IDAHO ELECTORS MUST REGISTER

Frank L. Stephan, Attorney General, Rules on Question in Answer to Jerome Query.

BOISE, April 12 (AP)—Elector voting at April municipal elections must register, whether the electors registered and voted at 1925 elections or not.

As a result of the opinion all electors must register for coming municipal elections held under the Black law, on the fourth Tuesday of April or April 23.

The 1925 session law amended the law to provide that an elector, once duly registered, need not again register as long as he remains a resident of that precinct.

It would have been just as reasonable to have permitted electors who had registered for the 1925 general election to vote without re-registering at the general election in 1926 as to permit electors to have registered for the 1925 municipal election to vote without re-registering in the coming municipal election.

FIFTY-SIX MAKE PUBLIC AVOWAL AT TABERNACLE

High School Students Numbered Among Converts of Union Revival Meetings; Evangelist Strikes at Critics.

Fifty-six persons, including a number of high school students, were brought to public manifestation of their faith at services in the tabernacle here Tuesday evening when Dr. E. J. Bulglin, evangelist, extended an invitation at the close of his sermon on "Things Worth While."

A session in the center of the building was reserved for high school students at this service, and an impressive feature of the exercises was the singing by the choir of nearly 300 students of a number of school songs under the leadership of Miss Eva Dunnagan, high school director of music.

The largest week-night meeting of the union revival campaign which is now about half way through was recorded Tuesday evening. It included a delegation of high school students. The evangelist and members of his party during the day Tuesday held meetings in Burley. They will attend a session of the Presbyterian presbytery at Hollister today.

Tells Financial Policy Dr. Bulglin struck out last evening at critics of the program and the revival meetings in progress. "No person or church or other organization has underwritten this campaign," he declared, "the whole financial responsibility rests upon me alone, and I will pay the expenses if you don't."

The cost of lumber used in construction of the tabernacle, Dr. Bulglin announced, was $1322. It will be offered for sale at the close of the campaign. Invitations to Dr. Bulglin and his party to conduct a revival campaign in Burley next fall has received wide acceptance of the party were in Burley Tuesday.

Dr. Bulglin, at the tabernacle this evening will discuss "The New Law." It is to be farmers' night and Dr. Bulglin has offered an award of $10 to the largest family attending. Subject announced for Thursday evening's sermon lecture was, "Shall We Know Each Other There?" and for Friday evening, "Neighborhood Scams." There will be no services on Saturday evening, but it was announced in high pressure campaign will be conducted throughout the week with the exception of that evening.

In his sermon-lecture last evening Dr. Bulglin directed an attack on excess for sin and for failure to contribute proper relationship with God. His text was taken from the book of Jude: "Will thou disdain my judgment? wilt thou condemn me that thus mayest be righteous?" "In God's sight," the evangelist declared, "there is no difference between a big sin and a little sin. One sin in a human life is enough to damn that life and soul. It is not a matter of the quantity of sin, but of the quality of the principle of sin."

Dr. Bulglin stated the sin of sinfulness is bigger than stealing a horse or an automobile. Unbelief is the dagger that strikes at the heart of the remedy God has provided for sin. "If you say, 'I will be true to Christ, but I can't,' you should spell the word 'can't' with a 't'."

Surgeon Sues Triguero's Heir As Trustee of $180,000 Estate

On the theory that Maurilio Guerrero, a former employe of the late Frank Triguero, Castleford stock man, is responsible as trustee for payment of Triguero's debts, Turner K. Hackson, attorney for Dr. J. H. Morgan of Twin Falls, has instituted suit in district court here for recovery of $180,000 for professional services rendered by Dr. Morgan in Triguero's behalf.

Complaint in the action, which was filed Tuesday, sets forth that Triguero died of hemorrhagic cholera at the residence of Dr. Morgan in September 29, 1926, eight days prior to Triguero's death. Dr. Morgan conducted a thorough examination of Triguero's condition and reached the conclusion that surgery should be resorted to as the best method of recovery.

Triguero, according to the complaint, that through procrastination he had become a patient unable to receive the operation which is described in detail in the complaint was performed on the date first fixed, and on the following morning, the complaint asserts, Triguero was able to receive the operation which is described in detail in the complaint, and had not been able to do so for a year and a half previously.

Meetings to be Held in Twin Falls and Buhl to Determine Changes in Regulations.

Hearings to determine possible changes in Idaho's potato grading regulations will be held here Monday afternoon in the district court room and in Buhl the following evening at the chamber of commerce office, according to arrangements made here Tuesday by local growers and dealers and John S. JAME HYENA FRIGHTENS PAIR OF TIMID DRIVERS

BALTIMORE, Md., April 12 (AP)—Two frightened milk men dashed into the Plattsville station today with word that a strange wild animal had "tried to hold them up" on Robertson road. Two uniformed guards went and shot the animal. It was a hyena.

"Why did they shoot it?" mourned Charles F. Hunt, a circus owner from whose menagerie the animal escaped last night. "All they had to do was to take it to the car. It was very gentle. All it eats is milk."

