SUPREME COURT JUSTICE QUITS; APPOINT STONE

Judge Dietrich of Idaho Mentioned for Attorney General's Job Following Resignation of Joseph McKenna on Bench.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Associate Justice Joseph McKenna today concluded his active service as a member of the supreme court, and Attorney General Harlan P. Stone was nominated to succeed him.

The resignation of Justice McKenna deprives the Pacific coast of representation in the membership of the court, and the selection of Attorney General Stone to fill the vacancy will give New York a member. The circuit embracing New York also is represented by Chief Justice Taft, who claims Connecticut as his residence.

Solicitor General Lock will automatically become acting attorney general upon Mr. Stone's retirement from that office. The president has given an indication of his intentions with respect to filling the vacancy permanently...

The nomination of Mr. Stone means which must await action by the senate which is referred to today to its judicial committee. It is not expected to come before the chamber again for several days.

Highly Esteemed. The resignation of Justice McKenna from the supreme court after service there since January 29, 1885, was made with unusual ceremony.

WOMAN IS NOW HEAD OF STATE

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming Sworn in as Governor; Takes Up Husband's Work.

CHEYENNE, Wyoming, Jan. 5 (AP)—A climax to more than 50 years of equal rights for women in Wyoming came shortly after noon today when Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross formally took over her duties as governor of the state.

Inaugural ceremonies, Spartan like in their severity and simplicity, marked the induction into office of the first woman governor of any commonwealth in the United States.

Dressed in Mourning. With a pledge placing her mental and physical facilities at the disposal of the people for the administration of affairs of state and calling for "divine guidance" to direct her, a woman, heavily swathed in mourning for her husband, the late Governor William B. Ross, stepped into the place made vacant by

Coolidge Endorses Cooperative Plan of Farm Marketing

Farmers' Association Holds Third Annual Convention at Washington; Blow Struck at Ford.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—An address by President Coolidge endorsing the cooperative marketing system and a criticism of Henry Ford by H. W. Bingham of Louisville, Ky., for alleged antagonism to farmers co-operative organizations marked the opening here today of the third annual convention of the national council of farmers co-operative marketing association.

Addressed by former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, Carl Williams of Oklahoma City, Okla., and A. J. McGinnis, president of the Columbia Wheat Producers Limited, were other features of the meeting.

SHARP Criticism. Mr. Coolidge in an address to the association's members at the White House, described co-operative marketing as the best method of stabilizing the country's agricultural organization, but warned that the system possesses no magical attributes and must start from the soil and be developed upward with the farmers contributing the major aid.

Mr. Bingham, chairman of the meeting, referred to a recent issue of the Dearborn Independent containing an article on the staple cotton co-operative association and also read an attack on the manufacturer in the official organ of the association, published at Birmingham, Ala.

Despite attacks, announced by co-operative marketing movement, Mr. Bingham asserted, is stronger now in volume of business and achievement than ever before.

Mr. McGinnis, president of the Columbia Wheat Producers Limited, were other features of the meeting.

Germany Informed of Allied Decision to Stay at Cologne

Comment Takes Form of Brief Communique in Which Nation Charges Reasons Are Not Sufficient.

BERLIN, Jan. 6 (AP)—Germany was informed by the international ambassador here today in an identical note that the allied troops would not evacuate the Cologne bridgehead January 30.

The note was the outcome of the refusal of the allied command to accept the German proposal that the German government charges that the decision to stay at Cologne zone area of such a general nature and so completely lacking in material foundation that discussion of them must be deferred until the allied governments submit an amplifying note.

The German government, the communique declares, believes itself treated in asserting that the present state of the disarmament question affords no justification for the adoption of so grave a measure as the continuing of the allied troops at Cologne bridgehead. It is anticipated in the communique that it will be communicated to the allied governments in the near future.

HOWEVER, THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT BELIEVES ITSELF TREATED IN ASSERTING THAT THE PRESENT STATE OF THE DISARMAMENT QUESTION AFFORDS NO JUSTIFICATION FOR THE ADOPTION OF SO GRAVE A MEASURE AS THE CONTINUING OF THE ALLIED TROOPS AT COLONGE BRIDGEHEAD.

It is anticipated in the communique that it will be communicated to the allied governments in the near future.

GOODING BILL GETS BACKING OVER COUNTRY

Press of Nation in Favor of Long and Short Haul Measure Urged by Idaho Senator in Congress.

