

SENATE NEARS SOLUTION ON SHOALS PLANT

Senator Underwood Introduces Amendments to His Bill Suggested by Government; Accepts President's Advice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Solution of the Muscle Shoals question advanced a step nearer today with the introduction by Senator Underwood of amendments to his government ownership bill which were recommended by the war department.

After a week-end cruise on the Mayflower with President Coolidge and a two-hour conference today with Secretary Weeks, Senator Underwood said no serious differences on the Muscle Shoals question existed between himself and the administration.

Willing to Agree.

He declared he was willing to agree to all of the amendments if they were deemed wise to incorporate them in the bill. He explained he had refrained from including some of the war department's suggested amendments in the original draft for fear that they would meet with objection.

Senate leaders are of the opinion that if certain amendments are adopted the measure would be in no danger of a veto at the hands of President Coolidge. With objections covered in the amendments both democratic and republican senate leaders are hopeful of bringing the measure to an early vote.

Up for Passage.

Chairman Norris of the senate agriculture committee, announced in the senate that if the Underwood bill was accepted as an amendment to the Norris bill he would offer a modification of the Underwood bill which then would be before the chamber for passage.

The Norris bill was reported to the senate at the last session, but Senator Underwood's proposal, given the status of an amendment to this measure, is in line for a prior vote.

House Cleaning in France Simmers Down to Forgetting Out of Undesirable Foreigners in City of Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 8 (AP)—Premier Herriot's house cleaning of communists in France simmered down today to the arrest of ten foreign workmen whose immigration papers were not in order. They will be deported.

The ten men were described in the announcement of arrest as being "considered as charged with the mission of organizing international communism."

The police drive seems to have been reduced to forgetting out all undesirable foreigners and visitors to Paris were warned today to see that their papers are in order and to carry them on their person.

Many entirely respectable persons, not associated with the communists, already have been picked up by the authorities because they had left their residences at home. The order is likely to prove especially trying to tourists, who are not required to take out papers immediately and who seldom carry with them documents to prove their status.

TAX PUBLICITY PLANS HELD UP

Congress Waiting on Supreme Court Before Acting on Revenue Measure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Republican leaders in the house are of the opinion that any move to repeal the publicity provisions of the revenue act must await a supreme court decision as to whether newspapers are privileged to print in come tax lists.

Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee discussed the legislative situation, particularly with regard to revenue matters, with President Coolidge today and after leaving, the White House conferred with Representative Leagworth, the republican leader.

May Amend Part.

Mr. Green said no attempt would be made at this session to revise the tax law generally, but he thought an effort might be made to amend the publicity of return section.

Mr. Leagworth explained that appropriation bills have the right of way in the house and declared that any controversial subject would be avoided until they are out of the way. Expressing opposition to action on the publicity question until a supreme court decision is handed down, he said that if the right of newspapers to publish tax lists is established the undoubtedly would be an increased demand for repeal of the publicity provision.

INSURANCE COMPANIES MUST MAKE DEPOSITS TO PROTECT POLICIES

BOISE, Dec. 8 (AP)—Companies selling insurance in Idaho under the workmen's compensation law are required to keep on deposit with the state securities which shall at all times offset their accrued liabilities in the state, under provisions of a recent resolution of the Idaho industrial accident board. Announcement of the board's action was made today by L. E. Worrell, chairman.

Under the board rules adopted for insurance companies selling workmen's insurance prior to the passage of the resolution, companies were required to deposit with the state treasurer $25,000 in satisfactory securities when they were admitted to operate in the state. This amount was to be used to guarantee the payment of liabilities in case the company should become insolvent.

However, during the past summer, the Associated Employers' Reciprocal of Chicago became insolvent and when a check of the books was made it was discovered that the company had more than $100,000 in liabilities in Idaho but had $25,000 to secure them.

STRIKE CONFERENCE PLANNED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 (AP)—The Southern Pacific company has agreed to hold a joint conference with the representatives of its engine crews and hostlers, "at an early and convenient date," President William Spruille of the company announced today after a public official announcement that the men had voted to strike unless such a conference was held.

