LOOKS WITH TWIFF COMMISSION

Government Investigator Says Average American, Like Government and Soldier, Has Good Reputation Abroad

Europe has no complaint to make against the work of the United States tariff commission, according to a certain member of the tariff commission, who has lately returned from an extensive tour abroad.

Regarding conditions overseas and the work of the tariff commission in particular, the commissioner said in a statement issued soon after his return.

There are so many things of great interest happening in Europe that it is hard to get a complete picture of them.

On a number of occasions both of the leading technical men and industrial leaders said that they considered the reports of the tariff commission as fair and impartial and the findings objective and accurate.

It was quite satisfying to learn that in spite of the propaganda in the United States against the tariff commission, such propaganda has failed.

The industries of the United States must expect and welcome the competition in history for the markets of the United States.

Quite contrary to the notion of some people in the United States, the government of this country is looked up to and respected in Europe both generally and actually as equal.

A citizen of the United States traveling in Europe is shown every courtesy everywhere. He is treated with respect, admiration and affection by the average European citizen.

The average American citizen, like the United States government and the United States soldier, has a good reputation abroad.

There is one thing that ought to be pointed out regarding the present tariff policy of the United States.

There is a number of United States government officials, economists and statisticians who like to have the United States tariff policy.

Swift Locomotive Of England Tests Speed in America

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 17 (AP)—The swiftest and most powerful engine in Europe, the King George V of England, tested its speed in America.

"Out that out," "Pipe the signal!" a voice somewhere in the dynamometer car, which contained the instruments and dials, said as the speedometer registered 112 miles an hour.

Laborers, engine workers and motorists along the route from Baltimore to Washington, and thence to Philadelphia and back to Baltimore, craned their necks and struck attitudes.

Others who like to have the United States tariff commission investigate the present tariff policy of adjusting the rates.

Although some resentment was expressed by European industrialists at the examination of their tariff policy.

On the contrary, they said they were glad to cooperate in the work of the tariff commission to make such investigations.

This policy of equating tariff rates to equate costs of production is an entirely new thing in the world.

By a process of education and experience the tariff commission is gradually making the American people understand that the tariff commission is a fact-finding, scientific body.

European Begin to Understand the Tariff Commission. The tariff commission becomes the less the opposition to it becomes.

When the people of other countries understand that the tariff commission is a fact-finding, scientific body.

The people of foreign countries, quite naturally, do not know what to expect before they are willing to cooperate.

It is a fact that the methods pursued by the tariff commission in Europe and the high character of the reports of the commission.

The average American citizen, like the United States government and the United States soldier, has a good reputation abroad.

HEAD OF AMERICAN LEAGUE QUITS POST

Byron Baneroff Johnson Quietly Retires From Presidency of Big Circuit; Navin, Goes in.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—Byron Baneroff Johnson, founder of the American league and its twenty years storm center of major league baseball, quietly retired today from the presidency of the league and the Detroit club, which he assumed the executive authority until a meeting of club owners can be called to choose a successor. Johnson said he did not know how soon that would be and declined to comment on the persistent reports that Ed Barrow, president of the Cleveland club, had already been selected. Johnson tonight left for Escalante Springs, Missouri, on the beginning of a long fast. His plans beyond that trip were indefinite, he said. The blank spaces on the wall, outlined by lines of dust where his pictures had hung, were the only marks left by Johnson's 27 years of control, but a Detroit club major league are full of the accounts of his battles, starting with the formation of the American league in 1900.

Channel Swim Hoax Is Held to Be Good Thing

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—The international professional swimmers' association regards the channel swimmer's host Dr. Dorothy Cochran's English woman, as a "pioneer effort" to bring about authentication of records made by professional swimmers. It is now stands, Mr. Grant said, "professional swimming records are something of a joke. It is common knowledge that three-fourths of the so-called records in and around Manhattan and up and down the Hudson are broken fakes. Of all sports there is more opportunity of cheating in distance swimming than in any other. It is only where competitive events are held that there is any semblance of officialdom." "What got out to break other swimmers' records there is never the proper supervision and the newspaper's insensitive editors have printed news in good faith, when it was false. This anecdote, which was a wonderful test flight, at least," she said, with no hint of the disappointment others plainly showed at her landing.

PLASTINO'S BRUINS TAKE LIGHT WORKOUT

No Serious Injuries Result From Capital City Game; Perrine Limping; Walt Recovers.

Plastino's Bruins took on only a light workout last evening after the Boise game. The period was short and spent only in signal drill to limber up the stiffened joints. No serious injuries resulted from the capital city game. Perrine is limping slightly but his injury will not keep him from practice. Fran Walt has recovered partially from his hip injury and was able to work with the Bruins running signals. So far no changes have been made in the lineup and probably most of the week will be spent in perfecting plays and light work in preparation for Pocatello next Saturday. While Norm Alvord is walking without the aid of crutches, he will not return to a suit and may be out of the game for the balance of the season. Alvord was showing exceptional promise as a back when his injury stopped him and his loss as reserve material will be felt by the Bruins.

