TWIN FALLS BRUINS TROUNCE OGDEN CLUB BY SCORE OF 4 TO 0

Bobby Hurst Allows Five Scattered Hits and Leard's Crew Emerges From Contest With 4 to 0 Victory; Walters Out.

Allowing but five scattered bingles, Bobby Hurst led the Bruins to a 4 to 0 victory over the Ogdens Thursday afternoon in an error-ridden game that lasted but one hour and 25 minutes. Bobby's Anita was much for the better of the Bruins and men were sent back via the strike-out route, while the rest of Baker's blunders tried vainly to beat out error rollers or prayed for the ball bawks in the outfield to stub their toes. Revenge is sweet and the fans cooler-ly celebrated the Bruins' victory and left the park satisfied.

Kinney Pitched Good Ball
Kinney pitched a good game for the Bruins and kept the Ogdens striking at the bad ones most of the time. In all they garnered 11 blows, two of which were directed at Maki's, two of which were directed at Maki's, two of which were directed at Maki's, two of which were directed at Maki's.

Peterson Gies Homer
Peterson called the game away in the first inning when he drove a circuit low over the centerfield wall with two men scoring three runs that were the Bruins' only advantage until the sixth frame when Tony's single scored Peterson. Pete had a perfect day at bat, getting two blows in two trips to the plate. After his error in the first inning, Kinney wasn't taking any chances when Pete came up with men on base and he was promptly passed to first. Tony Krasovich, playing third for Walters, played a nice game and batted two blows in two trips.

Walters, it is said, will be out of the game for the remainder of the season owing to the injury of his arm in Wednesday's game. He was hit on the wrist by a pitched ball in the eighth inning of Wednesday's game, and the injury has proven more serious than it was believed to be at first. The

DUMB BELLS

Scouts will miss Walters' war club and with an eight game series the loss of his pitching ability will also be keenly felt.

The clubs will play the fourth game of the series this afternoon, and the Bruins will be out to even up the series. The Ogdens still have Daglia, Miller and Michaels, and the skipper had not yet announced his entry. It is a pretty safe bet that he will hold his feet out for a hot walk and his own club will love the idea.

DEMPEY'S CURRY HARD TO HIT IN WORKOUTS

Ex-Champion Is Not Easy Target for Right Hand Smashers to Jaw; Flynn Instructs.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1 (AP)—Jack Dempsey was no easy target for right hand smashers to the chin today as he was yesterday. The Kansas Mauler worked three rounds, one with Jack McCann, another with Tommy Sullivan, St. Paul boxer, and one with Gus Till, Rochester light-heavyweight. Dempsey won the honors in each round. Manager Flynn sent Dempsey into the ring to box with strict instructions to spend his time within the ropes exclusively to avoid left jabs and hooks. Flynn was not particular if Dempsey did not strike back a single blow. But with three thousand customers jammed around the ring, Dempsey was not content to duck and weave. He simply could not restrain himself and his sparring partners had more trouble keeping away from Jack's left hooks than he in evading their thrusts.

EDEN TO MEET FILER IN MARCH TO SECOND PLACE

EDEN, Sept. 1 (Special to The News)—One of the remaining two games scheduled in the "Twin or Tim" league for the Eden team will be played here Sunday afternoon with the Filer team. This game will wind up the season on the local lot, so far as the schedule is concerned. However, another contest will be promoted the fans here, providing the local team can turn in enough more wins to entitle it to second place in the league standing.

At present Eden is looked upon as one of the favorite teams to enter the series. Bull is also making a hard fight to capture the runner-up position. The game here Sunday with the Filer team should be an interesting one as these two teams staged one of the best games of the whole league season at Filer two weeks ago when Eden won out 4 to 3. Filer last but not Sunday to the Kimberly team, which lost put them out of the running for the pennant.

Eden expects to be in full force next Sunday and if the team knows the pep that it has during the past two weeks the locals will have little difficulty in holding their own with Filer.

One of the tough games of the season for Eden will be at Bull on September 11. This contest will probably be needed to determine which team will win the right to contend for honors in the final series with Kimberly.

Pilots First Automobile Over New Span Across Snake River

A full month ahead of the time fixed for formal opening of the titanic span, James B. Keel of Twin Falls and Jerome Thurston after noon piloted the first automobile to cross the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge. The driver drove from a number of waters, some of which were made by Mr. Keel as early as a year ago but that would drive an automobile across the bridge on September 1, 1927. Personal gratification over completion of the bridge was worth many times the sum it cost. The car was piloted by Mr. Keel for Mr. Keel to win his wages. Photographers, including a Paramount news reel motion picture camera man, made a graphic record of the drive.

