GOVERNOR SMITH'S IN LIMELIGHT FOLLOWING NEW YORK ELECTION

Friends of Empire State's Chief Executive Think He Will Be Invincible in Democratic Convention in 1928; Others Quiet

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Yesterday's smashing democratic victory in New York state was echoed by reports of speculation and comment in Washington about the 1928 presidential aspirations of Governor Smith.

The governor's strong showing in the outcome of the election a new guarantee that he would be invincible in next year's democratic nomination. When opponents reserved judgment, but asked many questions about the election returns. The republicans followed suit.

Celebration's Attention Until today the capital had taken little notice of the Empire state campaign, which involved no national issues, but was waged around proposed amendments to the state constitution.

When the amendments were overwhelmingly adopted, and the one opposed by him and favored by the republican state organization was overwhelmingly defeated, the politicians began to inquire just how much weight the governor's personal hold on the voters may have had in the result.

Those who want to see him in the white house had no recalculation arriving at an answer. Those who do not are still asking.

Senator Edwards, New Jersey, one of the wet leaders in congress, said the election had enhanced Governor Smith's 1928 prospects 100 per cent, and had put him in a position where no delegation in the national convention next year can afford to ignore his candidacy.

A democratic dry, Senator King, Utah, who recently disclosed that he had found much to like in Governor Smith, said the opinion that the "foundry of Governor Smith" would be "the factory of the nation's president."

In the days' discussions around Washington the New York result of the election of the state chief executive returns put together. The republican victory in Kentucky, which of recent years has swung back and forth from one party to the other, was said to arouse little interest because it involved neither national issues nor conspicuous presidential prospects.

The victory of the Vire organization in Philadelphia was generally expected, and although the state's anti-saloon league caused some surprise, there was no comment from the local congressional leaders now in Washington.

COWBOYS AND GIRLS ATTEND MURDER TRIAL

Testimony Indicates Body of Slain Man Was Found 30 Feet From Car; Death Was Instant.

LAKEVIEW, Nov. 9 (AP)—Cowboys and cowgirls flocked into this little hamlet early today to hear the testimony in the trial of Lorena Trickey, prize prize winner, charged with the murder of J. P. Harris.

Dr. A. J. Ousley, under cross-examination said that Harris' body was found 30 feet from the automobile in which Miss Trickey and Harris had been riding. The defense said in the opening in rodeo and she won many prizes throughout the west.

"I have had some tough fights in my life," she said. "I've broken people when I was ten years old and have camped with the best on the rodeo field. But this is the toughest case of my life."

"Some way or other I can't help but figure the state as one pony and myself as another. The first one of us to get under the 'may' get the pay off. There can be no pay money until we get under the 'wife'."

New York Preacher Advertisers for His Lost Flock of Sheep

PERRY, N. Y., Nov. 9.—So many of the flock of the Rev. J. B. Ennis, pastor of the Galesville Methodist congregation are staying away from church, that he has published the following advertisements in local newspapers this week:

"Lost, strayed or stolen—A large flock of Methodist sheep. They have been gone for some time. When last seen they were browsing along the road of indifference. Anyone finding these sheep please bring them home if possible and you will receive ample reward. If they refuse to come home, drive them into the nearest Methodist church and report to the undersigned—Rev. J. B. Ennis. Plenty of fodder will be provided Sunday."

MINERS RETURNING TO POSTS IN COLORADO

Large Company Reports Force 78 Per Cent Normal; Police Watchful; Early End Looms.

DENVER, Nov. 9 (AP)—Southern Colorado coal mines reported the largest working force today that they have had since the miners strike was called by the Industrial Workers of the World more than three weeks ago. In Las Animas county, where strike activity was centered for a time, the Colorado Fuel and Iron company reported that a force of coalminers was now 78 per cent normal. All of the five mines of the company in the area were reported to be working during the strike because of the shortage of miners. Increased forces were reported by independent mines and the operators were hopeful of an early breakup of the strike.

No Picketing Reported—There was no picketing reported in the northern part of the state today. State officials assumed an attitude of watchful waiting.

