OLD CABLE CAR LINE, FIRST IN NATION, USED IN GOLDEN GATE

Despite Competition of Electricity and Gasoline Old System Carries More Passengers Than Before Trolley.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17 (AP)—The first cable car system in America still is in operation here, and despite the competition of electricity and gasoline it is carrying more passengers than in the "good old days" before the automobile.

The automobile hasn't hurt us much yet," declared W. H. Harris, who rose from handy man to president of the California Street Railroad company, in length of service as the dean of street railway presidents. He has been connected with the car company since 1870.

Where other cars operate only where other cars cannot "run" because of steep grades, the efforts of his electric competitors to lure passengers to the comfort and attractiveness of electric street cars make the competition that drove the cable car from all except the precipitate routes is now engaged in length of service.

There are about 27 miles of cable car tracks in San Francisco, with a maximum grade of 31 per cent.

A. S. Hallidie, inventor of the "cable grip" put the first car in operation on Clay street in 1874. This line was absorbed by the company of which Harris is president.

The "cable grip" method of attaching the car to an endless cable, Harris' "cable grip" method of attaching the car to an endless cable, Harris' "cable grip" method of attaching the car to an endless cable.

JUNIORS AND "SOPHS" WIN CLASS CONTESTS

Freshmen Fall Before Bone-crushing Second-Year Men In Opening Fray of Series.

The juniors and sophomores took the opening contests in the interclass basketball tournament last night. The freshmen fell before the bone-crushing sophs in the opening contest in a game that furnished thrills for the crowd. The sophs took an early lead and held it easily in the first half. The second year men led 16 to 3 at the half. The sophs then continued to dominate the second half and held the sophs to five field goals while they garnered five field goals in rapid succession.

The sophomores hit their stride again in the last quarter, however, and put the game on ice with the final count showing 21 to 14. Barrett was high point man for the juniors gathering two field goals, a foul and four free points. Weaver, lanky frosh center was second with two field goals. The frosh work of the frosh was exceptionally good and Barrett displayed nice work in all stages of the game.

Finch Leads Soph Pack

For the sophs, Finch led the pack with seven points and a foul. Martin was second with six points and it was the playing of these two that largely accounted for the second year victory. Nelson, small guard was unable to find the hoop and gathered but one basket.

The senior-junior game was a close contest from the start with the seniors leading during the first half 7 to 4. The seniors converted four of the last five last period and held nine points for themselves. Both teams displayed nice floor work and the game was hot from the start. The seniors were able to locate the ring to better advantage and were more accurate in their shooting.

Brown High Point Man

For the juniors, Brown was high point man with 10 points all from field goals and Alvin Kempton was the center high point man with the remaining three points. The shooting of Brown and the guarding of the center by Kempton were the highlights of the game. Lincoln displayed marked ability at stopping shots under the basket and the centering of the ball going under the basket.

For the seniors, Wood was high with four points, while Weaver, E. Kempton gathered a basket each. The 12-year men were unable to locate the hoop during the first half and the superior guarding of the juniors kept the score low.

The juniors and sophomores will meet Monday night while the seniors take on the frosh. All dope points to one of the prettiest battles of the season between the juniors and sophomores with the juniors holding the edge in floor work. The juniors did the best teamwork on the court last night while the sophs under the hoop passed the best material of any class in the school.

The seniors will tackle the frosh Monday night and dope points to the elimination of the yearlings. However, it may develop into a game for the first year men have plenty of fight and the seniors may have their hands full. Eugene Ostrander is the tournament referee.

NINIRODS OF SECTION MEET IN TWIN FALLS

Sportsmen of Surrounding Towns Expected to Attend Second Turkey Shoot of Year

Ninirods from Declo, Shoshone, Jerome and Burley will attend the second turkey shoot of the season for the field Sunday at the Twin Falls Rod and Gun club grounds north of town. The success of the great staged last Sunday led club officials to announce a bigger shoot for tomorrow. One hundred turkeys, unlimited Christmas tree corks and green will be offered for skill of the gunners.

Another big gobble event will be on the program for the smooth bore artists. Last Sunday E. M. Sweeley was forced to break 49 out of 80 blue turkeys. "Competition is 'keet' in this event and many entries are expected. For those who prefer rifle events many prizes are offered and, if the weather is favorable, it is expected that many more gunners will be present. In fact, the club officials announce that nothing is barred and invite everyone to come out for the show.

