WAR SECRETARY
FORCED TO QUIT
POST BY HEALTH

Resignation of John W. Weeks in Hands of President Coolidge; Missouri Man May Be Successor.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—John W. Weeks placed his resignation as secretary of war in President Coolidge's hands today. The former attorney general of a member of his family family said he had withdrawn from the cabinet because of his health is expected tomorrow after his last attendance at a cabinet meeting.

Plans for the selection of his successor have not been disclosed. It has been the president's custom in the past, however, to couple his announcement of a new cabinet with the naming of the name of the successor. He followed that course when Secretary Hughes resigned and was succeeded by Frank B. Kellogg, who had been acting secretary.

May Nancy Davis.

If the president follows the same course tomorrow, it appears probable that he will name Dwight F. Davis, Major General of the U. S. Army, as his successor. Mr. Davis has been the assistant secretary of war since J. Mayhew Walwright resigned to take the place of George C. Reynolds, of whom he will be elected by his New York constituency. Since Secretary Weeks was stricken with the illness that has resulted in his decision to retire, the War Department has been paralytic and has borne the full administrative burden of the department.

Many Names Suggested.

Many other names are known to have been suggested to the president in view of the general feeling that Mr. Weeks would be ill at ease in retaining him in the secretaryship. These include:

Secretary War of the Interior department and Postmaster General: New York, Charles H. Merriam; chairman of the Senate Committee on Posts: Dwight F. Morrow of New York; now chairman of the president's special alternate board; Hanford S. Macaulay of Iowa, former head of the American Legion, and others.

MacMillan Welcomed Home After Summer Arctic Expedition

Send Plane to Help Search for Victims of Capsized Launch

Four Missing Off Sebastian Inlet Where Boat Upset Carrying Pleasure Boaters.

MOSCOW, Oct. 12.—An airplane was despatched from Palm Beach this afternoon to join in the search for four persons missing since the launch Clara B, captained by Sebastian met her doom. Ten bodies have been recovered.

Graphical accounts of the disaster were given by the survivors when they reached the shore of the fall into the cold rough water swept by a high gale. Others of the panic of some, heroism of others and the serene presence of mind of some of the women.

Given more than usual disappointment by the worst summer the native remembered in the north, the hearty Macmillan did not let his remarks on his return to the United States, which he had so calculated in that accident not only the expedition but nearly fifty friends and relatives warned on the arrival when Macmillan, laden with the outfit of the men he had brought along, had been welcomed by Commander MacMillan when he said in his luncheon given here:

"This room looks good to me." That was one of the last words of the seven, before four o'clock this morning, when the sun rose through the shrouds of the ship, after five o'clock the expedition had upped.

From the twenty or more houses on Mahonegan where they had found shelter, the land of Mahonegan, friends and newspapermen gathered when the interested parties of the day drove down the wind-swept deck where the Party lay. Shortly after five o'clock the expedition would pull out.

The body of the resplendent at whose safe arrival—was received at the luncheon rendered Commander MacMillan by the Portland Rotary club. Macmillan at this time was a special train for Durhams, N. C., where burial will take place tomorrow.

In a letter marked by its simplicity, Dr. H. H. Hemphill, L. F. Franklin, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, read Whittier's "Ever-Love," in accordance with Mr. Duke's dying wish.

Only relatives and close friends of the deceased services Benjamin A. Duke, an elder brother, ill in his home a few blocks away, was unable to attend.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR TOBACCO KING HELD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Private funeral services for James B. Duke, tobacco king of the world, were held today before his remains, which were placed in a special train for Durham, N. C., where burial will take place tomorrow.

In a letter marked by its simplicity, Dr. H. H. Hemphill, L. F. Franklin, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, read Whittier's "Ever-Love," in accordance with Mr. Duke's dying wish.

The bronze casket was borne to the Pennsylvania station and placed in board a special seven-car train in charge of G. Allen, president of the British American Tobacco company.

