Democrat of Oregon No Long-Commissoner on Shipping Board; Indicates Plans of President for Changes.

(By the Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—With the disclosure today that President Coolidge would not reappoint Bert E. Haney, democrat of Oregon, as a member of the shipping board, it became apparent that the president might seek other changes in his cabinet.

Recense Appointment. Mr. Haney, in coming under a recess appointment in his new post, was not sent to the senate next month because of the position he has taken in favor of the repeal of the consular law.

Two Others Sided. Prominent in the fight on Mr. Palmer was one man, the executive in charge of the consular law, and two others, the consular commissioner and the attorney.

Value of Spud Crop in Idaho $24,548,000

State Estimate Based on Figures Supplied by Julius H. Jacobsen, Federal Statistician at Boise.

(By the Associated Press.) BALT LAKE, Nov. 16.—The value of Idaho's 1923 potato crop to Idaho farmers is estimated at $24,548,000, as based upon the assumption that two-thirds of the crop sold at the prevailing October 15 price of 4.15 a bushel and that one-third will sell at an average of $3 a bushel. Utah farmers will realize a gross return of approximately $3,307,000 on potatoes this year.

Other States Short. Blunters, produced in Idaho and Utah has been combined with a diminishing of the United States potato crop and resulting high prices.

OFFICERS MAKE END OF SECOND LIQUOR PLAN

J. F. "Bud" Lewis in Custody Here Facing Charges of Illegal Operation of House Creek Moonshine Still.

Seizure of another big moonshine still and capture of its alleged operator was credited to federal prohibition enforcement agents operating in Idaho district with Charles E. Jones and H. W. Davis, Twin Falls county deputy sheriffs, when James P. Lewis of Twin Falls was arrested Monday at his home on House creek, 37 miles southeast of Twin Falls and about five miles west of the Idaho-Texas border. Lewis is still of between 1 and 2 gallons, especially and four or five barrels of moon in a stillhouse at the place northwest of the ranchhouse was destroyed, a barrel containing about 20 gallons of moonshine whiskey being confiscated.

Lewis was delivered into custody of the sheriff here and held in answer to charges of illegal manufacture of liquor before H. E. Powers, United States commissioner. The officers caught Lewis off guard and surrounded the ranchhouse where he was alone Monday afternoon. He complied readily to their requisitions to come out under arrest.

On the return trip, Lewis was permitted to stop at C. J. Jones' home for six or a hour of 120 sheep, two cows and six horses during his absence from the home.

Question of Jurisdiction. Prohibition officials at Washington were requested to determine whether proceedings should be prosecuted in federal court in Idaho or Nevada in the case of E. A. Hanson and six other men who were arrested Saturday by the prohibition enforcement agents and Twin Falls county deputy sheriff in and about Cabin in Three Creek canyon in Idaho county, Nevada, where three big stills were destroyed in a full gallon moon liquor still. Under temporary writs issued by H. E. Powers, United States commissioner, Lewis and Hanson, who are charged with illegal manufacture and possession of liquor, were committed to Twin Falls county jail together with William H. Hanson and Otto C. Christianson, charged with illegal possession and transportation of liquor. H. W. Davis, deputy sheriff, and Walter Brown, also charged with illegal possession and transportation, were returned under writs to the county jail in the cases of Hanson and Brown who are in the sum of $2,500 each.

DEPUTIES ATTITUDE IN FINANCE PLAN IS DECLARED UNCERTAIN

PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—The attitude of the deputies on Premier Ribbier's financial plan is now uncertain, fifth day on the eve of its presentation to the chamber, but it seemed fairly well settled that the cabinet would accept the government proposals at least as a basis for discussion. These attitudes will be disclosed when the text of the cabinet plan is made public tomorrow. In the meantime, but indicated that they would join the cabinet on the floor. The bill is certain enough of a strong time in the chamber, whatever the result, in view of the fact that twenty-seven senators have already announced their intention to deliver their opinions.

YOUTH IS FOUND GUILTY OF TAXI OVERDRIVING

Jersey Justice Lives Up to Severity and Swiftmess: Harrison W. Noel Must Die in Electric Chair.

(By the Associated Press.) NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 16 (AP)—Jersey justice lived up to its reputation for swiftness and severity today when Harrison W. Noel, 20-year-old Mount-Clear youth, was convicted of murder in the first degree with an intentional felon for more than two hours deliberations by a jury.

