"Ma" Ferguson in Interview With Eastern Paper Is Not Ready to Let "Wolves" Tear Her Apart on Graft Charges.

(By the Associated Press) AMARILLO, Texas, Nov. 30.—A representative of the Eastern paper was told yesterday obtained an exclusive interview with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, and learned that Mrs. Ferguson quoted the former as declining to say she would not call a special session of the legislature as demanded in the editorial written by Senator Lee Satterwhite of Georgia.

She added that she was not going to "throw herself to the wolves when we want to gather here and tear me apart."

Official acts of the Ferguson administration particularly the awarding of road contracts, would be investigated if the special session of the legislature met in January. She said here tonight upon her return from Austin and Dallas.

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 30.—A representative of the Baltimore Sun, who today obtained an exclusive interview with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, and learned that Mrs. Ferguson quoted the former as declining to say she would not call a special session of the legislature as demanded in the editorial written by Senator Lee Satterwhite of Georgia.

The view of the American is understood to be that the conditions now obtaining are utterly unusual for even moderately fair plebeian in view of the many cases of graft and anomalies of various kinds to which Pennsylvanians have been subjected.

General Ferguson is expected to expunge statements in opposing immediate framing of clearing laws, for the plebeian by saying that until conditions are radically changed, giving freedom to all voters, it is useless to enact such laws, as they could not be put into effect and all restrictions on political liberty were removed.

WAR CLOUDS ARE THREATENING IN MOSUL DISPUTE

Situation Between England and Turkey Growing Acute; Actual Hostilities Depend on Pending League Decision.

(By the Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 30.—The Westminster Gazette says an exceedingly grave situation has arisen regarding the dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over the Mosul frontier and that there is serious danger of war.

The Turks, declares the newspaper, are resolved should the final decision of the League of Nations be against them and in the absence of any friendly solution to receive the League's demands that they will invade Iraq and seize Mosul.

The Turkish army, numbering about 200,000 on a peace footing, is well prepared and has ample stores and ammunition. A large equipped Turkish force is at the frontier.

The Westminster Gazette is an anti-government newspaper. It is strongly opposed to Great Britain's holding Iraq.

PLANS TO LEVY FRENCH CAPITAL

New Finance Minister Would Attach Ten Per Cent Tax to Clear Up Debts.

(PARIS, Nov. 30, 6P)—A ten per cent levy on capital payable in three months is the measure on which M. Briand, the new finance minister, proposes to finance a sinking fund and to extinguish the short term debts. He asserts that he favors refunding certain international loans in order to arrange a better budget, but that he does not favor the treasury, but rejects all idea of a moratorium or forced conversion of the loans maturing December 8.

Finance ministry officials say that M. Briand's policy had no intention that parliament will compel him to ask parliament for authority to issue an international loan to finance the plan.

"Now please make that clear," he said. "I am not asking that the state is against the Pergauds. That's their privilege. Now you boys run from all corners of the country. We're asking for no favors. Just a simple favor."

"Too Much 'We're'?" "There goes that 'we're' again," interposed Mrs. Pergaud. "You want us to do what?"

"That's where they got me wrong again," he said. "I've been saying

Bombshell Is Near Explosion In Trial of Colonel Mitchell

General King, Who Called Proceedings "Damn Rot," May be Unsainted From Court Martial for His Outburst.

(WASHINGTON, Nov. 30, 6P)—A terrible bombshell, with delayed fuse attached, tonight lay concealed beneath the surface of the army court martial trying Colonel William Mitchell.

Its explosion may, unless the fuse is snipped off, be the war department or the White House, but one of them, Brigadier General Edward H. King, from his seat on the tribunal.

Prominently Major General Robert L. Howze, the president, was the only member of the court to remain silent.

He created it by reporting to the war department that General King had used the expression "damn rot" on one occasion, and started a general discussion at the outset, with a sufficient lease of life to get its financial measure, before the chamber. These measures, however, were not adopted.

This move looks no good for the Brand cabinet, in the opinion of parliamentary observers.

Concession to Radicals

The radical levy is a concession to the radicals—the rejection of forced conversion of bonds is calculated to secure the support of the left.

