PROTECTION FOR NEW ORLEANS IS VITAL PROBLEM

Federal Government Agrees to Take Desperate Steps in Attempt to Keep Flood Waters From Old Shrouded City.

(By The Associated Press) NEW ORLEANS, April 26.—Governor O. H. Simpson tonight issued a proclamation declaring that a public emergency exists and ordering the creation of an artificial break in the levee of the Mississippi river near Bayou de l'Inde today.

MEMPHIS, April 26 (AP)—Desperate measures to protect New Orleans from the force of the floods that daily are eating away new areas in Arkansas and Mississippi, were agreed upon today by the federal government, subject to the approval of the army engineers and the Mississippi river commission.

This brought an immediate protest from the inhabitants of the 20 square miles that this would be flooded, as well as from the business leaders of Natchez, who demanded a cut at Morgan as to protect that city as well as New Orleans.

Should a break occur on the east side of the river near New Orleans, the engineers said, that city would be inundated with a tremendous volume of water.

DRASTIC STEPS SANCTIONED BY WAR SECRETARY

Davis Favors Cutting Levee on Left Bank of Mississippi River to Save New Orleans From Inundation by Flood.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 26—(AP)—The war department today announced that it has sanctioned the cutting of the levee on the left bank of the Mississippi river at Poydras, Louisiana, 10 miles below New Orleans, to save the city from flood inundation.

Secretary Davis of the war department today in a telegram to Governor Simpson of Louisiana:

"The government proposes this levee under a resolution adopted by the Mississippi river commission at Vicksburg yesterday recommending that it order the levee cut at a point to be designated by himself.

Secretary Davis replied that the war department could accept no responsibility for the action of the engineers of damages which might result but would increase no federal obligation in the breaking of the levee if the Mississippi river commission, and Major General Juhnke, chief of army engineers, found no reason to oppose the plan at a conference to be held in Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Estimate Drop

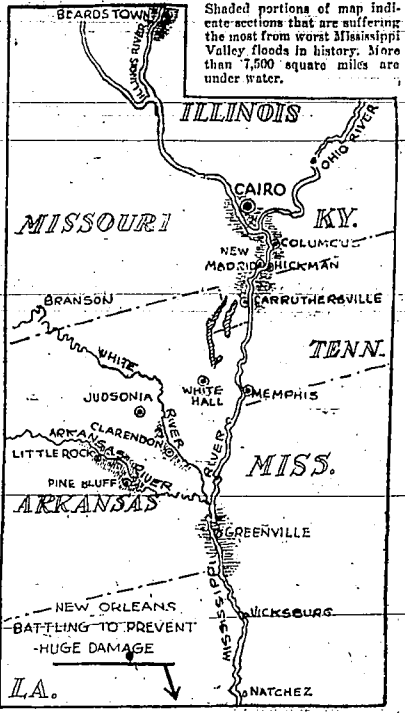

Army engineers estimated that cutting the levee at Poydras would result in a foot and a half drop of the water level at New Orleans. The country which would be flooded is such as to be of little value for agricultural purposes and still afford relief to the flood threatened city. Poydras is the site of an old break and will afford the river a double outlet to the gulf.

The only alternative considered by the Louisiana authorities was a cut-in the right bank further up the river, but it was found that the incidental damage would be much greater with the relief of flood on New Orleans only slightly more than the foot and a half drop which the Poydras cut will produce.

Secretary Davis made it plain to Governor Simpson that he lacked authority to authorize the cutting of the levee. He was involved in threat to life and property in any state, but Louisiana, he said, would make no objection in behalf of the federal government.

The governor's message, which was signed also by Mayor O'Keefe of New Orleans, pledged the state and city to reimburse any and all persons in the area to be flooded for any losses sustained.

MOUNTAIN HOLDS LEGEND OF FAITH

Driven Snow Forms Sacred Emblem on Mount Holy Cross in Rockies of Colorado.

RED CLIFF, Colo., April 26 (AP)—Driven snow forms an emblem of religious faith 12,978 feet above sea level in the Rocky Mountains near here.

