DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

If Back Hurts or Bladder is Troubling You, Take a Little Salt.

When your kidneys get and your back feels sore, don't get angry with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Every year thousands of you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's "poisonous waste" and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 200 gallons of waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much—also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Little Salt; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with litmus, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving backache and uric acid.

Just Salt is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent little water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking and so doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache—the all-around, safe, your physician examines your kidneys at least twice a year—only.

AIR CHIEF IS STORM CENTER

Secretary of War Weeks Desires Explanation of Statements Made by Mitchell.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Brigadier General William Mitchell, who has become the storm petrel of a row among army and navy officers over the relative importance of aircraft in warfare, must explain to Secretary Weeks some of his reported statements about the "pre-war" airplane.

The secretary has revealed that until such an explanation is received he will defer a decision on the reappointment of General Mitchell as assistant chief of the army air service. If the decision is against reappointment the officer will lose his temporary rank as a brigadier general and revert to the grade of a colonel. His term at his present post expires March 20.

Business Detail.
Mr. Weeks would not go into detail about the statements of General Mitchell he wants to have explained, but it was indicated the war department's chief concern was not so much directed to expressions of personal opinion as to what the general has been quoted as saying in relating supposed facts to "business committees."

Something of an air was created by the general a few days ago when he declared that recent air-topping experiments had a badly injured biplane flying a mile and a half away from the explosion that she had to limp into port. Secretary Weeks promptly presented the committee a statement by the commander of the ship in question fully denying the story.

Who gave testimony contrary to the views of superiors were likely to be disciplined "indirectly." He was appearing in favor of the Curry bill, proposing creation of a unified air service, a measure opposed by both Secretary Weeks and Secretary Will-

The controversy is attracting increasing attention in congress where the views of General Mitchell have been used to support a campaign for more aircraft and for the Curry military bill. On the floor of the house Representative McClintock, Democrat, Oklahoma, quoted the general as having said army airplanes could have sunk the hull of the battleship Washington in from two to four minutes. The Oklahoma representative declared he had been informed unofficially that bombs loaded with sand had been used by the navy planes which made the attack on the Washington.

LUCKY STRIKE

Facts About Taxes on Cigarettes

TO the general public, we believe it will be surprising to learn that nearly half of what they pay for cigarettes goes to the government for taxes. The internal revenue stamp on a package of twenty Lucky Strike cigarettes costs you six cents. On a 75c tin of one hundred, the revenue stamp costs you thirty cents. So nearly one-half of what you pay for cigarettes is spent by you for taxes. This is certainly the heaviest tax on an article of daily and universal consumption.

The Tobacco Industry and Taxes

The aggregate tax paid by the tobacco business is with one exception, income taxes, the largest item of internal revenue to the federal government records. Last fiscal year it amounted to $399,014,050.84. Of this enormous amount of money the cigarette industry paid $182,715,785.93, or nearly two-thirds of the total tax paid by the entire tobacco business. BY TAKING YOUR SHARE OF THE TAX when nearly fifty cents of every dollar paid by you for cigarettes goes to the government, you must receive in cigarettes a value in return for your money that is rarely given in any commodity. That the public appreciates this great value is shown by the enormous increase in the consumption of cigarettes.

Our reasons for this tax free offer

We know this offer induces men to try Lucky Strikes—It "Wins More Friends." We know that a large percentage of those who get acquainted with Lucky Strikes adopt them. This isn't philanthropy nor propaganda—just good business, as you'll agree. The offer is limited. We cannot afford to keep it up. We make it generous, to attract attention.

Super-quality

Only by immense volume can we produce such an aristocratic cigarette as Lucky Strike at this democratic price. Its quality is superior because it has that costly extra process, toasting, which improves the flavor and adds to the taste of even the finest tobacco that can be used in Lucky Strikes.

Cleanliness and Care in Manufacture

Every Lucky Strike factory is a model of sanitation. Rigid laws at West W. McCann, the noted food expert, describes one of our factories: "The walls are painted, floors are clean as freshly chiseled marble, cutting machines and wrapping machines take away from the human hand all detail and leave nothing to the consumer's observation but the week-oldness of aged pipes."

We know a word will make you a permanent customer of ours.