Make First Trip With Mr. Keel on the drive across the titanic span were E. M. Murray of Portland, designer of the bridge; Charles G. Huber of Portland, president of the Union Bridge company which, with the Puget Sound Bridge and Dredging company cooperated in building the span; Bruce C. Shattuck, Seattle, president of the Twin Falls-Jerome Intercity Bridge company which will operate the bridge; Elmer C. Ostrom and Mrs. Annie Ostrom, the construction companies, and Carl E. Lind, chairman of Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce roads committee.

The big new automobile piloted by Mr. Keel on this occasion crossed the bridge from the south side and returned to the north side of the river, turning around on the road at the north approach.

SEARCH CANAL FOR TWIN FALLS FARMER BELIEVED SUICIDE

Note Found by Son on Floor of Father's Car at Bridge Indicates L. J. Johnson Plunged Into Stream.

Willie Willis

BY ROBERT GIBSON

I could not see to the movie (day) maybe; but Peg wanted us to practice riding to the base and I forgot about having on my Sunday pants.

(Copyright 1927, Publishers Syndicate)

Search in the low line canal three miles south of here for the body of Len J. Johnson, 47, Twin Falls farmer, who is believed to have committed suicide Thursday morning by a force under direction of the sheriff's office. Water running 10 feet deep was turned out of the canal Thursday afternoon and it is estimated that the water course will have drained dry by 4 p. m.

A pencil note found on the floor of Johnson's car near a bridge where he is believed to have entered the stream, furnished foundation for the belief that Johnson took his own life. Dependence over finances is believed to have been the motive. The note in Johnson's handwriting was addressed "Dear Peg."

"I am leaving you this morning," it continued. "I think every thing will be better when I am gone and everything is over with. It's all my fault, but I could not help it. You have always been a good woman and I hope the children will all appreciate it and I sure hope Lloyd will be good to all of you and help you just when I am gone. I hope God will forgive me for this act and may God bless you. Good-bye, all."

The note was signed, "Your husband and father, Len Johnson."

Len Johnson, 47, died on the farm on Thursday afternoon from a fall on the Salmon river project owned by his father.

The boy came first to the police station here. He asked that no word of the occurrence be given to his mother until the facts were determined. He said he was "bad" and "shouldn't have said anything."

P. J. Grossman, coroner, and R. E. Leighton, police chief, went at once with Lloyd Johnson to the canal and made a preliminary examination which disclosed the elder Johnson's cap at the sill of the bridge. Deputy sheriff and citizens later entered on the search that extended for more than two miles below the bridge. A blue line of direction a screen net was placed in the stream a mile below where Johnson is believed to have entered the water.

Came From Illinois Johnson with his family came to Twin Falls from Cherry Valley, Ill., about seven years ago and after the expiration of a short time spent in this city, lived on the farm owned by Dr. C. A. Eames on the Blue Lakes boulevard here since. He owned a farm on the Salmon tract, but did not live on it.

Left Home Early Thursday morning Johnson left home early, saying that he was going to town and after transacting some business would return with groceries before noon. His son, Lloyd, 17, was working on the Salmon tract farm and came to town about 9:30 for some repairs on machinery. Lloyd went home

STEPHAN SAYS COUNTY SHOULD COLLECT LEVY

Attorney General Holds Law Special Assessments Affects Only New Districts.

Copy of an opinion of Frank L. Stephan, attorney general, holding that the special assessments in municipalities shall be collected by the city instead of by the county, as heretofore, very likely applies to districts created since March 16, was forwarded to County Auditor Harry C. Parsons, W. D. Gillis, Piler city attorney. The attorney general gave the opinion originally in response to a query from C. B. Babcock of Clatsop county.

Gillis Gives Views In response to an inquiry in regard to his personal views, Mr. Gillis, who was speaker of the Idaho house when the act providing that special assessments in municipalities shall be collected by the city instead of by the county, he believed the wording made it so apply. He added that in his opinion the act should apply to the old districts, the provision that the collecting be done by the city in old districts was unconstitutional, as it might endanger collections and affect the validity of contracts.

