RATE HEARING

SIDE OF CASE

Union Pacific Officials Tell Experts at Salt Lake Grain Meeting of Desire to Serve Territory.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 4 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce commission hearing on the case instituted by the Ogden Grain Rate Exchange to test the reasonableness of outboard transportation rates on grain and grain products from originating points in Utah and Idaho was closed here tonight and January 31, 1925, set as the time for presentation of brief by defendant carriers, the complainant and intervenors.

Testimony that the Union Pacific system has endeavored at all times to establish a system of freight rates to build up the territory is served with adjustment of rates made whenever the growth of commercial, agricultural and general interests in the intermountain country have needed adjustments in transportation, was presented by L. T. Wilcox, freight traffic manager, and H. E. Gordin, general freight agent of the Union Pacific system, in today's hearing.

On Stand Long Time.

Mr. Wilcox, who occupied the witness stand a large part of the day, admitted defects in the general rate structure but claimed that these imperfections, accidental fourth section violations or caused by necessary adjustments with connecting lines over which the Union Pacific has no control, have been greatly magnified. Correction of these defects in the rate structure are being made as rapidly as possible, Mr. Wilcox said.

These minor adjustments, the witness said, should be made with respect to respective points of destination and remedial measures on these matters should not serve to tear down the entire established rate structure.

Mr. Wilcox cited efforts of the Union Pacific to bring about freight rates to develop the Union Pacific territory. He said that the Union Pacific had voluntarily reduced rates on grains to the extremes of the system lines or on rates from originating and destination points over which the Union Pacific has no control.

AWARDS VERDICT ON NOTE.

Verdict awarding $791.59 to the Idaho Mercantile company of Buhl, from John J. Bick on account of a promissory note executed in June, 1922, was returned by a jury in district court here Thursday.

Woman Crawled into Furnace, Belief of Coroner, Radio says

Storm Holds Up News Dispatches but Wireless in Twin Falls Man's Home Brings Verdict in Ohio.

Mrs. Addie Shestaler, wife of a Columbus, Ohio, pastor, came to her death by crawling into the furnace at their home with the intention of taking her own life, according to a decision of the Ohio coroner, it was learned in Twin Falls Thursday evening via radio. The coroner's verdict, said the announcement from station WOAW, at Omaha, Neb., held suicide as the cause of death and ignored the findings of experts who declared that experiments with guinea pigs showed no living thing could crawl into the furnace and die from the flames without traces of carbon monoxide showing in the lungs.

The message was received over the radio at the home of J. C. McKinley and was used over the "seven storms in the east and mid-west which Thursday night tied up wire service for considerable time and prevented full news reports from reaching this city. The Omaha announcer declared that snowflakes as big as a man's hand were falling there at the time the announcement was made.

KORETZ IS SENTENCED.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Leo Koretz, master swindler, today was sentenced to prison for one to ten years on charge of larceny, the first of four charges to which he pleaded guilty yesterday.

Snowstorms Sweep Many States
Causing Much Damage to Wires

DENVER, Dec. 4 (AP)—Colorado today was recovering from the effects of a 24-hour snowstorm that began yesterday morning and continued through the night. Partially demolished telegraph and telephone traffic was reported early today and, in many instances, roads heavy with snow had stalled motorists.

Rescue Parties.

At Walsenburg where the heaviest snowfall—18 inches—was reported, county officials have sent out rescue parties to render aid to automobile parties reported held up on the blocked road.

Wire traffic between Denver and Omaha, Kansas City, Chicago and other points was practically demolished. Stock brokers wires, press and newspaper wires all were either partially or wholly inoperative.

BRINGS SLEET AND SNOW

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—A chilling grasp stretching from the southwest and Rocky mountain region brought sleet and snow today to the midwest, the plains states and the Ohio valley. The winter's first extensive damage to wire communications was reported, caused by sleet in northern Utah and Nebraska. Rain and snow fell in the lower Missouri and middle Mississippi valleys.

HOLDS UP MAIL

RENO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Heavy storms over the Sierra-Nevada mountains prevented the usual air mail flights between Reno and San Francisco today. Mail planes for the east from Reno went out on scheduled time.

Swendsen Tells of Results of Denver Conference on American Falls Project; Bridge Plan Changed.