Under the verdict there is no sentence possible but death in the electric chair. Noel will be sentenced by Judge Edwin C. Caffery on November 23.

Noel shot and killed Raymond Pirogo, cargo taxi chauffeur, on September 4, 1924, by shooting the body of the negro's taxi to kidnap six-year-old Mary Dale of Mount-Clear from in front of her home. He killed her by shooting her twice in the head and once in the abdomen in a lonely avenue of Passaic county.

Charges Crimes. He was arrested three days after the murder of Pirogo and after 24 hours in custody made a complete confession of both crimes.

Noel has been an inmate of the Essex county hospital for the past six months prior to the crime. The defense in the case charging Noel with first degree insanity. The trial lasted five days.

Noel, standing in the prisoner's dock with his hands cuffed behind his back, visibly as the words were pronounced that will probably send him to the electric chair.

FARM NOTES FREAK CENTER

Southern California Does Not Mean Agricultural Establishment When It Uses Word.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (AP)—In the language of Southern California, "farms" is the word used to describe the agricultural establishment, not the lighter industry. If it is a place where the main crops are oranges, lemons, or kindred products come from a ranch, it is a farm.

Freak farms are on the increase in this section, and the chamber of commerce here issued a friendly warning to new settlers that these really are in room for more far-reaching rabbit farms and that the individual investor who enters the rabbit-raising industry for the purpose of selling furs will find himself disappointed.

AZERBAIJAN TO BE MODERN IN MANY RESPECTS

Once Backward European State Embarks on Extensive Irrigation, Railroad, Engineering and Farm Work.

BAKU, Nov. 16.—Azerbaijan, situated in the Caucasus mountains of Europe, has embarked upon extensive irrigation, railroad, engineering and agricultural enterprises, which are essentially expected to rank it with the more advanced states of Georgia.

One of the government's greatest problems is to reduce the illiteracy for the people. Only ten per cent of the population is able to read and write. For centuries the country has lagged behind all its neighbors in intellectual progress. The illiteracy rate of the population of Azerbaijan is the highest of any of the states of the Caucasus. Efforts of all classes is now compulsory.

Development of Azerbaijan is enhanced by the fact that the state has a political problem, the energy has been stabilized and all enterprises have been very successful. The state has an opportunity in the production of national life.

The principal industries are agriculture and fishing. The state has nearly 500,000 acres of cotton under cultivation and the New Government is spending $20,000,000 on irrigation. The state is now producing several million pounds of wheat annually.

FLASHES FROM LONDON

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(Special to the News.)—The king and queen have agreed that soup is no longer a necessary part of the menu for the royal household, because dancers demand foodstuffs of a more solid nature.

Stantrell, one of the best jugglers in England, declared in a recent interview that soup has long since become unnecessary as part of the menu because lighter foodstuffs are now the fashion and even at dinner tables the king and queen are no longer considered obliged to eat.

Soup always was one of a recreation time for the king and queen. Stantrell maintained, and "in their leisure to keep up with the times even gentlemen have agreed that soup is no longer a desirable part of a real meal and they have taken steps which are hoped to result in its removal altogether from their bills of fare."

Stantrell, who probably serves more members of royalty, has bankers and men of affairs generally than any other person in the world, said that many jugglers are now entirely out of the mode, even as a means to business end. "The man who knows how to change a light music flourish without soap and with the right sort of wine is the man who banks the others and contracts," said Stantrell, who admits that he has not tasted soup for many years, even soup made by himself.

Gift gamblers are on the increase in England, according to an organization engaged in collecting figures concerning gift giving by children on birthdays. Thousands of boys and girls are being encouraged to play the lottery, it is charged, and in every city and hamlet there are more organizations conducted by men and women where the children are relieved of their pennies by one lottery or another.

The prosecutor said that when the house was raided, the police found all kinds of accounts showing lists on the books. The magistrates, in finding the couple in possession of a large quantity of cash, said they had participated in a scheme designed to stimulate the gambling spirit among children, which he considered a menace to the country.

The famous "fish farm" of Will Millard at Farnham, near New York, has been duplicated in England by Fred Dyer, a well known pugilist since establishment is to be run much along the same lines as Millard's in New York, patronized by Chamberlain, Mrs. Edin, host and other distinguished New Yorkers. Dyer calls his place a "health farm," and hundreds of patients from all over the world are applying for treatment and soon will begin to show in the streets of London.

Look Out!

