PROMISES SIX MEN TO BRUINS

Local Baseball Directors Read Letter From President Moring of Sacramento Club.

Baker's hitting and fielding ability would be useful to any club and the Bruins' strength would be materially increased.

A feature of the league schedule that has been mentioned, it was said, is the fact that the Bruins will alternate two weeks at home with two-weeks away. This will give the baseball fans a change to take a vacation without missing out on the games. One hundred games will be played, 50 at home and the same number away.

BIG TABERNACLE RISES IN DAY

More Than 60 Volunteer Workers Construct Building to House Revival Campaign.

Sixty-two volunteer workers in a single day's time built Thursday the wooden tabernacle that stands at the corner of Third avenue and Second street north, in which a five weeks evangelistic campaign to be conducted by Dr. Edward A. Buhler of Portland will be launched here next Sunday.

Carpenters and School Boys

Volunteer workers included, it was said, all of the carpenters in Twin Falls and members of the high school H. Y. society. Work began at 7:30 in the morning and before 6 P. M. the entire structure had been erected and shored with black building paper. Blotter for the women was served in noon in the Baptist hall by women of the churches cooperating in the evangelistic campaign.

Dr. Buhler is expected to arrive here late this week. He concluded last Sunday an evangelistic campaign in California. Two more days of his party are ready on the ground here. They are Dr. H. S. Campbell, platform manager, who arrived last Saturday, and Rev. Rex Gault, who is in charge of young people's work, who arrived Thursday evening.

Twelve churches cooperating in the campaign are the Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian, Baptist and Church of the Brethren.

ROGERSON—R. R. Richmond;

Eden High School. The morning session was devoted to the conducting of a model school in which a number of new methods were introduced. In the afternoon a number of important questions pertaining to the problems of the Eden teachers were up for discussion. One of the speakers of the day was the picnic dinner, which was served by the patron of the Sugar Leaf district. Beside the large number of teachers that attended, quite a number of trustees turned out. The Eden schools, while not considered as a rural one, were asked to have their teachers attend—and a holiday for the entire day was sanctioned. Next Friday evening is the date set for the giving of the musical show by the Eden Parent-Teacher association. The affair is to be held at the high school and the net proceeds of the entertainment are to be utilized for the paying of expenses of a delegate to the state annual Teacher's convention annual convention that meets at Caldwell next month.

The Glenside Girls of the M. E. A. of the L. H. S. church entertained the 20 men with a St. Patrick's party Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Phyllis Hoggan on Ninth avenue east.

Miss Thelma Soristation and Miss Thelma, president and vice president, welcomed the guests, who were presented with "recipe" paper, from which they made cups to be worn during the evening.

The evening was delightfully spent with a variety of clever games arranged by Misses Wida Hammond and Edith Butler. Miss Phyllis Kirkman was chairman of the refreshment committee, who served dainty refreshments carrying out a color scheme of green and white. Forty-two guests were present.

Mrs. D. L. Alexander entertained the Episcopal church Thursday afternoon at her home on Eighth avenue north. The president, Mrs. Walter W. Gwin, presided over the business session, at which time plans were completed for a dinner to be given Saturday evening, April 2, in connection with which there will be a sale of aprons and tea towels.

Mrs. Alexander gave a splendid paper on "Church Hymns," and followed with a brief and interesting talk on the subject. A delightful social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Dwight and Mrs. D. P. Duggan, served refreshments.

In the case of William Edelvick and Sabina Edelvick, associated under the firm name of the Twin Falls Junk House, against the Idaho Junk House and others, Judge W. A. Hulsebeck in district court here Thursday signed three court orders disposing of defendants' motions.

The first order granted motion to strike plaintiffs' cost bill, including attorneys' fees allowed by the court.

The second order denied defendants' motion for a new trial, and the third order denied motion to modify the judgment.

Blaze Levels Curry Farm Home to Ashes

Fire, of unknown origin early Thursday morning destroyed the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. John Downing three miles north of Curry. The home was not discovered by the firemen until it had made considerable progress, and Mr. and Mrs. Downing escaped only a few minutes before the four-room structure collapsed. Household furnishings were completely destroyed and total damage was estimated at $15,000.

A load of corn which had been parked during the evening close to the house was removed from the scene by Mr. Downing without extensive damage.

Possibility was indicated that the fire was caused by an overheated boiler in which several dozen chickens were being cooked. The boiler and small building were consumed, and the fire, when discovered, had so far demolished the house and its contents, that an effort to extinguish it was not made.