POCATELLO, Dec. 4 (AP)—If recommendations made by the United States reclamation service by the American Falls project conference at Denver are followed the new bids on Idaho's big project will be out January 15, according to Warren G. Swendsen, state reclamation commissioner, who arrived in Pocatello today from Denver. The conference recommended new advertising of bids for a dam with a large base over the river section and a small top. It was stipulated in recommendations that the government reserve right to order construction of a large top providing notice to be given before the foundation work is completed.

Save Big Sum.

Another recommendation embraced a change in type of the bridge over the dam. Originally a concrete structure was planned but the conference decided one of steel more satisfactory, incidentally.

FORTY INJURED

Sacramento Train Crashes Into Rear End of Electric Heavily Loaded With Commuters; Cause Undetermined.

The dead:

G. O. Longhina, San Francisco. Frederick J. Gibson, Oakland. Frank E. Hoppe, engineer of the Key system, a passenger on one of the trains. Lillian Johnson, Oakland, decapitated. Charles M. Doty, Oakland. One unidentified woman.

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 4 (AP)—Six persons were killed and approximately 40 injured today on the Key route system when a train from Sacramento crashed into the rear of a crowded electric train bound from Twelfth street, Oakland, to San Francisco with early morning commuters. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

Trainmen said they were mystified as to how the accident could have occurred. The collision happened one mile from the Oakland pier, where the line is equipped with semaphore signals that operate first at set a caution or stop signal and then a red board or light that means stop.

Misty Rain Falling.

There was a misty rain falling but not sufficient to obscure a view of the signals or track, crews on other trains asserted. They thought it possible that the wheels of the Sacramento train might have locked if the engineer applied the airbrakes, and that the train slid along the slippery rails into the local train which had stopped. The dead include two women and four men. Three of the men have been identified. One of the women was decapitated.

Passengers on the two trains described the crash as a terrific explosion, followed by screams and moans as the Key route car telescoped over the short line train, the floor of one train sliding swiftly over the floor of the other, mowing down passengers as it went.

The first outcry was followed by a moment of silence when injured and uninjured seemed dazed.

Crawl From Wreckage.

Then the screaming began again, and men and women started crawling from

Plans Made for 400 Mile Flight to Get Photographs of January Eclipse.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—An airplane will race the shadow of moon nearly 400 miles across New York state during the eclipse of the sun on January 21. Carrying a specially designed camera, photographs will be taken from the plane of the sun's flaming corona as made visible during the eclipse.

The purpose of the race, as worked out by David Todd, professor emeritus of astronomy of Amherst college, is to permit photographing for a longer period than the approximately two minutes for which the eclipse will be visible from the earth.

JURY HEARS PUMPMAN'S
CLAIM AGAINST DISTRICT

Miner Low Lift Board Defends in Suit Brought by E. L. Kidd for Alleged Breach of Contract.

Trial was begun before a jury in district court here Thursday in the suit of R. L. Kidd against the Miner Low Lift irrigation district for $600 on account of alleged breach of a contract under which Kidd was to have been employed as operator of pumps for the district last season.

Testimony of plaintiff Kidd was introduced before the evening recess. Counsel expressed the opinion that the trial would be concluded today.

Kidd testified that he had been employed by the district as operator of pumps for two seasons and that he had worked only nine days last season when he was discharged. He was discharged, he said, by E. W. Mooreman, who a few days previously had been elected secretary of the district board. He denied that there had been any valid reason for his being discharged.

The case of the plaintiff Kidd is conducted by Attorney Harry J. Bendt, defendant corporation being represented by E. M. Sweeley of Sweeley and Sweeley.

MUTUAL AID IS GREATEST NEED
SAYS COOLIDGE

President Spends Day at Chicago Livestock Show; Deliverers Address to Business; Stresses Human Side.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4 (AP)—Promise of continued governmental aid to agriculture, an appeal to the nation's farmers to take full advantage of such assistance, and advice to business men to co-operate with those on the farm were contained in two addresses made by President Coolidge during a 13-hour visit today to Chicago.

With these two addresses, the first he had made since the election, Mr. Coolidge combined a series of conferences and a visit to the International Livestock exposition, one address was made at a luncheon of the Chicago Cereals club and the other at a dinner of the officers and directors of the livestock exposition.

