THE SPORTS OF A DAY

COACH PLASTINO TO TAKE 15 PLAYERS ALONG TO POCATELLO

Twin Falls Will Meet Gate City High School Team in One of Features of Program for Entertainment of Swedish Prince

Coach Plastino and 15 Bruins will leave at noon today for Pocatello for one of the important games of the season. The game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon as a part of the entertainment program for the prince who will visit the gate city on his tour of the United States.

The Bruins are still lacking reserve material and will be in little better shape than they were against Boise last week. Ivan Wall is still suffering from a bad hip and while he will no doubt be able to play cannot be depended upon for the whole game. No obvious injury has been reported for the squad. Wardle who was kept from the Boise game because of an infection of his foot, has fully recovered and will no doubt be in the lineup tomorrow. Finch who has capably been holding down the pivot position on the line should prove a valuable addition to the forward wall. The shifting of Alvin Kempton to end also adds strength to the line and gives the Bruins a good pair of wingmen. Davis, another pickup recruit from the line, has been playing on the line all week and will be taken to Pocatello.

Cruel Game
This is a crucial game for the Bruins although it does not affect the title standing. The fans are looking upon this game as determining whether or not the Bruins have recovered their fight and spirit. The outcome will also give a hint of competition between Gooding and the Bruins. There is little question but that the Gooding team will be in the title race and their drubbing of Pocatello last week establishes them as strong contenders. The Bruins who will make the trip are: A. Kempton, E. Kempton, Berg, Finch, Brullford, Puzler, Lucas, Martin, Wardle, Robertson, Dibble, Wall, Frazier, Wheeler, and Taylor. A goodly number of fans will also make the trip but the most of them will not leave until Saturday morning.

"Yes, Willard Mack is right, Luckies are best," says Paul Berlenbach

Popular pugilist tells his manager, Benedict Sterns, that Lucky Strikes are the finest cigarettes.

Willard Mack, Noted Author, Producer and Actor writes:

"We people of the theatre are, as a rule, extremists. This is the reflex action from overworked nerves. When a man smokes forty cigarettes a day, as I do, he must be sure of his brand. I smoke Lucky Strikes because I have found they are soothing to the nerves and at the same time they cause no throat irritation. My voice is always in perfect condition and I am never troubled by any coughing which might be annoying to me in my work as an actor."

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

Theatrical

"Old Bromides," Paramount's most ambitious production will have its Twin Falls premiere this evening at the Orpheum theatre, following its world premier at the Rivoli theatre, New York last season, with a special musical setting by Dr. Hugo Rosenfeld and a symphony orchestra. This picture has never been presented anywhere except at legitimate theatres of legitimate theatre prices. Over five years ago, Harry Carr, a newspaper man in Los Angeles, sensed the drama in the exploits of the U. S. Coast Guard and suggested to Jess Leaky that there was more drama in the grand old ship than in the "Copperhead Whopper." Mr. Leaky commissioned Laurence Stallings to write a story around the ship that never lost a battle and established a proud tradition for the American navy. With characteristic thoroughness Mr. Stallings set about his research work and uncovered the drama from the early days of the old frigate that now lies rotting in the heavy yard at Boston. Mr. Leaky entrusted to James Crump the production of the picture which was to be greater than the "Copperhead Whopper." Mr. Crump chose Wallace Beery for the important part of the hero—Mrs. West—assisted by Miss Neola Wilson served as a elaborate roll of the chief gunner. To Ed Haisson was entrusted the part of the girl and Charles Farrell was borrowed from the Fox film company to play opposite her. It was necessary to build a whole small city for the filming of the picture and "Old Bromides" was reproduced from the specifications into a modern sea-worthy ship. After a year of production work and the expenditure of more than a million dollars the picture was completed and those who have seen it say that Mr. Crump has not only exceeded his previous efforts but has also produced a screen drama which does justice to his great theme.