Look for the picture of the Quaker on every package of oats you get. That's the only way to get the "Quaker flavor"—the old Scotch flavor—that you want

WHAT you want in oats is flavor. Everything else takes second place. Oats originally a Scotch dish must have true Scotch flavor to be at its best—real "Quaker" flavor.

Nobody has yet succeeded in imitating Quaker flavor. That enticing and toasty Scotch tang of the Quaker brand.

People who ordinarily don't take to oats, find delight in that unique flavor. Once you taste it, you are spoiled for ordinary oats. So when asked to try a substitute, say "NO!"

That flavor is not the result of guesswork but of certain Quaker milling processes applied to the finest, plumpest oats that grow. Some 50 years were spent in perfecting it.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. It makes the finest, the most savory and quickest of hot breakfasts.

Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.

2 Kinds—The Quaker Oats you have always known and Quick Quaker—Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes.

IDAHO'S POTATO YIELD ESTIMATED

Crop Totals 12,920,000 Bushels, According to Statistician's Figures; Apples Better

The Idaho potato crop, according to the Idaho November crop report just published by J. H. Jacobson, agricultural statistician, totals 12,920,000 bushels based on a preliminary estimate of 190 bushels per acre yield. This compares with 10,725,000 bushels harvested in 1924 and 11,712,000 bushels, the five-year average (1920-1924). This compares with 10,725,000 bushels harvested last year and 11,712,000 bushels, the five-year average (1920-1924). The crop is estimated at 345,500,000 bushels against 314,257,000 bushels October 1 and 417,348,000, the five-year average 1920-1924. Last year 454,781,000 bushels were harvested. The crop is the main late potato states during October seriously delayed potato harvesting and caused some damage. Better yields than expected. The statistician the November 1 estimate for the United States crop.

Apples Improve. An apple crop of 5,170,000 bushels is indicated for Idaho by November 1 reports from correspondents. This is 56 per cent of a normal crop estimated with 92 per cent of a normal crop raised in 1924-Idaho's record year. Prices promise much better this year, so that it is estimated that 85 per cent will be shipped. Southern Idaho has been underlined all sections, followed by a little in the north. All other varieties are about normal in size. The crop is of excellent quality.

The United States apple crop now amounts to 17,000,000 bushels against 17,000,000 bushels October 1 and 18,000,000, the five-year average (1920-1924) of 18,000,000. The commercial crop indicates 31,000,000 bushels estimated with 30,000,000 October 1 and 29,000,000, the five-year average.

Large Corn Crop. An average of 41 bushels per acre of corn is indicated by reports, which would mean a 3,712,000 bushel production if all cut for grain. However, it is estimated only 26 per cent is cut for grain, 22 per cent for silos and 19 per cent hogged and shelled off. The overall season made fully 86 per cent of the crop marketable.

Seed Crops. The season was generally less favorable for seed crops than last year. Alfalfa seed was harvested from 10,000 acres—10 per cent less than last year, at an average yield of four bushels per acre, against five bushels last year. Red clover, however, did much better, with a harvest of five bushels per acre, against four bushels per acre, compared with three bushels per acre in 1924.

Old Cross-Word Puzzle. For many years archeologists have been trying to solve what is believed to be the oldest crossword puzzle. It was made by a Cretan about 2,000 years ago, and a copy of it now lies in the archeological museum at Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. This puzzle is called the Island of Crete by an expedition many years ago.

PARISIAN SIDELIGHTS

By Associated Press

PARIS, Nov. 16. (AP)—American students and others who use the new tourist cabin class for the Paris to Europe route to find the rates raised when the North Atlantic conference, now sitting in Paris, has finished its annual meeting. The student cabin rates will average $100 instead of $80 and the rate in all other classes may be expected to rise from 8 to 10 per cent. Traffic to Europe has reached the saturation point, it is explained at the Paris office of the White Star line, the firm its agencies are growing larger yearly, but the number of ships does not suffice to take care of the Americans, who come to the old world in all times and seasons. This year's experience has shown that there is no longer a "dry" tourist season and that travel is heavy well into the winter when the ships have less to do than in the summer months. "The students and those using the tourist class cabins are getting too much for their money," said an official of the United States lines. "We cannot afford to give so much next year. The newsmen on our cabin lists will be altered so as to make three actual classes, first, student, and third, instead of only first and tourist. "The cabin lists have become so popular that several of our ships will be converted to this type during the winter."

The much about weather is at least helping to solve France's coal problem. Storms are frequent, but there seldom has been such a mild fall. For six weeks the thermometer averaged between 39 and 60 and the thrifty housewife is letting the family stove slumber in the cellar or attic and will leave it there until the last moment.

