RICKARD REFUSES TO INTERCEDE IN BEHALF OF CORRESPONDENTS

"Dempsy and Flynn Know Their Business," and I Shall Not Interfere, Says Promoter; Ex-Champ Trains Alone.

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Newspaper correspondents followed Jack Dempsey in his moonlight maneuvers, held an indignation meeting because Dempsey had refused to train in their presence and had elected to do his training at night instead of the afternoon.

Rickard refused to intercede for the correspondents, declaring it was Dempsey's business to train in the best possible condition and he would not give him any advice as to the way this should be done.

"Dempsy and Flynn know their business and I'm not going to interfere," Rickard said. "It is my idea that Dempsy is boxing at night with the best around to get his eyes accustomed to the glare of the lights. That sounds all right to me."

"Afternoon training in a sports outfit with green coat and white trousers, spent the afternoon in the clubhouse enclosure. He was closely attended by Manager Leo P. Flynn and a retinue from his training camp at the Lincoln hills race track a few miles south of here."

Rickard declared that it would be a pugilistic sense for Dempsy to train in the afternoon. Rickard announced that Dempsy and Flynn would battle in the Yankee stadium two months ago.

Three Platforms To meet the demands of the newspaper photographers, Rickard decided to build three platforms, each high, and each accommodating 12 photographers. One will be utilized by the staff making movies of the battle.

Rickard said he received word from Jack Sharkey that he would arrive next week to challenge the winner.

GENE TUNNEY BACK IN TRAINING CAMP

Heavyweight Will Box First of Three Final Workouts Before Big Fight in Windy City.

TUNNEY CAMP, Lake Villa, Ill., Sept. 14 (AP)—Gene Tunney was back at his training camp tonight, after a three-day vacation with friends in Lake Forest, 30 miles away. Tomorrow the heavyweight champion will be in the first of three final workouts which Gene believes will round him into perfect trim for the little bout with Jack Dempsy at Soldier's Field, September 22.

Refreshed and relaxed by the rest, Tunney returned to the Cedar Crest Country club late this afternoon. The champion took a book as soon as he had changed clothes and wandered out on the lawn to read until dinner. His pal and tutor, Eddie Egan, an Oxford scholar, settled down beside him and life in the training camp again was normal.

Tunney is satisfied with his condition at the present time and believes he could enter the ring tomorrow, close to his best fighting weight. The training work of the heavy training camp at Speculator, N. Y. in five months of boxing. Returning to Chicago tonight, he had little more training to do before entering the ring for his first title defense.

IDAHO SHOOTERS RANK HIGH IN OREGON MATCH

Wallace Man Takes Tenth Place; J. H. Seaver of Twin Falls High; Much Competition.

BOISE, Sept. 14 (AP)—Idaho entries in the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, have won places in eight of the 12 events, while photographers recorded the event for posterity.

Dempsy left the stands amidst a wild rush to see him. At close range, he was being mobbed by photographers and photographers and shouts of hope that he would regain his title laurels in the "Tunney-36-10."

Afternoon training in a sports outfit with green coat and white trousers, spent the afternoon in the clubhouse enclosure. He was closely attended by Manager Leo P. Flynn and a retinue from his training camp at the Lincoln hills race track a few miles south of here.

(Continued From Page One) have compiled statistics to show that Jerome bridge is 1400 feet long, and its floor is 476 feet above the surface of the river. It is the longest bridge in most European countries, from the bed of the stream, it is something over 1000 feet long.

Excuse Shooked at Show We received somewhat of a shock the other evening at a picture show where pictures of a bridge in France were shown with the explanatory statement that it was 1100 feet high. Upon investigation we learned that the figure referred to was the altitude of the region and not to the actual height of the bridge. Mr. Buss stated.

Arrangement at the end of the road today will find an agricultural fair with wide range of superior exhibits and a well balanced entertainment program. In preparation for this season's fair the grandstand at Jerome fairgrounds has been rebuilt and extended, and exhibit halls and barns have been enlarged. North Side communities and groups are taking an active part in the fair, and noteworthy contributions are to be found in the display of some of the best of the exhibits at the West-end Court Show and at Hazzard's Harvest Festival earlier in the week.

