

MAKE CHANGES IN PRAYER BOOK

First Alterations in 265 Years Announced Before Synods of Canterbury and York.

LONDON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The first changes made in the book of common prayer in 265 years were announced today in a hubbub session of the convocation of the two great synods of the English church, Canterbury and York.

Result of Long Deliberations—The convocation of the two great synods of the English church, Canterbury and York, met today for the first time in more than a century, when the Archbishop of Canterbury presided from the table in the great choir of the cathedral.

Minister's Rights Absolute—Although many concessions are made to ritually give service of ceremony a dignity and solemnity which were formerly forbidden, the right of a minister to retain the use of the old book of common prayer is absolute, neither his bishop nor his congregation can compel him to use the alternative service.

The Archbishop of York is understood to have long held certain alterations in the marriage service. These include "suffraging" of prayer. For instance, the priest may say "I commend thee to the protection of children," and he may say "I commend thee to the protection of children."

MINISTERS CONSIDERING DEFECTION OF TROOPS

LONDON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Although no decision has been reached, it is understood that the cabinet of today's four hour cabinet session, seriously considered the possibility of a defection of the British defense forces en route to Shanghai, to Hong Kong.

DIACONIA DEVELOPMENTS

The cabinet session had before it the latest developments in the Diaconia situation as reported by Minister Miles Lamson at Peking and Charge d'Affaires O'Malley during the week end.

Much of the future course of Great Britain will naturally depend on the movement of affairs in China and it is expected that the question of deferring the Shanghai defense course will be allowed to simmer pending the outcome of Secretary of State Kellogg's suggestions.

don't wait until midnight

Many telephone users stay up until midnight to place Long Distance calls. They want to take advantage of the lowest rates. That's not necessary now.

The reduced rate periods begin at 7 p. m., and the lowest rate can be had on calls between 8:30 p. m. and 4:30 a. m.

Long Distance rates are reduced only on Station-to-Station calls. These are calls on which you ask to be connected with a certain telephone at a distant place and express your willingness to talk to ANYONE who may answer there.

Calls Placed and Completed During These Hours Take the Day Rate: 4:30 a.m. Station-to-Station calls in this period take a rate around one-fourth that of a Station-to-Station call. Most business calls are placed 7:00 p.m. during the ordinary office hours of the day.

Calls Placed and Completed During These Hours Take the Evening Rate: 7:00 p.m. The evening rate is about one-fourth less than the Station-to-Station Day rate. You are almost certain to find your party at home. 8:30 p.m. It is the favorite hour for social calls to distant friends or relatives.

Calls Placed and Completed During These Hours Take the Night Rate: 8:30 p.m. The Night rate is about one-half less than the Station-to-Station Day rate. Note that the period no longer begins at midnight but at the first six o'clock hour of 8:30 o'clock. No one is watching to get the lowest rate.

2 things to remember: 1. You can now have your Station-to-Station calls billed at the same rate as if you charged them to your own account, providing the rate is 25 cents or more.

There is no reduction during the evening and night hours for Person-to-Person calls. When you ask for a C.R.E. (Call Return Extension) the rate is the same, no matter at what hour the call is placed. There is no reduction below a minimum of 35 cents.

Local Hoopsters to Travel, Instead of Meeting West, Boys on Twin Falls Court.

The Bruins will journey to Bull tonight for the basket ball game instead of the game being played on the local court as announced Sunday. This will give the boys the advantage of playing on the larger court for the first time they meet the opponents.

The Bruins displayed a real improvement in their court work during the last week and although they will meet the Bruins at forward, Hines has worked into the team like a veteran. Hines should have recovered from his injury before the foot light and be able to hit the hoop with more regularity. If Hollis Martin continues to go like he did against the Bruins he will make Kells' hard for high point men in every game.

Bull-Team Undefeated
The Bulls are strong and will give the Bruins a real battle. The west end team is perhaps the fastest team in the district and have had several victories. Davis and Thomson are two brilliant performers and are being counted upon for many points in any game.
The girls' teams will also play and although it seems to be conceded that the Bruins' chance of defeating the Bulls is remote, the local boys have shown real improvement and the game will be worth watching. The Bruins are at an advantage in the delegation of fans will journey to the west end city to see the game.

BASEBALL STARS IN VARIED ROLES

Cobb, Hornsby and Penneck Hold Lime Light in Latest Developments of Diamond.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—Three major league stars, cast in widely different roles, held conspicuous places in important baseball developments today on the eve of major league action. Babe Ruth, pitcher for the Yankees, Herb Pennock, and Rogers Hornsby, shortstop for the Cardinals, were the stars. Announcement by Cobb that he had "made up his mind" to offer for his season was another development. Hornsby is reported to be in the Philadelphia Athletics' lineup with series pitching here of the Yankees, which stands in the way of his appearance in New York uniform.