With the rising exchange rate the price of anthracite, both British and Belgian, is fast becoming prohibitive and other shipments are quite unattractive.

M. Laval, minister of public works, offers to issue licenses for Ruhr anthracite to merchants on condition that they sell it as Ruhr coal and not change more than $15 a ton, but few have availed themselves of the offer, the transportation charges and custom duties swallowing most of the profits.

Premier Painleve's new cabinet, his third, is the seventh government of France since the third republic was set in 1872. This makes the average life of a French government about 18 months. Painleve's first government lasted two months and ten days, and his second, 48 months and ten days. Mathematically considered, his new government is entitled, therefore, in an estimate of less than eight months to bring him up to the average.

Parliamentary experts, however, forecast that it will be the contrary on his third experience as the head of the government, among the first to be forced to resign his cabinet. M. Painleve made a try for a second record, but fell, reducing the average time of two days to 1 1/2 hours. He then did well to escape a couple hours short of the mark.

FOREST ROADS FUNDS GROWING

Idaho Now Has 1410 Miles of Road and 4073 Miles of Trails in Reserves.

M. Pultrone's record in the spring of 1924. When the present cabinet formed his second cabinet he nationalized everything by assuming his makeup before they elected that he had some about the job. He had done it all by telephone and the new cabinet was in conference within twenty-four hours after M. Pultrone had accepted the mission to form another ministry.

While the man in the street is mourning the rising cost of living in France, the government finds a bit of relief just now in contemplating the decrease price of traffic. Traffic is a white afternoon fund, highly concentrated in France. This year's traffic fund is depleted, it is the best since 1924. It is not only for the working man, traffic is likely, if the present price decrease continues to find their way into the pockets and fancy dishes of the poorer homes.

The coming of cold and wet weather and the subsequent shortage of the trucks at morning and evening rush hours has served to bring the attention of Parisians an old regulation that people unacquainted with each other must not ride together in a taxi. Taxi drivers, familiar with the rule, refused to carry people obviously strangers to each other, but traveling in the direction and willing to use the same car, splitting the cost.

Since the rule has been enforced it has been observed that hasty introductions often take place between strangers, just as a cab appears in sight, and by the time the driver is halted the letter of the law has been complied with. Police say they have no rule covering the last minute street corner introductions.

Can anyone live in Paris on fifty francs a month? Fifty francs represents at the present rate of exchange less than $200. There does not seem to be much difficulty in finding an answer. Yet there are many in Paris who have to solve the problem and have only that much. Fifty francs a month is the amount given by the city of Paris to its paupers, to penniless sufferers from incurable diseases and the aged without resources.

These destitute persons are about the only class whose resources have not changed since the war. Although they receive the same sum as before the war, they are represented about four times as much purchasing power as it does today. An attempt is being made to get this class to improve conditions for these dependents.

OGDEN, Nov. 16.—Idaho has now 1410 miles of road and 4073 miles of trail constructed upon an investment of $1,200,000, according to figures filed at the end of the last fiscal year, June 30, 1925. During the last fiscal year more than the average amount of work was done—141 miles of road and 503 miles of trail being completed. The total investment of $1,200,000 has been authorized for the construction of roads and trails in cooperation with state and county funds; $120,120 has been authorized for the construction of roads and trails in cooperation with state and county funds; and $2,257,777 for forest high ways, which are roads of primary importance in counties and counties. $137,341 for the construction of forest roads in cooperation with state and county funds, and $2,257,777 is appropriated under the so-called "low per cent law" under which ten per cent of the national forest receipts are returned to the state in which the forested land is situated on roads and trails within National forests. This has not yet been greater in 1925 than ever before, since the forest receipts in Idaho are rapidly increasing, due primarily to the increased sale of national forest timber in the northern part of the state.

A total of $6,203,331 of federal money has been expended in cooperation with the national forests of Idaho since the class of roads has been undertaken. Operations have furnished in addition $1,252,647.

Is a Canceled Check a Receipt? Does an indorsed and cashed check always constitute a valid receipt for payment of a bill? An article in the American Printer quotes a judicial opinion to show that it does not. "Unless the check is cashed upon your face for what purpose they were given, or there is some other positive evidence as to the transaction to which the checks were referable," says the court, "we think the baron continues upon the party bringing payment to show that the checks were given in payment of account." In the case cited the printer had to pay the $100 in duplicate, which according to his claim had already paid. The remedy suggested is to write on the face of the check the "intention" of the transaction in payment of which it is given.—Outlook.