FRANCE WILL REPLY TO THE TARIFF QUESTION

French Government Wishes to Know Whether America Desires to Enter Negotiations.

PARIS, Sept. 14 (AP)—Whether the French government desires to enter upon commercial treaty negotiations in a spirit of reciprocity offering to give what it seeks to receive is understood to be the question that the French government will put in its reply on the tariff questions tomorrow.

If Washington wishes to take up negotiations on the matter of tariff rates the French government would be pleased to begin them at once giving American imports, in the meantime all of the advantages of minimum rates as if a treaty already had been agreed upon.

Reply Carries Implications This reply is understood to carry with it the implication that if the United States government does not find itself in a position to negotiate on the basis of reciprocity, France will not be able to ratify the two treaties with which there are already commercial treaties, to give the American goods any special treatment.

Response Will Clear Matters The response will bring out with sufficient clarity that it would be useless from the American standpoint to give American imports preferential treatment over those from other countries if no tariff policy in commercial treaties with France unless there appears to be a prospect of negotiations in a liberal spirit on both sides.

OUTLINE PROGRAM FOR DEDICATION OF DAM

Senator Gooding and Governor Baldrige to Speak at Ceremony at American Falls.

AMERICAN FALLS, Sept. 14.—Final dedication of the great American Falls dam, erected by the federal government at a cost of $20,000,000, is to take place Wednesday, September 28. Present plans are to carry out the ceremony at 11 o'clock in the morning and the exercises of dedication will be held in a natural amphitheater at the foot of the dam. At that point affords a splendid view of American Falls, the broad expanse of the reservoir, the dam, and the gorge below it.

Speakers who will have places on the program include Senator Frank R. Gooding, Governor H. O. Baldrige, Congressman Addison R. Brith, R. E. Shipherd of Jerome, president of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce, A. A. Barker, president of the dam, and Chief Garfield of the Banhook nation.

Music to be furnished by the musical band of the dam and the Blackfoot high school band, and at the close of the program the speakers and a long list of distinguished guests will be entertained at luncheon. Later a public reception will be held at the court house, after which the visitors will be entertained at the amusement features offered by the Power company.

Big purses offered by the fair association are attracting champion riders for the rodeo event, and there will be a fine program of horse racing, including a number of Indian races which will be enjoyed in-by-the-Banhook and Shoshones. Reduced rates of a fare and a third are being offered by the Oregon Short Line for the rodeo event. Tickets on sale at all points in Idaho-September 27; good returning until September 30.

PARIS ENCOURAGES BLACKBIRD FASHION

Ravens and Grows-Are Among Inspiration of Rue de la Paix and Style Streets of Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 14 (AP)—Ravens, crows, and blackbirds are the inspiration of the Rue de la Paix and its tributary streets of fashion.

Smart Paris is buying its winter clothes and devotees of bright color are wisely treating with bluish tints the stampede toward black and midnight blue for street wear.

The coat of black is undoubtedly the best seller in Paris today. Sometimes it brightens itself with fur of gray or beige. But often it is soberly trimmed with black fur.

To offset the somberness of the black there are afternoon dresses of rich metallic brocades of very small design. Blouses of these materials usually enliven the suit costume.

The Parisian is apt to choose white or very pale colors for evening. The simple evening dress of white satin is a favorite, particularly with women who have new jewels to display.

Lady Mortimer Davis, whom Paris counts one of its best dressed, is wearing white satin dresses this fall, a background for rubies. She has several new ruby pieces, including earrings and a pendant on a platinum chain.

Powerful Evidence "It's Toasted" gives Lucky Strikes the finest flavor and protects the throat

What 11,105* doctors write about smoking

WHAT is the quality that Tito Schipa, Jeanne Gordon, Clarence Whitehill, Nina Morgana, Frank Keenan, Ezio Pinza, William Hodge, Laura Hope Crews and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105 doctors answered this question "YES."

