Whiskery Wins Annual Kentucky Derby; Idaho Jockey Rides to Second Place

Whitney Entry Flashes Across Line to Take $51,025 Purse; Sander of American Falls Comes in for Next Honor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14 (AP)—Whiskery, Harry Payne Whitney's chestnut son of White Birch II—bred to win the fifty-third Kentucky derby today. He won just as he had been expected, by beating Ommand and Jack in a sensational drive down the stretch.

"The Red Mill" Marion Davies heralded new starting vehicle, and the film version of the famous stage hit by Victor Herbert and Henry Blossom, at the Orpheum theatre lives up to all its promises. The new compilation vehicle proved that comic opera, lately abandoned on the stage in favor of jazz, still has its charm—and the drama of the lightness plays of yore is just as gripping as the drama of its older story.

Large Crowd Attends The largest crowd then witnessed a turf event on American soil filled every available inch of the stands, the brick terrace in front of the grand stand and the grandstand between the club house and the track, and packed the rail in the infield.

Stage Opening Parade They paraded past the club house and then back down before the grand stands to the starting post, at the head of the stretch. Hurdles was a bit fractious and broke the barrier for a split down the track. Soon brought under control by Jockey W. Garner, and returned to the barrier, jockeying for favorable positions occupied a minute more and at 5:10 o'clock they began the journey.

The winner was owned by H. P. Whitney and trained by Fred Hopkins. Jockey L. Melotte was in the saddle.

"DON JUAN" John Barrymore in "Don Juan" coming to the Rialto theatre today for a run of seven days. Is an attraction that has been road-showed in the principal cities of the country and acclaimed by critics everywhere as one of the most notable photoplays ever screened.

"The story, founded upon the legend of the greatest lover of all ages, has had a check of it 300-year tradition that has inspired poets, dramatists, musicians and artists.

Barrymore, who acknowledged the greatest romantic actor of his day, fairly revels in the alien fascinations of the role of the great romantic lover.

PROPERTY OWNERS WANT BUIL STREETS GRAVELED

Petitioners Ask Council to Make Improvements on Eleventh and Twelfth Streets.

BUIL, May 14 (Special to The News).—Petitions are being circulated among the property owners on Eleventh and Twelfth streets asking that the city council proceed to gravel these streets and change the name to the adjoining property. Practically all property owners on Eleventh street have signed this petition, and Twelfth street owners are pretty well signed up. It is expected that the petitions will be ready for presentation at the next regular council meeting. The city would have to stand the expense of graveling street intersections, but it is pointed out that graveling the streets would be a big improvement to the city.

Broadway and Main and Ninth streets were paved seven years ago. Taxpayers will complete payments on these improvements during the next three years. Assessment against property on these streets was divided into equal annual installments.

ALLEGES RENAISSANCE OF OIL COMPANY SCHEME

City Attorney Files Answer in Continental Concern's Fight to Build Filling Station.

Continental Oil company is continuing effort to install a gasoline filling station on Blalouso street properly across the street from the Washington station. It is renewing an unsuccessful attempt made in November, 1926, to obtain municipal permit for installation of such a station on the same site, according to an answer filed by E. M. Steyer, city attorney, in district court here Saturday in the case of the Continental company against the city of Twin Falls.

The district court on the former occasion, the city attorney's answer declares, was called upon to pass on identical facts that have been raised in the present action, and the court's order at that time was that the writ of mandate requiring issuance of the permit should not be issued. The company, according to the city attorney's answer, was acting in 1926 through John A. Beeson.

The site in question, the answer asserts, is the site of the seven detached lots which have been raised in the present action, and the court's order at that time was that the writ of mandate requiring issuance of the permit should not be issued. The company, according to the city attorney's answer, was acting in 1926 through John A. Beeson.

Big Bridge a Factor

Completion of the Twin Falls-Jermol bridge, the answer asserts, will largely solve the traffic over improved thoroughfares converging in front of the Washington school, and justify the city's action in not issuing the permit, would cause traffic over the bridge.

The answer, however, has been joined temporarily in the present action from interfering with installation of the proposed filling station.

