DEATH LIST IN OKLAHOMA FIRE STANDS AT 33

Charred Remains of Christmas Eve Disaster Victims at School House Recovered and Identified; 20 Injured.

HOBART, Okla., Dec. 25 (AP)—With the identification of the last victim established, the death list in the Christmas Eve fire at the Hobart school stood at 33 tonight. Twenty injured persons still were confined in two hospitals. One is expected to die and two others are in a critical condition. Funeral services for 18 of the dead will be held tomorrow.

At a mass meeting today, called by Mayor F. E. Gillespie, committee members looked after every detail of the task and the work was going forward systematically.

One Large Grave. It had been decided to bury all the unidentified in one large grave in the Hobart cemetery and late today a crowd of men broke the snow that blanketed the burial ground to throw up a long trench of grayed earth. Early tonight only ten of the dead had been identified, despite the fact that the morgue was early thrown open to the public. A steady procession of grief-stricken relatives filed all day long between the shrouded forms, but so terribly had they been turned that it was impossible in most cases to mark the features of loved ones.

Teacher Sacrifices Life. There, too, in a place apart is the body of Mrs. Florence Hill, teacher at the school, who might have escaped had she not started in a futile effort to find some avenue of escape for her little charge.

Among the dead is the family of T. O. Coffey, living near Hobart's Switch. Six bodies, the father, mother and four little ones, have been placed to themselves in a corner of the awesome room. Survivors tell a heart rending story of how the family, standing in the center of the blazing school room every means of escape cut off, threw their arms around one another and fell together into the inferno as blazing rafters loomed from the roof struck them down. Amid the awful confusion, the only survivors who were struck by the placidity with which the Coffey family met death.

Death entered the Christmas celebration suddenly cutting off at its height the program rendered by the children of the neighborhood. The last little girl had spoken her "piece" and Santa in red suit and fur had distributed to each pair of eager hands a little sack of candy while parents and friends

Heir to Millions To Be Questioned on Orphan's Death

Poster Father of Chicago Millionaire Ordered Before Prosecuting Attorney in Inquiry Being Made.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP)—William D. Shepherd, father of the young William (Billy) McCintock, the "millionaire orphan," and chief heir to his estate, will be questioned at the state's attorney's office as soon as he reaches Chicago regarding the death of the youth at the Shepherd home three weeks ago, it was announced tonight.

According to advices received from Albuquerque, N. M., where Shepherd and his wife, the latter McCintock's guardian until he became of age, last spring, went after the boy's death, Shepherd has already started for Chicago. Mrs. Shepherd, who the state's attorney also wishes to question, did not accompany her husband, according to word received by the authorities here.

Grand Jury Hearing. At the same time State Attorney Robert E. Crowe said he expected to order an investigation by the January grand jury if an autopsy performed on the charmed body yesterday reveals natural causes. A preliminary report on the post mortem examination will be given to Coroner Oscar Wolfe by several pathologists tomorrow. One of the pathologists making an analysis of the youth's vital organs, represents the Shepherds.

Tomorrow the state's attorney will take statements from the doctor who signed the death certificate of the youth, ascribing the cause as typhoid fever. Miss Mary Gartner, a maid in the Shepherd home, will also be questioned. She witnessed the signing of McCintock's will in which he left his $2,000,000 estate to the Shepherds with

High Explosive Is Found on Body of Man Who Shot Wife

Enough Nitroglycerine to Cause Disaster Discovered Following Gun Fight.

RANDOLPH, N. Y., Dec. 25 (AP)—A bottle containing two ounces of nitroglycerine, said to be enough to cause a disastrous explosion, today was found in the clothing taken from the body of Peter McLarny, who yesterday fatally shot his former wife, Dorothy Anderson McLarny. McLarny wounded two other persons and then killed himself after engaging in a revolver duel with Patrolman W. A. Bragg. The house where the fight took place is in a thickly settled neighborhood.

ECONOMIC MEET WILL BE HELD

Experts to Convene in Chicago and Take up Problems of the Nation.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP)—Nearly every phase in the economic and social life of the nation will be considered by leading economists, statisticians and sociologists, meeting here December 28 to 31. Among the associations which will hold their meetings here then are the American Economic association, American Statistical association, American Farm Economic association, American Association for Labor legislation, American Sociological society, American Association of University Instructors in Accounting and the National Community Center association.

Business men are expected to be particularly interested in questions to be discussed by the economic associations including economics or advertising, population and natural resources, the world's monetary problem, psychological problems in industry, transportation, marketing and "giant power." The meetings of the American Farm Economic association will be given over to discussion of an American agricultural policy. "The trend of our civilization" will be the theme of the sociologists while the statisticians expect to focus their charts and figures on population problems, including labor supply and immigration.

FIRE AND THEFT IN CHICAGO ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Coldest Weather Hits Chicago; Underworld Busy in Numerous Holdups; Firemen Handicapped at Blaze.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP)—White and cold, Christmas in Chicago today brought happiness to thousands, misery and suffering to others, and death to two. It was the coldest Christmas in many years, the mercury dropping to five below zero early today and hovering near the zero mark for the entire day. Two persons were found frozen to death, five others suffered frozen hands and feet and scores reported nipped ears and noses. Despite the cold, the city made money and thousands of the destitute and homeless were fed and cared for by philanthropic agencies. Religious services, big dinners and an afternoon of entertainment featured programs in the jails, hospitals, charitable institutions and homes for the aged.