In the northern part of the state two union deputy sheriffs arrested the two men on picketing charges. The state today reported that H. Adams was holding additional state law enforcement officers ready to send to Weld county if they should be needed.

The Columbine mine worked today in spite of the activity and reported more miners than yesterday. It has been the mine in northern Colorado to operate since the strike started. The Fremont county fields were reported to be working. An attempt was being made to operate in Routt county, in the northwest corner of the state. The mine reported nearly normal working forces.

Dean of Broadway Producers Does Not Know Money's Value

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—David Belasco, dean of Broadway producers, today told a crowded premiere court room that he "did not understand the value of money" and that he frequently "advised his business manager never to tell him how much he had spent."

Belasco had been summoned as a defense witness in the suit brought by Bernard Busman against Charles Frohman. He was asked damages for an injury he claimed to have received while playing in a Broadway production.

Belasco insisted that he had only the warmest feelings for the youthful plaintiff. After the veteran's testimony, Busman rushed up to him, and the two walked out of the court room arm in arm.

CITY CLERK'S BOOKS SHOW DEFALCATION

Parley Clark, Charged With Embezzlement of $5869 of Municipal Funds, Still at Large.

SHERIDAN, Nov. 9 (Special, 10).—The New York Times said today that Parley Clark, justice of the peace today, on a complaint filed by T. M. Morris, county attorney, charging Clark with embezzling $5869 of the funds of the city of Burley while serving in the capacity of city clerk; an office that he has occupied since 1923.

Restitution of the sum of $2300 had been made, out of the amount which was alleged to have been embezzled.

The warrant was placed in the hands of Sheriff Prentiss D. Pace who was unable to locate Clark today. It was stated at the Clark today that he was out of town but would be back Thursday.

The audit of the city books is about complete and will be ready for presentation to the council Monday evening. It is said that the shelling may be even larger than the sum named in the complaint and may reach $6000.

BATTLE FOR REPEAL OF INHERITANCE TAX RAGES IN WASHINGTON

Witnesses at Hearings Recall Arguments Used Over Century Ago by Jefferson and Hamilton in States' Rights Fight.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Arguments used more than a century ago by Jefferson and Hamilton in their memorable battle over states' rights were recalled today by witnesses discussing proposed repeal of the federal inheritance tax at the house ways and means committee hearings.

Those advocating repeal of the tax called to their support the arguments of Jefferson that the rights of the states, above all things, should be protected. They contended the levy infringed on such rights.

On the other hand, those favoring retention of the tax, while conceding that a lobby is maintained in Washington to obtain repeal of the tax.

An effort was made, principally by (Continued on Page Three)

COPELAND BEGINS SERVING SENTENCE FOR MURDER

Defendant Hears Judge's Words Without Display of Emotion; Draws 15 to 30 Years' Term.

BOISE, Nov. 9 (AP)—Paul Copeland, 34, started today serving a sentence of 15 to 30 years imprisonment in the Idaho state penitentiary for the second degree murder of Frank Starr, Boise valley butcher rancher, whom Copeland was convicted of killing April 24. Sentence was pronounced this morning by Judge Dana E. Brink, of the Ada county district court.

Copeland admitted killing Starr, to burying the body in a shallow grave from which it was recovered three and one-half months later, and for forging an $80 check on Starr's banking account. The defendant claimed he shot in self-defense. The verdict of second degree murder was returned by the jury Sunday morning after a six day trial.

Albert B. Fall Loses Ground in His Fight To Overcome Illness

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Coughing spells weakened Albert B. Fall today so that he was not able to sit up as had been planned, and his relatives do not believe that the former interior secretary can leave for New Mexico this week as had been expected.

His temperature continued to waver, his physicians reported, and fell below normal, as it has several times since he was confined to bed with congestion of the lungs last Friday.

Fall's illness closely followed declaration of a martial in the oil conspiracy case in which he was defendant with Harry F. Sinclair.

FARM ORGANIZATION LEADERS GATHER AT WASHINGTON MEETING

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The master minds of three farmers' organizations met about the conference table here today in an attempt to map out an agricultural relief legislative program, but the meeting carried far into the night and tomorrow, contrary to their expectations.

