of Counter Where Liquor Was Found

W. C. Griffen, one of the proprietors of the St. Regis pool room at Hagerman which was recently destroyed by fire after it had been closed under court order because of its alleged use in connection with violation of the liquor laws, testified in his own defense in district court here Tuesday that he was not the owner of the lunch counter in the establishment where deputy sheriffs on October 24, last, discovered and seized about one pint of liquor. Griffen was on trial for alleged possession of this liquor. He testified that the lunch counter was owned and operated by Ethel Whitten. Mrs. Whitten, who followed him on the witness stand, corroborated this statement, and testimony to similar effect of several patrons of the lunch counter, an employee of the pool room and two persons who had furnished provisions for the lunch counter, also was introduced by the defense.

C. E. Jones, deputy sheriff, testifying as the principal witness for the state stated that Griffen had told him that he was the sole proprietor of the establishment including the lunch counter.

State Has More Witnesses

Testimony of one more witness for the defense remained to be introduced when the recess was taken Tuesday evening, and Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor, conducting the case for the state, stated that testimony of several witnesses would be offered today in rebuttal of the defense case.

The state rested its case at about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Thereafter Judge W. A. Babcock, presiding, denied a motion urged by W. F. Chapman, attorney for Griffen, that the court instruct the jury that the evidence introduced by state was insufficient to warrant a verdict of conviction.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Edited by MRS. E. B. WILLIAMS Phone 396

On Tuesday afternoon the art department of the Twentieth Century club met at the Justine Inn. Indian art was the subject for the afternoon and was ably discussed by Mrs. M. J. Swelley, chairman of the department. Placed about the room were a great number of reproductions of American Indian art by some of the celebrated painters and many fine pieces of pottery and samples of basketry. Several love-rugs were also displayed. Mrs. H. H. Schildman of Filer, spoke most interestingly on the Nez Perce Indians, their habits and handicraft. Mrs. A. W. Ostrom sang a group of Indian songs, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Dygert. Miss Alberta Simons spoke on Indian basket weaving and showed a number of beautiful baskets. Guests were present from Kimberly, Filer and Buhl, and the president of each club at the invitation of Mrs. Swelley, spoke briefly, expressing their pleasure at being present at this unusual and interesting meeting.

Twenty members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft motored to Buhl Monday evening where they were the guests of the circle of that city. An exceedingly fine program was given after which cards and luncheon were enjoyed until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served.

Covers were laid for 12 at a pleasant dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stepink at their Blue Lake boulevard home Tuesday evening. Following the dinner the guests spent the evening at bridge and "500." Those present were the Rev. and Mrs. Louis P. Nissen, Mr. and Mrs. George Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brannin, Mr. and Mrs. William Renfro and Mr. and Mrs. John Van Deratone.

Members of Twin Falls council, Knights of Columbus, and their wives, numbering in all about 60 persons, enjoyed a pleasant dinner served Tuesday evening at Tom's cafe. The affair was the first of a series of similar events planned to be held during the winter months. Brief talks were made on this occasion by the Rev. Romi S. Keyzer, M. A. Thometz, Albert Knofel, grand knight, and Harry Benoit, past grand knight.

STANFORD'S TEAM HAS ENVIOUS RECORD: ONLY CLOSE GAME WITH IDAHO

PALO ALTO, Cal., Nov. 18 (AP)—Stanford university has one of the two major football teams of the country that have won every game this season, the other being Notre Dame's eleven. All the other big teams have at least the games to mar their records. Though Stanford has had a comparatively light schedule, with only one game that turned out to be close, the 3 to 0 victory over Idaho, supporters of the Cardinals find encouragement enough to send out a blanket forecast of triumph over California in the Pacific coast championship game at Berkeley next Saturday. California has not been defeated, but tied with Washington, a conference member not on Stanford's schedule.

Stanford trimmed Oregon 28 to 13, and Montana 41 to 3. In non-conference games the Cardinals beat Occidental 20 to 6, the Olympic club 7 to 0, Santa Clara 20 to 0, and Utah 30 to 0.

HOW SHALL ZB-3 BE USED?

The ZB-3 might have for its motto
the refrain of the popular song,
"What'll I Do?" At any rate, the burden of the Navy Department's days
is rapidly becoming "What'll we do with the ZB-3?"

To begin with, the great Zeppelin is a strictly commercial ship. But she is also under strictly military jurisdiction. Suitable use for this mightiest of dirigibles range everywhere from a north polar expedition to carrying mail from New York to London or from Los Angeles to Honolulu. It seems that great numbers of people are interested in the matter and are sending their proposals to the Navy Department.

