Rescue Workers Unable to Locate Miners Entombed by Fire and Caves in Colorado; Fumes Overcome Rescuers.

(By the Associated Press.)
NEEDHAM, Colo., Dec. 4. (AP)—Hope for the safety of thirteen men trapped in the Fairy Mine near here waned early today when rescue workers found the workings were overcome by fumes.

Several others of the rescue workers have been overcome in the main tunnel of the mine and brought out in an unconscious condition. Miners all over the Colorado district were alerted from their beds and requested to join in the rescue work.

Twelve men were entombed in the mine following a fire early yesterday, but one of them, Walter Swanson of Denver was brought out alive last night.

NEEDHAM, Colo., Dec. 4. (AP)—Rescue workers tonight reached the main tunnel of the Fairy Mine where 20 miners were entombed following a fire early today, but the place had been largely evacuated, it was reported.

Fumes were rolling back the rescue squad and overcame several of the men who entered the workings. One of the first men to reach the tunnel, Frank Anderson, a rescuer, shouted to those at the top of the emergency shaft that all in the mine were dead, but a few reports that none of the men had been lost.

Upon receiving this news the crowd of wives and relatives anxiously awaiting word of the entombed men, became joyous. A few minutes later, Walter Swanson of Denver, who had been entombed, was brought out in a semi-conscious state.

At 11:30 o'clock the possible fate of the remaining miners appeared almost as grave as that of the entombed miners. As they pushed back toward the east entrance, fumes were being driven over the miners and they were overpowered.

Lieutenant Charles H. Jensen, of the Denver fire department, was the first of the men to be brought to the surface in a semi-conscious condition. He had given his name to the rescue workers as Walter Swanson. The Denver fire department who was

LEAGUE PLANS TO WRITE U. S. TO CONFERENCE

Both This Country and Russia Will Get Invitation to Attend Arms Parley, Decision of Council.

(By the Associated Press.) GENEVA, Dec. 4. (AP)—The League of Nations today will be invited to participate in the writing of the proposed conference to bring about world disarmament.

Although an official announcement concerning the matter was made, the League of Nations today announced that the members of the disarmament council agreed that an international conference to reduce armaments had been decided upon.

The necessity of having the cooperation of Russia in disarmament moves became evident at the conference on the control of traffic in arms, when the countries bordering on Russia withheld final approval of the convention until such time as Russia would adhere to the document.

An official communique explains that a new commission will be created to prepare for the conference. This commission has been named "the preparatory committee for the disarmament conference."

Discussing the decision, M. Bonivent of France, as president of the council, explained that the committee will be headed by the main council of the league. It is understood that the announcement concerning the United States and Russia is to be withheld until the decision is addressed to them can be considered as definite.

The commission, according to league circles, eventually will be made up of representatives from all the big powers. Germany, of course, being included as a future member of the league council. It also has been decided that the new commission should be empowered to consult with the principal organizations of the league.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—League officials today announced that the president of the league has received the invitation of the league's disarmament council which he can examine at his will.

TWO CLASHES ON GRIDIRON TODAY

U. S. C. and O. A. C. Will Meet at Los Angeles; St. Mary's and Fresno State to Play.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Football lettered on its calendar as gridiron, demands a final rally to claim superior interest in two clashes to occur on the Pacific coast.

Both games will be played in California and one of them will wind up for the best conference schedule in the West.

A victory for the Aggie will give the University of Southern California a good record in the conference. A victory for the Aggie will put them in a tie for second place with Stanford in their present standing. This is three games won and one defeat.

Southern California has won two conference games and lost one again. The engagement has been somewhat on the coast championship game as Washington has already clinched that.

The other gridiron tie is scheduled for St. Mary's and will be the St. Mary's college eleven against Fresno State Teachers college. It is American league of the conference championship which the Saints lead with a clean slate of two victories. A win tomorrow will give St. Mary's the title while a defeat will put University of Nevada in the lead with three games won and one lost.

WOOL MARKET IS DECLARED BULL

Prices in Absence of Sales Are Hard to Quote According to Boston Journal in Review.

BOSTON, Dec. 4.—The commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: The domestic market for wool has been severely hit since the absence of sales are hard to quote and largely nominal, but naturally, in favor of the buyer. Buyers have withdrawn bids in the west.

The foreign markets are all easier, notably the primary markets, where the greatest volume of raw material exists. This is affecting the secondary markets for the moment. Southern American quotations are down 2 to 3 cents in the group.

The goods market is reported slow. Spinners and combiners are buying by lower bids, although it is hard to say just what prices would be accepted. The whole market is rather quiet, but steady.

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Domestic—Wool, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2; blood combing, 2 1/2; 3 lb. blood combing, 2 1/2; fine washed, 2 1/2.

Foreign—Wool, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2; blood combing, 2 1/2; 3 lb. blood combing, 2 1/2; fine washed, 2 1/2.