Clunker Discharged
A conference between Penneck and Manager Ewing Ruggles' decision on the first time that the slim left-hander is discharged with the terms of his contract. Penneck and Ruggles were closeted for more than an hour. At the end of the confab, Penneck announced his demand for a substantial increase had not been met. He will return here Thursday for another conference.
Although Hornsby said he did not seek the aid of the New York club, disposing of his contract was the erstwhile Cardinal pilot said he would accept an agreement in principle. Selection of a committee of three—two from the Giants, one from the Cardinals and one representing Hornsby, has been suggested.
The former National league hitting champion asserted, however, that he must get his price of $105 a share or there would be "no Hornsby here this next summer." He holds more than 1000 shares of Cardinal stock.

AUTHORITIES INSIST ON BONDS FOR GIRL BANDIT

VERMILION, S. D., Feb. 7 (AP)—City county authorities clashed today over the decision of the county board that Miss Marian Meyers was insane when she tried to rob a bank here early last Saturday.

In this decision he was supported by Sheriff James Partridge, who said he could not permit the girl's transfer to the state hospital at Yankton for observation until the bond had been posted for her release from jail.
Miss Meyers, who confessed she tried to rob the First National bank here to get $24 to pay tuition fees, had been ordered held in the circuit court when she was held preliminary examination in justice court before the county board judge.

The building is 25x40 feet and will make a most desirable lodge hall when its work of remodeling by the grange is completed. The Hillsdale grange has had a building fund for several years which has increased to such an extent that the purchase of a hall was deemed advisable. The building was purchased from E. D. Stribling Wins From Huffman in Fournery Battle

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—William J. (Young) Stribling, making his debut in Tex Rickard's heavyweight elimination tournament, effort and jolled his way to victory over Eddie Huffman of Los Angeles tonight in a bruising eight-round fight before a crowd of 1000, the smallest of the indoor season.
It was Stribling's first bout in New York since he was championed by Paul Bernbach for the light heavyweight title last May, but the southerner, while he clearly outpointed and outboxed his rugged rival, failed to add materially to his prospects as a heavyweight contender in the judgment of most ring-side critics.

DISPUTES OVER POTATO DEALS OCCUPY COURT

Last Jury of Term Hears Contentions in One Suit Over Spuds After Another Tuberc Controversy Blows Up.

Disputes over potato deals will claim the attention of the last jury of the current term of district court here. All jurors will be excused for the term on Monday, and the session will begin Monday in the case of E. E. Lyon against J. B. Long, an action for recovery of a carload of potatoes which Long claims to have purchased from Lyon.

Judge W. A. Babcock announced Monday the adjournment of the number of court cases to be tried here next week by Judge Hugh A. Baker. Judge Babcock will spend next week in district court in August.

Trial in the last jury case of the term was begun Monday morning when the attention of the jury was called by Charles M. Neenan, involving disputes over a potato deal in 1922. The jury was to hear the case for a day and a half and had been selected by a jury and introduction of plaintiff's evidence.

Sickness Blocks Trial.
Failing of the jury Monday morning disclosed absence of one juror, William Oshawa, who was reported to be suffering from a severe attack of neuritis. Oshawa, who had been called to court from North and Ray Aves., declined to continue the trial before a short jury, and the entire case was postponed to the next jury and repeating taking of evidence, advising continuation of the trial to the November term.

A member of the plaintiff corporation who lives in Chicago had been here for nearly two weeks to take part in the trial which had been assigned originally for the same day as trial in the Triguero estate case that was being heard by Judge Babcock. The plaintiff represented the plaintiff in this case, and is attorney for the defendant in the case of Long against Lyon.

Claims Contract Forfeited.
Lyon, in the case in which trial began Monday, seeks to recover the value of a carload of potatoes, which Long claims to have taken under terms of a contract for purchase of Long's potatoes last fall. Lyon claims that the contract was forfeited when Long refused to pay the contract price for the carload of potatoes that Lyon delivered to him.

"BARBARA WORTH" AT IDAHO Theatre and through advance plans for health preservation and accident prevention possibly saved the life of Clara Worth during the long and arduous period of the Henry King production. "The Winning of Barbara Worth" for Samuel Goldwyn. The picture will open at the Idaho theatre tomorrow night.