It is on Mount Holy Cross, formed from deep rocks that jut across the face of the mountain which bears its name. The deep ravine forming the upright shape of the cross is 200 feet long in which the snow drift to a depth of from 20 to 60 feet, while the transverse ridge forming the arms is 50 feet across. Scarcely an intransigent ray of a dense fog, the surrounding virgin and at her feet is a body of water known as the Pool of Tears.

A legendary tale was told in this manner—A Frenchman, who was engaged in converting the inhabitants of the mountain to Christianity, was one day tempted. It was revealed to him in a vision that if he saw a cross snow piled to the air it would be a token of forgiveness. Filled with awe, he went to Mexico and wandered over the country in search of the sacred symbol.

He found an exploring party coming north. Arriving suddenly on the summit of a high mountain, they pitched their tents. It was not the hour to camp, but their further progress was prevented by a dense fog. The priest, according to the legend, went off a little way from the sound of human voices to pray for the removal of his burden of sin.

The cloud lifted and before him, resplendent with the rays of the sun was the "Cross." Wandering at his long leisure, his companions went to search for him and found him dead in the attitude of prayer, with his face toward the Mount of the Holy Cross.

In Holy Cross National Forest, 200 acres have been set aside by the U. S. Forest Service for recreation, educational and devotional purposes.

HIGH MARK WINNINGS FACE DERBY ENTRIES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26 (AP)—How many of the 162 two-year-olds nominated for the Kentucky derby will actually start the first annual horse race of last year's race track.

Last year Crusader, Band to Band, Display and Charis all topped the $100,000 winning mark, something only five horses accomplished in 20 preceding years.

Crusader stood at the top of the list with $105,000, with Band to Band second with $114,920. Display netted $104,420, while Charis took in $100,275.

Crusader was only $100 behind the amount earned by his illustrious sire, Main's War, in 1926, but was far behind Zev's record of $272,000 in 1925. Crusader's earnings placed him third in racing history. Seventh highest $114,280 in 1905 and sixth $101,907 in 1907.

Fair Star and Nepon Flaw led the two-year-olds, but neither reached the $100,000 winning mark. These two horses, with Osmond, Justice F., Chance Shot, Whiskery, Key and Candy Queen, all derby favorites, are among those having good chances to set the mark for 1927.

BROTHER KILLED IN RAGE

SALT LAKE CITY, April 26 (AP)—The death of Lieutenant Commander Noel Davis, in a crash of his bi-plane, while making a test of the machine preparatory to attempting a new trans-Atlantic flight today in Virginia, is the second violent death in the family. Harry Davis, a brother, was killed while racing on a motor cycle at a local park several years ago.

Lieutenant Commander Davis was a native Utah born in this city Christmas day, 1901, and while informed of his death by the Associated Press over the long distance telephone at Oakley, Idaho, 50 miles north of here, his mother, Mrs. Lena H. Price said: "That was who we gave him an old English name for—Christmas Noel."

He lived with his mother and father, R. Price, on a ranch six miles from Oakley.

Lieutenant Commander Davis received his early schooling at the Latter Day Saints (Mormon) university, graduating with honors in 1914, and was a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, graduating in the class of 1914.

ENGLISH ACCENT "SOLD" TO AMERICAN TOURISTS

LONDON, April 26 (AP)—American visitors may now acquire a genuine English accent here by going to school again. Special attention is given to tourists whose time is short, and there are special classes where pupils may be rushed through and "graduated" with in a few weeks.

The D'Arville and Lady Trenchance Child-Pendleton are principals of the institution, which was started primarily to teach languages. The school also "cures" accents, the pupils for these courses being mostly commercial people, men and women, who wish to perfect their English for business reasons.

Teachers say it is quite easy to "cure" an accent, but to acquire one in a short time really requires a lot of "communing."

ALLEGED MISUSE OF FUNDS IS BASIS FOR GOVERNMENT INQUIRY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 26 (AP)—The alleged misuse of funds by the Kansas City joint stock land bank is the basis of the government's investigation of the bank by grand jurors in both Missouri and Kansas, it became known today.

