COMMISSIONERS END WORK ON 1927 STATE AND COUNTY TAX LEVY

Cost of Supporting Indigents One of Principal Factors Making for Increased Assessment; Total $1.57 Per $100.

Cost of supporting indigent persons is one of the principal factors making for increased county tax levies this year, it was stated at the county commissioners' office last evening when the commission met to consider the 1927 state and county tax levies.

The total of state and county tax levies for the year was fixed by the commission at $1.57 on each dollar of assessed property value. This is an increase of 10 cents over last year's state and county levies. The state tax is responsible for eight cents of this increase.

Give Reasons for Increase
Cost of supporting indigent persons, the commissioners stated, is largely responsible for increases made this year in levies for the support of indigent and hospital funds. This cost is reflected in expenditures on account of public health that last year totaled $700; care of indigents at the county hospital and isolation wards $14,000; care of indigents outside of the hospital, $10,000; medical expenses, $12,000.

Increased school population is reflected in the boost in the general school fund levy which has been advanced this year to 45 cents from 31 cents last year. State law requires that $700 be expended for each child and girl between the ages of 5 and 21 years.

TUNNEY LAYS GLOVES IN RING CHEST; WILL BOX AGAIN IN ARENA

Critics Unanimous That Champion Is on the Edge of Perfect Condition; Gene Goes Through Workout Speedily.

(By The Associated Press.) LAKE TULLA, Ill., Sept. 19—Gene Tunney's training gloves, huge 16-ounce mittens that have jabbed and slammed thousands of times into his sparring mates' bodies in the past five months, were laid away in the heavyweight champion's ring chest today to await the next training siege.

With a chill wind sweeping through the "big covered" "Tunney" boxes for the last time today before climbing through the ropes Thursday night to face Jack Dempsey's desperate bid to regain the heavyweight division. His body heavily clothed in full length woolen underwear and a thick purple sweater, Gene plunched through five rounds against two sparring partners after assaulting both light and heavyweights for six minutes and thirty seconds.

Condition Perfect. Critics were unanimous that Tunney, right on the edge of perfect condition, was more impressive today than at any previous point in the long grind for the champion's first title test since he clubbed Dempsey into submission at Philadelphia last fall. Gene boxed with the speed and skill of a lightweight, plunched exactly and with perfect mathematics and dazed both Jackie Williams and Billy Vidabek at times with the sharpness of perfectly timed blows. Gene was the master boxer today, craftily taking advantage of every slip of his sparring partners to drive home left hooks to the body and straight rights exposed to the chin. Left jabs landed both boys to the heels. Chuck Williams again was not called into action for fear that his erratic attack might again damage Tunney's right eye, split by a head butt 10 days ago and further irritated by a jab from Williams' glove last Friday.

Tunney smashed the injured eye with collision before tackling the day's grind but the safety measure appeared unnecessary. "Training is over, at least so far as boxing is concerned," Tunney said after the workout. "I never felt better in my life. The only way I was pulled out—my weight is around 185 pounds."

The public was barred from Tunney's final ring drill.

JACK DEMPSEY DIFFERENT FROM MANASSA MAULER OF YEAR AGO; EX-CHAMP CONFIDENT

Westerner Is Determined to Come Back to Reign Supreme in World of Pugilism; Friends See 50 Per Cent Improvement Over Time of Philadelphia Battle.

(By The Associated Press.) LINCOLN FIELD, ORETE, Ill., Sept. 19—Jack Dempsey, on edge today for his battle of $3,000,000 with Gene Tunney in Soldier Field next Thursday night, is as different from the Dempsey of a year ago, when he lost the world's heavyweight championship to Tunney in the rain at Philadelphia, as black is from white.

That, at least, is the verdict of unbiased observers who have watched the former world's heavyweight champion in all his battles from the time he battered Jess Willard into a helpless hulk in Toledo back in 1919, to his knockout victory over Jack Sharkey seven weeks ago.

