Rate Expert of South Dakota
Commission Declares Increase
Would Work a Hardship on Country.

(By the Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—The great grain belt of the northwest is paying its full share of transportation costs and further increases would work a hardship on farmers, D. L. Kelley, state expert on transportation, told the national commission, testifying today at the interstate commerce commission freight rate hearing here.

Mr. Kelley's statement on the grain rate situation in the northwest, particularly North Dakota and South Dakota.

The statement reflects what would be further advances by increasing grain rates from the Midwest—considering the unusually high rates they are already paying. The additional revenue from grain rates, he said, should be placed on the traffic moving from districts closer to the market—the long-haul rates are already too high.

Average Higher

Mr. Kelley said the average cost per mile, carrying an wheat shipment from South Dakota averages 83 per cent more than in 1919, and that the same carloadings on corn are 77 per cent higher.

The present rates on wheat to the Chicago and Milwaukee markets, with the exception of a small carload of more than 45 bushels, are higher than the average wheat carload rates were only 22.

The earnings on all grains, including wheat, corn, barley and flax, average about 45 cents a car load on the midwest underwriting districts.

"Such high earnings, particularly with traffic moving such long distances are, I believe, unquestionably the cause of the present situation."

The indiscriminate variation in rates at state lines, Mr. Kelley declared, should be leveled off and that other adjustments should be made in order to bring the rates into line so that the freight burdens would be more evenly distributed.

Loss Money on Farm

Mr. Kelley said he farmed 25 acres for 10 years at a representative point in the northwest, averaging the farm on a basis lower than the costs established by the state agricultural com-

Vanderbilt Heiress Marries Earl Smith
at Mother's Mansion

Ceremony Performed in Setting
Resembling Chapel of French Chateau to Chanting of Paulist Choristers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP)—With mi-dieval pageantry, Miss Constance Vanderbilt was married today to Earl E. T.
Smith in the drawing room of her mother's Fifth Avenue home.

To the chanting of the Paulist choristers, the ceremony was performed in a setting resembling the chapel of a French chateau, with an elaborate canopy over the bride and groom.

When evening began to fall, Chal-mire Ann Marks, the novelist, mentioned adjournments, and the bride and groom adjourned to a small room where the wedding dinner was being held.

Mr. Smith is engaged with holding meetings together and he is determined to continue as long as he has the ability to do.

The only apparent action by the couple was the adoption of a new name, Smith-Markus, and the issue of false reports that the strike had been settled. After the conference, adjourned rumors were again spread that the couple had agreed on a new name, despite the fact that an announcement had been made that the situation remained unchanged.

PACKING COMPANY IN GOOD CONDITION AS SHOWN BY EARNINGS

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 (AP)—Swift and company, Chicago packers, had net earnings after interest and depreciation of $12,379,123.04 on sales exceeding $102,000,000, and the annual dividends of 8 per cent.

After dividends of 8 per cent, totaling $12,000,000, were declared, there remained a surplus of $370,123.04.

For the year 1927, the total surplus of $12,000,000 made the total stockholders' investment $210, 400,000.

"The year 1925, in business generally has been one of prosperity," said Louis F. Swift, president, in addressing the shareholders.

During the fiscal year ended October 31, 1927, the company paid out for dividends $40,813.25 and allocated $14,462.25 to the trust.

"We look for a satisfactory business in 1928."

AIR MAIL IS DELAYED

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 7 (AP)—Postal mail carried by airplane failed to twelve hours yesterday when a plane entered a dense fog over southern Wyoming and eastern Colorado. Both mails, however, early today, the eastern confidential mail, which had been delayed five days, was delivered.

After the delay, a large crowd was held in the drawing room, from which the improved altar had been removed.

The church, a small, several-room building, was filled with the apparel of the bride and Walter Birch, Jr., a Thompson Bushnell, James Becker, Theodore Lenhart and William Curran.

After the ceremony, a large reception was held in the drawing room, from which the apparel of the former Billie Mackay and her husband, Irving Berlin.

The Berlin, on leaving Atlantic City yesterday, said they had spent the day in the country, after their elopement, and that they were returning to New York that night to attend the wedding of Miss Vanderbilt.

H. Mackay is a close friend of the Vanderbilt family.

Condemned Man Bids
Mother Farewell, To Hang This Morning

Slayer of Phoenix Policeman Will Mount Gallows Today to Pay for Taking Life.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Jan. 7 (AP)—In a state of virtual collapse after paying farewell to his mother, William A.
Lawrence, 16-year-old slayer of State Trooper Phoenix policeman, tonight was spending his last hours in "death row" of the county jail, awaiting execution.
He will be hanged at dawn tomorrow.

The condemned man exchanged no words with his mother and sister when he was carried back to cell after his trial.

During the afternoon he expressed a desire to talk to his brother, Eddie, who is serving time for armed robbery.

He telephoned his mother and she came to the jail, where he had been confined since his arrest.

Walter R. Sims visited Lawrence in his cell early tonight, and said the condemned man would not talk beyond asserting that neither is his brother "Babe," had killed a man near Livingston, Mont., as he had charged.

What shall be his verdict?