The opposing forces of the chamber hope to ride through an early solution of the pressing financial problem.

The cabinet, however, is thought to be willing, with a hard road to travel.

M. Briand had scarcely left for his mission in London when he was summoned by Edward VII, the King of England, with the Queen, from their villa near the embassy, when the members of the Left met in the chamber, and started a general discussion.

This move looks no good for the Brand cabinet, in the opinion of parliamentary observers.

Necessary Evil

The radicals insist that M. Briand's radical levy, only a mere, tiny, evil, but they fear from recoil to a cabinet headed over by any one but a member of their own group.

The British cabinet, nevertheless, is considered to be in a position of ascendancy at the outset, with a sufficient lease of life to get its financial measure, before the chamber. These measures, however, were not adopted.

It is felt that if the proposal was made, it would constitute a reasonable compromise between the opposing viewpoints.

RHINELANDER SUIT NOW NEARING CLOSE

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 30, 6P.—The suit of Leonard Kip Rhinelander against his mother, Alice Deitrich Jones, daughter of a famous taxi cab driver, today entered its closing phase with the beginning of summations by counsel.

Since the suit began three weeks ago, the suit of the young man, one of New York's oldest families, lived up to its reputation for unusual interest. The trial, which was conducted by Parsons Davis, counsel for Mr. Rhinelander, unexpectedly rested the case, and it had been expected that a number of additional witnesses would be called to determine whether or not it constituted a reasonable compromise between the opposing viewpoints.

THE END COMES

The man who brought the suit, Leonard Kip Rhinelander, was recalled briefly by his attorney to enter a blanket denial of the testimony of Mrs. Jones, his mother, and his wife, Alice, who was called to the defense.

In his defense, Mr. Reid retold his case, that he was married to Alice, now, when he was recalled by his attorney to enter a blanket denial of the testimony of Mrs. Jones, his mother, and his wife, Alice, who was called to the defense.

Meanwhile, on motion of Mr. Reid, the court today ordered all references to the trial to be stricken from the trial record and the general seal which he sat as a member of the trial panel.

THE END COMES

The man who brought the suit, Leonard Kip Rhinelander, was recalled today to testify whether Alice's body was the same color at birth as now. She asserted it was.

French Commissioner Will Take Steps to End Syrian Troubles Proposals of Peace to Rebel Druse Tribesmen Are Borne by Civilian Official.

BEIRUT, Syria, Nov. 30, 6P.—The arrival tomorrow of Henry de Jouvenel, the new French high commissioner in Syria, who is bringing proposals for peace with the Arab tribesmen, is expected to arrest the economic decay which the war has caused in Syria.

Mr. Jouvenel is expected to offer the Arab tribesmen independence and to undertake to make Syria a buffer zone between Lebanon and the French and Italian empires unless the Druzes prefer to fight to a finish.

"The country is living in killed animals," Jouvenel said. "The people are starving."

"The situation is extremely difficult," Jouvenel told the Associated Press reporter today referring to the refusal of the Druze tribesmen to accept his peace plan.

"The Druzes are very suspicious," Jouvenel said.

RUSSIAN NEWS BOOSTS WHEAT

Official Announcement of Exports Banned From Russia Until March Effective.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—(UPI)—Official announcement was made yesterday that wheat exports from Russia will be banned until March 1st, a good deal being about a material return in wheat values here. When closed down, 1 cent to 2 7/8c not higher, new style, December, $1.00 1/4 and above, November, $1.00 1/4; January, 5 1/2c to 7 1/2c advance, and 1 1/4c to 3c to 1 1/2c down, and provisions varying from the decline to a rise of 22c.

A first, short, fronted market showed a slight dip, when market showed a better weather condition in Argentina and because of a setback in quotations at Liverpool.

Markets here changed quickly, though, when word came that Russia had embargoed wheat exports, and that the Russian crop had been overestimated at 360,000,000 bushels. In addition, trade comment was that wheat prices generally taken here as implying price similar as to world supplies of wheat in comparison with needs. Aggressive buying developed immediately after a rapid rise in the market started at the top level.