The show starts about 10:30 a. m. and lasts as long as competitors can be found. With reasonable weather it is expected that even a larger crowd will attend tomorrow than did the event last week.

SCHOOL HEAD STARS WHEN TEACHERS MEET ENGINEERS

School Girls Protest Rule on Lisle Hose

OLENOKO, Wyo., Dec. 16 (AP)—Some of the high school girls of Olenok, required by the school board to wear uniforms made of lisle hose that the lisle hose prescribed as a part of the costume irritates their feet, but their parents are unheeded.

The board's ruling is to wear behind its decree ordering that personal taste in dress must give way to uniform. The girls are wearing white, white middle blouse, black hose and shoes, and the rule has taken effect despite the contention that some of the girls that refuse to apply it to feminine teachers as well.

LIVELY LECTURES DEMANDED

CAMBRIDGE, England, Dec. 16.—Undergraduates here, "bored stiff," have started a lively campaign against what is described as the "insipid and uninteresting" nature of the ordinary lecture to which they have to listen. They complain that the majority of the lectures are either audible or unintelligible or both.

"Why," they ask, "cannot at least a few of the more important lecturers take the trouble to learn a little of the art of eloquence or else study the psychology of teaching?"

COOLIDGE COUNSELS SENATE ON TAX CUT

White House Issues Warning to Congress to Apply Brakes to Movements for Reductions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (AP)—A warning to congress to apply the brakes to all moves seeking a reduction of taxes in excess of the treasury recommendation was issued today at the White House. It was disclosed that President Coolidge believes the bill, as passed, just might by the house calling for a reduction yearly of $200,000,000, is unwarranted by the condition of the treasury.

In his opinion the maximum reduction should be $225,000,000, applied as suggested by Secretary Mellon. He is waiting with interest to see the fate of the tax bill in the senate and fully expects that by the time it reaches his desk for approval, the measure will have been brought within what he considers reasonable limits.

Snoot is Champion

Mr. Coolidge's desire to hold tax reduction to $225,000,000, already has rounded up a champion in the senate in Chairman Snoot, of the finance committee, who announced today that he will make every effort to cut down the figure approved by the house. Senator Simmons, North Carolina, ranking democrat on the committee, declared simultaneously, however, without committing himself to any definite program, that he believes a reduction of $400,000,000 feasible.

Representative Tilson, the republican house leader, who was a White House caller today, declared he would not be surprised if Mr. Coolidge sent back a bill calling for a reduction of taxes materially above $225,000,000.

Wool World Reduction Down

The president is represented as being particularly eager to hold down the total reduction because there is no certainty as to what the future has in store.

Meanwhile as treasury estimates fix the surplus for the current fiscal year at $250,000,000, which $100,000,000 will be non-recurring, he estimates that a tax reduction of $225,000,000 is adequate and safe.

Fascists Clap Locks On Dishonest Shops

TURIN, Italy, Dec. 16 (AP)—Sale of goods which are not up to standard is particularly odious to the fascists and severe punishment under the fascist regime.

"Pines are not imposed. The shop or store owner who is not up to standard is not to be excused. And there is no recourse for the proprietor but to wait until he can re-open.

Recently the postels of Turin had the milk store of Maria Pellizzone padlocked for three months because she had sold milk that was not up to standard. At the time the postel of Attilio Ferrari was closed for 15 days because the sanitary inspector charged that he used a deleterious substance in his baking.

Jests of Gridiron Banqueters Aimed at White House Aspirants

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (AP)—With a quorum of presidential possibilities present at the only restaurant "trashed," the Gridiron club turned to the varieties of presidential politics tonight for ammunition for fun-making at its semi-annual dinner.

Impermeated by Washington correspondents who are members of the club, the White House aspirants saw themselves in the limelight. A selection before the diners, said then in the flesh were given some advice by a former presidential nominee, John W. Davis. Under the traditional rule of the club, the speeches were not for publication.

