Considerable discussion has been going on among the local fishermen a letter received yesterday from the state department of fish and game, Portland, Ore., which indicates that Snake River will be closed to fishing, as a navigable stream. The reply received would seem to indicate that the Snake River will be closed to fishing together with all streams after May 31, and hereafter will be opened and closed to fishing like all other streams, navigable or not. No one here seems to know the exact scope of the law, but it will be explained by H. E. Williams, state warden, when he arrives Saturday.

REED DISSECTS ACTIONS OF PLAINTIFF IN SUIT

Reed said he was not functioning at the present time. It was his fault, wasn't it? Reed asked.

The answer was always negative. Senator Reed devoted a great deal of time to his fight with the plaintiff, the northwest wheat growers and he was instrumental in obtaining for them a $100,000 bond. He was also instrumental in getting for his services charged $5000. The growers balked at the price and of Reed's $100,000 bond.

"The association is dead now, a fact," Reed said.

Reed began a lengthy explanation of his fight with the American Wheat Growers.

"After headquarters were moved from Spokane to St. Paul, the northwest growers still functioned under their own name," said Reed.

"A western division," Reed said.

"And they are now no longer functioning."

Reed said he could not say definitely.

BOISE, March 31 (AP)—Idaho's sterilization law will be effective this year, Frank L. Stephan, attorney general, today told the governor. H. C. # MANY ROOKIES MUST GO BACK

Few Youngsters Make Big League Teams in First Year's Training; Clubs Go North.

NEW YORK, March 31 (AP)—Unsettled the road of many a baseball player as many fallow herbs as major league clubs battle their way homeward for the real test after spring conditioning preliminaries.

There is at least one rookie traveling with each club whose fate hangs in the balance. Some have a temporary lease expiring June 15 when the clubs must reduce to the limit of 25 and others do not know who will pay for their month's training.

The seasonal exodus from the south coast of the west coast where the players are safe housing, experience gained in other years.

Red Shultz of the St. Louis Browns whose release added to the Milwaukee club a man said to be in six figure territory with the few highly touted rookies who have lived up to reputation. He will start in center field.

Ribicor May Land
The Browns also expect Walter Stewart, southpaw pitcher from Toronto, to crash into the league on his first chance.

Several other prospects will stick without guarantees that they will be given immediate opportunity to play. In this class are Julius Wera, former St. Paul infielder, who will battle the Yankees reserves, "Red" Holman, another infielder to break into the Red Sox infield and John Burnett, University of Florida infielder, who has an audition to outdo George Burns at first base for Cleveland.

A company of young pitchers will have a chance to show that they can perform as well in regular games as they have in spring contests which did not mean anything.

American Legion Of Idaho Will Go After Quinn Cup

BOISE, March 31—The American Legion will mobilize April 4, 1927, and will be prepared to go into intensive action, according to Lester E. Albert, department adjutant. The action will consist of rounding up all delinquent members and securing new ones. April 6 is the tenth anniversary of the United States' participation in the world war from which sprang the American Legion. It is expected that a concerted campaign on a date of this historical moment will bring into the organization the number of members required to meet the national quota of 4300.

Department Commander Ernest W. Ellis, Moscow, in directing this mobilization, states: "Our hat is in the ring for the famous John R. Quinn membership trophy. During 1926 we won two national membership cups, the Harford MacNider and the Henry D. Lindley trophies, which are now on display at our Boise office. We were officially credited with being the leading department nationally, and our plans are to hold that position. It is most fitting that we 'go over the top' on April 6, just 10 years since the United States officially entered the world war."

According to Adjutant Albert, all posts and district commanders have been requested to organize their forces on April 6 and to continue their efforts until the objective has been reached.

COMMITTEEMEN ASSAIL TABLOID PRESS IN REPORT

Members of New York State Crime Commission Declare "Yellow" Journals Contribute Much to Present Wave.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, March 31.—The "crime news" manner of handling the "yellow" press, together with the sensational newspapers and magazines, has done much to contribute to crime, say the members of the New York state crime commission sub-committee in a report issued today.