"It only does the city and its officials admit," the city attorney's answer declares, "but alleges that they will not be restrained by the court, make use of every proper and legal right to enforce the ordinance, including assessment of such fines as may be inflictable."

The answer bears signature of Mayor R. E. Bobier.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

NASH has the power you need on the HILLS

Every Nash owner notices that he has very little gear shifting to do on hills, no matter how steep the grades may be.

Nash is a very powerful motor car. There is nothing half-hearted or sluggish about its response—the motor never "talks back" at you—even though you are climbing mountains.

One reason is the more than adequate power designed into every Nash motor car. Nash engineering has provided reserve energy for situations that tax the resources of other cars, and extend their engines to the point of strain.

Another reason for the powerful performance of Nash is 7 bearings. 7 bearings in every Nash model, instead of 3 or 4, means that power is not thrown away by crankshaft "whip." Proper bearing support conserves energy that older motor types waste.

Quick acceleration—powerful responsiveness—such as Nash provides, is a safety factor you cannot overlook. It is invaluable on the hills, very handy in traffic.

When you select your next car, be sure to see how unfavorably the power and pick-up of other cars compare to Nash before you decide. There are 26 models priced from $865 to $2090.

NEW EVIDENCE IN BURGLARY TRIAL ALTERS PROCEDURE

Prosecution Introduces New Testimony Bearing on Movements of Accused Men Following Alleged Crime.

Prosecution in the burglary trial of Eugene A. Lefler in district court here Saturday introduced new evidence which, it is believed, will compel the accused men to testify in their own defense.

The accused men went on trial Friday for a second time following failure by the jury in the first trial last week to agree upon a verdict. They are charged with burglary in connection with alleged theft of an automobile from the G. W. Tarr automobile wrecking establishment here last April 20.

New evidence introduced Saturday by the prosecution was given by Martin Wegener and Mrs. W. B. Hoag. Martin Wegener is the son of one of the accused men. These witnesses told of the night of the burglary and the following day. Mrs. Hoag said that she had seen George and Lefler place a tire in the back of the car after attempting to push the tire under an adjacent cabin, and drive away hurriedly. In the first trial only one of the defendants, Andy Smith, testified in his own behalf. His testimony was limited to the night of the burglary and did not involve his co-defendants.

Other New Witnesses
The prosecution expects also to introduce testimony of two other new witnesses, Ralph Kellog and Mrs. Perry Dean, otherwise known as Mrs. Ethel Stahl, who came to Twin Falls with the accused men in their automobile from Elgin, Nevada. They are brought back with the woman's four children from Idaho Falls early Saturday by Deputy Sheriff W. B. Egan.

Thirty witnesses for the prosecution called to testify Saturday were G. W. Tarr; Evan Tarr, his son; Roy Small, employee of the Tarr establishment; W. P. French, proprietor of the Farmers' Auto Supply company; M. E.

AGRICULTURE YEAR BOOK READY SOON

Bulky Review of Farm Condition in United States to be Distributed in Near Future.

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—The Agriculture Year-Book, a bulky, double-bound review of farm conditions, is far and away the year's "best seller" among the thousands of public books and documents. It is ready for mailing. Five hundred thousand copies of this vast storehouse of farm facts are authorized each year, although only about 60,000 are made. The government foci of the bill out of a special printing and binding appropriation, and the majority of copies go to senators and representatives for distribution free of charge.

The sixth issue, covering the calendar year 1926, is now in the making and will be ready for statistical consumers about July 1. Contributors of articles number 200, there will be 1,235 or more pages, 300 illustrations and 471 tabulated pages containing 558 tables. The complete printing and binding job usually takes about four months.

Copies of the book, which cost $274.73. Twenty thousand went to the agriculture department, which paid $28.91 for them out of its annual appropriation. All of the remainder, except 100, which are reserved for sale at $1.50 a copy, provide the main supply run out, sent to the house and senate.

To produce the nearly 600,000 books, the following material was used: Velum cloth $138,330; binder's board, 67,000 boards, or 1,075,000 pounds of board; super calendered paper in 23-inch rolls, 1,041,500 sheets; machinery and parts for statistical matter, $318,000; sheets, waste, leaves, 100,500 sheets; and thread-binding stock, $100,000.

