PROMINENT FIGURES DISCUSS TO NAMES OF 1928 CANDIDATES

Hoover, Dawes, Lowden, Borah and Speaker Longworth Are Prominent Figures in Talk of Nomination for President.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Political discussion in national circles turned largely today from President Coolidge's announcement that he does not propose to run in 1928 to the prospects of the various men whose names have been put forward as eligibles for the republican presidential nomination.

While none of them has made any declaration, Secretary Hoover, Vice-President Dawes, Frank B. Rowland, U. S. Senator Borah of Idaho, and Speaker Longworth were among those named when much of the speculation centered on the names of the candidates.

Discussion Includes Many Other names mentioned in the informal discussions of the politicians included those of Charles Evans Hughes—Senator—Washington of Indiana, Senator Johnson of Ohio, Senator Senator Fea of Ohio, Governor, Mr. Hughes and Senator Watson have announced that they will not be in the race.

There was no small amount of speculation as to which one of the present mentioned eligibles would "inherit" the bulk of Coolidge's strength in the party organization.

Those who still adhere to the opinion that President Coolidge had left the way open for him to accept the nomination of forced upon him by the convention asserted that with the field full of candidates and favoring those there was the possibility of a deadlock which might force the leaders to turn to the president for a name.

While there will be much discussion of candidates and, probably, considerable activity among the delegates in the next few months, it may be early next year when the presidential nomination will be decided.

16 States Have Primaries—Sixteen states have such primaries. New Hampshire holding the first on May 22 and West Virginia last on May 20. So far republican national committee headquarters here is advised in only one of the states is a declaration of acceptance by the candidate necessary.

It was stated that in the other states Mr. Coolidge's name could be used, or candidates for election on convention delegates could be named for him without his consent.

"I'm glad I followed the advice of Mary Garden"

Margery Bailey is telling her companion, Ed Wagner, as he offers her a Lucky Strike between tennis matches at Forest Hills.

Marvelous Mary Garden writes:

"My teachers, Trabello and Richard Bartelemy, all impressed upon me the solemn warning that I must always treat my throat as a delicate instrument. Yet every artist is under constant strain. Sometimes we get real relaxation in smoking a cigarette. I prefer Lucky Strikes—which both protects the throat and gives real enjoyment."

Mary Garden

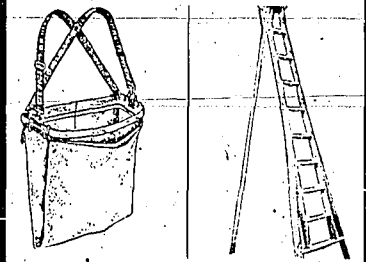

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted"

Terrific vibrations had jarred his engine loose, and there was fire all about it.

With the engine gone, the plane would have been so badly lamed that it would have spun down all first.

So this young hero, in the face of that would keep the engine as close as possible in the plane, kept the flames away from the rest of the plane, and still prevented a crash.

This series of maneuvers resulted in an extremely rapid loss of altitude.

To most of us non-flying mortals that would probably be called falling. To the trained flier it was "extremely rapid loss of altitude."

When he finally got to the ground, without a crash, he records: "Seven cylinder engines were completely missing, as were the pistons and connecting rods from the cylinders, and the two remaining cylinder heads were badly cracked and the pistons and rods missing."

The rear end of the engine and such parts as remained around it were badly damaged, showing that the parts which were lost had left with great violence.

This aviator is an artist at narration as well as at flying. Anybody who does not get a thrill and a chuckle out of that "let with great violence" is certainly lacking in imagination and appreciation.

The retirement of William G. Thompson and Herbert Ehrmann, who have had charge of the defense in the proceedings before the Supreme court looking to a new trial for George and Vanzetti, was said to be a setback.

Course Criticized: In a sharply stated opinion late today a returning colonel criticized the course which United States Attorney Feltner conducted his personal investigation of the Barco-Vanzetti case.

While their interests were studying new means of averting their death sentence, more and more the early conclusion of an agreement for the limitation of auxiliary jury members.

TRIGUERO ESTATE TO INCREASE ITS FLOCK

Court Issues Order Authorizing Receiver to Float $12,000 Loan.

Martino Guerinichabarra of California, whose claim to the Frank-Triguero $180,000 estate is being contested in the courts by the late administrator, obtained in district court here Thursday an order permitting the receiver of the estate to borrow $12,000 for the purchase of 100 ewes and 200 bucks.