YIELD REDUCTION IN SPUD CROP IS ADVISABLE

Growers Advised in Department of Agriculture Outlook Report to Plant Potatoes Again This Year.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Potato growers are advised by the department of agriculture in the third section of its outlook report to make no further reduction in acreage this year.

The department recommended that no great increase be made in sweet potato acreage, and advised an increased planting of tobacco, sugar beets, beans, peanuts and citrus fruits with only a slight increase in flax.

Extraordinary yields of the large potato crop of last year, the report said, was due to the extra-ordinary weather and not to excessive acreage, and the department believes an acreage even slightly larger than that of 1924 will be profitable to growers.

"Present high prices for sweet potatoes," it continued, "should not influence growers to plant a largely increased acreage of this crop this year. Present prices are more the result of low yields in 1924 than of short acreage. An increase of more than 10 per cent over 1924 acreage with an average yield of 100 bushels to produce more sweet potatoes than can be marketed profitably.

Tobacco Outlook Good "Many increases in tobacco acreage this year is undesirable, excepting perhaps in some of the flue-cured types. While tobacco is one of the most types of tobacco is better now than last year, stocks on hand are still high.

Higher prices for sugar and sugar beets during the coming season are unlikely, due to the probability of a large crop of sugar from last year's crop. The 14 per cent increase in world sugar production for the 1924-25 season over the 1923-24 production in 1923-24 caused a distinct decline in world prices.

Bean Situation "A bean crop of an excess of domestic beans would tend to put the price of the entire crop on an export basis. The bean crop in California in 1924, and other states, equal the 1924 crop of 100,000 bushels in excess of domestic requirements. An increase in 1925 crop of 100,000 bushels in excess of domestic requirements.

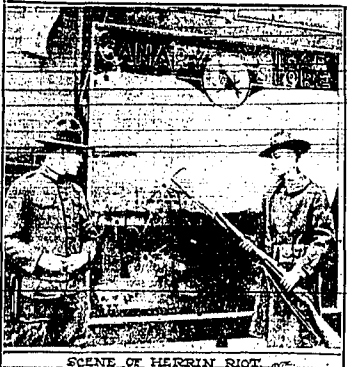

"Flax acreage still may be increased somewhat before production with average yields will equal the present consumption. Flax is more profitable than flax prices in the United States will be on a relatively higher level than when during the next year, if production is below the domestic requirements.

"An unusual increase in peanut acreage in 1925 over that of last year may result in lower prices.

Present conditions indicate that increased plantings of citrus fruits and other fruits may be profitable. The fruit, peaches and pears and other fruits should be confined to the local market and the general replacement of old farm orchards in localities where a good local market exists.

SWEDEN EXPERIMENTS IN LOCOMOTIVE TESTS

Neck-and-Neck Race Between Steam and Electricity for Engine Power Grows Stronger With Latest Trials

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 5 (AP)—The neck-and-neck race between steam and electricity as a motive power for railroads has grown considerably hotter as the result of the recent extensive tests in Sweden. These tests show that the Swedish turbine locomotive, a 45 to 50 per cent less cost than a standard locomotive with corresponding capacity, while requiring only one-third as much water—some 200,000 gallons of 600 gallons without a stop, and one-third as much fuel—requires only one-third as much water.

Try Anything—Once

A short time ago the Woman was one of a party that toured the capitol of Massachusetts. She was amused at the "uncivilized" remarks of the natives. One day her party lunched at a particularly cheap and fitting restaurant. At the next table an "emphatic" middle-aged couple had reached the desert stage of the meal. The menu said "Indian pudding." "Bring it along," invited the man with a somewhat "stare" as he saw what the Indians of this state liked for dessert. "It came—a brown, sweetened lump on a huge saucer. Ho! look at it in a moment, tasted it and was a very nice and nice to his wife. "Well—I'll say, Maria, of this is what they eat! I can't afford a bit that there ain't none of them left." Japanese Honor Crane

The Japanese depict many birds in their art and painting. They use the crane, the phoenix, the crane, the crane and a host of small birds; but the crane holds an honored place, being used to convey the souls of dignitaries who have died. MINE WORKERS HELPING NEEDY

Organization Officials Tell of Conducting Relief Program on Large Scale.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP)—The United Mine Workers of America announce that despite national prosperity elsewhere, they are conducting a relief program on a large scale for members out of work through strikes and lockouts.