Consider what these figures mean; consider that they represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

William Hodge, Favorite Actor of the Stage, writes:

"Until I began to smoke Lucky Strike cigarettes, I had to limit my pleasure in smoking. Now I smoke Lucky Strikes exclusively. My voice, my throat are never affected."

"Seed inspection," Wheeler says, "will be the dealer's business, but it is just sufficient to cover government expense in performing the service."

Wheeler and Elder, leaders of the project, were experienced seedmen before they entered government employ.

"It is of paramount importance," Elder says, "that the farmer be protected against misrepresentation of domestic seed, such as the substitution of Arizona alfalfa for Montana alfalfa."

YALE UNIVERSITY TO HAVE CHANGED CHAPEL SERVICE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 14 (AP)—Yale undergraduates, having convinced the faculty of the Divinity School that they have not eliminated religion from campus life, will participate in an innovation in religious activity at Yale this fall.

The beginning of the new term finds Fort Rainton, M. Hedges of the class of '28 in charge of one of the largest interdenominational groups in the country.

Reports from members of the faculty of the Divinity School, since it was isolated, indicated that voluntary attendance at the chapel exercises comprised not infrequently with church attendance in any body of other citizens.

JURY ACQUITS MAN ON FELONY CHARGE OF CHICKEN THEFT

Lee Larson of Buhl Establishes Innocence of Crime in District Court Trial; Genealogy of Fowl Figures.

Lee Larson of Buhl, believed to be the first man in Idaho to be brought to trial on felony charges of theft of poultry, is not guilty, according to a verdict returned by a jury in district court here last night. The jury rendered its verdict after nearly five hours of deliberations. Trial occupied the greater part of the day.

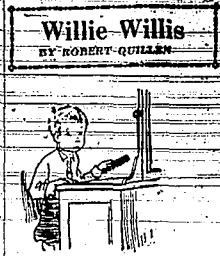

Larson was accused of theft of 21 chickens from Mrs. Pearl Munn of Buhl. Had he been found guilty he would have been subject to a maximum sentence of a 10-year term in the state prison, or $200 fine or six months jail term under provisions of an act of the session of the state legislature which became effective May 2, last.

Evidence on the part of the prosecution at the trial in district court was confined largely to an effort to show that Larson had admitted theft of one of the missing fowl.

Officers from Preliminary The testimony differed, somewhat from that offered at the preliminary. At hearing in the prelate court the state introduced Mrs. Denny, her husband, and J. Fox, the assistant fire chief at Buhl, who testified that the defendant stated in the Buhl city hall that he took one chicken of the rooster and tried to get another and that two other boys got two pieces. In the district court, Charles E. Jones, deputy sheriff, testified to a previous conversation with the defendant in which he made similar statements. The alleged confession at Buhl was not admitted and effort of the defense to get reference to it into the record for another purpose was denied by Judge Baker.

The defendant, testifying in his own behalf, denied the theft of any of the chickens. He said he was at the carnival that night and was near the Denny ranch. Several others testified Larson did not deny telling Jones that he took the chicken, and as he did not touch that conversation, was not cross examined in regard to it. Attorney W. L. Dunn for the defense in his argument declared that while he believed that the defendant told the deputy what the latter said he did, he felt that they did so because he had confidence in the deputy. It brought that perhaps by making the statement he would get off on making a payment—as he knew that Mrs. Denny was after him to prosecute him. The attorney argued that this statement under the circumstance did not necessarily mean that any chicken had been taken at all, anywhere.

Fred Is Factor Although neither "Who's Who" nor

Willie Willis BY ROBERT QUILLAN

My don't set next to the Killey boy now, but I did at first and that's how come my head is clipped."