The dinner celebrated the beginning of the club's forty-third year. Guests included Vice-President Davis, members of the cabinet and of congress, and many prominent figures in national life. Among guests who qualified as presidential possibilities, besides General Davis, were Secretary Hoover, Frank O. Lowden, Senator Curtis, Edwin T. Meredith, Governor Ritchie, Senator Willis and Senator Reed of Missouri, and Senator Charles Linderborg, Commander Richard Byrd, and Lieutenant Lester Mallory.

As a part of the evening's diversion Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, recently relieved as commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard, was introduced into the President's presence.

"Papa Spank him," and Senator Curtis as the only presence "trashed," to announce his intention, formerly was presented with a bare medal.

More or less musical variety, "Julius Caesar" and "The Merry Widow" were the only musical events during which "Secretary" Bull Haddock was mentioned. The club members were naturally amused by the fact that the club had been "up in the air" most of the time for the past 30 years. It developed that she was planning a hop to the White House in a patched-up plane christened "The Spirit of Disaster."

The club also found a funny side to Mayor Thompson's crusade against "Pro-British" libraries in Chicago. Miss Aggie Colquhoun was depicted as a desperately ailing patient surrounded by a quarring group of specialists identified as Dr. Brewster McNary, Borah, Jardine and Capper.

E. W. Gableman, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was initiated into membership of the club in a skit in which he played the part of a Fall-Sternite juror, shadowed by a Buns detective.

Republicans Meet in Kansas Where Bryan Won in 1900

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 16 (AP)—In a hall which the city hurried to completion in 1900 to house the democratic gathering which nominated William Jennings Bryan, Kansas City will be host next June to the national convention of the republican party.

Members of the republican party met to select its choices for president and vice president of the United States at the convention hall, to which thousands of delegates and visitors will flock on June 12, 1928, for the quadrennial gathering of the grand old party, some 15,000 persons, and it has been the scene of only one national political convention—that at which Bryan won 37 years ago, his second presidential nomination.

The edifice was constructed purposefully for that gathering. The democrats had chosen Kansas City as their meeting place when, 90 days before convention time, the old convention hall was destroyed by fire.

While the building was still in flames business men began to raise money for a new one. The ground was cleared and the new hall was put up in less than three months. It was dedicated on July 4, the day on which the democrats opened their convention in it.

Since the democrats met there the hall has been entirely remodelled, and it rivals in size and facilities most of those in which the republicans have met in years past.

Mayor Albert I. Beach will be the official host to the republicans, and he has promised the party that his city will extend to it every hospitality. Hotel space is ample, it is declared to house the guests. At ten of the largest hotels the last four republican presidents—Roosevelt, Taft, Harding and Coolidge—have been guests.

Henry J. Allen, former governor of the neighboring state of Kansas, declares that the convening of the party in Kansas City will stimulate party enthusiasm throughout the agricultural states and of the middle west. This and the central location of the city and county of San Francisco are important factors in its choice by the republican national committee from a clinic which included San Francisco, Detroit, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Antonio and other cities.

FRISCO WANTS BRIDGE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (AP)—A bill to bridge San Francisco bay was introduced today by Senator Johnson, republican, California. The structure would extend from Rialto hill in the city and county of San Francisco to a point near the south mole of San Antonio estuary in the county of Alameda.

The measure was referred to the commerce committee and Senator Johnson expects to ask for early action upon it.

MUSIC INFURIATES RHINOCEROS; CROCODILES THINK IT'S GREAT

LONDON, Dec. 16 (AP)—A rhinoceros at the London zoo refused to listen to Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata, but a cheetah gave adoring ear to the musical comedy melody, "I Want to Be Happy."

Prof. G. J. Boulenger, director of the aquarium of the Zoological Society, tells in a document on "Animal Mysteries" the story of experiments among the inmates of the zoo with an orchestra of two violins, oboe, flute and mouth organ.

The rhinoceros was found to have no ear for music, and attempted to charge the orchestra no matter what tune was played," he writes. "The Moonlight Sonata" and "Tea for Two" alike aroused his ire.

The lion, however, were delighted with everything but before them with the exception of jazz. Most of the melodies that had accompanied the rhino delighted them, and they remained standing whilst the inmates of the zoo with an orchestra of two violins, oboe, flute and mouth organ.