In addition, trade comment was that wheat prices generally taken here as implying price similar as to world supplies of wheat in comparison with needs. Aggressive buying developed immediately after a rapid rise in the market started at the top level.

Latest news from Argentina, well as from Russia, according to the wheat market advisor, according to the market authority, an expert whom this season will be available from northern Argentina, where the crop was representative as being virtually a failure. Besides, only light wheat was available for exportation tomorrow on December contracts, and there were advices at hand that receipts in the northwest, Minneapolis in particular, are very limited. According to him, on the United States, wheat supply today decreased 316,000 bushels as against 3,377,000 bushels increase a year ago.

Cotton prices were ruled largely by the action of wheat. The fact that arrivals of cotton were of less volume than was looked for continued as a strengthening influence on cotton prices, which had touched the highest price yet this season. Oats were depressed as an outlook for fair-sized deliveries to mature, December oats as well as December corn, outside the season's production, were ruled higher.

Price weakness of hog values, however, averaged higher, in line with corn.

COUNCIL HEARS PROPOSAL FOR POWER PLANT

Committee Submits Plan for Obtaining Clear Lakes Site; Lease for 99 Years With Purchase Option Made.

Members of the city council in regular session Monday evening referred to the city attorney, Frank L. Stephan, a proposal for a ninety-nine year lease on a water power site at Clear Lakes on which it is proposed to build a man-made power plant to furnish light and power to the city of Twin Falls.

The option and case obtained for the consideration of the members of the council of the city of Twin Falls calls for a rental of the power site at Clear Lakes for the year 1926 at $100 for the sum of one thousand dollars and for the years 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931 for the sum of two thousand dollars a year. For the balance of the term of ninety-nine years the rent would be $2500 per annum.

Must Pay Taxes

In addition to the usual mentioned, the proposal also calls upon the city of Twin Falls to pay the taxes on the property during the term of the lease and to the county commissioners.

The lease shall take possession of the power site on the first day of January and shall retain possession so long as there is no default in performance of the terms. The city of Twin falls is also to use its best endeavors to obtain from the state of Idaho the necessary permits for completion of works for diversion under permit number 10115. In this connection the city would be required to engage a competent attorney and pay expenses involved.

In addition to the lease the owners, William C. Hazard and wife, give the city the right to purchase the site for $40,000.

Members of the council after hearing the proposed option read referred it to the city attorney and again take up the matter at the next regular meeting. A committee appointed by Mayor Ashton was formed. Comprised of Frank L. Stephan, R. C. Letoch, Asher H. Wilson, James A. Crom, C. M. Smith, and Arthur E. Williams.

Members of the city council after hearing the proposal from Frank Shaver who was present before Attorney O. P. Doyal for a hearing on the status of any trash containers on the streets of the city declared that they were unsightly and would detract from the appearance of the city's streets. The committee hearing proposed and proposed that the matter go to further investigation.

Application for a street light in the middle of Main between the police department and a light at the corner of Main and third avenue south was ordered installed.

Application for a rental of the air filter site by John Soumer for farming purposes was referred to Commissioner Keel with power to act.

The report of the chief of police which recommended the arrest of persons who had been using the present class of mail boxes and were alleged to be mail robbers was filed.

Christmas Advice Again In Season

Nearing Approach of Holiday Brings Customary Admonitions With One Difference.

It's only 25 days until Christmas and admonitions to begin to go Christmas shopping and save Christmas merriment are again in season. A new factor has entered the situation this year, however, and that is the influence of Postmaster General Henry Taylor. New providing that all work in postoffices will be suspended at 12 o'clock midnight December 24, to be resumed at 8 a.m. December 25.

There will be no city or interior delivery on Christmas day. Postal employees are to be given a full day's holiday and their gifts to be delivered on December 25, and must be mailed at least a day earlier than has been the custom heretofore.

This instruction Postmaster P. W. McLean has received from the post office department instructions containing the following advice:

Christmas gifts and cards addressed to points within one day's travel time will be held until December 20, within two days' travel, not later than December 18; within three days' travel, not later than December 16; for remote distant points not later than December 14. Postals and cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than December 22.