Crooks Are Busy. The Christmas spirit failed to permeate the underworld and its members celebrated the day, indulging in numerous holdups, robberies and kidnappings. One woman was robbed of a diamond ring valued at $2500 and $100 in cash.

Loitering firemen spent part of the holiday battling a blaze which practically destroyed a five story brick building with a loss of $20,000, and a score of them probably saved their lives when, warned by the crackling of the breaking mortar, they scurried from the building just as one of the walls crashed. Several persons were trampled and the lives of 500 negroes imperiled for a time by a blaze in a south side cafe early in the day.

The Christmas spirit probably saved at least one life today when a neighbor of Mrs. Lena Hormeyer, going to her home to present a gift, found the woman overcome by gas from a coal stove. She was revived.

OU Official Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 25 (AP)—C. T. Collins, 76, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil company of Kentucky, and former president, died at his home here today. He had been ill since November 15.

20-YEAR SEARCH ENDS CHRISTMAS

Father and Son Lost from Each Other Are Again United; Boy to Get Married.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 25 (AP)—A son who lost his father 20 years ago, and a father who searched for his son for a score of years, wrote fits to a Christmas drama of real life today with a proposal and an impending wedding to add romance to the closing chapter. The son is Arthur Peterson, taken from his home when he was two years old, brought up among strangers under the name of Arthur Peterson, who thought for 20 years that his father was dead. The father is Edward Swanson, who for 20 years has sought to find his son.

Found at Theater. Mr. Swanson, a stationary engineer, went to Green Bay, Wis., then to Chicago, then to Hester's Bay, Wis., seeking his son. At last he came to Minneapolis. Arthur Peterson, sitting in a local theater watching "The Girl" and told to the telephone by an usher and to call his own home. He met a man who called himself "Mr. Hanson." They talked a minute. Then the man said, "I'm not Hanson. I'm Edward Swanson, your father."

The new found father bought a diamond ring for Arthur today and at their first Christmas together in 20 years father and son shook hands—and the son proposed to "the girl."

Unusual Number of Accidents

Throughout Nation in Observance of Christ's Birth; Losses Heavy.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP)—More than 60 persons were killed, upward of half a hundred were injured and 16 others are missing as the result of an unusual number of accidents Christmas eve and Christmas day.

In addition to the loss of life by fires many of them resulting from overloading due to the snow Christmas weather, in some sections of the country caused a heavy property loss.

Oklahoma Tragedy. The most serious, as well as the most pathetic, Christmas eve tragedy occurred at Hobart, Oklahoma, where 32 persons are known to be dead and six others are missing or dead as the result of a fire in a school house where a Christmas entertainment was in progress.

The next highest toll of life was taken near Reno, Virginia, where six are dead; nine are missing and 35 are in hospitals as the result of the breaking of a "muck" dam at Saltville, last night.

At Stamford, Texas, four were killed and six injured, one seriously, in a fire in the Stamford Inn.

Two Frozen to Death. Two men were frozen to death in Christmas eve in his bath room. A policeman was killed as the result of a fall and a Chinese laundry man was shot and probably fatally wounded in a long warfare.

Three were killed in an automobile accident at Richmond, Virginia, and at Dixon, Illinois, a three year old child shot and killed his ten year old brother with his father's shotgun and one person was killed as the result of placing oil in a cook stove.

Killed in Shooting. Two were killed in a Christmas eve shooting scrape near Richmond, Kentucky, two were killed in an automobile accident at Birmingham, Alabama; a three year old girl died of burns at Worcester, Mass.; one was killed in a automobile accident at Lexington, Ky.; a policeman was killed at New Orleans by a bank robber; a mother died of burns at Lincoln, Neb., after pouring kerosene on a kitchen fire; two were injured at Glendale, Cal., when a bomb in the form of a Christmas package exploded; two were killed and two injured in an automobile accident at Centuria, Ill., and at Michigan City, Ind., two were killed and two were injured when a train struck an automobile, while in New York five men were seriously wounded by two gunmen.

FIVE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED. NEW YORK, Dec. 25 (AP)—Five men were seriously wounded when two gunmen entered an East Side pool room and opened fire today. The victims are in a hospital and three of them are not expected to live. The men who did the shooting fired with several companions in an automobile in which they had driven to the pool room.

All the wounded men told detectives they knew of no motive for the attack.

FOUR DIE IN ACCIDENT. RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 25 (AP)—Four Richmond men were killed today when their automobile left the Petersburg Richmond turnpike and went over an embankment near a bridge. Herch Childress and Herman Cumber were killed instantly. Charles Jordan died in a hospital. Ryland K. Leonard, driver of the car, was arrested on a charge of careless and reckless driving which later was changed to a charge of involuntary manslaughter and became a fugitive from justice from Chesterfield county. He later was released on bond in the sum of $1000.

PISTOL FIGHT FATALITIES. RICHMOND, Ky., Dec. 25 (AP)—A white youth and a negro man were killed, two negroes are held in jail here tonight charged with murder and possess of a dangerous weapon as a result of two Christmas eve pistol fights in Madison county. At Bolton, Carl Moody, 18, was fatally shot by Oscar Harts, 20, who was arrested. The other slaying occurred at White Station, when Thomas Sheffield, 19, Auburn, Ga., negro, shot an unidentified negro.

$500,000 FIRE DAMAGES. MAHONEY CITY, Pa., Dec. 25 (AP)—Three buildings in the heart of the business section were destroyed by fire early today. The damage including loss of valuable stock in several of the stores, is estimated at $500,000. No one was seriously injured.

