COMPERS AGAIN ELECTED HEAD OF FEDERATION

President of American Labor Body Is Re-Elected to Post He Has Held for Many Years; Meeting Adjourns.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 25 (AP)—Samuel Compers, completing 63 years of service in the American labor movement, today was unanimously re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor, a post he has held every year but one since the organization of the federation in 1881.

Closing his seventy-fourth year, the forty-fourth annual convention of the organization which the daring flight of his boyhood imagination conceived more than a decade before the federation came into being, Mr. Compers, militant, erect, looking to the future, dedicated himself anew to the prosecution of his work.

"I have but one ambition," he said to the convention. "I want only to be of service in whatever way I can to the progress and advancement of the American labor movement."

He passed an instant: Fighting Leader.

When he resumed, he spoke not as the "grand old man of labor," honored and acclaimed by his co-workers, but as the vigorous, fighting leader of the American Federation of Labor, again ready for the fray.

"There is just one thing that I want to impress upon this convention before we adjourn," he said, "and through you I hope to impress it upon all who work with us in the American movement."

"Come what may in industry American wage earners will resist to the end any effort to reduce wages. The attitude of the American Federation of Labor is that any industry which will not support its workers on the level of American standards of life had best get out of business."

He paused again.

Adjourns Session.

In accordance with the vote of the delegates, I now declare the forty-fourth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor adjourned.

BANKER FOUND DEAD IN HILLS

Mysterious Circumstances Surround Finding of Body in San Bernardino Mountains.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 25 (AP)—The body of William R. Foe, president of two banks at Alhambra, Cal., found by a searching party in the San Bernardino mountains today, revealed no wounds on examination by physicians when it was brought down later. First reports by telephone said there was a bullet hole in the head.

Examining doctors who are conducting an autopsy said they believed the report of a wound in the head arose from the fact that there was some blood about the nose.

In the dead man's mouth was an unlighted cigarette and in his hand a pair of pruning shears, when he was found. Members of the posse who searched the hills yesterday for Foe said that they had traversed the location in Lytle creek canyon, where the body was found, and that they had not seen it there when they passed yesterday.

Watch Cabin.

They also reported that last night, while watching the cabin of Mary Watkins, an employee of the Foe banks, which was within 50 feet of where the body was found, they saw a man and a woman enter the cabin last night and leave again 15 minutes later. They could not definitely identify the pair.

Doctors here, after the first examination of Foe's body, expressed the opinion that he had been dead less than 48 hours.

Foe went to Lytle creek canyon Saturday to spend the week-end and disappeared about 3 p. m. that day after telling his wife he was going to repair a radio aerial in his cabin.

After the autopsy Sheriff W. A. Shay said it looked like murder. Antoxy surgeons said after a close examination a fracture of the left temporal bone was found which might have caused death.

Earthquake Shakes Southeastern Idaho Dispatches Report

Montpelier Tells of Being Hit by Tremor; Roar Proceeds the Shock.

BOISE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Southeastern Idaho was badly shaken up at 13 o'clock Monday night by an earthquake, which old-timers say was the most severe ever felt in this part of the state, according to a dispatch from Montpelier to the Statesman. Hotels, residences and all places occupied at that hour of the night were shaken so hard that few people who had retired were not awakened by the tremor, which was preceded by a thunderous roar. To those who were awake the noise sounded like a terrific explosion at the distance, but the almost instantaneous tremor of the earth following the noise removed all doubts as to the nature of the disturbance.

BLUESACKETS MISSING.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Nov. 25 (AP)—Two bluejackets have been missing 48 hours from H. M. S. Valiant, it was reported this evening. It was stated that the local authorities have been informed and that a search was being instituted.

CAIRO IS CALM AFTER TROUBLE

Egyptians Quiet Following the Stern Note and Action Taken by Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 25 (AP)—All reports from Egypt today agree that the population is quiet and Cairo is calm. If it is the calm before the storm, there are innumerable indications that the British are prepared. Several British warships are proceeding to Egyptian waters and troops are being sent to start strategic stations in the country; an entire battalion is being moved across the Mediterranean from Malta.

The Second Horsebushes have left Suva for Port Sudan; a Scottish battalion is being transferred from Alexandria.

JUDGE CHARGED WITH DRINKING WHILE ON DUTY

Congressional Substitute Committee Listens to Evidence Against West Virginia Federal Jurist.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 25 (AP)—Testimony that Judge William E. Baker of the United States district court in West Virginia, bore the odor of liquor on his breath and in the opinion of one witness was under the influence of liquor while on the bench, was introduced today at a hearing before a congressional substitute committee which is investigating charges of misconduct filed against Judge Baker. Other testimony touched upon liquor drinking "parties," orders for the transfer of confiscated liquor and an alleged change in court records in a criminal case.

The sub-committee of the judiciary committee of the house of representatives is hearing what was termed a "cross section" of the evidence rolled upon by United States District Attorney T. A. Brown to support the charges on which he asks impeachment of Judge Baker. Tomorrow a portion of Judge Baker's side of the case will be heard.

"Maudlin Drunk."

The climax of the day came when Mr. Marion O. Greer, clerk to the district attorney, declared that during a term of court at Parkersburg he saw Judge Baker and I. Wade Coffman, clerk of the court going through the corridor at night "maudlin drunk."