Makes Promise

"My pledge is that your government will do everything possible and proper for commerce between us, to encourage and direct your strivings toward the goal of prosperity, stability and security," he declared, to 500 livestock men at the exposition dinner. "My appeal is that farmers everywhere shall find ways in which to employ effectively every means of improvement that has been placed at their disposal."

Speaking to 300 of the leaders in Chicago's business life at the commercial club luncheon, he declared "prosperity can not be divorced from humanity," and "the business man must be an integral part of the life of agriculture, of the life of the country."

Among Nations.

The chief executive added that the same principle of mutual aid applies "to the relationship among the different nations."

"It is our wish to live in a world which shall be at peace," he said, "but we can no more assure permanent and stable peace without co-operation among the nations than we could assure victory in war without allies among them."

Among these fellows of the road there must be mutual understanding and mutual faith and confidence." Mr. Coolidge on concluding his address, to the livestock men, walked across to Dexter pavilion where he and Mrs. Coolidge, seated in the presidential box reviewed a parade of the champion livestock.

Liquor Smugglers
and Citizens War
On Pacific Coast

Sheriff and Posse Leave for California Town Where Disorders Are Feared as Result of Activities.

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Dec. 4 &—Sheriff T. C. McGovern of San Mateo county left with a posse today for Pescadero, west of here on the coast to prevent possible disorder there as a result of what was reported to the sheriff as a war between enraged citizens and alleged liquor smugglers.

The clash between the citizens and alleged smugglers culminated the other night in an attack by a band of unidentified citizens of Pescadero on Victor Dias, according to reports to the sheriff. Sheriff McGovern said Dias told him that he was seized by a group of men who took him to a secluded spot outside the town and changed him with a rope by the thumbs from an oak tree.

Confesses.

When he pleaded for mercy Dias said he was cut down and confessed to liquor smuggling operations involving a number of other men. It is assumed by officials that if Dias' story is true his assailants constituted a sort of vigilante committee of citizens who objected to their town being used as a liquor smuggling cave.

Other reports received by the sheriff said that smugglers had threatened reprisals on the town and that many of its residents were going armed and had made counterthreats of giving other alleged smugglers rough treatment unless their activities ceased.

ELECTIONS IN GERMANY WILL BE HELD SOON

Seven Major Parties to Contest for Seats to Reichstag on December 7; All Hate Each Other.

BERLIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—Seven major parties and a score of minor aggregations will contend for supremacy at the elections to the Reichstag, or parliament, of Dec. 7. The idea of a two or even three party system in Germany is almost unthinkable. While there is rough speaking, a left, a center, and a right, the parties within each of these designations are killing each other so bitterly, or else have such well defined and differing economic or religious creeds, that their amalgamation with the next adjacent group seems out of the question.

Declining on the extreme left there is the Communist party. It is not only a left or radical party, but its appeal is to the extreme left of the speaker of the house. In the last Reichstag it had 62 seats, before that only 16. It is freely predicted that its delegation will be greatly reduced as a result of the election. The Communist party takes all its orders from Moscow.

Socialists.

Next to the Communists sit the Socialists, 100 in number at the last election. There is cordial hatred between Communists and Socialists.

The Socialists have been the backbone of the "fulfillment policy" they have held throughout, that Germany must live up to the obligations of a nation defeated in war. Together with the Democrats they have formed the mainstay of the Republican idea. Even when they were in power the Socialists made little effort to try Socialistic experiments. They have limited themselves to looking after legislation tending to better the conditions of the working people. Like the Communists, they emphasize the class struggle.

The Democrats, working hand in hand with the Socialists in matters affecting foreign policy, pacifism and republicanism, differ from them in denying the theory of the class struggle. They want to realize the ideal preached in America by Samuel Gompers, of harmonious co-operation between labor and capital. It is the party of liberalism. At the last election it won 28 seats.

Ants Sensitive to Sound

If they have no ears, ants can perceive vibrations. Put ants on a table and tap the surface lightly with the finger. Every ant gives a quick start. So sensitive are they that the dropping of a tiny bird shot from a height of only six inches onto the surface of the table was seen to make every one of scores of ants give a convulsive jerk.

Ants never sleep. They work from birth to death in a land of darkness and silence. Their strength is prodigious; and their powers of vitality are equally amazing. In spite of their good appetites ants have been shown to be able to live and work for from 50 to 100 days without food.