LUCILLE WHEELER IS DEAD. WHEELER STATION, Ga., Dec. 25 (AP)—Miss Lucille Wheeler, eldest daughter of General Wheeler of Confederate cavalry fame, died here today.

EXTREME COLD MARKS HOLIDAY OVER COUNTRY

Mid-West Suffers from Zero Weather; Temperature Moderates in West; Relief Promised for Today.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP)—Christmas day throughout the country was cold with an above normal temperature in the west, middle west and sections of the east, the holiday was accompanied by snow.

The middle west spent Christmas near the zero mark. In the west, during the day, the cold wave which originated there and started moving eastward had moderated somewhat but in the central states the temperatures hovered within a few degrees of the zero mark most of the day and was near or below zero again tonight.

Frosting temperatures for Christmas were registered as far south as the Gulf coast, and zero readings were found as far west as Kansas and as far south as central portions of the middle states.

Moderate temperatures were forecast for the middle west tomorrow, possibly accompanied by cloudiness and snow flurries.

COLDEST IN FIFTY YEARS.

COLUMBIUS, Ohio, Dec. 25 (AP)—Ohio today, covered with a blanket of snow experienced in many localities the coldest Christmas day in almost half a century. Temperatures ranged from three to 14 degrees below zero. Three deaths and numerous injuries were traceable to the extreme cold. Fred Naselovech of Bellaria, aged 52, a cement contractor, was a victim of mononucleosis in his bath room. Edward Davis of Pomeroy, was burned to death and his wife was probably fatally burned, when their home was destroyed by fire; Mrs. Hannah Ramsey, aged 68, of Sharon, was reported to death in front of an open fire.

Port Clinton on Lake Erie, apparently was the coldest place in the state, the mercury there falling to 11 to 14 degrees, respectively, below.

$160,000 FIRE IN ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, Dec. 25 (AP)—High winds and a snow storm combined with Christmas day fires resulted in damage estimated at more than $160,000 and threatened a general conflagration across below zero, while Findlay and Akron were the runners-up with 11 and in the teens district and in the business section of St. Louis. ## Nine Known Dead Result of Break in Virginia Reservoir

Several Missing and 21 Injured When Wall of Water from Broken Dam Sweeps Down Upon Southern Homes.

SALTVILLE, Va., Dec. 25 (AP)—This little town in western Virginia, Blue ridge, where Washington's and Lee's armies had their chief supply of salt in two American wars, tonight was heart-heavy as its saddest Christmas day closed without revealing the exact toll of life taken last night when a wall of water from a broken "ice dam" engulfed the mill settlement of the Matheson Alkali works.

Nine bodies tonight lay in a morgue; six or seven more were missing. 21 others were in hospitals here and at Abingdon and approximately 200 were homeless.

Lookout for Bodies. The vigil for bodies of those missing, maintained by searchers along miles of the Holston's banks, was not affected by night snow. Darkened, over, greatly hampered efforts to recover from the Holston river the remainder of its toll. It was feared that some of those unaccounted for were buried under tons of muck, or may have been washed far downstream on the crest of the flood. The body of Mrs. Harry Traylor, 48, owner of the dam that has been identified, was found today in the river four miles from the site of the dam. Other bodies were recovered at various distances from the scene of the disaster, while the rest were taken from houses which had been inundated. Ten houses occupied by workmen were swept away and the bottom lands of the Holston river as far as Tumbling creek, six miles distant, were covered with the sediment that was stored behind the dam.

Telephone messages from the scene of the disaster indicated the death toll would probably reach 15.

DOMESTIC DISARMAMENT.

At last there is a prospect of action on the part of the United States government to disarm criminals. The House has passed a bill which bans from the mails deadly weapons capable of being concealed on the person. If the Senate concurs, as it is expected to do, the interstate traffic in firearms will be greatly reduced.
There will exist no longer the absurd situation of the government itself, through its Postoffice Department, delivering mail order weapons to individuals who are prevented by law from buying such weapons in their own communities.

Some mail order houses have recently discontinued selling firearms of their own accord. This measure would compel the rest to quit. The bill, however, is far from thorough in its dealing with the firearms problem. It will probably be necessary sooner or later to forbid all interstate traffic of whatever kind, in deadly weapons, and also to establish strict control over their manufacture if the states do not see to that.

JOBS FOR THE AIRPLANE.

The airplane has recently come of age. That is, December 17 was the twenty-first anniversary of Orville Wright's first flight in a power-driven heavier-than-air machine at Kittyhawk, North Carolina.

Most of us, perhaps, think of the airplane as a pretty definitely established means of transportation. All that remains is to perfect it in a few details and to bring down its cost.
Orville Wright, however, has a different view.

"The airplane," he declared, "on its twenty-first anniversary today, is like a young man just reaching his majority."

"Like the young man, it has developed through the years from an object of no practical usefulness, an object of great interest, into an object of great latent possibilities. But like the young man it is, in a sense, now looking for a job."

It possesses the necessary qualifications to be of great service to the world; but because of its youth and inexperience, it has a hard time getting a chance to demonstrate its abilities."

Well, as in the case of the young man, there is plenty of work for the airplane to do. It is simply the usual matter of adjustment.

OIL CONTROL.

President Coolidge, appointing four members of his cabinet as a commission on petroleum conservation, states the situation convincingly:

"It is evident that present methods of operating our oil deposits are wasteful to an alarming degree in that it becomes impossible to conserve oil in the ground under our present leasing and royalty practices if a neighboring owner or lessee desires to gain possession of his deposits."