Government of Italy Rejects Vatican Offer

ROME, Oct. 20 (AP)—The complete rejection in behalf of the Italian government for the Vatican's proposal to form a union with the Vatican for solution of the fall-century-old Roman question, has caused considerable surprise and disappointment in quarters which considered the problem existing between church and state in Italy practically solved. The question was brought to the fore last week when Observatore Romano, the official Vatican organ proposed the creation of an independent church state. The proposal today was described as "a proposal of discussion in public circles, the article franchise organ." Among those who were disappointed with the answer are many who believe it is still possible to reach an understanding and that through reciprocal yielding an accord finally may be reached.

and now... CONOCO ETHYL GASOLINE... Science offers the Ideal Fuel for cold weather driving... This fuel starts quickly—without excessive use of the choke—then drives through by delivering smooth, sustained power. That's what science offers you in Winter Conoco Ethyl Gasoline. This ideal cold weather fuel was produced through the combined efforts of the Continental Oil Company's refinery experts and the engineers of the General Motors Research Laboratories. It is the fuel which recognizes no competition in assuring the present needs of the motoring public. Winter Conoco Ethyl Gasoline delivers everything which you have a right to expect from your motor fuel—power, rapid acceleration, less gear shifting, better hill climbing and no knocks. In fact, the development of Ethyl Gasoline has made possible the new high compression automobiles. Winter Conoco Ethyl Gasoline performs perfectly under high compression—whether that condition exists through the increasing of the compression ratio by the motor or manufacturer or through the natural formation of carbon deposits in the cylinders. So why not get all the benefits of high compression? Why not sell along for smooth knockless miles behind a speed-purring motor? Why not save dollars in repair bills by spending a few extra pennies for this supreme winter gasoline? For remember this special winter fuel costs only 3c more per gallon than regular Conoco Gasoline. Ask for it wherever you see the Conoco Sign.

STOCKS EXPERIENCE SHARPER REACTION

Scores of Issues Drop From $20 to $10 Below Previous Final Quotations: Many at New Low

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—The stock market experienced the sharpest reaction of the week today when a flood of selling orders, presumably inspired by the publication of several first quarter earnings reports, caused scores of issues to drop $10 to $20 below yesterday's final quotations. At their lowest today many leading issues were selling $20 to $40 a share below their recent highs, so that the week's reaction has wiped out more than a billion dollars in quoted values.

Unlike many sharp reactions of the past, there have been no wide open counts had been strongly margined, but there was a rather persistent illustration of a new trend in the United States Steel common, General Motors, American Telephone, Woodworth, Atchafalaya, and several other issues. Central, which are ordinarily placed in the investment class.

Call Money Renewal Rate Low

Reduction of the call money renewal rate to 3 1/2 per cent, the lowest of the year, with loans available on the outside market at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 per cent, has lessened the life of selling. After the market closed, the federal reserve bank made public a weekly report of 'contract' rates, which showed an increase of nearly $40,000,000, bringing the total to a new high record for all time just below $1 billion dollars.

The sharpest break today took place in Commercial Solvents, which dropped 10 points to 181 and then snapped back to 184 1/2. About a dozen issues, including such recent favorites as American Express, American Machine & Foundry, Case, Dressing and General Electric showed net declines of four points or more. Most of the sugar stocks sank to new lows on unfavorable trade conditions.

A few issues moved against the current trend, the most conspicuous of which were the two classes of American Tobacco common, which soared nearly 10 points each to new high records, and Southern Pacific, which advanced more than three points to within a fraction of the year's high.

SCIENCE, ADAPTED TO RURAL LIFE, BRINGS NEW SOCIAL ERA TO FARM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Rural America is on the threshold of a "second life."

It will be better than the first, says Dr. O. J. Galpin, chief of the division of farm population and rural life in the department of agriculture in that it will be one of applied science.

"Science," he asserts, "will characterize a second period in the nation's rural life and will stand forth as the genius of its culture."

Although this scientific habit of mind now pertains almost solely to agriculture and some practices of housekeeping, Dr. Galpin observes that a condition established in one department sooner or later becomes operative in all departments of living, and that the effects of whatever science the farmer now practices may be looked for in due time not only in crops but in human beings as well. The farmer's response to science, as applied to the economics of his occupation, appears epoch-making of science applied to his human relationships.

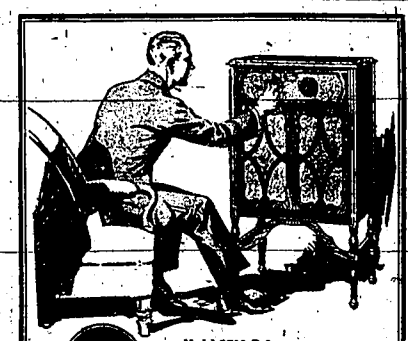

"As evidence of the trend in this direction," he cites such examples as farmers' hospitals, rural libraries, modern homes, community club houses, athletic fields and swimming pools, consolidated schools, camping grounds, rural churches of distinction, and modernized country towns where merchandising has been put upon a scientific basis of service and helpful advertising, all "logical outgrowths of agricultural science."