It is understood the government contends the funds were employed to finance private companies of officers of the bank in violation of the federal farm loan law. Four private enterprises headed by Walter Craven, president of the land bank benefited from the alleged use of the bank's funds, the government agents contend. They are the Kansas City Finance company, Missouri-Kansas Farm company, Craven Mortgage company, Salina, Kansas, and the Missouri Hydroelectric company.

Craven and six associates were indicted Saturday by the Kansas federal grand jury. The Missouri grand jury now is expected to go deeper into the operations of the land bank.

PROTECTION FOR NEW ORLEANS BIG PROBLEM

city and perhaps of life. Thus far the strengthened levees have held—but whether they could do so under the vastly increased pressure of water was regarded as doubtful.

While the question of protecting New Orleans was occupying the attention of engineers and federal and state officials, the overflow waters of the Arkansas and Mississippi were hourly making more acute the situation in both southern Arkansas and the Mississippi delta.

Conditions in Arkansas gave little Cross officials here the most concern for the floods from the Arkansas river were appearing with alarming rapidity inundating six more towns—Cotton, Watson, Endore, Killo, Demott and Tillie—and rapidly swelling the army of refugees.

Two Breaks in Northeast

Far to the northeast the situation also was made worse by two breaks in the Rockledge drainage district levee four miles south of Bell, a refuge concentration point. It was estimated that 20 square miles would be flooded with the probability that the water would go into three more towns, McFerrin, River and Marie.

Arkansas City on the Mississippi river below Helena was reported under from seven to 11 feet of water with 3000 refugees on the levee and about 3000 more marooned in the lowlands.

Daly Shows Fine Form in Workout

Validating the judgment of his backers, Bittell Daly, leading pitcher of the Int-Singers league, set the Yankees down lightly yesterday afternoon, pitching sterling ball and dazzling the crowd with an unusual exhibition of fast running, following his six-day rest. Not to be outdone by the Yankees, Daly's outfit got busy and turned in enough double plays to last a month, and stuck in the Twin Falls News club side to unexpected heights. Club officials, anxious to see some of the brilliant talent being turned every afternoon, are striving to arrange a game with other clubs of the league. Friday afternoon, May 6, has been suggested. For a few of the News regulars must work in the evening, and an occasional player of the Times squad has been seen working in the afternoon.

TROUT EGGS HATCHING AT ROCK CREEK PLANT

The 20,000 Rainbow trout eggs from the state game department from the Cedar stripping station to the Rock Creek hatchery, where they are being hatched and cared for by the Game and Game association, are hatching now, and four of the six troughs with which the plant is equipped are swarming with nest-like masses, whose relationship to our favorite trout leaves much to the imagination. These tiny white eggs are nurtured with a food supply which need not be supplemented for about two weeks, after which they become voracious feeders and must be provided with food. The prevailing cold weather has delayed the usual run of Rainbows at Rock Creek, but it is anticipated that the warm weather will start a new run and a large supply of new eggs should be taken.

Beginning with 1928, all streams including the Snake river will be closed to fishing in the state from January 1 to May 16. The closing of Thousand Springs and other spring waters to winter fishing in the vicinity of Twin Falls, eliminates one of the best winter pastimes for our confined fishermen, a sport that has been available to the citizens of but few sections of the state. With the stream opening two weeks earlier than usual, and with a great deal of snow still in the lower mountain sections, local fishermen have been pondering the choice of a stream for opening day. Silver Creek seems the unanimous choice, and it is safe to say that its banks will be unusually populated with local interests on May 16.

UPHOLDS IDAHO WATERUSERS IN FIGHT ON TAX

United States Supreme Court Settles Old Dispute With Refusal to Review Decision in Jackson Lake Dispute.

The United States supreme court has sustained the constitutionality of Idaho water users that they should not be required to pay taxes to Wyoming on water rights in Jackson lake reservoir, and has definitely settled controversy which has been pending in the supreme court since 1912.