Dog-Day Superstitions

An ancient British calendar dealing with midsummer problems says: New-born children must on no account, during the dog-days, sleep on bones—not even when hidden beneath their nurse's lap; and it will bring fatal bad luck if they be set to sleep in graves. A deal of superstition still clings round the baby. When it takes its first airing abroad, it is of highest importance that it goes upstairs before going down, or it will never rise in the world. In rural cottages, blessed with the old-fashioned wooden cradle, the superstition clings to it that to rock the empty cradle is to rock into it a new baby.

WAR PHOTOS IN LARGE DEMAND

Department Called Upon for Records and Pictures of Men Who Served in Struggle.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 4 (AP)—Although six years have elapsed since the termination of the World War, innumerable former service men, their relatives and friends make frequent requests on the war department for graphic records of the struggle. These are contained in the files of the photographic section of the signal corps of the army.

Often a mother with but a slender due to whom her son was killed in combat, beseeches the signal corps section for a photograph of the scene of the engagement or incidents surrounding his life "ever there." The chances for granting her request are of the best. The army has stored away 100,000 photographs of the war. They are cross indexed and readily accessible, and the pictures are sold at cost to those that desire them.

The original negatives of photographs and of motion picture films are retained in fireproof vaults at Washington barracks here. Only duplicates from these are utilized. The films are sent out and shown in different corps areas.

The work of preserving outstanding events in the life of the army by means of the camera is still going forward. Photographic laboratories are maintained in many army corps areas, and in Hawaii. Twenty-four enlisted men of the signal corps are assigned to photographic duties throughout the service.

This phase of army activity had its inception in the work of a photographer, Brady, who made and collected photographs during the Civil War. This collection, totalling more than 6,000 plates, was later acquired by the war department and is now preserved by the signal corps.

HOLLAND SOLID AGAINST WARS OF THE FUTURE

Debate Attracts Thousands
Speaker Urges Country to Disarm Entirely to Prevent Further Troubles.

THE HAGUE, Holland, Dec. 4 (AP)—If the deafening applause that greeted Professor Van Embden's recent anti-militaristic address is any indication of the general feeling of the country, the people of the Netherlands may be said to be virtually solid for disarmament.

The spokesman for the abolition of the army and navy met General Seydars, formerly commander-in-chief of the Dutch army, at a public debate before a packed audience in the biggest assembly hall of the Dutch royal residence. Thousands of people belonging to all classes of society eagerly followed the arguments on both sides. A battery of sound amplifiers had been installed for the benefit of a multitude outside which had been crowded out. Both speakers agreed that despite the Geneva convention the menace of war had not been wholly lifted from the world, and they envisaged Holland's position in the eventuality of another great war in the light of the fact that the country had miraculously escaped from being dragged into the last world conflict. How could Holland's future safely be best insured, they asked.

By total disarmament, the professor argued. Never by disarmament, but only by adequate preparation to keep the enemy out, declared the general. Professor Van Embden made his audience shudder by recounting the horrors of gas warfare, citing reports by Brigadier General Amos Alfred Pries, chief of the American Chemical Warfare service, Major General William L. Bliss. "If the next war finds us an armed nation, we shall be utterly and irretrievably lost," he declared. General Seydars agreed that Holland coveted nothing, and that the next war could never be an aggressive one as far as Holland was concerned. He pointed out that Holland was an agricultural, not an industrial country, and therefore ill equipped for the production of warlike material. As to gas warfare, his opinion was that it had not yet come, and timely defensive precautions were essential. He said that injuries by gas were not necessarily more horrible than those produced by red-hot shell splinters. How, he demanded, could the country be saved from being overrun by a belligerent unless it possessed the means of resisting encroachments.

Beauties of Nature

It may be observed that what we call beauty of nature is mainly negative beauty; that is, the absence of the huge rude background, made up of rocks, trees, hills, mountains, plains, water, has not beauty as a positive character, visible to all eyes, but affords the mind the conditions of beauty, namely, health, strength, fitness, etc. Beauty being an experience of the beholder. Some things, on the other hand, as flowers, foliage, brilliant colors, sunsets, rainbows, waterfalls, may be said to be beautiful in and of themselves; but how wearisome the world would be without these things figure and which provoke and stimulates the mind in a way the purely fair forms do not—John Burroughs.