"Wolves and jackals responded all too readily to the music offered. A tune set in a minor key at once caused them to poke their noses to the sky and give voice in low wailing notes in a manner as to drown the orchestra. The minor key had a depressing effect on most of the animals. The cheetah thoroughly enjoyed 'I Want to Be Happy,' but registered discontent and even alarm when favored with Gounod's 'Funeral March.'" and in the insect house the scorpions and some spiders were attracted. None of the birds, however, cared for the music, and some were obviously annoyed, Professor Boulenger says.

When the musicians played in the reptile house the crocodiles always came hurrying to the surface, clustering on the banks with upraised heads.

Animal songs which strike the human heart as mere noises may tear the heart strings of the animals which emit them, Boulenger concludes, and the howls of a toment or the screeches of a barn owl probably are beautiful to "specialized audiences."

Calmette's Vaccine Pronounced Successful

PARIS, Dec. 16 (AP)—Remarkably good results from the anti-tubercular vaccination of children are announced in connection with a recent election of Doctor Albert Calmette to the Academy of Sciences. Dr. Calmette is second in command at the Pasteur institute and developed the vaccine.

Mortality in 30,000 cases, it is stated, was reduced to 1 per cent from 24 per cent. These were all cases of children exposed to tuberculosis. The vaccine, called "B. C. G.," is made by cultivating tubercular bacilli in which transforms it from a virulent into an immunizing agent.

Jud Tunkins says the value of an education depends on whether a man uses it to increase his working capacity or only just to project around for a 'laid' job.

TULANE EXPEDITION SEEKS LOST CITIES FOR MAYA SECRETS

Expedition of University Will Leave on Eight-Month Ex- ploration in Search of Data on Civilization of Ages Ago.

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—In search of data on a civilization that thrived 3000 years before the birth of Christ, an expedition of Tulane university will leave here this month on an eight-month exploration of the Mayan country of southern Mexico.

Professor Franz Blom, archaeologist of the department of Middle American research, will be accompanied only by Webster McBride and Louis Brantlow, two students, and native guides into regions where the tribes are reported fierce and resentful of intruders.

The Mayans not only cultivated their lands and built great cities, but were leaders in the arts of sculpture and painting, Professor Blom says. There was the first mathematically correct calendar in use.

Covering thousands of miles, the Tzucules forests have never been fully traversed by explorers. It is there that the expedition expects to make discoveries of incalculable value in tracing the history of the Mayans, who are believed to have come from Alaska from Asia and then gradually fought their way down through the present United States into Mexico and Central America.

In those forests are to be found the Lacandon Indians, who still worship sun and rain gods and indicate their bows and flint-headed arrows. They are of a warlike nature. Women of the forests wear clothes made from the bark of trees.

Huge temples, built of squared cut blocks of stone, have withstood the ravages of passing ages and indicate they were the work of master architects, says Professor Blom. Erected at places that offer travelers the danger of the sun and rain gods, the temples as a rule are at the summit of steep lands and in many instances almost inaccessible due to centuries of jungle growth.

BOOTLEGGERS' PURSES TAPPED BY JUDGES

Entries in red ink will appear in the immediate future on the credit side of the ledgers of five Twin Falls county bootleggers following their arraignments in local courts yesterday.

E. Barfus, J. P. Ellis and Barney Ellis, arrested by the sheriff's force for operating a still in Enger Canyon, about seven miles southeast of Rogerson, were arraigned before Probate Judge C. A. Bailey yesterday and entered pleas of guilty. They were sentenced to serve 90 days each in the county jail and to pay fines of $100 each.

Officers stated that the still which was operated by the trio was the largest ever taken in this county. The still had a capacity of 20 gallons of liquor per hour and the nine mash vats had a capacity of 1800 gallons. The entire equipment of the still house, and about 1500 gallons of mash were destroyed by the raiding party. The first and only 10 gallons of liquor turned out of the still was brought in by the officers as evidence.

Magistrate Gelsa Fair, Magistrate W. E. Mallory sentenced V. D. Stoddard to 90 days in the county jail and levied a fine of $100 on the charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor. Stoddard was arrested by police Thursday night in an alley between Second and Third avenue south. He told officers that bootlegging was not his usual way of earning a livelihood but that he could not resist the temptation to collect a little pin money when he saw another man cache five gallons of "moon." He had a "short" gallon of the joy-instilling liquid left when the officers apprehended him.