There are other complications, too.
As fast as enough helium can be made the ZB-3 is to be inflated with that non-inflammable gas instead of with the dangerous hydrogen. But Dr. Hugo Eckener, head of the Zeppelin company, calling at the Navy Department to say farewell before returning to Germany, gently reminded the navy air chief that experiments with the helium should be made before any final program was settled on for the ZB-3, because the American gas has a materially lower lifting ratio than the hydrogen used by the Zeppelin company.

This need not be a staggering problem, however. If the ZB-3 and airships of its type are going to serve a valuable purpose in the world, surely the Navy Department will discover what it is. If not, then the sooner that is learned, the better, and in either case the ultimate decision will be worth the price.

LITERATURE MOVES WEST.

Literary attention is drawn to the northwestern states by the notable success of Martha Ostenso, who won the $13,500 prize offered by a threefold combination of magazines, book publishing house and film company.
Her novel, the judges say, was so much better than all the hundreds of manuscripts submitted by American authors, known and unknown, that there was no comparison.

And who is this Miss Ostenso, whose first literary effort wins such laurels?
A twenty-four year old school teacher,
reared in Minnesota and South Dakota,
the daughter of a humble Danish immigrant and herself an immigrant.
The geography of this literary feat is even more significant than the personality of the author. Miss Ostenso is but the latest of a distinguished succession of American authors
springing from that same section, which outwardly might seem rather inhospitable to the fine arts.

The first American literary center was New England. New York, too, had its day, but is now distinguished chiefly by its adoption of literary lights from the provinces. Latterly, the course of literature has moved westward to Indiana and Illinois. Now it seems to be establishing itself in the great plains of the Northwest.
Ultimately it may be expected to move
across the Rockies, to the congenial atmosphere of the Pacific Coast, where a new and healthy growth of the arts
is already observable.

Art's Real Purpose.

Art is the expression of the nation's highest thought. The men and women who give their lives to it constitute the vanguard of civilization. They are the true physicians, healing with beauty the perpetuity and pain of man; they are the torchbearers, fluting illuminating the darkness that is tomorrow; they are the trail-blazers, winning new worlds; they are the interpreters of the pent-up idealism of the inarticulate millions.—Herman Hagedorn.

Power of Attorney

Metaphysics.

A friend's husband is an electrical engineer in charge of a large power plant. The only child of the family is a small boy, aged four, who idolizes
his father and who takes deep interest in his work at the power plant. The mother was teaching the little fellow
the Lord's Prayer, and it was very apparent that his interest was not in the teaching. Each evening at bedtime a bit more was laboriously memorized.
Finally, one evening, they reached the phrase, "for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory." At that the boy raised his head, his eyes bright with interest and in his father's most professional tone, he said, "Mother, what kind of power does God use?"—Chicago Journal.

VARIED-VAUDEVILLE BILL

IS OFFERED AT ORPHEUM

A varied vaudeville bill of five feature acts that can hardly fail to interest, amuse and entertain royally is to be presented this evening at the Orpheum. The acts include:
Miss Jean Craig, who appears in "Ma Jong's Chinese Cafe," creates many funny situations. This feature attraction is considered by press and public to be the funniest, surprising Chinese vocal novelty on the vaudeville stage,
same being a treat to the most critical audience. Aside from the fun involved in the number, splendid singing of the kind that appeals is furnished by this clever duo of entertainers.
Lillian Tingley is a clever young lady who is classed a versatile artist in instrumental and vocal offerings. The songs and selections chosen are suited to her voice and musical talents and are universally received with the highest appreciation. She plays brass instruments and at the finish of the act
she does a yodeling number that never fails to please. Her wardrobe is very beautiful and she has an abundance of personality.
Mack and Bernard, called "Palm Beach Tramps" live up to their title as they are two clever boys and as comedians they rank among the best of themselves. The act consists of singing and comedy dancing of the very best.
These boys make up as comedy tramps
but they put it over in a millionfold form which puts them into a class by themselves.
The Three Ladderes, introducing one of the most marvelous programs of acobatic and sensational athletic feats ever presented, are noted for their posing and acrobatic feats which are unsurpassed, furnishing as they do, all the thrills compatible with daring entertainment.
DeBorough Sisters are two beautiful
dainty French girls direct from Paris,
receiving the latest Paris gown, making this the most attractive act of its kind that has ever played the Bert Levey circuits. The offering is a spectacular novelty direct from the home of illusions and charlatanism and is an act of beauty and mystery, artistically presented.