"The development of aircraft indicates that our national defense must be supplemented, if not dominated, by aviation. It is even probable that the supremacy of nations may be determined by the possession of available petroleum resources."

"The problem of a future shortage in fuel and lubricating oil, not to mention gasoline, must be avoided, or our manufacturing productivity will be entirely to an extent not easily calculated."

This is a concise expression of what has been said repeatedly of late, by all classes of citizens familiar with the oil situation, including leaders of the oil industry. The President emphasizes the desirability of stopping lavish overproduction and starting to safeguard the national petroleum supply, private as well as public, before the inevitable scarcity appears.

This is not only necessary for the national self-defense but necessary for the security of American industry.
Government is wanted in private business as little as possible; but there is a field in which some sort of governmental intervention is desirable.

SPORTS
CHRISTMAS DAY
GAME TO U. S. C.

Trojans Defeat Missouri Tigers in Football Contest at Los Angeles; Score 20 to 7.

COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, Dec. 25 (AP).—The Trojan football gladiators of the University of Southern California had Tiger meat in addition to turkey today. In the second intercollegiate gridiron played on the Pacific coast this year the Trojans defeated the Bengal gridiron men of the University of Missouri, champions of the Missouri valley conference, 20 to 7.

Outplayed by the middle western team throughout the first half, the Southern Californians clinched victory in the third period. Forward passes gave the Trojans two of the three touchdowns they scored in this period and the Missouri touchdown came in the fourth. The Trojans recovered a fumble 20 yards from the Trojan goal and dashed across the line.

Show Strength.
The Missouri line, rated by the "experts" as being two touchdowns weaker than the Trojans, showed unexpected strength in the first period. They played hard, clean football and displayed a daring attack. They came within scoring distances twice during the first half.

In the third period the Trojans resulted. Run, most of them by the squat, square built Lefebvre, took the oval to the seven yard line. A minute later Lefebvre following his three man interference across the goal line.

Missouri kicked off after a poor start. The Southern Californians again began to travel. With the ball on Missouri's 42 yard line, Chief Newman, an Indian, threw a pass to Right End Hudgins, who continued 24 yards to a touchdown.

Newman Features.

Newman featured in the next and final U. S. C. tally when he stood on the Missouri 45 yard line and threw the ball right into the grimy hands of Phy-tians, who stood with one foot across the Missouri goal line. For the first time during the game Hawkins missed goal.

The remainder of the game saw the Tigers make a desperate attempt after another. Halfback Whiteman threw forward passes until his right arm must have been weary and then Coach Henry sent in Cogline, who right away defeated the University of Chicago 3 to 0 last October, and Cogline continued the passing attack. The Tigers completed seven of the 21 passes they attempted for a total gain of 67 yards, while the Trojans completed four out of nine for a total gain of 87 yards.

Numerous Attempts to Cross Channel Results in Fitting Up Place for Candidates.

PARIS, Dec. 25 (AP).—The "Villain of Cross-Channel Swimmers" is the sign that has been hung out above the door of a 10-room wooden building on the extreme point of Cape Gris-Nez.
France's most advanced point of land into the English channel.

No numerous have been the attempts to cross the channel by swimmers in recent years, and so limited are the accommodations of the two small hotels overlooking the straits at Gris-Nez, where most of the swimmers take the water, that William T. Burgess, who swam the channel in 1911, has purchased a villa at the cape with the intention of placing it at the disposal of future candidates for channel honors.

Mrs. Harrison of Buenos Aires, has rented four rooms in the villa where she and her daughter Lillian, who made an unsuccessful attempt to swim the channel last summer, will take up their residence next July and await a favorable opportunity to try it again.

Miss Harrison is at present in London, attending a physical culture and training in view of her next campaign.

Horses who has accompanied most of the successful and unsuccessful channel swimmers of late years, is of the opinion that Miss Harrison can do it. She was going across this year when she met with an unfortunate accident and, with one more year's training, she last summer, the English Argentine girl will be the first woman to negotiate the treacherous straits.

LATENT TALENT
IN ART BROUGHT OUT AT SCHOOL

Hundreds of Men and Women Show Proficiency in Spare-Time Study at Academy, is Report.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (AP).—Latent talent in the arts is being brought out of hundreds of men and women in all walks of life here who are devoting their spare time to the study of literature, painting, sculpture, music, and other branches. A dealer in rubber stamps is showing proficiency in cullative work, while the secretary to the president of a large steel mill, his instructor says, easily could make a living with pen and brush.

The director of one of Chicago's largest art academies has made a study of his spare hour students and their various to determine if there was not ground to believe there was a profound increase in the arts and if their appeal was not deep and broad.
He found that a large majority were in school because of personal interest in special subjects or for general culture.

Some of the students are grandfathers, some are grade school students. Virtually every trade and profession is represented, from bellboys to university professors. Their class work, usually 1 1/2 hours a week, is carried on without interfering with the students' regular occupation.

"Many of these students have taken up art work for the pleasure of doing constructive study, knowing they will profit by it one way or another some day," the director declares. "Old and young, they all take their work very seriously, deriving real pleasure from it and broadening their cultural sense."

RARE OLD-WORLD
BOOKS ARE FOUND

Chest Full of Treasures Is Unearthed by expert Near Tomb of Oliver Cromwell.