The "yellow" press, which reaches a strata of population which never read newspapers in former generations.

Crime News Impressions "The power is great, especially where persons of substantial intelligence and education. And when they read of crime, it impresses them to a greater extent than their more intelligent brothers and the flood of articles which flows from the newspaper press gives sinister inclinations to minds that would otherwise be occupied with every harmless interest."

The application of "attractive epithets and phrases" to certain criminals, such as the "hobnob hair bandit" and "the master knif" is one of the "romantic suggestion phrases" the report attacks.

The so-called "art" magazines as "definite factors in causing crime" were found by the sub-committee to be sold extensively to school children and "readers of an impressionable nature."

Select Readers at Random

The report says that to test the effect of "colored" crime narratives upon newspaper readers, 100 copies were employed to board subway trains in various parts of New York and select readers at random.

Of 50 readers of a certain tabloid, 88 per cent expressed the opinion that the account was guilty, 6 per cent felt the accused not guilty, and 6 per cent were doubtful. Compared with 111 readers of an established conservative newspaper the investigation showed 7 per cent thought the accused guilty, 35 per cent expressed the belief of innocence and 58 per cent were doubtful.

Of 24 readers of another service newspaper, 33 per cent felt the accused was guilty, 42 per cent thought him innocent and 25 per cent were doubtful.

In connection with these figures it was pointed out that our conservative newspaper carried more than three times the number of words in the particular trial in question than the tabloid mentioned.

"It is impractical to present the details which they now print regarding crimes and divorces," says the report, which ends with the conclusion "that newspaper censorship, although undesirable, is not the worst of evils."

MINERS AND OPERATORS HEAD TOWARD STALEMATE

ference with Governor Hammond in an effort to prevent reviving of work. The Washington government has indicated it will take no part in the matter.

UTAH MINES STAY OPEN

SALT LAKE CITY, March 31.—There will be no walkout of the soft coal miners in this state tomorrow. This was made certain by statements made by both union officials and operators. Word received from Elmer, union headquarters, was to the effect that work would proceed as usual and that unless the product of the mines of this state found its way into the eastern markets when present above ground supplies were depleted, the men would continue to work.

In event that Utah coal is thus diverted, union officials said their men would walk out. The district is only partly organized.

COLORADO UNAFFECTED

TRINIDAD, Colo., March 31.—No walkout of coal miners will be called at midnight tonight in district No. 15, including Colorado and New Mexico. The miners are striking in the district United Mine Workers said today. Further than this positive announcement he would make no statement.

SKETCH OF SITUATION

What a cessation of work in the soft coal fields by upwards of 200,000 miners because of expiration of the back-settle agreement under which miners and owners have operated for three years.

When the Jacksonville agreement expires at midnight March 31, miners said they would be idle until a new agreement is reached.

The central sensitive fields include Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania and the northwestern district including Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas. Those affected along with mines in Iowa and a few other points not included in the strike territories.

Who upward of 200,000 miners would be idle if all work is stopped as planned. A few mines have announced work will be continued under temporary local agreement, in the union fields.

is contemplating making certain demands on the Chinese in connection with the anti-foreign outrages at Nanking, but is not settled on whether Great Britain's demands should be made known separately or in conjunction with other powers. It is understood here that the British draft note demands an apology and reparation for the Nanking affair, as well as punishment of the guilty persons and guarantees against the repetition of such outbreaks.

Exchanges are said to be in progress between various capitals on the subject of concerted reparation by the foreign powers involved in the Chinese attack. The British government is known to be reluctant to act separately in connection with the anti-foreign outrages at Nanking.

British Public Actions
The delay in delivery of the note to the Chinese authorities is taken to indicate that some difficulty is being encountered in securing assent of other governments to the joint action. The British press and public are displaying keen anxiety for Great Britain and the United States to move together in whatever action is taken. The London and Washington governments are said to be keeping in close touch by cable concerning China. London is constantly exchanging views with other capitals regarding the latest reports on the situation which are received from the ambassadors in Peking.