If the present day Dempsey of the Firp darts, he is so close to the real article that his admirers can hardly distinguish the difference. Some say his victory over Sharkey soured the change; that it dispelled all doubts in his mind as to whether or not he could come back and having convinced himself that he still carries the old punch and can stand up under a puncher, is certain he can destroy the popular belief that "he never come back."

This afternoon as he lunched with his training camp he found difficulty in keeping still. He gasped with his camp attendants, read a bit from magazines, sat in a room of cards and then strolled about the place—a picture of a fighter brimful of nervous energy and in condition.

Dempsey Is Confident

"I know I am—in the very best of condition; I feel it," Dempsey said. "When I fought Tunney a year ago I did not have a fight for three years. It took that fight and the one I had with Sharkey to bring me back. I'll regain the title. I feel sure of it."

Some of Dempsey's admirers say that he is 35 per cent better than when he fought Sharkey and at least 50 per cent better than when he fought Tunney a year ago.

They say—and his last workout was convincing—that he is the same vicious slugger that he always was. He is a punishing body puncher and his drive for the jaw seems to carry the old load of dynamite that flattened Willard, Firpo, Carpenter, Brennan and Mike. He has not the burden of the championship responsibility which he carried in the ring against Tunney the first time, a load which his friends say is helping greatly in lightening his cares.

BULL'S GRID SQUAD READY FOR CONTEST

BULL, Sept. 18 (Special to The News)—Twenty-five candidates for the varsity squad participated in a stiff scrimmage following a preliminary work-out of signal practice tonight in preparation for the opening conflict with the Wendell eleven at Wendell on September 30. "The quarterback position is one that is giving much concern, but Don Grayot is being groomed for that place and several others are giving him a close run. The back field will be composed of light men this year, but there seems to be speed. Bull Clute, a

Tunney Is Unconcerned Over Choice of Referee

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—Choice of the third man in the ring when Jack Dempsey bids again for the title he lost to Gene Tunney on that soggy night in Philadelphia last fall is not a matter of great interest to the champion of the heavyweight.

"Any honest, capable referee, whether he come from the north, south, east or west, will suit me," Gene said. "He need only have the courage of honesty, the judgment and experience necessary to hold the confidence of the public, and he can be certain of my approval."

Handlers of the titleholder will insist, however, that all bandages to be used on the hands of the fighters must be put on in the ring under the eyes of rival seconds and the referee just before the bout takes place. This procedure was followed at Philadelphia last fall.

Furthermore, Gene's seconds are not particularly more much wrapping is applied just as long as the same quantity is allotted each man.

"An inch or a mile is just the same as far as we're concerned," they say, "but the bandages must be soft, with heavy tape of any kind absolutely barred."

Troy Laundry Fufts In Immense Boiler

A 100-horse power, foot proof boiler, with automatic arrangement, for whitening when the water sets 100 degrees and when it gets too high, started Monday to generate power for the Troy steam laundry. The boiler, standing under the lofty smokestack which extends 75 feet above the roof of the building at the corner of Second and Second avenue north. Everything modern in the boiler line is connected with the new addition, with its three drums and its up-to-date apparatus. The boiler runs all day with dampers closed to steady pressure and requires the least possible attention. It is 18 feet high and 14 feet long. The old 75-horse power boiler will be removed and its place fixed up for a coal room. Connections will be extended further shortly in the Troy. The boiler cost $7000.

SALE OF TICKETS FOR HEAVYWEIGHT FIGHT IN CHICAGO SLACKENS

"I Do Not Expect to Sell Out"

Rickard Says; "None of the Big Title Battles Ever Has."

Candidates Discussed.

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Prospects that it will take a last minute rush of ticket selling to reach the hoped for $5,000,000 "hat" discussion of the sale of the lower priced tickets has been surprisingly slack, but my box office man says it picked up some today. However, we will need to dispose of about 30,000 or 40,000 more newspapers to reach $5,000,000 in receipts.

Rickard revealed that his associate and official promoter of the bout George F. Getz, as well as other, had turned back a substantial quantity of the top price tickets, $30 and $40, but he added there seemed no difficulty disposing of them.