NEWCASTLE, Eng., Dec. 25 (AP).—A number of rare old-world books found quite by chance are now on view in the Armstrong college art school here. They were discovered by Lionel Robinson, an expert who, visiting Newburgh Priory, near Coxwold, for the purchase of interesting volumes, obtained information which led him to his findings in another ancient domicile in the neighborhood.

Here, near the reputed tomb of Oliver Cromwell, Mr. Robinson found an old chest full of rare treasures, such as editions of Dante and Petrarch, examples of fifteenth century printing by the first craftsmen in Rome, and specimens of the work of the great Venetian printers. There was a manuscript volume in small quarto, "Book of Hours," once in the possession of Mary, Queen of Scots, written on vellum partly in Latin and partly in French, with a beautiful binding and embroidered with silver thread, supposedly the work of Queen Mary herself. Manuscript works included a 13th century "Vulgarlar," written in minuscule characters, a volume with illuminations and other decorations dated 1254; a "Saints Lives"; a 14th century "of Fleur de Marie," and a French
"Chronique de France."

Other rare volumes included three early copies of the "Iliad," printed by Jodini at Parma; a folio of the opera "L'astucioso," printed in Rome in 1463 with magnificent illustrations; an unusually rare illuminated manuscript
"The Office of the Blessed Virgin"; the first edition of "Apollonius Sidon-us," printed in Milan in 1498, and the opera "Politico," a production of the Aldine Press printed in Venice.

Most of these volumes were collected by the First Earl of Pembroke, ancestor of Venice, who married the daughter of Oliver Cromwell, in 1657.
"Chronique de France."

CALIFORNIA CHAMIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, B. C., Dec. 25 (AP).—The University of California defeated the University of British Columbia 10 to 0 in their annual rugby match here today. The game was played on frost-hardened ground with straw which seriously handicapped the players.

MEANEST THIEF BUSY.

HERRINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 25 (AP).—After Santa Claus had come down the chimney, the "meanest" thief entered a shop here at the home of the Keller family last night and departed with a few hats for Mrs. Keller, a new hat and overcoat for Mr. Keller and toys for the children. City detectives are investigating.

TONG MEMBER KILLED
IN NEW YORK; WAR
OF CHINESE FEARED

NEW YORK, Dec. 25 (AP).—A Chinese believed to be Li Ts. Tsu, was found dead in a tenement building here tonight. He had been stabbed sixteen times.
Police were unable to identify the victim positively or to find a motive for the killing.

Eddie Wong, head of the Hip Song tong, said after looking at the body, he did not know the man, but that it was possible the victim was an Long tong member.

BALL CLUBS IN FLORIDA CAMP

Ten Major League Teams to Go Into Training in Southern State; Others to California

NEW YORK, Dec. 25 (AP).—Ten major league clubs will train in the Florida region of Florida during the 1925 season while three will go to California and two will get in condition in Louisiana. Georgia, native state of Ty Cobb, will cast its net upon the remaining eight, the Detroit Tigers.
Florida is steadily gaining as a regular resort for big league clubs to retrain themselves for the season's campaign. In 1923 seven teams trained there while two more were added in 1924.

Five each of the National and American league clubs have chosen Florida. Only two National league teams have shifted their training scenery this year, the Yankees moving from New Orleans to St. Petersburg, Fla.; Chi-ago going from Winter Haven, Fla., to Shreveport, La.; the Athletics swinging into Fort Meyer, Fla., from Montgomery, Ala.; and the Red Sox moving into the Yankee camp at New Orleans from San Antonio.

Texas, a Mecca of teams in yesteryear, is ignored entirely by the big leagues next year while Alabama, which harbored two teams last year will be without big league training in 1925.

RUM SHIP HAS LONG HISTORY
OF ITS USAGE

Vessel Once Belonged to King of Spain That Recently Sank Off the Coast of California; Built 40 Years Ago.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Dec. 25 (AP).
With the sinking of the rum ship Gullin off the coast of Northern California recently, it was revealed here that the vessel had a history of romance and adventure and was said once to have been owned by a king of Spain. Here is her history as told on "the beach":

When built 40 years ago for the Spanish king, the graceful clipper yacht, equipped with gold fitting and prickly decorations, was the envy of European royalty.

From the service of the king the vessel passed to that of an English merchant prince, then successively to war service, to a band of British adventurers who called her the Frontiera, and finally, after the adventurers went bankrupt at San Pedro, into the liquor trade. She was now wanted by the legitimate lines of shipping, because she was a coal burning vessel on an oil burning coast.

Her decks were equipped with machine guns to keep away hijackers, she sailed for Havana under the name of Gullin. Returning from Cuba, the Gullin ran out of fuel off the west coast of Mexico. Her cabin was torn down and fed to the boiler fires, and as a last resort part of her rum cargo was fed to the flames a bottle at a time.

At Escondido, Lower California, 35 tons of coal were obtained, and the crew prayed that this fuel would take them to Vancouver. But her progress was retarded by a storm, and again the Gullin ran out of coal. She foundered at sea, a forbidden shore to the nearby California shores which alone could give her aid.

The wartime rum clipper yacht went to the bottom, an abandoned rum runner, scuttled by her crew, reports say.

All members of the crew were rescued by a passing ship and brought to San Francisco.

COMMERCIAL STUDENTS
TO MEET AT GOODING

Annual Intercollegiate Contest to Draw Students From Dozen High Schools of District.