According to the script, Miss Blanky was being on the ground when Gary Cooper, as Alce Lee, rode to her rescue on a spotted desert Mustang. At the last moment, as the scene was being filmed, the horse reared and his hoofs crushed Miss Blanky's legs into the ground. One of the feet that splashed was on a bed of soft mud and saved the actress from a broken leg. As it was, Miss Blanky suffered torn ligaments and severe contusions.

Illness Blocks Trial.
Failing of the jury Monday morning disclosed absence of one juror, William Oshawa, who was reported to be suffering from a severe attack of neuritis. Oshawa, who had been called to court from North and Ray Aves., declined to continue the trial before a short jury, and the entire case was postponed to the next jury and repeating taking of evidence, advising continuation of the trial to the November term.

RECORDS VIEWS ON LEGISLATION

Chamber of Commerce Committee Indorses Band Tax Bill and Power Plant Plan.

One measure already introduced in the legislature and another proposed bill were endorsed by Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce state relations committee in session Monday evening following a regular meeting of the chamber's directors.

The committee gave its endorsement to a bill that would permit citizens to vote on municipal tax levy for support of municipal bonds.

It also stamped with its approval a measure prepared by S. Chard Stewart, county assessor, to provide for apportionment of power plant taxes among counties in proportion to the mileage of transmission or distribution lines in each county, instead of division of all such taxes to the counties in which these plants are situated.

The committee declined, without further study, to take action in regard to a bill introduced in the senate to permit municipal corporations to make contracts to cover interest and depreciation on account of water, power and light systems, in addition to general operating expenses.

It adopted a similar course with respect to a bill that would place "recreational" insurance companies on the same basis with other insurance companies operating in the state.

CHILDREN TAKE PART IN TEMPERANCE PROGRAM

KIMBERLY, Feb. 7.—Boys and girls representing men and women in many walks of life in a pantomime that was a feature of a Women's Christian Temperance Union program recently given in the high school auditorium here, were captured and bound by others wearing black masks and impersonating the saloon-keeper, brewer and distiller. Captives subsequently were liberated and in a pretty scene pledged their allegiance to the constitution and the flag.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Gray. It included some special readings and music and addresses by Rev. Valentine Deich, pastor of the Hansen Methodist church, who discussed "Sovereignty of Prohibition," and Evangelist W. J. Strunk, who is conducting revival services in the Kimberly Christian church, who discussed the Local Temperance League. Prayer at the opening of the program was offered by Rev. J. Elliott-Simony, pastor of the Kimberly Christian church.

ADOPTS STAND FOR INCREASED WATER RATES

Commissioner of Finance Outlines Policy if Legislation Makes Possible Change for Debt Against Consumer.

J. S. Keel, commissioner of finance, told his colleagues of Twin Falls city council in regular session Monday evening that he would favor doubling Twin Falls present water rates if a bill introduced in the legislature will, which becomes law, permit some of the proceeds to be used to cover interest on its indebtedness in addition to other items pertaining to general operating expenses. The bill, Mr. Keel declared, is likely to be passed by the legislature. He referred to the measure as the Ashton bill, since Mayor E. L. Ashton last week requested Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce state legislative committee at public meeting to give its endorsement to the same.

Other Arguments
 "I shall favor doubling the present water rates," Mr. Keel asserted, "because I believe it is right. The waterworks system is not self-supporting now, and it does not seem to me to be fair to charge rates on that basis. Revenues on the present rates, which amount to approximately $42,000, will require an additional $27,500. I believe that consumers should pay a rate that will maintain the system in a self-supporting basis, and a system that cannot pay its debts is not self-supporting."

Water Objections
 Pointing out an objection to the finance commissioner's position, E. M. Sweeley, city attorney and former chairman of the public utility commission, argued that if consumers were required to pay all of the expenses in connection with the water system, owners of property on which water was consumed would be relieved of any share in that expense. He thought that the water system is established and available.

Doubling of water rates, T. J. Douglass, commissioner of public grounds suggested, would bring about a condition where many farms would be permitted to burn out. Discussion of water rates entered the council's deliberations when its contract for water review for the Oregon Short Line was presented. In its original form the contract provided for a year's continuation of the contract for a year's continuation of the contract.

...but that terms of three of the council members would expire before expiration of the contract in that form and would be back with request that it be amended in that respect. In its amended form it was approved by the council.