Figures Will Impress Record
It is the general impression that the "hat" is not likely to exceed $2,000,000, with the attendance closer to 150,000 than the actual capacity of slightly more than 170,000. The figures, however, would make the battle a record smasher for a sporting event anywhere.

Selection of a referee, whose name will be kept secret until the night of the fight, is expected to be made by the state athletic commission tomorrow.

Part of the committee's list of names have been narrowed down to five, but it is understood two of the names under consideration are Herbert H. Lyttin, Chicago business man, and Walter Eckersall, newspaper man and former football player.

The presence of Lou Magnolia, prominent New York referee, in Eddie Fenech's camp, has been admitted. He might be considered, as well as Purdy, another Gotham ring official, whose home is in Illinois.

The council granted that it is desirable to have the dance on the new street from Main avenue to the alley for a couple of hours shortly after 8 o'clock. The dance will stop as soon as the fireworks begin.

Mr. Wright intimated that there are a lot of interesting things coming up later in connection with the event which cannot be revealed at this time.

BOARD CANCELS TAX ON HANSEN MUNICIPAL PARK

Taxes erroneously assessed since 1923 against Hansen's municipal park were cancelled by action of Twin Falls county commissioners Monday. The erroneous assessment arose out of a mixup involving transfer of title to property from the Hansen Township company to the municipality, and involved a deed of 1916.

The mixup came about when a woman resident of Hansen obtained a lease from the county, covering the property which she wanted as a pasture for her cow. The village board, through its attorney, John H. Barnes, instituted suit to quiet title, and was successful in its action in the district court.

PRESIDENT WAITS FOR UNION TARIFF REPORT

Gives Assurances to Senator Borah That He Will Take Immediate Action.

President Coolidge has given assurances to Senator Borah that he will act immediately upon the report of the tariff commission regarding the necessity for increasing the tariff duty on onions, Congressman Addison T. Smith was advised in a message Monday. The senator expressed hope that the commission would make its report early this week. Senator Borah's telegram was dispatched in reply to wire addressed to him by Congressman Smith last Saturday.

The senator's message said: "The tariff commission has not yet made its report. I am hopeful of its being made the first of the week. The president has stated to me that he would act immediately upon the report coming in. I realize how vital it is that the matter should be hastened." Congressman Smith's message was: "Onion growers here are eager to ascertain if there is any immediate probability of the president issuing an executive order increasing the tariff. Onion buyers are offering but 60 cents per hundred and if a higher price can't be secured, they claim the onions will not be taken from the ground as it will be added additional loss to their investment."

SCOUT COUNCIL FOR POOL AT SHOSHONE

Appropriation for Improvement at Summer Camp to Be Included in Year's Budget.

A fund for construction of a swimming pool at the boy scout summer camp at Camp Shoshone will be included in the 1928 budget of the Twin Falls scout council, it was decided by members of the council at a regular monthly meeting in probate court rooms here last evening. Water would be diverted from Rock creek to supply the pool which would be built of concrete.

The council at this meeting received the treasurer's report showing an eminently satisfactory year in scouting in the Twin Falls district, without a deficit in the treasury.

The week of October 17-22 was fixed as the time for carrying on a campaign to raise funds for next year's budget.

W. T. Sallie, president of the council, was authorized to prepare and send out to subscribers to last year's budget, a report showing all receipts and expenditures.

Three new members were received into the council at this meeting. They were W. J. Young, Wilbur B. Hill and William B. Smith. Mr. Smith, who is superintendent of Twin Falls schools, was a member of the Lewiston, Idaho, scout council, before coming here this year.

BIG BOND ISSUE TO BE REFUNDED

City Expects to Get Material Reduction on $375,000 Waterworks Securities Soon.

Twin Falls city council has taken steps toward refunding the $375,000 issue of 6 per cent waterworks improvement bonds which became payable at the option of the city January 1, 1928. Last year it was proposed to take steps toward refunding these bonds, but since they were not then payable at the option of the municipality, nothing worth while could be done. It is believed that favorable terms can be secured and notices have been sent to all the great bonding houses to send in bids not later than October 15, so that action can be taken January 1.