The 68-year-old former senator and interior secretary plainly showed the effects of a heavy cold which he contracted some days ago.

PROHIBITION LAWS TO INCLUDE WINDY CITY

Night Clubs, Hotels and Cafes Must Ban "Hip" Liquor or Be Padlocked for One Year.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—Unless Chicago night clubs, hotels and cafes ban "hip" liquor drinking by their patrons, they will be padlocked for one year by federal injunction, Prohibition Administrator E. D. Yellowley warned tonight.

Administrator Yellowley's warning was made following the decision of the United States supreme court refusing to pass on the test case brought by proprietors of the Madras Rouge and Friar's Inn, two of Chicago's best known downtown cabarets which have been padlocked by federal injunction because they served ice and ginger ale to their patrons and did not take steps to prevent them from drinking intoxicating liquor.

The action of the high court, Mr. Yellowley said, gave prohibition authorities the strongest weapon they have ever had to enforce the Volstead act, the action "making it imperative that cafe, hotel and night club owners prevent drinking of intoxicants absolutely." Mr. Yellowley said that the action made "observation evidence" sufficient to warrant convictions. Raids no longer will be necessary, he said.

PARIS SHORT OF BATH TUBS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—It was few baths rather than too many that caused the legislators to complain to the French hotel keepers, said Howard P. Savage, retiring national commander of the American Legion, who returned from the Paris convention on the Levisath today. Most of the complaints, Savage said, were as to the quality of the French hotel rooms, and were made by Americans accustomed to the conveniences and surpluses of the bath tub in the average Parisian hotel.

"It's toasted"

Paul Whiteman, Noted Orchestra Leader, writes:

"It was but recently, when I started to act as master of ceremonies with my band at the Paramount Theatre, that I realized how vital perfect voice condition was to a performer. I have always been a consistent smoker and, fortunately, Lucky Strikes were my favorite brand. I like their toasted flavor and, best of all, I can smoke as often as I like, without fear of irritating my voice, which is becoming a great asset in my work."

WHAT is the quality that Giacomo Rimini, Margaret D'Alvarez, Cesare Formichi, Armand Tokatyan, Emma Trentini, William Faversham, Florence Reed, Paul Whiteman, and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "YES."

Consider what these figures mean; consider that they represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

* We hereby certify that we have examined 11,105 signed and dated replies from doctors, verifying the above statement. LYBRAND, ROSE BROS. CO. ACCREDITED AND AUTHORIZED BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. New York, July 25, 1927.

BOWLING ALLEYS ARE DAMAGED BY FLAMES

Early Morning Blaze Destroys Lunch Counter Equipment; Insurance Covers $1200 Loss

Fire causing an estimated damage of $1200 to $1300 broke out early Monday morning in the front part of the building occupied by the G. and S. Amusement company's bowling alleys at 202 Main avenue north. The loss is covered by insurance.

First information concerning the fire was received from a man on his way to work about 4 o'clock in the morning. The plate glass window had been shattered by the heat and a strong draught was blowing flames along the roof when firemen arrived on the scene. The fire company laid three lines of hose into the building, although only one was needed to quench the flames.

The alleys themselves were not damaged. The proprietors, P. L. Cox and P. M. Stone, complimented the firemen upon the care which they took to prevent damage to the alleys, which were almost entirely free from water. The front end of the building was considerably damaged. The east wall and the ceiling were charred by the blaze, the plate glass window in front was broken, and the lunch counter and its equipment was almost a total loss. Damages to the building are estimated at about $500 and to equipment at about $700.

Fire chief Jack Zell stated that the fire was caused by some one connecting the city gas under the lunch counter. Blame for the blaze was placed by the proprietors upon defective wiring about the coffee urn.

Workmen boarded up the shattered windows and with the help of the proprietors were busily engaged throughout the greater part of Monday cleaning up the debris and scraping the floors at the end of the alleys. The establishment was open last night and the usual number of patrons was in attendance.

Fire damaged the building about a year ago when it was occupied by the Auto Breeding company and the management of Woody T. Seal. A. H. Corbin, the owner of the building, is now a resident of California.

The bag contained a gold pencil, a $5 bill and some change. Police were unable to find the boy.

"Oh, but, Mr. Cragston," she pleaded, "my stomach's so bad, I can't eat and the car's fast. This here hasn't no say-low car for me, nor mind I'm telling you with bustle and poofy and all! I bet' bring my sock getting' here!"

And she continued her conversation with the man who was driving the car. She was looking out the window at the trees and the hills. The car was moving fast, and she was feeling a little nervous. She had never before.

