Plea to American Labor to Establish Relations With Russian Workers Is Spurred by Federation President

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 7 (AP)—Arthur A. Purcell, member of the British parliament, to establish close relations with the workers of Russia was urged today by President William Green of the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention.

Mr. Purcell, who is president of the Federal Council of the United States and a fraternal delegate to the British trades union congress, had a very hard time of it in his address today when he told of his recent visit to Russia and his study of industrial conditions there, he made his appeal.

Well the working people of America are not easily led by these strange utterances. The trade unionists are a creature of the communist party, frankly an enemy of the people and to be kept within the labor movement, to destroy it and substitute for its philosophy a communist philosophy.

PEACE FOR ALL TIME DESIRE OF GERMAN NATION

Chancellor Informs French Minister of His Country's Attitude at Private Confer- ence During Pact Confab.

(By the Associated Press.)
LEWISBURG, Switzerland, Oct. 7.—Not only peace now, but peace for all time is Germany's desire, the German chancellor, Gustave Stresemann, M. P. Meand, the French foreign minister today in a private consultation of the two ministers, says an official statement out of the biggest single event since the opening of the security conference.

New Hope Held.

This meeting of conciliation marked by an expression of the determination of both nations to do the everything humanly possible to banish the Franco-German war specter, has injected a new ray of optimism into the political atmosphere, despite the fact that it did not result in the finalizing of a formula whereby France can guarantee a special zone, the territorial integrity of Poland and Czechoslovakia, her allies.

The problem will require a consultation of the cabinets at Paris and Berlin, for France and Germany will find it difficult to agree on the basis of the original position without the support of their home governments and home parliamentarians.

The conference itself, which met for only an hour today, achieved no substantial progress. The spokesman of the various delegations admitted that they qualified it with the declaration that further suggestions were forthcoming concerning the necessity of a clear understanding that compulsory arbitration must be the guiding principle of the future peace. This was the only article which the French and the British were asked to frame new articles dealing with this subject. However, these articles will be discussed at the peace conference tomorrow.

Compulsory arbitration is a feature of the Geneva peace protocol, the fundamental principles of which the French are eager to keep to the fore. It is the only article which the French at the present League assembly also approved as the only safe safeguard of world peace.

Locarno, therefore, like Geneva, appears headed on the road where he who refuses to negotiate and commit war-like acts will be hailed as an aggressor and punished.

Czechoslovakia, through her foreign minister, Edouard Benes, arrived on the scene today. Dr. Benes immediately conferred with Austen Chamberlain, British secretary for foreign affairs, and M. Briand, who put him in touch with developments.

"I am optimistic," said the Czechoslovak minister, "to the newspaper correspondents of his country as he emerged from these conferences today. Gustave Stresemann's condition improved today. The drop in his temperature and the improvement in his condition in his throat were noted by his wife and family etc.

NEW FLEET HEAD IS NOW IN OFFICE

Shipping Board Places Elmer C. Crowsley in Charge of Corporation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 (AP)—The first corporation was guided for the first time today by its new president, Elmer E. Crowsley, who succeeded Leigh C. Palmer, removed by the shipping board yesterday.

Mr. Crowsley indicated it probably would be several days before he would be in a position to make any announcement concerning his administration.

Meanwhile, another important victory developed in the corporation's executive personnel. Elmer Crowsley, president of the board, resigned as vice president and general manager in protest against the board's action. He said he could not continue in the office "with the board defying." President Crowsley by taking over the first corporation's powers and discharging Mr. Palmer without waiting for the report on the shipping situation that H. C. Dalton of Cleveland has been asked by Mr. Crowsley to make.

While some other resignations may be forced, it has been indicated that the board probably will take no step along this line until it receives a report on the status of personnel and salaries by a committee of its own membership.

WORK IN FREIGHT YARDS IS ALMOST CONTINUOUS

Almost continuous work is going on in Oregon Short Line freight yards here in connection with the movement of crops to market, according to statement of H. E. Sullivan, Oregon Short Line freight yard superintendent. Men are employed here for the first time in the history of the Twin Falls yards, and a great eagerness has been brought here from Pocatello yards. One crew is employed daily from 7 a. m. to 2 p. m. and the second crew begins work at 2 p. m. and continues as long as it is necessary to move out loaded cars. Shipment of refrigerator cars is expected to begin in a few days, and the week when movement of the apples began and before apples were in position to estimate accurately their needs for cars. Plenty of box cars to meet all requirements have been available throughout the season, and refrigerator cars and box cars were available Wednesday evening.

COMMITTEES WORKING AT LEGION MEETING

debate without parallel in league history.