Rir Amelia Chamberlain, foreign secretary, upon the burden of the British demands rest, received Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, war secretary, at the foreign office this morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The state supreme court today ordered that the famous "petticoat will" which George W. Haveline of Los Angeles dictated on his deathbed, should die of his $500,000 fortune, and dismissed the contest on stipulations filed by attorneys for the contestants.

Haveline, known for years in Los Angeles as "the pugger of North Broadway" where he lived in a shack, dictated the will shortly before he died, and a survey, backing paper, wrote the document on a pillow. # Egyptian Tomb Said To Be 50 Centuries Old Yields Relics

Discovery of Ancient Burial Place Near Famous Step Pyramid Announced; Government Conducts Excavations.

CAIRO, Egypt, March 31.—Discovery of a tomb estimated to be 50 centuries old, dating back to the third dynasty of the ancient Pharaohs, was announced today. The discoverers say it may be the earliest ever found in Egypt.

The find was made by Cecil Firth, who has been conducting excavations in behalf of the antiquities department of the Egyptian government at Sakkarah, a village near the ruins of Memphis. Near Sakkarah is the famous step pyramid, believed to be the oldest of the Egyptian pyramids.

The tomb is said to contain many unique features. It is in the boundary wall surrounding the step pyramid and was discovered only after a long and tortuous search, owing to the extensive precautions taken by the builder to conceal it.

It is thought, but not yet established, that it is the tomb of Imhotep, architect to King Zoser, who built the step pyramid. Imhotep was greatly revered by the ancients, being considered one of the wisest of men and founder of the

The league asked that the freight rate on deciduous fruits be reduced from $2.25 to $1.50 per hundred pounds on the ground that economic conditions are such that they can no longer bear the burden of the higher rate. ## BULLETINS TELL OF IMPROVEMENT

Automobile Manufacturer Making Steady Progress, Word From Hospital Indicates.

DETROIT, Mich., March 31 (AP)—Bulletins bringing only optimism continued from Henry Ford's bedside tonight, while varying reports persisted as to the manner of the accident, which had Sunday night sent him careening in a Ford coupe down the embankment of the split road of Michigan avenue just past the eastern end of a bridge over the River Rouge.

"The patient had a fairly good day," read the last bulletin late today of Dr. R. D. McClure, surgeon in charge of the Henry Ford hospital. "Progress continued favorably."

An outside bulletin remarked that there had been an adverse development in the automobile manufacturer's condition and that more was expected.

Disclaim Criminal Intent

The first authentic statement from any one of the Ford organization today was a disclaiming of belief that deliberate attempt to kill the automobile maker had been made.

It came from Harry H. Bennett, chief of the Ford investigators, and was to the effect that he was satisfied that Ford's light car was sidetracked by "hit and run" motorists driving with one eye about a girl or slightly miffed.

They remained undecided, the original statements last night of a source close to Mr. Ford that the accident was accepted as a deliberate attempt at assassination and a second statement by Ford spokesman that a great many men were investigating along numerous lines and that it was believed that the automobile which entangled Mr. Ford over the embankment was known.

In addition there were reports that the Ford investigators were combing Detroit for a damaged automobile of a certain type.

BULGIN POINTS TO REMEDY FOR SOCIETY'S ILLS

Evangelist Finds Theme in Christ's Answer to Critics and Scores Respectability Without God.

Christ's reply to the critics of His day, as set forth in the parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the prodigal son, recounted in the fifteenth chapter of the gospel of St. Luke, was the theme of Dr. Bulgin's address on "Christ and Social Justice," delivered Thursday evening before an audience of about 100 persons in the tabernacle in which five Twin Falls churches are cooperating in a revival campaign. It was Dr. Bulgin's third lecture in the campaign which opened last Sunday to continue for five weeks.

The topic for his lecture this evening, it was announced, will be "The Hungry on the Cornhill Road."

"The hardest people under God's heaven to be saved," Dr. Bulgin declared last evening, "are the men and women who are so respectable that they do not think they need salvation."

These persons, the speaker asserted, are typified in the parable by the lost while his brother went and became the far country returned and was saved. In this category, the evangelist declared, "the church members who join with 'the hedgehog, the gambler and the scoundrel men and women' in criticism of and opposition to 'this revival'."

