ALBION GAME IS SET FOR TODAY

Coach Plastino Puts Finishing Touches on High School Warriors Who Will Play Normal.

Coach Plastino set his lucky warts on the shiners early Thursday night after a short practice consisting mostly of punting and practicing the kickoff. The first string lineup has been changed considerably this week. Vance has been shifted from the back field to tackle position and the line backer moved to home on the line. Martin is being put out "playing" at half and Potter finished at full back.

Somebody who can punt the old pigskin for 40 or 50 yards consistently would be a powerful addition to the lineup at this stage of the game. Martin looks well but his punting distance, and he is slow in getting from away. Hinton don't get the ball back fast enough which is some handicap.

The Bruins will go against the Albion teachers Friday afternoon at 2:15 with a powerful line and a set-up backfield and a team spirit that is hard to beat for an early season of the fall series. Chicago was held to seven hits, but without proved, really.

HORNSBY HAS CHANCE FOR MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD IN BATTING

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—Roger Hornsby will equal a major league record in long standing if he keeps up his present .400 hitting pace for the last few games of the season. By doing that the great Cardinal manager will equal the mark of hitting .400 or better for the three seasons first established by Jess Barker of the old Cleveland Nationals in 1905, 1906 and 1909, and established again by Cobb in 1911, 1912 and 1913.

Hornsby now has a mark of .403. In 1922 he hit .401 and in 1923 he established a modern mark of .423. This is Hornsby's sixth straight year at the top of the National league batting list, which improves on his own league record.

JOHNSON EARNS GREAT PRAISE

Veteran Pitcher of Washington Called "Big Train" of Senators; Pulls Team to Flag.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The "Big Train" of baseball remains an expert, running through the circle of the American league, always with the smoke-pouring defeat upon those who would fling it. Backy Harris, manager of the Senators, and every other member of the club are praising him for the "Big Train" of baseball. Harris said: "The team left tonight for Chicago for the final three games on the regular schedule."

After pulling glorious records for years, Johnson last year pitched for a stop but the signal went unheeded and it has sped on and on until once again it has come back to Washington bearing an American league pennant, its fuel conserved but with "smoke" still pouring from out of the water's mightiest arm.

Last winter Johnson was through his managers at an "old-time" many of the experts said. He went to the Pacific coast and attempted to buy a baseball club of his own, but failed, and he returned to the only major league baseball team he has known—his old club, the Senators. Then it was the writers of sport saw the end which has not come, for Johnson, veteran of 19 baseball seasons, again has been a great factor in determining the league title.

Johnson had me all through," he said at Philadelphia after winning one of the Labor day games recently which meant much to Washington. "I had better come to do something for it." He is 38 years old.

Johnson faced the New York Giants three times in the World Series of 1924 and twice he battered him down but at the end, throwing his arm with every pitch, the "Big Train" gained full steam and hurled through four innings of that last great 12-1 victory which was his final contribution to a remarkable victory. Frick, Kelly, Young and the other power pitchers of the Giants attempted to sidetrack it, but were hurled from the rails, for Johnson was piling runs in his destination in a cloud of smoke.

Two hundred pounds of brown wool distributed throughout his six feet have given Johnson a power of sound delivery that few men have equaled and surely there is now to deny his claim to a brilliant record of sustained achievement. Last season, his nineteenth with Washington, he won 27 games and lost 8, winning 12 in succession. On August 25 he held the St. Louis Browns hitless for seven innings, when the contest ended.

In 18 seasons he had 3216 strikeouts and 109 shutouts victories. Christy Mathewson stands second in the matter of strikeouts games, with 83 over a period of 17 years, and Grover Alexander has 77. Denton T. (Old Cy) Young had only 73 strikeouts in his 21 years on the mound, and Babe Adams of Pittsburgh, in his long career has been able to register no more than 42.

Johnson entered professional baseball with Tacoma of the Northwest League in 1906 and in the same year appeared with the Vester, Idaho, semi-pro club. He started with Vester again the following year, but soon found himself with Washington, never again to shift allegiance. He is expected to pitch the first contest against the Pirates at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, October 7.

PIRATE SKIPPER PULLS SECRET BALL GAME AT PITTSBURGH STADIUM

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1 (AP)—Bill McRehale pulled an unusual one this afternoon. While working out the finishing touches on Forbes Field in preparation for the Pirates' season, the Pirate skipper staged a secret ball game, dividing his team champions into two squads, he invited every body to "beat down" and the players went through seven innings of frisky baseballing. The score was 2 to 2, with Babe Adams and Kinner (winning for the second year) and Williams and O'Connell for the Pirates, which will battle the Washington Senators for the championship of the baseball world. The team left tonight for Chicago for the final three games on the regular schedule.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Sharp setback in the value of wheat... The 1925 yield of wheat is 15,000,000 to 21,000,000 bushels larger than was indicated by the government report last month.

Word that no railroad embargo on wheat destined for Duluth was expected for at least some days failed to stimulate any important late buying in the wheat market throughout the day.

Provisions, after an early rally, were weakened by the action of grain and of hog values.

MONEY MARKET EASY STOCK PRICES GO UP

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—Stock market average: 29 29 Thursday 131.33 106.30

Robustness of the recent strain in the money market proved the way for a vigorous recovery in stock prices.

Lowering of the Bank of England's discount rate from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent, effectively dispelled fears for the New York federal reserve.

Speculative energies in the market group were concentrated on new leaders, curbing the recent violent fluctuations which had been in progress.

ASSETS LOCKIE ADMITTED GUILT

Power Company Division Clerk Testifies as Alleged Confession of Man on Trial.

Ray J. Lockie on trial in district court here on charge of embezzlement of $15,000 from the Idaho Power company, admitted before the jury that he had embezzled various sums of money from the company and that he had taken and sold the same to the following persons:

Joseph Ferguson, the witness stand through the day of the trial. The sixth day of the trial. State's attorney indicated Thursday evening that they expect to rest their case some time today.

Lockie's admission, according to the jury, was made in the presence of several persons in the prosecuting attorney's office, when he was confronted with evidence indicating guilt of embezzlement.

Joseph, under cross-examination, stated that he had not considered making an audit of the accounts kept by Lockie during the five years that Lockie was employed as bookkeeper here. He stated that Lockie had been authorized to take checks for the expense fund of the local office, the fund being reimbursed by the central office of the company.

It is the contention of the state's attorney that the defendant is guilty of expenditures, raising the amounts and diverting the surplus thus made apparent to his own use.