DEFENSE SHOWS WITNESS BITTER AGAINST FORBES

Mortimer Admits Hate for Ex-Head of Veterans' Bureau Who Stole Wife; Trial Is Progressing.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (AP)—The bitter personal feeling of Elias H. Mortimer, chief government witness in the veterans' bureau conspiracy trial against Colonel Charles R. Forbes, one of the defendants, came out frequently in the defense cross examination of Mortimer today.

Mortimer charged that Forbes had broken up his home, and said that he hoped Mrs. Mortimer had received the divorce for which she applied in Philadelphia a few days ago. He said he agreed not to testify.

Helped Him Out.

"I found him in my apartment with Mrs. Mortimer Labor day evening, 1922," Mortimer said, "and I helped him out and told him not to come back. I mean as he was going out, I helped him along. I didn't need any help. I wouldn't need any now. There are still some things I want to own with Forbes." The next day Mortimer said, this breach, one of several similar ones, early in the summer, was temporarily healed over, and they all went together to the wedding of Mortimer's sister-in-law in Philadelphia, September 20, 1922.

"A day or two later I saw him riding in Fairmont park, Philadelphia, with Mrs. Mortimer, with Mr. Williams chauffeur." (J. F. Williams of Philadelphia, Mrs. Mortimer's uncle), Mortimer said. "I went over to him and asked what he meant by being with Mrs. Mortimer after I had warned him to stay away," Mortimer said. Forbes reply was not stated.

Used Circumstance.

"Did you use this circumstance to induce Forbes to grant the second Turpe Lake (New York) hospital foundation contract to the W. D. Sutherland Construction company of St. Louis?" Mortimer was asked by Colonel James R. Easby-Smith, Forbes' chief counsel.

"Yes," Mortimer replied, "that and a lot of other stuff back of that, and

POLICE ARREST BANDIT SUSPECT IN TWIN FALLS

Man Wanted in Connection With Bank Robbery at Eagle Captured; May Also Have Held Up Street Car.

A watch corresponding in description and number to the one taken from the conductor when an interurban car was robbed near Boise recently, has been traced by P. O. Herriman, Twin Falls chief of police, to the possession of Oliver J. Jones, 27, one of the alleged robbers of the Eagle, Idaho, bank on August 11, last, who escaped October 16, last from the Ada county jail at Boise, and who was captured here Monday by a police squad led by Chief Herriman. Jones was Monday afternoon delivered into the custody of Sheriff L. E. Allumbaugh of Ada county, who hurried here by motor on being advised that Jones had been captured.

Jones readily admitted his identity. He declined to tell anything of the whereabouts of Chat Langer, who is alleged to have participated in the Eagle bank robbery and who escaped with Jones from the Ada county jail. In reply to inquiry as to Langer, he couched with a laugh and quipped, "The chief hasn't caught him yet, has he?"

Found in Bed.

The police at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning found Jones in a dwelling on Second avenue south, occupied by Roy Stahler, where Jones said; he had stayed since last Friday, although, he said he had been in Twin Falls for about 10 days. Jones was in bed when the police, weapons in hand, entered the room. His right hand was under his pillow where the officers found a .32-20 caliber revolver that was later identified as one taken from the Ada county jail at the time of the escape of Jones and Langer.

"We've got you now, Jones," Chief of Police Herriman said, covering the fugitive with his Winchester rifle while Patrolman Del Kennison stood in the doorway with drawn revolver. "I guess that's right," Jones replied with a laugh.

Over Confident.

When interviewed at the city jail while awaiting the arrival of the officers to take him back to Boise, Jones expressed the belief that his capture had been the result of over-confidence on his own part. He characterized as "junk" published stories that a "trustworthy" prisoner seeking to effect capture of Jones and Langer had been kidnapped by them and threatened with death.

"That fellow was playing for a pardon," Jones said. "We never saw him after we left the jail."