Signatures of the book, which the veteran imprinter, John S. Burnside, supervises for guidance in folding and binding, are made up in 100,000 lots and are crushed by compressed air, the process sometimes reducing five foot bundles to a compact foot and a half and two feet. The finished product is placed in another press and left 24 hours. It is then ready for consumption, and the devouring usually is fast and furious.

Next in point of production of public documents is the statistical tables, 95,000 of which were made last year.

'BOWLEGS' IS NAME OF OKLAHOMA BOMB TOWN

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 14 (AP)—One of Oklahoma's latest "bomb towns" is named "Bowlegs." The appellation comes from Bill and Lucy Bowlegs, Indians who were allotted land in general land county. For years a general scheme was being hatched at a crossroads on their property between "Bowlegs and woman." When all was found near the field in a cross known as the Bowlegs Pool. Bowlegs is a thriving village of one street. The population is estimated to be 500 at night and half that in the day time when the field workers are in the fields. Plans are under way to publish a newspaper to be known as the Bowlegs News.

DIAMOND ON CHAMPION'S HAND SIGNIFIES LITTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14 (AP)—When she appears in the All-England championships at Wimbledon, England, Helen Wills will be wearing a diamond on the third finger of her left hand and it will mean only that she is the proud possessor of the jewel. For immediately after she leaves the court on which she expects to win the championship of England, she will, as is her custom, remove the ring from her left hand and place it where she usually wears it, on the third finger of her right hand.

"Rings on the fingers of her right hand," she explained, "are given in basketball. Just before she left for England, boiler her in holding her racket and came a callous. So she makes the transfer." The temporary position of the stone "simply means nothing at all as to the tennis star's future other than the effect it might have on her playing. It is the diamond-maker's mark." The three-time national champion woman-tennis player of the United States, and winner of the Olympic prize, title in 1914, is a perpetually young woman. Forced to withdraw her entry in Wimbledon play last year and to defer in the United States national tournament because of an appendicitis operation, she went into training as soon as she regained her strength. At first she played two times a week, but during the last few months she was on the court every day with men and boys as her opponents. Miss Wills in her spare time devoted many hours a week to her art. Her studio is in a wing of the family home. Here she dabbles in painting and crayons, profiting by what she learned at the University of California, from which she has had a leave of absence.

RAILROAD CAPITAL REACHES HUGE SUM

Interstate Commerce Commission Places Value of Nation's Railways at 18-Billions.

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—Capitalization of all American railroads with an annual business of $1,000,000,000 or more each and operating more than 90 per cent of the nation's mileage, is placed at $18,723,383,919 in a consolidated balance sheet prepared by the interstate commerce commission as of December 31, 1926.

Of the total capitalization, $17,717,150,501 was represented in the par value of stocks and the remainder in bonds, notes and other evidence of debt, considering only the stated capital investment. The controversial question as to the actual worth of the roads and how much money actually has been invested in them was not considered.

From transportation services during 1926 the composite railroad pictured in the balance sheet took in revenues of $4,279,480,294 and spent $4,669,257,194 in operation. A variety of other charges, such as taxes and rents, having been subtracted and earnings from outside investments having been added, the commission found that the income remaining was $1,800,385,221.

"Disposing of this revenue," the lines said, "the railroads paid $1,000,000,000 in their fixed and floating indebtedness. With other deductions, the amount remaining for stockholders of all the lines was $69,812,000. They actually received during the year, however, in the form of dividends, a little less than $200,000,000. A little less than $200,000,000 of their surplus was set out by the weather bureau and saved by radio much more quickly than was formerly possible."

Farmers Prefer Radio Talks Without Jazz List Benefits and Improvements

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—As a result of radioacting of market reports, here noted by many farmers, Stockmen reported that larger and more profitable pig crops followed adoption of better practices outlined by radio; some had put their poultry projects on a sounder financial basis and others reported well-laid business plans. More cotton on fewer acres, better soil on the home, and more eggs from the hen also were listed as benefits of radio talks.