COUNCIL PUTS OFF ACTION ON TAX LEVY AND STREET WORK

Lack of Desired Information in Both Instances Causes Postponement; Clerk Submits Estimate of Requirements.

Twin Falls city council last evening after long discussion deferred until its meeting next Monday evening the making of a tax levy for coming year, and also deferred until that time for further consideration the proposition to make the street improvements in six districts in both instances the desire for further information was the cause of action, or inaction.

So far as the tax levy is concerned, the question which caused discussion and continuance was the condition of various bond issues and amount which should be paid on 10-20 bonds now payable but not due. In the matter of the improving districts, the trouble of enforcing collections in certain vacant lots caused the commissioners to ponder.

Made Good Payment. Last week the city paid bonds aggregating $48,000, materially reducing the interest charges. Of this sum $8000 was paid on the issue of $80,000 for the first waterworks purchase and improvements, cutting the total to $72,000. The council wants to pay another $8000 on these issues this year. There are other issues on which payments may be made, but the council desired to consult Edwin A. Hall, who has the audit regarding the condition of some of them.

Made Levy Estimate. Based on an estimated $5,000,000 assessed valuation of Twin Falls, city clerk suggested the following tentative plan for a levy totalling 25 mills or one mill less than last year. General fund—10 mills, raising $400,000; street lighting, three mills, raising $150,000; library, two mills, raising $100,000; bond interest and sinking fund, 10-3-4 mills, raising $497,500; bond 1-4 mill, raising $125,000, total $1,175,000. Some of the council members suggested making the levy the same as last year and clearing up a larger amount of bonds payable but not really due, than the Hall estimate would permit.

The Improvement Issue. The ability of the city to grade and gravel streets on force account was not doubted, and had not the question of vacant lots in some of the districts, on which no taxes had been paid for some time and on which assessments probably would not be paid seen injected into the situation action would have been taken. Further information on this subject was desired, and it was suggested that if J. A. Young, sole bidder on the last call for bids, had bid on each district separately instead of lumping the six districts in his bid in some instances might have been below the estimate, and if other calls should be issued in some instances and perhaps in all the terms of the estimates might be met.

COUNCIL PONDERSON SPECIAL CITY TAXES

Question of Levies' Location for Sprinkling and Improvement Districts is Considered.

Desires the deferred action on grading and graveling streets in six improvement districts and also the question of the postponed tax levy, Twin Falls municipal commissioners, as a result of postponements decided upon last evening are going to be up on the real thing next Monday night, when they get down to brass tacks on the collection of assessments in the sprinkling district and the eight old improvement districts, created before the 1927 law was enacted. The county formerly spread such special levies on its rolls and collected them for the city, receiving one and a half per cent for the work.

Hope Are Fulfilled. The council has been hoping that Judge O. R. Baum might grant the writ of mandamus asked by the city of Pocatello compelling Bannock county, through its auditor, to make the collection on the old districts, but Baum did nothing of the sort. He held that the statute did not deprive the city of any vested right and that the action being primarily one of statutory construction and legislative intent, it was the court's duty to give effect to the statute, which made it the duty of the city to do so in collecting. He intimated that holders of bonds of such districts might possibly be in better shape should the writ be granted than if it were not, but he was not concerned with their possible

WITNESS FAILS TO CORROBORATE STATE

Lack of Anticipated Evidence Results in Directed Verdict in Case of Otto Arrington.

Because of failure of the state to corroborate in the testimony of Fred McBride, alleged accomplice, the jury in the case again Otto Arrington was acquitted by Judge Hugh A. Baker, to bring in a verdict of not guilty. The courts direction was given after the evidence of the prosecution failed in its effort to corroborate the defense, moved for this verdict.