SOLID SILVER PLATE FROM CASTLE IS NOW DISPLAYED IN LONDON

LONDON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Hundreds of pieces of solid silver plate, part of which was treasured in the silver-gilt from the castle in Gmunden, Austria, of the late Duke of Cumberland, have been placed on show in a London saleroom. It is said that the castle was at one time equipped with enough silver to serve 1,000 guests without duplication of pieces, and that the collection included 9,600 solid silver dinner plates. The total weight of the silver was estimated at 10 tons.

Almost all of the treasure was English made, and was inherited by the Duke from his Hanoverian ancestors. Many of the pieces are counterparts of others that form a collection at Windsor Castle.

PRIZE FIGHTERS HAVE EASY TIME

German Boxers Rolling in Clover Since Mark Has Been Stabilized, Report.

BERLIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—Prize fighters in Germany are, for the moment, rolling in clover. Instead of existing on beer and sausage and black bread, as was the case with many of them a year ago, the pugilists are again in their prime, living on milk and honey and splendid steak. Paper mark days for the fighters were lean, and a good many of them had to go to work. But with the stabilization of the mark the fight fans have developed in astonishing numbers, and crowded the sport halls.

The fans just can't get enough of the fight game, it seems. Samson Koerner, the champion heavyweight, has been appearing in vaudeville with Artie Kaufman, of Harlem, N. Y., as sparring partner. In addition Koerner appears every day at noon at Berlin's largest sport palace, and to fans jam the stadium to see the 37-year-old fighter punch the bag and go through other training and exercising movements.

Hans Breitenkotter, the former German heavyweight champion, who gained his first victory in San Francisco some years ago, also gives daily exhibitions of his training, as does George Cook, the heavyweight champion of Australia, who has been fighting in Europe for several years.

Thursday at 10 o'clock. He leaves his wife and three sons aged 10, 14 and 8 years and three sisters and a brother in the east. Two sisters, Mrs. Benjamin Lewis, who formerly resided here, and Mrs. McCoy, arrived Wednesday from their homes in Minnesota. Mr. Leonard was 57 years of age and was

Symbol of Mother Love
In plucking the down from her breast to make the soft, warm lining for her young, the mother pelican sometimes draws a drop or two of blood in tugging at some recalcitrant feather. This fact has been responsible for the pelican being accepted as the symbol of self-sacrificing mother love.—From the Mentor.

Got Mild Intoxicant From "Peyote" Plant
"Peyote" (pronounced "pay-yo-tay," with accent on second syllable) is the Mexican form of the Aztec "peyoti," meaning a caterpillar. The Aztecs applied "peyoti" to a species of composite plants in southern Mexico because of the downy growth on the roots. A mild intoxicant was made by the Indians from this plant. Later "peyote" came to be applied to a small spineless cactus which grows in northern Mexico and the southwestern part of the United States. This cactus is found in abundance along the Rio Grande.

The small tops which barely protrude above the ground are often called "mesquite buttons," "mesquite" being another name for peyote. From the dried tops is made a medicine used as a remedy for various ailments. But the chief use of peyote is in certain religious ceremonies. It exhilarates the mind, intensifies the imagination and produces a pleasant dreaminess, without, however, any disagreeable effects later. At least this is what the authorities report.

The peyote is taken at intervals during the ceremonies, which last throughout the night. Originally all the red men in that region chewed mesquite. In recent years the powerful religion spread among the Indians in Oklahoma and farther north. Some tribes look upon the plant as of divine origin and treat it with veneration. There is no English name which we know of for peyote.—Pittsburgh Magazine.

Cannibal Ancestors
The discovery of a pile of human bones dating from the Neolithic period—at least 6,000 years ago—in a cave near Auz, in the south of France, has given rise to the theory that prehistoric man at that period were undoubtedly cannibals. The bones all bear marks of teeth and apparently form the remains of some gigantic cannibal feast.

The Logical Skunk

Mementoes of Ancient Carthage in England

The ruined temple at Virginia Water, Surrey, England, is always somewhat of a mystery to visitors to that beautiful spot which was at one time a dreary swamp.

Standing in a romantic glen, its columns look as though they had been undisturbed for 2,000 years. The fact is that the temple has been in its present position about a century. Its original site was ancient Carthage.

