TOBACCO MADE FOR PIPES AND CUT FOR PIPES
-PACKED SENSIBLY AND ECONOMICALLY

- isn't that exactly what pipe smokers want?

AFTER all, what men want is good tobacco, first and foremost; a better packing or lower price is always secondary. And good tobacco is precisely what Granger Rough Cut offers—quality Burley of the ripest, richest grade, specially made by "Wellman's Method," an old-time secret for sealing in the flavor. What's more, the "Rough Cut" is the one way pipe tobacco should be cut for cool smoking.

The lower price is welcome, of course—but it's what's inside that has made Granger the most talked-about new brand in all our experience.

Idaho State Grange Master Tells Results of Study of American Farmers' Problem

A serious inquiry into agricultural conditions and the problem of distribution, and declarations for readjustment of Idaho's tax laws and adoption of a state-wide fair system of public schools were outstanding features of the annual address delivered by W. W. DeWitt, master of the Idaho state grange, at the nineteenth annual meeting of the state grange at its opening session here Tuesday.

The grange master said:

The Idaho State Grange at its annual session in the year 1927 comes before the public to render its annual report on the progress of its work during the year. It has taken into consideration the various problems pertaining to agriculture, the betterment of the home, school and common law, and the general welfare of the people. It might be well to state that the grange position in carrying out its time honored principles is challenged by no one.

It seems the grange is expected to be the spokesman for organized agriculture and the farm folks in our fair state, and to fall to do so would be tragic.

It is a matter of great joy that this little city, Twin Falls, should so graciously have afforded the grange a hearty, home-like and unimpaired hospitality to this nineteenth annual session of the grange. Only a few years ago did the grange begin its existence in organization in this highly productive county or our state. When we first started, however, it was not long until these farmers realized the value of organization and they promptly proceeded to make Twin Falls county the largest grange territory in the state with two or three communities in this county now covered by the grange organization.

No visitor to this session can possibly have a shadow of doubt as to the quality and size of the welcome we have here; and our country is like that of a vigorous giant returning to receive the honors of a gracious home folk.

Condition of Agriculture

The agricultural people are more and more in need of an organized industry which will learn, work and think in the aggregate, and who have learned that and only by so doing, that to thrive alone is defeat and failure.

In the past we have powerfully organized business and finance because the grange has been in agriculture. Here we find it behooves us to do our own thinking and judiciously speaking as well.

It seems necessary to again refer to the fact that the prosperity so repeatedly heralded in the newspapers, is not so much as it once was. The price of the products of the farm cannot be marketed at a margin above cost of production, or that the producer cannot so finance himself that he can take advantage of a better price, or that he may realize a profit instead of the dumping process of the present.

Distribution

A correction of the present plight of the farmer must of necessity come in a better financed and orderly marketing of our staple products. The necessity of agriculture always largely upon the personality conducted "hand-to-hand" which the farmer delivers his products to the consumer direct from the farm by his own effort.

No such emphasis cannot be placed upon Idaho's great possibilities in advanced dairying, poultry raising, together with the solution of the hay problem, the grain problem, the forage problem, and an understanding value of the hog and sheep on every farm.

The saying of the National Grange of half a century stands true today: "Diversify our crops, and crop no more than we can utilize in our own use, the weight of exports, selling less in bushel and more on hoof and in fleece, less in wool and more in cashmere, and intelligently on probabilities, to diversify the credit system, the mortgage system, the friction system and every system tending to prodigality and extravagance."

We again refer to the necessity for action on the part of our legislature to protect our rapidly growing dairy industry, our wool industry, and the en-increase in its force and recognition as the spokesman for organized agriculture in America. Its office at Washington can constantly add to answer as to the needs and desires of the farmers in any section of the country.

The sixtieth annual session was held in Portland, Maine, in November last and was a telling effort of grange solidarity. Through the united and attentive attendance of grange members reached as high as 12,000 and a class of 7200 were initiated into the highest degree of membership.

The propositions at Portland were the most outstanding, clear and determined ever given by the organized farmers of the nation.

Among the most outstanding were: 1. Universal efforts to enact a Truth in Politics law. 2. A system of cooperative marketing. 3. Development of merchant marine, and private ownership as far as possible. 4. A system of taxation based upon ability to pay and benefits received. 5. A national stand in favor of direct primary.