REMOVAL HEARING AGAINST DANCER IS ORDERED CONTINUEDCHICAGO, Oct. 12 (AP)—United States Commissioner Glass ruled that the removal hearing against Eva Burrows, dancer, Miss Fountain wanted in San Francisco for contempt of a federal court injunction to restrain her from appearing in a suit against Corinele Vanderveen, Whalley, whom she charged, is the father of her son.

Commissioner Glass ruled that the removal hearing for Eva Burrows must be stayed until October 15, during which time the navy personnel worked night and day on the arrival of the expedition at Elba. The remit was

One of the High Lights in the Second Game
Peck Safe at Third on Coveleskie's Bunt

WENDE PECKINPAUGH, Washington shortstop, got a single at the opening of the fifth inning, he started a series of plays that looked like the Senate had the second game of the series saluted. Peck singled off Aldridge and was followed by Ebel who also singled, which caused the Pirates manager to start warming up Yde. Coveleskie bunted and on the play shown in the picture Peck was called safe at third, filling the bases. Aldridge was out at this crucial moment and Peck was thrown out at the plate on Ebel's grounder. The side was retired without scoring and what might have been the two runs needed to win failed to materialize.

MacMillan Welcomed Home After Summer Arctic Expedition

Commander and 38 Members of His Exploration Party Conquer Entertainment at Portland, Maine.

PORTLAND, Maine, Oct. 12 (AP)—Commander Donald B. Macmillan and thirty-four members of his exploration expedition, scientist, aviators and seamen, were welcomed home today by a program of entertainment which extended from Wednesday to this morning.

TROTZKY AGAIN IS FORCED TO QUIT HIS JOB

Former War Chief of Bolsheviks in Ill Health From Strenuous Labors at Economics Task; Goes to Resort.

(By the Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Oct. 12.—Leon Trotsky, his health undermined by strenuous labor at the enormous tasks assigned him on his return to Moscow five months ago, has been compelled again to relinquish active participation in the revolution.

Already the former war chief of Bolsheviks is on his way to South Russia, where he returned in May after an "exile" which began in January. His physicians have ordered a complete rest to mend a breakdown which resulted from overworking at high pressure ever since his return to Moscow to serve on the committee of the Central People's Commissariat for National Concessions committee last May 27.

He is going to Kirovsk, a small health resort in the Caucasus, where he expects to spend a vacation of several weeks.

Working 18 Hours Day.

Trotky has been spending 18 hours a day in work, developing mineral resources, in the plan of industrialization of the country's power plant and the development of electric power throughout all Russia, and to working out ways and means for improving the value of Russian products.

He has been eager to return to his former political post.

But Trotky has regressed some of his recent successes, he said.

He said he took part in the recent sitting of the central executive committee of the communist party, a forewarning to the regular congress of the party in December.

He will go back to Moscow, he said, when he will give a talk at that state's highest political forum if that state of health permits.

Thus Trotky has regained some of his recent successes, he said.

The investigation, he said, showed that the hands of sovereigns, despite their efforts, could not be freed. He said he had been forced to take part in the struggle.

Other instruments fell into the hands of sovereigns, he said.

National Convention of Wool Growers Set for Boise in January

Association Headquarters at Salt Lake Announce Date for Conference at Capital.

SAULT LAKE, Oct. 12 (AP)—The national convention of the National Wool Growers Association, to be held at Boise, Idaho, January 18-20, according to announcement from association headquarters here. The selection of Boise as the convention city was known sometime ago, but the date has just been decided upon.

The Idaho State Wool Growers' association, which is to be host, and the Utah State Wool Growers' association in Salt Lake announced yesterday that the date.

The seal, a blue ribbon-like plaid of purple, green and yellow, was tied by Mrs. Coulidge to her hat after the clout.

Stay Through Game.

Despite the heavy Pittsburgh attack, subsequently which gave them a three-run lead, Mrs. Coulidge remained until the last man was out, joining her fellow visitors in the dugout at a baseball game between Pittsburgh and Boston.