GOODING, Dec. 25.—Gooding college has again been chosen to act as host for the annual intercollegiate commercial study of the South Central Okla-district, which will be held April 26, next, under supervision of Prof. H.
C. Geggins of the Idaho Technical institute.

Among the schools entitled to representation are the state school for deaf and blind at Gooding and the high schools at Gooding, Shoshone, Fairfield, Glens Ferry, Burley, Heyburn, Oakley, Kimberly, Eden, Twin Falls, Piler and Buhl.

A special committee will draft rules governing the respective events, while others will arrange for meeting the delegates at the depot and seeing to it that they are well entertained. All clubs are urged to make the trip and made to feel at home from the first to the last day of the meeting.

NEW LAMP BURNS
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazeingly brilliant, steady, white light, over better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke, or soot, no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe.
Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, W. K. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Daddy's Evening
Fairy Tale
By Mary Graham
Bonner

GOOD NEWS

"I have good news," said Billie Brownie as he came back to Fairyland and Brownie land.

"Hurray!" they all shouted.

"In the first place," said Billie Brownie, "I have won't be so many traveling monkeys as there have been—there won't be so many traveling with hand organs, and there will be some but not quite so many."

"Of course I don't like to dis-
appoint the children, but I know they will understand that it is much kinder this way."

"Poor little monkeys who travel with hand-organs have to work too hard and their lives are too hard.
They can't play and swing and enjoy themselves when they feel like it as monkeys in a zoo can do."

"They have to dance on hot pavements and hot walks in the summer when their little feet are tender and tired—and for a monkey's feet are tender."

"The Brownies and the Fairies were sitting under the light of a canoe-shaped moon and their little faces looked bright and happy in the moonlight as Billie told them this news."

"I passed through the city and there was a fog there and every once in a while you could see two bright little lights from an automobile on the fog came through the fog. You couldn't see these until they came close, but they looked so interesting in this curious light."

"I heard there that my friend the Alecdoe dog, who sits by the water dock with his paws and head out and looks up and down the street to see what is going on, has a new trick of folding his paws together—folding his hounds, the children in the neighborhood call it."

"Then I saw that the nuthatches and the other birds would give scent in ever and ever so many places."

"More and more children are putting up scent for the birds. Then Billie Mr. Nuthatch will have good meals to carry to his mate and she will carry good home to him and to the little ones."

"The nuthatches are so generous with what they have—always wanting to share it with others. And they aren't in the least greedy."

"The chickadees and the woodpeckers will carry off these morsels too. The sparrows won't bother about scent, which is as well for the other birds, and even when the robins come again they will not care for scent meals."

"Then I heard that people were not going to cut the tails of horses or of dogs any more."

"It always has made me shiver when I have heard of this being done, and when I have seen dogs and horses cut tails."

"I always wish that the people who do these things would have to have little bits cut off their ears for a while or maybe a little finger, taken off for style."

"But I have heard that more and more people were realizing how dangerous it was to do anything that was crucial just for style."

WILL CARRY ON COMMUNIST WAR AGAINST DIET

Third Internationale Executive Committee Chairman Tells of Campaign Plans on Religion.

MOSCOW, Dec. 25 (AP)—Coinciding with the advent of Christmas, Gregory S. Zinovieff, chairman of the third international, today made a significant pronouncement concerning the communistic campaign against religion. He admitted the communists had gone too far in their propaganda against existing religious rituals and their efforts to establish atheism.

"In a peasant country like ours," he said, "where the majority of the population is illiterate, and where the peasantry pays so high for articles of necessity, we can not allow ourselves such a luxury as a vigorous and inflexible religious campaign. We shall pursue our attacks on Almighty God in due time and in an appropriate manner."

"We are confident we shall subdue Him in His own way. We shall fight Him wherever He hides Himself, but we must go about such a question as anti-religious propaganda more carefully in the future."

"I have been informed by old workmen that not only the young communists, but hay scouts, are mocking people who are religious. I have also been told that groups of hay scouts have even imprisoned whole congregations in churches while they were worshipping. This is a mistake. Our campaign against God and religion must be carried out only in a pedagogic way, not by violence or force."

CALL POLICE IN A BAND CONTEST

Rival Musical Organizations Play for Long Hours in Attempt to Decide Merits.

MANTUA, Dec. 25 (AP)—Rivalry between two brass bands became so keen during a concert at Pasig, Rizal province, recently, that it was deemed necessary by the local authorities to detach a detachment of constabulary and the entire police force of the town to preserve order.

The reason for this display of force was that the concert was a contest of ability and endurance between the bands. The contest was held from 7 o'clock Friday evening until daylight the next Sunday morning, the bands agreed to call the contest a draw, thereby avoiding any disturbance. There were no judges of the affair, it being the custom in these contests for the bands to play until out on one night, when the band was giving a concert, and the audience was amazed when the music continued without a break. He said the band finished the piece, and continued to play until the lights went on again.

Playing from memory has been an acquisition of Filipino musicians from Spanish times. Recalling an incident at the St. Louis exposition in 1904, where the Philippine Constabulary band played, a member of that organization said that the lights went out one night, but the band was giving a concert, and the audience was amazed when the music continued without a break. He said the band finished the piece, and continued to play until the lights went on again.

ISLAND COLONY BRAZIL'S PLAN

Steamer Leaves With Passengers and Equipment to Colonize Barren Land.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Dec. 25 (AP)—The steamer Frederico Naesmen to chugged slowly away recently on a five-day voyage to an uninhabited island in the southwestern Atlantic. She had picked passengers and a cargo of selected livestock and poultry on board the charter members and animals of a settlement on the rocky, volcanic island of Trinidad, 640 miles east of Brazil.

