DUMB BELLS

What's What in The Sport World

Whatever has been done to make the lost "lively" has been "phrased" in such a way that the clubber of today who falls to make a sweet seat in at least every fourth time at the plate is considered to be blind as a bat.

Back in 1922, when the two leagues amassed a record total of 1050 four-batters, it was thought that the mark would be broken by the new specialists in view of a sort of half-symptom from the power that runs to game that the ball and that it would be restored in a semblance of normalcy.

The fact that the two leagues made 312 home runs during the first two months as against 508 for the first two months of 1925 is a record for a single season will reach beyond 1926.

What is to be the end of it all? Can we go any other and then a grand total, but mercifully explain less of interest in the national game which just now is skidding from one side to the other.

In the older times a home run was the means of adding the amount into an outburst of frenzied cheering. Now a four-batter one is made the more that whatever one is made the audience yawns, waits for the man to circle the sacks and pray that the ball will land on the socker that he will exert a bit of brain work and avoid running to advance himself ground for a run.

CAMP SEASON AT HAND FOR BOY SCOUTS

Between 40 and 65 Lads of District to Make up First Contingent at Camp Shoshone; Opportunity for More.

The first annual summer camp of the boy scouts of the Snake River council will open next Monday at Camp Shoshone to continue for a period of at least four weeks. Camp Shoshone is located at the waters of the west fork of Rock creek in the Altitude national forest, 40 miles south and east of Twin Falls. The site is a splendid park some 1200 feet high and level and is surrounded by forests of pine, fir and spruce.

During the past month nearly 80 campfires were held in the vicinity of the site of the camp. The boys of the Snake River council, through the courtesy of the Snake River boy scout council, the last contingent of campfires, with Mrs. Kerline Prussel, guardian, will return from the camp Sunday afternoon.

Early Period Advised

Monday morning several of the scoutmasters will leave Twin Falls with their contingents for the camp. Falls, Haugen, Kimberly and other towns for the first period. Scout Executive E. Douglas Hawkey, who will be in active charge of the camp, stated today evening that the second week present reports show applications for 80 or more scouts. It is suggested that as many scouts as can go to the first week do so in order not to overtax the camp facilities.

The start will be made from the Twin Falls city park at 6 o'clock Monday morning. William E. Nixon, scoutmaster of Jerome, will be at the park Monday morning to act as camp treasurer and receive all camp money. At other times, scouts can pay for their share of the cost of the camp at the First National bank. The board and transportation fee has been fixed at $5.00 per week or 75 cents per day. This is said to be the prerequisite for any scout camp in the Northwest.

Captain Walter C. Bennett, scoutmaster of troop 11, Bobb, will be in charge of the first camp. The scoutmasters will be in camp the first week and will in turn have charge of inspection and the daily program of the camp. A varied program of other games, music, crafts, etc., has been carefully planned.

Camp Well Equipped
Camp Shoshone is equipped to care for from 85 to 100 or more scouts each week. The scouts will sleep in eight large symmetrical tents. Tent hikers will use the small shelter tents. A fine large cabin is used for headquarters and for campfire, study hall, etc. Other buildings include mess hall and kitchen, shop and store building. Hospital equipment, shower baths, camp store, insecticide, and other equipment add to the comfort and safety of the scouts. A large double oven range, hot and cold water, sewer system, and a good cook insure the boys of plenty of wholesome food. The camp is in constant touch with the outside world, having telephone connections through Rogerson and Oatley.

Visitors are welcome Sundays. The camp is on a good mountain road, the first six miles having been graded by the federal highway department. Within a mile of the camp are many fine picnic grounds, with grass, shade, cold spring water and dry wood. Each Sunday morning the scouts will have a nonsectarian religious service to which all visitors are invited. The camp management will furnish scout guides for parties interested in seeing scenic spots or fighting good camping sites.

JURY CONVICTS SECOND OF VENDORS OF CIGER

A jury in probate court here Friday afternoon of the case of two days' trial, pronounced P. E. Abil guilty of the charge of selling to minor over six men arrested here in a police raid of alleged hard cider vendors. Abil was the second in a grand trial.

The jury in the Abil case returned its verdict after deliberations that continued for about a half hour. Judge J. L. Hodgkin announced that judgment would be pronounced Monday.

The prosecution, conducted by J. W. Taylor, county attorney, offered evidence of H. L. Water, county and city chemist, to show that the elder taken by the police from Abil's establishment contained alcohol in excess of the legal maximum. Police officers testified as to the manner in which Abil's establishment was operated.

Abil's defense, in charge of E. M. Wolfe of Wolfe and Wilkins, and E. Y. Larson, centered upon his testimony that he had no knowledge that his elder contained as much alcohol and that he had believed it to be sweet.

In three boys' description of one whom, gave the name of Howard A. George, being given by the Pocatello chief of police. The machine was reported to have been seen Tuesday in American Falls and it was believed that the driver would attempt to drive to Mountain Home.

Only Pessimist Takes Stock in Prediction

Forecast for today—Unsettled, probably thunderstorms and cooler. There are no indications here about late Friday evening of unfavorable weather conditions predicted by the official weather forecast to damp the ardor of enthusiastic prospective celebrators today of the nation's birthday anniversary, and only confirmed pessimists would admit a possibility of accuracy of the prognostications relative to probability of thunderstorms.

Temperature was high Friday at 87 above, the same as for the preceding day, while low at 61 above represented an advance of 14 degrees over Monday's minimum, according to the government weather-observer's station here.
