NEW JAPANESE PLAN MAY PROVE FAILURE OF GENERAL MEETING

Nippon's Delegation Presents Compromise Formula to American Representative; Suggestion Has Attractions.

By The Associated Press. OMAHA, Aug. 2.—"The idea" was the modest phrase which the Japanese statesman used when presenting early today to Hugh S. Gibson, chief American representative, their compromise formula on the crucial problem which has menaced the tripartite naval conference.

Attractive Features. Despite this new move, however, it was said in responsible quarters today that the specter of failure looms which, as a prospect, has generally alarmed responsible men of many countries—should not yet be definitely avoided.

Mr. Gibson called the text of the proposal to Washington today, to be reviewed by the committee. Furthermore, W. C. Bridgeman, chief British delegate, who had been in London, has telegraphed it to Mr. Gibson, who has telegraphed it to London.

When the Japanese conveyed the expression "an idea," in giving the formula to Mr. Gibson, they meant that they said. They explained that they really realized it was entirely imperfect, and said they hoped Mr. Gibson would feel free to make any modifications or any comment he desired.

It provides for the maintenance of the status quo, so far as cruiser strength is concerned, but, for Great Britain and Japan, and gives the United States an opportunity to "catch up" with them in powerfully armed and armored cruisers.

The proposal declares that Great Britain and Japan shall cease, up to 1931, from any building of large cruisers beyond those already authorized.

It flags the number of 10,000 ton cruisers to be built up to 1931 at 12 for Great Britain and 12 for the United States and eight for Japan. This proposal is being closely examined by the United States.

Flame Burns Into Flames. Fellow officers at the field stated that the plane burst into flames, at a height of about 1000 feet. As the ship hurtled toward the earth, the officers noticed the squadron commander climb from the cockpit and then leap. His parachute opened only a few feet from the ground, as the blazing plane crashed about 30 feet away and was destroyed by fire.

CAPITAL THOUSANDS PAY SIGNAL HONORS TO WALTER JOHNSON

Washington's Idol of the Diamond Gets First Distinguished Service Cross Ever Presented to Player by League.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Honors befitting two decades of brilliant baseball achievement were bestowed today upon Walter Johnson, the captain of the diamond, and one of the great pitchers of all time.

Besides a roaring demonstration from his home town folk, Johnson received from the American league the first distinguished service cross ever awarded any baseball player. It was of solid gold, studded with 20 diamonds, one for each year of his service.

Will Erect Memorial To honor the hero of the ball field, capital fans today gave Johnson the service and will cause to be erected at Griffith stadium a permanent memorial in the form of a sun dial of bronze or marble.

From his teammates he received a silver water pitcher and they while the Washington and Detroit clubs presented him with a check for $14,760.50, representing the excess of the gate receipts on Johnson day over the average receipts for seven days baseball games.

Flashes Against Detroit After the presentation ceremony, Johnson walked to the box where 20,000 fans to the day he faced the Detroit Tigers in his first major league game. Again he pitched against a Detroit team and his face was much the same as it was on his first start.

Then he was taken out of the box late in the game and that happened again today—in the ninth inning—and his team lost by the same margin as on that other memorable day of the strike run. Walter was charged with defeat then, but not today for Washington leading 5 to 0 when he retired.

Although his fast ball has lost much of the speed and hog it had when he came out of Idaho, a smiling youth, he wrote his name imperishably in baseball history, he was able to turn back six of the Tigers on strikes, hitting them out of 20 batters to 455. This is the greatest strike out record ever made.

Vandals Scheduled To Meet 17 Teams Four conference and four non-conference games will be played by the University of Idaho and Grand Valley today. It is stated by an announcement just sent out from the state university.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS ON WHEAT MARKETS

Two Much Uncertainty Regarding Spring Crop Conditions Exists to Warrant Speculating

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Failure of buying to develop force enough to sustain price bulges through about a steady market in wheat today. At the same time, however, too much uncertainty regarding spring wheat crop conditions existed to warrant any speculative selling.

Heading sales in the wheat market of a persistent character, and this circumstance did a good deal to offset the influence of the actual announcement of black rust and frost reports that came in both from the spring crop belt northwest and from the winter wheat belt following reports here, the amount of which on ocean passage showed a decided increase over last week and a year ago.

Low Temperatures It was noted on reports that abnormal low temperatures northward are preventing rapid maturing of spring wheat and wheat in the north and Canada especially, as such of the crop there is late, augmenting the likelihood of damage either by frost or from a hard spring that is only about 24 hours of the winter kind of weather is required to cause heavy damage from rust and blight in central and southern Manitoba, with the wheat crop in that area.

Prospect of warmer weather in the corn belt were largely responsible for corn market declines. Oats dragged lower with corn.

Producers here responsive to weakness of hog values and of cotton oil, and a substantial increase shown in the amount of that herd.

TWIN FALLS PROVES MECCA OF REUNION

Sister Meets Deputy Sheriff After Thirty-eight Years: Father Is Reunited With Son

Twin Falls is becoming a Mecca toward which those who have long lost relatives come to be reunited just as it has been the cradle of those sought in separation. At least that inference may be drawn from two incidents which occurred within the past week.

Sister Is Visitor A man and woman entered the sheriff's office Tuesday morning and inquired if an man named Dalton was living nearby. Deputy Sheriff W. S. Doherty declared he was the person sought. Asked by the man if he recognized the name, he replied that he did not. "Well," said the visitor, "she is your sister." So she was, but they were separated thirty-eight years ago. She was three years old, some 27 years ago.

Has a Family Mamie Dalton that was is now Mrs. Mamie McKenna and she and her husband and family live in Gold Field, Nevada. She was a daughter of George C. Crossland, who was killed in the gold fields. Her brother lived in Elbow, Twin Falls, but Dalton did not know where his sister lived. Some weeks ago a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKenna went through Twin Falls. They asked a man on the street something about direction and after he had gone asked another man if William S. Dalton lived in Twin Falls. "Yes," replied the other, "that was he to whom you were talking." They were in a hurry, however, and did not stop.

Finding, Kenneth Corbridge, a musician and actor with the Ford Stock company now playing in a tent here was recognized by an uncle as the son of George Corbridge of Boise. It seems that the elder Corbridge and his wife separated over 20 years ago, and after the separation Kenneth was kidnapped by his mother who disappeared with him and raised him. He made recognition of the boy who inherited the appearance and walk of his father. On being informed that his son was in Twin Falls, the elder Corbridge came here with his wife and eight-year-old daughter and a pleasant visit was enjoyed. Kenneth said his mother told him before he came to Idaho that he might find relatives here. The boy is a violinist but plays a number of other instruments.

A. A. Man Here—H. J. Cohen, representative for the A. A. A. in Idaho, was an arrival Tuesday afternoon and held at the Rosemont.