After the game, she was interviewed by a reporter.

A baseball fan, Mrs. Coulidge was entitled to a free seat in the grandstand.

The game ended in a tie, with Pittsburgh winning the first game.

Prospect of Having to Pay $400,000,000 in 1929 to U. S. Exerts Influence.

PARIS, Oct. 12 (AP)—The prospect of having to pay $40,000,000 for war stocks in a lump sum in 1929, if the temporary debt settlement proposed by the American debt funding commission is not accepted by France, is exerting a strong influence on the attitude of the government, it is said in well-informed sources.

The government, it is said, is willing to accept the proposal, but the French government has stressed the fact that the temporary arrangements were not sufficiently satisfactory.

Under the proposal, France is to make its debts due in 1929, and the debts due in 1930 and 1931 are to be paid in 1930.

IMPORTANCE OF BOYS STRESSED

Rev. Tom Blodgett of Hansen
Gives Inspirational Address
Before Conference.

Investment in boys means more to Twin Falls than all the business and financial resources, because the boy is full of "territorial" ambitions, and the world, if we will only clear the road out of his way and direct the explosive forces of his nature in the right direction.

Tom Blodgett, pastor of the Haven Community church, expressed his Monday evening at the first of a series of meetings that will continue through December.

"This is big league stuff you are putting over in these meetings," Mr. Blodgett declared. "I am glad every young man in town who has been following along can see the right time in the road. Men you are dealing with the greatest things this side of heaven and earth live here."

Blodgett, the W. P. A. supervisor, told the conference, still interested not only in his agents, but in all the boys of America. He urged the young men to take the boy's right start in scouting, and scouting must grow in proportion to its success in stopping the leprosy. Dr. Price, Mr. H. R. Wright and Mr. Alvin H. Carlile, all public officials, were invited to speak at the meeting.

Parents' Day at School-Tuesday, October 13, will be parents' day at the Lincoln school, according to an announcement made Monday evening. The Parent-Teacher association will meet Wednesday—the W. P. A., Twin Falls county commissioners, tell the conference, still interested not only in their agents, but in all the boys of America.

Charles H. Peirce, a chemist, addressed the conference, deplored and decried that "our things that are commonly neglected are the teeth, proper eating, proper breathing and thinking."

W. P. A. discussed work of reconstruction.

The meeting was presided over by Clarence E. Allen, superintendent.

The next conference will be held next Friday, Oct. 17, at the high school building, and in addition to adults, parents and other junior officers, parents will be invited. Speakers will be L. D. Hough, A. Wilson Peck, Paul Thomas and Harry Deaton of Kimberly.

To the Citizens of Twin Falls

One year ago the representatives from Twin Falls Lodge, No. 23, I. O. O. F., to the Grand Lodge, were authorized by the people of our City to request that Honorable Body to convene here this year; which was done.

As we expect 1000 visitors at that time (October 19 to 22, inclusive) we find the hotels and rooming houses can not accommodate all, therefore must ask that the residents aid us in caring for these people.

BROWNS TO PLAY BURLEY ASSERTS COACH PLASTINO

High School Mentor Tries Thirteen Different Teams for Grid Contest at Home Without Success.

After trying 13 teams throughout Twin Falls trying to arrange a game for Friday, October 12, Coach Plastino announced Monday that he had practically completed arrangements to play Burley at Burley on that date. If the coaches fail to get a game, the Browns will have three weeks of enforced idleness which is not good for the morale of the team. Nampa, Boise and Caldwell all have October games scheduled to come to Twin Falls, and Idaho Tech, first team College of Idaho second team and the Fort Hall Indians all had games for that date. Pocatello and Jerome did not answer the coach's message. First also had a game, but Pocatello and Jerome did not care to take on the Indians.