A substitute advanced by the national grange for the controversial equalization fee provision of the vetoed McNary-Haugen bill proved the stumbling block which forced an extra session.

Explain Export Debentures—The export debentures would represent the difference between the domestic price of crops and the world price. They would be given to exporters who in turn would cash the debentures by sale to importers who could present them as payment of custom duties.

Before going behind closed doors the heads of the three powerful farm organizations made soundings at the White House and at the capital as to (Continued on Page Three)

GOVERNOR JOINS IN FIGHT TO KEEP BOISE INFIRMARY

Idaho Will Ask Hearing Before Bureau and War Department on Removal of Vets' Hospital.

BOISE, Nov. 9 (AP)—Idaho will ask a hearing before the veterans bureau and the war department on the proposed removal of the veterans hospital from Boise, Governor H. O. Baldridge announced today.

He tentatively set for the hearing December 7 or 8, and if a hearing is held the governor will name someone to present Idaho's case.

In opposition to contemplated abandonment of the hospital the governor sent telegrams to Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans bureau, Dwight F. Davis, secretary of war, and members of the Idaho congressional delegation.

"I am far more interested," Mayor Walter Hansen wired, "in the welfare of the 35,000 former service men of the state than in anything that Boise might gain by transforming the hospital into a barracks. The welfare of them demands retention of the hospital."

The hearing would be held in the city of Boise, Idaho.

Australian Writer Says Race Is Ugly Women Included

SYDNEY, Nov. 9.—Robert Dexter, Australian journalist, with Hollywood film editing experience, has raised a storm by telling the federal commission that Australians are an ugly race. He had seen, he said, only one man in Australia whom the rest of the world would consider worth looking at in a leading screen role, and the best dressed man in Sydney with its 1,250,000 population could not hold his own in a $5-a-day extra in Hollywood.

Going the whole route, Dexter took a "slam" at Australian "girls" this afternoon and drew his own, they lacked the art of making the most of themselves and they had bad teeth.

400 WORKERS MARCH TO PARLIAMENT HALLS

Little Army of Unemployed Men Reaches Bristol en Route to London; Older Ones Weary.

BRISTOL, Eng., Nov. 9 (AP)—A little army of 400 unemployed men on route to London to storm the halls of parliament, with oratory, arrived late this afternoon and found themselves in true English fashion.

The marchers were also greeted by pretty bob-haired Bristol girls who expressed their readiness to dance with the youngsters of the expedition.

Some of the older members, to whom the trip to London is a serious even a tragic pilgrimage, were weary and footsore from the first day's hike of the 200 mile journey, which included a ten minute train ride through the Severn tunnel to cut off a 60-mile walk around the Bristol channel.

Committee Meets Marchers—At the marchers' struggle into Bristol they were met by a local committee of welcome carrying red flags.

The procession passed through crowded streets to the labor party headquarters where they were to sleep tonight, expecting to continue tomorrow.

One of the marchers arrived barefooted with his heavy boots along over the streets.

"It is more comfortable this way," he shouted to a man who asked why he was carrying the boots.

Malcolm Kitchen, 40, the marchers, in addition to ten upon arrival here, had a hot lunch from a roasting kitchen at Pimlico. The kitchen was in charge of a one-legged war veteran who served in Burma and whose great leg was in a sling.

In shouting "Roll-up" which is the equivalent of the American army cry "Come and get it."

Cancer Could Wipe Out All Civilization Within 100 Years

DAYTON, Ohio, Nov. 9 (AP)—If cancer should change its attack in the younger generation it would wipe out civilization within 100 years.

That warning was issued today by Dr. Philip Fitzpatrick, Chicago, president of the Illinois association for the prevention of cancer, and a specialist of international repute at the joint meeting of the Southern Ohio, Ohio state and Miami valley homeopathic medical societies.

Dr. Fitzpatrick asserted that newspapers of the United States must be effectively informed if there is to be an effective warfare against the spread of cancer.

17 CASES INFANTILE PARALYSIS IN IDAHO

Three More Victims of Disease; Death Toll Reaches Four; 11 Ill in Boise and Vicinity.