Union officials say that since last April the relief amounted to "tens of millions of dollars," hundreds of thousands of dollars being paid out monthly, and that money for about 100,000 amounts to 120,000 destitute miners and their families in various strike districts. The 300,000 members of the organization as a whole, they say, contribute this expenditure, which will be continued "until the strikes are over."

The unemployment effects attendant upon coal strikes, particularly in western West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, the union states the trouble from what it terms the failure of mine owners to accept the Jacksonville agreement of December, 1923.

In other years the basic scale had usually been adopted throughout the industry at large. Mine owners in the present strike areas, however, opposed the Jacksonville scale as being too high and their high-cost workings, as one which they could not pay, especially when in competition with lower-cost pits in other non-strike fields. The mine owners stood upon the basic agreement and fought any extension of the same.

The United Mine Workers' organization stands behind their own position they have taken to fight any extension. When evasions from company-owned mines, the union says, it sends their family homes, it finances the fund needed to provide clothing, barracks or tents for 2,000 miners and families scattered among the hills and mountains. It pays moving expenses; supplies food, clothing and fuel; secures medical attention for the sick; and approves the bill of the undertaker burying those who die.

The Kanawha fields in southern West Virginia, which the union cites as an example of the functioning of its relief machinery, received $82,000 in relief funds in December alone. The union there bought a tract of 100 acres for $1,800 and built 120 cottages for $12,000 to provide a roof for some of the 15,000 miners' families expelled.

On the Kanawha river, according to the union, 120 families were displaced the day before Christmas, and the day after Christmas the women and children were housed in a building, the men being converted into a camp.

On Christmas day there were 15,000 children living in tents or barracks in West Virginia. The union received $2,000 from the International officials with which it bought "ten tons" of candy and nuts. This was distributed throughout the area to mothers' club, but some taken in the children's stockings.

DECISION SUITS NEITHER SIDE

Protestors Against County Of- ficials' Salary Cuts to Take Appeal.

Decision given by District Judge H. F. Baugh of Hailcy, regarding an order by Twin Falls county commissioners reducing salaries of elective officials who took office last January, is unsatisfactory both to the commissioners and to citizens who appealed from the commissioners' order to the district court.

The county commissioners who issued the order, due to the expiration of their terms last January, arranged for an appeal to the supreme court from the order. Judge Baugh's decision, which was given December 31, last, following hearings held here last July, upheld the commissioners' order, but reduced the salaries to $1000 to $1500 per year in the salaries of sheriff, assessor, treasurer and for reduction in salaries of coroner and auditor, but overruled provisions of the order to reduce the salaries of probate judge from $2000 to $1500 and of county superintendent of public instruction from $1800 to $1500, and ruled that salary of the probate judge should be $1500 and that of the county superintendent $1700.

The decision also denied the right of the commissioners to raise the salary of the county clerk, who had been elected two years before to serve for four years term.

METEORS MEET FILER TONIGHT

Hard Contest Looked for Between Boys' and Girls' Basketball Teams.

Meeting of the Filer high school basketball team on the Filer floor tonight the Twin Falls teams will attempt to capture the title for the district. The Filer team took both games played on the local floor. This game, according to the local fans, will be the most exciting contest of the season to the rival spirit which prevails when Filer and Twin Falls play, and because the two teams are evenly matched so any two teams could be the champion to a Filer victory due to their winning the game against the Meteors on the floor here. However, the Twin Falls fans feel that the Meteors have improved to such an extent that victory tonight is a very real matter.

The hopes of the girls of defeating the Filer boys are founded on their victory over Kimberly, Vera Wynne and Billie Nicks, will not doubt start at Filer tonight. This girl made an excellent showing at Kimberly and should do a lot of scoring against Filer. The boys should play fast basket ball and be able to keep it up during the entire game as they have had a full week of practice.

THIRD BASEMAN HAS UNUSUAL HIT RECORD

Playing of Russell Wrightstone of Philadelphia. A National League shortstop.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP)—Russell Wrightstone, Philadelphia Yankins' infielder, finished the 1924 season with a batting average of .267, a mark which was bettered by only seven other National league infielders—Hornby, Priskel, Kelly, Frazier, Frazier, Frazier, Frazier, Frazier. Playing with a cellar team, in a so-called weak infield, Wrightstone's work during the 1924 season stamps him as one of the best infielders in the league infidelity. While never a star of the first magnitude, Wrightstone is a player who has never mentioned connection with an "all" team. Nor is he considered a particularly star with the Phillies, but the records reveal that he is one of the most dependable third basemen in the National league and a hitting star of .300 caliber.