The state board of control has made some changes in its schedule for the state championship. It has now decided that the winner of the Boise district will come to the Twin Falls district to settle the inter-district title, and the winners of that game will play for the state title in the state capital. This may do some good for Sees in favor of Nampa again this year as the possible winners, although most of the teams in the district have had a strong opposition. Nampa, Boise and Caldwell all stand on a par with Nampa having a little edge on the district.

Burley will meet the West High Panthers of Salt Lake on October 23 at Boise, which will give the fans here some idea of their strength. West High has been in the news recently Saturday at Pontlott, although it's hard to punch the record after several times it's been broken in the past by the field. In the southeast the fight is three-centered, between Pocatello, Idaho Falls and Pocatello, with Pocatello favoring. The East Falls district at least three strong teams have developed. Pocatello by its overwhelming record of Jerome makes herself a contender for district honors. While she is not as strong, although she has only played one game so far. Burley is also somewhat of an unknown quantity. They expect upset all day by holding the strong Shoshone eleven to a scoreless tie.

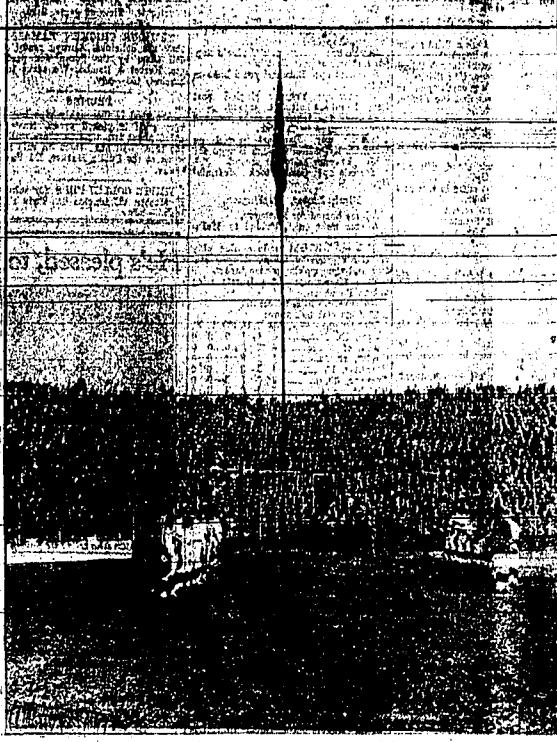

Plenty went the wrong through a light work week. Monday night, Tuesday night, after the game Field, having been hit in the shoulder, left the field. All of the backfield sustained minor injuries but Owens is the only one not in a cast. The little lad had a bad case of blisters on his finger and may not be able to go against Burley this week. Some changes may be made in the line this week but probably lineup against Burley will probably lineup against Burley and will be about the same as that against Oakley.

CHICAGO CUBS TAKE ANOTHER GAME FROM SOX IN BALL SERIES

MICHELSON WINNER OF MARATHON UNDER PORT CHESTER CLUB

ROCK CREEK

CHICAGO, Oct. 12. (UP)—Tony Kautza, now held the White Sox to five hits today, while his teammates bunched up the punch to score after several times of suspense. The final score was 6 to 3. The Cubs now have the White Sox three games to one. Up to the eighth inning, the White Sox were the better team, but in the second base, Shantz reached the stadium in the seventhinning on a single and my fifth field. Kautza seemed to have control until he walked Lyons and then Bill Morris. Hooper followed up with a strike, and Lyons scored. He then righted himself, when Lyons scored. Barrett followed Hooper's hit with a drive to the wall in left field which took out poor double play—a mistake run and having run.

The support behind Kaufmann was perfect, two lightning double plays putting him out of danger in the late inning. The score? R. H. E. White Sox 1 5 0 Cub 3 10 1 Batteries—Lyons and Crowe, Schmitz; Kaufmann and Burnett. Way Down East" at the Edna Theater, October 16 and 17—adv.

WASHINGON, D. C., Oct. 11. (D.P.—The "Big Train" passed through Griffith stadium Sunday morning making no stops.