Jones denied that any lock was sawed by himself or Langer when they escaped from the Ada county jail, and Water Taxi Taking Men Back to Battleship Blows Up; Third Person Is Expected to Die; Inquiry Ordered.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Dec. 8 (AP)—Explosion early today aboard the water taxi La Moyne, while the vessel was returning with a full load of passengers to the various ships of the battle fleet, claimed the lives of two navy sailors and caused severe burns to one officer, two civilians and 18 sailors.

Mr. A. Moore, one of the dead sailors, died aboard the battleship Pennsylvania after swimming about 150 yards from the burning water taxi. The body of J. A. Keck, an electrician's mate, third class, of the U. S. S. New Mexico, was not recovered, and L. Vordopila, a cook of the U. S. S. Oklahoma, is expected to die from his injuries.

Six in Sick Bay.

Six other sailors whose injuries are considered not serious are in the sick bay of the U. S. S. Tennessee.

The accident, which occurred while the water taxi was in midchannel, is believed to have been caused by a backfire which ignited the fuel tank. A lot of flame poured into the faces of the 20 men nearest the engine room.

A court of inquiry was ordered by Admiral R. S. Robison, commander in chief of the battle fleet.

SETTLERS SOON TO FEEL EFFECT OF RELIEF BILL

Gooding Reclamation Measure Passed With Deficiency Appropriation Will Help Water User.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—Settlers on all government irrigation projects will soon get the benefits from the Gooding "fact-finders" relief bill, because the senate, on the second day of the session, quickly passed and sent to the president the deficiency appropriation bill which carried the Gooding bill as a rider. This is the same bill for which a strenuous fight was made in the closing days of the last session, but which resulted disastrously because of a filibuster in the senate.

Under the terms of the Gooding bill construction charges hereafter will be based on crop returns, instead of being an arbitrary percentage each year, and most of relief proposals made a year ago by the fact-finding commission will be put into effect as soon as investigations can be made. Senator Gooding said of this legislation: "It is the most important bill for the relief of agriculture in the west that has ever passed congress. Few people as yet realize the far-reaching benefits that will come from it."

As soon as he returned to Washington, Senator Gooding talked with the president about getting action on this measure. He found that president in sympathy with the bill and ready to help. Senator Gooding left nothing undone to arouse interest in the measure for quick action for this relief measure. It was good team work. Western senators united behind Senator Warren of Wyoming, chairman of the appropriations committee, and put the bill through the senate at the first available minute. It could not be considered the first day of the session, but it was passed the next day, and thus was averted any danger of having the bill recalled by the house, where threats against this relief amendment had been made.

The signature of President Coolidge on the deficiency appropriation bill makes the Gooding reclamation bill a law just as effectively as though it had been passed through congress as a separate measure. Secretary Work has advised Senator Gooding that he will move expeditiously to put the fact-finders' law into effect, so that settlers may enjoy the full benefits which this new act grants.

A CHRISTMAS DOLLAR DAY

How much Christmas buying can one do with a dollar? That's a question that a good many people are asking today. The answer is the best answer possible to that question is contained in Wright's advertisement which appears on page five of this issue of The News.

This sale for Wednesday was planned weeks ago at a store meeting. At that meeting these instructions were given: "The Dollar Day of December 10 must be the biggest one in the history of the store—every department manager is instructed to supply outstanding bargains in Christmas merchandise to sell at one dollar."

As one reads the ad one is impressed with the fact that this instruction was carried out to the letter. Every department of the store, from Toyland downstairs, to the Ready-to-Wear balcony, has supplied brilliant and desirable Christmas things at only one dollar.

for Valuable Data.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Taking the measure of the farmers and the farms of the country, in accordance with an act of congress requiring the enumeration of a census of agriculture every five years, was begun December 1 and will continue until completed, which is expected to be on or before January 31, 1925.

Everything was in readiness for the 15,000 to 20,000 enumerators to sail forth on their visits to more than 6,000,000 farms of the country and put down in black and white the important details concerning them. The farmers themselves have been prepared for these visits by the use of sample questionnaires which have been widely distributed in order to familiarize them with the information required.

There are 6,448,343 farms in the country at the last decennial census in 1920, and the value of the properties was $77,924,100,328.