O. P. Cordrey, arrested a few hours earlier than Stoddard in his rooms at a local hotel, was also fined $100 and given a 60-day jail sentence by Magistrate Mallory yesterday. Cordrey had managed to dispose of certain small quantities of liquor about the city although his following had not yet reached the flood stage due to his short residence in Twin Falls, police stated.

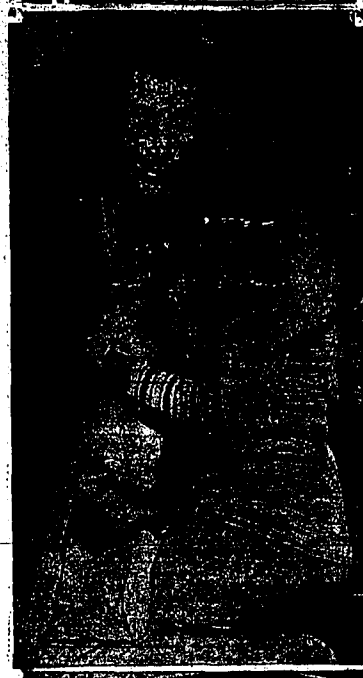

C. E. Talmadge, arrested on a charge of intoxication, was assessed $50 yesterday by Police Judge H. D. Head.

Frank "Pancake" Turner was released upon the posting of a $300 bond in police court. Turner and Turner were arrested in a police raid upon his residence at the rear of 850 Main avenue west Wednesday evening. In an attempt to destroy evidence, a fire was thrown into the stove which exploded, spreading flames of a hue too vividly blue to have been caused by kerosene or gasoline, police believe, throughout the entire room.

Spring Water for City

Royal spring, at Georgetown, Ky., said to be one of the largest of its kind in the world, was named in 1775. The water bursts from a high bluff of limestone rock, flows through the west end of the town and empties into the Elkhorn river, nearly a mile from its source. Georgetown, now with a population of about 6,000, gets its entire water supply from this spring and has done so for many years. At one time a woolen mill, a grist mill and several other establishments were operated by water power supplied by this spring.—Kansas City Star.

"Ideal Schedule" for Five-Year-Old Embodied in Plan by College Group

CHICAGO, Dec. 16 (AP)—The perfect five-year-old child should be 41.7 inches tall, weigh 41.2 pounds and measure 22 1/2 inches across the chest, says the National Kindergarten and Elementary colleges.

Miss Edna Dean Baker, president of the institution, has published the results of a survey of the average five-year-old and announced a "perfect schedule" for a child of that age. His rising time is set at 8:45 a. m. and the immediate routine is: Wash face and hands, brush teeth, take a drink of water and dress. At 7:15 he should be ready for breakfast. Breakfast is over at 7:45 and he washes his hands, brushes his teeth again and gets ready for kindergarten. He leaves for kindergarten at 8:45.

Home again at 11:45 a. m. for lunch, which is his big meal of the day. After lunch comes an hour's nap, and when he awakens he dresses himself, takes a drink of water and goes for an out-door romp.

At 4:15 p. m. he comes in, hears stories read to him by mother and eats a light dinner at 6 p. m. An hour's play follows dinner and bedtime preparations start at 7:30. Put a warm bath, followed by a splash of cooler water, then teeth brushing and in and bed at 8 p. m.

LYOYD GEORGE FAVORS MINISTERS' PENSIONS

LONDON, Dec. 17 (AP)—David Lloyd George, former prime minister, and perhaps the best known Baptist in Great Britain, believes in pensions for aged ministers.

At a great Baptist meeting in support of the Baptist Ministers' Superannuation Fund, he said, "How can they save on an income which is not one-third of the cost of keeping an automobile?"

Mr. Lloyd George said he remembered "being the only Baptist in the village smithy," which was the local parliament. It was good training in moral courage, and the minister who spent their lives in serving small churches ought to be sustained in their declining years, he said.

"Baptists cling tenaciously to the past and look boldly to the future," he said. "Baptists are both fundamentalists and evolutionists, and that is rather difficult in these days when bishops are brandishing croziers at each other over the pedigree of man."