On another occasion at Elkins, he testified, he found a boisterous party in the marshal's office and saw Judge Baker sitting on a desk "very boisterous," showing indications of the use of liquor.

Mrs. Greer told also of a case in which the judge raised a question of whether jurisdiction had been shown and said that she smelled fumes of liquor on his breath when he called her to the bench to read back testimony she had taken as court reporter.

German Dirigible ZR 3 Goes Into Service As U. S. Navy Air Liner

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—A vast gray bulk roaring northward through the darkness, the United States air liner Los Angeles spent tonight to take her appointed station as a commissioned ship of the navy, but none the less a ship of peace.

Somewhere ahead of her in the blackness fled a half score of bombing airplanes carrying word to the Lakehurst station that with full pomp and ceremony, the name of the California city had been bestowed upon the ship by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the nation's president. With that act, the designation ZR-3 she has carried so long passed off the navy's rolls, the name Los Angeles, signifying the peaceful mission she had been assigned by international agreement, blossoming in its place.

Perfect Day.

It was almost a perfect day for the christening. By the time the air giant came nosing out of the blue gray haze to northward just before 1 o'clock, the sun had broken through the banking clouds of the morning and was sweeping the sky clear moment by moment. The trip south from Lakehurst was made swiftly and the ZR-3, as she then still was, found herself with more than two hours of aerial loafing to do before she came down at the naval air place.

WATKINS CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY; STATE TO MAKE ITS ARGUMENT

BOISE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Fate of Nick Watkins, former Union Pacific brakeman, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Dave Jennings at the Union Pacific passenger station the morning of August 25, will be in the hands of the jury tomorrow. The state will open its argument tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, followed by argument of the defense and the closing argument of the state. Judge Dana E. Brink expressed hope this afternoon just before court adjourned that arguments would be finished before the noon hour, but this seemed doubtful when the counsel refused to consent to limiting time. State attorneys thought they would be able to finish in two hours. No decision was reached and the question probably will be reopened tomorrow morning so that time may be fixed.

The state rested its rebuttal testimony this afternoon at 4:20 o'clock after calling physicians and other witnesses to testify to appearances of Watkins before and after the shooting. The defense rested its rebuttal testimony at 4:35 o'clock, after calling three witnesses to the stand.

The dispute concerning which the employer proposed to confer is already under the jurisdiction of the board, and spokesmen of the board indicated that therefore it would not be deemed necessary for the board to take special action. The board assumed jurisdiction over the protest of the Brotherhood last April, its action affecting the Southern Pacific and nearly all other important lines west of Chicago.

The roads refused to confer there after with the employees on the separate property, maintaining that they had authorized the western managers' conference committee (Jeffers committee) to represent them in the dispute until its conclusion. The board held that failure of the employees and the Jeffers committee to agree threatened interruption of commerce to the employees contended that the intervention of the board interfered with the conference between employees and management. The question is now before the supreme court.

The employees contended that agreement with the Jeffers committee was impossible because the committee insisted upon the application on all roads of a number of rules affecting them unequally, but that they could agree with the individual roads if allowed to confer with them one by one on local issues. Representatives of some of the railroad differed. W. M. Jeffers, Omaha, chairman of the committee, said he was unable to answer when asked at a board hearing why the management had formerly insisted on separate conferences now insisted on concerted conferences.

TAKES COMMAND OF THE FRENCH ARMY ON RHINE

MAYENCE, Germany, Nov. 25 (AP)—General Gaillemard today took over command of the French army in the Rhineland in succession to General Douguette. Full military ceremonies were observed.

After reviewing the troops the new commander made a brief address in which he said he had arrived at the opening of a new era based on reciprocal loyalty, with a desire for an understanding of details which will guarantee the execution of treaties.

"In taking up my command," he said, "I assume the double task of assuring our security and that of our allies and carrying out the execution of the treaties with loyalty, justice and impartiality."

CONFIDENCE IS VOTED CABINET BY LEGISLATORS

Action of Communists in Sunday Proceedings Condemned by French Chamber; Sharp Dispute Arises.

PARIS, Nov. 25 (AP)—The chamber of deputies today gave the government a vote of confidence, 318 to 130, on an interpellation by Deputy Pierre Taittinger regarding incidents which occurred during the march across Paris by communists at the Jaurès ceremonies today.

The interpellation brought about a violent scene in the house and after a lengthy debate Premier Herriot declared that an adverse vote would mean that the house had lost confidence in the government.

Revolutionary.

M. Taittinger denounced Sunday's proceedings as a revolutionary manifestation. He said that General Nollet, minister of war, had been compelled to flee in order to escape the revolutionary manifestation and that passersby were forced to salute the red flag. When he declared that the danger had increased by the presence of the international underworld the extreme left called loudly upon him to speak of the international underworld and Billotte's absence.

This was a reference to Senator Billot, who, as president of the association of economists, is accused by the left of handling a heavy election fund in the recent election. M. Taittinger immediately charged the members of the present government with receiving money from the association and repudiating to pressing cries for names said that a certain list of the Rhone department in which M. Herriot's name appeared had received a subvention from this association.

Was In 1919.

Premier Herriot explained that this incident had to do with the 1919 elections, not 1924, as the deputy wished it to appear. The association at that time M. Herriot continued, might have been considered as pursuing an honorable object and Senator Billot had

PAYETTE LAKES IS GUARD SITE

Noted Summer Resort Chosen as Encampment Ground for Idaho Militia, Report.