BOISE, Nov. 9 (AP)—Three new cases of infantile paralysis were reported today to Dr. F. W. Almond, health officer at the joint meeting of public welfare, bringing the total cases in Boise and vicinity to 11, and the total in Idaho to 17. Four cases have been reported from Moscow and one each from Pocatello and Paris. Four deaths have occurred, two in Moscow and two in Boise, and one near Mountain Home.

Of the three new cases today, one is a case of 22-year-old young man, whose condition is considered critical.

Boise high school closed today, thus closing the entire public school system and the Ada county schools. Schools will continue closed until the spread of infantile paralysis is checked.

NEW ENGLAND FLOOD RELIEF PROGRAM AND WINTER CONTESTING

Wire Communication Rapidly Reaching Isolated Parts of States; Railways and Roads Opening; Need Federal Aid.

(By The Associated Press) BOSTON, Nov. 9.—In the calm presence of outside help and communication, New England flood relief program stood at tonight as a race against the white spray of winter. Help had reached nearly all sections, wire communication was rapidly reaching every corner of the state, railroads and highways were opening up, but the relief at the moment was hampered by the knowledge that bitter winter weather will strangle makeshift communication lines and lock hauled, wrecked communities in the grip of ice and frozen mud that will not be broken until spring.

Army, navy, and coast and geodetic survey, and other federal authorities have succeeded in getting food and clothing to every point where they were most needed.

Only a few miles of railroad are under operation in Vermont, however, and it will be weeks before service can be restored on many lines where bridges are out. Federal aid is needed in that state.

Governor John E. Weeks, in setting at rest rumors that Vermont considered such aid unnecessary, issued a statement late Monday.

"Federal troops have been of the greatest assistance in relief work in the flooded areas," he said.

Some of the state's help is greatly appreciated. Rumors have gone out that federal aid was unnecessary, which is entirely wrong.

Thomas Bradlee, director of the extension bureau of the Vermont agricultural college, estimated today that the great Vermont dairy industry had lost 5,000 cows in the floods.

The farmers who inundated he said, "are just crushed under the burden and haven't the strength to get on their feet."

"Diphtheria" was reported to have made its appearance in the little village of Dorset, New Hampshire, Vermont, the number of cases was not known but measures were promptly taken to check the spread of the disease.

Snow fell briskly in northern Vermont today, but ended without any large accumulation.

OIL COMPANY OFFICER REFUSES TO ESTIFY

Sheldon Clark, Chicago, Goes Before Grand Jury Probing Allegations of Tampering.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Another Sinclair oil official, charged with having had contact with a federal grand jury investigating the Fall-Sinclair conspiracy, refused to testify today in the government's investigation into the allegations of jury tampering.

He is Sheldon Clark, vice president and general manager of the Sinclair Refining company, prominent socially and politically in Chicago, and one of the judges who made the decision in the Dempsey-Tunney fight in this city last September.

Coming here under a subpoena, Clark was sworn in for five minutes, but refused to make any statement. He declined to make any statement, but he was sworn in for five minutes.

After the chief justice decided several of the grand jury members were forced to testify because he had claimed his evidence might tend to incriminate him. Clark said he had been taken before United States Commissioner Turnage and a confidential charging him and Massey with conspiracy to influence the election.

THE SPORTS OF A DAY

WASHINGTON STATE'S ELEVEN AND VANDALS ARE EVENLY MATCHED

Idaho, Generally Given Slight Edge; Pullman Has Veteran Squad and Goes Into Contest at Moscow After Long Rest.

(Special to The News) UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Nov. 9.—Twenty-two Idaho towns are college and the University of Idaho football team face each other at Pullman Friday in the big game, which is homecoming for both camps, with odds about even. While Idaho is generally given a slight edge because it has not been beaten this season the Vandal followers insist that the edge ought to be in Pullman's favor because the Cougars have a veteran squad and oppose Idaho after two weeks of rest. When the Washington State squad was resting Idaho had a tough assignment with St. Mary's at San Francisco. The Vandals played the day after a field goal in the final quarter, tying the score 3 to 3, and played an open game to prevent injuries.

