

FRENCH SENATE CONSIDERS BILL

Upper House Takes up Financial Restoration Measures With View to Action Soon.

PARIS, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The Senate will begin discussion of the financial restoration measures tomorrow morning with the intention of concluding Friday, so that the chamber of deputies may have the bill in hand Saturday.

The senators, though not inclined to put in overtime, have agreed to sit from morning until evening until the bills are passed. The impression is growing that the chamber will accept the proposal of the government's plan for financial restoration, may go into effect by the end of the month or soon after.

The regular members of the Senate financial committee met with theпалл deputies today to exchange views on the situation, and reached the general conclusion that a general agreement among the principal opposition to the government's measures was possible under present circumstances. Deputies argued for a reduction of the proposed stamp tax on business transactions while the Senate's "yes" vote is opposed by those who believe it is appropriate when applied to others. The finance minister, M. Doumer, was firm on this point, however, declaring that the stamp tax would remain as it was originally voted with the other taxes voted. The senators, after a conference, appeared inclined to support the government programme at a whole.

YALE CONTENDS
HOMECOMING
NO MAN'S FIELD

Woman Is Made Director of Dining Halls at Old American Men's College After Years of Experimentation.

(By the Associated Press)
NEW HAVEN, Feb. 24.—The old saying that a woman's place is in the home has a modern version that has been proven at Yale university. It is: When home economics are translated into man's domain, the woman wins out.

For many years men managed Commissary, which was a profitable business, but women were not quite balanced enough. Often the deficits were so large that a real problem was offered. Students frequently rebelled because their stomachs were not wholly in sympathy with the menu.

Now that Miss Cora C. Colburn has become formally made director of dining halls at Yale after two years experiment, the university has announced—that women management has rounded the financial angle and lifted the student body above the dangers of dyspepsia.

A policy at Yale for years placed responsibility for student health upon its officers. This year after two years experiment, the university has announced—that the student body under training was demanded lacking unless the university offered courses in home economics.

Miss Colburn was sent to the University of Chicago to work out the meal problem in Carnegie. The corporation made it compulsory for faculty members to eat in the cafeteria.

The upper classes could either have meals or a cafeteria service which Miss Colburn offered.

At first 624 meals a day were served. In December, 1925, the figure had risen to 1012 daily and the average cost at meal in the cafeteria had not exceeded 42 cents.

TAYLOR PLAYERS OFFERING
"The Little 'BOBBIE'" The Taylor Players, an interesting and well-organized amateur theatrical company of the north border land will be presented at the Lavender theater by the Taylor Players, beginning tonight, and running for the half of the week, Saturday matinees.

Besides being a very funny Tony show, different from those that the popular stock companies have presented so far, it is a very touching and stirring situation, dealing with a beautiful love story. The play will prove just as interesting and humorous as any of the company's offerings. "The Little 'BOBBIE'" is the story between two brothers, one a bouncy, bockywoods character, the other an educated rogue. The incidents come quick and fast and will prove interesting from the beginning until the unexpected happens and then all ends well.

Howard Da Silva and Miss Jean Rose of the Playhouse theater, Whittier, Calif., will make their first appearance in "The Little 'BOBBIE'."

"The Girl of the North Woods" They come here highly recommended and will play the leading roles with the company.

John Muller, who played with the company for a short while was called back to Portland to join the Taylor company at the Auditorium theater.

The bill for the first half of next week will be "Sainty" Hymenites and "Honest Blusters," one of the best plays written.

This program with three added features will be shown Saturday matinee at 10 o'clock for the kiddies.

GREAT MYSTERY DRAMA
What is heralded as one of the greatest mystery dramas ever screened is Tod Browning's production of "The Unlikely Three." The picture comes to the Oriental theater for three days, and the audience will be astounded by the number of thrills and sensations.

Reported by Today.com
Market Slight Jump.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—(P)—Downwards in wheat values at Minneapolis, and the market price went to do with a sharp break which was followed here yesterday just before the finish. It was reported that the Canadian growers' wheat pool was selling wheat at 1.65¢ per bushel, while prices on wheat were quoted at 1.67¢ per bushel, a cent lower. May (new) $1.67 1-2¢ to 1.67 1-8¢ and July $1.65 7¢ to 1.65 1-4¢, with corn unchanged to 8¢ higher, and provisions showing 5 to 2¢ declines.