Enforcing his appeal for ministers' pensions, Lloyd George gave an illustration of old-age pensions in connection with his Premiership. During a stormy period of the war the British parliament was reminded that the old-age pension in Britain for a man and wife over 70 was only ten shillings weekly.

The debate occurred on the eve of

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Hosted by Mrs. Frank Williams Friday 8:30

Members of the Blue Lake Southward club were business at their husbands at a Christmas party at the cozy home of Mrs. R. G. Davies on Falls avenue Friday. Members of the club had guests numbering 21, enjoyed a children's dinner served in coterie style. The centerpiece for the table was a decorated cake made by Mrs. Cecil Peery giving Christmas greetings from the club to the guests. The guests won record as favoring more than 200 husbands' day during the year. A musical program arranged by the music committee, opened with a song "America, the Beautiful," by the assemblage. Words of greeting were given by the club president, Mrs. B. F. Ratcliffe, and response given by J. L. Hodges. Community singing of Christmas songs was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. J. L. Hodges and violin solo by Albert E. Francis. Mrs. Albert E. Francis was piano accompanist for all the musical numbers. A feminine Santa Claus, Mrs. R. C. Work, from the club sang music number 21, and boy with a gift. The women then exchanged pretty and useful gifts. The program closed with a piano solo by Maynard Davis. Decorations were in harmony with the holiday season.

Mrs. Eliza Woodhead entertained the War Mothers chapter at her home on Second avenue west Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Ross, Mrs. Ella Kerr and Mrs. E. Rowcliffe assistant hostesses. The regular routine of business was transacted with Mrs. W. D. Reynolds in the chair. He quota of $5 was voted toward the Americanization school. Arrangements were made to send the annual Christmas cheer to the boys in the Veterans' hospital at Boise. A grab bag was brought out for the exchange of gifts which caused a great deal of merriment. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Ross Nelson was hostess at the 7. S. club on Fourth avenue north, Needlework and conversation passed the hours pleasantly and the club discussed plans for the annual party, next Wednesday. The party was served at the close of the afternoon to the eight club members present.

Mrs. E. B. Sprague's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Frank Brown on Kimberly road, Friday afternoon. They made baskets for the Sunday school Christmas tree. Each year the class performs this pleasant duty as the contribution to the activities of the holiday. At the conclusion of the afternoon refreshments were served.

The Catholic Women's league met Thursday evening at the church. After the business session, with the president, Mrs. Frank Wagner, in the chair, plans were made for Christmas baskets for needy families and for a tree for the children of St. Edwards, parochial school. A program on "Health" followed. Dr. W. F. Passer talked on "The Care of the Children's Health." Dr. H. B. Lamb read an instructive paper on "How to Keep Well," and Dr. F. P. McAtee talked on the care of the teeth from infancy to old age. Musical numbers included two violin solos by Alfred Fletcher, accompanied by Miss Greta Ritchie; two vocal solos, "Susanna and You," and "In the Garden of Tomorrow," by Miss Mary P. Owens, and a piano solo, "Lester March," composed and played by Mrs. A. Gilbert.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Silver on Wednesday the Morningstar club gave a luncheon and Christmas program complimentary to their husbands. The tables were most attractive with their tiny Christmas trees, lighted "red" candles and favors in keeping with the holiday season, which the ladies decorated with equally joyful Christmas readings, vocal and instrumental selections and a community sing round. A brief business session it was planned to contribute food, clothing and fruit to the local charitable organizations for Christmas distribution. Mrs. A. Hansen and Mrs. Glenn Schneider were guests of the club. Mrs. Vernon Carlson and Miss Virginia Kline will entertain the club at their next meeting, which will be on January 4.

Mrs. Harry Smock, president of the Scribner club, was hostess to the organization Thursday evening at her home on Sixth avenue east and presided at the business session. The club meeting will be held on Friday during the holiday season. Miss Katherine Bryson continued her review of the Morningstar club members. Mrs. D. Harvey Cook read a group of poems. ## Sun, Moon and Stars

The sun lights this world from without, shines in at a window, but the moon is like a lamp within an apartment. It shines for us. The stars themselves make a more visible, and hence a nearer and more domestic, roof at night. Nature broods us and has set her germs of thought to be hatched by the sun. We feel her heat and see her body darkening over us. Our thoughts are not dissipated but come back to us like an echo.—Thoreau.