BOISE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Payette lake has been definitely selected as a regular national guard encampment ground, it was announced today by Major Bruce C. Leisner, acting adjutant general, who has returned from the conference of adjutant generals held annually at San Francisco. The conference was also attended by Captain L. Z. Worthington, infantry instructor of Idaho national guard.

In the future, Major Leisner said, the camp site will be used by all Idaho national guard units except the artillery which has to be eliminated because there is no satisfactory range for heavy guns.

The grounds will be improved, summer kitchens will be built and a drinking water supply provided for the use of future Idaho soldiers. Ninth corps area headquarters has pledged support. As a result of the conference Governor C. C. Moore will have the privilege of appointing one major general and one brigadier general for national guard organizations. The major general will be the commanding officer of the 41st division, national guard, and the brigadier general will head the brigade of field artillery assigned to this division.

RUSSIAN JEWS WANT REPUBLIC ALL THEIR OWN

Soviet Prepared to Give Complete Autonomy to Jewish People Within Borders If They Wish It.

MOSCOW, Nov. 25 (AP)—Sentiment is growing in Russia for the establishment of a Jewish republic. The subject has been under discussion among prominent Hebrews and members of the government for some time past. It is known that the Soviet, which is anxious to solve the problem of all nationalities within its borders, is prepared to give complete autonomy to the Jews provided some means can be found of uniting their interests and of locating them in a homogeneous colony within the Soviet union. At present there are upward of 6,000,000 Jews in Russia, scattered over a wide area.

Bolshevik officials take much pride in saying they have solved the minority question in Russia, Georgia, Azerbaijan and the central Asian states for centuries past efforts of czarist Russia in the same direction failed. They are confident the Jewish question can be solved in a similar way. The government has created a special commission in Moscow to study the Jewish question and to extend schemes for the colonization of the race. The Ukrainian and White Russian governments have already allotted large tracts of land to the Jews for settlement purposes.

Navajo Brave Flees From Mother-in-Law

The superstitions of the Navajos are so many and so varied that life for them would be a constant burden if they observed them as carefully as they are supposed to. It is probable that the great American mother-in-law myth, which represents all mothers-in-law as being very bad medicine, had its origin in the beliefs of the Navajos; for very terrible things are supposed to happen to any Navajo man who is so unfortunate as to meet his mother-in-law in the face, writes Kenneth L. Roberts in the Saturday Evening Post.

When the Navajos are pressed to reveal the hideous calamities that would befall them in the event of meeting their mother-in-law, they move uneasily from foot to foot and evade the issue. It is a tale of talk about, but it is obvious that meeting a mother-in-law in Navajo circles is the very apex of tough luck.

A Navajo will go to any length to avoid burying a dead man. It is very bad medicine to kill or skin a bear. His superstition, however, is that he should not consider as bad medicine the stealing of fascinating little odds and ends from the white man any more than the white man in years gone by considered that he was doing any particular wrong when he sold Navajo women and children into slavery, stole Navajo land and killed Navajo sheep.

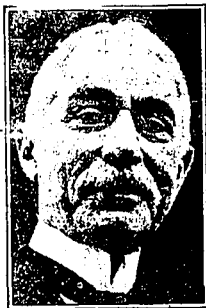

World Enriched by Genius in Poverty

Art? What have "idle riches" done for that? By rights they should have produced, they should have created, but so far as output goes their contribution has been disappointing. One often hears the suggestion made that young people of artistic promise should be "endowed" to create. "If only he had a little more money, and leisure—what great things he would do!" Would he? I believe, would he? It may seem, that the wolf at the door has often been the incentive to powerful incentives toward artistic creation.

Of course there are volcanic gifts like those of Shelley or Blake that erupt spontaneously and irrefragably, regardless of the consequences. But many of the greatest artists have been guided on to creation by need. Shakespeare, Chatterton and Keats (long way after those) Walter Scott, Doctor Johnson, Anthony Trollope. On the whole, great artists have been not hard workers, but men who have had to work hard—Violet Bonham-Carter in Good Housekeeping.

CHAPLIN WEDS LEADING LADY

Famous Movie Star and Lita Grey Married in Mexico; Second Attempt Made.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 25 (AP)—At 5 o'clock this morning in the little town of Empalme, near Guaymas on the Gulf of California, Charlie Chaplin was married to Lita Grey, his leading lady, by Civil Justice Antonio Hara, according to dispatches received here from Guaymas.
Immediately after the ceremony the newly married couple returned to Guaymas, reaching there at 7 o'clock. The wedding party had breakfast at the Hotel Alhila and afterward went to their suite in the hotel which had been reserved in the hotel.

The witnesses at the marriage in Empalme today were the same as those who appeared with the couple there October 14 when they secured a marriage license but were unable to have the ceremony performed because of legal technicalities.
Four Mexicans.
They were Angel Murillo of Quaymas and Francisco Monique, of Empalme. For the bride, and Francisco Espada and Ramon Ramirez, for Chaplin.
During his trip from the United States to Mexico, Chaplin is said to have refused to make any statement to special American newspaper correspondents or local newspaper men, and the bride and a member of her family and their companions were equally reticent.
Miss Grey and members of the moving picture company with which she is appearing, spent Monday, prior to the arrival of Chaplin, filming scenes in the vicinity of Guaymas bay.