The order was granted by Judge W. A. Baker after it was shown that the purchase was to be made for replacement and, for increasing, the flock so they could be handled with maximum efficiency.

The sheep are to be purchased from Walter Basell, and the money is to be borrowed from the First National bank of Idaho.

The estate was transferred by Triguero to Guerinichabarra shortly before his death last October, and Guerinichabarra's claim which was sustained by a verdict in district court here, is challenged in an appeal to the state supreme court now pending before that body.

The sheep to be purchased include 700 three-year old ewes at $13 each and 200 six-year old ewes at $1 each. The bucks are to be "throw" ewes.

MONEY ORDER THEFTS ARE BECOMING COMMON

Postoffice and Express Companies Report Successful Forgeries on Stolen Blanks.

Theft of money orders seems to be a growing crime according to the increasing number of complaints received. Recently, a number were stolen from the Cragsmont postoffice in Idaho. Wednesday evening notice was received by the police from Salt Lake of the theft and, in some instances, successful cashing of express money orders. Thursday Postmaster P. W. McInerney received notice of stealing in California and existing in Washington, postal money orders upon which the following statement:

Post office money orders Nos. 18871 to 18900 were stolen at Butlerford, California, July 10, 1927. Several of these orders were cashed in Yakima, Washington, Saturday evening, July 30, at stores by man and woman working separately. Indications are they are working toward Twin Falls. Keep sharp lookout for anyone trying to pass money orders, bearing above serial numbers from Butlerford, California, and notify police officers at once and have parties attempting to pass same taken into custody.

SERVICE CLUB TO AID FREIGHT RATE BATTLE

Kiwanis Club Pledges Support in Fight to Lower Cost of Shipping to Markets.

The Twin Falls Kiwanis club, pledged its support to secure more equitable freight rates for the farmers on the Twin Falls tract, following an address Thursday noon by Sherman M. Coffin, manager of the Idaho Rate association.

Mr. Coffin, who has been speaking here for more than a week before various farm organizations, put considerable force in his address to the service club and explained in detail how the Twin Falls tract was discriminated against in the matter of shipping farm produce and livestock. He said that with equitable freight rates the farmers of the Twin Falls country would be the most prosperous on earth, but that now they were obliged to pay too high a tribute. Fred H. Hill favored with two social spots accompanied by Mrs. O. P. Duvall. It was announced that on Thursday Frank J. Freeman, secretary of the Twin Falls county fair association, would be one of the speakers.

TWIN FALLS CHILDREN READ MANY BOOKS

New Books Received at Library Are in Good Demand; Travel Sets Are Most Popular.

Hot weather has not dimmed the interest of juvenile readers in Twin Falls, according to the findings of Miss Fidelity Dwyer, assistant librarian, who reports that among the younger children there is almost as much reading this summer as in usually the case during the school period. Every afternoon sees the new library quarters pretty well filled with children, some reading at the tables and others looking over books to make selections. Non-fiction books that have just recently been added to the library, comprise: "Marching On," "Hoyd," "Evelyn Adams," "Blackwood Princess," "Foster," "Bonanza," "Eatin'," "Lost Easy," "Dinah," "Old Counties," "Bedwicker,"

"Alias, Dr. Ely," "Thayer and Kingdoms of the World," "Pattie." Variation lists for the children have not been used this year, but those who cared to do so have been continuing to read from the lists which were used during the school year, says Miss Dwyer, who adds that the children are reading a good many non-fiction books and she cites as the most popular of these: "David Gove to Greenland," "Copperport," "Days of the Colonists," "Days of the Pilgrims," "Jungle Joe," and "The Boy Mechanic." She also lists that many of the little books of history series have been unusually popular during the last month or two, and a new set of three books called, "My Travelship," are in good demand, the library records show. These books are beautifully illustrated and they are largely being used by mothers to read to their children. Their titles are, "Little Pictures of Japan," "Suzerity Friends from France" and "Tales Told in Holland." "My Bookhouse," a set of six beautiful books for children of different ages, are also noted among the most popular-sets in the library. A good many high school students are continuing their summer reading for the purpose of getting credits and are using the list compiled by the English department of the high school and the librarian. The students are given an outline for a report of the book when they take it out. This report is completed and given to the librarian when the book is returned. In the fall the students will be given credit for this work and will have accomplished much in the reading line that would have to be done during the school year had the vacation period not been taken advantage.

GRANGERS TAKE NOTICE. Members of the Twin Falls county granges who wish to buy coal from the grange are requested to give their orders before August 15 to Ed. Vance at Public Market-Advt.