Delegates on tour have had to spend on our ships beyond the 12-mile limit or anywhere else in the world.

Thorough investigation of the entire railroad rate structure and a square deal for agricultural transportation. 6. A national stand in stamp out tuberculosis in cattle. 7. A national stand to restrict sale of limitation of dairy products. 8. A national stand for conservation of water and labor in time of war along with conservation of our resources.

The National Grange is rightly opposed any weakening of constitutional prohibition or of the laws, national and state for the enforcement of the same. 9. A national stand for the regulation of the manufacture of liquor. 10. Oppose the return of surplus income tax to taxpayers, but that surplus should be used to pay the war debts. 11. Says—Keep farm loan system out of treasury department and leave it where it is.

12. Says—That reduce tariff on vegetable oils or other ingredients of foreign production used in the manufacture of dairy substitutes. 13. Says—No rules in parcel post rates or contribution of service, but use more business like methods of operation as for that over. 14. Says—No new reclamation projects till all those in use shall be completed and their lands put in more farm land.

15. Says—No department of education in federal government. 16. Says—No monopoly of water, power, rights granted to any one, either timber lands, or other natural resources belonging to the people. 17. Says—No consolidation of foreign debts, but all principal and interest shall be paid the same as individuals have loans in common law. 18. Says—Stop the fighting privilege as an experiment in the post office department. 19. Says—No return to free seeds. 20. Says—No putting rural mail under contract system.

21. Says—No farm of sales tax. 22. The National Grange measure for farm relief is in brief the only workable plan so far offered and is an expert adequate plan for farm production. Congress is urged to enact the measure of the same in time for the disposal of the 1927 crops.

National Grange Monthly

Again we call attention to the subscription of the National Grange Monthly in every grange home. The plan for distribution of this grange paper this year is as follows: That a club rate of $3 for the thirteen officers for one year. That the 12c per member rate stands as before in local granges where it is desired. A single subscription shall be for 50c per year. Or that if a State Grange desires to contract with the National Grange, that a club rate of $100 subscription shall be had to be sent to the National Grange.

Peace

Current reports are that the United States would remain neutral in the European war. It does not seem to matter much where or what the cause, just as we are in it, and the aggressor is almost anywhere and whenever he may be. It seems that American interests and people are at stake. It should be the premise of every loyal American to hold himself in the spirit of peace and good will toward the rest of the world and demand that where differences may occur our first policy instinctively should be peace and compromise. The very spirit of Christian civilization, and that which may hold her place in leadership, following the example of the Man of Galilee.

Law Enforcement

The grange has stood for a full sixty years without a tariff on its record which has enabled it to preserve its character. As it has stood before, it stands unwaveringly today that a law breaker, whether of the eighteenth amendment or any other law, shall be dealt with according to the gravity of the offense and that there shall be no leniency as law when men die. A farmer peace officer of Idaho recently said that the better citizenry of the citizenship either is afraid or indifferent in the support of the laws of the land, regarding the law breakers and lawless behavior of our corrupt politicians.

The department of fire insurance has proven its worth and stability again this year. It is stronger and better by far than ever. It has saved many lives and dollars for the members of the grange and is continually going stronger. When the secretary makes his degree work and a stabilizing of the organization in its every line.

The new constitution and by-laws to make them conform an expected notice should be taken of the Farmers as it is out of harmony with the higher body in several places. The Farmers should also collect a higher dues and contribute to the support of the State Grange at least enough to pay the cost of the representation of the State Grange.

Juvenile Granges

We are pleased to report progress in the juvenile work in Idaho and ask that you consider the same in your own territory. There should be a juvenile slogan: "A juvenile connected with each authorized grange in Idaho."

Publicly

The need of publicity service for the grange has become so essential and has increased so rapidly within the last few years, that some action looking to a state wide publication, owned and controlled by the grange, seems now a necessity. We should have, and that immediately a publication through which we may disseminate our news, state, and keep the public advised of our efforts; for the advance and interests of agriculture, education, the farm home and all things pertaining to the upbuilding permanency in this great state. I am asking that this matter be taken into special notice and the executive committee and a report, early in the session be had upon their findings, that the voting body may have time to act with a mature judgment.