Clock as Money Box
A savings bank in the United States is making a present of a clock to every new depositor. It is a measure of a peculiar kind, and is really a combination of a clock and a safe. It needs re-winding every 24 hours, but before it can be re-wound a coin must be inserted. The owner is thus compelled to add something to his savings every day.—London Tit-Bits.

Canaries renew their feathers once a year. Adults molt late in the summer. Young birds molt the juvenile body plumage after leaving the nest, but keep the first growth of wing and tail feathers for a year. Canaries are somewhat dull and stupid while molting, and should be distributed as little as possible.

ARGENTINE LAW GOVERNS LABOR

Women Not Permitted to Work More Than 8 Hours; Six for Persons Under 18 Years.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 25 (AP)—Eight hours' work for women, 6 hours for persons of both sexes under 18, two hours for lunch and no work six weeks before and after child-birth are enforced, among other things, under a law enacted by congress regulating the working conditions of women and of persons under 18 years of age in Argentina. The new legislation supports the principles regarding maternity submitted in the Washington International Labor conference in 1919.

According to the terms of the new law, children under 12 years of age can not be hired for any kind of work, nor those of a school age who have not completed their obligatory school curriculum. Boys under 14 and unmarried girls under 18 may not engage in any occupation which must be done on the streets or public places. Women workers over 18 are not allowed to work more than 8 hours daily or 48 hours weekly, while workers of both sexes under 18 can not work more than six hours a day or 36 hours weekly.

Night work is prohibited for women and persons under 18, except in the cases of nurses and domestic servants, but girls over 18 may work at night in public performances. Women and persons of both sexes under 18 employed in factories, etc., are not allowed to do home work for their employers and are not permitted to engage in dangerous or unhealthy occupations or to sell alcoholic drinks.

Old Political History.
Henry Clay was nominated for the presidency by the Whigs in 1844, by acclamation. The Texas annexation question bobbed up, and a letter of Clay's was unearthed in which he opposed annexation at that time. This hurt him with the southern Whigs and did him no good in the North, where the intense Abolitionists voted for a third party candidate, John G. Birney, and gave New York and Michigan to Polk, who was elected. Lewis Cass of Michigan missed the presidency in 1848. He was nominated by the Democrats, and defeated because Van Buren ran as a Free Soil candidate, and took enough Democratic votes away from Cass, in New York, to defeat him, giving the election to Gen. Zachary Taylor.

Jade Prized in the East.
In China a string of jade beads is now used as an insignia of high rank and authority. At one time, it is said, no other than a prince of the royal blood had the right to possess jade in India, under pain of death. In China the jade is termed the concentrated essence of love. It is an ornament often bestowed upon young girls when they come of age. When fashioned in the form of a butterfly it has a special romantic significance to the Chinese because of the pretty legend which relates that a youth pursuing a butterfly climbed over the high wall and into the garden of a rich mandarin. Instead of being censured or punished, the poor youth's visit led to his marriage with the mandarin's daughter. Hence the butterfly is the symbol of successful love, and Chinese bridegrooms present jade butterflies to their fiancées.

PUBLISHERS OF PAPER IN NEW YORK INDICTED

Tribune Company Named by Government on Complaints of Publishing Tax Returns; to Test Legality.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—On three counts charging "unlawful" publication of tax returns, the New York Tribune company, publishers of the Herald-Tribune, was indicted by a federal grand jury today.

In a court provided over by Federal Judge J. Stanley Webster of Washington, the indictment was obtained by John E. Joyce, assistant United States district attorney, at the request of Attorney General Stamp. No individuals were named in the suit.

Mr. Joyce said the proceeding was brought solely to test the legality of the publication of income tax returns, which he said occurred on October 25. Individuals whose payments were cited were not complainants, said Mr. Joyce. Their names were selected at random from general lists the Herald-Tribune published. An early trial was promised the publishers.

Refrained One Day.
The Herald-Tribune refrained from printing tax lists on the morning of October 24, after the treasury department's order that lists be made available to public inspection. Other local papers carried long lists of names and taxes paid, but the Herald-Tribune had only a news story which included a statement saying in part:

"In obedience to the law, the Herald-Tribune is refraining from printing the lists."

The next day, however, this paper began publishing the lists accompanied by another statement which said in part:

"The Herald-Tribune yesterday omitted the income tax figures from its news columns in the conviction that they should not be made public and in compliance with the ruling of the treasury department."

"The facts which never should have been made known, have become generally news of immediate importance. The Herald-Tribune recognized that the treasury list became ineffective. It therefore prints today the figures made public by the collectors of internal revenue without vouching for their accuracy."

Franklin Pierce "Dark Horse."
Franklin Pierce was the second "dark horse" in a presidential race. The Democratic party was divided in 1852, and most of the Democratic leaders of that time were in a fierce struggle for the Democratic nomination. There were Lewis Cass, James Buchanan of Pennsylvania, Stephen A. Douglas of Illinois, and William L. Marcy of New York. Not until the thirty-fifth ballot was the name of Franklin Pierce brought before the convention. Then, Virginia cast her 15 votes for him, and he was nominated on the forty-fifth ballot.