"Barker's Peenars" was made an exhibit in the evidence offered in the case, the peddler of the chicken alleged to have been taken entered into the argument of the attorney for the defendant. On this point Mr. Dunn said: "Gentlemen of the jury, suppose that this boy did take a chicken from somebody for a 'chickener,' a chicken roast; that would be wrong, of course. Suppose further that he did make the statement to Mr. Jones that the deputy sheriff says he did. It is clear that the chicken, if taken, is not one of the ones that Mr. Jones said he made the statement that Mr. Jones says he did; that is, that he told Mr. Jones that he took a white Leghorn chicken. But, gentlemen of the jury, the complaining witness herself testifies that she did not lose any white Leghorns and did not have any. She testifies that the chickens she lost were Rhode Island whites. There is not a particle of evidence in this case to show that this boy took any of the chickens that Mrs. Denny says she lost."

IMPROVEMENT TAX LAW TO BE TESTED

Judge O. R. Baum to Interpret Statute Relative to Collection of Special District Levies.

Interpretation of the new law relative to collection of taxes for street improvement districts created before the statute was enacted, is expected within a short time it was stated in a letter received Wednesday by H. C. Parsons, county auditor, from Lillian Spengler, clerk of the district court of Blaine county. The case to test out the law was brought by Pociello before Judge Terrell of the district of which Blaine county is a part. Judge Terrell dismissed himself and the matter will be presented before Judge O. R. Baum this week. It is believed that the new law is favorable to improvement districts shall be collected by the cities in which they are made instead of by county auditors as heretofore. There is considerable legal opinion to the effect that while the strict letter of the law applies this to new districts, its application to districts created before the passage of the act would be unwise. Judge Terrell himself and the validity of contracts.

Chance Meeting as Job Hunter Led to Ring, Tunney Recalls

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—For three days after being hustled out of Uncle Sam's army in 1919, Gene Tunney dropped the search for a job in his home town, searching for a job. Although he had boxed with a great deal of success, he found a job in France, winning the light heavyweight championship of the American Expeditionary Force and defeating the English army heavyweight titlistholder, the thought of turning to the ring for a livelihood then was far from Tunney's mind. "I was a fighting heavyweight kind of fistian," he said.

A fight promoter from Jersey City knew Tunney during the latter steps of his fruitless search for work. He knew of Gene's fighting record overseas.

"I'll fight O'Dowd for that $100," O'Dowd said, "but no decision at my club," he offered.

Tunney refused the offer, turned away and started again to look for a job. He walked a few steps and turned back.

"I'll fight O'Dowd for that $100," O'Dowd said, "but no decision at my club," he offered.

Tunney refused the offer, turned away and started again to look for a job. He walked a few steps and turned back.

One definitely launched on a fistie career, Tunney, then just a big middleweight contender, was told that some day he could be world champion of the world. That same year, the chance of a college education was refused, he said, "because I wanted to win that title."

The road to the heights was long and tedious. It was the development of a heavyweights' physique was a slow and laborious process. In 1919 Gene fought only five times, winning three and losing two. In addition to the no-decision contest with O'Dowd, including the slow building-up process, leading through a host of three-fight, flatting two-thirds of them with a stiff-right-hand punch—hammered into Harry Greb's jaw—weight racks in the next three years. His most prominent triumphs in this time were victories over Charley Wittgen, in 1922. In that year, Gene took the only fight of his career, a 15-round decision to Harry Greb, who in 1922, Gene whipped Greb twice and hammered down a host of lesser opponents. The next year, Tunney disposed of Martin Burke, Gus Spilla, Georges Carpentier, and Joe Lehman, as well as fighting a decision contest with Greb, Jimmy Delaney, and Jeff Smith.

Branching into the heavyweight ranks in 1921, Gene knocked out Tom O'Brien in 10 rounds, Edley Madonia in 11, and John Jack Herman in 12. In addition to meeting Greb and Johnny Hinks in decision matches. Up to the time Joe Rickard came into the ring as champion, Gene had engaged in 63 fights, winning 39 by knockouts, 15 by decisions, 10 by referee and remaining in 15 undecided contests.

Few critics and close followers of the game conceded Tunney enough outside chance of conquering Dempsey at Philadelphia. During the controversy over naming the fight, when Rickard's failure to secure a battle license, took the fight first to Chicago and finally to Philadelphia, the New York State athletic commission declared Tunney "undesirable" to expose the terrific punching power of the Madison Mauler. Harry Willis was still first choice, as contender in O'Connell.