Opinion of Stephan After repeating the query of Mr. Babcock, the attorney general said: "In reply to your inquiries I wish to advise that it is the opinion of this office that the provisions of chapter 217 of the 1927 session laws do not apply to districts created prior to the time said chapter 217 became effective. The law was originally drafted without section 10, which specifically provided that with respect to local improvement districts heretofore created and under provisions of section 55 of said act, chapter 217 would then be applied in all local improvement districts heretofore created and to the collection of any assessment or installment of assessments which had not become delinquent prior to the time the act took effect."

However, before the law was passed by both the house of representatives and the senate, section 10 was added to it and it now appears to this office that very likely the provisions of section 10 would control and that as to improvement districts created before March 16, 1927, the old law would apply and that the new law would apply only to such districts as may be created subsequent to that date.

OFFICER TAKES BACK WORLD WAR TROPHIES

American Veteran Carries Own Expedition of 'Good Will to Germany and Austria.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—An American war veteran is carrying out his own expedition of good will to Germany and Austria.

Lieut. Col. George Crouse Cook is sailing for Germany to restore to his former enemies all of the hundreds of relics he gathered during the world war, relics that he feels no longer belong to him.

He has scores of names and voluminous data. Thus equipped he hopes to restore to his former owners of iron crosses, helmets, name plates from dugouts, caps, straps, wound abdominal medals, epaulettes and fragments of wrecked aircraft.

And if he cannot find the men themselves, he is sure there will be relatives or friends who will cherish these remembrances.

The object back of his trip is, just simply, he wishes to have a republican government. I see no reason in the world why Germans cannot be accepted as citizens of the world as much as anyone else.

Lieut. Col. Crouse's belief that he can turn down former owners is based upon the fact that virtually every relic is some individual's name or some association connected with it.

As an engineer in the transport corps I had unusual opportunities to pick up the stuff," he pointed out.

Prisoners, for instance, would part with almost anything for a few cigarettes. Or we would go into German dugouts, often fitted up beautifully.

TELLS TEACHERS HOW TO SOLVE CHILD'S PROBLEMS

Reaction of Particular Student to Certain Teacher Frequently Is for Better or Worse.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—Teachers with problems and mental conflicts of their own are often blamed for the behavior problems of difficult children, believes Dr. Doran Folsom.

Dr. Folsom, a psychologist now at the Vanderbilt Clinic in New York, is the author of a new book, "The Reaction of a Particular Child to a Particular Teacher."

Dr. Folsom's book is a study of the child's behavior difficulties in later life, he told a group of New York psychologists and social workers meeting under the auspices of the Associated Guidance Bureau.

Dr. Folsom has just returned from Toronto where he lectured at the World Conference on Education held at Toronto University. He bases his statements on observations made as a physician and psychologist in many countries.

At one time he was chief consultant in criminal lunacy for the British government in Palestine and later of the Republic of Mount Lebanon in Jerusalem. In Austria and Switzerland he studied under Emil Kraepelin and Sigmund Freud, specialists in mental problems.

"Formerly, the educator treated a child as though its behavior was motivated only by conscious need of evil intentions," he said.

Now instead of being upset by a child's business stupidity or stubbornness, the modern teacher thinks of these characteristics as manifestations of unconscious difficulties standing in the way of his progress.

There is a simple preventive against pedagogical mistakes and their subsequent injury to the child. First there must be a knowledge of the child's fundamental cravings, needs and handicaps.

Then the teacher must have the same knowledge concerning himself.

Dr. Folsom will tour Canada in September, addressing teachers and social workers on the subject of the educational problems of children.

Owners Keep Finding Ancient Swedish Bonds

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 1 (AP)—Curious war relics in the form of mutilated Swedish government bonds from the invaded districts of France, as well as the former Baltic provinces of Russia, continue to be presented in Stockholm for payment, the head of the public debt commission, Dr. Karl Hildebrand, has announced.

Some have been half buried in bombardments and city conflagrations; others are mouldy and half decayed from lying buried with other treasure in the ground.

Many bonds are still lost and as the chances of their recovery are getting more and more remote, the Swedish government is likely to have its foreign debt correspondingly reduced.

In the ten years preceding the world war, more than 700,000 Swedish government bonds were lost to small investors in France. When the invasion began many owners hastily dug them up in the ground before fleeing.

Radio Helps to Save Symphony Orchestra

CHICAGO, Sept. 1 (AP)—The Chicago Symphony Orchestra faced with dissolution because of salary differences with its musicians, has been saved by public subscriptions, with the radio audience of the middle west leading the way.

When announcement was made that the orchestra must disband unless $2300 were raised to pay increased salaries asked by the musicians, the proposition was placed before listeners of radio station WMAQ and WGN.