"News" in "Newport News"
The origin of the name of the city of Newport News is uncertain. It is believed to be derived from two proper names—Newport and News. Captain Newport commanded the first vessel to bring immigrants to Virginia and William News was one of the early treasurers of the colony. John Smith wrote the latter name "Nuse."

BODY OF WOMAN MAY BE EXHUMED

Murder Theory in Case of Pastor's Wife Revolves Around Brown Spots Found.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 25 (AP)—Investigators seeking a solution of the Bexley furnace mystery tonight awaited a report from Chemist C. P. Long and Dr. H. M. Brundage, a pathologist, which is expected to show whether brownish crimson stains discovered yesterday on a number of articles in the church, Evangelical Lutheran church parsonage, where the practically cremated body of Mrs. Addie Sheatsley, 50, was found in the furnace, Nov. 17, were splashes of human blood.

The Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, husband of the victim at Paris, Ohio, where he and his four children are residing, announced that the stains were "probably rabbit blood." He explained that he shot four rabbits two days before the tragedy and that they were dressed in the parsonage apartment.

To Return Home.
Mr. Sheatsley and his children, Milton, 20, Clarence, 16, Elizabeth, 14, and Alice, 10, are expected to return here tomorrow.

Mr. King and Detective Harry Carson today went to Lithopolis, where they interviewed Mrs. Gladys Redfield, who, the prosecutor believes, was the last friend of the family to see the victim alive. Mrs. Redfield is the wife of the pastor of the Lutheran church at Lithopolis, 18 miles southeast of Columbus. She told investigators, they said, that Mrs. Sheatsley appeared to be in a normal state of mind the day of her visit. Two weeks previous she had visited the home and had told Mrs. Sheatsley some Christmas carols. Her last visit was for the purpose of delivering them.

Rests With Analysis.
Decision as whether the body of Mrs. Sheatsley should be exhumed, Mr. King said tonight, will be determined by the result of the analysis of the stains. If they prove to be human blood, he indicated the body would be exhumed so that Dr. Brundage may examine the skull.

Edwin M. Abbott, the undertaker who removed the body from the furnace and prepared it for burial, told Prosecutor King that the "skull was cracked," but that he was unable to say that it was a result of intense heat or other causes.

Veteran of the North Sea.
A veteran North sea pilot, probably twenty years old, recently ended a romantic career in the glorious toils of a travel net. The fish, a large one, says an official report from Whitehall, was found in a catch made at Lowestoft, England. It was the second time it had been caught, the first being 10 years ago, as shown by an identification disk on it which bore the date 1901. This disk also showed that the first captors were Germans belonging to the Kiel and Heligoland scientific fishery commission who marked it in accordance with the international scheme of inquiry into the migrations, growth and age of fish.

Feet Identify Porto Rican Classes.
The people of the island of Porto Rico are divided into four categories for the purpose of identification, according to the shape of their feet. The division is made by the American chief of the insular police. The majority, mostly town dwellers, wear shoes. Of the great mass of countrymen, those with broad, flat feet live in the pine lands around the coast. The coffee growers have overdeveloped big toes, because they use them in climbing the steep hillsides from brush to brush.

In the tobacco districts, according to Harry A. Frank, writing in Century, where the planting is done with the feet, they are short and stubby.

JURY OBTAINED IN FORBES CASE

Former Head of Veterans Bureau on Trial for Fraud; Testimony to be Given.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25 (AP)—A jury was completed today for the trial of Charles H. Forbes, former head of the veterans' bureau and J. W. Thompson, St. Louis and Chicago contractor, on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States government in the allocation of war veterans' hospital contracts.

The first two days of the trial were spent in examining witnesses and counsel for both government and defense questioned the jury closely on war prejudices arising from war contracts or contractors or the treatment of wounded relatives.

Mystery of Sound Board
The sound board of a piano, although it is actually a thin sheet of wood, is a wonder not fully understood in its effects. Most people know that every note has a complete and very elaborate set of vibrations which give it its pitch and character, and all these separate sets are reproduced in the sound board quite independently. Even in comparatively simple music there are frequently thousands of vibrations going on in that piece of thin brittle wood, which we can hear but cannot see, and with all the crossing and recrossing of the vibration lines which must take place there is never any confusion, and it is possible to select any group of vibrations as the one to which we can pay the most attention. Perhaps even still more wonderful is the fact that the piano maker can make the board susceptible to different kinds of vibration without knowing how he does it.

Rare Motorist

A Melbourne citizen was run down by a motor car the other day while perambulating homeward on a "push-bike." The car was on its wrong side, and the "bike" was broken across; its rider had a brace of ribs fractured and a damaged occiput, combined with cuts on the face and many abrasions. The tout for a firm of shipyard solicitors called upon the injured man and tried to persuade him to take action against the car owner for substantial damages. "Oh, I couldn't do that," said the hurt citizen. "But you can," persisted the tout, "and you would be absolutely sure to recover." "No, I cannot," pursued the victim. "You do not know the whole circumstances. The driver has apologized."—Sydney (Australia) Bulletin.

Kohl-Noor a Disappointment.
The Kohl-Noor caused great disappointment at the crystal palace exhibition in London in 1921 by the inability to develop the color refractions unless surrounded by a vivid light, and was, indeed, much inferior in appearance to its glass model in the tower, consequently, after much counsel and examination it was sent to Amsterdam to be cut. Much fear was felt as to the success of the operation, but the most experienced cutters were so confident of a successful issue that the undertaking was made, after great preparations, and the duke of Wellington himself went through the form of beginning the work.