Mrs. Packard, W. A. G. Neel, motor-car driver, relented shortly after 10 o'clock Thursday night to deliver to him the $40,000 damage action brought by Mrs. Orris Atches Packard of Pacific.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS START LIBRARY

Collection of Books About Native Americans Gathered at Washington by Organization; States To Help.

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—One of the most unique libraries in the country, a collection of books on and about native Americans, is being assembled at headquarters here of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Bought primarily as an informational source for club women, the completed collection will represent a cross-section of native literature in the non-fiction field. Each state which has been asked to supply at least 12 books by and about persons of its own state, and to date the library numbers more than 1,000 volumes.

Available to Clubs.

It is the purpose of the federation to make the library available to individual clubs and members either through loan of entire books or copied extracts, or by advising where specified books may be found.

Virtually all of the noted American authors are represented in the collection, along with many whose work has received state-wide recognition.

A number of the volumes were obtained through the bearing and giving of local clubs, bearing the name of the federation.

A complete picture of the growth of the states and the nation, with histories of their founders, is presented through a collection of historical tales, poems, works on art, travel, nature and kindred subjects.

The federation is included in its first year of publication in "The History of Alabama," by Albert James Pickett; Helen Keller's "Story of My Life"; "Up From Slavery" by Booker T. Washington; and other volumes dealing with the state and the confederacy.

Mark Twain Books.

Among the books representing Connecticut are Mark Twain's "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" and Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The poems of Sidney Lanier, Georgia poet, were sent from that state while Tennessee gave a volume on his life and work.

Books from Washington and other volumes dealing with the state and the confederacy.

Navy to Native Nations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (UPI)—Four and one-half million dollars will be spent by the members of the department of agriculture in Washington State, all of which will go toward the construction of new buildings.

The money will be used to build a new building for the state department of agriculture, a new building for the state department of education, a new building for the state department of health, and a new building for the state department of labor.

Postage Work.

The poetical works of Joaquin Miller, "The Man with the Hoe," "The Virginian," and "The White Stallion" were sent from California, and George Washington's "Life of John Jay" from New York.

At least one present author will be well represented in the collection. It includes Secretary Mellon's "Taxation: The People's Business," sent by Pennsylvania.

John Dewey, secretary of the headquarters research department and in charge of the library, feels that particular care should be taken of one of the books from West Virginia. It is "Westward and Industrial," by West Virginia and Pennsylvania, by DuBois.

The West Virginia federation had great difficulty in obtaining a copy of the book, which was published in 1924. Only a few copies still remain in the state, one of them being treasured in a safe at the state library.

WHEAT MARKET SHOWS DECLINE

Light Volume of Speculative Buying Given as Reason in Slump in Chicago Exchange.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. (AP)— Disheartened over light volume of new speculative buying, the wheat market let go their wheat holdings today, ending with a loss of 1 cent a bushel.

Wheat futures, which had been in position to avoid some decline, were unresponsive, especially as European markets were unresponsive to yesterday's advance.

Argentina, which "facile" was used to mean the "easier," was not to blame.

North Argentina is not the complete to be the case and that the crop in South Argentina is turning out very well.

Despite a strong rally at one time, owing to reports of a better milling demand, the wheat market was off yesterday, ending with a loss of 1 cent a bushel.

News will continue to come in, the selling and the close left values at virtually the bottom level reached.

American export business for the day was estimated at 1,000,000 bushels.

Nevertheless, premiums for available to be delivered at once were firmer both here and in the south.

Chicago mills still reported as having bought large quantities what at Kansas City.

Although corn finally gave way with yesterday's decline, the market of the day, notwithstanding, was more or less active; meager, Oats were also relatively firm, with rural offering up.

Provisions responded to a more active demand from investors.

WHITE'S PLANT HERE TO OPEN

General Public invited to inspect Building and Equipment of Packing Establishment.

Formal opening of the new plant of Swift and Company in Twin Falls is to take place Saturday morning. A great number of visitors to the plant on this occasion have been made by Dan W. Anderson, Twin Fall manager for the company.

The new plant, which contains a number of the production departments of the packing company, arrived late Thursday from Caldwell where it attended the formal opening of Swift and Company's plant there.

Mr. Collins and Mr. Anderson and six or seven other men were present at the banquet to be given this evening in connection with the mid-winter meeting of the Idaho Editorial association which opened here today.

The new plant and finishing plant here is 73,272 feet and of reinforced concrete, fireproof construction throughout. It is four stories high and contains 100,000 square feet of space. Quarters are provided for feeding, dressing and packing poultry; for grading and packing eggs and for the manufacture of bacon.

The plant is designed for 10,000 hens, and for packing 50,000 pounds of butter and packing 200,000 pounds of eggs each week.

The plant was started last fall, and the building was completed late in November, being occupied a short time later.

There has never been a factory in this region which has had to go to great trouble to increase their flock of heavy hens which provide laborsaving work.

Mr. Anderson stated, poultry raisers of this region have found it difficult to increase their flocks because of heavy hawks which prey upon the birds.

He said that the new plant will bring the type of birds on Idaho farms, let to many instances poultry raisers who kept commercial flocks of turkeys, geese, etc., have added to their flock after learning by streaking also with Plymouth Rock, Brahmas and other birds suitable for dressing.

Both cars were abandoned about 1 o'clock Thursday morning when persons passing saw a young man bring the car to a halt, then leave it in great haste.