Only One Way

"Jesus came to be a reformer and also a social reformer," Dr. Bulgin declared. "After redeeming the world, He came to teach a reformed world how its people ought to live with each other, having made their right relations with God."

"We will never get society right until we get men right, and whenever I see anyone curse the church I see slings on the many who miss his mother for the church of Jesus Christ. He said that the world will never be right until it comes back to its mother and father through the blood of Jesus. The prodigal who went away and forswore came back, but the other son who never did come back. Why? He was like a great many people of today—he did not think he needed it."

"We are damning the soul on earth in taking the horizontal path in life when God wants you to take the perpendicular one."

"You don't go to hell for horse stealing, or for robbing a bank or for getting drunk, or playing a game of cards or dancing—these are things you do when you are out of harmony with God; and the man or woman who is not right with God is lost."

Pointed Thrusts

Among pointed criticisms delivered by the evangelist in the course of his address were these:

"Good intentions unfulfilled breed the most heinous and formidable of diseases—moral parasites."

"It is a tragedy that the modern woman has to be entertained by the parasites of the dining, lecture, tea, ball."

How shallow this she can't be entertained by her intellect.

"It doesn't take a long time to spend all he has got, if all he has got is on the outside."

"There are two good reasons why people do not mind their own business. First, they haven't any mind; and second, they haven't any business."

"If you want to be let alone and never have any enemies I will give you a recipe. Do nothing, say nothing, be nothing, and the world will let you alone; but if you do something and say something you will find opposition."

"The church is not a social club; it is a revival of church legality."

"What we need more than anything else is a revival of church legality."

"If members of protestant churches were to meet together, the only person who would get somewhere."

SUNDAY SHOWS CENTER FACTOR IN CITY'S VOTE

Growing Registration-Lists Indicate Increasing Interest in Issues; Opposition Takes Initiative in Campaign.

The battle of the ballots in Twin Falls municipal election next Tuesday, according to observers of the situation, will be waged most fiercely about the proposition of permitting Sunday picture shows and theatrical performances.

Registration lists are growing rapidly in the issues to be decided at the most important election in an increasing number of voters appearing at the city hall during the past few days to register or to inquire as to their status as qualified voters.

Registration lists at the city hall will be open each evening this week until 9 o'clock, when the period for registration under terms of state law, will close.

SCENE OF GRIM STORY NO MORE

Hickman's Folly, Described in "Dickens' 'Oliver Twist,' to Be Cleared Away.

HERMONDSLEY, England, March 31 (AP)—Hickman's Folly, the scene of one of Dickens' grimest stories that of the death of Bill Sikes in "Oliver Twist," is to be cleared by the London County Council.

Hickman's Folly is an area close to Shad Thames at Blackhead. It is near an insalubrious center of tenements known as Holly Ditch, one of the "ragged slums" of the last century, according to historians, and both Charles Dickens and Kingsley described it in all its horrors.

In one of the houses of this area Dickens made Bill Sikes take refuge from a hunting dog, rush to the roof and attempt to get himself down by a rope, hang himself.

It is believed that the Jews, and Sikes were real people who were killed in a house in Hickman's Folly.

Some of the legends of Robin Hood and his band of outlaws in a greenwood include the portions of Herby, to which the Duke of Rutland is to sell the land. # VON KEUDELL IS SOCIAL LIGHT OF MARX CABINET

New Nationalist Minister of Interior in German Government Is Grandson of Former Duke Ernst of Wuerttemberg.

(By The Associated Press)
 BERLIN, March 31.—Walter von Keudell, the new nationalist minister of the interior, grandson of the former ruling Duke Ernst of the House of Wuerttemberg, is the most distinguished social acquisition of the new Marx cabinet. He is the nephew of the late Robert von Keudell, intimate friend of Prince Bismarck and an ancestor of Rome, who only a few years ago was recalled by King Victor Emmanuel as "one of the most imposing German diplomats ever sent to the Italian capital."
 Parents and grandparents of the minister of the interior were gifted politicians. His father was frequently invited to play before the late Empress Margherita of Italy. His mother, Alexandra, the daughter of "Natalie Eschschon, famous court singer of the fifties, is a remarkable pianist. Rabenstein and Josef Joachim frequently stopped to select audiences in the von Keudell Berlin mansion. The younger von Keudell's wife is a member of one of the oldest aristocratic families in Saxony, and, 22 years old, the youngest member of the cabinet.