What chiefly damped the order of friends of higher prices, and was failing to encourage the market, failing to allow profitable shipments to Chicago from Minneapolis. Announcement that the world's available supply showed a slight increase, however, for a week tended also to promote liberal selling. This tendency began to develop after an early advance, and was accompanied by a slight upturn on the part of houses with certain exceptions, however, about no declared result until the sudden weakness displayed in the last half of the board of trade session.

Unrest in financial markets, quotations were more or less responsible for initial gains in the wheat market.

Ket house strength at Liverpool was manifested by reports from Australia and India and Australia, Germany had stopped offering wheat abroad.

At present, this was a death of wheat export business in North America, and wheat and the fact that the spread between Chicago may and July deliveries limit wheat exports to more than six cents, according to a report of India's parastatal of New Dehli, wheat which is shipped to Europe were estimated at 160,000 bushels, mostly Canadian.

Taking off in the volume of grain are living here gave firmness to corn and oats. Corn receipts in Chicago today were only 130,000 bushels. Cash demand for corn was considerably improved.

Provisions were weak in line with the hog market.

SHORT CUT BY RAIL AFFECTS EGG PRODUCERS

Twin Falls-Wells Extension Factor in Cooperators' Plan to Put a Canning Station Here.

Advantages of moving Idaho eggs to California markets over the Oregon Short Line extension from Twin Falls to Wells soon likely to figure as a decisive factor for establishment by the Idaho Oregon egg producers of a cannery at Twin Falls.

This is indicated by A. J. Scurer, general manager for the producers association, in a communication received here asking for information on which railroads and their freight rates may be based. Information was requested in regard to the rates on shipments from the association's headquarters at Caldwell to San Francisco, by way of Twin Falls; rate from Twin Falls to Wells; and the additional charge for loading a car, and in addition for having a car sent in transit to Twin Falls.

Members Want Plant Here.

The association for several months has operated a cannery station at Pocatello, and for some time producers in the district have agitated for establishment of a cannery plant as a successful campaign for new members having been carried on in the district with view to supporting it with evidence of large production in this district, the arguments for establishment of the plant here.

OUTLINES PLAN OF CELEBRATION

General Committee Begins Work on Twin Falls Observance of Fourth of July.

Whether key features of Twin Falls' celebration of the Fourth of July should be a historical pageant, a historical and industrial parade, or both, were questions that had not been determined by members of the general committee in charge of arrangements for the observance, which closed last Friday evening. The chamber of commerce offices, but the committee members were in conference and heartily agreed throughout the day on the general character of the observance.

The article includes brief descriptions of cities and communities, scenic attractions and points of historical interest along the route of the Industrial Parade of the Twin Falls-Pocatello and Shoshone Falls in that region. Its purpose, according to editorial policy, is to encourage travel over the route and make it develop and strengthen the road system and the roads that may be used on the route.

Extends Tourist's Possibilities

It appears, from this article, that each community will visit each park, and with the development of good highways between the parks, with good accommodations at the rate, an increasing number of tourists will go to the valley, where there is a variety of scenic attractions.

Definite decision was reached to ensure, if possible, the services of "Tommy" Thompson, exhibition flight director, to make exhibition flights during the celebration.

It was the suggestion of Mayor E. V. Salmon, chairman of the committee, that the invalid, occupied the entire day in district court here Tuesday, and at the close of the hearing Judge John B. Rothwell, presiding, remanded attorney and other defendants, covering legal questions, to the court Wednesday by W. P. Parry, of the Water Power Company, Mutual Canal company, Mr. W. L. Black of Pocatello and W. J. Dunn of Twin Falls, and the irrigation district by J. R. Bothwell of Bothwell & Chapman.

Judge Rothwell announced the following assignment of cases for trial in the cause:

March 3—Higginson Canal company against Twin Falls Canal company; J. K. Knobell, W. E. Eberle and W. L. Eddley; W. A. Leith against Mary P. Higgins, Post Winn, Frank Houseman, J. B. Norris and others.
