COURT MARTIAL FREES OFFICIAL OF ROMANIA

Mihail Manolescu Gets Freedom by 3 to 2 Vote; Verdict Receives Tremendous Ovation

BUCHAREST, Nov. 14 (AP)—Mihail Manolescu, a Romanian, was freed this morning by a court martial five judges who voted 3 to 2 to set him free.

Manolescu was charged with conspiracy to bring former Crown Prince Carol back to Rumania and to restore to him his rights of succession to the throne.

The acquittal of the former under-king was greeted with tremendous cheers. "This is the beginning of a new era of liberty in Rumania," said Manolescu, who a few minutes before had been the respondent of the Associated Press that he expected to be convicted.

The court martial of the former king and bearer of letters and other documents from the former crown prince to leaders of the various parties in Bucharest was the sensation of the past week. Manolescu, himself, by his brilliant oratory won the sympathy and support of the thousands who swarmed about the precincts of the little court room where the proceedings were held.

WHEAT PRICES HOLD STEADY WITH HEAVY CANADIAN RECEIPTS

Rain and Snow Interfere With Domestic Marketing Operations; Premiums for Best Protein Types Hold Firm.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 14.—The grain market ruled generally steady during the week ending November 10 and prices of coarse grains were 1/2c higher than at the close of the previous week. According to the daily grain market review of the United States bureau of agricultural economics, heavy offerings of Canadian wheat were the chief factor in the wheat market but continued active demand for good milling quality held domestic prices fairly steady. Light receipts of corn, together with unfavorable weather for hauling and cribbing were strengthening factors in the market for that grain. Oats continued firm on light receipts while rye and barley prices were further advanced as a result of continued good export demand. The flax market was generally firmer and prices tended upward.

While Canadian wheat marketings continued heavy the country movement became smaller with snow and rain interfering with marketing operations. According to the Canadian official estimate of November 1 the wheat crop will total 444,282,000 bushels, a reduction of about 14,000,000 bushels from earlier estimates. Southern hemisphere crops made good progress with weather more favorable in Australia. Harvesting of wheat and flax was begun in Argentina and early samples of wheat were reported good. Light receipts of corn, together with a reduction of about 12,000,000 bushels below last year's production. The smaller Italian crop is apparently being reflected in local prices which were advanced to $1.91 per bushel at Milan during the week. Other foreign markets were practically unchanged from last week.

Proteins Hold Firm

There were new features in the domestic cash markets but there was the usual good demand for the best protein types of wheat and premiums held firm. Bittern per cent protein No. 1 dark northern was quoted at Minneapolis at the close of the market November 10 at $1.40 to $1.45 per bushel. Best types of Montana wheat ranged $1.32 to $1.37 which would compare in a general way with Winnipeg quotations of $1.40 to $1.45 for No. 1 northern in that market. Less activity in the export demand weakened the market for durum wheat but good milling lots were scarce and in good demand. No. 1 amber was quoted at Minneapolis and Duluth at $1.29 to $1.41 per bushel depending on quality. Offerings of high protein types of hard winter wheat were light and 12 1/2 per cent protein No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at $1.24 to $1.26 per bushel at the close of the market November 10. Thirteen per cent protein brought 2c to 3c more. Low grades predominated in daily receipts and heat damaged and moist lots sold at discounts of 10c to 20c under Kansas City December wheat. Soft red wheat continued in good demand, although receipts exceeded the limited demand early in the week at St. Louis as a result of increased shipments from Indiana and Chicago. Prices of No. 2 red were lower slightly, being quoted at $1.41 to $1.42. No. 2 red was quoted at Chicago November 10 at $1.35 to $1.40. The market for soft winter wheat on the Pacific coast was weak, with white wheat for export quoted at Portland at $1.25 to $1.24. The northwestern markets are still oversupplied with damp wheat of which it is difficult to dispose. Competition from Vancouver which is offering wheat at lower prices is restricting new my word but the words of physicians, men of the community, who know that every violation a score would be instantly detected.

The magazine, in an explanatory note, said that "six months of exhaustive research work by Harry Love of Washington went into the gathering of data" for this article.

Recall Specific Cases

Senator Edwards recited in detail specific cases of several persons, "shot in the back" among them were the cases of Guy E. Meadows of Hinton, W. Va., who the senator wrote, was shot in the back when he attempted to throw a pint of whiskey into the river and Lawrence Wagner, upper Hartford this season, shot in the back when he ran upon being startled by five armed men jumping suddenly at him. The five men, the senator said, "went first and one is now a district administrator."