Wrightstone is just an average baseball player. There is nothing flashy about his play. His career has been one of steady improvement, but day after day he is in there knocking down hits and driving in runs.

Robertson came to a tentative agreement with the promoter today but explained that it would be approved by Mansuet before articles are signed. The terms were called to light by the French fighter and his trainer expressed belief they would be quickly approved. King, who is fighting on the Pacific coast this month, is understood to have come to an agreement with Robertson for the fight.

BOXER NOT GUILTY OF VIOLATING LAW IS THE VERDICT OF 12 MEN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5 (AP)—Tony Fiamet, Mexican heavyweight, was given a clean bill of health by a jury here, when it acquitted him in his trial for conspiracy to violate the state anti-fight law in his agreement with Fred Fulton of Minneapolis, of Culver City last summer. Fred Wilson, manager of Fiamet, Fulton and the latter's manager, Jack Reddy, all of whom were suddenly charged, failed to stay in the state.

Fiamet, who had been indicted for admitting a fight, for which he paid $250 in a fine Fulton took the same course a few days ago and paid $250. He yesterday turned state's evidence and was released. Tony started the trial with a plea for a separate hearing, which was denied, but as the other dropped by the judge he obtained the wish and finished alone. He took the stand in his own defense and declared that all he expected to get out of the Culver City fight was a money.

Incidentally, he added, he did not get the medal.

AGENTS SEIZE GAMBLER PEARLS

Federal Officials Take Jewels From Georgia Man Thought Smuggled In.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5 (AP)—Pearls believed to have been smuggled, valued at about $2000, recently were seized from Asa B. Chandler, 47, 1701 Mission St., by United States custom officials, according to information received by federal officials.

Seizure of the pearls followed the finding in the possession of Max Burton, former partner of the Trans-Pacific Pacific Freight Cleveland, of papers which revealed that pearls purchased in China had been smuggled into the United States, supposedly through the post of San Francisco.

Burton was arrested at Honolulu last December and since then has been on a smuggling charge not connected with the pearls in question. The papers were taken from him at the time of his arrest. Available information here today was that two pearls were taken from Mr. Chandler, who had come into possession of them September 5, 1923.

NEW BALLOT IS PROPOSED

North Carolina Women Lay Plans to Speed Up Election Methods So That Returns Will Be Available Early.

(CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 5 (AP)—North Carolina will not have to wait a week or more for the results of the next general election, if the women have anything to say about it. Through the Legislative council of women voters, the women of the state are making a fight to have the Australian ballot adopted for the state, as large by the general assembly now in session. A bulletin issued by the committee which is composed of the National League of Women's Clubs, Parent-Teachers Association, Business and Professional Women's League of Women Voters and other organizations, sets out the benefits to be gained by the Australian ballot method for the state. At the general election last November there were 16 ballot boxes in each polling place in the state, except where the Australian ballot is in use, there were eight ballot boxes. In many instances ballots were not counted, according to reports, until Friday or Saturday after the election.

SLAYER OF TWO SISTERS SOUGHT IN LOS ANGELES

Finding of Shoe Near Shallow Grave Where Little Girls Were Buried Lends Impetus to Hunt.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5 (AP)—Finding of the shoe lost from the foot of little Nina Martin, eight, whose body with that of her sister, Mary, 12, was discovered alone in a grave on an Los Angeles mesa yesterday, lent new impetus to the tracking of the person or persons responsible for the kidnapping, maltreating and killing of the sisters. That the girls, who disappeared from their home last August, were held prisoners for some time, while a country wide search was in progress, and their mother and brother was a theory that was gaining ground with officers working on the case.

Over Same Ground.
The case was pointed out that searching parties last summer had traversed several times the territory where the bodies were uncovered. This, officers declared, would indicate that the bodies were not there at that time, but had been carried there later. The fact that the shoe missing from Nina's foot was discovered within 40 feet away from the grave pointed to its having been discarded in the immediate vicinity of the bodies.