The inquiries which the farmers will be asked to answer number 178 and include the facts concerning farm tenure, acreage, values, debt, expenses, co-operation in marketing, farm facilities including the number of tractors and whether the farm is equipped with a radio outfit; population; crops harvested, forests and forest products and livestock and livestock products. The information furnished will be strictly confidential under all circumstances, and will not be used as a basis of taxation.

Paris Scientist
Tells of Gland
Experiments

DR. SERGE VORONOFF, an international authority on glands, has said: "The brain, the nerves, the muscles, as well as the liver and kidneys and all other organs, would be incapable of playing any useful part without the aid of the glands. The functioning of our organs is no more than the activity of our glands, and when the bodily functioning is disturbed, the cause in most cases should be sought, not in the condition of the organ itself, but in the condition of the gland which controls it."

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Schramm-Johnson Drug Co. will supply you. Mail orders accepted.—adv.

SENTIMENT IN ELKS MEMORIAL ADDRESS THEME

Many Join With Lodgemen in Annual Lodge of Sorrow Services for Departed Members of Order.

Sentiment that prompts the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks each year to assemble in lodge of sorrow services to pay tribute to the memory of departed members of the order was eloquently expressed by J. E. Edgerton, of Pocatello, in the memorial address at public memorial services held Sunday afternoon by the Pocatello lodge, No. 1236, at 1000 persons, attended the services which were held in the Orpheum theater. The stage on which were seated the speaker and officers of the lodge, was attractively decorated with flowers and ferns and a great American flag was prominently displayed. The lodge altar with the flag, bible and candles occupied the center of the stage. The impressive ritualistic ceremony, presented by Harry Bennett, exalted ruler, and other officers of the lodge, was interspersed with the vocal numbers of a musical quartet composed of James S. Hall, H. L. Musser, A. D. Bellamy and T. L. Patrick, and "One Sweetly Solenn Thought," by a quartet composed of Mrs. O. P. Duval, Mrs. W. H. Dwight, Mrs. P. P. Bracken and Mrs. W. Zenas Smith. Mrs. D. L. Alcorn played piano accompaniment for the vocal numbers. Instrumental numbers at the opening and close of the exercises were played by the Orpheum orchestra under direction of Gustav Flechtner.

Lodge members and their guests joined at the close of the services in singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Triumph of Immortality.

Triumph of immortality over death was the theme of the memorial address. In part Mr. Edgerton said: "The part we play in this life will be determined by ourselves. If we would keep this constantly in mind how much more satisfactory would be our outlook on life."

"Life is a deep, unvoiced problem to us. It is proper that this should be. Its problems are sometimes as overwhelming as the blinding light of an approaching locomotive which relentlessly bears down upon us in the distance. One stands speechless and afraid but out of the vastness of space comes the answer."

"Inherent in our very hearts is the belief in immortality. To the religious man he accepts this belief naturally. He finds in him the realization of the life but to him who can not accept are other proofs."

"Science teaches us that nothing in nature can be destroyed. Matter can change form, as is constantly taking place, but that actual destruction of one atom of matter is unknown to science from a scientific standpoint. We are also taught the conservation of energy, of matter, of all. There is no loss and there can be no loss in the universe."

Experience a Great Teacher.

"Experience is a very valuable thing. There is nothing more valuable. Without experience that infant in his infancy you will never know what a future would struggle through childhood the same as any other untried savage but inherent in that little mite is the storehouse of experience gained from you, its parents, your parents and their parents, and on back through the ages that is required for bringing this civilization that we know up to its present standard."

"It is experience lost at death. It is unthinkable! Then what becomes of it? You say that it is handed down by heredity, by history. But you forget that eventually this old world will be great and that life as we know it on earth will pass. Science tells us that there can not be a loss. The thought of the atheist then is not tenable from a scientific standpoint."

"Life is a force—the highest force we know. If death ends all what becomes of this force? It is passed to other entities, to other lives, what becomes of my own personality that knows that I am I? That is a thing also. Can that be lost? There is no loss, any science."

