Committee at Boise Consider Proposals; Other Boards Are Busy With New Legislation(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, Jan. 12.—With little action taken today by either house of the nineteenth legislative session, committees started consideration of possible legislation and other boards were busy with their work.
The committee considered proposals whereby salaries of judges would be increased $1000 to $4000 a year for district judges and $3000 a year for supreme court judges. Proposals which may be formulated in the attitude of the law, however, subject to the attitude of Governor H. C. Baldwin on salary increases.

Ask Game Law Amendment

Fish and game committees in both houses asked for presentation of ideas on amendments to the state game laws. Uniformity game law, in so far as it affects conditions of sport, is a committee's responsibility, members announced.

Plans to add three stories to the present courthouse plant were before the legislature, but no bill was introduced and Senate committee members announced. Thirteen thousand square feet of floor space would be provided by the proposed construction to eliminate present crowded conditions in the courthouse.

The cost is estimated at approximately $100,000. If these additions are authorized, the entire public works department probably would be housed in the new building.

Sugar Tax in Tax Law

In today's session Senator T. H. Rives, Clewiston, introduced senate bill No. 3 amending the net government employer liability for employees' pay tax. Senator Reed's amendment was rejected. It received the support of 21 over 50 years of age and veterans of the Spanish-American and world war, except from poll taxes to file affidavits of affiliation with the state highway department.

Speaker W. B. Gillis announced appointment of the lower committee on transportation, game, grading and dealing. Messers. L. C. Johnson, Pocatello, chairman; Whiting, Twin Falls; Thompson, Lewis; Anderson, Bonneville; Menendall, Bannock; Appel, Gem; and Harrison, Jerome, members. A total appropriation of $25,000 to reimburse legislators for per diem expenses, was referred to the appropriations committee.

OPPOSITION TO
BILL INCREASESHayden and Whittington Join Leatherwood of Utah in Opposing Boulder Dam Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—In a favorable report filed yesterday, the Senate Committee on Irrigation recommended that the bill to increase the proposed construction of the Boulder Dam be passed.

Hayden of Arizona and Whittington of Mississippi expressed their opposition to the bill for construction of the dam, but supported the bill to increase the amount of power.

The cost is estimated at approximately $100,000,000. If these additions are authorized, the entire public works department probably would be housed in the new building.

Sugar Tax in Tax Law

In today's session Senator T. H. Rives, Clewiston, introduced senate bill No. 3 amending the net government employer liability for employees' pay tax.

Speaker Call on President

While Hayden, who served notice that Arizona would carry its own fight against the proposal to the Senate, and Whittington, who also supported the measure, that they would not publish any statement, the two supporters of the irrigation committee—Representatives Hayden of Arizona and Whittington of Mississippi—expressed their opposition to the bill for construction of the dam, but supported the bill to increase the amount of power.

The cost is estimated at approximately $100,000,000. If these additions are authorized, the entire public works department probably would be housed in the new building.

NEGRO KILLED IN GUN FIGHT

Attempt to Shoot His Way to Liberty Through Police Cordon Fatal to Colored Man.

RAN DUKE, Cal., Jan. 12 (UPI)—An attempt to shoot his way through a police cordon to freedom ended in the rampage of a negro, Henry Ford, who, it was learned, had been attempting to visualize the amounts at issue in a suit against the Twin Falls Canal Company.

The testimony here on the $100,000 valuation placed on the canal company by its attorney, which was corroboratively in its infancy, which treasury officials now claim was erroneous, of the enormous profits made by the company defendants in the suit when they were in control of the canal in 1919, of which B. G. Showley, wealthy canny manufacturer, who a negro had kidnapped himself after shooting a negro, and the negro's family, who the negro whose name is believed to be William Smith, fled, resulted in the killing of the boy, who was killed in the course of the invasion.

Mrs. Showley, who had been narrowly escaped death at the hands of a negro, and her children, were staying at Mrs. Showley's home when the negro entered the room. Mrs. Showley was covered with the weapon and told that she would be killed if she did not leave the house.

The negro, who had been through the long and in one leg bad in a critical condition, Mrs. Showley fled and called the police.