The Vandals returned home Monday night, tired from the long trip and hard game. There are no regular workouts for the Vandals this week. The squad is doing just enough daily practice to keep muscles limbered while Ed is devoting his coaching principally to psychology, a desire to get the Vandal fighting spirit up to fever heat by Friday.

Comparative scores so far put the two eleven on a parity. In six games Washington State has scored 112 points and had 39 scored against her while Idaho has scored 104 points in five games with her opponents registering 21 points. Idaho has won three of the games with two ties. The Vandals still have a percentage of 1.00 in the conference, tying them with Stanford and Southern California. In addition the steamroller fullback, Big Bill Kernahnik, is the second high individual in the conference with 36 points. Chuck Carroll, Washington, is way ahead of him with 47 points but Idaho's plunger is one point ahead of Southern California's ace, Marley Drury. Most tabulations of individual scoring give Kernahnik five touchdowns but the Vandal records give him six.

Reports from graduate managers indicate a complete sellout for the big game. Idaho followers are flooding the market with tickets. The Pullman office already reports an unprecedented demand and the outlook is that the biggest football crowd in inland Empire history will gather for the big battle.

Governor Hartley of Washington and Governor Hildridge of Idaho are expected to attend the game or have their personal representatives present. A special ceremony between halves has been arranged to honor these dignitaries.

PLASTINO PUTS TEAM THROUGH SCRIMMAGE

Lincoln Field Heavy and Sticky; Mud Will Aid Nampa Eleven; Berg Out With a Bad Ankle.

The Twin Falls Bruins took on their second straight night of heavy scrimmage last evening. It was a truly heavy one last night for the persistent downpour has made Lincoln field heavy and sticky. Prospects for a dry field Armistice day diminish considerably as the day draws near. The mud will be of considerable advantage to the Nampa eleven because of their superior weight and driving power of the backs.

The first serious loss from injuries since last season occurred Tuesday night when AP Berg, husky guard, wrenched an ankle and was not able to practice last night. It is thought that the big boy will be able to don a uniform for tonight's practice but it is not likely he will be able to go against Nampa tomorrow. Floyd Lincoln, who has displayed considerable ability in earlier games at guard, will no doubt play the Nampa game. Berg was a power in the forward at Gooding and played the best game of his career.

Nampa Team Strong

The Nampa aggregation, while undoubtedly strong, has had an erratic season losing several games to teams tabulations were admittedly weaker. With several experienced men in the line and a heavy team, they will make hard dodging for the Bruins tomorrow. Coach Orin E. Hollingsberry made no public pronouncement but ordered heavier workouts for his Washington State gridders in the hopes of toppling Idaho from its lofty position.

Coaches Howard Jones of University of Southern California and Glenn Warner of Stanford prepared to turn over the reins to subordinates while each scouted the Washington-California game at Berkeley. Southern California meets the University of Colorado and Stanford entertains Santa Clara university Saturday, in what are considered easy games.

WESTERN GRID TEAMS IN INTENSIVE DRILL

Football Fields Hum With Activity as 34 Teams Prepare for Season's Hardest Games.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9 (P).—Far western gridiron, many rain-swept or soggy, hummed with activity today as 34 teams prepared for this weekend's football campaign, the most extensive of an already thrilling season. The University of Washington's titanic eleven rushed through a snappy workout at Seattle and boarded a train for Berkeley and next Saturday's outstanding game with University of California.

Stanford, California's Golden Bears sloshed through the rain on double practice duty. Oregon State college polished up on formations for their annual clash in Eugene, Friday. With state honors involved in anticipation of min-Coach J. J. McEwan of Oregon centered his attention on developing two heavy duty tackles whose 400 aggressive pounds, he thinks, may figure in the final result.

Possessing the same conference standing as University of Southern California and Stanford, with no defeats and one tie, the Vandals of the University of Idaho kept up an intensive practice pace for a brush with their old-time rivals—Washington State college—at Pullman, Friday.

Heavier Workouts

Coach Orin E. Hollingsberry made no public pronouncement but ordered heavier workouts for his Washington State gridders in the hopes of toppling Idaho from its lofty position.

Local officials have not determined the time of the game but this arrangement is almost assured.