Flight Maximum Levy Boost
 Influence is being brought to bear to kill the income tax bill that was passed by the house last week to advance the maximum tax that municipalities could collect from the property owned by the voters from 10 to 15 percent. It is believed that many of the members of the legislature will vote against that measure. Mr. Keel argued that few if any municipalities would resist temptation to make the larger levy and spend the proceeds. "We started here four years ago with a bill in the city treasury amounting to $10,000 that had been increased with the 15 percent levy, and we have succeeded in wiping out this deficit with a 10 percent levy," Mr. Keel stated.

Other members of the council expressed the opinion that it might be well to provide an easier way for extending the maximum tax on property when an increase in the levy was deemed desirable. Personal law, the city attorney advised, permits increase in the levy without obtaining approval of the voters in cases of emergency. First, for restoring permanent improvements, and second, for satisfying judgment against the city.

Expands Improvement Program
 The city's proposed program of street and sidewalk building for the coming season was expanded Monday evening to include a street improvement program. It was decided at a local improvement district for grading and graveling 19th avenue east from the end of the pavement on Second street to a point two blocks east of Blue Lakes boulevard. Excavation for similar work is being done on Fourth street west of 19th avenue south. It was announced Monday evening by Mr. Haines, the new engineer in charge of Twin Falls in the foregoing line, having been established by Mr. Hollingsworth more than a decade ago. Mr. Hollingsworth, it was stated, will devote his entire attention to his other state, located in the Elks building on Shoshone street north.

Mr. Haines, who for the past 12 years has been managing of the store which he has purchased, Monday evening announced that he would carry a complete line of standard home furnishings and second hand furniture at his place of business.

TWO THEFTS CHARGED TO MAN ARRESTED HERE
 Accused of theft of an overcoat, shirt and $25.00 in money from Cash Bros. store, the man was arrested by Donald Leht, who was arrested Sunday by a deputy sheriff on a warrant charging petty larceny. Leht also is accused in a similar charge on the same day of failing to return a shotgun which he had rented there last January.

It was announced Monday evening by Mr. Haines, the new engineer in charge of Twin Falls in the foregoing line, having been established by Mr. Hollingsworth more than a decade ago. Mr. Hollingsworth, it was stated, will devote his entire attention to his other state, located in the Elks building on Shoshone street north.

California Markets Take More Potatoes
 Six carloads of Twin Falls potatoes were shipped last Friday over the Twin Falls-Wells line to California markets, according to the United States department of agriculture market news service. Two carloads out of the total shipment were sent to San Francisco, three to San Jose and one to Berkeley. On the same day 15 carloads of Idaho potatoes for California markets passed through Salt Lake City en route to Los Angeles and one each to San Bernardino, Glendale, Long Beach, San Bernardino, Marysville and Oakland. Idaho potato shipments for the past week amounted to 491 cars, just over the 50 per cent mark. Of these, 117 went west, with 26 to southern California and 36 to the northern district. Idaho arrivals in Chicago totaled 101 cars, equivalent to almost a fifth of the shipments. Total United States shipments have increased to a daily average of 725 cars.

Only a trace of precipitation was recorded at the government weather observatory's station Monday. Both days were partly cloudy and a light wind from the east was noticeable Sunday evening.

BEAN CLEANERS SEEK PLACE TO DUMP DIRT
 A Twin Falls bean cleaning plant is looking for a place to dump 200 sacks of dirt removed from bean hanks during the past season, members of Twin Falls city council were told Monday evening. This dirt, the street commissioner stated, will not pack and is therefore not suitable for use in street improvement. It would be excellent material for filling in property that is below sidewalk and street grade, another member of the council suggested. No definite solution for the bean cleaners' problem came out of the discussion, unless it should suggest to the owner of a nearby building a possibility for improving his property at nominal expense.

SALMON LANDS UNDER OPTION
 Canal Company Ties Up All Territory Under "A" System in Elimination Program.
 Salmon River Canal company's program for improving the Salmon River project's water right by elimination of approximately 2500 acres of land from the project, recorded a major achievement Monday when it was announced by Nelson Hayward, president of the canal company, the task of obtaining options for purchase of all of the land under the "A" system was completed.
 These lands, which are situated for elimination are located at the south and east end of the project and are served with irrigation water through a lateral which will be abandoned in pursuance of the elimination program.
 Options covering the lands to be eliminated have been obtained for the canal company by Ernest G. Day, who has also to his credit the successful effort to obtain the right of way for the Boise main line railroad. Mr. Day's work for the Salmon River company has extended over a period of some weeks.
 The elimination program was approved by the Salmon River company's stockholders at a special meeting last July.
 Mr. Hayward and Mr. Day will go today to Boise to work out details in connection with finalizing of the program.