"We may disagree about creeds but we can not disagree as to life. That is a fact. Into the unknown the hand of man is reaching. It is dark and terrible at times and he grows sick at heart, but suddenly he feels a grasp upon his own. His heart grows strong and a joy thrills his very being."

Playground Man to Boost Project Here

National Organization Representative to Inspect Local Sites for Harmon Foundation

George W. Braden, district representative of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, is expected to reach Twin Falls on Wednesday for the purpose of inspecting local sites for a prospective playground in Twin Falls. Mr. Braden's visit is made in connection with the matter of securing a gift of the funds necessary for a playground on the land owned by the Harmon Foundation of New York. Duran E. Morse, who has been in correspondence with the foundation for the past year, stating that the chances of Twin Falls securing such a free park are first class and that the next necessary step is the inspection of the proposed site by Mr. Braden.

It is thought likely that a meeting of those interested will be held on Wednesday evening when the entire subject will be gone over with Mr. Braden.

SEARCHERS FIND MISSING CHILD

Boy Scouts Mobilized in Hunt for James Douglas, 5, Discovered Far From Home.

Boy Scouts were mobilized Monday evening in a search for James Douglas, five years old, son of Jim Douglas, 221 Sixth avenue, who had been missing since noon, and who was found at about midnight safe in bed and asleep at the home of his uncle, Mr. Black, on a farm one mile east and three-fourths mile south of the south end of Main avenue, a distance of about three miles from his home.

The youngster's absence occasioned no alarm at home until the father returned at 6 o'clock from work at gravel pits on Rock creek. The mother believed until that time that the child had gone to be with his father. Search was started immediately, and therefore Police officers were called to make a round trip and at about 8 o'clock appeal for assistance was made to the Boy Scouts through their leaders.

It was learned that the youngster had been seen at about 4 p. m. at Chavon's store on Main avenue south where he had been seen in a penny in a candy "sucker." A little later a child corresponding to his description was being held by the hand by a little girl in the vicinity of the Bickel school.

Searchers under leadership of E. Douglas Hawley, district scoutmaster, were able to locate the youngster, and a thorough search of the vicinity of the Bickel school and gravel pits.

Plan of Campaign.

The clue that led to the discovery of the child was found when inquiry was made as to relatives or friends to whose home the youngster might have taken himself. A scout was detailed to visit the Black home and, returned with the word that the missing boy had been found.

Between 12 and 15 scouts were mobilized at the Elks club where headquarters for the search were established with T. M. Robertson, president of the Boy Scout council, in charge.

Shortly before the end of the search operation the chief of effort was a telephone campaign in quest of information that might lead to discovery of the missing lad.

Ray W. Gardner, manager here for the telephone company and an officer of the scout council, was completing arrangements this effort who was brought of success attending the search.

LARGER DAM AT FALLS INDICATED

Upper Snake River Users Put in Applications for 133,000 Acre Feet of Water.

Application for 133,000 acre feet of water in American Falls reservoir was made by upper Snake river canal companies and irrigation district through their representatives at a meeting Saturday at American Falls, according to R. D. Johnson, assistant secretary of the American Falls reservoir district, who attended this meeting and returned here Sunday.

The amount of water called for by the new applications, together with the amount already bought and paid for, Mr. Johnson stated, falls short by only 2000 acre feet of the amount required for construction of a dam at American Falls to impound 1,700,000 acre feet, instead of the smaller dam to impound 1,040,000 acre feet of water. Other water users of the upper valley, it was stated at the meeting Saturday, have expressed desire to obtain American Falls water, and P. A. Banks, representative of the reclamation service at American Falls, to whom the applications were made, stated his opinion that additional applications for water would be forthcoming to assure construction of the larger dam.

Would Out Cost.

Construction of the larger dam, Mr. Johnson stated, would reduce the proportionate expense involved in the project to a degree that the cost of water to the American Falls district would be reduced from $7 to $5 per acre foot, a saving of $2 per acre foot.

Upper river users $500,000 applied for water on the same terms as contracted by the district involving a cost of $7 per acre foot. At the Saturday meeting a committee of five members, representing the upper river applicants, was elected to act with Mr. Banks in drafting of contract for purchase of water by the upper river interests.