Book on Marriage Used for Students

BERLIN, March 31.—A plan to present graduates of public schools in Germany with a book on marriage is being urged upon the ministry of Education by a number of educators. The book proposed is Heinrich Postel's long famous story "Lied and Gertraude, a Story for the People."
 False ideas on love, marriage and relationship between the sexes, it is argued, acquire no impetus unless the youth is properly instructed. At present each graduate is given a copy of the Weimar constitution, while Lutheran and Catholic schools give new graduates a leather-bound Bible.

Socialist Leader At Tory Reception

BERLIN, March 31.—Paul Baer, socialist democrat and president of the Reichstag, tells an amusing story of the new law-up resulting from the entry of the German nation into the cabinet.
 Oscar Hertel, the new nationalist vice-chancellor minister of justice, gave a "liarhood," or reception. As Baer holds an office equivalent to that of the speaker of the house of representatives in America, Hertel would not do otherwise than invite the socialist leader to his conservative home. Baer promptly accepted.

Miss Schurman Wins Sewing Machine

BERLIN, March 31.—Miss Barbara Schurman, daughter of Ambassador Jacob Gould Schurman, is not worried about the financial future of the Schurman family.
 At the annual dinner and dance given by the American Benevolent association, for which Miss Schurman accepted the post of chairman of the committee on arrangements, there was a "tombola," or raffle, for charitable purposes.
 Miss Schurman drew one of the principal prizes, a sewing machine. "Well, the family is saved," she remarked. "Even if Dad should lose his job, we now have something to support the family with. I'll earn enough with this sewing machine to keep the wolf from the door."

Home Opened For Jobless Stage Folk

BERLIN, March 31.—A home for jobless actors and actresses has been opened in Berlin with the assistance of business men and stage stars. Luncheons will be served for a nominal charge of from 6 to 10 marks in a dining-room seating 20 persons.
 Two other rooms have been set aside as reading and writing parlors, and an employment office will be opened. There are as yet no dormitories. More than 700 professional actors are out of work in Berlin. The home is under the management of Frau Anna von Telen, who has been on the stage for many years.

Peasants Forsook Very Well Summer

BERLIN, March 31.—The peasantry, with which new schools are growing on pussy willow trees this spring is regarded by peasants in the lowlands as a heaven-sent omen that the summer will be comparatively free from heavy rains and floods which last year destroyed crops worth millions of dollars.
 The pussy willow in many parts of Germany and Europe, which is the sign of a good crop, is covered the year around much as the palm.

HELENA RUBINSTEIN, professional beautifier, has become estranged from her husband, according to reports from Paris, and has asked for a divorce. The husband, E. W. She maintains a home at Greenwich, Connecticut, but spends much of her time abroad. Her husband lives in Paris.

"BATTLING BUTLER"

Huster, Keaton's new comedy, "Battling Butler," which comes to the Orpheum theatre today and tomorrow, was produced for Joseph M. Schenck. A dominant figure in the motion picture industry and one whose name for years has been regarded as exhibitors throughout the world as a synonym for cleanliness, cleverness, but per cent entertainment and unexcelled love office values. Mr. Schenck, who also produces the Norman and Constantine "Image pictures and is the chairman of the board of directors of United Artists, seldom indulges in grandiose upon phrases. But he does not hesitate to brand "Battling Butler" as Huster's greatest comedy triumph and recommends it without reserve.
 A "MAGIC GARDEN"
 A chance meeting in a garden—a boy and a girl—and the dedication of their lives to the love that they found together. This is the theme of "The Magic Garden," an F. B. O. production now showing at the Idaho theatre. Fate has some tricks in store for them here.