PORTAL MARKET SLOWING DOWN

Peak Prices for Idaho Tubers Reached—About—Mid-Week—Shipping—Brings Reaction.

IDAHO FALLS, April 12.—The potato markets reached the peak of their recent price advances about the middle of last week. Since that time demand and trading have been slow generally all over the country, with most of the markets dull to slightly weaker, according to the weekly reports issued on Tuesday by Western Valley, and the federal market news office at Idaho Falls. The reaction seemed to have been the result of too many shipments, which were sent out of storage in the increased prices, together with the heavy early movement of the new crop. The total United States movement for the week reached the high average of 800 cars per day. Of these, the shipments of new potatoes from the northern states averaged 107 cars per day. The total shipment of new crop to April 10 amounted to 1317 cars, compared with only 237 to the same date last year, and 1111 cars two years ago. Under these heavy supplies, the prices of new stock have declined rather rapidly, and Texas Triumphs were being sold in Idaho at 10-cent prices, compared with $1.20 to $1.25 last year. At the same prices of $2.05 to $2.25 per bushels of new potatoes are expected to increase steadily, with the south reaching the peak movement next week, and the Hastings and Idaho King varieties being sold in California. Louisiana has also started to ship, and the new crop in California will soon be moving in volume.

Russett Tuber Season's High
At Idaho shipping point, the peak market for bonded cars of russets registered U. S. No. 1 Russets reached the high mark of the season of $2.50 per cwt. after a steady advance of 50 cents during the past two weeks. But the demand stopped rather abruptly in the middle of last week, and the high trading stage that time has been made mostly at $2.30 per cwt. on bonded, U. S. No. 1, $1.30 per cwt. on No. 2's, and practically nothing has been sold by the growers. Dealers have been inclined to hold, believing that with the comparatively light supplies remaining in the state, there will be ample time to market the Russett in spite of the heavy movement of the early crop. Shipments from the state declined somewhat from a previous week, amounting to 408 cars for the past week, an average of 68 cars per day, compared with 453 of the preceding week, and during the week ending April 10th, the highest of the season, 513 cars, compared with 16,328 a year ago. Shipments after that date last season were 2100 cars, but the estimates by local dealers for remaining shipments this year are placed mostly at around half that number.

2500 Cars to Move
From the three states of Idaho, Washington and Colorado, from which most of the western shipments of bonded russets originate during the balance of the season, local reports indicate that the combined remaining movement will probably not be over 2500 cars, compared with about 5000 cars after this time last year. So while the west is still all markets, the supplies of western potato can be absorbed without such a break as occurred during the latter part of last season.

Of the Idaho shipments last week, California shipments to receive about a fifth, the passings amounting to 69 cars south and 17 to the northern states. Shipments of Idaho potatoes to California during March exceeded those for the same month last year for the first time this season. The total shipments this season are much lighter, amounting to 2222 cars up to April 12, compared with 2581 cars last year. The southern markets have taken 1789 cars compared with 2739 last season, while northern California has received only 433 cars compared with 824 a year ago. These shipments this season amount to about 14 per cent of the Idaho output. Of the shipments east, almost 20 per cent of the total movement has gone to Chicago alone, and approximately a similar amount to the two carload markets of Kansas City and St. Louis, mostly for redistribution throughout the south and east.

BUILDING FOR COMMUNITY SET AS LEGION GOAL

Veterans' Organization Launches Project to Provide Auditorium and Meeting Place for Twin Falls Citizens.

Construction of a community building and auditorium of capacity adequate for conventions and other large assemblies in Twin Falls is the objective set before Twin Falls post of the American Legion by vote of its members at a regular meeting in the Elks club rooms Tuesday evening.

Property at the corner of Third avenue and Main street, which has been purchased by the Legion post, will be the site for the community building under the plans outlined for the project.

Purpose of the Legionnaires in this undertaking, Harry Beust, post commander, stated, is not to ask anything of the community for the benefit of the veterans' organization, but to join with other organizations in providing a building for which there is no market need in the community.

A small structure substituted on a temporary floor covering a big basement and the proposed building site is to be the regular meeting place of the Legion post, beginning with the next regular meeting in May. It is intended that this structure will be made available to the Legion post to the Twin Falls national guard unit, and the interior fire range has been placed in it.

Prepare for Convention

With view to entertainment of delegates and visitors at the next convention of the American Legion fifth district organization to be held here next June, Twin Falls Legion post and Women's Auxiliary will cooperate in giving a dance next month for benefit of the construction fund. Appointment of a committee composed of J. H. Stewart, William Price and J. G. Thorne to cooperate with the auxiliary committee in this undertaking was announced by the post commander.

Twin Falls high school declaimers will give a high school play in front of state declaimers contest contributed to the entertainment program at the veterans' meeting last evening. Carl Mathers, winner of first prize in the state contest, original division, gave his selection, "The New South." William Roberts, winner of second place in the dramatic division, gave his selection, "Courage," and Miss Hattie Buehler, winner of second place in the humorous division, read "Last Night When You Kissed Blanche Thompson."