KELLOGG MAKES DETAILED EXPLANATION OF POLICY

The activities and plans of the American communists as regards the United States in Mexico and Latin America, Neutrality, Kellogg's plan of action, and other topics in a resolution passed by the central executive committee of the workers (communist) party on November 12, 1926, are to be explained.

The tasks of our party at the present time are those presented by the conditions of imperialism.

Invited to Participate.

Briggs said that in 1925, while he was executive officer of coast guard and naval forces, he was asked to meet Harry C. Coffey, one of the defendants.

In a conversation in which Coffey, Briggs said, tried to induce him to come to the coast guard and offered him the General command to receive $2000 for each trip by the Athena, a 300-ton running schooner.

At the time he met Coffey, Briggs said, then was with Coffey in introduced to him as "Mr. Wilson."

Coffey quoted Coffey as saying that he had evidence of the widespread move ment of the Ku Klux Klan along Wall Street, etc., particularly the present attitude of the Calles government in Mexico, its general Latin Ameri-cism, its tendency toward Central America, the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, and the decision of President Calles to send a personal representative to the Brussels world conference against imperialism.

COURT STUDIES BOARD'S ACTION

Judge H. A. Baker Hears Argument in Proceedings Against Former Commissioners.

Members of Twin Falls county's newly installed board of commissioners and a number of the physicians and dentists who will be applicants at hearing before Judge Tom A. Baker in district court here Wednesday on an order to members of the preceding board of commissioners to show cause why their names be placed on the list of county commissioners—will be present at the conclusion of the hearing. Decision in the hearing that decision would be rendered in a day or two.

The former commissioners were accused by Dr. D. L. Alexander of Twin Falls of being guilty of the Idaho Medical society's of attempting to evade the terms of an injunction against carrying into execution a rule requiring payment for services of an attorney and one-half the cost of a general hospital in addition to charges for use of the operating room. The alleged evasion and contempt consisted in adoption of a new rule that required physicians in pay a certain amount for services of the medical organization, including services of the anesthetist, J. W. Taylor, former county attorney, and his successor, O. W. Williams, in addition to the hearing fees imposed at the time of the original term of the temporary injunction, and changed that the terms of the temporary order had been altered in the permanent injunction.

The case for Dr. Alexander was presented by W. C. Chapman and T. D. well, and Chapman.

AWANTED - A NAME
Who can suggest a name or the new intercourse?

The idea that such selection be made has come to The News from many sources. Up to now the structure has been merely "the bridge," as more recently the "Murray Bridge," in honor of Engineer R. M. Murray, the man first in the field with respect to the bridging of the canyon and who is generally regarded as the pioneer of the enterprise.

Possibly no name at all is necessary, but The News will be glad to receive suggestions from both sides of the River.

TOO MUCH MONEY

Charles Chaplin, screen comedian extraordinaire and product of British pantomime, exhibits himself in new comedy.

No man of the Chaplin type is entitled to be worth ten million dollars. It doesn't matter how he earned it; if he has earned it - the fact of the matter is he isn't fit to buy a tiny amount of utilize or enjoy that amount of money.

The possession of great wealth entails tremendous responsibilities and when by chance or freak of fortune, millions are turned over to the control of those who by birth and education are unfit for the job, strange things happen.

Many a master craftsman has driven out of the strait path by too much money. Their intellects have been equal to the strain of owning it and retaining their balance.

This is one of the main weaknesses of the picture business as at present constituted. Its rewards to popular favorites are too great for their own good or that of the industry.

ONE HUGE ACCOMPLISHMENT

As W. Lester, State Commissioner of Finance, presents a new "Blue Sky" law which aims to disqualify to enforce legislative enterprise and sound business legislation and of the protection of Idaho people, and, the titles reputation from the depreciation of the unscrupulous promoter or stock salesman operating for personal gain only.

If Mr. Porter can design a law which will accomplish this he will have performed a remarkable service.

There can be no question but what people everywhere are being constantly victimized by sharpers in the field of production and finance. Yet so great is the progress in this particular line of work that it is impossible to distinguish, between the good and the bad.

Moreover, attempting "blue sky" legislation is constantly necessary to keep well in sight the fact that one of the hardest things on earth to accomplish is the protection of people against themselves.