The supreme court's ruling in this case came in a denial of the application of the Wyoming board of registration and taxation and Lincoln county, Wyoming, for writ of certiorari of a decision rendered in the circuit court of appeals at Denver in December. The circuit court reversed the Wyoming district court in which the action originated, and held that the Twin Falls and South Side canal companies were not entitled to the water rights in Jackson lake reservoir but that the water should be apportioned to the Idaho water users.

Big Sums Involved—The Wyoming counties claimed $112,000 on account of accumulated taxes from the two canal companies, which, under the current rate of assessment, would have been required to pay $100,000 in taxes annually to the Wyoming government.

It is estimated that the supreme court's ruling will result in saving of about $200,000 annually to water users of Idaho.

JAIL TERM AND FINE IMPOSED UPON YOUTH

Under judgment pronounced Tuesday by Judge C. A. Bailey in probate court here, C. H. Craft must serve 30 days in jail and pay $100 fine for contributing to the delinquency of a 15 year old girl. Jail sentences would be suspended on payment of the fine, the court announced. Craft, through his attorney, W. L. Dunn, gave verbal notice of appeal to the district court. Craft was accused of having accompanied Kimball Elphinst, who is held to answer to felony charges on a jury trial with the girl in question and another woman one night early last month.

ACCUSED MEN HEAR CHARGES

Portland Motor Travelers Accused of Burglary Hear Testimony as to Theft of Tire.

Testimony tending to connect three Portland, Oregon, men with burglary and theft of two automobile tires from the W. W. Tarr establishment on Second avenue east last Wednesday night, was offered in probate court here Tuesday afternoon at preliminary hearing in the case of W. A. Leffler, Earl Jeff Anley and C. H. Orensman, who were arrested last Friday morning at a tourist park here.

Five witnesses were called to the stand by the prosecution during the afternoon and others are to testify when witnesses Tuesday were W. W. Tarr and his son E. Tarr; Roy Small, employee at the Tarr establishment; W. P. French, proprietor of the Victoria garage; and H. E. Leffler, Twin Falls chief of police.

One of the missing tires and a broken up rubber that had been taken off the floor of the Tarr establishment were introduced in evidence. The accused officers believe broke into a conference room and a lunch counter at Kimberly on the same night that the Tarr establishment was broken into and others, cigarettes and candy that have been identified as having been taken from the Kimberly establishment were found, officers said, in the cabin occupied by the accused men at the tourist park.

The accused men told officers that they had come here from Weppah and Nevada.

They are represented by J. W. Porter of Porter & Taylor.

DENIES SALE OF BOOZE TO CASTLEFORD MINOR

An arraignment in probate court here Tuesday, George Burgess of Castleford entered a plea of not guilty to felony charges of selling liquor to a minor. He was admitted to bond in the sum of $1000 and preliminary hearing in the case was fixed by Judge C. A. Bailey to be held next Friday.

Guthrie to Defend Woman for Murder

W. F. Guthrie of Seattle, for many years a citizen of Twin Falls, has been retained as attorney for Mrs. Anna Longfield, confessed slayer from an hotel of H. C. Stuart, Algonu, Washington, butcher, in mistake for his own husband, according to court records here. The accused woman, an arrangement in superior court at Seattle last Friday, entered a plea of not guilty before a conference made Tuesday previously which resulted in her indictment on charge of first degree murder.

The plea, according to Mr. Guthrie, is a complete denial of a confession made to Sheriff Claude C. Hancock some weeks ago as a result of which she was indicted for the four year-old crime.

The woman was accompanied in court by Mr. Guthrie and by her husband, Harry, whom, according to the alleged confession, she had planned to kill because of his supposed relations with another woman.

Attorney Guthrie, according to the Seattle press, intimated that if Mrs. Longfield is acquitted on trial on indictment, a bitter fight will be waged against the confession on the ground that it is not supported by corroborative evidence.

To be held to highest bidder, one Dodge touring car, for storage and to be sold by public auction, will be sold on April 29, 1927. Schwartz Auto Repair Shop.—Adv.