Two out of every three farmers prefer radio talks to any other kind, and there is a demand for short and snappy political addresses and more current news in the daily broadcast to farmers. These are some of the dislikes and preferences outlined in an analysis of replies to a questionnaire addressed by the department of agriculture to 10,000 of the 1,250,000 farmers now owning receiving sets in this country. What radio has done for the farmer and his own ideas for improving the service also are shown in the answers.

"Farmers are not using the radio merely for entertainment," says Sam Phippard, former chief of the department's radio service, who since the questionnaire was sent out, has been made secretary of the Federal Radio commission. "The day's work is now planned according to the weather forecasts sent out by the weather bureau and received by radio much more quickly than was formerly possible."

A total of 304 farmers were interviewed most in crop and soils, 223 in poultry, raising, 185 in fruits, vegetables and flowers, 168 in livestock, 181 in farm economics and 928 in dairy.

Widespread interest in farm radio is indicated by the fact that the agriculture department has received and filled 40,857 requests for cook books issued in connection with "Aunt Sammie's Housekeeping Chat," and 163,319 Farm School pamphlets which have in livestock, dairy and poultry raising, 185 in fruits, vegetables and flowers, 168 in livestock, 181 in farm economics and 928 in dairy.

FRENCH LEADERS' IDEAS SET VOGUE FOR SPORTS

PARIS, May 14 (AP)—When Suzanne Lenglen got back to France with her rumored 100,000,000 francs made in the United States, Paris dressmakers doubled their manures to take her patronage. For what Suzanne wears each in her tennis work in France and little else she hopes to rival for French women with the feminine racket wielders.

Suzanne is independently, however, she wears her tennis clothes, where she times what pleases her best. "Creations" for the tennis court do not interest her. She has refused scores of offers to accept and wear tennis dresses named for her, because they did not measure up to her ideas of what's what for tennis.

It is rumored that she orders her tennis clothes by telephone from a dealer who knows her needs so well.

Studebaker Commander

set ten world records by traveling 5000 miles in less than 5000 minutes

BUT—

What does it mean to You?

Of course, you don't want to go 5000 continuous miles at better than a mile-a-minute. But this sensational performance proved by the most brutal test ever recorded, that anything an ordinary driver wants in speed and endurance, is child's play to THE COMMANDER.

Never before has any stock enclosed car in the world achieved such a maximum of miles in such a infinitesimal of minutes.

33 Million Engine Explosions

To the ear, only a sound like the wind whistling through a grove, to the eye, only a fast-moving bulk with contour dulled by its terrific speed... yet within the six cylinders of the Commander's mighty engine—a fusillade of red hot explosions—over thirty-three million of them during the run! Connecting rods plunged upward and downward about eleven million times, wheels revolved over three million times.

Despite this ordeal, mechanical repairs were limited to three grease cups (damaged by hasty greasing) and a spark plug—negligible when you consider that this astounding performance is equivalent to 25,000 miles of ordinary going.

Let Harry Hart—America's Champion Driver—tell you out of his own experience what a stock COMMANDER will do.

Harry Hart Says: "If I'll maintain any given speed up to sixty-five miles per hour, longer, more smoothly, and at less expense per hour traveled, for gasoline, oil and repairs, than any other stock automobile now being built in the United States."

Commander Sedan, $1885; Commander Victoria, $1575; (breakdown upholstery, $1645); Commander Coupe, $1545. (with wheels only, $1645).—All prices f. o. b. factory, including front and rear bumpers, mudsills all around, and four-wheel brakes. Other Studebaker and Packard models range in price from $945 to $2425.

BABSON COMMENTS ON THE WATER ACTIVITY OF STOCK MARKET

Statistics Held to Show That Generally All Issues Have Not Advanced Much; Few Specular Leaders.