Careless Writer! In a recent examination the candidates were asked to describe the figure of speech articles of style used in the following: "The child is father to the man."—One answer was: "This was written by Shakespeare. He often used this kind of mistake."

"This is the only kind of candy I like my own children to have," the dentist told the mother.
"These Little Life Savers mints are much better for little folks. Try the new Violet flavor. Children love them."
Every growing child craves sweets. Active little bodies demand sugar. But children's candy must be pure—and they should not overeat.
—Life Savers, the little candy mints with the hole (life saver shape), answer this problem in just the right way. They are chine-hard and deliciously flavored. This means that Life Savers are eaten slowly. Children suck them to make those wonderful flavors last longer. Little tummies are not upset. Life Savers are kind to tiny teeth. They're safe and wholesome. You may conscientiously be generous with Life Savers for they are the ideal candy for little folks.
Six flavors are displayed at all good stores so you may help yourself: Peppermint, Wint-o-green, Citron-mint, Licorice, Clove and Violet. Five cents a package—Life Savers, Inc., Port Chester, N. Y.

When it's Thanksgiving—and the teams are drawn up for battle on the gridiron—when the first touchdown goes over and the grandstands rock with frenzy—have a Camel!

WHEN the college bands are playing to make your blood tingle. And the cheers and answering songs sweep back and forth between the opposing thousands of rooters. When, following that tense hush, a swift player darts out from the flashing formations on the gridiron and races across the goal for the first touchdown—oh, man, or superman, when the taste-of-joy is too keen to endure—have a Camel!

For Camel is the boon companion of your joys. Roam as far as you will from the prosaic things of every day, Camel will be the truest smoke friend you ever had. Not a tired taste, not a cigaret after-taste, not a regret in a million Camels! Just full and fragrant smoke contentment, just added zest in living.

So when your own college's team tears through for its first smashing goal this Thanksgiving Day—when life seems fullest of the frenzy of happiness—joyfully apply the fire and taste the smoke that's loved by millions.

Have a Camel!

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest tobacco, the most skillful blenders. The most scientific packages. No other cigarette made in the Camels. No finer cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette, made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

MANY CHANGES BEING MADE IN NEW HOSTELRY

Large Force of Workmen Employed in Remodeling New Hotel; Interior Arrangements on Elaborate Scale.

Activity in the building trades during the past few days has been duplicated at the Boyd hospital building which is being rapidly transformed into a modern and up-to-date hotel and is already taking care of as many guests for per day as it has rooms ready for occupancy.

The hotel when finished will contain the very latest and most modern equipment known in the business. There will be 80 guest rooms, as well as a large dining room in the basement, three private dining rooms, ladies card rooms, and sitting rooms, a spacious lobby, writing rooms, all time rooms and all the rest of the various comforts and conveniences features which go with the modern hotel. The two lower floors of the building are being strictly built over. The basement floor will contain all dining rooms, kitchens, storage facilities and boiler rooms. In order to provide dining rooms where it was found necessary to remove a number of partitions and to build others to take care of sample room requirements and provide smaller rooms for various purposes. On the main floor, in addition to the enlargement of the lobby hall so as to provide an adequate lobby, a passenger elevator is being installed. At the rear of the lobby a private reception room is provided for the benefit of guests.

Many New Features

Practically all the furniture and decorations in the hotel are new and these latter include a number of features found only in the larger city hotels, such as automatically controlled window shades operated by a push button and similar minor items that the convenience of guests. Rooms are arranged single and on the side and practically all of these are either provided with private baths or are connected with the bathroom on the side. Complete Turkish bath equipment is to be installed on the lower floor and later it is expected to equip the spacious grounds in front and on the side of the building in a manner which will add greatly to the comfort of the guests.

Mrs. T. O. Boyd and E. J. Edwards, manager of the hotel, are busily engaged in superintending changes and arrangements now being made. The work is an experienced hotel man and declares it to be the intention to leave no stone unturned in an effort to provide at the Twin Falls which will be a credit to the city.

Many Workmen Employed

"The modern hotel," said Mr. Edwards yesterday, "is something more than merely a place to eat and sleep. To succeed it should offer all the comforts and conveniences and most of the luxuries of home. This is our idea in selecting furnishings, decorations and equipment. It is pretty