Over the supreme confidence of the veteran William Vautier, after the crowd of Dempsey's punches after the carrying him triumphantly through to the subject of recent patient and arduous preparation, the heavyweight championship of the world.

Six Southern States Discuss Farm Power

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 14 (AP)—Rural electrification, muscle strength and power development in the south are to be considered at the Southern Appalachian Power conference, opening here October 10 for a three-day session.

The conference was organized five years ago by governors and state engineers of six southern states. With industrial development of the south in recent years particular attention is being given to the construction of power plants in this section.

Rural electrification is of great importance, Dr. J. O. Hill, President of the N. C. executive committee, says. "Agriculture is now the largest power-using industry in the country, and yet electric power makes up only about four per cent of the total used on American farms. Great strides are being made in the extension of electricity for farm use. The future holds out a prospect so large that it cannot be overestimated."

"The Muscle Shoals disposal matter, which has not only restricted full development of this great power source, but also the development of the Tennessee river in a power development embargo since the war, is of the greatest importance to every unit of the southern industrial system. That this property be disposed of or opened to full capacity is vital, and the conference will see means of bringing this about."

PLANES SEEK TITLES AT NATIONAL RACE

Representative Pilots of Nation Will Match Airmanship and Speed at Great Carnival.

SPOKANE, Sept. 14 (AP)—Representative pilots of the nation will match airmanship and swiftness of plane in a two-day carnival of speed here September 23 and 24, in the race of the National Air Derby association.

Daring military planes of various type will battle around the course. Big transport ships—freighters of the air—will roar from piston to piston. Sport planes, commercial ships, national airships, national guard machines, low power machines and large capacity military ships will be matched in the program of races.

The contest will see the presence of such pilots of the United States as Earl, who will fly to Spokane in the national air derby, and James C. Ray of Philadelphia, holder of the trophy of the Aviation Club of Detroit and a prize winner in the Detroit News air transport trophy race last year.

One feature race, a high speed, low altitude, race of three planes each, racing around a triangular course. As the first plane sweeps around the last lap of the 12-mile course, the second may start to race if the air is taken up the flight. Similarly, the third set of planes will release the second race after they have raced around the course.

Civilian sport pilots will race for 60 miles for the Aero Digest trophy. Planes of the light machines class will compete for the Aviation Trophy and Country Club of Detroit trophy.

There will be a free-for-all race for low powered planes around an eight-mile course and the 100-mile race for their chance in a 50-mile race for the Dayton Daily News light airplane trophy.

Military airplanes will compete in a 144 mile race, and larger army and navy machines will enter an event for large capacity airplanes, capable of carrying a "pay load" of a ton or more and maintaining an average air speed of 120 miles an hour or better during the 120-mile race.

TILDEN CRUSHES COCHET IN DAVIS CUP MATCH

GENERAL VIEW of tennis match between "Big Bill" Tilden of United States and (foreground), Henri Cochet of France, at Germantown Cricket club. Tilden staged thrilling comeback against French star.

"Pongo Joe," Dean of Diamond, Ready to Retire After 50 Years

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 14 (AP)—"Pongo Joe" Cantillon, baseball's M. Thuesen, says that after nearly 50 years in the game he is thinking of retiring.

But when it comes to fixing a definite time to mark his departure he is content with the mere statement: "I won't be back now."

It was "Pongo Joe" who brought Walter Johnson to the Washington-American league club and his hand that waved to the bench the man who later was to become one of the greatest pitchers in the game when the "Big Train" was hit hard in his first contest in 1907. Cantillon was manager of the team.

It was "Pongo Joe" who umpired the first game ever played in the American league. He also saw service as an umpire in the National league.

It was "Pongo Joe" who sold "Germany" Schaeffer to Detroit. Rube Waddell pitched his first professional game for Cantillon in Columbus, Ohio, in 1908. Hughie Clegg, shortstop of the Cincinnati Reds, likewise got his start with the veteran. Still another of his discoveries was "Gravy" Gravath—a home run king back in the days when a dozen circuit clubs a season were considered respectable.