BABSON-PARK, Mass., May 14 (Special to The News)—Roger W. Babson has just returned to New York after a week's stay in the mountains, and his first comment was concerning the stock market which has been very active during his winter in the south. Mr. Babson's statement is as follows:

The impression seems to be that the stock market has had a great advance in the past winter. It is true that certain stocks, like United States Steel and General Motors have advanced considerably, but these are the exception rather than the rule. In fact, the general market has not advanced much. Last September the average of the 20 leading industrial stocks was 100. Today it is 105. This is a gain of 5 percent. While certain stocks have gone up considerably, other stocks have gone down. In fact, the general market shows more increase over a year ago and the transactions have been very heavy.

A market with heavy transactions, a few spectacular leaders, but with no general advance, is usually the sign of a declining market. The fact that there are some selling stocks this past winter. When operating such a campaign, the custom is to build a few spectacular leaders as a screen while they sell the general market. Newspapers tend to feature these leaders and this makes the general market look like it is going up. In fact, the general market is going down.

During depression, local securities decline most. During a boom, local securities go up least and New York listed securities go up most. In view of this condition, now is a very good time to invest one's money locally. In every city there are many different kinds of stocks, such as public utility, manufacturing, and other forms of securities.

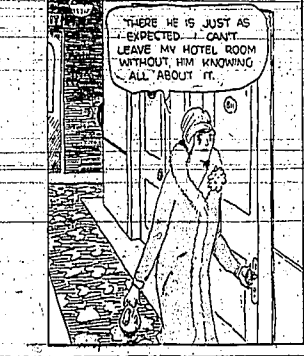

When an abundant money has caused many pools to be formed, these pools have been very strong. The leading banks of New York are personally interested in these pools and hence have an abundance of credit. This is a very good condition for the stock market.

Which Foreign Conditions? The most serious factor of the situation other than decreasing earnings which forecasts of the future is the unsettled affairs abroad. Although Europe is greatly improving, yet its financial situation remains very uncertain. An explosion in Europe would have a very bad effect on the stock market.

WILD ANIMAL LIFE OF ROCKIES MULTIPLYING

Winter Reports From Glacier Park Range Indicate Plenty of Game in Mountains.

GLACIER PARK, Mont., May 14 (Special to The News)—Winter reports from the superintendant of the National Park Service indicate there is plenty of game in the Rocky mountains this year—more sheep, elk and deer, with some moose found in certain sections.

Practically all of the summer tourists traveling the trails usually the different animals or animals in greater or less numbers. Mountain goats are to be seen on nearly all high summits. They have been seen on Grouse Pass trail at Sperry Chalet, at Granite Park along the Garden of Eden, on the trail from the Birch trail, along the Garden Wall, on the Pagan Pass trail, on the ledges about Crater Chalet, on the trail about Crater Chalet, on the trail about Gap pass, along the trail over Indian pass, on Coahunt at Waterton lake, and from the Mt. Mansfield camp on King mountain.

As many as 15 have been seen in one place. Moose sheep have their limited range, and are much more difficult to see, as they blend with the rocks and the foliage. At many Glacier as many as 20 females with lambs came down to the salt near the chalet. Visitors have gone as close as 40 to 50 feet of them. There were days when whole visitors sat in the hotel and through the windows watched sheep, from five to 20 on Mount Ararat. Then they went to another window and watched the movements of from two to five goats on the end of Crater Chalet.

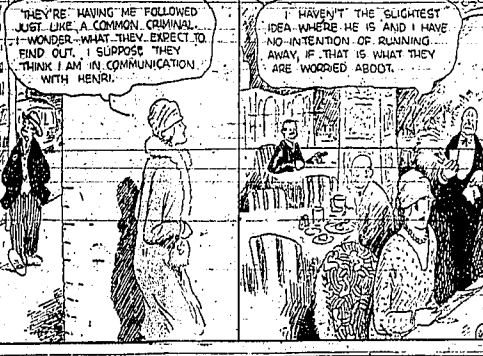

While deer are not so commonly seen they are close about camps and hotels. A great many tourists reported seeing them, at different places last summer. Some deer are shy and wild, they may be scared very frequently by the trails and be unobserved. Also they state came in near by blowing the milk production of 14,000 pounds per cow on state farms, against a production of 10,000 for every cow in the pastures of Wolverine institutions.