Before the crash, wheat for December delivery in Chicago had touched $1.82, and was up to a high of $1.84 for the month, and $1.83 for the year in particular being a target that of late has been aimed at by speculators. DUNLAP CLAIMS SHOT FIRED TO PROTECT WIFE

Murdaugh Man on Trial for Murder Says He Believed Russell Meant to Kill His Own Sister.

Henry J. Dunlap, on trial for a second time in district court for the murder of his brother-in-law, Charles Russell, on Monday, said today that he shot fatally wounded Russell when Russell after uttering threats against the life of Dunlap and Dunlap's wife who was Russell's sister, took her to an act at a shopping block near which Mrs. Dunlap shot, according to evidence introduced at Dunlap's trial Friday.

The story of the fatal shooting was reviewed by Dunlap and Mrs. Dunlap, who were called to the witness stand after the state rested its case Friday.

In Fear of Life. Dunlap said that he had the fatal shot, believing that his own life and that of his wife was in imminent danger, a shotgun that had been loaned earlier to the case by a neighbor for the purpose of shooting quail, was shot and took place in Dunlap's hands. It was witnessed only by Dunlap and his wife. Evidence has been introduced that Dunlap fired at short range and that the fatal charge exploded. Russell lay back at the right at the moment.

After being wounded Dunlap stated Russell named his house without resistance and returned to his home. Dunlap said that he remained standing on the spot from which he had fired for some time and then went with his wife later to the home.

Questioned by J. R. Robb, of defense counsel, in indirect examination Dunlap stated that Russell was a larger man than he. A little later prosecuting attorney J. W. Taylor responded that Dunlap had a shot-ridden coat which has been introduced in evidence to indicate the difference in the size of the men.

Objections to the proposal offered by the state attorneys were sustained by the court.

Reviews Prior Trouble. In the course of his testimony Dunlap testified in detail of his brother extending over a long period and growing out of an arrangement under which Dunlap had been purchasing land from Dunlap and Russell. Dunlap said, Russell's disposition, Dunlap said, was quarrelsome and violent. He had trouble with Dunlap's tenants. Dunlap said that he had no personal knowledge of any act of violence having been committed by Russell. Some months prior to the shooting, however, he stated, he had been told by his wife that Russell had attempted to strike her with a shovel during a dispute over irrigation water and that he had been prevented from carrying out his purpose by Mrs. Dunlap's 15-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Laura Hill Dunlap, wife of the murder-charged man, and sister of the dead man, testifying in behalf of her husband, declared that she was convinced that her brother would have killed her if he had not been prevented by the call of Mrs. Dunlap. She referred to the shooting as an accident.

Woman Tells Story. She told of Russell's conduct immediately preceding the shooting. He acted as though he were extremely angry when he came to Dunlap's place and insisted that the cattle be released and that he be shown the damage done by the cattle. Mrs. Dunlap stated, He had warned her to "stay in the house where she belonged" when he went with Dunlap to the barn where the cattle were confined. Mrs. Dunlap said, She, however, went with the men in the morning. Still in high rage, Mrs. Dunlap stated, Dunlap mounted his horse and went some distance from the house, and then, in a state of frenzy that was almost insanity, Mrs. Dunlap continued, he turned back to the house, declaring that he would have his cattle "if it took every drop of blood in his body."

Mrs. Dunlap said that it was her "impression" that her brother, who had dismounted from his horse, had picked up the shot fired by her husband near the granary door a few feet distant, fired the fatal shot.

WILLIE WILDS BY ROBERT QUINLEN

"If William tells me three times it's all right me to go unless she says 'Willie' the last time." (Copyright, 1925, Associated Editors, Inc.)

There was some further conversation following the shooting. Mrs. Dunlap testified, but she was unable to recall the substance of it.

Spoke Emphatically. With explicit purpose of impeaching testimony of Mrs. Dunlap, the prosecutor presented two or three questions to which a false answer objected and Judge W. A. Bennett, presiding, stated that he would give judgment for arguments as to the admissibility of the questions.

MICHIGAN BEAN CROP CUT SHORT BY WEATHER

Weather conditions have caused material reduction in Michigan's bean crop according to statement issued by the United States department of agriculture in cooperation with the Michigan department of agriculture, in a report for the state for the month of November. The statement with respect to the bean crop is as follows:

Very little harvesting could be done during October and many fields will be a total loss. Some are being harvested during November with varying percentages of quality. About 50 per cent of the crop was still in the fields on November 1, the percentage being largest in some of the heaviest producing counties. The losses are heaviest in Malcom and St. Clair counties, but are severe in nearly all other bean growing districts. From present indications loss of average may reach 20 per cent. A special survey resulted in an estimated yield of 105 per cent and an average yield of 12 bushels per acre (the average that has been and will be harvested).