Our Future

As time fleets by, our organization increases our size and decreases our age. While young men and women are taking their places in the active efforts, others have served, and have laid down their lives in the struggle and stepped into that place of rest which the great Master of eternity has provided for them.

Our worthy chairman will prepare a suitable service of remembrance at some convenient time during the session, that we may commemorate those who have fallen by our side; that the fallen shall not be forgotten.

In conclusion we at this time hold both ways—backward to review our past and check up on our doing for ourselves, and the great cause we represent.

DANCELAND
Wednesday, Jan. 19
LET'S GO!

13. Says—No consolidation of foreign debts, but all principal and interest shall be paid the same as individuals have loans in common law. 14. Says—Stop the fighting privilege as an experiment in the post office department. 15. Says—No return to free seeds. 16. Says—No putting rural mail under contract system.

17. Says—No farm of sales tax. 18. The National Grange measure for farm relief is in brief the only workable plan so far offered and is an expert adequate plan for farm production. Congress is urged to enact the measure of the same in time for the disposal of the 1927 crops.

19. Says—No department of education in federal government. 20. Says—No monopoly of water, power, rights granted to any one, either timber lands, or other natural resources belonging to the people. 21. Says—No consolidation of foreign debts, but all principal and interest shall be paid the same as individuals have loans in common law. 22. Says—Stop the fighting privilege as an experiment in the post office department. 23. Says—No return to free seeds. 24. Says—No putting rural mail under contract system.

ORANGE PEKOE

Schilling Tea

The only tea whose flavor is completely protected - - kept fresh and fragrant from tea-garden to tea table. Five kinds of protection - - all exclusively Schilling - for the true tea flavors known only in the Orient: (1) Twice-toasted - - the only way to unmask rich hidden flavors of a tea leaf. (2) Then the leaves sealed in vacuum (like your coffee) - - but sealed HOT at its most aromatic moment.

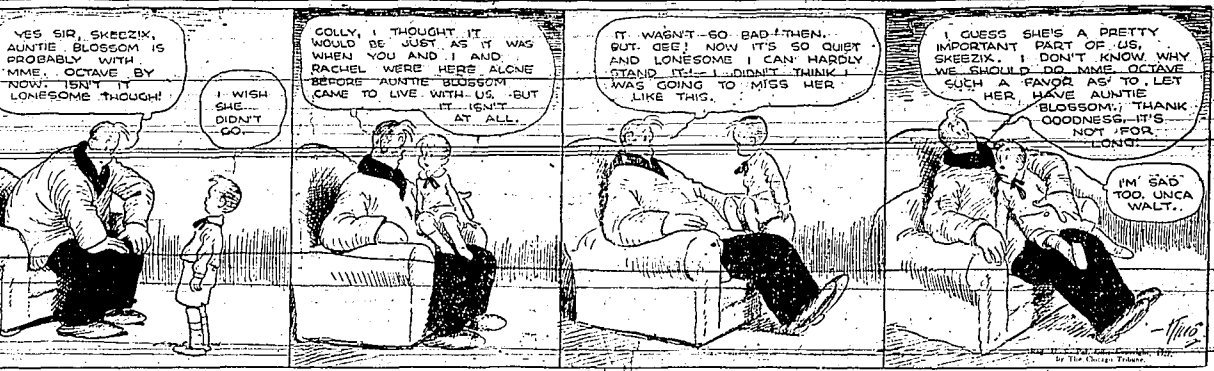

(3) The world's only key-wind vacuum tin for tea - - with a Snug Cover - - to protect it even after you open it. (4) Of the many grades of Orange Pekoe, only the choicest, most fragrant, are blended with Pekoe in Schilling's. (5) Your gracie protects you - - he returns your money instantly if you don't believe it the finest tea that has ever entered your home.

100-MILE TRAIN NECESSARY FOR YEAR'S SHIPPING

Twin-Falls Chamber of Commerce in Cooperation With Carriers Compiles Interesting Data on Products Movement.

A freight train 100 miles long would be required to transport all of the products and merchandise shipped out of Twin Falls during the year, according to records compiled by Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the carriers. The figures are based on the year's output of agricultural products in this region and the movement of goods and dairy products.