STOCK EXCHANGE AGAINST WOMEN

Great New York Financial Mart Bids Fair to Be Last Citadel to Yield to Fair Sex.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The New York Stock Exchange bids fair to be the last citadel to yield to the onward march of the feminine sex. Several attempts to become members of the exchange have been initiated by women during the past few weeks. Inquiry at the exchange itself reveals that none of the attempts has progressed to the point of actually filing applications.

Wall Street, although it numbers thousands of efficient women among its stenographers, clerks and telephone operators, always has viewed women speculators with fear and trembling. The only cordial welcome women's speculative accounts ever received came from the bucket shops which were closed out a few years ago. There are many houses in the street that will not accept a margin account from a woman, no matter what the size of the account. Other houses, although they are about accepting any how account from women, already have on their books valuable accounts of this kind.

Under the rules of the New York stock exchange, a stock certificate assigned by a married woman is not good delivery. A married woman wishing to sell stock registered in her name must first exchange her certificate for one registered in the name of a nominee. If it so happens that she will sell her stock before the transfer office of the company is closed, she and her husband must go before a notary public and make a joint assignment of the certificate. Under similar circumstances, a wife must also make an assignment before a notary public. Stock assigned by an unmarried woman will be accepted by the New York stock exchange as good delivery, provided she assigns it by writing "Miss" in front of her name.

It is hard to picture a woman on the floor of the exchange during one of its periods of frenzied trading. Torn clothes and bruises are not as frequent as outsiders often believe.

On the other hand gentleness never prevails. At the end of a busy day the most hardened member of the exchange is fairly worn and tired. Of course membership in the exchange does not of necessity mean actual presence of the member on the floor. Its advantage in reduced commission is tremendous. It is because of this advantage, perhaps, that future attacks on the exchange will come from the feminine sex, rather than from the masculine.

In spite of the opposition of most commission houses, the number of women traders in the stock market is steadily increasing. Some of them have been very successful during the present bull market.

Bibs for Baby Wasps

Baby wasps were little bids to catch drops of honey that drop down their chins. This discovery was made by the naturalist Fabre when he broke into the nursery of a nest to watch the nurses feed the young.

HIGH OFFICERS OF AIR CORPS ONCE IN RANKS

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The love of adventure which led them to enlist in the regular army or volunteer for the Spanish-American war has qualified 12 one-time buck privates to ranking positions in the army corps. Of the corps' 17 officers on the grade of lieutenant colonel and above, only five gained their present posts without first serving in the ranks.
 The quintet includes Major General Mason McFarland, chief of the corps, but his assistant, Brigadier General

James E. Fochet, once was a cavalry trooper. The corps' two other brigadiers and two colonels joined the army as officers, but the eleven lieutenant colonels started at the bottom.

The infantry has a one-man advantage over the cavalry as the original service branch of the 17 high ranking aviators, having supplied right against the cavalry's seven. One came from the quartermaster corps, while General Patrick is the lone representative of the engineer corps.

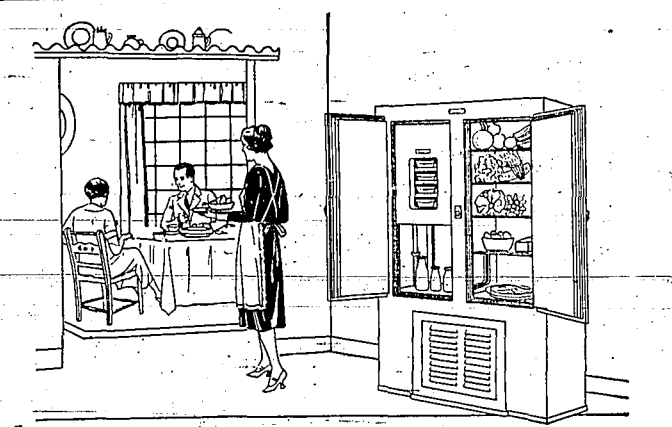

Of the 12 former buck privates and sergeants, 10 were of the regular army establishment, and two from national guard volunteer units.