Safety for Milk Drinkers

Sterilization is a process by which the temperature of milk is raised high enough or maintained long enough to destroy all germs and spores. This method is seldom employed because it gives the milk a boiled taste. In pasteurization the temperature used is high enough only to destroy most germs, including disease germs, such as those of tuberculosis and typhoid.

Not many of the really important things of life are the result of personal will power. Sickness certainly is not acquired by any exercise of the will. IDAHO EXPECTS HOT GRID FIGHT

Vandals in Football Game at Boise Look for Real Contest With Nevada Squad.

BOISE, Nov. 25.—Idaho's unexpected defeat by the University of Southern California at Los Angeles Saturday has not dampened interest in the Nevada-Idaho game at Boise Thanksgiving day. The Vandals were hoped to defeat the Trojans, but the sudden change in climate was too great a factor, but Idaho can console herself on the opinions of California critics that had the game been played at Portland or some other place where the temperature would have stayed above 80 degrees Idaho would have won. But regardless of the defeat Idaho still stands as one of the foremost grid teams in the far west, in addition to being leader in the northwest.

The Vandals aren't expecting an easy day against Nevada. The Sagehens are coached by Charles Erb, the brilliant quarterback on three of Andy Smith's "wonder teams," at California. Idaho will match the guiding genius of Erb with little Skipper Stivers, rated as the best of the conference field leaders this year.

Fifth for Boise.
The Nevada game will be the fifth collegiate football game for Boise. In four years Idaho has not had her goal line crossed at Boise. She has beaten the University of Utah twice, Wyoming once, and in the last game defeated the powerful Oregon Aggie eleven. Indications point to a record attendance at this year's game. The Idaho team that plays at Boise Thanksgiving day will be badly shattered by graduation and Idaho fans want to see it play its last game, for eight men who have played together through three seasons will be in a mood to turn everything loose.

The Nevada game is being "staged" under the direction of the Boise alumni of the university.

GOMPERS AGAIN NAMED HEAD OF FEDERATION

can Federation of Labor adjourned sine die.

Re-elected with gomperers were eight vice presidents, the secretary and treasurer. All were unanimously elected. Vice president named in order of their rank are: James Duncan, Frank Duffy, William Green, T. A. Rickart, Jacob Fischer, Matthew Wolf, Martin F. Ryan and James Wilson. Daniel J. Tobine continues in the treasurer's shop. In the four morning session the convention today reaffirmed the federation's stand for American participation in the world court of international justice and asked appointment of a special congressional joint committee to investigate charges of violence in the general elections in Porto Rico.

Continued co-operation with the labor organizations of Latin-America represented in the Pan-American Federation of Labor, was pledged in the report of the committee on international labor relations, approved without debate. "The American Federation of Labor has sought from the formation of the Pan-American Federation," the report said, "to encourage discipline, to urge trade union activity along constructive lines and to recognize the rights and liberties of all."

An expression of greetings and good wishes to General Calles, president-elect of Mexico, was embodied in the report.

Affiliation of the American Federation of Trade Unions with the International Federation of Trade Unions was as rejected by the committee report, because of "the abolition of the strict autonomy of each affiliated center."

The committee expressed the hope that conditions in the near future would permit affiliation.

Use of all "kinds of force, violence and corruption," in the elections in Porto Rico was charged in a resolution submitted to the convention by Santiago Iglesias, representing the island.

JUDGE CHARGED WITH DRINKING ON DUTY

Burg, W. Va., while Hannen was a federal prohibition agent, was the subject of much of the day's testimony. Hannen testified that he had made unsuccessful efforts to get an order from Judge Baker for destruction of this liquor even in cases that had been closed he said and sent just before his service ended in September, 1922, the court ordered that this liquor be turned over to the custody of the United States marshal, then C. E. Smith. Hannen said that later he saw John Conz and another deputy marshal moving the liquor from a bank vault in Chicago, and that Conz and part was to be taken to Fairmount and part to Elkins, which, he said, was Judge Baker's home city.

Cross-Examination.

Cross-examining Mr. Hannen, J. J. Conitt of Wheeling, one of Judge Baker's counsel, brought out that there had been some question about the proper procedure in case of liquor seizures in cases where there were no convictions and that some of the liquor included in the 500 quarts was connected with cases where search warrants had been held illegal and prosecutions dropped.

GERMAN DIRIGIBLE GOES INTO SERVICE

a narrow margin and came on with her nose slanting down sharply.

Make Another Attempt.
Just beyond the hills, an upward surge of air currents gripped her. It swept her swiftly upward and her skipper rang on his power again to make another attempt.

Meanwhile the president and Mrs. Coolidge had taken places in the official box, with Secretary Wilbur, Acting Secretary Davis of the war department and a score of high government officers about them.

On the second round Commander Klein got his ship down close enough to drop two forward landing lines. The bluejackets leaped at them and clung frantically as the tugging monster above dragged along. One line broke far overhead to come whistling down about the ears of the jacks.

Jackies Go Flying.

They went flying with the sudden release of the strain, but their companions at the other line clung desperately until the ship lifted a score of feet off the ground. As they dropped back the big dirigible flung her nose defiantly into the air again and went surging down into the south for another try.