The Wildcats are ready for their rivals and have been working hard all week. Smith has completely recovered from his leg injuries and will be in first class shape. The Indians have been drilling hard for this game and are confident of victory. Fans are assured a real contest.

Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, general secretary, said the alliance believes that "war is not only an anachronism but is an example of the folly of thinking in this day that any question can be settled by the use of force."

"Commerce and trade depend upon good relations," he said. "The old theory that investments in foreign countries or trade between the peoples of different lands can be safeguarded by the use of armed force is being abandoned. It is only in the realm of politics that war is still held in any great favor."

He said the alliance was not interested in any particular theory and did not believe there is "any sure panacea for war" but is convinced that by "creating the right attitude and bringing about a better understanding between the nations, right and justice can be made to prevail."

RUPERT WILL MEET BURLEY'S ELEVEN

Fans Hail Announcement With Glee; Much Interest Evident in Contest; Teams Matched.

BURLEY, Nov. 9 (Special to The News).—Burley fans hailed with glee the announcement that Rupert would play here on Armistice day. The district board of control at its meeting here last night decided not to cancel the annual clash between the two teams and announced that Rupert must defeat the locals to stay in the district title race. Should Rupert win from Burley Friday, she will meet Gooding Tuesday, November 15, for the district title. Local fans are strong in the belief that Rupert will not win the chance to meet Gooding for the district title, feeling sure that the local warriors can defeat Coach Nixon's eleven.

More interest centers around this annual game than any other football contest in the east end of the district and it is doubted this year by reason of the championship bearing. Rupert has not met defeat this season but local fans point out that the neighboring team has not met the competition that the locals have.

Burley Heavier Than Visitors

The locals will outweigh Rupert a few pounds per man with the two teams about equal in experience. Norby and Sanford, the two Rupert speedsters, have been able to wear the ends of any team they have met so far this season and Coach Bowen has been drilling his bobs on defensive drill all week in preparation for the fast Rupert backs. Rain for the past three days has turned the field into a sea of mud and prospects for a dry field are almost nil. This should work to the advantage of the locals who have a little more weight and do not depend upon speed for their gains. As usual a record crowd is anticipated and the field is being prepared to take care of the horde of enthusiasts who are expected to attend.

Representatives of the council, all advocating repeal of the tax, constituted a majority of the witnesses heard during the two days discussion of the estate levy.

Inheritance Tax Fight

While the fight over the inheritance tax continued at the house committee hearing, a group of western republican senators met to consider a program aimed to oppose the administration's effort for its repeal.

Characterizing the tax as "one of the most just levies as well as one of those most easily collected," Senator Borah, Idaho, a member of the bloc, gave notice that its appeal would be fought to the last.

While Representative Crowther, republican, New York, at the house ways and means committee hearing described the discussion over lobbying as a "tempest in a teapot," and said that some witnesses of the legislative council had been questioned like they were "chicken thieves," Garner argued otherwise.

Mayor Asks All to Observe Armistice

In view of the fact that the legislature made Armistice day a legal holiday by act of legislature in 1925, and because the local post of the American Legion is planning a big celebration in commemoration of the World war dead, I hereby wish to request that all of the citizens of Twin Falls cooperate in the observance of the day that marks the ending of the World war.

"One step toward the observance of the day was taken at a recent meeting of the merchants of this city when they voted to close all stores at 10:30 a. m. on Friday, Armistice day. Another move that has been made to honor the World war dead is the program that has been arranged by the American Legion. Let us all cooperate and lay aside our work to observe this particularly significant occasion."

HAZELTON, Nov. 9.—Following the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Thursday evening the Rebekahs, assisted by the Odd Fellows, entertained about 50 of their friends in the I. O. O. F. hall. The members of the committee combined a Halloween party with a party honoring Mrs. Bertha Belmont who was elected vice president of the state assembly in October. Clever little caps of orange and black with a sticker bearing the word "Bertha" were worn by all present throughout the evening. Mrs. Belmont also received a gift from the members of the Rebekah lodge. A program of all new games was thoroughly enjoyed and a thrill was furnished by the visitation of a ghost. Prizes were awarded to all partners winning games, and delicious coffee, stew, cider and doughnuts served by the Odd Fellows completed a perfect evening.