It was the third setback for the national league champion in four games of the 1925 world's series. Only a minor injury to pitcher George McMorris in a battle which Washington is favored to win Monday with Sunday's double seeking the victory it needs to give it the series their second successive triumph.

Sunday's triumph for big Barney was even more decisive than his first one, for McMorris, faltering in his first two outings, had been 4 to 0 with a dazzling exhibition of sharp shooting, while George Galla, home run hero of 1924, and Joe Harris dashed off in the manner of the great heroes in battle to bring the resistance of the young Pirate southpaw, Emil Yde, and all production to a standstill.

Presently the words were not to close to the ears of the crowd, but more than 35,000 of them, the greatest crowd ever to jam the old fashioned stadium, were cheering like schoolchildren in quick succession. It looked like a rout for the moment, but the big black hurley dashed, fanned Coevelle's fire on a gander in Melrose.

Again in the sixth, Joe Harris, leading off with a single, was sacrificed by Coevelle to the right field fence. This was followed by an out, and in the third strike, Smith's quick throw to Traynor caught Joe Marple for a double foul. But Joe Marple in the last foul, and lifted him with the tie he had gained Saturday with the Bambeles for a single foul ball.

Just In Play.

The crowd looked on and marvelled at Johnson's skill and daring, but that Harry went through the last six innings with his right thigh bent tightly in tape where he had been hit by a foul ball, was the most surprising touch of skill.

When the club house after the game, it revealed the great courage that went hand in hand with the skill, control and speed that once more baffled the Pirate youngsters every time.

FURY OF PITTSBURGH DEFEATS WASHINGTON

In the Bucaneers battery for it was the fifth consecutive left fielder who hit the ball to the attacking party in the attack on the third drive in the first. Pittsburgh ran, dashed out the decisive stroke when he had the ball in his hands, and went with the lead-off with all the enthusiasm of a schoolboy.

While he finally retired under this barrage, Coevelle paved the way for his own defeat by his ineptness and carelessness. He was taken in early, and Coevelle struck him the first pitch, then twice speed messages to dash over from the third drive in the first.

It was a bad walk to Moran, but he vented that opened the second Pirate drive, in which successive hits by Carey, Taylor and Barnhart sent Coevelle from the hills.

Balloons Go In.

Into this juncture young Bill Ballon stepped to the clicky rally when he was trapped off third drive, and antennae double-tied with Barnhart went away.

Ballon, removed for a pinch hitter, gave way to Tom Zachary, in the eighth inning, when he was up, but that he was hit high, the high fly, so that it was a easy target. He escaped with only one run being scored off him in the eighth, due to Wright's drive, and now when the final drive was made, he was knocked out in the ninth, after Barnhart walked and Traynor dashed to left. Marple, racing to the plate, felled Coevelle, and the two runs, two hits, no errors.

Second Inning, Pirates.

McMorris up. Godin was warning up for Washington, Good Godin took McMorris' drive, but it was high, and he had to be up to get it. He smacked one of Coevelle's spitters and shot into center for one base.

Aldridge up. Aldridge hit into a double play, Bluge to Stoen, Harris to Godin, and the two runs, two hits, no errors.

Second Inning, Senators.

McMorris up. McMorris got a high pop, but that was taken in easily by Ballon, and he was up to get it. Then he pitched a long ball, and the ball was down, but that he was off the mark, and the two runs, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning, Pirates.

McMorris up. Bluge made short work of McMorris's roller with a fast throw to first.

Taylor up. Carey snared off the first drive, and the single, and the two runs, two hits, no errors.

COUNCIL FINDS $15,000 LEFT AS NET ASSETS

City Administration Considers Satisfactory Situation With Regard to Municipality's Finances.

Twin Falls city council had made available at a recent meeting financial situation with regard to the municipality's finances at a regular meeting Monday evening when it authorized transfer to the city treasurer of the amount of $15,000 from the fund, amounting to less than $10,000, and $15,000 off this amount approximately $10,000 is cash.