This time the tricky air current got in its work before the airship had made a fair start at its dive for a landing. There was no room between the river rim to make a gradual drop of it, and with the added up thrust of the bump of air the ship got nowhere near her target and she plowed off to circle for a fourth attempt.

Commander Klein, with a long night journey ahead, and no chance to replenish his helium, hesitated to open valves and lower the buoyancy of the ship. Only three of the five motors are as yet equipped with water recovery devices, and the fuel consumption eating up weight on the long trip, the ZR-3 was rebelliously lively and hard to handle. But, on the fourth into the wind plunge for a landing, the skipper released some of his precious gas and swung his down and rudder to stand the ship almost on her head as she cleared the hill barrier.

Repaired Bow Lines.

It was close enough to drop a repaired bow line, and in a moment the ground crew had them fast and fed through blocks. Then good navy beef in trim blue and white did the work and drew slowly the mighty head of the ship carthward until the stern lines could also drop to waiting hands and the ZR-3, shackled by lines that seemed mere spider webs in strength compared with her vast bulk, was brought gently to earth.

Jackies crowded thickly about the control car and rear engine gondola to get handholds and keep the ship steady in the wind. They walked her swiftly along to the appointed place and as she came head first to the waiting stand, a squad of huskies rushed a ribbon draped stand forward to rest it against the doorway to the control car. The president and Mrs. Coolidge mounted the stand under the shadow of the great hall overhead. A decorated line was passed out and at a signal Mrs. Coolidge pulled it sharply.

High up in the bows of the ship a trapdoor opened. There was a stir and flutter of frightened wings as the message-laden pigeons rushed out to circle and twist in the air for a moment then head off for home. The words "I christen thee Los Angeles," were inaudible in the stir and bustle about the ship, but Mrs. Coolidge turned smilingly away, coiling up the ribbon decked cord she had pulled to free her aerial messengers. She took the cord with her as a memento.

Tomorrow the citizens of Cairo will be given an opportunity to see a whole brigade of British infantry marching through the streets with fixed bayonets.

Lord Allenby, the British high commissioner, it is said, has been given rather wide powers to deal with any sudden emergency.

British officials connected with foreign military and naval affairs had several conferences today. Those who called on Austen Chamberlain, secretary for foreign affairs, included the secretary for war, the first lord of the admiralty and the Earl of Cavan, chief of the imperial general staff.

Supports Government.

The press of Great Britain is for the most part supporting the government's every demand upon the Egyptians and all action which has been taken in Egypt by the government. Some of the liberal papers appear to be of the opinion that the demands are a bit too strong and suggest that the tongue of nations ought to be put to work on the situation.

RE-FLOORING OF HANSEN BRIDGE TO BEGIN SOON

Famous Rim-to-Rim Span To Be Closed During Working Hours While Two Districts Make Needed Repairs.

Beginning next Monday and continuing for several days Hansen bridge across Snake river here will be closed daily between the hours of 8 and 12 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m., while re-flooring and other repair work is in progress, according to announcement Tuesday evening by S. A. Shobert, director of highways for the Twin-Falls highway district.

Hilldale and Twin Falls highway districts, which are connected by the high bridge, will co-operate in the work to be done which is to include laying of a new floor to replace the flooring that has been worn away by a constant stream of travel that has moved across the span since its completion nearly seven years ago.

Expense involved in the work, for which contracts were awarded some three weeks ago at a meeting of the two boards of highway district commissioners, is to be approximately $4400. Separate contracts were awarded for furnishing of lumber and other materials, the work to be done on force account by the Twin Falls district.

He indicated confidence that he will prove that he is innocent of the offense charged against him.

Hovermale is one of three men who were tried and acquitted at Jerome last July of robbery of the Hazelton State bank on November 22 of last year. During the past several months he is reported to have been engaged with his brother in the vicinity of Eden in perfecting a boot topping device.

Hovermale is reported to be an expert rifle shot and to have demonstrated his skill in this direction on occasion as a vaudeville performer.

SUDAN BACKS ENGLISH STAND

Great Britain's Note to Egypt Pleases Sudanese Generally, Is Report.

KHARTUM, Sudan, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Sudanese newspapers today published the British note to the Egyptian government in both Arabic and English languages. It appears that the Sudanese generally are contented with the British action and in some quarters the view is expressed that the projected measure to go far enough. The Sudan Herald demands the complete severance of Sudan and Egypt and urges, in addition, the evacuation of the Egyptian military and the removal of the Egyptian civil population. The latter consists mainly of government employees. The telephone and telephone services are being worked by Britons, the Egyptian employees having been suspended.

BLAMES IMPERIALISTS.

LONDON, Nov. 25 (AP)—The communist party in a manifesto issued today, blames the British note to the Egyptian government for creating "the inflated feeling in Egypt which was the driving force that generated the attack on the air-dar."

"When Premier MacDonald followed up his peremptory demand of Premier Ramsay MacDonald with his imperialistic dispatch to Viscount Almonby" the manifesto continues, "he did his share toward effecting the operations of the terms that are now in the ultimatum and contributed his quota in the development of the present situation."

"We may speak highly of the dead air-dar. It may serve to cover up his own evil work. The attitude he adopted toward Egypt made some such claim almost inevitable."