Entirely Kistomary

After the initiator says the words "I now pronounce you man and wife," the bridegroom turns to the bride and it is customary for him to kiss her. A husband custom no doubt, but sentimentally satisfactory and entirely permissible.—Capper's Weekly.

White cloth makes a very practical covering for pantry shelves. It can be fastened down with thumb tacks which are very easy to remove so that the shelves themselves may be scrubbed.

NOW a new and better can for Hills Bros Coffee

Cover slips over top—fits tight—won't fall off

EXACTNESS—attention to the little things—has been the reason for the success and popularity of Hills Bros. Coffee.

This policy of carefulness led Hills Bros. to discover and develop Controlled Roasting, the patented process which roasts only a few pounds of coffee at a time, instead of in bulk. As a result, Hills Bros. Coffee sets an unapproachable standard in aroma, flavor and richness.

And now, a little thing—but a betterment—Hills Bros. have improved the can in which the coffee you love to drink is vacuum packed. At first glance, there doesn't seem to be any change. The all-important words "Hills Bros. Coffee" are there—also the Arab, the famous trade-mark. But when you open the can, you'll appreciate the difference. The key turns easier and keeps on the track. The cover slips over the top. No sharp edges to cut the fingers. Best of all, the cover fits tightly—won't fall off.

- 1 This is the way the new Hills Bros. Coffee can looks when it comes to you. The key is attached to the top. It turns easily and smoothly, and keeps on the track.
- 2 Now the new improved covers off. The top edges of the can are rolled over—no sharp edges to cut fingers.
- 3 Here the cover is back on the can to keep your coffee fresh. It slips slightly over the top of the can—so it fits snug and tight, and it won't fall off.

Selwood of Sleepy Cat

By FRANK H. SPEARMAN

"When we thought we was up far enough for to be pretty well hid, we staked the horses up above, where there was a little grass, and built a fire down on a ledge that had appeared."

"I was, like you, looking for a place to hide. I found it in the mountains. I was looking for a place to hide. I found it in the mountains."

I got closer, it wasn't. It was Starbuck and Meg.

SAMPSON SHOWS NEW CREATION

Automatic Talking Machine, Which Changes Own Records, Demonstrated to Public Here.

Before a group of prominent music lovers, heads of civic organizations, city officials, educators, and amateur critics an automatic talking machine which changes its own records and prints of an hour of music without touching the instrument, was demonstrated here for the first time Thursday. The instrument, which is the latest development in the field of musical reproduction, was invented by engineers of the Victor Talking Machine company after two years of intensive experiment.

The demonstration was conducted at Sampson Music company by E. K. Logan, Victor dealer, who announced it as the fourth revolutionary development of the Victor company since the fall of 1925. The musical disc instrument was opened and placed in operation, its simplicity and ease of operation were impressed upon the audience. A dozen records were placed in the magazine, which is suspended at an angle above the turntable of the instrument. The turntable of the instrument is controlled by the electric current supply, the turntable begins to revolve. The mechanical "hand" picked the first record from the 12 in the magazine and placed it gently upon the revolving turntable. The tone arm, which carries the stylus and the needle, was moved to the record with moving accuracy. And all of these operations were performed automatically, surely, with no fluctuations that amount of skill by the human hand could quite duplicate.

Everything works smoothly immediately after the needle touched the record, the music began. The record was played to the end, and the needle and tone arm were returned to the groove of the record. The sound box was lifted by the remarkable mechanism and moved to one side. Again the mechanical "hand" went smoothly and silently into operation, removed the record that had been completed and deposited it quietly in a felt lined tray just below the magazine. The "hand" then continued up to the magazine, picked off the second record, deposited it on the revolving turntable, the tone arm returned to playing position and the music resumed. Time after time the operation was performed with unflinching accuracy, until the last record had been played, removed from the turntable and deposited in the felt-lined receiving tray. The instrument was ready for another selection of 12 records, and another hour of music without attention from the operator.