Senator Edwards gave the following "incomplete" list by states of killings by federal agents:

- Kentucky, 27; Virginia, 23; Georgia, 19; Texas, 15; Florida, 14; New York, 13; Arkansas, 10; West Virginia, 10; Alabama, 8; Mississippi, 7; New Jersey, 5; Maryland, 4; Pennsylvania, 3.

The cause of the large number of killings, in the enforcement of prohibition, he declared, "lies in the character of the men who enforce it; strikers and busybodies."

General Lincoln C. Andrews' statistics disclosed prohibition kept up to February 1, 1926. Senator Edwards said, revealed that 875 men of a standing staff of 3000 persons were discharged "for all sorts of scoundrelism," including 215 for intoxication and misconduct, and 123 for extortion, bribery or soliciting money.

bill and the Jardine proposal, is the appointment of a federal farm board to administer the payment of the export bounty on surplus farm products. The bounty would be paid on exports of such surpluses by recognized co-operators in the form of a debenture that would be legal tender for payment of custom duties.

It also provides for the raising of tariff duties on imported agricultural products to provide funds for the payment of debentures to be issued on exports of surpluses.

Although the necessity of combining on a farm relief program seemed paramount in the minds of the farm leaders, Mississippi flood control, merchant marine and the tariff were all due for consideration.

Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas, and Senator Charles L. McNary, Oregon, will be here Thursday. Senator Capper will address the farmers in a combined-session of the national and state granges.

Further legislation to restrict the use of the injunction in labor disputes.

Cooperation to the custom of trade. Senator Walsh would make the platform brief, confining it to controversial questions only, so that "everybody might be tempted to read it."

While not mentioning any names, the Montanas senator left no doubt that he considered Governor Smith of New York as one of those candidates who, if nominated, would project the prohibition issue into the next campaign regardless of platform declarations.

Speaking on the subject of "How I would write the 1928 platform," Senator Walsh outlined a platform to provide:

Farm Relief in Platform

As President Coolidge presented the Hubbard medal to Lindbergh, a shout rang out from a most distinguished gathering of government officers and foreign notables.

Mr. Franking Lindbergh, washed the homage paid her son with "glancing eyes and around her were 18 other women and the one girl, who, encouraged by Lindbergh's example, successfully accomplished perilous air journeys to the shores of Europe and Hawaii.

Dignity Marks Airman's Demise
The dignity which has been noted in Lindbergh's demeanor marked him as he listened to praise from the president for not capitalizing his fame commercially.

"This courageous, clear-headed, sure-handed youth, whose character has withstood the glare of publicity and the acid test of hero worshiping and adulation, became an apostle of aeronautics," said Mr. Coolidge.

The speech was punctuated with enthusiastic applause from the illustrious audience, and as the president concluded he passed for photographers as he pinned the medal on the flier's breast.

Lindbergh was calm and collected as he faced the audience and made his brief response. He was followed by Assistant Secretary MacCracken of the department of commerce, who lauded his accomplishments.

Mr. Turner came to Twin Falls some time after his daughter Miss Catherine Turner entered upon post graduate studies on which she is now engaged at Columbia university. New Mrs. Turner is with her daughter.

The announced purpose of the contest was to arouse more general interest in the subject of economics as related to the individual citizen.

"It gives me great pleasure to inform you that you have been awarded the first prize of $1000 for your essay submitted in the Alvin T. Simonds economic contest for 1927. Enclosed please find a check for the amount. Your essay seems to be a piece of work of which you may well be proud."

"I am continuing the economic contests begun in 1921 in the hope that many of our citizens who do not submit such an essay as the one that has won the prize for you may come to think more along economic lines and become better able to appreciate such arguments as you have made and possibly make statements of their own on economic subjects that are equally clear and convincing because based upon facts and study of facts in the light of economic theory."

front scoured, to be followed a minute later by a general alarm. With the first shock, firemen started on their apparatus and the engine sounded, they rushed forth. The city soon realized that there was a disaster at hand. Automobiles, taxicabs, ambulances and all available motor cars soon were rushing through the downtown district, bearing the injured to hospitals.

Biggest Reservoir in Ruins
The cause of the disaster was soon apparent. In the midst of the ruins lay a twisted mass of steel tank, said to be the largest natural gas reservoir in the world. It had been used to work repairing the tank at 8 a. m. Forty-three minutes later as the twisted metal was being hoisted, it fell into the street, crushing the steel framework of the shock case. Eye witnesses said that the tank, with a capacity of some 1,000,000 cubic feet, shot into the air like a balloon.