DATE IS SET FOR CLOSING SCHOOL

Holidays Start Day Before Christmas and End January 5; Johnson Sworn In.

Setting the date for the beginning and end of the Christmas holidays for the public schools of Twin Falls at December 24 and January 5, respectively, and the swearing in of E. E. Johnson, recently elected member of the school board to take the place of E. N. Perry, resigned, were the features of the regular monthly meeting of the board held Monday evening.

Christmas holidays will begin with the closing of school Wednesday, December 24, according to decision of the board, and reopen January 5.

Mr. Johnson, who took the seat of Mr. Perry on the school board, was elected as treasurer of the board, following the resignation of S. D. Perrine, who has occupied that position since Mr. Perry left with his family for California.

Mr. Bloom, in his regular monthly report, informed the board that one of the new members would be needed for the second semester, owing to the influx of between 70 and 75 students into the high school from the junior high and of a like number in the junior high from the grade schools. He also gave a report of the work of the football team for the year.

A check of the district's property was also made at the meeting.

exhibited amusement over published pictures of the broken lock.

"We got out of jail," Jones said, after we 'stuck up' the night watchman with a dummy gun. I had whittled out of a piece of wood and covered with tin foil cigar wrappers so that it glinted like a gun."

Jones stated that after the escape he had written to Sheriff Allumbaugh a letter telling how the escape was accomplished and that he sent a copy of the letter to the Idaho Statesman, but that no reference to it had been published.

Jones told of staying in Boise and vicinity for several days after breaking jail. He indicated familiarity with newspaper accounts of the jail break and pursuit.

Saw Sheriff Go By.

"We stood one evening on the street in Boise and saw the sheriff and two deputies carrying rifles drive by in a car," he said. On another occasion he said he hid behind a door and saw Sheriff "like an archer," when members of the sheriff's posse passed within a short distance of him.

He referred to this circumstance when Sheriff Allumbaugh snapped handcuffs on his wrists Monday afternoon preparatory to the return trip to Boise.

"I'm not going to try to get away," he said. "You fellows are too willing to shoot me; that's why I held my breath when you passed so close while I hid behind that sugarbush."

When the revolver that was taken from under Jones' pillow was returned to Sheriff Allumbaugh, Jones remarked to Allumbaugh, "I rubbed your initials off of it and put my own on instead. I didn't think you'd be using it again."

Desire for revenge upon Sheriff Allumbaugh by causing him embarrassment, during his campaign for reelection, Jones said was the motive back of the jail break.

"I have nothing on us, and can't convict us of the Eagle robbery," Jones said. He told of the circumstances surrounding the arrests of himself and Dora Douglas, a waitress, and Langer, all of whom are charged with committing the Eagle bank robbery in which $2722 is reported to have been taken, but $775 having since been recovered by the authorities.

Trouble With Sheriff.

Trouble between himself and Sheriff Allumbaugh, Jones said, was of several years' standing, dating back to the time Jones was released under parole from the state prison where he was serving a term for burglary committed at Jerome to which he and four others confessed, Jones receiving a prison sentence and the others lighter sentences.

"Allumbaugh tried for a long time to catch me in a violation of my parole, but that I would be sent back to the 'big house' if I was caught. When we were arrested and charged with the Eagle robbery he tried to get confessions. About two weeks before we left jail Allumbaugh made good his threat to beat me up. I just folded my arms and took it. I knew that if I showed fight it would help Allumbaugh in his campaign for reelection and I began to plan to get away. I figured that would put Allumbaugh in bad, and probably cost him his job. The election returns were good news to me."

Standee Not to Blame

Jones indicated concern that Standee, in whose room he was arrested, might be involved in the affair. He mentioned that his acquaintance with Standee's parents was of several years' standing, dating back to his arrival in Twin Falls from his former home in Oklahoma.

"Standee knew nothing of my trouble," Jones declared. "I met him here and told him I was broke and hungry and he took me in."