RHODES SCHOLARS FROM GERMANY DESIRE READMISSION TO OXFORD

OXFORD, England, Oct. 20 (AP)—Anglo-American relations in the Rhineland have been marred by the fact that the Rhodes Scholars, who were given the colonies of which the area was deprived by the Versailles Treaty.

At the last 10-Rhodes Scholars dinner the announcement that two German scholars were present was received with general applause. The act of parliament eliminating the Germany Rhodes Scholars was passed when the feeling was running high against Germany in Great Britain and all the allied countries. "At that time the lot of Germans in the university would have been unendurable. But conditions have changed."

The German scholars made a good record at Oxford and did well when they returned to their homeland. Most of them were appointed to official positions.

There is much difference of opinion as to whether the Rhodes scholars from the United States and the Dominions have in any considerable degree given form to Cecil Rhodes' dream for the creation of better feeling in the English-speaking world, and the British press never tires of discussing the subject, and reprinting everything which is published by the United States and the Dominions on the subject.

The political-minded press emphasizes the fact that Rhodes scholars do not enter politics and become outstanding leaders in their respective homelands. Newspapers of this class frequently fail to take into account the youth of many of the graduates, the economic necessity for them to earn a living in their professions, as most of them were men without private means, and the fact that many of the Rhodes Scholars lost valuable years fighting in the Great War.

Australians and Americans, in the opinion of many experts who have been studying the Rhodes scholars, find it harder to adjust themselves to Oxford conditions than New Zealanders and South Africans. And American students from the eastern and southern states are supposed to be more adaptable than those from other parts of the United States.

Some critics of the Rhodes scholars say that those who adjust themselves too thoroughly to Oxford find themselves unhappy when they return to their homes and are invited 'for life' in their native environment.

It has been found necessary to make many changes in the plan originally outlined by Cecil Rhodes.

FIANCEE MEETS DEATH ON STEPS OF CHURCH

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 20 (AP)—Freed from an asylum, Theodore Osweller, Jr., young Wichita banker, this month will face trial a second time for the slaying, seven years ago, of Miss Caroline Cunningham.

Miss Cunningham, member of a socially prominent family, was shot and killed on the steps of St. Mary's Cathedral here on a Sunday morning in 1920. Her mother was going to mass.

Osweller, sent to trial five months after the shooting, was pictured as a rejected suitor who shot his sweetheart after she had refused his marriage proposals and then turned the gun on herself, but failed to end his life when the revolver jammed.

On Christmas day, the year of the shooting, a jury found Osweller guilty of murder in the second degree. He was sentenced to serve 40 years in the state penitentiary, but the case was reversed by the state supreme court with instructions that a sanity hearing be held. The young banker was declared insane and sent to the state hospital at Lansing, with the provision that if he ever declared sane he would be returned to Wichita for trial.

Osweller, since the day of the shooting, has refused to discuss the incidents which led to Miss Cunningham's death. The two became engaged after Osweller enlisted in the

HANSEN MAN FILES SUIT FOR $30,500 FOR LOSS OF LIMB

L. J. Bower, Caught in Bean Thresher, Asserts Agent of Harris Manufacturing Company Responsible for Mishap.

L. J. Bower of Hansen wants $30,500 damages for loss of his left leg as a result of injuries suffered while working with a bean combine threshing machine last September 15. Suit for this sum was instituted by Bower in district court here Thursday against the Harris Manufacturing company, a California corporation. Bower alleges that he was working, when he was injured, under direction of a man named Pike, an agent of the Harris company. Bower's leg was amputated below the knee.

Claim of Plaintiff, which was filed by Bothwell and Chapman, asserts that at the time of the accident he was employed by H. G. Beals for whom he was operating a bean combine threshing machine. He says the machine had not been operating well and the Harris company sent Pike to repair and keep it in running order. He asserts that Pike requested and directed him to get on top of the machine and watch the feeding appliance and give a signal to the driver that they should stop. In the event of clogging, the complaint says, Pike, who the engineer would stop the machine and Bower would clean out whatever substance caused the trouble. Bower says that the machine clogged and he gave the signal when Pike stopped the machine, and he began cleaning it out as per instruction from Pike. He says that he threw out some beans from the feeding appliance, and that while he was examining the machine, he was struck by the roller which he says he was cleaning out. Bower says that he has a wife and three minor children. He says that he is permanently incapacitated from the performance of ordinary business and asks $30,000 general damages, in addition to what he says the charges of a physician and surgeon were $500 and the sum of $180 was spent for medicine, making a total of $30,500.