WOKANE, Wash., Jan. 5.—Wide spread demand for passage of the Gooding long and short haul bill (senate bill 327) by the house of representatives during the short session of congress adjourning March 4 is shown in editorial comment published in many newspapers of the country, according to a communication made here at the headquarters of the Interstate Rate Association.

Out-Of-State Warfare The policy of permitting railroads of the country to enter on cut-throat warfare against boat lines in order to maintain a monopoly of transportation is being discussed in a recent issue of the Chicago Record, publisher of the Chicago Record.

Chicago Record Journal, in an editorial urging passage of the Gooding bill. The law says: "The fact of the whole thing has been with the interstate commerce commission."

When the Gooding bill becomes a law money can be spent on rivers and canal improvements without the hindrance of pork barrel. Boats can again operate at a profit and the cost of transportation will be greatly reduced.

Telephone Talkways

The telephone are found in open wire and aerial cables, on pole lines and in cable conduits under the streets. Thousands of miles lie out of sight, sharing the sub-surface of city streets with gas and water mains and the electric wiring which supplies light and power.

Factories are working day and night to provide the sheathed cable and copper wire which when finished becomes a part of the telephone system.

Materials are high now but the job can't wait. Every new demand must be foreseen and promptly met by the installation of adequate equipment.

DICTATES OBITUARY THEN KILLS HIMSELF

OMAHA, Jan. 3 (AP)—After having dictated his obituary, Adolph Meyer, prominent Omaha business man and a well-known writer, for Germany's cause during the world war, committed suicide. At first it was thought Meyer had died on account of heart trouble, but Coroner Paul Stulenwender declared it was a case of suicide.

Wishes and an outrageous injustice. Valuable Work.

The Gooding bill is probably the most valuable and constructive piece of legislation that has been proposed since the civil war.

Western railroads are "using a ton of dynamite to kill an ant" in their effort to force Panama canal ship out of business by means of a vicious price war.

Rates Disappointing. The value of a law that will prohibit railroads from making discriminatory rates for against competition in order to carry on a warfare against boat lines is hereby summed up in these few words by the Fruit and Produce Record, published in New York city.

If fruit and vegetable growers and shippers do not urge their representatives in congress to pass this measure (the Gooding bill) on the nation's statute books, we'll go to our last trading place—thinking they ought.

Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Artesian Water Company Limited, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held at the banking room of said company in Twin Falls, Idaho, at 3 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday, January 20, 1925.

The Pathway of Fools

WHEN Jim Hamilton married Ruth Mason, they had little to "go on" but love. Then riches came. They moved to New York. Jim became instantly popular - especially with women. One, an exquisite creature, fascinated him. She seemed to possess every grace, every refinement, that Ruth did not. And this is just the bare beginning of a most heart-grIPPING life-drama. Did Jim remember the little wife who had devoted herself to him body and soul? Did she surrender him to the "other woman" — or did she battle fiercely, fiercely, to hold her mate? Only Jim himself can bring you a clear picture of this terrible crisis in his life. He bares his soul completely, stripping it of every shred of concealment. "When Riches Come," as it is entitled, is really a man's love story written for women. Nothing exactly like it, that we know of, has ever before appeared in print. It is one of the big features in the February issue of True Story Magazine. Don't miss it! On the newsstands today.

Other Heart-Stirring Stories in the February Issue are:

- "The Price of Fame" - Nellis wanted to become a great actress. Like hundreds she hoped to become a star. She did not dream of the price exacted for fame. A powerful story every girl should read.
"The Evil Men Do" - When Evelyn became private secretary to the great actor Blair, his instant interest had her head in a whirl. Suddenly she found herself in the grip of a mad adventure from which she seemed powerless to escape. A startling chapter of real life.
"Human Wreckage" - When he married Helen Kinks, he thought his happiness was complete. Then he met Olga Harmon, the temptress dancer. Came down a mad passion which was his doom. A masterpiece in the true-life stories of men.
"A Letter from the Heart of an Indiana School Worker" - Editor, "True Story": Dear Sir: I am assistant-matron in a school for delinquent girls in a small Indiana town. Each evening we have reading for the inmates. I remember I purchased a copy of "True Story" Magazine. It was the first one I have ever read and I have no words with which to explain my surprise at the value of this book.
Tonight I took this book into the girls' dormitory and I told them I wanted to read them a story. I turned to the one in the September issue entitled "Her Birthday." As I read the arms of one of the girls nearest me went around my neck, and I felt her body about me. There were sobbing through the little audience, and when I had finished, all wanted to talk at once. One of them said, "Oh, Mrs. — if I had only had this book a year ago, I would not be here today's surprise, the mother of a baby without a name and I only seventeen. Another little girl, also in only sixteen and will become a mother in a couple of months, cried as if her heart would break and uttered a short prayer for this girl and for her sisters in this home.