MUSSOLINI, THE LION-HEARTED--

PEOPLE in Italy began to whisper: "Mussolini's enemies are too strong for him. He will surely be destroyed."

But enemies did not daunt Mussolini. And to show the Italian people that he had courage and to spare, he strolled into the lion's cage at the Zoo in Rome and had himself photographed patting one of the lions on the head.

The advertisement succeeded. All Italy exclaimed: "Let Mussolini's enemies beware. He has the heart of a lion."

Mussolini was able to advertise his courage in this way only because he had courage. That is the basis of all advertising. Anyone who advertisers must have goods that will stand inspection.

Pronounced Action in Market for Corn

Jump in Export Demand Indicates Europe Is Trying to Make Purchases in America.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16 (AP)—Pronounced strength developed in the corn market today, and early setbacks in prices were followed by substantial gains.

Active general buying of corn futures delivered against today at the market had receded under brisk selling, that was associated with sub-zero temperatures in Iowa.

Increasing evidence of export demand for corn became apparent as bids were stepped up about 1c, the Chicago May price being obtainable for corn at the Gulf of Mexico free on board ship.

Provisions were easy as a result of scattered selling.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16 (AP)—Resumption of the upward price movement in stocks carried the average of 20 leading industrial issues to a new high record for all time.

RESERVOIR DISTRICT TAX DELINQUENCIES WILL BE PROTECTED

Board of Directors and American Falls District Body Consider Means of Proceeding Under Real Estate Law.

The problem of protecting the legal assets of the American Falls reservoir district in the sale of lands to be conducted at the court house Monday was discussed Friday afternoon at a joint meeting of the board of county commissioners and the board of directors of the reservoir district. The advice of County Attorney C. W. Witham and Judge James R. Bothwell who represents the district as to the proper course to be taken with that issuance of a deed be made contingent on payment of the reservoir district assessment.

The 1927 legislature enacted a statute "regulating the sale and leasing of property belonging to a county," which failed to take into account the existence of the reservoir district and the statute providing for its creation. It provides that when a county or district has been acquired by tax-deed "the proceeds of such sale shall be prorated to the taxing districts in which the property is situated in proportion to the amount of each tax for the year of delinquency upon which the tax deed was issued to the county."

The American Falls district is left out of any such prorated share of the total sale cost and the sale for the 1921-1922 tax payments and the district did not come into existence until the following year. The law provides that "any such sale made by the board of county commissioners of property acquired through tax delinquency is subject to the provisions of this section, vest in the purchaser all of the right, title and interest of county in the property sold, including all delinquent taxes which have become a lien on the property since the date of the tax sale cost and interest which any tax deed has been issued."

In other words since all American Falls district taxes which have become delinquent and have become a lien on the property against which they have been assessed, have been levied since 1922, the technical wording of the statute would seem to wipe them out without recourse whenever a deed is made out and delivered as result of the sale provided by this law.

Amount Not Large The amounts owed to the American Falls district by reason of delinquent taxes are not large, any can be as they amount to about 50 cents an acre per annum at the present time, and the total for the city or town, where most delinquencies occur, amounts to very little. However, the aggregate amounts to considerable for the district. It is contended that the district is placed by Idaho statute on parity with the state and county as to any body and that arbitrary limitation of its liens would subject the law to attack on constitutional grounds.

Since the statute provides that "the board of county commissioners shall have authority to cancel any contract of the reservoir district which fails to comply with any of the terms of contract," it is contended that the board may cancel any deed which the amount due and reservoir district has been paid, provided that this statement is given out before offering each parcel such a deed. The reservoir district office is getting up a list of taxes assessed against each delinquent parcel and will have it on hand when the sale begins should the plan suggested be adopted by the board.

Precedent in Gooding At its last session the Gooding county commissioners, after consideration and legal consultation, determined to adopt the course recommended here, and while only a few pieces of real estate were involved, it is said to have worked with entire success.

DEATHS ALAN Alfred Aun, 68, died at the county general hospital at 7 o'clock Friday morning. The body was taken to the Grossman funeral parlors pending funeral arrangements. Funeral officials state that death was caused by an attack of pneumonia.