The manifesto concludes by demanding that the annexation of the Sudan shall be stopped and interference with Egypt ended.

BENEFIT BUILDS FUND FOR BAND

Football fans for whom it will be impossible to make the trip to Boise and Nampa are finding solace and deriving a good deal of satisfaction from the prospect for an interesting gridiron contest to be waged on Lincoln field in Twin Falls on Thanksgiving day when the Albion State Normal school team that held the Twin Falls team to a scoreless tie, will meet the Caldwell team that is regarded as one of the strongest football machines in the southwestern district.

A school hour was enjoyed and Mrs. Nilsson served refreshments.

The centerpiece for the table was formed of grapes in the form of a pyramid and this was enhanced by the lovely birthday cake adorned with twenty candles in pink and green. These present were "Rosie" and Pat Flynn, Judson Timm, Wallace Wilkinson, Philip Day, James Drury Jr., George Duke, Kenneth Krivanek and David Alvord. Norton, who has lived at Rock creek for many years, told of traveling over this country long before any one ever dreamed of seeing it brought to its present state of cultivation. Mrs. Harry Alexander, Mrs. P. J. Costello and Mrs. Packard all gave interesting experiences of pioneer life in the first few years of the city and country. Late in the afternoon the hostesses served refreshments.

NURSES RESIGN AT HOSPITAL; DISPUTE CAUSE

Six Make Accusations Against County Superintendent of Institution; Official Denies All Charges Made.

Six Twin Falls county hospital graduate nurses on general duty at the hospital have handed in their resignation to Miss Lucy Walters, superintendent, who takes effect on dates ranging from December 1 to 8, inclusive. Reasons for the resignations, which assumes proportions of a strike since there are but 13 on general duty at the hospital are given by the nurses as dissatisfaction with the manner in which the nursing service is managed under Miss Walters, who came five weeks ago from the Research hospital, Kansas City, Mo.

Changes, nurses charge, are being made so fast they are unable to keep up with them. Charges are made with Miss Ellen Williams and Miss Vera Pickett acting as spokesmen, who called at The News office, that the superintendent has talked to patients about nurses not present and has declared to patients that it was impossible to get good nurses "out here in the sticks," and that a number of doctors believed them right.

Miss Walters, in a statement made to a representative of The News Tuesday evening, flatly denied that she had talked to patients about the nurses; had talked to other nurses about not present, nor told patients at the hospital that it was impossible to get good nurses "out here in the sticks." Trouble, said Miss Walters, had resulted from several changes all of which she declared she believed were for the best. Dissatisfaction, she said, was occasioned over orders from her than all narcotics used must be accounted for to her. This, she said, was done through instructions from federal agents and in compliance with the law. She admitted, however, that this had not met with the approval of some of the nurses or with several of the doctors, who dislike to take the trouble of writing prescriptions for the drugs.

A local physician, when interviewed, refuted statements by the nurses that he was dissatisfied with conditions and also the statement of Miss Walters that he did not like the narcotic rule. He declared that he believed Miss Walters was entirely right and that orders she gave should be obeyed. He characterized the resignations of the nurses as a "tempest in a teapot."

Nurses upon which their resignations are to take effect follow:
Miss Margaret Rudy, Miss Vera Pickett, Miss Dorothy Chandler and Miss Grace Locke, December 6, and Miss Adeline Wahlberg and Miss Ellen Williams, who leave December 8.

Miss Helen Mattingly and Miss Eva McLaughlin, both of Seattle, arrive today to take the places of two nurses who resigned last week, due to illness. Miss Gladys Tucker, a Twin Falls girl, will go on duty Monday, taking the place of one of the nurses who will resign.

County Commissioner Carlson stated that the efficiency of the institution would not be in any manner interfered with by reason of the resignations. He expressed himself as unable to go into details for publication at this time.

SUES FOR VALUE OF FEED

John Catlough of Buhl Asks $318
From Tenant and Filer Hardware
Company for Hay and Corn.

Introduction of evidence in the suit of John Catlough of Buhl against Amos James, C. B. Reynolds and the Filer Hardware company, involving claim to $318 as the value of hay and corn alleged to have been fed by defendants to livestock owned by the hardware company has been completed before Judge O. P. Duvall in probate court here, and attorneys are to prepare briefs in the case for submission to the court. Defendant James, according to the evidence, was tenant on the Catlough farm and in order to discharge a debt to the hardware company he permitted the company to feed his portion of the crop. Plaintiff contends that the land owners portion also was fed. Plaintiff is represented by Attorney J. W. Taylor and defendants by Attorney J. H. Sherry of Buhl.

JURY UPHOLDS BANK'S CLAIMS

Verdict Holds Buhl Canning
Company Director Liable for Payment of Note.

Verdict awarding judgment for $7111.10 to the First National bank of Buhl from John G. Smith of Buhl, was returned Tuesday afternoon by a jury of eight men in district court here. The verdict awarded to the bank the full amount of its claim against Mr. Smith on account of a note executed by Smith for the purpose of obtaining funds for the now defunct Buhl Canning company of which he was one of the directors. Evidence was introduced Tuesday by Frank L. Stephen of counsel for the bank, during second day's proceedings in the trial that other directors of the canning company under similar circumstances executed similar notes for payment of which they have accepted responsibility.

The canning company was organized in the fall of 1919 and operated for two seasons.