Mr. Logan called attention particularly to the simplicity of design, which requires no experience in operation. The series of gears and cams are completely enclosed, as is electric motor which operates them. It is practically trouble proof, as laboratory tests have proven.

The instrument will be demonstrated to the public next Monday morning beginning at 9 o'clock and continuing throughout the day at the Sampson Music company.

And there's a bit of sentiment attached to the journey. MacDonald will visit Miss Lillian D. Wald (below), New York social worker identified with the famous "House of Henry Street." ### Eden Pair Steal March on Friends

EDEN, March 31—Earl F. Wright and Miss Lucy McNeer returned to Idaho Falls last Thursday and were married that day. The young couple made a march on their Eden friends as nothing was known of the second wedding. They returned home here Sunday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McNeer. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make their home on the farm two miles west of Eden. Mrs. Frank Fulton has returned from Driley, Idaho, where she was called to the funeral of her mother. Earl F. Kennedy, county treasurer, and A. M. Langness, member of the board of county commissioners, were here Monday evening from Jerome to attend the meeting held at the Eden community club. Mr. Kennedy has property interests here and is quite interested in the doings of the Community club. Mr. Langness addressed the meeting, regarding the financial aid available for road extension at the present time.

The Hillsdale Grange will meet Friday evening at the new farm home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Swenson. Thomas Sperry, the new county agent, is to be present at the meeting and will address the members. Mr. and Mrs. Swenson have just completed their new home and moved into it this week. Mrs. J. W. White is arranging a program.

The word can, hypocritical talk, is derived from two blinded Covenanters, Alexander and Andrew Cairn, who persecuted their opponents without mercy and at the same time prayed for victims of religious persecution.

Working on Road South of Hansen

HANSEN, March 31—Graveling of the road southeast of town commenced yesterday. The men's little class of the Sunday school is planning on a good program and a large crowd for Friday night. (Civic Union), who has been in Durley for the past two weeks in the interests of the M. W. A., returned home for a few days last week. The Hansen school is practicing for the annual track meet. VIII Woods has been on the sick list the past week, but is some better. Mrs. Sweet of San Diego, Cal., and Mrs. Stock of Rupert arrived here the first of the week to attend the funeral of their brother, Theodore Mai.

The boys of Hansen expect to organize a ball team next Sunday and expect to meet all comers in their class. They played a team from Twin Falls last Sunday. The score was 17 to 11 in favor of Hansen. The seniors of Hansen high school gave their play Friday night before a large audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scherping and family moved to Twin Falls first of the week. About 20 of Miss Georgia Scherping's young friends gave her a surprise party Friday night. Games were played for a while, after which refreshments were served.

Filer Kiwanians Hear Scouts' Aims

FILER, March 31—Kiwanis club members at a meeting Tuesday heard an excellent talk given by Coach Sydney L. McLaughlin on the boy scout organization. The real purpose of scouting, he said, is to develop a boy mentally, morally and physically; to develop boys so that they are brave, cheerful, resourceful, morally straight and physically sound. (Guests included George N. Tucker of Boise, director of the bureau of upbringing of the state department of agriculture, who gave an interesting talk on the dairy industry of the state of Idaho, and Ralph H. Musser of Twin Falls.)

George N. Tucker, who spent several days at Filer, will leave Friday evening for Boise. Coach E. E. McLaughlin will accompany him and will spend the week-end at Natus, Idaho, with relatives. Dr. T. L. Carney recently received a shipment of silver foxes from Michigan for the Northwestern Silver Fox company. The first Matrons club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Juneau H. Kilian for election of officers. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. La Rue entertained at dinner Monday evening for S. E.

McLaughlin and Dr. J. Childs and George N. Tucker of Boise.

Mrs. W. J. Hawkins is ill with rheumatism. The Hillside Masons were guests of the Silver Masonic lodge Tuesday evening. A number of Masons from Buhl also attended. Mr. W. M. Hume and H. K. Dillingham spent good fishing Friday at Owyhee Ferry, where they caught a number of large trout. Mrs. O. J. Childs and son Winston returned from Seattle Wednesday for spending several days in that city on business. News Want Ads reach the people you wish to attract.