On several of the stones are inscriptions. One, in Greek, on an altar stone, tells how Publius Aurelius dedicated it to Jupiter and to the other gods worshipped in the temple. Others are written in Latin. One of these reads: "Marcus Julius erected this to his most beloved wife Domitia Rogata, who lived twenty-three years."

At one time a fine group of ancient Greek statues stood near these columns from Carthage. When William IV opened these lovely grounds to the public, however, these statues were so shamefully mutilated by visitors that they were completely ruined, and the public were again excluded until the reign of Queen Victoria.

Go-as-You-Please Spelling
We sometimes fancy that strictly correct spelling has been turned into a fetish. Spelling is largely a knack after the first tentative steps have been taken upon the slopes of our English Parnassus. The letters come by a sort of instinct. They dance nimbly into the right order of themselves. If some good people never can spell with pedantic accuracy, does it matter so very much? "Oh she knew well. Thy love did read by rote and could not spell." To be an immaculate speller is like being a copper-plate calligraphist. But it remains one of the minor accomplishments at best. Some of the best letters have been blighted. It is the matter that counts.—London Telegraph.

CHOOSES BRUINS FOR STATE TEAM

Obermeyer's Mythical All-Idaho Eleven Includes Frahm, Alvord and Timm of Twin Falls.

Three Twin Falls high school players—Frahm, tackle; Alvord, quarterback; and Timm, half—have been given place on the mythical all-state football team selected by H. Obermeyer of Idaho Falls, former Notre Dame and University of Chicago player, who for five years past has selected all state teams in response to popular demand.

Two Twin Falls players—Putzier, center, and Farrar, end—were picked by Obermeyer for a second all-state team.

First and second all-state teams in his opinion, show the following lineup:

First Team.
Center—Phillips, Nampa.
Left Guard—Dye, Firth.
Right Guard—Illes, St. Anthony.
Tackle—Frahm, Twin Falls.
Tackle—Berghier, Rupert.
End—Bremington, Firth.
End—Hatter, Boise.
Quarterback—Alvord, Twin Falls.
Fullback—Ricks, Nampa.
Halfback—Meyers, Idaho Falls.
Half—Timm, Twin Falls.

Second Team.
Center—Putzier, Twin Falls.
Left Guard—Cuddy, Boise.
Right Guard—Brennecke, Pocatello.
Tackle—DeMott, Boise.
Tackle—Morehouse, Nampa.
End—Reinhart, Nampa.
End—Farrar, Twin Falls.
Quarterback—Brady, Pocatello.
Fullback—Savage, Firth.
Half—Ord, Nampa.
Half—Kimm, Caldwell.

In justification of his choice which, Mr. Obermeyer admits, will not please every district whose particular stars are not included in either of the teams, he says the Idaho Falls Post. Obermeyer has analyzed the qualifications of the outstanding men. Phillips of Nampa is given center position for his sure passing; he is also a power on the line of scrimmage and was usually down on punts with his end. Illes is the state's best developed linebacker of the state, the best developed this year, for it was impossible to stop him. His showing is more the remarkable, because he was playing on a team of mediocre calibre. Dye, left guard for Firth, formed an invincible barrier which his opponents were unable to pierce for yards. Cuddy and Brennecke are strong runners-up for the position.

Berghier, Rupert tackle, Obermeyer rates as the best in the state high school teams, with Timm of Twin Falls a close second. Morehouse of Nampa, and DeMott of Boise, are both good men in the position of tackle. Hatter of Boise team, and Bremington from Firth are estimated as the two best ends in the state, both on the offensive, being equally reliable at going down on punts, smashing interference, receiving passes and breaking up passes. Reinhart and Farrar, the two men placed as ends on the second team were close in the running for first place.

Quarterback, Obermeyer states, is the hardest position in the team to pick, with but two obvious choices for the position. Alvord of Twin Falls, has first call, being probably the head-line back, for he is the best punter in the state, he runs his line well, is good at passing and above all, is fast. Brady of Pocatello, is a mighty good man, who gets away on returning punts and avoids a tackle like an All-American. Another season would make a wonder of this boy. Mention must be made of Cuddy of Pocatello, a man who seemed to have all the necessary qualifications, but the fact that he was playing on an inferior team made it impossible to get a line on him.