In all his experience Cantillon has never worn a major league uniform as a player. He signed his first professional contract with the Green Bay commercial and national guard races. Following the policy pursued last year, only individual trophies will be awarded in the regular military event, it being held that the cash prizes should go to the civilian contestants who must finance their own entries.

MANY CAUSES FOR PERCENT VARIATION

Percentage of butterfat in cow's milk often may vary from one milking to the next without any apparent reason. It is seldom that two successive milkings from the same cow contain exactly the same percentage.

As a rule, milk produced in winter is slightly higher in butterfat than milk from the same cow in summer. Cows far advanced in their period of lactation usually give richer milk than those that produced during the early stages.

Changing feeds or methods of feeding may cause a temporary variation. In all the other factors in their feeding, lack in 1907. Cantillon was manager of the team.

Farm Engineers Want Separate Bureaus

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Farmers will take directly to President Coolidge their fight for a separate bureau of agricultural engineering in the department of agriculture.

O. B. Zimmerman, president of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, heads a resolution which will wait upon the president.

"American agriculture has reached the point where modern engineering practices must be applied," says Mr. Zimmerman. "Power and labor represent an average of 60 per cent of the total cost of producing farm products. The most far-reaching reform in fertilization and research work is imperative."

Building Possibilities

Engineers have computed that on a plot of ground 200 feet square it would be possible to carry a building up 2,000 feet and comply with building laws.

Origin of Tent's Vases

Vases on the top of steeples were probably made in the form of a cone and put up in papal times to record the clergy of waterfalls. Around the clergy of waterfalls, the growing of the oak pines glister in light.

Fistic Millions Make Dempsey "Money Fighter" Without Peer

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—The prospect that the heavyweight champion, this battle at Soldier Field, September 23, will be raised to the tune of $2,000,000, marks the climax of Jack Dempsey's career as the greatest "money fighter" the ring has ever known.

Whether the Mammoth Mauler wins from "Cing" Tunney or loses, he will draw a colossal crowd. It is estimated that the fight will be the most successful of the Dempsey career.

PARACHUTE JUMPER WANTS TO FALL GREAT DISTANCE

QUANTICO, Va., Sept. 14 (AP)—The ambitious, Corporal Edward L. Hoffman of the U. S. Marines, a veteran of 27 parachute jumps, is to fall a mile through space.

"From a 10,000-foot altitude," he declares, "I could fall a mile before pulling the hook to open my parachute. It is a stunt I'd like to try if the marine officers would let me."

Hoffman, 23, celebrated his twenty-third birthday by inflating a rubber raft while falling toward the Potomac river. He did it to test the advisability of making collapsible rafts, inflated with carbon dioxide, the standard equipment for evasions flying over water.

After releasing himself from the parachute Hoffman swam to the place the raft had fallen, boarded it and rowed calmly until picked up. He was congratulated by superior officers for retrieving the parachute after releasing himself from it and while it was still above water. The training parachute he carried was valued at $700, and ordinarily would have sunk, it was said, in 45 seconds.

Hoffman's home is in St. Clairsville, Ohio. He enlisted in the Marine corps in 1922. So far the greatest descent he has made before opening his parachute is 800 feet.

"For a good distance," he says, "you have no sensation of falling. You can use your arms and legs normally. My highest jump was from an altitude of 3,200 feet."

CHINESE EXECUTING MANY

SHANGHAI, Sept. 16 (AP)—Within a few weeks in July, approximately 100 Chinese criminals were executed here by Nanking military authorities. Most of them, condemned by the now defunct international mixed court, were armed robbers or kidnappers. They had been held in the international settlement jail for some months, pending readiness of the Nanking military to take charge of their cases.

Executions here attract little attention, as the military carry them out almost daily at their headquarters on the edge of the French and international settlements.

Whether the Mammoth Mauler wins from "Cing" Tunney or loses, he will draw a colossal crowd. It is estimated that the fight will be the most successful of the Dempsey career.