After the boat drops anchor in front of Portuguese beach, Jono Caetano Pontes will take charge of the Brazilian possession as military commander. He will be built, seeds planted, a fishing industry started, and a radio station erected.

The colonizing idea originated in 1923, when the chief of the Brazilian meteorological service, Dr. Sampaio Ferraz, promised his colleagues at the meeting in Holland of the international meteorological conference of directors, that Brazil would share in developing a world wide weather forecasting service. The expedition to Trinidad, which is not to be confused with the Trinidad of the West Indies, is the first step of the Brazilian government in the fulfillment of this promise.

Weather conditions are to be witnessed daily from Trinidad to Rio de Janeiro. Three additional stations are later to be built. These four are to be located on islands in a high pressure area in mid-ocean, and their daily reports will enable the weather experts at Rio to make more accurate predictions of the route of South Atlantic wind and weather.

In Famous Expedition

The expedition, headed by Lewis and Clark, set out by Jefferson to explore the Louisiana Purchase, had originally 29 members. At St. Louis 16 men joined for part of the trip. Of these 14 were sent back with collections and reports, but two recruits were added, making a party of 33 on the far western march.

AMERICAN HOSE PROVES POPULAR

Europe Women Like Stockings Made in United States; Classified as Less Expensive.

ZURICH, Switzerland, Dec. 25 (AP)—The American feminine stocking is the most popular hosiery in many parts of Europe this season, because of its full fashioned effect, found usually only in the most expensive wear. Many of the American goods reaching the continent are of artificial silk and sell for 30 cents to $1.50 a pair, the women counting that the American stockings, even at this cheap price, outwear European hosiery by many weeks.

European buyers admit that the American stockings have many distinctive features. They are particularly well finished as to surface, they say, have a soft smoothness that immediately commends itself to the feminine touch, and the colors are suitable and the shadings varied enough to answer the wants of the trade generally. The stockings are cylindrical with a little tack running down the back which creates the impression of a seam which is found in only the most costly articles selling for five or six times the amount German and British manufacturers have made within the last year in a territory which formerly was all their own.

The American stockings were somewhat tight at first for some European buyers, but this defect already has been overcome, according to the importing agents, and now they may be had in all sizes and forms.

The Useful Thumb Tack. Unless the lower hinge of a window shade is rather close-fitting, the flat will often work itself out at one end, for several inches. This is especially apt to happen if the shade does not hang precisely straight. A small, flat-topped thumb tack, such as draftsman use, at one corner, on the window frame, and hold the shade firmly and not be visible from outside. They are invaluable also for holding group in place either paper or cloth used for lining the bottoms of drawers. Being flat, nothing can catch in them. Stores that sell them usually keep also, a little instrument useful for lifting them, saving the breaking of fingernails or knife blade.

Is Age Controlled by Glands? Dr. Serge Voronoff of France, famous physician and surgeon, who has devoted years of research and experimentation with glandular treatment, says: "A gland is worth only as much as its plan."

Dr. Arnold Leland says in his book "Old Age Deferred," in speaking of the glands: "We must insist upon the removal of their functions if they are changed by age or disease by means of extracts obtained from the similar organs of healthy animals."

The new scientific formula—Glandogen—combines this method of glandular treatment with a highly concentrated gland compound in convenient, compact tablet form which combines the important elements of the vital glands of young animals with the most effective ingredients of hundreds of keen-eyed men and women are today taking Glandogen."

THE GUMPS—T'WAS THE DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS DAY IN TWIN FALLS HOME FESTIVAL

Family Gatherings, Church Services and Elks Celebration Shared with Little Folks Feature of Occasion.

Christmas day in Twin Falls was observed pretty generally as a home-keeping festival, as well because Christmas is day essentially of the home and for the little folks, as because of forbidding weather conditions that prevailed.

In scores of homes the day was one for gathering of families and friends about Christmas dinner tables and in observance of the occasion. Comparatively few ventured forth with temperature hovering about the zero mark throughout the day and rising under the influence of sunshine that appeared during the afternoon, to only seven degrees above zero.

Relief Work Thorough.

There was no home in Twin Falls that was without a measure of Christmas cheer, persons active in Christmas relief activities believe. Although the call of need was greater than had been indicated earlier in the season and is believed to have been aggravated by recent severe weather, churches and civic and fraternal organizations co-operating in the relief work, found means for supplying wants wherever need was disclosed. About 100 baskets were prepared and distributed Wednesday by the organizations engaged in this work, and when supplies for filling of five or six additional baskets for which demand came late Christmas eve, funds were available for purchases. Mr. John R. Ault, who served as a sort of clearing house manager for the relief workers, stated Thursday.

At the county jail Christmas dinner, including roast chicken and other delicacies, was served by Sheriff and Mrs. M. E. Finch to 18 prisoners, including three women and three men who are serving sentences imposed by United States court.

Children Guests of Elks.

More than 400 children shared the Elks lodge's Christmas celebration that consisted of a free motion picture show given in the forenoon by Manager Joe Koehler and the orchestra and employees of the Idaho theatre in co-operation with the lodge, and that culminated in the afternoon with distribution of toys and stockings filled with candy, nuts and oranges at the Elks club rooms, where there had been set up an immense evergreen tree that was brightly lighted and gaily decorated.

