The sun had fully risen over the prairie, was dancing over the western slopes, when from a grove of dark pine trees suddenly a young man emerged into the sunlight. He was a slender, well-built youth of about twenty, with a fair complexion and a pair of bright, clear eyes. He was dressed in a light-colored shirt and dark trousers, and he was holding a long, thin stick in his right hand. He looked around him with a keen, alert expression, and then he turned and walked towards the right.

"All right," he said. "Then, as though finding me a logical way, he added:

"You stay here on guard."

Others were listening now, and for their benefit he went on with a flourish. I knew to be accurate: "You brought him in, and you keep him here on guard. Mr. Gilson is in command."

The door had opened again. The killer emerged between two guards, his hands now unbound. There was a yell above his head where the rope laid out. "But he walked straight."

JACK AND GENE
TO TRADE BLOWS

Dempsey and Tunney to Meet
September 16 "Somewhere West of the Hudson."

NEW YORK, June 23. (AP)—The heavyweight championship fight between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney will be held on September 16, "somewhere west of the Hudson river," Texas has been declared today.
The promoter indicated that he now is dealing with interests in Chicago in the might promote the match in the state. He also said that he has an invitation from Mayor Hague of Jersey City to take the match to the big arena at Boyle's Thirty Acres, scene of the 1921 championship fight between Dempsey and Carpentier.

The action of the New York athletic commission yesterday in legislating the match of New York will not affect the principals or the date one bit," declared Richard.

Fight Announced.
"I'm going to promote the fight between Dempsey and Tunney on September 16, and if the New York state athletic commission wants to force me out of the state, I'll go elsewhere," he added.

I was convinced yesterday before I was tried in 1924 when I was considered a traitor to my country, that I would do and I am prepared to continue with my plans despite their standing as traitors."

Richard hinted that a syndicate of Chicago men have interested themselves in the match to the extent of asking for a bribe to promote the fight with his boy. He said negotiations have been going on ever since he was convinced the New York commission was hostile to his plans.

The promoter is understood to have arranged to go to Chicago Saturday to discuss terms with the syndicate there.

WHEAT FARMERS POOLING
CROP; TO DELAY SELLING

WICHITA, Kan., June 23 (AP)— Thousands of farmers in Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska and Colorado will market their 1926 wheat crop cooperatively this fall and winter.

State selling units in these states have combined their membership and resources into the Southwest Co-operative Wheat Growers' association, which will act as the selling agency.

The organization has taken over the sales equipment of the Kansas pool, which includes a 10,000 bushel threshing elevator in Leavenworth and another of 10,000 bushels at Kansas City.

It is planned to obtain control of wheat, store it in the terminal elevators and slowly feed it into the market.

NIGHTINGALES DISLIKE JAZZ ACCOMPANIMENT
OXFORD, England, June 23. (AP)— Nightingales dislike jazz.

They like soft, smooth, mellow music, as was shown by Miss Beatrice Harrison playing her violin as an instrument to the birds in her Surrey garden to sing for millions of listeners of the British Broadcasting company.

The performances last half an hour, always after seven p. m., when the birds are best.

Miss Harrison has often tried jazz and much on the nightingales, but they remain quiet and make no effort to sing as they do nearly always when she plays a sonata or a simple minuet.

At a story that is unusual, written by Jackson Gregory, who is considered to be one of America's fine most writers of western fiction. It is a tale of the rugged northwest, where the overlying splendor of the breeds through tall, stately pine draws strong men into the hills and enchants them. In this setting there is captured a thrilling tale of a battle for fortune and a girl—a girl who has to be tamed like a tigeress.

Famous Play Will Be Given First Night

Pollyanna, about the most famous young lady in the United States, will visit the coming Chautauqua on the opening night. Pollyanna has not only been rendered immortal by the book about her, but she will visit a play that has been one huge success.

In fact, a great many people who have seen the play declare that the play "Pollyanna" is preferable to the book. In the play, all the charming philosophy and delightful whimsicality has been preserved, but still Pollyanna doesn't spend all her time just being glad.

The stage presentation of Pollyanna centers around two love stories and Pollyanna's own adventures in friendship.

The story begins with the preparation at the home of Pollyanna's aunt for the reception of the little orphan girl, who is destined to make such a change in the lives of all the people with whom she comes in contact.

After Pollyanna comes, she immediately makes friends with the former lover of her aunt, and through her they are again brought together renewing the romance of many years before.

In addition, she brings happiness to the man who once was on the point of marrying her mother.

The play is a check full of whole some laughs, many of them being furnished by the maid of Pollyanna's aunt.

It will be given by the Robert Hardy Players, who are exceedingly well known throughout the Chautauqua world, where they have been presenting modern comedy successes for many years. The leads in the company are taken by Robert Hardy and Melba Lee Wright, his wife. The cast also includes Ruth Whitwell, Jessie Hanscom and other well known players.

The appetite of the Chautauqua audience for modern plays appears insatiable so long as they are clean and worthwhile. "Pollyanna" has not heretofore been given throughout the Chautauqua circuit, and the securing of this famous play is another instance of the high quality material which the Chautauqua circuit is known for.

Armstrong from Sheriff McDonald of Douglas stated that the trial was being held in the hall this way.

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—A campaign against snail damage in the spring wheat section of the northwest is expected to yield excellent results, the department of agriculture announced today on the basis of reports indicating that from 70 to 80 per cent of the farmers treated seed before planting.

Not all the mysteries are cleared up. There is one connected with those persons who walk across the continent on wheel perambulators from one section to another or undertake to get the autographs of a thousand mayors all over the world. What one would like to know is who puts up the reward or lays down the other half of the wager. We never hear of him. He is no more a miser and modest than the head of a bookkeeping syndicate and, apparently, every bit as afraid that he will get his deserved punishment—Toledo Blade.