Electric Wires Sputter
Near the ill-fated gas tank the first victims were found—nine men, their bodies hurled and mangled. They were rushed to the morgue. Later, the body of a woman was picked up from a street. The rescuers found almost insupportable conditions in their path. They carried the injured through water, deep, tottering walls, mangled chimneys, dangling electric wires sputtered on all sides.

FAMINE IN PARKING SPACE: An eastern automobile dealer finds that it is growing harder to sell cars for one reason because prospective buyers are there isn't any place to park.

"Sea-pines" vessels have adequate terminal facilities. So do railroads. It's only in the automobile world that we find so little attention paid to the provision of satisfactory facilities for the vehicle when it comes to a stop.

"The public spends huge sums of money on our highways to make transportation more rapid and comfortable, but little or nothing is being spent by public interests to take care of the parking of the automobile."

AMERICANS ON THE Nile: There is trouble over the river Nile with American complications. An American corporation is said to have a concession from Abyssinia for building a two-million dollar dam across the Nile at Lake Tana.

Jobe Was on Himself: A man in Arkansas with a donkey for sole, heard a man across the line wanted to buy one, and wrote him a letter.

IDAHO COUNTIES' NET BOND OBLIGATIONS DIMINISHES IN YEAR

Condition in Gem State Is Due to Lower Gross Debt and Also to Larger Sinking Fund Total, Report to Governor Indicates.

(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, Nov. 14.—The net bonded indebtedness of Idaho counties and taxing units has decreased $131,208 from $43,884,009 in January, 1926, to $43,752,801 in January, 1927, the report of public accounts reported to Governor Blairidge. This debt, which does not include state bonds, is less than 10 per cent of the total assessed valuation of Idaho.

The decrease is due to a lower gross debt and a larger sinking fund total. The figures do not include the bonded indebtedness of irrigation and drainage districts, which the report explains is not a county debt but rather a question of industrial expansion. The department of reclamation estimates the total of this form of indebtedness at $20,825,611.

Class of indebtedness are: Counties, $0,478,027; cities and villages, $19,491,927; all classes outside the $11,728,729; and highway districts, $10,828,050.

Ada county has largest debt
Ada county has the largest county debt of $1,000,000, while five counties, Bannock, Clearwater, Idaho, Latah, and Lewis, have no reported county debt. The smallest outstanding debt issue for any county is $123,000 in Cassia county.

In the municipal debt class the largest is in Twin Falls county, with $1,738,591, while Bannock county with $1,713,153 is second. Boise, Camas and Cuyler counties have no municipal indebtedness.

Independent school districts have the bulk of the school debt, $8,889,199, the largest for any one county being in Twin Falls, where there are outstanding issues of $1,107,500. Ada county has an independent school debt of $1,093,811. Adams, Blaine, Camas and Clearwater have no debts in this class. Rural high schools have a total debt of $594,828 while common school districts have a total debt of $2,278,288.

Twin Falls county leads in the list of highway district debts, with $2,230,000. Latah county, with $1,061,000 is the only other county with more than a million in this class.

Twin Falls County Leader
Of the gross total of indebtedness, Twin Falls county, with $2,230,000, has almost 12 1/2 per cent, and leads the list. Ada county's total is second, with $2,041,752. Every county in the state has some form of bonded indebtedness outstanding. Boise county, with $2,120, has the smallest gross debt in the state.

Twenty-one counties have sinking funds to retire outstanding bonds. The largest sinking fund is in Bannock county, with $93,081, while Twin Falls, the largest county in point of debt, has no sinking fund. Its total of sinking funds is $1,812,470, as compared with $1,692,096 last year. Because all school bonds are on the amortization plan, there is no sinking fund for these issues, which are retired as fast as the money to pay them is collected.

Burns, his son, W. Sherman Burns and Burns' operative.
Opening the third week of its inquiry, the grand jury was in session only a brief time today and heard only two witnesses. William J. Burns and his son, W. Sherman, and W. Raymond, appeared at the courthouse and finally obtained permission to go before the grand jury tomorrow under certain stipulations as to their testimony.

These stipulations were not made public, but government counsel said the elder Burns would be permitted to make any "stump speeches" and must confine himself to testimony pertinent to the investigation. The attitude of William J. Burns today was in sharp contrast with that of a week ago when he first appeared here to testify before the grand jury. A week ago the internationally known detective talked freely with the newspaper men and set up a book against the government with a charge that a federal employe had made contact with one of the jurors.