FEDERAL TAX REDUCTION

A special committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce, which of course has no connection with the government but which represents American business in general, calls for a four hundred million dollar federal tax reduction.

So that is what American business wants. It seems to be, too, what the American public wants. There is room for argument about the amount, but everybody favors tax reduction. There is no other cause, but now that is so regular.

The Chamber of Commerce people want the cut applied chiefly to corporation taxes, which may not be so popular, and yet is probably reasonable enough. Personal income taxes have gone down in recent years while business income taxes have actually been raised. The corporation tax, of course, is usually passed along to the consumer in the price of goods. If a cut from thirteen and one-half to ten per cent were passed along likewise, everybody would share in the benefit, and the corporations would have easier bookkeeping, if nothing more.

As for the "death duties," inheritance taxes paid by the wealthy, there may be more question about complete elimination, but few could object to a reduction.

Some inequalities might well be ironed out of the personal tax schedules, and an elimination of the last remaining amusement and other "luxury taxes" would be welcomed.

COURT DIGNITY

Veteran members of the bar who have been practicing for many years before the United States Supreme Court are rather scandalized by the informal attire of attorneys newly admitted to the privilege. At the opening of the fall session, with thirty lawyers sworn in to practice there, there was a notable lack of traditional dark suits. The newcomers were dressed in all sorts of business suits, with colored shirts and gaities. The few long-tailed black coats in sight were viewed as a curiosity.

There is nothing to be alarmed about. It is probably a good thing, in this democratic country, for lawyers to suggest by their dress that they are even as other citizens. Instead of being a class apart, conspicuous and privileged.

With judges the situation is a little different. It is well that the Supreme Court justices at Washington, and in most of the states, keep their old-fashioned gowns. In spite of the simplifying and leveling tendency of modern life, anything contributing to the solemnity and dignity of judges on the bench helps to preserve a wholesome respect for the judiciary, and seems to give more force to judicial decrees.

OCTOBER

O'er hill and field October's glories fade;
O'er hill and field the blackbirds southward fly;
The brown leaves rustle down the forest glade,
Where naked branches make a filfl shade.

And the last blooms of Autumn withered lie,
Earth's glories flame up and fade,
and then transfer themselves to the sky.

All the stars of the sky shine out.
The stars are more brilliant than they have been all summer—as brilliant on a clear night as they will be in mid-winter, and easier why white rainbows are still common.

ENUMERATORS AT WORK ON NEW CITY DIRECTORY

The annual canvass for the 1928 edition of the Twin Falls city directory was opened Monday under the direction of M. E. Perry, superintendent representing R. L. Polk and company, the compilers and publishers. The new directory will be the most modern and complete ever compiled for this city, Mr. Perry said. A corps of specially-trained enumerators will make the canvass and calls will be made at every place of residence, business house, office, manufacturing plant, and at every other place in the entire city and surrounding territory. The canvass will require approximately four weeks' work, and Mr. Perry today urged the public generally to cooperate with the directory men in order that complete and accurate information may be obtained by the enumerators.

IDAHO SHARES FUNDS OF NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

PORTLAND, Oct. 17—Schools, highways, parks, water, sewer, electric light and other projects in nine western states are benefiting from the investment of state and municipal securities of a grand total of $3,575,619.90 of funds of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, according to a bulletin just issued by Mrs. Minnie Hiner, as grand guardian, the supreme official of the order, which has its headquarters here. The Neighbors of Woodcraft have just launched a campaign to increase the membership of the order from approximately 75,000 to 100,000, coincidental with completion of plans to immediately erect a magnificent administration building in this city.

IDAHO'S APPLE CROP IS IN MOST FAVORABLE POSITION

Harvesting of apples, says the October Idaho crop report, is getting well under way although later than 1926. Jonathans are not yet mature and Romeas are rather small but present good weather may add to size. The total crop is estimated at 2,390,000 bushels, in comparison with 4,500,000 bushels in 1926. The commercial crop amounts to 1,420,000 bushels (of three bushels each) against 925,000 barrels in 1926. Of the important apple states, Idaho alone has a larger crop than last year. The fruit is particularly clean and free from worm damage. It had been stolen early Sunday morning from the orchard near St. Research Catholic church, was found Sunday evening in a ditch near the Lincoln school building, where it had been abandoned. Police last evening arrested the operator that the car thieves had used the machine all day.

Dirty work at the crossroads

Most of the dirty work at the crossroads—cleaning spark plugs, adjusting carburetors and messing around in the grease and grime—is caused by oily, low-grade gasoline. PARCO is a pure, clean, extra-dry gasoline of unusually high ANTI-KNOCK quality. Being extremely volatile, it creates less carbon and considerably more power. Being rich with aromatic hydrocarbons—the natural anti-knock elements in the specific crude from which it is refined—this high compression motor fuel gives you better service without costing one cent more than common gasolines.