Between 250 and 300 children were guests at the picture show, numbers being limited by reason of the cold weather from which several of the little folks were suffering when they arrived at the show house. Employees of the theater and members of the lodge committee found places beside radiators to warm chilled fingers and toes and the showing of a comedy and musical program soon commanded the attention of the little folks whose shouts of merriment attested to their delight. Theater employees and orchestra members donated their services, and films were furnished without cost for the offering, so that Manager Koehler stated that the show had cost little or nothing, but had paid large dividends in satisfaction over having had a part in brightening the day for the little folks.

Gifts for All.

Under the eager onslaught of between 500 and 600 children, the great heap of gifts that had been piled in the Elks who packed the small one room structure, capacity packed on.

Santa reached for one of the few remaining candy sticks. His arm struck a candle on the Christmas tree. The tiny blaze fell from its perch and in an instant a ball of cotton on the tree burst into flame. A rush to put out the fire and the tree fell over scattering blazing twigs. In an instant the room was in flames. Men and women sprang for the single exit at the rear end of the windows beating out the flames, only to find the opening covered by a heavy wire netting. The windows shattered, a brisk wind blew through the room fanning the flames and the flimsy structure caught like tinder.

They were crushed in the jam before the door and it is believed that most of those who perished had been injured before the flames found them.

The injured were taken to Hobart in motor cars where emergency hospitals with volunteer nursing staffs ministered to them. Work of recovery was retarded by lack of water on the school grounds with which to cool the embers.

The list of identified dead, as revised tonight, follows:

T. C. Coffey, Mrs. T. C. Coffey, Maude Coffey, Audrey Coffey, Orley Coffey, Elmy Coffey, Mrs. Florence Hall, teacher at school, in charge of the entertainment; Vesta Jackson, a married woman from Port Worth, Texas, nee Junius Clemmons, and her infant.

Club rooms quickly disappeared as each of the little guests at the afternoon celebration received his own portion and in many instances received other gifts for brothers or sisters at home.

"It seems as though most of these children have relatives," one of the women who assisted in the distribution of gifts remarked. But, "she quickly added, "we're mighty glad to give the gifts for them all."

One little fellow left the hall carrying six stockings full of candy, nuts and fruit. "What are you going to do with all those stockings," he was asked. "I have six sisters," he replied promptly.

The event was one in which it seemed doubtful whether the interest and delight of the little guests was exceeded by that of many of the lodge members and women assistants in their pleasant task.

"This is about the best thing this lodge does," one of the Elks remarked, "and among his fellows there was general agreement with the statement."

Singers Bravo Gold.

With temperature down around 30 degrees below zero at dawn, more than two score singers under direction of James S. Hall, choir director for the Presbyterian church, set forth in bobbeds to carry Christmas cheer in song to Twin Falls shut-ins and to sing carols for patients at the general hospital.

Services at St. Edward's church summoned early rising worshippers to masses celebrated at 8 a. m. and 9:15 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. High mass was celebrated at the first and third of these services.

Festival services were held at 11 a. m. at the Lutheran church, the sermon subject chosen by the pastor, the Rev. J. Gihring, for the occasion being "The Glory of the Babe in the Manger at Bethlehem."

The Bible school of the Baptist church also has its Christmas program, the singing of seasonal songs and readings in which members of all classes participated, Thursday evening.

ALBANIAN WAR IS SPREADING

Confused Reports Emanate From Revolution; Cabinet in Serious Condition Believed.

ROME, Dec. 25 (AP)—Reports regarding the Albanian situation received here continue confused and contradictory. The one given most credence is that Premier Noli's government is in a critical condition. Tirana is believed by observers here to be seriously menaced. Premier Fan Noli is said to be continuing his accusations against the Jugo-Slavs as the responsible elements in the uprising. The revolutionary movement, however, is somewhat complex since Albanians, Serbs and Russians are all participating.

Jugo-Slavs Act.

The Jugo-Slav government has announced that its action in closing the Albanian frontier at its most important point was for the purpose of circumscribing the present Albanian movement and to prevent it taking on an international aspect. The Impero says that Jugo-Slavs desired at any cost to overthrow the present democratic nationalist regime. Premier Fan Noli having shown himself a formidable opponent of the Jugo-Slav policy at the league of nations.

EXTREME COLD MARKS HOLIDAY OVER NATION

alarms were answered between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

A riverfront blaze virtually destroyed two warehouses with damage estimated at $100,000. A second fire in the downtown district resulted in damage of $50,000, while a $5000 blaze was reported at a residence. Most of the losses were covered by insurance.

SEATTLE, Dec. 25 (AP)—This was the coldest Christmas day in 35 years in the Puget Sound region, the mercury here falling to 20 degrees above zero at 6 o'clock this morning. In the 35 years that records have been kept here the coldest previous Christmases were in 1891, 22 degrees, and 1918, 20 degrees.

Mercury Sets New Low For Year at 29 Below

Forecast for today: Fair, continued cold.

A new low temperature record for the year was set Thursday when mercury's minimum was recorded at the government weather observer's station here at 29 degrees below zero. Temperature moderated but little under the influence of sunshine that appeared during the afternoon, and mercury's high mark for the day was touched at seven degrees above zero. At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon temperature had slipped back to the zero mark and was steadily declining during later hours of the evening. There was an almost total absence of atmospheric movement.

A year ago on Christmas day temperature was recorded at 44 above for high and 21 above for low. A year ago today high mark was recorded at 33 above and low at 20 above.