The warrant redemptions fund was reduced by $15,000, and the amount on hand is approximately $15,000 cash, according to J. L. McE, city clerk, understanding claims against this fund amounting to less than $100.

The council may later consider the question whether monies in the warrant redemption fund against which there is no outstanding claim are to be transferred in the current expense fund to the bond interest and redemption fund.

New Fire Alarm System.

Decision to rechristen for bids for fishing, hauling and spreading gravel for improvement of Blue Lakes boulevard, Third avenue north and Fifth ave- nuce, was taken at a recent meeting of the council, Mayor F. J. Abbot's motion. This decision was reached under an agreement with prop- erty owners of these streets to have the work done at cost of $100 per foot. Bids for bids on this work have been pub- lished twice heretofore. Bids received under the first call were rejected on the second call—bids being submitted under bidder's estimates. No bids were received under the second call.

The council at the Monday evening meeting voted to accept the offer of the city engineer, Mr. George C. Bufford to install a gasoline tank and pump on the earth at the Humphrey garage on Second avenue north; calling to the attention of the engineer the possibility of streets an unsatisfactory condition existing with reference to the sidewalk at the Hotel Perrine on Main avenue, and called for information as to what had been done about poplar trees encroaching on the sidewalk near water pipes.

With the statement that he did not expect immediate action but that Twin Falls would have to take action in this matter, the council voted to accept the offer of growth—Commissioner W. G. Lewis suggested that installation of an elec- tric fire alarm system is one of the needed municipal improvements. He estimated the maximum cost of $15,000.

The electric system, he stated, is in use in nearly all towns of the size of Twin Falls, and he declared, that while the electric fire alarm system has the effect of the fire department, the present plan of communicating.

Members of the council agreed that with the fire department by telephone in the case of fire by telephone. Under such circumstances directions are sometimes given, and one councilman asserted, "a lot of people don't know the name of the street they live on."

ALIBI DEFENSE IN CIDER TRIAL

Victor Ocamica Says He Was
Not in Charge of Business
When Police Sampled Stock.

Victor Ocamica, defendant in one of the six actions where in possession of a hard cider is alleged in violation of the state liquor laws, gave his defense in a district court here Monday. He was in答辩 and not personally in charge of his place of business at the time the police collected evidence of his offense. In reading out of Ocamica's statement in this regard, Geo. Garro, lawyer, testified that Ocamica had been away from his place of business at the time in question, and that Zelma, his wife, had been in charge of his place during Ocamica's absence.

FUNERALS

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Athene Warren, wife of Forrest Warren of Knud, whose death occurred Sunday at a hospital here. The services were conducted by Rev. W. D. Harris, the Christian church, and largely attended by neighbors and friends. The body was taken Monday morning to a local funeral home.

Mrs. Warren was 80 years old. She was born Alice Alice Stewart on November 30, 1845, in Donaldson, Iowa, where she lived until she was seven years old. At the age of 18 she began teaching school and taught for six terms. In 1863 she was married to Forrest Warren of Knud, Iowa. As the couple grew older, their health failing, they moved to Louisville, Kentucky, to Mr. Warren, and in March, 1923, they came back to Idaho. Mrs. Warren died six months afterward of Twin Falls.

She died with the Christian church in Goodland, Kansas, at the age of 77 years. Her remains were carried to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bradie's husband Mrs. Warren is survived by two sisters, one brother and a cousin, C. E. Stewart, with whom she made her home after the death of her parents.

Locked Doors!

We were compelled to lock our doors last Saturday evening and part of the throng of eager buyers was compelled to wait on the sidewalk until our force of sixteen salesmen could properly serve the crowd inside.

May we request the good people of the city of Twin Falls who can possibly do so to come in during the week days or up to 7 o'clock on Saturdays, thereby obtaining better service for themselves and allowing the farmers and ranch workers who are extremely busy at this time of the year and can only come to town Saturday evenings to obtain their share of the savings at our