The state put on Ralph Strickland, who testified that he saw Arrington, W. L. Todd and McBride talking confidentially together, but did not overhear their conversation. He told also about former meetings between Todd and Arrington, when he said he had seen the latter with a Dodge car at the Blankenship garage the next day after the theft, but recalled no special circumstance while on the witness stand. This was the witness whose testimony the state relied upon to connect its case on notes of certain statements he is alleged to have made to officers, which he failed to recall on the stand.

A suit by a promissory note in which Alvin Harburg is plaintiff and E. L. Turner defendant was called and jury selected. Judge Tipton testified that Arrington, brought in a Dodge car to the Blankenship garage the next day after the theft, but recalled no special circumstance while on the witness stand. This was the witness whose testimony the state relied upon to connect its case on notes of certain statements he is alleged to have made to officers, which he failed to recall on the stand.

rights since they were not in court. Captain E. M. Sweeney, city attorney, linked the "he" as at least technically. Meantime, the city has no rolls, and no list of those obligated to pay, and it is contended that the levy of one and a half per cent will not cover expenses. City Clerk C. M. Hall will present an estimate of cost next Monday night, and in the meantime the council hopes that some bondholder will assert his supposed constitutional rights.

The following amounts are to be collected: Sprinkling—$497,500; improvement No. 34, $2,146.14; No. 35, $9,987.21; No. 37, $14,930.00; No. 46, $467.95; No. 47, $490.90; No. 48, $512.82; No. 50, $215.50; No. 51, $17,882.23; total $63,729.92.

Gives Building Permit. The council granted a permit to H. C. Hayes of the Hi-Grade hatcher to erect a brick structure, 50 by 62 feet, at 122 Second street south at a cost of $500.

Final Tribute Paid to PIONEER KIMBERLY MAN. Funeral services for John A. Steel-smith, 68, an early settler in the Kimberly region, who died at his home in Kimberly Friday evening, were held Sunday afternoon under the direction of the sextonage of Twin Falls.

The body was taken from the Grossman parlors Monday morning to Abilene, Kansas, where the family burial plot is located.

SPUD-GROWERS AND SHIPPERS MOVE TO GET MARKET REPORT

Proposition for Establishment of Local Station Issued Daily Bulletin Finds Favor at Conference Here.

With the growing fame of the Idaho potato, demand for the product is coming from an increasing range of territory—that potato-market information from centers on the Atlantic coast, and southeast is becoming of increasing value to Idaho growers and shippers.

This was pointed out at a meeting of growers and shippers convened last evening in Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce offices to discuss with Wendell Calhoun, representative of the United States market news service, and C. J. Carlson of Idaho Falls, plans for establishment of a daily market news service station in Twin Falls.

Works Out Plan. The meeting worked out a plan that is to be submitted for approval of growers and dealers in this region who will be expected to contribute toward maintenance of a proposed market news service report to be issued daily from Twin Falls in Idaho.

This report would contain, in addition to reports on the local market, reports from Chicago, Fort Worth and other market centers, throughout the country to show prevailing prices and trend of the crop movement. This report would be placed in the hands of growers and shippers nearly 24 hours earlier than reports from the Idaho Falls office.

Under the plan worked out at the meeting, the daily report would be communicated by Mr. Calhoun from the United States office to Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, where it would be issued in the "Marketplace" form and sent out early each afternoon to each dealer and grower contributing to the maintenance of the local station.

Cost of maintaining the proposed local station, it was estimated, would approximate $100 a month, and reports would be issued throughout every month of the year. The station were adequately financed.

Launched Drive for Finance. Dealers at the meeting stated that it would be possible within the next few days to ascertain the measure of support that the proposed station would receive from growers and shippers in this region. It was suggested that the proposition might be taken up with growers through grape, orange and R. E. Broadard, county agent, stated that he would assist in bringing the matter to growers attention.

Elmer V. Gipson, district horticultural inspector, pledged himself, with his assistants, to furnish information for the station relative to Twin Falls market conditions.

It was estimated that there were grown in this county this season 10,000 acre of potatoes, and that there are at least 10,000 potato growers in the county.

The daily report to be issued by the proposed station would carry reports on onion market conditions as well as reports on potato markets.