Timm of Twin Falls, and Meyers of Idaho Falls, are awarded the positions of halfback, both being able to gain ground consistently, to make passes or receive them, they are hard men to stop; it sometimes takes four or five men to down Meyers. Ord of Nampa is good, but not so able on the defensive as Timm, although it is hard to choose between the two. Kimm, a Caldwell half, would be hard to keep off any team.

Without a question the position of fullback belongs to Ricks of Nampa, a big man who can always pick up that extra yard when it is needed, and who requires a whole team to stop him. Savage, Firth candidate for second honors is, however, a stronger defensive player.

Football in southern Idaho in the intercollegiate circles has attained a very high ranking in the public eye, during the season just past, for spectators have demanded cleaner sportsmanship and better football, and have been willing to pay for it. In eastern Idaho there have been two teams, Firth and Pocatello, standing head and shoulders above the rest. Firth may claim the most remarkable team, winning the championship of their division with a green team averaging 167 pounds to the man, and recruited from a little town of 200 people.

ALVORD BOOMED FOR A PLACE ON ALL STATE HIGH FOOTBALL SQUAD

Football fans of Twin Fall are waiting with much interest for the announcement, probably to come from Moscow of an all-state high school football eleven. Several Twin Falls high school players have been urged for this all-star team, probably the most prominent being Alvord, quarter, who during the season has shown his generalship in all plays and his kicking ability.

This was especially notable in the Firth and Nampa games. Many who are unfamiliar with the finer points of the game, blamed Alvord for failure to kick goal and thus tie the score in the championship game at Nampa, but Alvord was the best of the players there. Those who saw the game declare that the pass to Alvord in the attempt to convert was grounded and rolled several feet before it reached him. This prevented his kicking goal.

Many who saw the game declare that in addition to receiving a bad pass which made the kick almost humbly impossible, the Nampa end, who prevented the try, was at least three feet offside. The linesman in this case, Nourse of Boise, is said to have admitted that one of the teams was offside, but he could not see which one, and consequently refused to call either team.

It is said that Mathews, coach of the Vandals, was highly pleased with the work of Alvord in particular, and the entire team as a whole.

FILIPINO STUDENTS GET HELP IN APPOINTMENT

MANILA, Dec. 4 (AP)—The appointment of a Philippine government representative on the Pacific coast of the United States to look after the interests of Filipinos, especially young immigrants who are seeking employment to support themselves while at college, is under consideration by insular officials in view of the precarious situation of several hundred students here.

Manuel S. Restia, Philippine commercial agent in Seattle, reports that no fewer than 700 Filipino students have arrived at that port during the last two months.

"This is becoming a serious problem for the Filipino community here," said Mr. Restia, and the difficulties are expected to increase during the coming winter.

LISBON SCENE OF EXPLOSIONS ALMOST DAILY

Lawlessness Reigns in Spanish City With Police Doing Little to Stop Outrages of Communists.

LISBON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Lisbon has been the scene of so many bomb outrages during the last two months that the ravages are altering the appearance of the central part of the city. In all the principal streets there are ruined shops and blackened piles of stone marking the scene of each explosion, while neighboring buildings show shattered windows and cracked walls.

It is all the work of communists, and just at present the strikes of barbers and waiters afford them an excuse for this destruction. The explosions occur almost nightly, and cafes, hotels and barber shops are the chief sufferers. Dynamite and nitroglycerine are used. The bombs are set off virtually under the eyes of the police. The criminals are seldom caught. Arrests by the police have brought retaliation in the form of assassination, and as a result the officers of the law are apathetic.

The activity of these agitators does not end with bomb explosions. To them is attributed by the public a recent series of railroad accidents, including a derailment in which there were 40 casualties.

In spite of the fact that a Lisbon crowd nearly lynched two alleged communists the other day, arrested for exploding a bomb, the people of this city have grown to accept these outrages. There are places where it rains every day, they say, others where thunderstorms are frequent; in Lisbon there are daily bomb outrages.

"We were going out to the Mole at what seemed to be the usual speed when suddenly I thought the train had been bombed. There was a terrific explosion and every one was thrown from his seat. The key route car telescoped back of the top of the car I was in. The accident was the most horrible thing I have ever witnessed. Surely someone made a terrible mistake."

A local on the San Francisco-Sacramento short line was running behind us.

Swoops Through Car.