The fact that Jones was in Twin Falls had been known since last Friday, Mrs. C. W. Goodenough, Rogerson, told the police chief Herriman Saturday morning. Since that time Jones has been under close surveillance while the officers entertained hopes that he would be joined here by Langer so that Jones and Langer might both be captured at the same time.

Trap Decision.

Decision to wait no longer but to spring the trap for Jones was reached early this morning. Officers William Taylor, H. B. Butz and Kennison were instructed by the police chief as to their part in the capture.

"It worked out like a motion picture," Chief Herriman stated. "From previously designated vantage points the officers saw Standee leave the house with a bucket going for water. Timing their entrance so that Jones would be expecting Standee's return, Chief Herriman and Patrolman Kennison entered the room, the officers then rushed forward to guard avenues of possible escape.

Escape of Jones and Langer from the Ada county jail was made at about 2 o'clock in the morning. According to accounts at the time, the prisoners had sawed the locks off their cell with a hacksaw and knocked the night watchman on the head with an iron bar. The night watchman had been called to the jail section where prisoners charged with more serious offenses were confined to let one of the prisoners, who was ill, into the corridor. When he opened the outer door he was struck on the head. He recovered from the effects of the blow sufficiently to give the alarm after about 20 minutes.

Take Guns.

The escaping prisoners broke open the gun case in the sheriff's office and took three revolvers and 100 rounds of ammunition and left the building.

Jones and Langer were the alleged principals in the robbery of the Eagle bank, the former being alleged to have covered the cashier and his daughter with a gun while the latter looted the vault and cash trays in the office of $2722.

Within 24 hours after the arrest of Jones and Langer and the other alleged accomplices, Dora Douglas and "Frank" Endley, driver of an automobile which is believed to have been in the control of the robbers during the robbery, sheriff's officers and local police recovered $1047 of the missing plunder.

Informations have been filed in the district court of Ada county charging the four suspects with robbery, but they had not been brought to trial when the jail break took place.

Previously he had testified that he was acting as agent for the Sutherland company on the second Tupper Lake foundation contract, because James Black, now deceased, the business associate of John R. Mortimer testified he had given Forbes $1500 in connection with the Tupper Lake job, $1000 from William Macaulay of the Sutherland company, and $500 from Mortimer himself, the latter sum being added "to keep Forbes coming along."

Light Lights, When Lited

One of the most utilitarian light fixtures yet offered by the electrical manufacturers is one in the shape of a candlestick which when it is standing remains unlighted but immediately it is lifted the tiny bulb glows. It is a bedroom night light and works on a battery. Its own weight pushes the off button so that it remains unlighted when not in use.

THE CHRISTMAS THAT LIES BETWEEN: But what of the Christmas that lies between the years of these extremes? Is the day only for fun in his first and seventh ages? The mysterious charm of myth and legend has gone. How often is it, then, that the Christmas spirit takes a leap of years and we receive and nourish it again only when it finds us sitting aged at the Christmas hearth. (Continued tomorrow.)

STOCK TRADING IS SLOWING UP

Sales on New York Exchange Display Firm Undertone Despite Bearish Attempts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (AP)—Trading in stocks slowed up today with the general list displaying a firm undertone despite the attempt of professional traders to bring about a further reaction. Fifty-four issues mounted to new high levels for the year with total sales slightly in excess of 1,000,000 shares.

Brokers reported that speculators and investors with large paper profits on the long side of the market are showing little disposition to convert them into cash presumably on the theory that by waiting until after the end of the year they will be able to take advantage of the proposed reduction in rates on 1925 income. The rapidity with which a number of stocks rebounded when selling pressure was released indicated a scarcity in the "floating supply."

Some violent fluctuations occurred in today's trading. Philip Jones soared nearly 10 points to 80 on a relatively few sales. Nash Motors jumped 10 points to a record at 190 and then eased five points on profit taking. Net gains of four to nine points were also recorded by Maxwell Motors B, Adams Express, American Express, J. I. Case, Fisher Body, "So" preferred, Pierce-Arrow preferred and United Drug.