BEET GROWERS AT EDEN PRODUCE HEAVY YIELDS

Production Per Acre Offsets Decline in Crop Area and New Record Looms.

EDEN, Nov. 9.—Within the next few days the harvest of the sugar beet crop for this district will be completed. The figures on tonnage shipped from this point are not now available, but from all indications the tonnage will equal and perhaps exceed any previous year of the beet industry here. While the amount of acres planted this season has been below normal, the increased yield per acre will more than offset the difference. A number of growers who have completed their harvest estimate a yield of close to the 20 tons mark. The average over the entire district should be about 18 tons per acre. More than 400 tons of beets have been piled near the loading station here, owing to the shortage of cars earlier in the season.

Frank MacDonald has purchased the Andrew Anderson farm located on the highway leading to the Hansen bridge from Eden. Mr. MacDonald has been the tenant on this farm for the past several years.

Hilldale-highway district, has entered on his new work. The past week has been spent in going over the various roads to determine the amount of repair work necessary at this time.

Walter Hall of the Russell-Lane district has leased the 180 acre farm of the Lee Lockwood farm property south of Hilldale school house, which at the present time is being farmed by Frank Hoque.

The regular meeting of the members of the Lincoln Circle, Ladies of the O. A. R., was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. V. Everett.

The farm buildings on the C. H. Helmer farm, located one mile south and one mile east of Eden, are being improved. The house is being remodeled inside and out. The construction of a new barn and poultry house are to be undertaken before the winter months arrive. The farm has been leased to Louis Couch for a term of years.

Doing His Best

Whenever I have found out that I have blundered, or that my work has been imperfect, and when I have been contemptuously criticized, and even when I have been disappointed, so that I have felt mortified, it has been no greater comfort to say hundreds of times to myself that "I have worked as hard and as well as I could, and no man can do more than this."—Darwin.

Woman Psychologist Studies the Emotions

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 9.—(By Emotion), according to its nature, stimulates or retards thought, believes Dr. Margaret Washburn, head of the department of psychology of Vassar college. Mild emotion, she contends, helps one to think, but violent emotional experiences obscure the process of thinking. The latter, she believes, may be made worse with the aid of the fast-acting, artificial bodily disturbances.

Dr. Washburn's conclusions on the relation of emotion and thought represent a new theory in psychology which many other psychologists oppose.

Why no other coffee can ever taste like this

A special shade of flavor created years ago in the South

ONLY once have coffees been chosen and combined in just this way. Here is one of the few truly great achievements in the art of blending.

"Winy," a acid coffee—mild, delicate coffee—pungent "heavy" coffee—hundreds of different kinds from the ports of the seven seas. Yet no single one that has ever pleased the critical people of America.

In this blend, a flavor no one had ever tasted—a shade of mellow richness built from many coffees—the genius of a southerner of the old South.

Years ago Joel Cheek down in that land of good living created this blend that has now won such fame as never before came to a coffee.

Known to the South alone a few years ago, that touch of extra richness in Maxwell House Coffee has now come as a new experience to the entire nation.

Today Maxwell House is by far the largest selling coffee in the entire United States.

All the zest of a new adventure awaits you in its special full-bodied smoothness. See what added pleasure Maxwell House Coffee brings your family. Your grocer has it in sealed, blue tins.

"JESSE JAMES" Jesse James' life story has reached the screen with the aid of his son, Jesse E. James, Jr. One of the most romantic and colorful careers of American history, it was screened by Fred Thomson exactly as it was lived as the son of the famous soldier and guerrilla fighter acted as technical advisor and biographer.

In the early months of his search through the history of the Civil war and the guerrilla raiding which followed across the southern states to Missouri Mr. Thomson and his acrobat, Frank M. Clifton, were confused by the controversial writings of partisans of the north and south and they appealed to Jesse E. James, Jr., for help. The latter supplied Mr. Thomson with all the saddles, guns and camp equipment used by his father and these appear in the picture which reaches the Idaho today for a three day showing.

The added attraction, "The Flag," a two-reel feature, all in natural colors, is a thing of beauty.