Somewhere along the line the professional always outwits the idea that when all is said and done, the man which is to be spent is the spender's own money and his possession carries with him full right to spend it how and where he pleases. The man best on speculation all too often accepts and believes that nothing runs along with him when he goes to the market subject.

Effective laws on the subject of "blue sky" can be passed but they can only be about fifty per cent efficient due to the fact that about that proportion of the lawless are lawless.

There is a simple rule which would help a great deal. If every intending pusher of stocks would first call the author or his family, with his bank's signed word of mice, he would be saved with or without the addition of any new "blue sky" laws.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

The precise significance of the difference between "apparent danger" and "actual danger" will be a primordial issue in the matter that of Dr.

Frank Norris, Fort Worth posturer. Texas criminal law makes such a difference. A majority of States do not take into consideration the two things separately but base their statute upon the matter of self defense from a danger, presumably either real or apparent.

It is a fine point and one which should provide splendid opportunity for the spotting of hairs in between the spelling of words.

If only a few dozen "scholars" could be introduced into

"I want to give you your freedom," I said Ned, "Mother's going to be reasonable and settle down for a while here,

and you're free to do as you like about

about that engagement of yours."

"Mother?" Mary echoed, her lips pursed to ask a question.

"And before she gets here, Ned told her hurriedly, running very close.

"I want to give you your freedom," I said Ned, "Mother's going to be reasonable and settle down for a while here,

and you're free to do as you like about

about that engagement of yours."

He paused, and as she remained silent, continued slowly: "I can't go on this building up as fast as I can and I have done my good."

"In that case," Ned was guiltily thinking, "about-mind-me."

"I really Polly" dried her eyes, lifted her head and looked into Ned's eyes. "I think she should have wanted me to tell her what I had done to her."

He continued a conversation that it's because Mary is uncertain about what's to become of me that she can't decide about her own life, and if I made some definite plan for my future, not too far removed from Peace

Ranger's, then she would be able to take her own happiness, and yours, into consideration."

"Any little compromise on your part would be acceptable." She sat still and waited for him to speak again.

"I don't know. But I'll make it up to you. Ned, I'll marry you."

"Tonight?" Ned told her.

"Yes. John is on his way from the hills—so—determined—determined to bring her home to him."

Then he gave her a quick, frank look as though reading her thoughts and asked thoughtfully, "What's to be done?"

"Oh, I'm deeply interested,"

Polly took off her vanity case and made the necessary repairs.

Ned watched her. "You look lovely,"

he said, smiling.

"I'll be volunteered. Nobody knows but you and I that we're engaged."

"Ned, do you think you could bring yourself to eat me?"

"Ned, I'll be married to you."

"I'll be married to you."

WHEAT SCORES DECIDED UP TURN

Scantiness of Chicago Supplies
Together With Trade Buying Boosts Bread Grain Prices.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12 (AP)—Decided upturn in wheat today resulted largely from scantiness of Chicago stocks and from buying by big traders short of supplies to fill future contracts. When closed yesterday, Jan. 11, at 26 1/2 cents, wheat rose 3 1/2 cents after a decline to 26 1/4 cents and a previous unchanged to 26 1/2.

Contributing to the buying movement in the wheat market was independent strength of rice, which export prices were up 1 cent to 100 cents a bushel, total 450,000 bushels. Meanwhile predictions were current that less than 500,000 bushels of wheat would be an ample first settlement of contracts.

The price of May wheat at the market here shows a greater premium than at present over other domestic centers.

Market Nervous at Close

Above $40 for May, speculative selling of wheat today was resumed.

and the market was at the finish a little lower, but still above $38.

Reports from Argentina were circulated that the movement of wheat from Argentina may expand with a rush, forward in that country being under financial necessity of other hand, if Argentina and Australia ship during the next eight weeks, at the average rate of the last five years, the apparent outlook is that the southern hemisphere will supply about half the European demand.

Corn and oats were governed mostly by the action of wheat and rice. Corn was up 1 cent for the main crop, preceded by snow, over which area.

Provisions were easier on account of a sag in hog values.