FARMER'S DEATH CALLED MURDER

Mystery Surrounds Slaying of S. E. Cochran at Heglar Settlement—Money—Missing

BURLEY, Jan. 5.—Sidney E. Cochran, 49, whose body was found New Year's day in a lonely snow-covered canyon about a mile and three-quarters from Heglar settlement in the Black Pine mountains, was murdered, according to a verdict returned by a coroner's jury which found that the man met his death at the hands of persons unknown who beat him over the head with a blunt instrument.

Coroner Gallagher, C. W. Thomas, prosecuting attorney for Cassia county, Ralph Smith, court reporter, and Dr. C. E. Rich, returned early Sunday morning from Heglar where deep snow delayed the journey. They left Burley late New Year's day when a messenger brought news that the body had been discovered. At first it was believed that Cochran was thrown from his horse and killed, but after investigation by Dr. Rich and the coroner's jury was found to have been the cause. The man's neck was also broken, the coroner said. The crime has been reported to the sheriff's office and a search is under way for clues. Money which Cochran was known to have had with him was not found when the body was discovered according to the coroner.

Prosperous Farmer. Cochran was a prosperous dry farmer of the district and had been a resident of the section for 14 years, coming to the neighborhood from Oregon, where he was born December 25, 1875. He leaves relatives in Oregon and two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Chaso and Mrs. Burns of Heglar. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon with burial in the Heglar cemetery.

On December 31 Cochran rode into Heglar horseback to visit with friends, and left about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, according to the story learned by the coroner. He was a bachelor living about two and a half miles from Heglar which is situated 40 miles northeast of Burley. The following day Cochran's horse returned to Heglar and fearing the rider had met with an accident a party of friends started out for his cabin. About a mile out from the settlement they found the man's hat and gloves in the snow, and three-quarters of a mile further on the body was discovered.

Several foot tracks were reported to have been found nearby, but it was hard to determine much about them as cattle had been in the canyon and roamed over a large part of the section. The party returned to Heglar and sent a messenger to Burley to report to the coroner, and later that day the coroner and his party set out for the place. The body was brought to Heglar where Saturday night an inquest was held.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS KILLING. BIONK CITY, Iowa, Jan. 5.—While apparently little access detectives are attempting to unravel the tangled web of mystery which surrounded the death of Samuel Tarsen, 79 years old bed-roomer, who was found Friday morning with his throat cut through his brain.

Canal Company Manager Reports on Possibilities of Development at Low-Line Division.

Maximum of 11500 horsepower can be developed during summer months at a hydro-electric plant at the diversion of the low line from the main canal near Hansen, while during winter months development would fall to a minimum of 2400 horsepower, according to a report to directors of the Twin Falls Canal Company, compiled by E. V. Hugg, engineer, under direction of Burton Smith, general manager of the canal company.

Cost of plant and transmission system including 75 miles of high tension line and 200 miles of low tension line, together with service connections the average cost of which to each consumer would be $350.

Not attempt is made in the report to suggest proper rate to be charged. In this connection the report states: "Since rate is fixed on a number of factors, such as the load factor, diversity factor, quantity of power used by the individual and the proportionate part of the system used, it is difficult to say just what proper rate should be."

Beetles Bore Through Cables. In studying damage to local telephone cables in California by a wood-boring beetle it is shown the beetle is able to penetrate the insulation of cables that are considerably heavier than the problem is still unsolved, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington, and it will be difficult to find a practical means of eradicating this pest, which is able to bore through cables, out of commission by boring holes in the cables through which the water enters, rendering the wire connections useless.

Dog-Sled Derby a Popular Winter Pastime in Canada.

MOUNTIE, LEADER OF THE CHATEAU TEAM. BRIDGES' TEAM WINNING IN 1924.

Year by year keen interest is evinced in the Eastern International Dog-Sled Derby held in February in Quebec, the principal sport center of Canada, which holds the Brown Gold cup, a trophy for the dog-sled race. For two years the cup has been won by Canadian dogs. Jean Lefel, a French Canadian, won the 1922 cup and $1000 in cash and finished first despite the fact that one of the four dogs with which he started gave out and had to be hauled to the winning post by the sled even though the driver knows he will not be first, for five prizes means a chance of sharing the purse.