The market service report was created by Mr. Carlson during the course of brief remarks in which he stated that farmers are likely to benefit more from information and suggestions regarding production and marketing than from preaching on organization.

TWO TRUCKS DAMAGED IN AUTO CAMP CRASH

Reo Thrown From Highway by Impact of West-Bound Oil Truck Near Tourist Park.

A truck driven by Fred Heidermann was struck about 6:30 o'clock Monday evening by an independent-toward town truck on the highway east of town just in front of Wegener's tourist camp. The Heidermann machine was being driven onto the highway from the auto park when the oil truck crashed into it from the left side. The oil truck, according to witnesses, was progressing at a high rate of speed westward along the highway.

The Heidermann truck was knocked to the right and completely off the pavement. The driver of the oil truck threw on his brakes and slid off the road for a distance of 100 feet before he could bring his vehicle to a stop, leaving a trail of rubber from the tires on the pavement behind him.

The Heidermann truck received a badly damaged left front wheel and a bent fender, but was not injured to such an extent as to require towing. The driver of the oil truck received a damaged running board, fender and wheel.

WOMAN REPORTS ON CRASH

Lechtorn, Portland, Oregon, who is a visitor at the Davis ranch in Piler, reported to local police Sunday night that her sedan which was driving was struck from the rear by an independent-toward town truck on the highway east of town near the tourist camp. The driver of the oil truck threw on his brakes and slid off the road for a distance of 100 feet before he could bring his vehicle to a stop, leaving a trail of rubber from the tires on the pavement behind him.

GREAT RUSSIAN CITY TURNS TO NEW WAYS

Metropolis, 2000 Years Old, Adopts Modern Methods; Resort Gains in Popularity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Tiflis, capital of the republic of Georgia, is the oldest city in the Union of Soviet Russia, although it was nearly 2000 years old when Leningrad was in its swaddling clothes.

But this may not be apparent at first. Alighting from a train at Tiflis, the traveler feels the depressing summer heat and the sticky atmosphere.

Centuries of shifting of Tiflis analyzed by the National Geographical Society, have given Tiflis a cosmopolitan name of humanity.

It is for enough said so that one unwittingly might visualize it as a city of squat mud buildings bordering narrow, crooked streets.

The Rustaveli Prospekt, once world famous as the Ostrovsky, is a handsome wide, tree-lined boulevard.

Next the cathedral is the valley station for the funicular railway which transports passengers to the hilltop "Coney Island" of Tiflis on Mount "Kopskaya."

While some of the natives of Tiflis look like walking armadillos with clanking swords, dagger, pistol and cartridge cases fastened to their picturesque "cherkeskas," the Georgians, like the Arabs, are renowned for their hospitality.

The Workers clubs, post-revolution additions to Tiflis life, are the entertainment centers of the city.

Quaker Church Ritual Inebriates Supply of Fish

TIBOLSK, Siberia, Sept. 19 (AP)—A curious ancient custom intended to insure a bumper yield of fish has just been conducted by the Quaker church.

The fish were first headed into a table of the river and a barrier constructed to prevent the fish from leaving.

EUROPEAN RUMOR OF SECOND-CLASS CARS FOR FEAR OF MURDER

In Last Few Months Numerous Homicides Have Occurred in French Railroad Trains in First-Class Compartments.

PARIS, Sept. 19—People who ride second class in European trains, but feel that they must always escape the... in the last several months there have been a number of French railroad... and all in first class compartments. These are seldom so crowded as the others, when others the latter is better chance to slip away unseen.

Not long ago a reporter in whose mind the thought of the latest French murder were quite fresh, found himself in a first-class compartment on a night express, all alone. A stranger, unshaven, in a dark coat and without luggage came in and took a place. The reporter not only looked up the thought of the man, but decided to share his... with the conductor. The conductor quietly made an investigation and found the young man he could doze in peace. The stranger was a detective from the "Bureau Generale," the French Scotland Yard.