Today Burns manner was subdued and he appeared rather nervous. He talked very little with the court reporters and crowded around him both before and after his conference with the prosecuting officers. Before he left the courthouse he gave instructions that all of his men were to meet him outside. He called especially for Charles G. Ruddy, Philadelphia, who was in charge of the jury shadowing operations.

There also was a change in the attitude of the operatives themselves. Heretofore they had mingled freely and talked much with the correspondents, but today they kept to themselves in one part of the corridor. Some of them gave evidence of apparent concern at the turn of events following McMullin's disclosures.

CASSIA TEACHERS FORM COUNTY-WIDE SOCIETY

W. W. Christensen, Superintendent of Burley Schools, Heads New Organization.

BURLEY, Nov. 14.—Organization of the Cassia County Teachers' association was effected Saturday at a well attended meeting of teachers and parents from all school districts in this county.

W. W. Christensen, superintendent of the Burley schools, was elected president; D. D. Biggers, Malta, vice president; Miss Artie Matthews, Oakley, secretary-treasurer. Eight delegates were elected to go to the state convention of the educational association. Mrs. Catherine Athey, Boise, of the state anti-tuberculosis association, addressed the gathering on health crusade work in the schools. It was decided to put on a prize essay contest in all rural schools.

Mrs. Marguerite Buchanan, county superintendent, submitted a constitution for local education associations, and distributed printed suggestions and reminders to the teachers. A resolution favoring representation of all districts at the next county fair, and the following committee was appointed to formulate plans for exhibit: Miss Artie Matthews, chairman; Miss Helen Haght, Deelo; Clifton Rooker, Springdale; Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, Malaga; Mrs. Lee Ballard, Malta; Eldon Gray, Elba; Vera Marie Dunn, Yale; Louisa Pickett, View.

KNIFE WOUND IS FATAL TO RESTAURANT OWNER

Paul Gott, restaurant owner of Salmon City, died as a result of loss of blood following an accidental cut on a hand from a butcher knife at his place of business. The restaurant man was slain when the physicians arrived.

The deceased is a brother of Oleen Gott, chef at the Model cafe in this city. He was a resident of Twin Falls for 10 or 12 years, having been employed as chef by the Grill and Model cafes. He is survived by his widow and his brother here. The body will be brought to this place for burial.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Called by Mrs. E. R. Williams Phone 999

The Daughters of the American Revolution held their regular monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Barber on Seventh avenue north with Mrs. W. E. Edridge, Mrs. D. G. McCully and Mrs. J. A. Leonard assisting hostesses. A cafeteria luncheon was served at one o'clock followed by the business meeting presided over by the new regent, Mrs. D. G. McCully, who succeeds Mrs. John F. Aull, who has moved to St. Anthony. Members were asked for contributions to the box which the society sends each year to the women at Angel Island. The D. A. R. magazine for October was reviewed by Mrs. J. E. White. The program was completed with a splendid talk by Mrs. T. E. Wason on "National Defense," its growth and development in the D. A. R. department organization. Miss Estie Sult, secretary of the Girl Reserves, and Miss Deener were guests and thirty members were in attendance.

The Mt. Club met Saturday evening at the home of Miss Helen Taylor on Eighth avenue north. The business meeting was presided over by Miss Katharin Larred, president of the club, at which time further plans were discussed for the Christmas party. At the conclusion of the session the hostesses, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Stuart Taylor, Jr., served dainty refreshments. Dancing and cards provided amusement for the remainder of the evening.

Complimentary to Mrs. Ruth Murphy of Caldwell, state organizer of the E. O. sisterhood, officers of the local chapter entertained with a charming luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. F. F. Mootie on Seventh avenue east. Places were marked for twelve at one table with decorations of white and

DOMINION POTATO CROP LESS THAN LAST YEAR

IDAHO FALLS, Nov. 14.—(Caldwell News Service)—Canada's potato crop is now estimated at 88,000,000 bushels, compared with 93,000,000 bushels last year. This is equivalent to about 75 per cent of the potato production in the United States. Blight seriously affected the crop in the Maritime provinces, particularly in Nova Scotia. Canadian certified seed production may amount to a million bushels. The New Brunswick potato crop is below that of last year. Local estimates indicate that 5000 cars of tubers will be shipped from that province this season, or 300 less than during last season. Shipments of Canadian potatoes to the United States this season to date have been much lighter than a year ago.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS ON WHEAT ARE LOWER

Increase in United States Visible Supply; Offerings More Than Are Readily Consumed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12 (AP)—With 2,099,000 bushels increase of the United States visible supply announced today, offerings of wheat were more than could be readily absorbed.