AT THE IDAHO.

Yes, sir, they're really throwing pies
again in the movies.
And custard pies, at that.
Olga Hunter made a sad discovery
at the Paramount West Coast studios, namely and to wit: That custard pies
are just as sticky as they look.
It took Hunter 10 minutes to get all the custard out of his eyes, and he had to put on a complete new facial makeup.
James Cruze, noted Paramount producer, who made "Merton of the Movies" with Hunter in the starring role and Viola Dana featured, wrote the scene into the script on the spur of the moment.
He decided that Hunter, as the awkward small town "Merton," footloose and fancy free in Hollywood, should wander into a comedy act where Miss Hunter was working just in time to receive the pie hurled by a cross-eyed villain.
"Now!" shouted Cruze as Merton
got in line.
Three stage hands nonchalantly mopped up the mangled remains of the custard pie.
Merton of the Movies' opening tomorrow at the Idaho theater, featuring Viola Dana in the cast. Among others to follow Wallace, Charles Ogles, Luke Osgraves and De Witt Jennings.

Explanation of Sleep.

It is impossible to give any precise explanation of the phenomenon of sleep. Yet many theories have been advanced. Legendre has shown by fairly conclusive arguments that it is due neither to "brain pattern" nor to intoxication by carbonic acid, nor to the presence of narcotic substances in the blood—theories that have in turn been advanced. Legendre intimates his preference for the view that sleep is not the result of fatigue, but is an instinctive instinct designed to protect the organism against the ill-effects of fatigue.

CORN GOES SKYWARD ON CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Corn went soaring today and reached new peak prices for the season. May delivery touching $1.22 1/2 and July $1.23 1/4 a bushel. Freezing temperatures and increased feeding demand together with weakness of country offerings led to active general buying of corn and the market closed buoyant, 1 3/4 to 1 1/2 net higher, May $1.22 1/2 to 1 1/2 3/8. Wheat finished unsettled at 1 1/2 net lower to 1 1/4 advance, December $1.18 1/2 to 1 1/4 1/2, and May $1.60 1/2 to 1 1/4 1/2, with oats 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 net and provisions varying from unchanged figures to 3/8 gain.

Corn quickly shook itself loose from the effect of weakness in the wheat values. At first corn prices had sagged a little owing to sympathy with the bread grain but soon buyers came to the conclusion that sellers of corn were relatively scarce. Downward in price were then more than wiped out, and throughout the remainder of the day the course of the corn market was an irregular ascent that toward the last grew decidedly rapid.

Brief demand for corn available to be delivered at once was much in evidence with reports current that hunking returns from surplus producing states were a series of disappointments. Receivers were quoted as saying that they looked for little movement of corn until the end of November and that arrivals in the west were much smaller than a year ago.

Wheat and oats proved responsive to the corn bulge, but were inclined to sag during the earlier trade, wheat especially so. Lower quotations at Liverpool and Buenos Aires were the chief depressing influence.

The Modern Naturalist

One of the most hopeful developments of our time is the change that has come over the minds of naturalists. The world was once used to describe a man who was interested in stuffed birds; the collector who gave the fullest play to his most selfish instincts, and was chiefly concerned to have in his possession something that nobody else had. We now understand that a man whose work is to describe the gun, but the camera, who does not want to have a dead bird on his mantelpiece, but to watch a bird live in the tree; whose interest is not in specimens but in free and beautiful and happy life of a living creature.—Manchester Guardian.

Hearing Affected by Sound

It is reported that certain experiments have shown that a vibration of sound having an amplitude of less than one-twentieth-millionth of a centimeter could still affect the sense of hearing. Such a vibration would be so short that it would have to be enlarged 100 times before the most powerful microscope could render it visible, supposing that it were capable of being seen at all. Old persons, it is said, do not hear high notes which are audible to young persons, and there is reason to believe that babies hear notes that are inaudible to their elders.

On that occasion, also, the post is to present to the Boy Scout troop for which it is sponsor, a large American flag, and members of the troop regulars of the veterans. Dr. W. F. Packer, P. W. McRoberts and Dr. F. O. Berke were named as members of the committee to arrange for this meeting. Twin Falls post is to be officially represented at the district convention by R. F. Parry, who received the unanimous vote of members at the meeting Tuesday evening.