Baths Increase PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—The Frenchman who remarked that he preferred the New York bath to the French... trees better than bath-tubs is now witnessing the slow death of many of the trees that are so much a part of the charm of the French capital. Bath-tubs, meanwhile, are increasing here as elsewhere. Factory smokers are partly responsible for blighting the trees in Paris, but the blight is blamed more upon the automobile exhaust than anything else.

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Parisian night life furnishes a livelihood to many a flashlight photographer. They operate in nearly every cabaret and on many a Montmartre street. They are usually your picture while you wait. Usually the victims are photographed unaware. The flash is their first warning. A picture has been taken. Curiosity or a desire to destroy the negative keeps them waiting fifteen minutes while the picture is developed. Often, depend upon circumstances. Many cabarets now make a pretense of being family places in the course of the night. Even so-called exclusive dancing places now photograph the crowd.

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—In Montmartre even the street-walkers are different from their brothers in less Bohemian neighborhoods. At the street markets along the Boulevard Rochechouart, the men who sell razors demonstrate the fine quality of their blades by using them to open cans or cut chips off blocks of wood. "You see," they explain to the crowd of potential customers, "no brand could be so tough for this blade." The men who sell dental paste or powder often carry a set of horrible looking teeth in their pockets, flourishing them from time to time as an example of what is likely to happen if you don't use their products. Then, suddenly, a smile is beamed only by that lucky one person out of five," they reveal their own white and glistening teeth.

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—The end of the summer is the busy season of the year for the carpet cleaners in French cities. Walk into an office building or an apartment house during August or September, and likely as not there will be carpet on the stairs. The carpet-cleaning men are all supposed to be out of town. That is no longer true, for riches are more widely distributed these days, and most of the wealthy are workers who can't get away from their offices all summer long. But the tradition persists, and few carpets in France are cleaned prior to the clean-up except during August and September.

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Kind all the complaining about poor business that has gone on in France this year, one class of man have been singularly prosperous. These are those who make and sell umbrellas. Never, they say has business been so booming in what is still academically known as summer. This year, from a climatic standpoint, France had almost no summer at all. May was fine, but May is spring. After that it began to rain and it kept on raining all through June, July and August. Being unprepared in demand, umbrellas went up in price. The most pretentious ones cost five dollars or more. While endorsing themselves as umbrella men kept their sense of humor—and gratitude. Their umbrellas had printed and distributed 1,000, 1,000 copies of General De Gaulle's French weather man.

EUROPE FOR PEACE: A surprising change has come over the Old World again.

It started with the revolt of small powers at Geneva against the domination of the League of Nations by the big powers.

Brand speaking for France, created no less astonishment by expressing her willingness to be bound by the same principle.

Then came Great Britain, represented by Austen Chamberlain, a little more cool and cautious.

So here we have a principle recently regarded as a bit of mere sentimentalism, now being treated as a serious matter.

Should she tell him the truth? No—Dale's safety was too strictly bound up with the whole situation.

"Key to what door?" "That door over there," Dale indicated the terrace door of the alcove.

"Hello—is that Mr. Johnson's residence? Is Doctor Wells there? No?" Her expression was puzzled.

"I think she knows more than she's letting on," Dale thought. "She's running off, and hung up the phone."

"When did you take that revolver out of the table drawer?" "When I heard him outside on the terrace," said Dale promptly.

"You wanted a detective?" she said in an ironic whisper. "I hope you're happy now, you'll not get one!"

Again Anderson's questions pounded at Dale's ears. "Dale—trying to pierce her armor of mingled truth and falsehood."

When Fleming came in what did he say to you? "The woman coming about the year—"

"Yes—that's it," she said, at last, and rearranged where she stood.

"What papers did Fleming have in that grate?" he asked abruptly, turning back to Dale.

"Papers?" she returned. "Papers? The ashes are still there."

"I hold in my hand proof that he was in this room for some time," she said, coldly, displaying the half-burned cigarette he had taken from the ashtray.

"I think she knows more than she's letting on," Dale thought. "She's running off, and hung up the phone."