Further search is being made for Mary's stockings, which were not on her body when it was uncovered. Inside Mexican Quarter.
Sheriff's deputies and detectives from city police headquarters working independently of the mystery, invaded the Mexican settlement of Los Angeles, this district, on the west side of the city, known as "Somos town," was subjected to a careful ransacking in the search for clues to the slaying.

The sheriff's officers descent on the east side was the result of information that an unidentified man in that region had been heard to make remarks which indicated a some knowledge of the identity of the killers. Detectives from city headquarters were sent to Sonora town following a careful study of the case by their team chief, W. L. Chipman. The detective chief declared his belief that the crime showed every evidence of having been committed by a foreigner. "Determination prevented a further investigation of the case," he said, but he expressed the conviction that the girls had been stabbed as well as strangled.

California's Wonderful Mountains.
At least sixty mountains in California rise more than 15,000 feet above sea level, but they stand amid a world of mountain scenery, so high and varied that they are not considered sufficiently noteworthy to be named, according to the United States geological survey, Department of the Interior. Yet if any one of these un-named mountain peaks were in the eastern part of the United States it would be stated annually by millions of people. But California has seventy additional mountain peaks more than 15,000 feet high that have been named, or 120 in all, as well as a dozen that rise above 14,000 feet.—Scientific American.

COUNTY BOARD DECLARES WAR ON WEED EVIL

Issuance of Order Marks First Step in Intensive Campaign for Destruction of Noxious Vegetation.

County commissioners Thursday authorized issuance of an order declaring Twin Falls county a weed district under provisions of Idaho statute and calling for destruction of the coming season of all wild growing plants, Canadian thistle, Russian knapweed and such weeds as are designated as noxious weeds under provisions of this order.

Issuance of the order, commissioners stated, is to be the first step in an intensive campaign to be waged against noxious weeds in this county during the coming season. Such a campaign has been urged in resolutions adopted by Twin Falls Canal company stockholders and Southern Idaho Irrigation association and by many individual citizens.

On several fronts.

In order to make the campaign more effective the county is to be divided into districts and supervisors or inspectors are to be appointed, to enforce the commissioners' order. Division of the county into districts for this purpose will be done by the commissioners prior to March 1, next.

Destruction of the proscribed weeds is to be enforced upon landowners and tenants of affected lands, and in no instance are these weeds to be permitted to go to seed. Under provisions of the law, Tom Blodgett, minister of the county, is empowered to enter upon the premises of any landowner doing this work and to charge expense involved against the land as taxes.

SENATE KILLS TAX MEASURE

Provision for Redemption of Properties Taken by County Fails to Get Approval.

HOUSTON, Feb. 5.—The United States senate today rejected a bill providing for redemption of property taken by counties for delinquent taxes for 1923 and 1924. The bill provided for a 7 per cent interest and was defeated in the upper house of the eighteenth legislature today by a vote of 31 to 16. Without voting with the majority, gave notice he would move a re-consideration of the measure. The bill had been introduced and had a bad precedent, and he would like to expect this bill from Congress. He had introduced a bill in the lower house of Congress which provided that it makes the county pay all taxes levied by the state whether collected or not and that in a county where there are heavy delinquencies it works a hardship. Others said the bill was put at 7 per cent and would naturally let the taxes go and pay off his name and other paper bearing 10 per cent.

Blame Old Measure

A similar bill was enacted two years ago but lost since eight and opponents of the Export act blame the larger number of delinquencies to this piece of legislation. It is at present championing the act, said the taxes were not paid because the people could not pay them and that they had nothing whatever to do with the large number of delinquencies.

Hanson of Teton attempted to send the bill to committee of the whole for amendment but this motion lost and the roll was taken.

Spring Styles in All Their Soft, Beautiful Colorings Are Here

STYLE NOTE: Ensembles in two and three piece models are very popular, the two-piece being a little in the lead at present. The season will be colorful, with the familiar black and navy still seen, but not quite so popular as the pastel shades, such as natural kasha, gray-blue, caramel, beige, shades of red in wine, carmine and cranberry. The materials are kasha, fine flannels, twills, charmee, bengaline. For sports wear, flannel heads the list of popular materials. Plain colors or stripes predominate. Separate coats in straight-line models in light pastel shades will be worn.