WINTER CHAUTAUQUA SCHEDULED AT EDEN

Citizens Contract for Five Entertainment Numbers to Be Given at Intervals.

EDEN, Sept. 14.—A mid-winter chautauqua, or "lyceum" course, has been arranged by a number of the local business people with the Ellison-White chautauqua system, providing for the staging of five numbers at different intervals during the winter months. Ten or more of the Eden citizens agreed the necessary guarantee, and also selected the following numbers for the season's offerings: The Beck Duo Casford Concert company; the American Oleo club; Helen Simpson, impersonator; Dr. Whittaker, Ray, known lecturer from South America.

The first entertainment will be given by the Beck Duo on the evening of October 6 and the other numbers will be given at different intervals during the next three months. Committees representing the guarantors have been selected to sell season tickets and make the other necessary arrangements.

It will be the first winter chautauqua for this community for more than eight years.

Come Back to Eden
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Preiser and family arrived here late Saturday evening from Moscow, Idaho, for a vacation with the firm's brother and sister, Walter Preiser and Mrs. Leona Webb. Walter Preiser made his home here during the last few years of the town's history. He left here in 1912 and since that time has made his home in Oklahoma and is now here during the fall and winter months for some time with a view of making his home here.

Word has been received here recently of the serious illness of Mrs. Leona Webb, who has been suffering from a bacterial pneumonia at the county hospital in Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Webb is expected to recover and will be home in a few days.

The Eden citizens have been notified that the first winter chautauqua will be given on the evening of October 6. The first number will be given by the Beck Duo on the evening of October 6 and the other numbers will be given at different intervals during the next three months.

KIMBERLY SCHOOLS OUTGROW QUARTERS

Increased Enrollment Makes Necessary Use of Store and Manual Training Rooms.

KIMBERLY, Sept. 14.—Except for a day or two the fall term of the Kimberly school is now in session. The school opened on September 6 with all teachers present and performed a full day's work. Every day has been at least a 45-minute period and assignments were made for the following day. Due to careful work during the summer it has been possible to start the school with a minimum of delay.

Classroom work has been better than ever before and the high school is now being used for manual training and shop work. The school is now being used for manual training and shop work. The school is now being used for manual training and shop work.

Now Dale was an excited man. "Then you think the money is in this hidden room?" "I do," said Brooks decidedly.

Brooks put his hands on her shoulders in an effort to cheer her spirits. "This isn't a hard job to do, I've got a clear idea of what to do."

"Why, look here!" she said and she followed the play of his hands obediently, like a child.

"Oh, my God," she said and the next instant she was kneeling on the floor, leaving her head in shadow.

"There's a candle on the table, Jack. If it is that, the candle!" Her stretched hands touched a familiar object.

"The detective paused. "I'll stick still with that figure that is in the room."

"You've got to stay up all night, are you?" "I'll stay up all night," she said.

"No connection with the outside, eh?" "No," said Dale, absent-mindedly.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS ON WHEAT NERVOUS

In Spite of Fact That Prices Average Higher Movement of Crops is Dominant Factor

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (AP)—Northwest wheat market closed a sharp advance, higher today, the increasing movement of the crop becoming the dominant factor at the spot. Fully 1,100,000 bushels of domestic wheat were loaded for day by the rail district system, and Grand Forks, North Dakota, was reported as having been temporarily embargoed on account of the rash of wheat to market.

Chicago quotations on wheat were buoyant at the same time yesterday's high, for it is lower, even to 16 cents, and the decline to 15 to 16 cents advanced and previous showing 2c to 12 cents.

Expect Demand Improved
Until near the end of the day, the wheat market showed a sharp advance that was associated with greatly improved export demand, total purchases for Europe being estimated at 2,500,000 bushels.

Corn Values Advance
Corn values advanced their strength today largely to government returns from Illinois, Iowa and Missouri, indicating that freedom of weather, considerable rain will probably not mature weather, rain is needed now in many regions and some crop damage from drought and excessive heat is noted.