ANDERSON—Miss Nellie Anderson, aged 22 years, daughter of Mrs. Eliza Anderson of Kimberly, died at the Twin Falls county hospital Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The body lies at the Drake funeral parlors pending funeral arrangements.

DISPUTE OVER RENTS RESULTS IN LAWSUIT

Suit was instituted in district court here yesterday, by Elmer South against C. H. Harrington for the sum of $494.00, on three counts arising out of the relation of landlord and tenant. South claims that he rented certain lands on shares from C. H. Harrington for the year of 1927 and that in the course of their business they sold beans, for which a check was given to them jointly in which the plaintiff has an interest amounting to $256.75. He alleges that defendant refused to endorse the check. He says that plaintiff owes $68.75 on threshing expenses and that through mistake of defendant character of five acres of rocky ground he planted corn thereon and sustained a loss of $102.50. Both parties to the suit live near Filer.

The complaint was filed by Porter and Taylor, attorneys.

CIVIL CASES OCCUPY ATTENTION OF COURT

Civil cases still occupied the attention of the district court Friday. Taking of testimony in the case of I. W. Reed against P. W. Welch was finished and will be argued later. The case of J. E. Roberts, trustee for the Oregon Electric Railway and Light Corporation, against George Hudson, on a promissory note was called. Both Welch and Hudson represent the plaintiff. The case was argued by W. D. Gillis, got a divorce from Herbert M. Lee on a complaint charging cruelty and non-support, and Elsie Foss, represented by North and Agnew, was divorced from Freeman C. Foss on a complaint charging cruelty.

STUDENT HEALTH CHARTS FORM BASIS FOR COURSE

In an effort to determine the cause of failure or poor work in school, Twin Falls high school authorities distributed health charts, during the school year yesterday. Students are asked to cooperate in the endeavor by grading themselves upon each of the points listed on the chart. The reports made by the students will be used by the school authorities in planning hygiene and health courses which will be offered next semester.

The health chart lists 40 points listed under the following eight headings: Posture, food, exercise, cleanliness, home environment, relaxation and rest, regularity, and cooperation. A possible perfect score of 100 can be made.

CLUB GIRLS HOLD CANDY SALE FOR CAMP BENEFIT

Proceeds from a candy sale in the corridors of the high school yesterday amounted to $6.45 which was turned in to the Girl Reserves' camp fund by the sponsors of the sale, the Blue Triangle girls. The only under-the-table feature of the sale, according to the club's members and to the students, was that the supply failed utterly to equal the demand.

Mystery of Widespread Disease Solved by Government Worker

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Of all the diseases which afflict the human system, only one is 100 per cent American, in the sense that its discovery and analysis have been completed within the United States: Tularemia, or rabbit fever, is the disease and Dr. Edward Francis of the United States Public Health Service is the man chiefly responsible for its identification. His work has progressed to the point where the next step to be expected is the development of a serum for control of the disease. Being a relentless man, it can only be assumed that he is moving toward that achievement.

The disease gets its name from Tulare county Cal., where, in 1912, Dr. G. W. McCoy, now director of the hygienic laboratory of the public health service, was examining the carcasses of rats. One had the symptoms of bubonic plague but, when further tested, proved not to have been so infected.

This bacteriological mystery remained unsolved for several years. In 1915, however, at the request of health authorities of Utah and other western states, Dr. Francis was detailed to make a systematic study of rabbit fever, which was prevalent in that section. He spent five or six months in the field and then returned to his laboratory. He soon fell victim to his germ, an unpleasant experience which has overtaken virtually all bacteriologists who have worked on the subject.

After patient, tedious investigation, Dr. Francis was able to show that the human cases he had studied had been communicated by contact with uncooked rabbits infected with the disease, and that it appeared in a number of animals besides the rabbit. It was found to be communicated by wood ticks, flies, rabbit lice, bedbugs and other animal parasites.

Physicians in all parts of the United States and in Europe and Asia soon were seeking information about the disease and submitting blood specimens from baffling cases for diagnosis. They disclosed the virtually universal spread of the disease, and affirming its generally disabling effect on victims, continuing in some cases as long as a year.