"The front platform of the short line train hit the rear of our train above the floor level and it seemed to sweep right through the car, killing and injuring as it went."

"It was a terrible scene."

"Men leaped from the car, women screamed, and there was general confusion."

"Most of the injured were in the rear car of the Twelfth street train, I think."

C. W. Newman, Oakland, also a passenger on the Twelfth street train, said the first he realized anything was happening was when he heard the brakes of the oncoming short line train, "bricking wildly."

Crash Deafening.

"It was just a moment until the crash came," he said.

"The short line train swept the rear car of our train, its platform going through the car like a great scythe, cutting people down."

"Pretty soon those less seriously injured began crawling away and those badly hurt resumed their moans as the stunning effect of the blow passed away."

"Here a man would drag himself from the wreckage, unable to stand because of an injured leg. Over there a woman would begin to stir. Soon all was activity."

Sought First Aid Kit.

"I started after a first aid kit and searched three cars for one but apparently someone else had found it. Then all those not hurt turned in to aid the injured. When we found some one dead we left them where they were until officers could arrive."

"When ambulances got there most of the injured were free from the shattered cars and ready to be moved to hospitals."

DECISION NEAR IN PLAYGROUND

Harmon Foundation's Representative to Inspect Proposed Sites Here.

Visit here next Wednesday of a representative of the Harmon Foundation of New York is to be the occasion for a community "sing," according to decision reached at a meeting Thursday evening in the probate court rooms of members of the Twin Falls Recreation association. W. C. Bradford of Salt Lake, representative of the Playground and Recreation association of America, who visited Twin Falls last August at the invitation of persons interested in establishment of a community playground here, is to be invited to come to Twin Falls next week to lead the community "sing."

The visit here of the Harmon Foundation representative, H. E. Morse, president of the recreation association stated Thursday evening, is likely to be an important factor in determining whether Twin Falls is to receive the assistance of the foundation in establishment of the proposed playground here.

The recreation association, at a meeting held here last August, adopted resolutions setting forth its acceptance of the foundation's requirements for extending of assistance in establishment of playgrounds which are that a clear title to the playground site and cash deposit for its purchase shall be furnished; that pledge be given of annual expenditure for maintenance of the playground; and that there shall be placed therein a bronze tablet of prescribed size and style.

The foundation has indicated its purpose to assist in establishment of playgrounds in 50 cities, and from among 45 applications for such assistance have been approved the foundation's selection of 50 is to be made.

A committee to arrange for the reception of the foundation's representative and for the community sing on that occasion was appointed Thursday evening and is composed of Mrs. E. M. Wolfe, Mrs. Vera O'Leary, Miss Jessie Fraser, S. L. Hodgins, O. P. Duvall and C. H. Perkins.

The association at this meeting also adopted the report of its committee submitting proposed constitution and by-laws for the organization.

AUTO DRIVER WAITS ON PROBATE COURT DECISION

Judge Takes Question of Donald Liville's Guilt or Innocence of Road Law Violation Under Adversement.

Charged with violating state road law provisions requiring motor vehicles to cross the center of street in carelessness before turning to the left, Donald Liville was Thursday brought to trial before Judge O. P. Duvall in probate court here. Trial occupied most of the day and at its conclusion in mid-afternoon Judge Duvall announced that he would take the case under advisement.

One of the principal witnesses for the state was Charles Zimmerman, 17, Western Union messenger, who was discharged Thursday from the county general hospital where he had been a patient for some four weeks recovering from broken arm, leg and ribs sustained in a collision with the car driven, it is alleged, by Liville in a manner violating state laws.

Zimmerman testified that Liville went the corner at Shoshone street and sixth avenue north and collided with Zimmerman, who was riding a bicycle. This statement was supported by testimony of Miss Dorothy Masters and Miss Lillian B. Jennings, who stated that they observed the accident from a distance and that the car had cut the corner. It was denied by Perry Spangler and J. C. Moore, companions of Liville in the car when the accident occurred, and by Jack Corcoran, who witnessed the collision from another car in which he was driving on Shoshone street. John Robertson, companion of Corcoran, testified that Liville had turned wide, but could not tell whether he had crossed the intersection.

Chief of Police P. O. Heeriman testified as to the apparent position of the car at the time of the accident. The injured youth was taken by Liville in his car to the doctor's office.