Today's enlargement of the United States visible stock of wheat brought the total up to 90,728,000 bushels last year. An increase of 440,000 bushels in the amount of wheat on ocean passage was a contributing factor.

Notwithstanding that wet weather over Iowa and Illinois will curtail crop offers of corn almost nothing corn prices averaged lower, continuing to reflect the seasonally bearish showing of the whole official crop figures.

PARKING SPACE IS THEME AT REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING

Service Station Permit Arouses Discussion on Places to Leave Cars; Improvements Progress; Talk of Christmas Tree.

Twin Falls city council in regular session last evening approved issuance of a building permit to the Texaco company for construction of a 7000 gallon filling station at the corner of Main avenue and Third street east, and engaged in a lengthy discussion of the problem of regulating parking space.

Improvements Progressing

The ordinance imposing the assessment on improvement district No. 56 on Fifth avenue east, was passed. Others were continued. William Harkins, contractor, is now spreading gravel on the Ninth avenue east, in district 58.

Community Christmas Tree

Replying to an inquiry as to whether the city expected to buy Christmas trees this year, it was stated that there was no fund for the purchase of trees. This does not come under the new improvement district law and the tax must be paid with regular taxes.

Mexicans Buy Back Check and Pay Bill

Three Mexicans were held for a time at Twin Falls police headquarters Monday as a result of complaining that they had sought to buy a bill. So far as could be learned the Mexicans who worked in the beet fields for a Filer man had received a check from him for $100. It is said that there was some sort of prior arrangement whereby the amount of a board bill in Buhl was to be held out. On being reminded of this the Filer man stopped payment on the check. The Mexicans cashed the check at another bank—the check was turned down when presented. The Mexicans claimed that they intended to pay the bill. They bought back the check they had transferred and settled the first account. There was no complaint filed against them and they were released by the police.

Tax Roll Checking Is Being Completed

Everybody in the treasurer's office is busy with tax rolls these days. Taxes will be due November 28 and time of payment for the first half of real estate and all the personal property taxes, to escape delinquency will expire December 28. The assessment roll is now being checked up and announcement thereon will be ready in a few days.

Under the old system the personal property taxes were paid at the office of the assessor. This has been changed and all are paid to the treasurer.

MILNER LOWLIFT TO RECLAIM 1000 ACRES

Land Heretofore Too High Will Be Added by Pumping Plant; Immense Yields Expected.

Work has started on the construction of a new pumping plant for the Milner Lowlift Canal company to carry water to 1000 acres which was contained in the canal's original segregation but which was found too high to be irrigated by the original pumping apparatus. A power line four and a half miles long is to be installed in connection with the plant. It was stated last evening by D. E. Moorman, Two large fills instead of two flumes will be built in the old water system to provide a more effective method of handling the water supply.

A Sensible Thought About Shopping at Home

"Do you know," a customer told us recently, "I never shop out of town any more, and I find that I am really better dressed than ever."

"When I used to go to the city it was always so nervous and hurried that I never got the things I really needed. Now if I have the slightest bit of doubt I go home and think it over."

"Then, too, the salespeople here know so much more about what I need. They often telephone me when new things arrive."

"Shopping at home seems so sensible to me," she concluded.

"Electricity!—The Foe of Drudgery"

Says Mrs. John D. Sherman
President General Federation of Women's Clubs

"Electrically equipped homes mean happier and more healthful homes. The cost of electrically operated labor-reduction devices is offset many times by the saving, the increased efficiency, the protection to health and the contribution to the general well-being of the family of such devices."

THE constructive efforts of the forward-looking electric power companies of the United States have released an ever-increasing number of women from the exacting duties of the household to more congenial and interesting pursuits of life.

Every new electrical invention finds an abundance of power ready to serve it. Through the enterprise of these companies, inspired by individual initiative, electric power plants and service facilities are being constructed five years in advance of consumer demand. Since 1900, the capacity of these plants has been doubled every five years.

Keenly alert to their social obligations, these electric power companies have not been content to rest on the expansion of their facilities. The most expert, highly skilled and highly trained technical personnel in the whole field of industry is working for the betterment of electrical service and the reduction of its cost.

As a result of this sense of trusteeship, the average home today enjoys the comforts and conveniences of electricity at a cost of only a few cents per day.

Operating under the American principle of individual initiative, and working in the interests of the public, these specialists in science, engineering, finance and administration constitute one of society's greatest forces in the promotion of a freer, more enlightened and abundant life.

In the continued support of this principle lies America's assurance of all that makes for progress, prosperity and cultural opportunity.

The complete text of Mrs. Sherman's address will be furnished upon request.