Some of the frequent broadcast of the orchestra had gone over the air, and many of the radio audience was asked to show its appreciation by contributing.

The money began to come in quickly and virtually all of the necessary $23,000 was raised in that fashion. The radio fans' money, added to contributions made directly to the Symphony Association, was sufficient to insure continuance of the orchestra.

BRITISH MOTOR BOATS OUT TO WIN TROPHY

English Speed Crafts, Losers of Duke of York Prize to Mrs. Rang, Are Out for Revenge.

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Sept. 1 (AP)—Two British motor boats that lost the Duke of York trophy to Mrs. J. H. Rang's "Little Spitfire" of Tonawanda, N. Y., are out for revenge.

Accordingly, Count Johnston-Nood with his "Miss Betty" and Miss Betty Carsstairs with her famous "Newg" have sailed from England to take part in the international motor boat races in Detroit in September.

Mrs. Rang's "Little Spitfire" had slight difficulty in smatching the Duke of York trophy from Miss Betty Carsstairs' "Newg" last year's winner.

Ralph Snoddy, joint owner of "Little Spitfire" piloted the United States boat all three days of the trophy event, each day of which the American boat easily ran away from three British contenders over the 30-mile course.

"Little Spitfire" time on the last day was 1 hour, 2 minutes and 53 seconds, while the "Newg" crossed the finish line after 1 hour, 3 minutes and 31 seconds.

Complete results for all three days gave "Little Spitfire" a time of 174 minutes and 40 seconds with an average speed of 31 knots as compared to the "Newg" 182 minutes, 38 seconds and average speed of 30.2 knots.

Count Johnston-Nood's "Miss Betty" had 209 minutes time and an average speed of 24.8 knots.

AMERICANS DEFEND CUP WON FIVE TIMES

Few Games Have More Thrills Than Polo; Fans Will Witness Colorful Contest.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—Few sports have a richer tradition or thrill than polo, which will witness its most colorful contest in the ninth International Cup series between America and England starting September 5 at the historic Meadow Brook Club on Long Island.

It probably is costing between $150,000 and $200,000 for this year's challenge by a formidable team of British officers, representing the Army-India and financed to a large extent by the British government.

It is because of the coolness of the enterprise that the principal two polo-playing nations, Britain and America, agreed some time ago to limit the challenge for the classic trophy to three-year intervals.

Thus the tally of International Cup matches since 1886, which were in 21 nations, America triumphed five times and England three times.

The real organization of American polo dates from its first victory, in 1908, when the efforts of Harry Payne Whitney, noted sportsman and player, culminated in the formation of the "Blue Polo." This was composed of Whitney, Larry Waterbury, Monte Waterbury and Doyce W. Milburn.

This quarter-replicated British challenge at home in 1911 and 1913, the latter break in the marks coming in the first year when Louis E. Stoddard, now in England, replaced Whitney.

His supremacy restored, America had no trouble disposing of the British challenge in 1924. The favored call in the services of Luis Lacey, famous Anglo-Argentine back, but they were soundly trounced in two straight games, outscored 7 to 1 and 10 to 0.

Hunches

In the Ozarks a man named Adam Fowler buys by hunches. He'll point to a sack of flour among several varieties, "I've a hunch that's what I want."

Hunch buys are rare in these days of advertisements. You don't buy by intuition, but by judgment and fact. You are as sure a product is what you want when you buy it as if you took it home, used it, used other brands with it, then determined your choice.

LOWER ESTIMATE OF YIELD BOOSTS PRICE

Market Shows Upward Trend Owing to Reports of Smaller Production Forecasts.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1 (AP)—All grain markets here today actively opened to curtailed estimates of the domestic wheat yield and because of a long range forecast of frost. Close to 1 1/2 cts higher, corn 1/4 to 1/2 cts up, oats unchanged to 1/4 cts advance and provisions rising from 2c decline to a rise of 30c.

Expert Demand Fair With Liverpool wheat quotations higher than due and with deliveries here on September contracts being heavily absorbed, local grain prices in Canada had scant influence, especially as Winnipeg reports from other sources stated that the Canadian crop probably will be better than last year. Export demand today for wheat from North America was fair with 200,000 bushels bought here for shipment to Europe via Montreal. Today's deliveries of wheat in Chicago totaled on September contracts were 4,753,000 bushels.

Strength in the corn market today was associated a good deal with an "unfettered" market here, even foot beginning in the Canadian northwest by September 3 and extending as far south as Iowa by September 6.