COMMISSIONERS WILL FIGHT FOR SALARY SLASH

County Board to Defend Order Against Decision of Court Raising Probate Judge and Superintendent

Twin Falls county commissioners will appeal to the state supreme court from the decision of Judge H. P. Ensign in district court, copies of which were received here Monday, sustaining the commission order of May 9, last, with respect to reduction in salaries next year of the county treasurer, sheriff, assessor, coroner and surveyor, and overruling this order with respect to its reduction in salaries next year of the clerk of the district court, probate judge and county superintendent of public instruction.

Statement that appeal will be taken from the decision was made Monday by all three members of the board of county commissioners.

Raises Two Salaries.

Judge Ensign's decision overrules the commissioners' order to reduce the salary of the probate judge from $2000 to $1500 and fixes the salary for this office at $1800. The decision overrules the commissioners' reduction in the salary of the county superintendent from $2000 to $1500 and fixes the salary for that office at $1700. The decision declares the commissioners are without authority to reduce the salary of the clerk of the district court who was elected two years ago to serve for four years' term.

Salary reductions approved by Judge Ensign's decision are those of treasurer, sheriff and assessor, each of which is cut from $2000 to $1800 per year, and of coroner and county surveyor, each of which is reduced from $200 to $100 per year.

Regarding reductions in the approved instances, Judge Ensign states that he is "not sure that the reduction really is justified under the circumstances, yet there must be some measure of authority left with the board of judges of such matters within the prescribed minimum and maximum."

Officers of probate judge and county superintendent, Judge Ensign holds, are "both, in their respective fields, quite as necessary and important as the higher paid offices." Salary of the county superintendent, if cut to the figure set by the commissioners, Judge Ensign points out, would be only $30 a month more than the salary of the office of the clerk and $300 a year less than the salary of the county probation officer.

Abuse Justifies Court.

In the preface to Judge Ensign's decision it is stated that "the authority upholds the contention that fixing the salaries of county officials by the county commissioners is a matter of their own discretion, and such action on their part should not be disturbed by courts unless it clearly and convincingly appears that there has been abuse of such discretion." Judge Ensign's decision was called for in an appeal taken from the commissioners' order by O. M. Eiter and others, who were represented by Shad L. Hodgkin, attorney, and hearing in the case was held July 15 and 16, in district court here.

Flag Seller Quits When Storm Breaks

Holder of Contracts Abandons Enterprise Here to Prevent Trouble Among Merchants.

In the face of objection raised by 71 business men and institutions to installation in Twin Falls of a system of flags to be displayed from staffs inserted in sockets to be cut in sidewalks, H. C. Penney, representative of a concern which had secured contracts for sale of the flags proposed to be installed to a number of business houses stated to members of the municipal commission at a regular meeting Monday evening that his firm would abandon the undertaking and withdraw from the field.

Objection to the enterprise was set forth in petitions that were Monday laid before the commission protesting against granting of permission for installation of the flag display system on the grounds that the flags offered were not worth the price asked; that the present time was not opportune for a change from the present system of overhead flag display which, it was contended, would be good for at least another year, and that when the time comes for a change it should be by decision of the chamber of commerce merchants' committee and that the flags should be purchased then from a local dealer.

SUIT OVER DEPOSIT IN DEFUNCT BANK ON TRIAL

Former State Finance Commissioner Claims Check on Which Payment Was Stopped.

Trial was begun Monday in district court here in the suit instituted by J. G. Froelich as Idaho commissioner of finance, against C. M. Doley of Murtaugh, and O. D. Brown of Kimberly, to recover approximately $170 on account of a check on which payment was stopped after it had been deposited in the Bank of Murtaugh on the day before the bank closed its doors, June 15, 1922. The former commissioner, represented in this case by Stephan and North, claims the amount of the check as a part of the assets of the defunct institution. It is alleged that the check which was issued by Brown to Doley, was deposited by Doley, who thereafter checked against it to the extent of $5 and that after the bank closed, Brown ordered payment stopped on the check.

W. C. Dickey, former cashier of the Murtaugh bank, testified Monday as the first witness for the plaintiff.

The case for the defendant is being conducted by W. Orr Chapman of Bothwell and Chapman.