The winter carnival, February 19, 20 and 21 are Brown Brothers with two teams; Power Lumber company, with Eskimo dogs from Esquimaux Point, driven by a trapper from the Labrador coast; Earl Bridges, with a team of light dogs, and a number of other Canadian drivers who have raced in former derbies, among them Letourneau, Lebel, Vatcher and Smeets. Five American teams are ambitious to regain the cup, which was wrested from Arthur T. Wagonmaster of Wallen, N. H., who won it in 1922, and bring it back to the States.

The derby is run in laps of about 40 miles per day. No cruelty to dogs is permitted and children are invited to witness the race and always do in large numbers. The drivers accept the dogs every possible comfort and attention and the dog sled team is expected to be returned to them and repaid by making a prize effort to be lead team.

Carry Chees

Everyone is carried upon now and then to visit the sickroom. Conditions surrounding the bedside visitations present a wide variation. There is one rule that holds good under all conditions, and that is to carry cheer and sympathy to the face, but a smile, if the patients are able, talk to them of what is going on outside. Help them to forget themselves. A man who for over twenty years had been paralyzed, was visited by a friend who was prone to expressing his sympathy by weeping at the bedside of his patient.

MR. SARAH T. RYAN has divorced Allan A. Ryan, speculator, young New York financier, naming a "Mrs. Jane Doe," correct name unknown. News that the divorce had become final recalled Ryan's testimony before the New York county grand jury in 1923 that he had identified as his wife's some wearing apparel found in the apartment of George W. Maxwell, president of the Society of American Composers, Maxwell subsequently was indicted by the grand jury for an alleged "poison pen" plot in which the Ryans figured, but the indictment later was dismissed for lack of evidence. The Ryans have five children.

GERMANY HAS "HONESTLY DISARMED"

to maintain their troops in Cologne "has stirred the German soul to its innermost depths." Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann declared, adding, "The action of the allies means a disavowal of those who fought the battle of trust against distrust and put through the Dawes plan, despite warnings that, even after Germany had accepted, Cologne would not be evacuated." Meanwhile word has come to Marshall Foch, who commanded allied forces during the world war that Germany has equipped itself with 80,000 volunteers and has sufficient arms and munitions hidden within it to equip them. That, under the surface, is said to be the reason for the decision of the allies not to withdraw troops of occupation from Cologne.

DETAILED STATEMENT OFFERED BY DEFENSE ON PONTIAC CONTRACT

CHICAGO, Jan. 5 (AP)—A detailed statement of the circumstances under which the Pontiac construction company was awarded the contract for the Northampton (Mass.) veterans' hospital foundation. The award on which the government based charges of conspiracy against former Director Charles J. Forbes and others—was offered by the defense today in the Forbes-Thompson conspiracy trial.

J. W. Thompson, wealthy St. Louis contractor and partner in the Pontiac company, is "connected" with Forbes, charged with having obtained the Northampton job as a result of the alleged conspiracy.

Too Improbable. Grandjurors told Charles Thompson today "There was once a little boy who went upstairs with his mamma. She undressed him and washed his hands and face and neck and ears and combed his hair and put his nightie on him, and he walked happily, and said his prayers and jumped into bed just as a good boy should. And she kissed him good night, and turned out the light and went downstairs, and the good little boy went right to sleep and dreamed the dream of his life. Now, this little boy had a dunny stool that 'dandy stool' 'Yes,' answered Charles, 'but I don't believe a word of it.'"

SUPER-DISTRICT FOR UPPER-SNAKE PLANNED

Users of Snake's Headwaters Plan Organization For Financing Participation in Reservoir Project

AMERICAN FALLS, Jan. 5.—Another super-district, similar to the American Falls reservoir district, will probably be formed in the upper Snake river valley to finance the purchase of storage in the American Falls reservoir according to E. Some 20 or 30 districts comprise the upper valley territory and to get them all into the large district and put over the associated plan will require some such campaign as was put over when the American Falls reservoir district was first conceived. The campaign will be carried on probably beginning within the near future to the end that 135,000 acre-feet of supplementary storage will be purchased in the reservoir plan, which will permit the building of dam to the larger capacity of 1,700,000 acre feet of water.