The consensus of the Mitcheites seemed to be that not all that Colonel Mitchell has said should be recognized, but that he should be praised by name for bringing to the American people an awakening as to actual conditions in the southern air service.

The world peace report recommended that the legion espouse support for the war court with the following reservation, and that the league of nations be made a subject for one year's study by the American Legion posts.

As allowed by the resolutions equating for presentation to the convention tomorrow the report will ask legion sanction of adherence to the policy of "an international court of justice," but without specifying. Otherwise it was left as reported today.

Thought it was agreed in all quarters that the fight for national commander would shape itself after midnight tomorrow night. Numerous states have refrained from endorsing, and but few have announced support, and even then some only as "feeling."

Three avowed candidates are in the field, but none with nearly enough support to get into the convention. They are: Howard P. Savage of New York; Edward Stafford of New York; and John McQuigge of East Cleveland, Ohio.

M'FARLAND FACES TRIAL ON CHARGE OF BURGLARY

Trial in the case of James Wallace McFarland in a charge of burglary in connection with theft from the Oregon Short Line depot at Boger on Monday in district court here. Witnesses for the state include James Logan and John W. Atkins, inmates of the state prison, who were brought here Wednesday in custody of Deputy Sheriff E. E. Pater.

Logan is serving sentence for the Boger burglary in which he confessed having had a part, and according to the authorities he has implicated McFarland in the offense.

NOISE, Oct. 7—Fred N. Perkins, Twin Falls, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of sending threatening letters through the mails, was not prepared Tuesday to go on trial in United States district court. The case was continued by Judge P. C. Dietrich, and may come up again this morning for further consideration.

The district attorney's office announced Tuesday afternoon that the indictment would be allowed to go over until next term of court, pending an investigation into the actions of Perkins by the Twin Falls county authorities.

COUNCIL SEEKS NEW WAY OUT OF BIDS PROBLEM

Gravel Contractors Fight Shy of Call and Citizens May Come Forward to Get Street Improvement.

Twin Falls city council, meeting in its second session Wednesday evening, found gravel contractors generally still inclined to submit bids for furnishing, hauling and spreading gravel for three street improvement projects, that have been hanging fire for several weeks, and the one presently being made possible to make arrangements for furnishing gravel.

Items which are to be improved on under these projects are Blue Lake boulevard, Main avenue north and Fifth avenue north.

In view of evident inability to interest contractors in the project, members of the council suggested that a way out might be found if responsible citizens who are residents of the improvement districts would submit bids and accept contracts for the work which might be carried into effect by other persons under the supervision of the street department.

During discussion of this suggestion it was indicated that citizens in two of the three improvement districts are ready to sign affidavits to become contractors for this purpose.

New Call Indicated
Publication of another call for bids would be required if this plan were adopted, the council was advised, and Frank E. Stephan, city attorney, was directed to prepare such a call for bids using the same form as possible, in order to reduce expense.

The call, if issued by the council at its regular meeting next Monday, would provide for opening bids 10 days thereafter.

Bids on the project have been called for twice. All bids under the first call were rejected on the grounds that they exceeded the engineer's estimate of cost.

Forecast for today — Generally cloudy, warm with occasional showers during the 24 hour period ending Wednesday evening brought six and one-half inches of wet precipitation in addition to the 1.25 inch that fell during the preceding 24 hour period, according to measurement at the government weather observer's station here.

High temperature Wednesday was 66 above, a decline of three degrees as compared with Tuesday's maximum and low at 61 above, represented a decline of four points.

NO VERDICT IN PERJURY TRIAL

Jury Deliberates 12 Hours Without Reaching Agreement in Case of Stephen Pate.

Jurors in the trial of Stephen Pate of Ellet in district court here on a charge of perjury, after nearly 12 hours of deliberation, late Wednesday night, had failed to agree upon their verdict.

Relatives and friends of the accused man waited until late at night in the courtroom and about the courthouse at the office of the present being on view from the jury room, opinion grew firm with the hope that the outcome would be favorable to the defendant. Attaches of the court expressed the opinion that the jury would be unable to agree and would be discharged from further consideration of the case sometime today.

The case was given to the jury at 12:55 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, following the reading of the court's instructions that came at the close of about three hours' argument on the part of prosecuting attorney J. W. Tucker for the state, and Turner K. Jackson for the defendant.

Motion for a directed verdict in favor of the defendant, renewed by Mr. Jackson Tuesday afternoon after all of the evidence in the case of late Wednesday afternoon, was denied by Judge W. A. Hildner at the opening of the court session Wednesday morning.

Stephen Pate was charged with perjury in connection with his execution of an affidavit that is alleged to have contained false statements and that was forfeited in support of a motion for a new trial for the case, Paul Pate who was found guilty in district court here last March of burglary of the Golden Rule store here.
